A. SUMMARY OF WAIVERS

The following waivers and exemptions have been applied for and granted by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange (the “HKEx”) and/or the Securities and Futures Commission (the “SFC”).

1. WAIVER IN RELATION TO NON-EXEMPT CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

Certain members of the Group have entered into certain transactions which will constitute non-exempt continuing connected transactions of the Company under the Listing Rules following the Listing. The Company has applied for, and the Stock Exchange has granted, a waiver from strict compliance with the announcement and independent shareholders’ approval requirements in relation to the non-exempt continuing connected transactions under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules. See the section headed “Connected Transactions — Waiver Application for Non-exempt Continuing Connected Transactions” in the Prospectus.

2. WAIVER IN RELATION TO MANAGEMENT PRESENCE IN HONG KONG

The Group’s headquarters and principal place of business are located in Singapore. All of the Executive Directors and the senior management team are located in Singapore and they manage the Group’s business operations from Singapore. Accordingly, the Company does not have, and for the foreseeable future will not have, sufficient management presence in Hong Kong for the purpose of satisfying the management presence requirement under Rule 8.12 of the Listing Rules.

The Company has applied for, and the Stock Exchange has granted, a waiver from strict compliance with the requirement for management presence in Hong Kong under Rule 8.12 of the Listing Rules, subject to the Company adopting the following arrangements to maintain regular communications with the Stock Exchange:

- (a) the Company has appointed Robert James Martin and Jonathan Mahony as its authorised representatives for the purpose of Rule 3.05 of the Listing Rules, who will act as the Company’s principal channel of communication with the Stock Exchange. As and when the Stock Exchange wishes to contact the Directors on any matters, each of these authorised representatives will have the means to contact all of the Directors promptly at all times;
- (b) the Company has provided the Stock Exchange with the contact details of each Director (including their respective mobile phone number, office phone number, fax number and email address) to facilitate communication with the Stock Exchange;
- (c) each Director who is not ordinarily resident in Hong Kong possesses or is able to apply for valid travel documents to visit Hong Kong and is able to meet with the Stock Exchange within a reasonable period; and
- (d) the Company has appointed Somerley Capital Limited as its compliance adviser in compliance with Rule 3A.19 of the Listing Rules, who will act as an additional channel of communication with the Stock Exchange.

3. WAIVER IN RELATION TO THE AIRCRAFT PURCHASE MANDATE

We have applied to the Stock Exchange for, and the Stock Exchange has granted, a waiver from strict compliance with the circular requirements of Rules 14.38A, 14.40, 14.48 and 14.49 of the Listing Rules in relation to new aircraft purchase transactions entered into by the Company with the aircraft manufacturers pursuant to the Aircraft Purchase Mandate.

4. ALLOCATION OF SHARES TO CORNERSTONE INVESTORS WHO ARE CONNECTED WITH CENTRAL HUIJIN

Rule 10.04 of the Listing Rules provides that a person who is an existing shareholder of the issuer may only subscribe for or purchase any securities for which listing is sought which are marketed by or on behalf of a new applicant either in his or its own name or through nominees if the conditions in Rules 10.03(1) and (2) are fulfilled.

Paragraph 5(2) of Appendix 6 to the Listing Rules (“Appendix 6”) provides that, without the prior written consent of the Stock Exchange, no allocations will be permitted to directors or existing shareholders of the applicant or their close associates (as such term is defined in the Listing Rules), whether in their own names or through nominees unless the conditions set out in Rules 10.03 and 10.04 are fulfilled.

Paragraph 5(1) of Appendix 6 states that without the prior written consent of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, no allocations will be permitted to “connected clients” of the lead broker or of any distributors. Paragraph 13(3) and 13(7) of Appendix 6 states that “connected clients” in relation to an exchange participant means any person who is a substantial shareholder of the exchange participant and any client who is a company which is a member of the same group of companies as such exchange participant, respectively.

Beijing Hanguang (being a wholly owned subsidiary of CIC which in turn is the wholly owned parent of Central Huijin) and CDBI (being a wholly owned subsidiary of CDB, in respect of which Central Huijin indirectly controls 30% or more of the issued shares) are close associates of Central Huijin, which is an indirect existing shareholder of the Company.

Central Huijin also indirectly controls 30% or more of the issued shares of wholly-owned parent companies of BOCI and China Securities (International) Corporate Finance Company Limited. As a result, Beijing Hanguang and CDBI are connected clients of BOCI and China Securities (International) Corporate Finance Company Limited.

We have applied to the Stock Exchange for, and the Stock Exchange has granted, its waiver under Rule 10.04 of the Listing Rules and its consent under paragraphs 5(1) and 5(2) of Appendix 6 of the Listing Rules to permit Beijing Hanguang and CDBI to participate in the Global Offering as cornerstone investors on the following grounds:

- (a) pursuant to Rule 14A.10 of the Listing Rules, the Stock Exchange will not treat a PRC Governmental Body as our connected person and they will be treated in the same light in the application of Rule 10.04 of the Listing Rules;
- (b) Central Huijin does not have direct participation and influence over the allocation process;
- (c) Beijing Hanguang and CDBI operate independently of Central Huijin. Central Huijin does not engage in any commercial operations of Beijing Hanguang and CDBI, and Beijing Hanguang and CDBI have independent decision making procedures in place regarding their investment and management. The investment decisions made by Beijing Hanguang and CDBI have been arrived at independently of Central Huijin;

- (d) Beijing Hanguang and CDBI have no access to material non-public information regarding the Global Offering and no influence over the allocation process; and
- (e) Beijing Hanguang and CDBI have been invited to participate as cornerstone investors in the same manner as other independent cornerstone investors.

B. SUMMARY OF FOREIGN LAWS AND REGULATIONS

1. SALIENT PROVISIONS OF THE LAWS OF SINGAPORE

The following is a summary of the salient provisions of the laws of Singapore as at the date of this information sheet which are applicable to a Singapore incorporated company. The summary below is for general guidance only and does not constitute legal advice nor should it be used as a substitute for specific legal advice on the corporate laws of Singapore. The summary does not purport to contain all applicable qualifications and exceptions or to be a complete review of all matters of the corporate laws of Singapore, which may differ from equivalent provisions in jurisdictions with which interested parties may be more familiar.

Reporting Obligations of Shareholders

As the shares of the Company (the “Shares”) are not listed for quotation on the official list of a “securities exchange” (as such term is defined under the Securities and Futures Act, Chapter 289 of Singapore (the “Singapore Securities and Futures Act”) and which term does not include the Stock Exchange), the Company is not subject to the provisions of Subdivision (2) of Division 1 to Part VII of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act regulating substantial shareholding reporting obligations.

Prohibited Conduct In Relation to Trading in the Securities of the Company

(a) Prohibitions against false trading and market manipulation — Section 197 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act

Pursuant to Section 197(1) of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act, no person shall do any thing, cause any thing to be done or engage in any course of conduct, if his purpose, or any of his purposes, for doing that thing, causing that thing to be done or engaging in that course of conduct, as the case may be, is to create a false or misleading appearance of (i) active trading in any securities on a securities market; or (ii) with respect to the market for, or the price of, such securities.

In addition, pursuant to Section 197(1A) of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act, no person shall do any thing, cause any thing to be done or engage in any course of conduct that creates, or is likely to create, a false or misleading appearance of active trading in any securities on a securities market, or with respect to the market for, or the price of, such securities, if:

- (1) he knows that doing that thing, causing that thing to be done or engaging in that course of conduct, as the case may be, will create, or will be likely to create, that false or misleading appearance; or
- (2) he is reckless as to whether doing that thing, causing that thing to be done or engaging in that course of conduct, as the case may be, will create, or will be likely to create, that false or misleading appearance.

Pursuant to Section 197(2) of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act, no person shall, by means of any purchase or sale of any securities that do not involve a change in the beneficial ownership of those securities, or by any fictitious transaction or device, maintain, inflate, depress, or cause fluctuations in, the market price of any securities.

Under Section 197(3) of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act, where a person:

- (A) effects, takes part in, is concerned in or carries out, directly or indirectly, any transaction of purchase or sale of any securities, being a transaction that does not involve any change in the beneficial ownership of the securities;
- (B) makes or causes to be made an offer to sell any securities at a specified price where he has made or caused to be made or proposes to make or cause to be made, or knows that a person associated with him has made or caused to be made or proposes to make or to cause to be made, an offer to purchase the same number, or substantially the same number, of securities at a price that is substantially the same as the first-mentioned price; or
- (C) makes or causes to be made an offer to purchase any securities at a specified price where he has made or caused to be made or proposes to make or to cause to be made, or knows that a person associated with him has made or caused to be made or proposes to make or to cause to be made, an offer to sell the same number, or substantially the same number, of securities at a price that is substantially the same as the first-mentioned price, it shall be presumed that his purpose, or one of his purposes, for doing so is to create a false or misleading appearance of active trading in securities on a securities market. Section 197(4) of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act provides that the presumption under Section 197(3) may be rebutted if the defendant establishes that the purpose or purposes for which he did the act was not, or did not include, the purposes of creating a false or misleading appearance of active trading in securities on a securities market.

Section 197(5) of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act provides that a purchase or sale of securities does not involve a change in the beneficial ownership if a person who had an interest in the securities before the purchase or sale, or a person associated with the first-mentioned person in relation to those securities, has an interest in the securities after the purchase or sale.

Section 197(6) of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act provides that in any proceedings against a person for contravention of Section 197(2) in relation to a purchase or sale of securities that did not involve a change in the beneficial ownership of those securities, it is a defence if the defendant establishes that the purpose or purposes for which he purchased or sold the securities was not, or did not include, the purpose of creating a false or misleading appearance with respect to the market for, or the price of, securities.

(b) Prohibition against securities market manipulation — Section 198 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act

Under Section 198(1) of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act, no person shall effect, take part in, be concerned in or carry out directly or indirectly, two or more transactions in securities of a corporation, being transactions that have, or are likely to have, the effect of raising, lowering, maintaining or stabilising the price of the securities of the corporation on a securities market, with intent to induce other persons to subscribe for, purchase or sell securities of the corporation or of a related corporation. Section 198(2) of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act provides that transactions in securities of a corporation includes (i) the making of an offer to purchase or sell such securities of the corporation; and (ii) the making of an invitation, however expressed, that directly or indirectly invites a person to offer to purchase or sell such securities of the corporation.

(c) Prohibition against false or misleading statements — Section 199 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act

Under Section 199 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act, no person shall make a statement, or disseminate information, that is false or misleading in a material particular and is likely (a) to induce other persons to subscribe for securities; (b) to induce the sale or purchase of securities by other persons; or (c) to have the effect of raising, lowering, maintaining, or stabilising the market price of securities, if, when he makes the statement or disseminates the information, (1) he either does not care whether the statement or information is true or false; or (2) he knows or ought reasonably to have known that the statement or information is false or misleading in a material particular.

(d) Prohibition against fraudulently inducing persons to deal in securities — Section 200 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act

Under Section 200(1) of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act, no person shall (a) by making or publishing any statement, promise, or forecast that he knows or ought reasonably to have known to be misleading, false or deceptive; (b) by any dishonest concealment of material facts; (c) by the reckless making or publishing of any statement, promise, or forecast that is misleading, false or deceptive; or (d) by recording or storing in, or by means of, any mechanical, electronic, or other device information that he knows to be false or misleading in a material particular, induce or attempt to induce another person to deal in securities. Section 200(2) of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act states that in any proceedings against a person for a contravention of Section 200(1) of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act constituted by recording or storing information as mentioned in sub-paragraph (d) of Section 200(1) above, it is a defence if it is established that, at the time when the defendant so recorded or stored the information, he had no reasonable grounds for expecting that the information would be available to any other person.

(e) Prohibition against employment of manipulative and deceptive devices — Section 201 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act

Section 201 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act provides that no person shall, directly or indirectly, in connection with the subscription, purchase or sale of any securities (i) employ any device, scheme or artifice to defraud, (ii) engage in any act, practice, or course of business which operates as a fraud or deception, or is likely to operate as a fraud or deception, upon any person, (iii) make any statement he knows to be false in a material particular, or (iv) omit to state a material fact necessary to make statements, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

(f) Prohibition against the dissemination of information about illegal transactions — Section 202 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act

Section 202 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act provides that no person shall circulate or disseminate, or authorise or be concerned in the circulation or dissemination of, any statement or information to the effect that the price of any securities of a corporation will, or is likely, to rise, fall or be maintained by reason of any transaction entered into or to be entered into or other act or thing done or to be done in relation to securities of that corporation, or of a corporation that is related to that corporation, which to his knowledge, was entered into or done in contravention of any of Sections 197 to 201 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act or if entered into or done would be in contravention of any of Sections 197 to 201 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act if (i) the person, or a person associated with the person, has entered into or purports to enter into any such transaction or has done or purports to do any such act or thing; or (ii) the person, or a person associated with the person, has received, or expects to receive, whether directly or indirectly, any consideration or benefit for circulating or disseminating, or authorising or being concerned in the circulation or dissemination of, the information or statements.

Prohibitions Against Insider Trading

(a) Prohibited conduct by connected person in possession of inside information — Section 218 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act

Pursuant to Section 218(1) of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act, where:

- (i) a person who is connected to a corporation possesses information concerning that corporation that is not generally available but, if the information were generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of securities of that corporation; and
- (ii) the connected person knows or ought reasonably to know that:
 - (1) the information is not generally available; and
 - (2) if it were generally available, it might have a material effect on the price or value of those securities of that corporation, amongst others, sub-section (2) of Section 218 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act (as further described below) shall apply.

Pursuant to Section 218(2) of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act, a connected person must not (whether as principal or agent):

- (A) subscribe for, purchase or sell, or enter into an agreement to subscribe for, purchase or sell, any such securities of a corporation to whom he is connected; or
- (B) procure another person to subscribe for, purchase or sell, or to enter into an agreement to subscribe for, purchase or sell, any such securities of a corporation to whom he is connected.

A person is connected to a corporation if:

- (I) he is an officer of that corporation or of a related corporation;
- (II) he is a substantial shareholder in that corporation or in a related corporation;

- (III) he occupies a position that may reasonably be expected to give him access to information of a kind to which Section 218 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act applies by virtue of:
 - (a) any professional or business relationship existing between himself (or his employer or a corporation of which he is an officer) and that corporation or a related corporation; or
 - (b) being an officer of a substantial shareholder in that corporation or in a related corporation.

(b) Prohibited conduct by other persons in possession of inside information — Section 219 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act

Pursuant to Section 219(1) of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act, where:

- (i) a person who is not a connected person referred to in Section 218 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act (referred to in this section as the insider) possesses information that is not generally available but, if the information were generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of securities; and
- (ii) the insider knows that:
 - (1) the information is not generally available; and
 - (2) if it were generally available, it might have a material effect on the price or value of those securities, sub-section (2) of Section 219 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act (as further described below) shall apply.

Pursuant to Section 219(2) of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act, the insider must not (whether as principal or agent):

- (A) subscribe for, purchase or sell, or enter into an agreement to subscribe for, purchase or sell, any such securities; or
- (B) procure another person to subscribe for, purchase or sell, or to enter into an agreement to subscribe for, purchase or sell, any such securities.

Section 220 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act further provides that in any proceedings against a person for a contravention of Section 218 or 219, it is not necessary for the prosecution or plaintiff to prove that the accused person or defendant intended to use the information referred to in sub-paragraph (i) of Section 218(1) or sub-paragraph (i) of Section 219(1) (each as described above) in contravention of Section 218 or 219, as the case may be.

Section 216 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act also provides that a reasonable person would be taken to expect information to have a material effect on the price or value of securities if the information would, or would be likely to, influence persons who commonly invest in securities in deciding whether or not to subscribe for, buy or sell the first-mentioned securities.

Penalties — Sections 232, 204 and 221 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act

Section 232 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act provides whenever it appears to the Monetary Authority of Singapore (the “MAS”) that any person has contravened the provisions relating to prohibited conduct in relation to trading in the securities of the Company and insider trading (as described above), the MAS may, with the consent of the Public Prosecutor, bring an action in a court against him to seek an order for a civil penalty in respect of that contravention. If the court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the person has contravened a provision which resulted in his gaining a profit or avoiding a loss, the court may make an order against him for the payment of a civil penalty of a sum (a) not exceeding three times the amount of the profit that the person gained or the amount of loss that he avoided, as a result of the contravention; or (b) equal to S$50,000 if the person is not a corporation, or S$100,000 if the person is a corporation, whichever is the greater. If the court is satisfied on a balance of probabilities that the person has contravened a provision which did not result in his gaining a profit or avoiding a loss, the court may make an order against him for the payment of a civil penalty of a sum not less than S$50,000 and not more than S$2 million.

Under Section 204 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act, a person who contravenes Sections 197, 198, 199, 200, 201 or 202 shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding S$250,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years or to both. Section 204 further provides that no proceedings shall be instituted against a person for the offence after a court has made an order against him for the payment of a civil penalty under Section 232 in respect of the contravention.

Under Section 221 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act, a person who contravenes Section 218 or 219 shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding S$250,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years or to both. Section 221 further provides that no proceedings shall be instituted against a person for an offence in respect of a contravention of Section 218 or 219 after a court has made an order against him for the payment of a civil penalty under Section 232 in respect of that contravention.

Civil Liability — Section 234 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act

Section 234 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act provides that a person who has contravened any of the provisions relating to prohibited conduct in relation to trading in the securities of the Company and insider trading (as described above) shall, if he had gained a profit or avoided a loss as a result of that contravention, whether or not he had been convicted or had a civil penalty imposed on him in respect of that contravention, be liable to pay compensation to any person who:

- (a) contemporaneously with the contravention, had subscribed for, purchased or sold securities of the same description; and
- (b) had suffered loss by reason of the difference between:
 - (i) the price at which the securities were dealt in or traded contemporaneously with the contravention; and
 - (ii) the price at which the securities would have been likely to have been so dealt in or traded at the time of the contemporaneous dealing or trading if:

- (1) in any case where the contravening person had acted in contravention of Section 218 or 219, the information referred to had been generally available; or
- (2) in any other case, the contravention had not occurred.

Extra-territoriality of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act

Section 339(1) of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act provides that where a person does an act partly in and partly outside Singapore, which, if done wholly in Singapore, would constitute an offence against any provision of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act (which would include the provisions relating to prohibited conduct in relation to trading in the securities of the Company and insider trading (as described above)), that person shall be guilty of that offence as if the act were carried out by that person wholly in Singapore, and may be dealt with as if the offence were committed wholly in Singapore.

Section 339(2) of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act provides that where:

- (a) a person does an act outside Singapore which has a substantial and reasonably foreseeable effect in Singapore; and
- (b) that act would, if carried out in Singapore, constitute an offence under the provisions relating to prohibited conduct in relation to trading in the securities of the Company and insider trading (as described above), that person may be guilty of an offence as if the act were carried out by that person in Singapore, and may be dealt with as if the offence were committed in Singapore.

In addition, for the purposes of an action under Section 232 or 234 of the Singapore Securities and Futures Act, where a person:

- (i) does an act partly in and partly outside Singapore which, if done wholly in Singapore, would constitute a contravention of any of the provisions relating to prohibited conduct in relation to trading in the securities of the Company and insider trading (as described above); or
- (ii) does an act outside Singapore which has a substantial and reasonably foreseeable effect in Singapore and that act, if carried out in Singapore, would constitute a contravention of any of the provisions relating to prohibited conduct in relation to trading in the securities of the Company and insider trading (as described above), the act shall be treated as being carried out by that person in Singapore.

Take-Over Obligations

Pursuant to written confirmation obtained by the Company from the Singapore Securities Industry Council, in light of the protections afforded to Shareholders under the Hong Kong Takeovers Code — which does apply to the Company — the Singapore Code on Take-overs and Mergers does not apply to the Company.

Share Capital

The power to issue shares in a company is usually vested with the directors of that company subject to any restrictions in the constitution of that company. However, pursuant to Section 161 of the Singapore Companies Act, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the constitution of a company, prior approval of the company at a general meeting is required to authorise the directors to exercise any power of the company to issue shares, or the share issue is void under Section 161 of the Singapore Companies Act. Such approval need not be specific but may be general and, once given, will only continue in force until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting or the expiration of the period within which the next annual general meeting is required by law to be held, whichever is the earlier, provided that such approval has not been previously revoked or varied by the company in a general meeting.

Pursuant to Section 64A of the Singapore Companies Act, and subject to the approval of the shareholders of a public company incorporated in Singapore by Special Resolution, different classes of shares in the public company may be issued if the issue of the class(es) of shares is provided for in the constitution of the company, and the constitution of the company sets out in respect of each class of shares the rights attached to that class of shares. Such class(es) of shares may confer special, limited or conditional voting rights, or not confer any voting rights.

Financial Assistance to Purchase Shares of a Company or its Holding Company

Generally, pursuant to Section 76 of the Singapore Companies Act, a public company or a company whose holding company or ultimate holding company is a public company is prohibited from giving financial assistance to any person directly or indirectly for the purpose of, or in connection with, the acquisition of that company's shares or shares in its holding company.

Financial assistance includes the making of a loan, the giving of a guarantee, the provision of security, and the release of a debt or obligation. Certain transactions are specifically provided by the Singapore Companies Act not to be prohibited. These include the distribution of a company's assets by way of dividends, a distribution in the course of a company's winding up, the payment by a company pursuant to a reduction of capital in accordance with the Singapore Companies Act, the giving by a company in good faith and in the ordinary course of commercial dealing of any representation, warranty or indemnity in relation to an offer to the public of, or an invitation to the public to subscribe for or purchase shares or units of shares in the company, and the entering into by the company, in good faith and in the ordinary course of commercial dealing, of an agreement with a subscriber for shares in the company permitting the subscriber to make payments for the shares by instalments, an allotment of bonus shares, a redemption of redeemable shares of a company in accordance with the company's constitution, or the payment of some or all of the costs by a company listed on a securities exchange in Singapore or any securities exchange outside Singapore associated with a scheme, an arrangement or a plan under which any shareholder of the company may purchase or sell shares for the sole purpose of rounding off any odd-lots which he owns.

The Singapore Companies Act further provides that a company can give financial assistance in certain circumstances, including but not limited to: (i) where the amount of financial assistance does not exceed 10.0% of the aggregate of the total paid-up capital and reserves of the company as disclosed in the most recent financial statements of the company and the company receives fair value in connection with the financial assistance; (ii) where the giving of financial assistance does not materially prejudice the interests of the company or its shareholders or, the company's ability to pay its creditors; or (iii) where the financial assistance is approved unanimously by the shareholders of the company, provided that certain conditions and procedures under the Singapore Companies Act are also complied with.

Where the company is a subsidiary of a listed corporation or a subsidiary whose ultimate holding company is incorporated in Singapore, the listed corporation or the ultimate holding company, as the case may be, is also required to pass a special resolution to approve the giving of the financial assistance.

Purchase of Shares by a Company

The Singapore Companies Act generally prohibits a company from acquiring its own shares subject to certain exceptions. Any contract or transaction by which a company acquires its own shares is void subject to the exceptions below. However, provided that it is expressly permitted to do so by its constitution and subject to the special conditions of each permitted acquisition contained in the Singapore Companies Act, a company may:

- (a) redeem redeemable preference shares. Preference shares may be redeemed out of capital if all the directors make a solvency statement in relation to such redemption in accordance with the Singapore Companies Act;
- (b) make an off-market purchase of its own shares in accordance with an equal access scheme authorised in advance at a general meeting;
- (c) make a selective off-market purchase of its own shares in accordance with an agreement authorised in advance at a general meeting by a special resolution where persons whose shares are to be acquired and their associated persons have abstained from voting;
- (d) make an acquisition of its own shares under a contingent purchase contract which has been authorised in advance at a general meeting by a special resolution; and
- (e) make a market purchase of its own shares which has been authorised in advance at a general meeting.

A company may also purchase its own shares by an order of a Singapore court.

The total number of ordinary shares that may be purchased by a company in a relevant period may not exceed 20% of the total number of ordinary shares in that class as of the date of the resolution passed pursuant to the relevant share purchase provisions under the Singapore Companies Act. Where, however, the Company has reduced its share capital by a special resolution of the general meeting or a Singapore court made an order to such effect, the total number of ordinary shares shall be taken to be the total number of ordinary shares in that class as altered by the special resolution or the order of the court. Payment may be made out of the company's profits or capital, provided that the company is solvent.

Where ordinary shares are re-purchased, such shares may be held as treasury shares or cancelled as provided in the Singapore Companies Act. Treasury shares may be dealt with in such manner as may be permitted under the Singapore Companies Act. On cancellation of the shares, the rights and privileges attached to those shares will expire.

Dividends and Distributions

Section 403 of the Singapore Companies Act provides that no dividends may be paid to shareholders of a company except out of the company's profits. Section 76J of the Singapore Companies Act provides that no dividend may be paid, and no other distribution (whether in cash or otherwise) of a company's assets may be made to the company in respect of shares held by a company as treasury shares.

Minority Protection

Section 216 of the Singapore Companies Act protects the rights of minority shareholders of Singapore incorporated companies by giving the Singapore courts a general power to make any order, upon application by any shareholder of a company, as they think fit to remedy any of the following situations:

- (a) if the affairs of the company are being conducted or the powers of the board of directors are being exercised in a manner oppressive to, or in disregard of the interest of, one or more of the shareholders including the applicant or in disregard of his or their interests as shareholders of the company; or
- (b) if the company takes an action, or threatens to take an action, or the shareholders pass a resolution, or propose to pass a resolution, which unfairly discriminates against, or is otherwise prejudicial to, one or more of the shareholders, including the applicant.

Singapore courts have wide discretion as to the reliefs they may grant and those reliefs are in no way limited to those listed in the Singapore Companies Act itself. Without prejudice to the foregoing, Singapore courts may:

- (i) direct or prohibit any act or cancel or vary any transaction or resolution;
- (ii) regulate the conduct of the affairs of the company in the future;
- (iii) authorise civil proceedings to be brought in the name of, or on behalf of, the company by a person or persons and on such terms as the court may direct;
- (iv) direct the company or some of its shareholders to purchase a minority shareholder's shares and, in the case of the company's purchase of shares, a corresponding reduction of the company's share capital;
- (v) provides that the company's constitution be amended; or
- (vi) provide that the company be wound up.

Disposal of Assets

Under Section 160 of the Singapore Companies Act, prior approval of the company at a general meeting is required before the directors can carry into effect any proposals for disposing of the whole or substantially the whole of the company's undertaking or property, notwithstanding anything in a company's constitution.

Accounting and Auditing Requirements

Section 199 of the Singapore Companies Act provides that every company must keep accounting and other records that will sufficiently explain the transactions and financial position of the company and enable true and fair financial statements to be prepared.

Exchange Controls

As at the date of this information sheet, no exchange control restrictions are in effect in Singapore.

Members' Requisition to Convene Extraordinary General Meetings

Section 176 of the Singapore Companies Act provides that members of a company holding not less than 10.0% of the total number of paid up shares of a company carrying the right to vote at general meetings or, in the case of a company not having a share capital, members representing not less than 10% of the total voting rights of all members having a right to vote at general meetings, may requisition for an extraordinary general meeting in accordance with the provisions of the Singapore Companies Act. The directors must convene the meeting to be held as soon as practicable, but in any case not later than two months after the receipt by the company of the requisition.

Section 183 of the Singapore Companies Act provides that (a) any number of members representing not less than 5.0% of the total voting rights of all the members having at the date of requisition a right to vote at a meeting to which the requisition relates or (b) not less than 100 members holding shares on which there has been paid up an average sum, per member, of not less than S$500, may requisition the company to give to members entitled to receive notice of the next annual general meeting notice of any resolution which may properly be moved and is intended to be moved at that meeting, and circulate to members entitled to have notice of any general meeting any statement of not more than 1,000 words with respect to the matter referred to in any proposed resolution or the business to be dealt with at that meeting.

Loans to Directors

Subject to specified exceptions, a company (other than an exempt private company) is prohibited from making a restricted transaction. Restricted transactions include making a loan or quasi-loan to a director (and to the spouse or natural, step or adopted child of any such director) of the company or a related company ("relevant director"), entering into any guarantee or providing any security in connection with a loan or quasi-loan made to a relevant director by any other person, entering into a credit transaction as creditor for the benefit of a relevant director, entering into any guarantee or providing any security in connection with a credit transaction entered into by any person for the benefit of a relevant director, taking part in an arrangement under which another person enters into a transaction that, if it had been entered into by the company, would have been a restricted transaction, and that person obtains a benefit from the company or a related company, or arranging the assignment to the company, or assumption by the company, of any rights, obligations or liabilities under a transaction that, if entered into by the company, would have been a restricted transaction.

For these purposes, a related company of a company means its holding company, its subsidiary and a subsidiary of its holding company.

Subject to specified exceptions, a company (the “first mentioned company”) (other than an exempt private company) is also prohibited from making loans or quasi-loan to connected persons, entering into any guarantee or providing any security in connection with a loan or quasi-loan made to connected persons by a third-party, entering into a credit transaction for the benefit of connected persons or, entering into any guarantee or providing any security in connection with a credit transaction entered into by any person for the benefit of connected persons. Connected persons of the first mentioned company include companies in which the director(s) of the first mentioned company, individually or collectively, have an interest in 20.0% or more (as determined in accordance with the Singapore Companies Act).

This prohibition does not apply to:

- (a) anything done by a company where the other company is its subsidiary, holding company or a subsidiary of its holding company; or
- (b) a company whose ordinary business includes the lending of money or the giving of guarantees in connection with loans made by other persons, to anything done in the ordinary course of that business if the activities of that company are regulated by any written law relating to banking, finance companies or insurance or are subject to supervision by the Monetary Authority of Singapore.

Inspection of Corporate Records

Pursuant to Section 192(2) of the Singapore Companies Act, the register of members of a public company incorporated in Singapore shall be open to the inspection of any member without charge.

Register of Members

Pursuant to Sections 190 and 191 of the Singapore Companies Act, a public company must keep a register of members at its registered office (the “principal register”). In addition, Section 196 of the Singapore Companies Act provides that a public company having a share capital may keep a branch register of members (the “branch register”) outside Singapore. Such branch register is deemed to be part of the company’s principal register and a duplicate of the branch register will be kept at the same office as the principal register.

Register of Directors, Chief Executive Officers, Secretaries and Auditors

Pursuant to Section 173 of the Singapore Companies Act, the register of a company’s directors, chief executive officers, secretaries and auditors (if any) shall be kept by the Registrar of Companies.

Winding Up and Dissolution

The winding up of a company may be done in the following ways:

- (a) members’ voluntary winding up;
- (b) creditors’ voluntary winding up;
- (c) court compulsory winding up; and

- (d) an order made pursuant to Section 216 of the Singapore Companies Act for the winding up of the company.

The type of winding up depends, inter alia, on whether the company is solvent or insolvent.

A company may be dissolved:

- (i) through the process of liquidation pursuant to the winding up of the company;
- (ii) in a merger or amalgamation of two companies where the court may order the dissolution of one after its assets and liabilities have been transferred to the other;
or
- (iii) when it is struck off the register by the Registrar of Companies on the ground that it is a defunct company.

Mergers and Similar Arrangements

Section 212 of the Singapore Companies Act provides that the Singapore courts have the authority, in connection with a scheme for the reconstruction of any company or companies or the amalgamation of any two or more companies and that under the scheme the whole or any part of the undertaking or the property of any company concerned in the scheme (the transferor company) is to be transferred to another company (the transferee company), to order that the transfer to the transferee company of the whole or any part of the undertaking and of the property or liabilities of the transferor company. Such power only exists in relation to companies incorporated in Singapore.

Sections 215A to 215J of the Singapore Companies Act further provides for a voluntary amalgamation process without the need for a court order. Under this voluntary amalgamation process, two or more companies may amalgamate and continue as one company, which may be one of the amalgamating companies or a new company, in accordance with the procedures set out in the Singapore Companies Act. As part of these procedures, the board of directors of each of the amalgamating company must make a solvency statement in relation to both the amalgamating company and the amalgamated company.

Indemnification

Subject to specified exceptions, Section 172 of the Singapore Companies Act prohibits a company from indemnifying its officers (including directors acting in an executive capacity) against liability, which by law would otherwise attach to them in connection with any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to that company. A company is not prohibited from (a) purchasing and maintaining for its officers insurance against any such liability; and (b) indemnifying its officers against third party liability, except in circumstances where such liability is for any criminal or regulatory fines or penalties, or where such liability is incurred in respect of (i) the officer defending criminal proceedings in which he is convicted; (ii) the officer defending civil proceedings brought by the company or a related company in which judgment is given against him; or (iii) in connection with any application under Section 76A(13) or Section 391 of the Singapore Companies Act in which the court refuses to grant the officer relief.

2. SINGAPORE TAXATION

The following summary of certain Singapore tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of the Shares is based upon the laws, regulations, rulings and decisions now in effect, all of which are subject to change (possibly with retroactive effect). The summary does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to purchase, own or dispose of the Shares and does not purport to apply to all categories of prospective investors, some of whom may be subject to special rules. Prospective investors should consult their own tax advisers concerning the application of Singapore tax laws to their particular situation as well as any consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of the Shares arising under the laws of any other taxing jurisdiction.

Where Singapore tax laws are discussed, these are merely an outline of the implications of such laws.

Investors should note that the following statements are based on advice received by the Company regarding taxation laws, regulations and practice in force as at the date of this information sheet, which may be subject to change. The statements below are based on the assumption that the Company is tax resident in Singapore for Singapore tax purposes.

Individual income tax

An individual is a tax resident in Singapore in a year of assessment if, in the preceding year, he was physically present in Singapore or exercised an employment in Singapore (other than as a director of a company) for 183 days or more, or if he resides in Singapore.

Individual taxpayers who are Singapore tax residents are subject to Singapore income tax on income accruing in or derived from Singapore. All foreign-sourced income received in Singapore by a Singapore tax resident individual (except for income received through a partnership in Singapore) is exempt from Singapore income tax if the Comptroller of Income Tax in Singapore (the "Comptroller") is satisfied that the tax exemption would be beneficial to the individual.

A Singapore tax resident individual is taxed at progressive rates ranging from 0% to 22% with effect from the year of assessment 2017. Non-resident individuals, subject to certain exceptions and conditions, are subject to Singapore income tax on income accruing in or derived from Singapore at the rate of 22% with effect from the year of assessment 2017.

Corporate income tax

A corporate taxpayer is regarded as resident in Singapore for Singapore tax purposes if the control and management of its business is exercised in Singapore.

Corporate taxpayers who are Singapore tax residents are subject to Singapore income tax on income accruing in or derived from Singapore and, subject to certain exceptions, on foreign-sourced income received or deemed to be received in Singapore. Foreign-sourced income in the form of dividends, branch profits and service income received or deemed to be received in Singapore by Singapore tax resident companies are exempt from tax if certain prescribed conditions are met, including the following:

(a) such income is subject to tax of a similar character to income tax under the law of the jurisdiction from which such income is received; and

(b) at the time the income is received in Singapore, the highest rate of tax of a similar character to income tax (by whatever named called) levied under the law of the territory from which the income is received on any gains or profits from any trade or business carried on by any company in that territory at that time is not less than 15%.

Certain concessions and clarifications have also been announced by the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore (“IRAS”) with respect to such conditions.

A non-resident corporate taxpayer is subject to income tax on income that is accrued in or derived from Singapore, and on foreign-sourced income received or deemed received in Singapore, subject to certain exceptions.

The corporate tax rate in Singapore is currently 17%. In addition, three-quarters of up to the first S$10,000, and one-half of up to the next S$290,000, of a company’s chargeable income otherwise subject to normal taxation is exempt from corporate tax. The remaining chargeable income (after the tax exemption) will be fully taxable at the prevailing corporate tax rate. New companies will also, subject to certain conditions and exceptions, be eligible for full exemption on their normal chargeable income of up to S$100,000 a year for each of the company’s first three years of assessment.

Dividend distributions

All Singapore-resident companies are currently under the one-tier corporate tax system (“one-tier system”).

Dividends received in respect of the Shares by either a resident or non-resident of Singapore are not subject to Singapore withholding tax, on the basis that the Company is a tax resident of Singapore and under the one-tier system.

Under the one-tier system, the tax on corporate profits is final and dividends paid by a Singapore-resident company are tax exempt in the hands of a Shareholder, regardless of whether the Shareholder is a company or an individual and whether or not the Shareholder is a Singapore tax resident.

Gains on disposal of the Shares

Singapore does not impose tax on capital gains. There are no specific laws or regulations which deal with the characterisation of whether a gain is income or capital in nature. Gains arising from the disposal of the Shares may be construed to be of an income nature and subject to Singapore income tax, especially if they arise from activities which the IRAS regards as the carrying on of a trade or business in Singapore. Singapore taxation law does not provide for any specific relief or exemption, or procedure for claiming any such relief or exemption, for such gains that are construed to be of an income nature and subject to Singapore income tax.

Holders of the Shares who apply, or who are required to apply, the Singapore Financial Reporting Standard 39 — Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement (“FRS 39”) for the purposes of Singapore income tax may be required to recognise gains or losses (not being gains or losses in the nature of capital) in accordance with the provisions of FRS 39 (as modified by the applicable provisions of Singapore income tax law) even though no sale or disposal of Shares is made.

Stamp Duty

There is no stamp duty payable on the subscription for the Shares.

Where the Shares evidenced in certificated form are acquired in Singapore, stamp duty is payable on the instrument of their transfer at the rate of 0.2% of the consideration for, or market value of, the Shares, whichever is higher.

Stamp duty is borne by the purchaser unless there is an agreement to the contrary. Where an instrument of transfer is executed outside Singapore or no instrument of transfer is executed, no stamp duty is payable on the acquisition of the Shares. However, stamp duty may be payable if the instrument of transfer is executed outside Singapore and is received in Singapore.

Estate duty

Singapore estate duty was abolished with respect to all deaths occurring on or after 15 February 2008.

Goods and services tax ("GST")

The sale of the Shares by a GST-registered investor belonging in Singapore for GST purposes to another person belonging in Singapore is an exempt supply not subject to GST. Any input GST incurred by the GST-registered investor in making an exempt supply is generally not recoverable from the Singapore Comptroller of GST.

Where the Shares are sold by a GST-registered investor in the course of or furtherance of a business carried on by such investor contractually to and for the direct benefit of a person belonging outside Singapore, the sale should generally, subject to satisfaction of certain conditions, be considered a taxable supply subject to GST at 0%. Any input GST incurred by the GST-registered investor in making such a supply in the course of or furtherance of a business may be fully recoverable from the Singapore Comptroller of GST.

Investors should seek their own tax advice on the recoverability of GST incurred on expenses in connection with the purchase and sale of the Shares.

Services consisting of arranging, brokering, underwriting or advising on the issue, allotment or transfer of ownership of the Shares rendered by a GST-registered person to an investor belonging in Singapore for GST purposes in connection with the investor's purchase, sale or holding of the Shares will be subject to GST at the standard rate of 7.0%. Similar services rendered by a GST-registered person contractually to and for the direct benefit of an investor belonging outside Singapore should generally, subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, be subject to GST at 0%.

Tax Treaties between Hong Kong and Singapore

There is no comprehensive double tax treaty entered into between Hong Kong and Singapore.

Effect of holding Shares through CCASS or outside CCASS on tax payable

The holding of the Shares through CCASS or outside CCASS should not give rise to any additional Singapore income tax implications.

If required by the Act or the rules and regulations of the Designated Stock Exchange, any share which is so purchased or acquired by the Company shall, unless held in treasury in accordance with the Act and the rules and regulations of the Designated Stock Exchange, be deemed to be cancelled immediately on purchase or acquisition by the Company. CALLS ON SHARES

22. The Directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares but subject always to the terms of issue of such shares. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising the call was passed and may be made payable by instalments.

Calls on shares

23. Each member shall (subject to receiving at least 14 days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Directors may determine.

Notice of calls

24. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate (not exceeding 10 per cent. per annum) as the Directors may determine but the Directors shall be at liberty in any case or cases to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.

Interest on unpaid calls

25. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable upon allotment or at any fixed date shall for all the purposes of this Constitution be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable. In case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of this Constitution as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Payment of calls
in advance
App 3, 3(1)

FORFEITURE AND LIEN

28. If a member fails to pay in full any call or instalment of a call on the due date for payment thereof, the Directors may at any time thereafter serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued thereon and any expenses incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.

Notice requiring payment of calls

29. The notice shall name a further day (not being less than 14 days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which and the place where the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment in accordance therewith the shares on which the call has been made will be liable to be forfeited.

Notice to state place and time of payment

30. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of all calls and interest and expenses due in respect thereof has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends and any other distribution declared or made in respect of the forfeited share and not actually paid before forfeiture. The Directors may accept a surrender of any share liable to be forfeited hereunder.

Forfeiture on non-compliance
with notice

31. A share so forfeited or surrendered shall become the property of the Company and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of either to the person who was before such forfeiture or surrender the holder thereof or entitled thereto or to any other person upon such terms and in such manner as the Directors shall think fit and at any time before a sale, re-allotment or disposition the forfeiture or surrender may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors think fit. The Directors may, if necessary, authorise some person to transfer or effect the transfer of a forfeited or surrendered share to any such other person as aforesaid.

Sale of forfeited
shares

32. A member whose shares have been forfeited or surrendered shall cease to be a member in respect of the shares but shall notwithstanding the forfeiture or surrender remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which at the date of forfeiture or surrender were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares with interest thereon at eight per cent. per annum (or such lower rate as the Directors may determine) from the date of forfeiture or surrender until payment and the Directors may at their absolute discretion enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at that time of forfeiture or surrender or waive payment in whole or in part.

Rights and liabilities of members whose shares have been forfeited

33. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) and dividends and any other distribution from time to time declared in respect of such shares. Such lien shall be restricted to unpaid calls and instalments upon the specific shares in respect of which such moneys are due and unpaid, and to such amounts as the Company may be called upon by law to pay in respect of the shares of the member or deceased member. The Directors may waive any lien which has arisen and may resolve that any share shall for some limited period be exempt wholly or partially from the provisions of this article.

Company to have paramount lien
App 3, 1(2)

34. The Company may sell in such manner as the Directors think fit any share on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable nor until the expiration of 14 days after a notice in writing stating and demanding payment of the sum presently payable and giving notice of intention to sell in default shall have been given to the holder for the time being of the share or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or bankruptcy.

Sale of shares subject to lien

35. The net proceeds of such sale after payment of the costs of such sale shall be applied in or towards payment or satisfaction of the debts or liabilities and any residue shall be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the time of the sale. For the purpose of giving effect to any such sale the Directors may authorise some person to transfer or effect the transfer of the shares sold to the purchaser.

Application of sale proceeds

36. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary of the Company and that a share has been duly forfeited or surrendered or sold to satisfy a lien of the Company on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. Such declaration and the receipt of the Company for the consideration (if any) given for the share on the sale, re-allotment or disposal thereof together (where the same be required) with the share certificate delivered to a purchaser or allottee thereof shall (subject to the execution of a transfer if the same be required) constitute good title to the share and the share shall be registered in the name of the person to whom the share is sold, re-allotted or disposed of. Such person shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the forfeiture, surrender, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share.

Title to forfeited or surrendered shares

TRANSFER OF SHARES

37. Subject to the Act and this Constitution, any member may transfer all or any of his shares, but every transfer must be in writing and in the usual or common form, or in any other form which the Directors may approve. The instrument of transfer of a share shall be signed both by the transferor and by the transferee, and by the witness or witnesses thereto and may be signed under hand or, if the transferor or transferee is a clearing house or its nominee(s), by hand or by machine imprinted signature or by such other manner of execution as the Directors may approve from time to time. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members in respect thereof. Shares of different classes shall not be comprised in the same instrument of transfer.
38. 39. All instruments of transfer which shall be registered shall be retained by the Company, but any instrument of transfer which the Directors may refuse to register shall (except in any case of fraud) be returned to the party presenting the same.
40. No share shall in any circumstances be transferred to any infant or bankrupt or person who is mentally disordered and incapable of managing himself or his affairs.
41. (A) The Directors may, in their sole discretion, decline to register any transfer of shares upon which the Company has a lien and in the case of shares not fully paid may refuse to register a transfer to a transferee of whom they do not approve but shall in such event:
- (a) within 30 days after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferor and to the transferee notice of the refusal; and
 - (b) within 30 days beginning with the day on which the application for a transfer of shares was made to the Company send to the applicant a notice in writing stating the facts which are considered to justify refusal in the exercise of that discretion.
- (B) The Directors may, in their sole discretion, refuse to register any instrument of transfer of shares unless:

- (b) determining the members entitled to receive notice of and to vote at any General Meeting.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

45. In the case of the death of a member, the survivor or survivors where the deceased was a joint holder, and the executors or administrators of the deceased where he was a sole or only surviving holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased holder (whether sole or joint) from any liability in respect of any share held by him.

Survivor or legal personal representatives of deceased member

46. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member may (subject as hereinafter provided) upon producing such evidence as the Directors shall reasonably require to show his legal title to the share either be registered himself as holder of the share upon giving to the Company notice in writing of his desire or transfer such share to some other person. If the person so becoming entitled elects to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he elects to have another person registered, he shall testify his election by executing to that person a transfer of the share. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of this Constitution relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that member.

Transmission of shares

47. Except as otherwise provided by or in accordance with this Constitution, a person becoming entitled to a share pursuant to article 45 or article 46 shall (upon supplying to the Company such evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show his title to the share) be entitled to the same dividends and any other distribution and other advantages, and to the same rights (whether in relation to meetings of the Company, or to voting or otherwise) as if he were the member in respect of the share except that he shall not be entitled in respect thereof (except with the authority of the Directors) to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company until he shall have been registered as a member in the Register of Members in respect of the share.

Rights of person on transmission of shares

48. There shall be paid to the Company in respect of the registration of any probate, letters of administration, certificate of marriage or death, power of attorney or other document relating to or affecting the title to any shares, a maximum fee of the lower of S$2 or the relevant maximum amount as the Designated Stock Exchange may from time to time determine or such other fee as the Directors may from time to time determine.

However, the Company may exercise the power to cease sending cheques for dividend entitlements or dividend warrants after the first occasion on which such a cheque or warrant is returned undelivered.

53. (A) Every notice calling a General Meeting shall specify the place and the day and hour of the meeting, and there shall appear with reasonable prominence in every such notice a statement that a member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote instead of him and that a proxy need not be a member of the Company. The members participating in any such General Meeting shall be counted in the quorum for such General Meeting and subject to there being a requisite quorum under this Constitution, all resolutions agreed by the members in such General Meeting shall be deemed to be as effective as a resolution passed at a meeting in person of the members duly convened and held. A General Meeting conducted by means of a conference telephone or a video conference telephone or similar communications equipment as aforesaid is deemed to be held at the place at which the chairman of the meeting is present, provided that at least one of the members present at the General Meeting was at that place for the duration of the General Meeting.

59. Subject to the provisions of the Act and the rules and regulations of the Designated Stock Exchange, a resolution in writing signed by every member of the Company entitled to vote or being a corporation by its duly authorised representative shall have the same effect and validity as an Ordinary Resolution of the Company passed at a General Meeting duly convened, held and constituted, and may consist of several documents in the like form, each signed by one or more of such members.

Resolutions in writing

60. The chairman of any General Meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time (or sine die) and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting except business which might lawfully have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. Where a meeting is adjourned sine die, the time and place for the adjourned meeting shall be fixed by the Directors. When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more or sine die, not less than seven days' notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in like manner as in the case of the original meeting. Amendment of resolutions

62. Subject to any additional requirements as may be imposed by the Act or this Constitution, all resolutions of the members shall be adopted by a simple majority vote of the members present and voting.

A demand for a poll made pursuant to this article 63(B) may be withdrawn only with the approval of the chairman of the meeting, and any such demand shall not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded. Unless a poll is demanded a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried so or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company, shall be conclusive evidence of that fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

64. If a poll is duly demanded, it shall be taken in such manner (including the use of ballot or voting papers) as the chairman of the meeting directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The chairman of the meeting may, or if so directed by the meeting shall, appoint scrutineers and may adjourn the meeting to some place and time fixed by him for the purpose of declaring the result of the poll.

Taking a poll

65. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately.

Timing for taking a poll

66. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

97. The Company may by Ordinary Resolution appoint any person to be a Director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional Director. Without prejudice thereto the Directors shall have power at any time so to do, but any person so appointed by the Directors shall hold office only until the next Annual General Meeting. To such extent as the Directors may from time to time determine in relation to any committee of the Directors, the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall also apply mutatis mutandis to any meeting of any such committee of which his principal is a member. An Alternate Director shall not (save as aforesaid) have power to act as a Director nor shall he be deemed to be a Director for the purposes of this Constitution.

Powers of Alternate Directors

(E) An Alternate Director shall not be taken into account in reckoning the minimum number of Directors allowed for the time being under this Constitution but he shall be counted for the purpose of reckoning whether a quorum is present at any meeting of the Directors attended by him at which he is entitled to vote.
