

Year at a Glance

January - March

Increases stake in Meridian Cogeneration Plant from 25% to 100% with Cheung Kong Infrastructure.

April - June

UK Power Networks commences final phase of infrastructure work for Olympic Park and athletes' village in London.

Launches HK Electric Low Carbon App to encourage the public to embrace a low carbon lifestyle.

Wins "Total Caring Award" for achievements in corporate social responsibility.

Extraordinary General Meeting approves change of company name to Power Assets Holdings Limited to reflect strategic focus.

Participates in HOFEX 2011 to promote applications of electric kitchen equipment for catering industry.

Powercor tackles flood challenges in eastern Australia by fortifying key electrical infrastructures to minimise impact on supply.

Opens Smart Power Centre to provide advice on safe and smart use of electricity.

Forms Stakeholder Liaison Group to solicit views and suggestions from various stakeholders on the offshore wind farm project.

Publishes first sustainability report prepared in accordance with the internationally recognised Global Reporting Initiative's Third Generation Guidelines "A+" Application Level.

July - September

Sponsors 500 fishing vessels and maricultural rafts to install micro-solar panels to promote the use of renewable energy.

October - December

Tops the list of 15 Hong Kong companies in the Carbon Disclosure Project for carbon reduction and public disclosure performance in 2010.

CitiPower commissions Southbank zone substation which enhances Citipower's supply capacity.

ETSA completes construction of link into central business district of Adelaide.

Builds wind monitoring station at offshore wind farm site to collect wind data.

HK Electric Clean Energy Fund extends coverage to kindergartens for renewable energy projects.

Conducts Employee Engagement Survey which attracts 97% response rate.

Northern Gas adds 1,700 household connections under a fuel poverty alleviation scheme.

Laotung Wind Farm accredited with the prestigious 2011 China Electric Power Quality Engineering Award.

Over 150 managers and supervisors take part in a series of "Preparing for the Future Workshop" which prepares participants for future challenges and market changes.

