First Quarterly Report 2003/04

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE GROWTH ENTERPRISE MARKET ("GEM") OF THE STOCK EXCHANGE OF HONG KONG LIMITED (THE "STOCK EXCHANGE")

GEM has been established as a market designed to accommodate companies to which a high investment risk may be attached. In particular, companies may list on GEM with neither a track record of profitability nor any obligation to forecast future profitability. Furthermore, there may be risks arising out of the emerging nature of companies listed on GEM and the business sectors or countries in which the companies operate. Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration. The greater risk profile and other characteristics of GEM mean that it is a market more suited to professional and other sophisticated investors.

Given the emerging nature of companies listed on GEM, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the Main Board and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on GEM.

The principal means of information dissemination on GEM is publication on the internet website operated by the Stock Exchange. Listed companies are not generally required to issue paid announcements in gazetted newspapers. Accordingly, prospective investors should note that they need to have access to the GEM website in order to obtain up-to-date information on GEM-listed issuers.

The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited takes no responsibility for the contents of this report, makes no representation as to its accuracy or completeness and expressly disclaims any liability whatsoever for any loss howsoever arising from or in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents of this report.

This report, for which the directors (the "Directors") of WorldMetal Holdings Limited (the "Company") collectively and individually accept full responsibility, includes particulars given in compliance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Growth Enterprise Market of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited for the purpose of giving information with regard to the Company. The Directors, having made all reasonable enquiries, confirm that, to the best of their knowledge and belief:- (1) the information contained in this report is accurate and complete in all material respects and not misleading; (2) there are no other matters the omission of which would make any statement in this report misleading; and (3) all opinions expressed in this report have been arrived at after due and careful consideration and are founded on bases and assumptions that are fair and reasonable.

BUSINESS REVIEW AND OUTLOOK

For the three months ended 30 June 2003, turnover for the Group was approximately HK$94.08 million (2002: HK$13.16 million) and loss attributable to shareholders was approximately HK$1.45 million (2002: profit of HK$5.37 million).

During the period under review, the Group had to come to terms with the negative business environment brought on by the depressed economy and the outbreak of SARS. As a result of the over-import of steel to China in the first quarter of this year, creating a vast store of steel in the inventory and a scenario where supplies far exceeded demands, the price of steel was driven down. During the outbreak of SARS, the whole community was bogged down and cross-border business activities were seriously hampered. Consequently Internet metal trading and the related ancillary value-added services were relatively sluggish, causing a reduction in revenue from trading commission.

Following the steady recovery in the global economy and the gradual fading out of the negative impacts of SARS, the Group believes that the operating environment will turn for the better. The Group is also optimistic on the prospect of the steel market in China. Growth of the macro-economy of China remains strong during the year and despite the heavy blow dealt by SARS, annual GDP growth is expected to reach 8%. Estimates based on China's steel production, consumption, import and export and the global market trend forecast that the steel market in China for the latter half of the year will remain stable. It is envisaged that operation of the Group's Internet metal trading and the related ancillary value-added services will hold steady.

In the period under review, the Group's IT business continues to focus on providing IT consultation and application software development services to members and enterprises in the metal industry in Hong Kong and mainland China. Partnership is maintained with enterprises in telecommunication equipment in the development of embedded telecommunication application software. The IT business also continues to offer solutions to customers in video display information systems and has completed several projects in succession, achieving revenue target as anticipated. However, during the outbreak of SARS, marketing efforts, contact with new customers and new engagement in solution offerings were all impeded. It is expected that revenue for the IT business in the short term will inevitably be affected. However, the Group believes that as the economy recovers, more customers will increase their investment in information technology, thereby creating more business opportunities for the Group.

Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries purchased, sold or redeemed any of the Company's listed securities during the three months ended 30 June 2003.
