

Year at a Glance

January - March

Gas-fired generation increases to 33% of total output at Lamma Power Station.

Employee Wellness Programme promotes work-life balance.

RPCL in Thailand continues to contribute to the Energy Development Fund for the social and human development of the provincial government.

Lamma Winds generates four million units of green electricity since commissioning.

Five more self-learning centres join the University of Third Age (U3A) Programme as it enters into the 5th year.

April - June

Environmental Impact Assessment of Lamma offshore wind farm project approved. On-site wind monitoring will be carried out to facilitate detailed planning.

Wellington Electricity in conjunction with the Electrical Engineers Association of New Zealand participates in a pilot programme to improve safety leadership and behavioural-based workplace safety culture.

Establishes CSR Committee to drive and coordinate company efforts on corporate social responsibility.

Significant reduction of sulphur dioxide, nitrogen oxides and particulates at Lamma Power Station as emission reduction programme completes.

Desulphurisation plant to No. 1 boiler at Siping Cogen Power Plant passes provincial government's acceptance test.

Acquires a 25% stake in Seabank Power Limited in the UK which owns and operates two combined-cycle gas-fired units totaling about 1,140MW.

July - September

Yunnan Dali Wind Farm secures registration of Clean Development Mechanism credits following the same for Hebei Laoting Wind Farm earlier.

CitiPower and Powercor exceed all Government Advanced Meter deployment targets four months ahead of schedule.

"CAREnival for the Elderly" appoints 300 elderly ambassadors to help identify hidden elders in the community.

Secondary student programme attracts young talents to take up engineering discipline in university study.

E-bills promotion campaign to encourage a low carbon lifestyle.

Commissions Hong Kong's largest solar power system at Lamma Power Station. The system comprises 5,500 thin-film photovoltaic modules each with peak output of 100 watt.

October - December

Price Review for ETSA, CitiPower and Powercor (2011 – 2015) completes with an increase in approved net capital expenditure over the last 5-year period.

Launches the first quick charging station and an electric vehicle leasing scheme following the introduction of ten Mitsubishi iMiEV electric vehicles to the company fleet.

Acquires a 40% interest in UK's largest power distributor – UK Power Networks, which comprises three regional networks and provides nearly a quarter of the electrical power in the UK.

Sale contract for the Clean Development Mechanism credits of Laoting and Dali secured.

Over 1,200 employees and families join in HK Electric Family Day.

HK Electric Clean Energy Fund extends sponsorship to 12 schools in RE projects promotion.