The principal duties of the Audit Committee include the review and supervision of the Group's financial reporting system, risk management and internal control systems.

During 2017, the Audit Committee met to review the 2016 annual report and accounts and the 2017 interim report and accounts and held discussions with the external auditor regarding financial reporting, compliance, scope of audit, policies for maintaining independence, thereafter reporting to the Board.

Risk Management and Internal Control

The Board acknowledges its responsibility to oversee and to ensure that sound and effective risk management and internal control systems are maintained on an ongoing basis so as to safeguard the Group's assets and the interests of shareholders. The Board is responsible for reviewing the risk management and the internal control policies and has delegated the day-to-day management of internal control and operational risks to the Executive Directors.

The Directors are satisfied with the effectiveness of the Group's internal controls and consider that the key areas of the Group's system of internal controls are reasonably implemented. The internal controls should provide reasonable but not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss, safeguard the Group's assets, maintain appropriate accounting records and financial reporting and ensure effective compliance with the Listing Rules and all other applicable laws and regulations.

The Group does not have an in-house internal audit function. The Directors have reviewed the need for an internal audit function and are of the view that in light of the size, nature and business of the Group, it would be more cost effective to appoint external independent professionals to perform internal audit functions for the Group. During the year, independent external professionals were hired to perform internal audit functions and a high-level risk assessment of the Group, which entails identifying, analysing and assessing key risks faced by the Group. By reference to a globally recognised internal controls framework, the high-level risk assessment covered all key controls including financial, compliance and operational controls and risk management systems. They concluded that there were no material control design gaps and no material or significant issues with the operating effectiveness of the risk management and control environment.

To ensure the dissemination of inside information of the Company to the public and its shareholders in an equal and timely manner in accordance with the Listing Rules, applicable laws and regulatory requirement, a Policy on Disclosure of Inside Information has been established to set out the guidelines, procedures and internal controls for the handling and dissemination of inside information.

The Company has also established a whistleblowing policy under which employees who have concerns about any suspected misconduct or malpractice can raise their concern in confidence without fear of reprisal or victimisation.

Directors' Responsibility Statement

The Directors acknowledge their responsibility for preparing the financial statements of the Group in accordance with statutory requirements and applicable accounting standards. The Group's annual results and interim results are announced in a timely manner.

The independent auditor's report states the auditor's reporting responsibilities.

Company Secretary

The Company Secretary, not being a full time employee of the Group, ensures that board procedures are followed and is responsible for advising the Board on governance matters and facilitating the induction and professional development of Directors. The primary contact at the Company with whom the Company Secretary has been contacting in respect of company secretarial matters is Ms. Jennie Chen, an Executive Director who is also the Financial Controller, or her delegate.

During the year ended 31 December 2017, the Company Secretary has complied with Rule 3.29 of the Listing Rules and taken no less than 15 hours of relevant professional training.

Shareholders' Rights

The Company established a shareholder communication policy in order to provide shareholders with information about the Company and to enable them to exercise their rights in an informed manner.

The Company has also established procedures on how Shareholders can convene a special general meeting; procedures for putting forward proposals at a general meeting by a Shareholder and procedures for Shareholders to propose a person for election as a Director. On behalf of the Board

Rudolf Bischof
Chairman

Hong Kong, 29 March 2018

The Board of Directors of Nanyang Holdings Limited (“the Company”) is pleased to announce that for the year ended 31 December 2017 the Group reported a profit after taxation of HK$355 million (2016: profit of HK$125.8 million). The current year’s profit comprises mainly of the dividend from The Shanghai Commercial & Savings Bank, Ltd., in respect of its 2016 earnings, of approximately HK$50.6 million (after netting 20% withholding tax); gain from disposal of an associate’s real estate investment in Shanghai of HK$31.5 million; gains from investment portfolios of approximately HK$47.7 million; and the change in fair value of investment properties (including those owned by joint ventures) totalling HK$170.6 million. Excluding the net effect of revaluing the investment properties at fair value, non-recurring income from an associate and reversal of certain provision, 2017 would have shown a profit after tax of HK$146.7 million (2016: profit of HK$62.0 million). Total earnings per share were HK$10.11 (2016: HK$3.57). However, if the net effect of revaluing the investment properties at fair value, non-recurring income from an associate and reversal of a certain provision had been excluded, earnings per share would have been HK$4.18 (2016: HK$1.76). The Group’s net asset value per share increased from HK$100.63 (at 31/12/2016) to HK$121.30 (at 31/12/2017).

The Directors recommend the payment of a final dividend of HK$0.70 per share and a special dividend of HK$0.65 per share, representing a total dividend distribution of approximately HK$47.3 million (2016: final dividend of HK$0.60 per share and a special dividend of HK$0.40 per share, representing a total dividend distribution of approximately HK$35.2 million).

Business Review and Prospects

Real Estate

Hong Kong

Leasing activities at our principal building continued to be satisfactory. Of the 290,000 sq.ft. of industrial/office space the Group holds at Nanyang Plaza, in Kwun Tong, 97.3% is presently leased. The building is over 20 years old. Major capital works are required for rectifying certain infrastructure systems, which have deteriorated. Our share of the cost is approximately HK$18 million.

Shanghai

The joint venture in Shanghai, of which the Group owns 65%, Shanghai Sung Nan Textile Co. Ltd., continued to report steady results. The total leasable area of 28,142 sq.m., is presently fully leased to third parties. Business of the anchor tenant, a wholly owned subsidiary of a Taiwan listed company in the restaurant and wedding banquet business, occupying 21,202 sq.m. or 75.3% of the space, continues to be satisfactory.

The Group’s investment, a 16.7% interest in HSL China Metropolitan Fund (“Fund”) which holds a service apartment complex in Shanghai, has been classified as an “Associate”. In September 2017, the Fund manager signed the Sales and Purchase Agreement with an independent third party, to dispose of the retail podium and rest of the unsold units and car park spaces. Real Estate (cont'd)

Shenzhen

Southern Textile Company Limited (“Southern”), the Group’s 45% joint venture, continued to show favourable results. In the second half of 2017, Southern’s management has made various renovation works to the factory building. Of the total leasable area of 18,300 sq.m., 100% is presently leased.

Financial Investments

World equities markets continued to perform well in the second half 2017. For the year ended 31 December 2017, the investment portfolios showed an increase of 15.3%. The value of the portfolios, at the end of the period, stood at US$43.6 million or approximately HK$341.4 million.

At the beginning of 2018, markets initially performed favourably. However, with the fear of rising inflation, increasing U.S. interest rates and potential trade wars, markets became volatile. During this period, we increased Asian and emerging markets equities cautiously when there was a pullback. As at 27 March 2018 the latest practicable date, the portfolios decreased year-to-date by approximately 0.9% and the value stood at approximately US$43.5 million or HK$341.3 million. Of the portfolios, equities comprised approximately 73.1% (of which 35.2% was in U.S. equities), bonds 18.5%, commodities 0.2% and cash 8.2%.

Looking forward, we expect the world’s major economies to continue their steady growth. However, the threat of accelerated interest rate hikes and protectionist policies taken by the U.S. administration will result in high volatility in the financial markets. In spite of this, we still view 2018 with positive expectations.

The Group’s investment in The Shanghai Commercial & Savings Bank, Ltd. (“SCSB”), a licensed bank in Taiwan, represents approximately 4% of the total issued share capital of SCSB. It is classified under non-current assets as an available-for-sale financial asset and is stated at fair value. In 2017, SCSB performed satisfactorily and the Group received a net cash dividend of approximately HK$50.6 million.

Presently SCSB has 69 branches in Taiwan, one in Hong Kong, one in Vietnam and one in Singapore. They also have three representative offices, one in Jakarta, Indonesia, one in Bangkok, Thailand and one in Phnom Penh, Cambodia. In May 2018, SCSB will apply to establish three new branches in Taiwan. SCSB holds a 57.6% interest in Shanghai Commercial Bank Limited (“SCB”) in Hong Kong. SCB has 44 branches in Hong Kong, three in China and four branches overseas. The unaudited net income of SCSB for the nine months ended 30 September 2017 was approximately NT$9,337.8 million (2016 same period: net income of approximately NT$8,625.7 million), representing an increase of 8.3%. Total shareholders equity at 30 September 2017 was approximately NT$123,006.6 million (30/9/2016: approximately NT$115,911.6 million), an increase of 6.1%. (These figures were extracted from SCSB’s website at <http://www.scsb.com.tw>)

Financial Position

The Group's investment properties with an aggregate value of HK$2,107 million (31/12/2016: HK$1,942 million) have been mortgaged to a bank to secure general banking facilities. As at 31 December 2017, no bank facilities (31/12/2016: Nil) were utilized. At the end of the year, the Group had net current assets of HK$448.2 million (31/12/2016: HK$265.2 million). The Group borrowed Euro 1.0 million (approximately HK$9.4 million as at 31 December 2017) collateralized by a portion of the investment portfolio, to hedge its Euro exposure.

Employees

The Group employed 13 employees as at 31 December 2017. Remuneration is determined by reference to the qualifications and experience of the staff concerned. Salaries and discretionary bonuses are reviewed annually. The Group also provides other benefits including medical cover and provident fund.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the staff for their contribution to the Group.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

About this Report

The Board recognises that it has an overall responsibility for the Environmental, Social and Governance (“ESG”) strategy and reporting of the Group. The scope of this report covers the major operations of the Group in property investment and investment holding and trading. It provides an overview of our key ESG performance in environmental protection, employment and labour practices, operating practices and community investment for the year ended 31 December 2017. It was prepared in accordance with the ESG Reporting Guide under Appendix 27 of the Main Board Listing Rules issued by the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.

We engaged our stakeholders on an ongoing basis to collect their views and expectations on our ESG performance and reporting.

Environmental Protection

The Group is committed to operating its business sustainably. We put emphasis on environmental conservation at our investment properties by enabling green initiatives to happen of which our building manager plays a key part in it. For example, as the major owner at Nanyang Plaza, we know that the building manager had energy-efficient lamps installed at carparks and common areas to enhance energy efficiency and reduce greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions. The building manager also invested in timer controls to automatically turn off the lighting at unused areas and reduce passenger lifts available for service after 7pm every day. Additionally, the building manager encourages smart water use by installing automatic sensor taps at washrooms and encourage our tenants to conserve water. Responsible waste management practices have been adopted at Nanyang Plaza to encourage reduction, reuse and recycling.

The Group continues to implement responsible office practices to raise staff awareness on environmental protection. For instance, employees are reminded to switch off idle electrical appliances, reuse envelopes and adopt double-sided printing.

Employment and Labour Practices

Employment

The Group is committed to nurturing a happy and motivated workforce to support business needs. Remuneration is determined by reference to the qualifications and experience of the staff. In addition to salaries, we provide a range of benefits including discretionary bonuses, medical cover and provident funds.

We support the wellbeing of our staff by encouraging a balance between work and life. We are committed to facilitating working arrangements accommodating employees' work, personal and family commitments. We have arranged annual lunch to foster employees' sense of belonging. We have a zero-tolerance against harassment and discrimination of any form.

Health and Safety

Protecting health and safety of our employees is our key priority. Maintenance and regular inspection are conducted in line with the regulations to ensure proper functioning of fire extinguishers in the event of an emergency.

The Group has also participated in courses that imparted valuable knowledge to employees on occupational health and safety as well as basic first aid care within the workplace.

Development and Training

The Group believes that talent development is critical in maintaining the business competitiveness. We offer a wide range of internal and external training courses to management for keeping up market knowledge.

Some of the trainings that our Group has conducted in partnership with our vendors included familiarization training with printers and common troubleshooting techniques. This allowed our employees to be more familiar with the equipment that they would be using on a daily basis.

Labour Standards

Whilst the industry we are in is typically considered to have a relatively lower risk, we adhere to internationally-accepted labour standards and strictly prohibit the use of child and forced labour. We expect our business partners to observe and comply with the same standard of labour practices.

Operating Practices

Supply Chain Management

The Group interacts with a number of suppliers and service providers. Adherence to social standards by suppliers and service providers forms an important part of our standard for sustainable procurement. We strive to minimise the risks associated with our supply chain, including those associated with environmental, social and governance practices, by working closely with our suppliers. We favour the procurement of environmentally and socially sustainable goods.

Product Responsibility

The Group primarily serves in property investment as well as investment holding and trading. We have engaged an internationally well-established third party company to manage our leased properties. The building manager is primarily responsible for the quality of our leased properties. However, we carry out site inspections and hold regular meetings with them so as to ensure the conditions of building services.

Complaint handling mechanisms are implemented at our leased properties with an aim to collect and address customer concerns. Complaints are documented upon receipt and followed up to improve future service quality.

The Group is committed to protecting customer privacy and has corresponding policies and procedures in place. Customer privacy data is handled with care, treated with strict confidentiality and accessible only by authorised personnel.

Anti-corruption

We operate our business with integrity, transparency and accountability. We have zero tolerance for any form of corruption, bribery or fraud. This principle has been well conveyed to our employees. Our whistleblowing policy allows employees to report observed and suspected misconducts, irregularities and malpractices in a confidential manner.

Community Investment

We collaborate with charitable organisations in finding sustainable solutions to address social challenges. During 2017, the Group has contributed computers and other equipment to the Caritas Computer Workshop for refurbishment and use by non-governmental organisations to help the people in need. The Group has also made donations to several local charities to help the underprivileged, including the Community Chest of Hong Kong, St. James Settlement, and Little Sisters of the Poor.

These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

The key audit matter identified in our audit is summarised as follows:

Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter
Valuation of investment properties held by the Group and its joint ventures Refer to note 4.1, 14 and 15 to the consolidated financial statements As at 31 December 2017, the Group's investment properties were stated at fair value of HK$2,269,120,000 and the fair value of investment properties held by joint ventures attributable to the Group amounted to HK$101,799,000. Management has engaged independent external valuers to perform valuation of the investment properties. Key Audit Matter

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter

Valuation of investment properties held by the Group and its joint ventures (cont'd)

In determining a property's valuation, valuers used either the direct comparison approach or discounted cash flow method. They took into account property-specific information such as the location and age of the properties, adjustments to comparable market transactions, current tenancy agreements and rental income. They applied assumptions for discount rates and estimated market rent which were influenced by prevailing market yields and comparable market transactions, to arrive at the final valuation.

Due to the significant judgement and estimates involved, specific audit focus was placed on this area.

Our audit procedures in relation to the valuation of investment properties included: (cont'd)

- We assessed the reasonableness of the comparable market data and assumptions used by the external valuers by comparing these to our knowledge of the property market and published external data.

We found that the valuation was supported by the available audit evidence.

The Audit Committee assists the directors in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with Section 90 of the Companies Act 1981 of Bermuda and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements (cont'd)

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Chan Ka Yee.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1 General information

Nanyang Holdings Limited is a limited liability company incorporated in Bermuda. The address of its office in Hong Kong is Room 1808 St George's Building, 2 Ice House Street, Central, Hong Kong.

The Company is listed on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.

The Company and its subsidiaries (together the "Group") are engaged in property investment and investment holding and trading.

These consolidated financial statements are presented in thousands of Hong Kong dollars (HK$'000), unless otherwise stated. These consolidated financial statements have been approved for issue by the Board of Directors on 29 March 2018.

2 Significant accounting policies

The significant accounting policies applied in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

2.1 Basis of preparation

The consolidated financial statements of Nanyang Holdings Limited have been prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of investment properties, available-for-sale financial assets and financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, which are carried at fair value.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with HKFRSs requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated financial statements, are disclosed in Note 4.

(a) Amendments to standards that are effective in 2017 and are relevant to the Group's operations

During the year ended 31 December 2017, the Group has adopted the following amendments to standards which are mandatory for accounting periods beginning on 1 January 2017:

HKAS 7 (Amendments)	Disclosure Initiative
HKAS 12 (Amendments)	Recognition of Deferred Tax Assets for Unrealised Losses
HKFRS 12 (Amendments)	Disclosure of Interest in Other Entities

The adoption of these amendments to standards does not have any significant change to the accounting policies or any significant effect on the results and financial position of the Group. However, the amendments to HKAS 7 require disclosure of changes in liabilities arising from financing activities, see note 27(c).

2 Significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.1 Basis of preparation (cont'd)

(b) New standards, interpretations and amendments to standards that are not yet effective and have not been early adopted by the Group (cont'd)

The Group has commenced an assessment of the expected impact of the new standards as set out below:

HKFRS 9, 'Financial instruments'

The new standard addresses the classification, measurement and derecognition of financial assets and financial liabilities, introduces new rules for hedge accounting and a new impairment model for financial assets.

The equity investments not held for trading currently classified as available-for-sale financial assets for which a fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI) election is available and hence there will be no change to the accounting for these assets. However, gains or losses realised on the sale of financial assets at FVOCI will no longer be recognised in profit or loss on sale, but instead the cumulative gain or loss will be reclassified from FVOCI reserve to retained profits.

The investments in funds currently classified as available-for-sale financial assets do not meet the criteria to be classified as FVOCI and hence, will be reclassified to financial assets at fair value through profit or loss. Related accumulated fair value gains of HK$578,000 will be transferred from the investment revaluation reserve to retained profits on 1 January 2018. Subsequent fair value changes will be recognised in the consolidated income statement.

The other financial assets held by the Group include equity investments currently measured at fair value through profit or loss (FVPL) which will continue to be measured on the same basis under HKFRS 9.

Accordingly, the Group does not expect the new guidance to have a significant impact on the classification and measurement of its financial assets.

There will be no impact on the Group's accounting for financial liabilities, as the new requirements only affect the accounting for financial liabilities that are designated at fair value through profit or loss and the Group does not have any such liabilities. The derecognition rules have been transferred from HKAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement and have not been changed.

The Group does not expect a significant impact under the new hedge accounting rules as the Group does not have any such hedging.

2 Significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.1 Basis of preparation (cont'd)

(b) New standards, interpretations and amendments to standards that are not yet effective and have not been early adopted by the Group (cont'd)

*HKFRS 9, 'Financial instruments' *(cont'd)

The new impairment model requires the recognition of impairment provisions based on expected credit losses (ECL) rather than only incurred credit losses as is the case under HKAS 39. It applies to financial assets classified at amortised cost, debt instruments measured at FVOCI, contract assets under HKFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers, lease receivables, loan commitments and certain financial guarantee contracts. The Group does not expect the new guidance to have a significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

The new standard also introduces expanded disclosure requirements and changes in presentation. These are expected to change the nature and extent of the Group's disclosures about its financial instruments particularly in the year of the adoption of the new standard.

HKFRS 9 must be applied for financial years commencing on or after 1 January 2018. The Group will apply the new rules retrospectively from 1 January 2018, with the practical expedients permitted under the standard. Comparatives for 2017 will not be restated.

HKFRS 15, 'Revenue from contracts with customers'

The HKICPA has issued a new standard for the recognition of revenue. This will replace HKAS 18 which covers contracts for goods and services and HKAS 11 which covers construction contracts. The new standard is based on the principle that revenue is recognised when control of a good or service transfers to a customer. The standard permits either a full retrospective or a modified retrospective approach for the adoption.

HKFRS 15 is mandatory for financial years commencing on or after 1 January 2018.

The Group has assessed that there is no significant impact of HKFRS 15 as its major source of revenue is rental income which is excluded from the scope of the new standard.

2 Significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.1 Basis of preparation (cont'd)

(b) New standards, interpretations and amendments to standards that are not yet effective and have not been early adopted by the Group (cont'd)

HKFRS 16, 'Leases'

HKFRS 16 will result in almost all leases being recognised on the balance sheet, as the distinction between operating and finance leases is removed. Under the new standard, an asset (the right to use the leased item) and a financial liability to pay rentals are recognised. The only exceptions are short-term and low-value leases.

The accounting for lessors will not significantly change.

The standard will affect primarily the accounting for the Group's operating leases. As at the reporting date, the Group has non-cancellable operating lease commitments of HK$4,097,000 (Note 29). However, the Group has not yet determined to what extent these commitments will result in the recognition of an asset and a liability for future payments and how this will affect the Group's profit and classification of cash flows.

The new standard is mandatory for financial years commencing on or after 1 January 2019. At this stage, the Group does not intend to adopt the standard before its effective date. The Group intends to apply the simplified transition approach and will not restate comparative amounts for the year prior to first adoption.

There are no other standards that are not yet effective and that would be expected to have a material impact on the Group in the current or future reporting periods and on foreseeable future transactions.

2.2 Subsidiaries

(a) Consolidation

A subsidiary is an entity (including a structured entity) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

(i) Business combinations

The Group applies the acquisition method to account for business combinations. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary is the fair values of the assets transferred, the liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interests issued by the Group. The consideration transferred includes the fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date.

2.2 Subsidiaries (cont'd)

(i) Business combinations (cont'd)

The Group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquiree on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis. Non-controlling interests in the acquiree that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of the entity's net assets in the event of liquidation are measured at either fair value or the present ownership interests' proportionate share in the recognised amounts of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. All other components of non-controlling interests are measured at their acquisition date fair value, unless another measurement basis is required by HKFRS.

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the acquisition date carrying value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is re-measured to fair value at the acquisition date; any gains or losses arising from such re-measurement are recognised in profit or loss.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the Group is recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Subsequent changes to the fair value of the contingent consideration that is deemed to be an asset or liability is recognised in accordance with HKAS 39 either in profit or loss or as a change to other comprehensive income. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not remeasured, and its subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity.

The excess of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree and the acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquiree over the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If the total of consideration transferred, non-controlling interest recognised and previously held interest measured is less than the fair value of the net assets of the subsidiary acquired in the case of a bargain purchase, the difference is recognised directly in the income statement.

Intra-group transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. When necessary, amounts reported by subsidiaries have been adjusted to conform with the Group's accounting policies.

(ii) Changes in ownership interests in subsidiaries without change of control

Transactions with non-controlling interests that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions – that is, as transactions with the owners of the subsidiary in their capacity as owners. The difference between fair value of any consideration paid and the relevant share acquired of the carrying amount of net assets of the subsidiary is recorded in equity. Gains or losses on disposals to non-controlling interests are also recorded in equity.

(iii) Disposal of subsidiaries

When the Group ceases to have control, any retained interest in the entity is re-measured to its fair value at the date when control is lost, with the change in carrying amount recognised in profit or loss. The fair value is the initial carrying amount for the purposes of subsequently accounting for the retained interest as an associate, joint venture or financial asset. In addition, any amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of that entity are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. It means that amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss.

(b) Separate financial statements

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost includes direct attributable costs of investment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividend received and receivable.

Impairment testing of the investments in subsidiaries is required upon receiving a dividend from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary in the period the dividend is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount in the consolidated financial statements of the investee's net assets including goodwill.

2 Significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.3 Joint arrangements

The Group has applied HKFRS 11 to all joint arrangements. Under HKFRS 11 investments in joint arrangements are classified as either joint operations or joint ventures depending on the contractual rights and obligations of each investor. The Group has assessed the nature of its joint arrangements and determined them to be joint ventures. Joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method.

Under the equity method of accounting, interests in joint ventures are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the post-acquisition profits or losses and movements in other comprehensive income. Upon the acquisition of the ownership interest in a joint venture, any difference between the cost of the joint venture and the group's share of the net fair value of the joint venture's identifiable assets and liabilities is accounted for as goodwill. When the Group's share of losses in a joint venture equals or exceeds its interests in the joint ventures including any other unsecured receivables, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the joint ventures.

Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in the joint ventures. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred.

2.4 Associates

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence but not control, generally accompanying a shareholding of between 20% and 50% of the voting rights. The existence of significant influence is also usually evidenced by the representation on the board of directors or equivalent governing body of the entity, and participation in policy-making processes. Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method of accounting. Under the equity method, the investment is initially recognised at cost, and the carrying amount is increased or decreased to recognise the investor's share of the profit or loss of the investee after the date of acquisition. The Group's investments in associates include goodwill identified on acquisition. Upon the acquisition of the ownership interest in an associate, any difference between the cost of the associate and the Group's share of the net fair value of the associate's identifiable assets and liabilities is accounted for as goodwill.

If the ownership interest in an associate is reduced but significant influence is retained, only a proportionate share of the amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified to profit or loss where appropriate.

2 Significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.4 Associates (cont'd)

The Group's share of post-acquisition profit or loss is recognised in the income statement, and its share of post-acquisition movements in other comprehensive income is recognised in other comprehensive income with a corresponding adjustment to the carrying amount of the investment. When the Group's share of losses in an associate equals or exceeds its interest in the associate, including any other unsecured receivables, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate.

The Group determines at each reporting date whether there is any objective evidence that the investment in the associate is impaired. If this is the case, the Group calculates the amount of impairment as the difference between the recoverable amount of the associate and its carrying value and recognises the amount adjacent to 'share of profit of investments accounted for using equity method' in the income statement.

Profits and losses resulting from upstream and downstream transactions between the Group and its associate are recognised in the Group's financial statements only to the extent of unrelated investor's interests in the associates. Unrealised losses are eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of associates have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

Gains or losses on dilution of equity interest in associates are recognised in the income statement.

2.5 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision-maker. The chief operating decision-maker, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments, has been identified as the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors reviews the Group's internal reporting in order to assess performance and allocate resources. Management has determined the operating segments based on these reports and analysed from a business prospective.

2.6 Foreign currency translation

(a) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The consolidated financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars, which is the Company's functional currency and the Group's presentation currency.

2 Significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.6 Foreign currency translation (cont'd)

(b) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at year-end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in the income statement, except when deferred in equity as qualifying cash flow hedges and qualifying net investment hedges.

Foreign exchange gains and losses that relate to borrowings are presented in the income statement within 'finance income or expense'. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the income statement within 'other operating income/ (expenses), net'.

Non-monetary items that are measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was determined. Translation differences on assets and liabilities carried at fair value are reported as part of the fair value gain or loss. For example, translation differences on non-monetary assets and liabilities such as equities held at fair value through profit or loss are recognised in the income statement as part of the fair value gain or loss and translation differences on non-monetary assets such as equities classified as available-for-sale financial assets are recognised in other comprehensive income.

(c) Group companies

The results and financial position of all the Group entities (none of which has the currency of a hyperinflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- assets and liabilities for each balance sheet presented are translated at the closing rate at the date of that balance sheet;
- income and expenses for each income statement are translated at average exchange rates (unless this average is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions); and
- all resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income.

Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of a foreign entity are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign entity and translated at the closing rate. Exchange differences arising are recognised in equity.

2.7 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost less depreciation and impairment losses. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance costs are charged to the income statement during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Leasehold land classified as finance lease commences amortisation from the time when the land interest becomes available for its intended use. Amortisation on leasehold land classified as finance lease and depreciation on other assets is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost to their residual values over their estimated useful lives, as follows:

Leasehold land classified as finance lease	Shorter of remaining lease term of 35 years or useful life
Buildings	25 years
Others	5 years

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each balance sheet date.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount (Note 2.9).

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amount, and are recognised in the income statement.

2.8 Investment properties

Investment property, principally comprising leasehold land and office buildings, is held for long-term rental yields or for capital appreciation or both, and that is not occupied by the Group. Land held under operating leases are accounted for as investment properties when the rest of the definition of an investment property is met. In such cases, the operating leases concerned are accounted for as if they were finance leases. Investment property is initially measured at cost, including related transaction costs and where applicable borrowing costs. After initial recognition investment properties are carried at fair value, representing open market value determined at each reporting date by external valuers. Fair value is based on active market prices, adjusted, if necessary, for any difference in the nature, location or condition of the specific asset. Changes in fair values are recorded in the income statement as changes in fair value of investment properties.

2.9 Impairment of non-financial assets

Intangible assets that have an indefinite useful life are not subject to amortisation and are at least tested annually for impairment. Assets that are subject to amortisation are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at each reporting date.

2.10 Financial assets

2.10.1 Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets in the following categories: financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, loans and receivables and available-for-sale financial assets. The classification depends on the purpose for which the financial assets were acquired. Management determines the classification of financial assets at initial recognition.

(a) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are financial assets held for trading. A financial asset is classified in this category if acquired principally for the purpose of selling in the short term. Derivatives are classified as held for trading unless they are designated as hedges. Assets in this category are classified as current assets if expected to be settled within 12 months; otherwise, they are classified as non-current.

(b) Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. They are included in current assets, except for the amounts that are settled or expected to be settled more than 12 months after the balance sheet date. These are classified as non-current assets. The Group's loans and receivables comprise trade and other receivables, cash and cash equivalents and pledged bank deposits in the balance sheet.

(c) Available-for-sale financial assets

Available-for-sale financial assets are non-derivatives that are either designated in this category or not classified in any of the other categories. They are included in non-current assets unless the investment matures or management intends to dispose of the investment within 12 months of the balance sheet date.

2.10 Financial assets (cont'd)

2.10.2 Recognition and measurement

Regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on the trade-date – the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Investments are initially recognised at fair value plus transaction costs for all financial assets not carried at fair value through profit or loss. Financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are initially recognised at fair value and transaction costs are expensed in the income statement. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the investments have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership. Available-for-sale financial assets and financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are subsequently carried at fair value. Loans and receivables are subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Gains or losses arising from changes in the fair value of the ‘financial assets at fair value through profit or loss’ category are presented in the income statement as gains and losses on financial assets through profit or loss in the period in which they arise. Dividend income from financial assets at fair value through profit or loss is recognised in the income statement when the Group’s right to receive payments is established.

Changes in the fair value of monetary securities classified as available for sale are recognised in other comprehensive income.

When securities classified as available-for-sale are sold or impaired, the accumulated fair value adjustments recognised in equity are included in the income statement as ‘gains and losses from available-for-sale financial assets’.

Dividends on available-for-sale financial assets are recognised in the income statement as dividend income from available-for-sale financial assets when the Group’s right to receive payments is established.

2.10.3 Impairment of financial assets

(a) Assets carried at amortised cost

The Group assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired. A financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired and impairment losses are incurred only if there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the asset (a ‘loss event’) and that loss event (or events) has an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset or group of financial assets that can be reliably estimated.

2 Significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.10 Financial assets (cont'd)

2.10.3 Impairment of financial assets (cont'd)

(a) Assets carried at amortised cost (cont'd)

Evidence of impairment may include indications that the debtors or a group of debtors is experiencing significant financial difficulty, default or delinquency in interest or principal payments, the probability that they will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation, and where observable data indicate that there is a measurable decrease in the estimated future cash flows, such as changes in arrears or economic conditions that correlate with defaults.

For loans and receivables category, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows (excluding future credit losses that have not been incurred) discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate. The carrying amount of the asset is reduced and the amount of the loss is recognised in the consolidated income statement. If a loan or held-to-maturity investment has a variable interest rate, the discount rate for measuring any impairment loss is the current effective interest rate determined under the contract. As a practical expedient, the Group may measure impairment on the basis of an instrument's fair value using an observable market price.

If, in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognised (such as an improvement in the debtor's credit rating), the reversal of the previously recognised impairment loss is recognised in the consolidated income statement.

(b) Assets classified as available-for-sale

The Group assesses at the balance sheet date whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired. For equity investments, a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of the security below its cost is also evidence that the assets are impaired. If any such evidence exists the cumulative loss – measured as the difference between the acquisition cost and the current fair value, less any impairment loss on that financial asset previously recognised in profit or loss – is removed from equity and recognised in profit or loss. Impairment losses recognised in the consolidated income statement on equity instruments are not reversed through the consolidated income statement.

2.10.4 Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the balance sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the company or the counterparty.

2.11 Derivative financial instruments and hedging activities

Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently re-measured at their fair value. The method of recognising the resulting gain or loss depends on whether the derivative is designated as a hedging instrument, and if so, the nature of the item being hedged.

Derivative instruments which do not qualify for hedge accounting are accounted for at fair value through profit or loss, changes in the fair value of these derivative instruments that do not qualify for hedge accounting are recognised in the income statement.

2.12 Trade and other receivables

Trade receivables are amounts due from customers for services performed in the ordinary course of business. If collection of trade and other receivables is expected in one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer), they are classified as current assets. If not, they are presented as non-current assets. Trade and other receivables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment.

2.13 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash in hand, deposits held at call with banks and other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, and bank overdrafts, if any. In the consolidated and entity balance sheet, bank overdrafts are shown within borrowings in current liabilities.

2.14 Trade payables

Trade payables are obligations to pay for goods or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of business from suppliers. Trade payables are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer). If not, they are presented as non-current liabilities. Trade payables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2 Significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.15 Current and deferred income tax

The tax expense for the year comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in the income statement, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

(a) Current income tax

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date in the countries where the Company and its subsidiaries operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

(b) Deferred income tax

Inside basis differences

Deferred income tax is recognised, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill, the deferred income tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

Outside basis differences

Deferred income tax liabilities are provided on taxable temporary differences arising from investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint arrangements, except for deferred income tax liability where the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference is controlled by the Group and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Generally the Group is unable to control the reversal of the temporary difference for associates. Only where there is an agreement in place that gives the Group the ability to control the reversal of the temporary difference in the foreseeable future, deferred tax liability in relation to taxable temporary differences arising from the associate's undistributed profits is not recognised.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised on deductible temporary differences arising from investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint arrangements only to the extent that it is probable the temporary difference will reverse in the future and there is sufficient taxable profit available against which the temporary difference can be utilised.

2.15 Current and deferred income tax (cont'd)

(c) Offsetting

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when the deferred income taxes assets and liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the taxable entity or different taxable entities where there is an intention to settle the balances on a net basis.

2.16 Employee benefits

(a) Pension obligations

The Group has defined contribution plans. A defined contribution plan is a pension plan under which the Group pays fixed contributions into a separate entity. The Group has no legal or constructive obligation to pay further contributions if the fund does not hold sufficient assets to pay all employees the benefits relating to employee service in the current and prior periods.

For defined contribution plans, the Group pays contributions to publicly or privately administered pension insurance plans on a mandatory, contractual or voluntary basis. The Group has no further payment obligations once the contributions have been paid. The contributions are recognised as employee benefit expense when they are due. Prepaid contributions are recognised as an asset to the extent that a cash refund or a reduction in the future payments is available.

(b) Employee leave entitlements

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised when they accrue to employees. A provision is made for the estimated liability for annual leave as a result of services rendered by employees up to the balance sheet date.

Employee entitlements to sick leave and maternity leave are not recognised until the time of leave.

2.17 Provisions

Provisions for environmental restoration, restructuring costs and legal claims are recognised when: the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events; it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; and the amount has been reliably estimated. Restructuring provisions comprise lease termination penalties and employee termination payments. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

2 Significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.17 Provisions (cont'd)

Provisions are measured at the present value of the expenditure expected to be required to settle the obligation using a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the obligation. The increase in the provision due to passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

2.18 Revenue recognition

(a) Rental and management fee income

Rental and management fee income on operating leases are recognised on a straight-line basis over the lease periods.

(b) Dividend income

Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive payment is established.

(c) Interest income

Interest income is recognised on a time proportion basis using the effective interest rate method.

2.19 Operating leases

Leases in which a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases (net of any incentives received from the lessor) are charged to the income statement on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

2.20 Borrowings and borrowing costs

Borrowings are recognised initially at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently carried at amortised cost; any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption value is recognised in the income statement over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

Fees paid on the establishment of loan facilities are recognised as transaction costs of the loan to the extent that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down. In this case, the fee is deferred until the draw-down occurs. To the extent there is no evidence that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down, the fee is capitalised as a prepayment for liquidity services and amortised over the period of the facility to which it relates.

Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the balance sheet date.

General and specific borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are capitalised during the period of time that is required to complete and prepare the asset for its intended use or sale. Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

2.21 Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity.

2.22 Dividend distribution

Dividend distribution to the Company's shareholders is recognised as a liability in the financial statements in the financial period when the dividends are approved by the Company's shareholders or directors, where appropriate.

3 Financial risk management

The Group's investment activities expose it to various types of risk which are associated with the financial instruments and markets in which it invests. The types of financial risk to which the Group is exposed are market risk (including equity price risk, foreign currency risk and interest rate risk), credit and counterparty risk and liquidity risk. The Group's overall risk management programme focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise the potential adverse effects it may have on the Group's financial performance.

3.1 Financial risk factors

(a) Market risk

(i) Equity price risk

The Group's equity securities are exposed to price risk including currency translation difference as they are classified either as available-for-sale financial assets or as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss. To manage its price risk arising from investments in equity securities, the Group diversifies its portfolio.

The Group's financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are publicly traded. Had the price of these investments increased/decreased by 5% with all other variables held constant, the post-tax profit for the year ended 31 December 2017 would have been HK$11,692,000 (2016: HK$8,713,000) higher/lower.

The Group's available-for-sale financial assets are mainly unlisted equity securities. Had the price of these investments increased/decreased by 5% with all other variables held constant, the equity would have been HK$71,704,000 (2016: HK$52,838,000) higher/lower.

3.1 Financial risk factors (cont'd)

(a) Market risk (cont'd)

(ii) Foreign currency risk

The Group's exposure to foreign currency risk mainly arises from its investments in securities worldwide, bank balances and short-term borrowing, primarily with respect to Euro ("EUR"), Japanese yen ("JPY"), Renminbi ("RMB") and New Taiwan Dollars ("NTD"). The Group monitors the proportion of its financial investments denominated in non-US/HK dollars.

At 31 December 2017, had the HK dollar weakened/strengthened by 5% against the EUR with all other variables held constant, the post-tax profit for the year ended 31 December 2017 would have been HK$2,473,000 (2016: HK$2,042,000) higher/lower, mainly as a result of net foreign exchange gains/losses on translation of Euro-denominated financial assets at fair value through profit or loss and short-term borrowing.

At 31 December 2017, had the HK dollar weakened/strengthened by 5% against the JPY with all other variables held constant, the post-tax profit for the year ended 31 December 2017 would have been HK$694,000 (2016: HK$654,000) higher/lower, mainly as a result of foreign exchange gains/losses on translation of Japanese yen-denominated financial assets at fair value through profit or loss.

At 31 December 2017, had the HK dollar weakened/strengthened by 5% against the RMB with all other variables held constant, the post-tax profit for the year ended 31 December 2017 would have been HK$1,509,000 (2016: Nil) higher/lower, mainly as a result of foreign exchange gains/losses on translation of Renminbi-denominated bank balances.

At 31 December 2017, had the HK dollar weakened/strengthened by 5% against the NTD with all other variables held constant, the equity would have been HK$71,150,000 (2016: HK$52,353,000) higher/lower, mainly as a result of currency translation gain/loss on the New Taiwan dollars-denominated unlisted equity securities classified as available-for-sale financial assets.

3.1 Financial risk factors (cont'd)

(a) Market risk (cont'd)

(iii) Interest rate risk

In 2017, the Group is exposed to interest rate risk through the impact of rate changes on interest bearing assets and liabilities.

Bank deposits and short-term borrowing issued at variable rates expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk. The Group manages its exposure to interest rate risk by maintaining borrowings at a low level.

As at 31 December 2017, had interest rates been 1% higher/lower with all other variables held constant, the post-tax profit for the year ended 31 December 2017 would have been HK$267,000 higher/lower (2016: Nil), mainly as a result of higher/lower interest income on bank deposits net off with interest expense on short-term borrowing.

As at 31 December 2016, there was no interest bearing asset and liability.

(b) Credit and counterparty risk

The credit and counterparty risk mainly arises from debt securities investments held under financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, deposits, cash and investments placed with banks and financial institutions and derivative financial instruments transacted with banks. The Group has limited its credit exposure by restricting their selection to financial institutions or banks with good credit rating, ranged from A to AA-.

The Group's credit risk concentration of investments of listed debt securities as at 31 December 2017 and 2016 is analysed below based upon the credit rating of the issuers:

	2017 HK$'000	2016 HK$'000
A to AAA	16,927	24,473
B to BBB	17,769	20,866
Unrated (Note)	4,651	3,058
	39,347	48,397

Note:

The Directors monitor the exposure on unrated assets and considered that the risk of default is minimal.

(c) Liquidity risk

In order to maintain flexibility in funding, the Group has obtained banking facilities.

3.2 Capital risk management

The Group's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt.

During 2017 and 2016, the Group's strategy was to maintain borrowings at a low level.

As at 31 December 2017 and 2016, the debt to equity ratio were as follows:

	2017 HK$'000	2016 HK$'000
Total borrowing (Note 25)	9,403	–
Total equity	4,253,578	3,544,683
Debt to equity ratio	0.2%	–

3.3 Fair value estimation

The table below analyses financial instruments carried at fair value, by level of the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. Such inputs are categorised into three levels within a fair value hierarchy as follows:

- Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1).
- Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the assets or liabilities, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices) (level 2).
- Inputs for the assets or liabilities that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs) (level 3).

Total assets	1,306,922	1,000	–	1,307,922

The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets is based on quoted market prices at the balance sheet date. A market is regarded as active if quoted prices are readily and regularly available from an exchange, dealer, broker, industry group, pricing service or regulatory agency, and those prices represent actual and regularly occurring market transactions on an arm's length basis. The quoted market price used for financial assets held by the Group is the current bid price. These instruments are included in level 1.

3.3 Fair value estimation (cont'd)

The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market (for example, over-the-counter derivatives) is determined by using valuation techniques. These valuation techniques maximise the use of observable market data where it is available and rely as little as possible on entity specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2.

If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3.

As at 31 December 2017, available-for-sale financial assets of HK$4,939,000 (2016: Nil) and financial assets at fair value through profit or loss of HK$69,637,000 (2016: Nil) are measured with valuation techniques using significant unobservable inputs (level 3). These valuation techniques and methods, including net asset values and prices observed in recent transactions, are generally recognised within the financial investment industry.

The following table presents the changes in level 3 instruments for the year ended 31 December 2017:

	Available- for-sale financial assets HK$'000	Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss HK$'000	Total HK$'000

4 Critical accounting estimates and judgements

4.1 Estimate of fair value of investment properties

The Group's investment properties, which are leased to third parties, were revalued at 31 December 2017 by an independent professional property valuer on an open market value basis with reference to recent transaction prices of units in the same building and/or similar properties. Details of the judgement and assumptions have been disclosed in Note 14.

4.2 Classification and estimate of fair value of unlisted available-for-sale financial assets

In connection with the Group's investment in The Shanghai Commercial & Savings Bank, Ltd ("SCSB"), certain Directors of the Company are also directors of SCSB. Their appointment as directors of SCSB was not nominated by the Group and does not represent the Group's interest. Accordingly, the Group does not have significant influence in SCSB and the investments in SCSB are classified as an available-for-sale financial asset.

The fair value of unlisted available-for-sale financial assets is determined by the quoted bid price in the over-the-counter market. The Group considers that this price represents actual and regularly occurring market transactions on an arm's length basis and reflect the fair value of the investment.

5 Revenue and other income and segment information

Revenue mainly comprises rental income, investment income from financial assets at fair value through profit or loss and dividend income from available-for-sale financial assets. The Group's investment properties with an aggregate carrying value of HK$2,107,000,000 (2016: HK$1,942,000,000) have been mortgaged to a bank to secure general banking facilities. As at 31 December 2017 and 2016, no bank facilities was utilised.

Valuation processes of the Group

The basis of the valuation of investment properties is fair value being the amount for which the property could be exchanged between willing parties in an arm's length transaction, based on current prices in an active market for similar properties in the same location and condition and subject to similar leases. The investment properties were revalued by Prudential Surveyors (Hong Kong) Limited, an independent qualified valuer not related to the Group, who holds a recognised relevant professional qualification and has recent experience in the locations and segments of the investment properties valued, at 31 December 2017. For all investment properties, their current use equates to the highest and best use.

The Group's finance department reviews the valuations performed by the independent valuers for financial reporting purposes. This department reports directly to the senior management. Discussions of valuation processes and results are held between the management and valuers at least once every six months, in line with the Group's interim and annual reporting dates.

At each financial year end the finance department:

- Verifies all major inputs to the independent valuation report;
- Assesses property valuations movements when compared to the prior year valuation report;
- Holds discussions with the independent valuers.

Valuation techniques

Fair value measurements using significant unobservable inputs

Fair values of completed industrial and commercial properties in Hong Kong are generally derived using the direct comparison method. Direct comparison method is based on comparing the property to be valued directly with other comparable properties, which have recently transacted. However, given the heterogeneous nature of real estate properties, appropriate adjustments are usually required to allow for any qualitative differences that may affect the price likely to be achieved by the property under consideration.

As at 31 December 2017, all investment properties are included in level 3 fair value hierarchy.

There were no change to the valuation techniques during the year and there were no transfers between fair value hierarchies during the year.
