

Corporate Profile

eSun Holdings Limited, formerly known as Lai Sun Hotels International Limited, was listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange in November 1996 when it became the holding company for the hotel interests of the Lai Sun Group after a reorganisation by way of a scheme of arrangement. In June 2000, a reorganisation of the business focus of the Company and another Lai Sun Group company took place. The Company transformed into a technology-oriented company focusing on the development and operation of, and investment in, telecommunications, media, entertainment and other related businesses, through Internet and other electronic means. The name of the Company was also changed in July 2000 to reflect this new business direction.

* Listed on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange