

Corporate Mission

China Agrotech Holdings Limited aims at becoming the largest production base of bio-agricultural resources products in the Mainland China and establishing a nationwide agricultural resources circulation network, thus providing a vertical agriculture solution to the huge agricultural resources market in the Mainland China

Events in 2002

14 January 2002

Listed on the main board of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange") by way of introduction, being the first company to switch its listing status from GEM to main board of the Stock Exchange.

January-June 2002

Agricultural resources distribution business expanded to Jiangxi, Shanxi, Hunan and Jiangsu provinces

June 2002

Launched a new plant growth regulator ("PGR") product - PGR for corn. Number of PGR production lines increased to nine.

August 2002

Acquisition of intellectual property rights in respect of a highly effective biological pesticide (called BtA) developed by the Biotechnology Research Centre of the Fujian Agricultural School

2002