CHARACTERISTICS OF THE GROWTH ENTERPRISE MARKET ("GEM") OF THE STOCK EXCHANGE OF HONG KONG LIMITED (THE "STOCK EXCHANGE")

GEM has been established as a market designed to accommodate companies to which a high investment risk may be attached. In particular, companies may list on GEM with neither a track record of profitability nor any obligation to forecast future profitability. Furthermore, there may be risks arising out of the emerging nature of companies listed on GEM and the business sectors or countries in which the companies operate. Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration. The greater risk profile and other characteristics of GEM mean that it is a market more suited to professional and other sophisticated investors.

Given the emerging nature of companies listed on GEM, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on GEM.

The principal means of information dissemination on GEM is publication on the Internet website operated by the Stock Exchange. Listed companies are not generally required to issue paid announcements in gazetted newspapers. Accordingly, prospective investors should note that they need to have access to the GEM website in order to obtain up-to-date information on GEM-listed issuers.

The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited takes no responsibility for the contents of this report, makes no representation as to its accuracy or completeness and expressly disclaims any liability whatsoever for any loss howsoever arising from or in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents of this report.

This report, for which the directors (the "Director") of CCID Consulting Company Limited (the "Company") collectively and individually accept full responsibility, includes particulars given in compliance with the GEM Listing Rules for the purpose of giving information with regard to CCID Consulting Company Limited. The directors, having made all reasonable enquiries, confirm that, to the best of their knowledge and belief: (i) the information contained in this report is accurate and complete in all material respects and not misleading; (ii) there are no other matters the omission of which would make any statement in this report misleading; and (iii) all opinions expressed in this report have been arrived at after due and careful consideration and are founded on bases and assumptions that are fair and reasonable.

The turnover and gross profit of the Group were decreased by approximately 10% and 6% respectively, as compared to the turnover and gross profit of last year. The decrease was mainly affected by the financial crisis which led to decline in market demand, and was severely affected the demand in public relation business.

In 2009, the Group focused on the transformational principle of "Upward Advancing, Downward Consolidating", the Group reinforced transformational upgrading in professional and brand image as well as team competitiveness. Being actively exploring new business models and laying stress on the establishment and improvement of quality management system, the Group gained high reputation and popularity in the field, and maintained sound growth momentum of sales income and presented an active and favourable developing trend.

Future Developments

In 2009, the Group will continue to strengthen the transformational principle of "Upward Advancing, Downward Consolidating" in improving its profitability through business remodeling and improvement, developing larger customer base, increasing the Company's professional and branding competitiveness and attracting professional talents.

Follow a basic idea

Pay close attention to business transformation to enhance business strategy consulting, information technology implementation and the promotion of investment and financing efforts; the strengthening of capacity-building in core data, speed up the construction of the database such as industrial databases, marketing databases, import and export databases, investment databases etc.

The Company will create two public platforms

Knowledge-Sharing Platform - CCID Consulting Online (internal knowledge-sharing, external business operation-sharing);

Business Collaboration Platform - Company information systems (project management, performance appraisal, research collaboration, client management).

The Company will focus on three changes

Speed up the upgrading of business model to enhance technical consulting services value, transform from a consulting firm to technology solution oriented.

Speed up the innovation model changes in order to enhance knowledge management, knowledge innovation capability, innovation and achievement from the individual to the organization of innovation and transformation;

Speed up the transformation of business model in order to foster economic scale of both production and capital operation, to make production operation and capital operation as two-wheeled drive.

Take five concrete measures

Rigid-Flex mixed, the Company will use information technology planning as a starting point, to the overall planning, performance evaluation, system implementation, outsourcing services, extension, build the whole process of information technology consulting services;

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Advisory driven, the Company will use information engineering supervision as the break through point, to expand the development of information engineering cost assessment, counseling and planning services, and gradually form a consulting business plan business driven layout in the supervision related businesses;

Rooted in IT, the Company will rely on market research, timely to explore industrial investment, financing and merger and acquisition opportunities, to be the national PE of China's electronic information technology field;

The Company will use an extension of services to industrial planning based on six focus areas and provide Investment value-added services;

The Company will integrate resources in order to CCID Consulting's online platform to enhance value-added data, and technical services and build for the field of industry and information technology data and technology service providers.

Despite of the challenges ahead, the Board and I have full confidence in the future of the Group, and I will lead the Group to overcome all difficulties together with all employees in order to create the maximum values for all shareholders.

Acknowledgment

Hereby, I avail myself of this opportunity to thank all directors, management of the Group and all the employees for their dedication and commitment and all suppliers, customers, bankers and shareholders for their continued support.

Luo Wen Chairman Beijing, The People's Republic of China 28 March 2010

Industry Overview

Upgrading in the area of market research and management consulting

According to Datamonitor report released in October 2008, the global management and marketing consulting services in 2007 (including corporate strategy services, operation management services, information technology solutions, human resource management services, etc.) and revenues of 258.9 billion U.S. dollars, representing an annual growth rate of 5.7%. In revenue structure, the operation and management services accounted for 35.6%, information technology consulting services accounted for 21.9%, corporate strategy services accounted for 14.6%, human resources management services accounted for 14.4%, outsourcing services accounted for 13.5%. With the rapid economic development, market competition has become increasingly fierce, business in an increasingly complex economic environment and rapid technological progress face more new challenges, the demand for market research and management consulting services become more diversify, to fulfil the higher needs of consulting services.

Information Consulting + Technical Implementation become an important direction of consulting service development

The complex competition in globalization and information technology brought new challenges of growth patterns to promote the consulting industry to shift the focus from a "Strategic Consulting" to "Technical Advice." In recent years, technical advice is much higher than the average annual growth rate of strategic consulting and information consultation growth rate, technical advice has become the core areas of the global consulting industry. Advisory structure in the "Information Consulting, IT Consulting and Strategic Advice" category is migrating to the "Information Consulting and Technical Advice" development.

Project consulting for industrial economic growth, the decision-making support

The further expansion room of China's economic growth, industrialization, urbanization, marketization and internationalization have clearly accelerated, electronic information, equipment manufacturing industry, new energy, new materials, bio-pharmaceutical etc, high-growth industry groups, as well as the rapid growth of heavy industry, is becoming the industry upgrade and the main engine of economic growth. Major changes in the economic structure for the engineering consulting provides a huge space for development. It is foreseeable that rapid economic growth trend in accumulation of capital and high investment will continue. As investment construction decisions become important part of engineering consulting, for various types of investors to ensure the scientific nature of decision-making to promote investment efficiency is of great significance.

To extend both ends in Project Management services

It is difficult for information engineering supervision constructor alone to determine master plans, technical proposals and equipment selection models owing to their insufficient technical know-how, and they require external consultative bodies to participate in the preliminary information engineering supervision works. Moreover, after working out the best master plans and technical proposals, consultative bodies are common to serve as supervision units during on-site construction, so the information project consulting services extend to both ends to cover the overall information engineering supervision process from the project initiation are extended to the whole operation in details.

Investment and finance consulting as a powerful weapon to promote advancement in industrial structure

Along with the progress of China's economic restructuring, the complexity of investment risks and the means of financing make the government, corporate need external agencies for professional consulting services in industrial surveys, project feasibility studies, financing plan design, and financing innovation. Meanwhile, with the continuous deepening of industrial restructuring, the market demand on industry consolidation for continuous improvement in competition is increasing, companies need more and more professional services on restructuring, listing, merger and reorganization, venture capital and other investment and financing services.

Data and information and technology development of integrated comprehensive application of a financial customer's key requirements

"Information Industry Eleventh-Five Year Plan" will focus on the information industry and information service platform construction as a major national information industry. It is stated that "The Building Of Unified Planning And Integration Of A Number of Large-scale Data Center, Literature Resource Center, Science and Technology Information Databases", provided the Government decision-making basis for the industry and community to provide basic data, product data, scientific and technical literature and other information query services. The rapid growth of institutional investors in China's securities market to invest on securities investment funds, the National Social Security Fund, QFII, the number of insurance companies requires high quality of financial information, which not only fast and but accurate to provide professional and objective financial data, it requires a platform for financial data, software, terminal reseach and development capability.

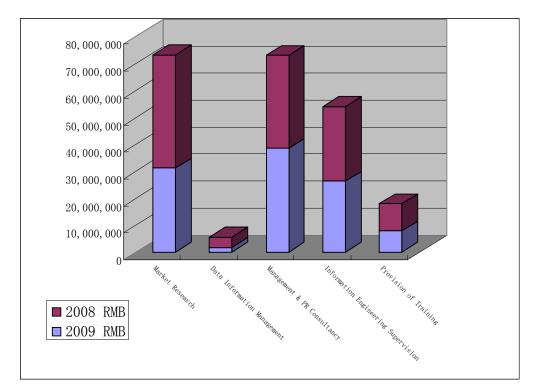

Capital Advisory Services can operate as an important lever of vertical integration

Information service companies are actively upgrading business services, speed up the industrial chain of upstream and downstream vertical integration, and strive to build products and services over the core business system to meet customized users with value-added and technological needs. Domestic and foreign information service enterprises have adopted acquisition, merger, listing the capital mode of operation to achieve economies of scale, enhance the consulting industry value chain. First, is derived manufacturing companies from information consulting services, such as IBM acquires PWC, HP through mergers and acquisitions to provide customers from hardware to software, from sales to full range of consulting services; Second, manufacturing enterprises acquire information consulting company, consulting firm such as AT Kearney merger with EDS; Third, is traditional consulting company to expand information services markets, such as Bearing Point transformation for solution providers, system integrators and world-class enterprise management software developers.

Future Plans for Material Investments

The Group is considering a possible issue of new H shares and related possible acquisitions and has engaged a financial adviser to evaluate their feasibilities. Should the Group proceed with the aforesaid transactions, the Group will strictly comply with the relevant disclosure, reporting (if applicable) and/or shareholders' approval requirements under the GEM Listing Rules.

Proposed specific mandate to issue new H shares relating to a possible placing of new H shares

On 9 September 2009, the Board resolved to convene an extraordinary general meeting (the "EGM"), a class meeting of the holders of H shares (the "H shares") and a class meeting of the holders of domestic shares of the Company (together, the "Class Meetings") for the shareholders, the holders of H shares and the holders of domestic shares of the Company (collectively, the "Shareholders") to consider and approve (if thought fit) respectively the grant of a specific mandate (the "Proposed Specific Mandate") to issue new H shares to the Board. The EGM and the Class Meetings were held on 24 November 2009 and by passed to approve the Board on the proposed specific mandate.

The major terms of the Proposed Specific Mandate are as follows:

- to issue not more than 200,000,000 new H Shares representing not more than approximately 28.57% of the total issued share capital of the Company as at 24 November 2009;
- (2) the new H Shares will be issued at a price not more than HK$0.60 per H Share, but in any event, the issue price should not be lower than the higher of either (i) HK$0.25; or (ii) the latest audited net asset value per share of the Company;
- (3) the Proposed Specific Mandate is for the period from the passing of the relevant resolutions at the EGM and the Class Meetings up to the earliest of: (i) the expiration of the 12-month period following the passing of the relevant resolution(s) at the EGM and/or the Class Meetings; or (ii) the revocation or variation of the authority given under the relevant resolution(s) at the EGM and/or the Class Meetings by special resolution(s) of the Shareholders in a general or a class meeting.

Issue of new H Shares pursuant to the Proposed Specific Mandate is subject to, among other things, the obtaining of the necessary approvals from the relevant PRC regulatory authorities, including the China Securities Regulatory Commission for the issue of the new H Shares and the National Social Security Fund Council of the PRC and the State-owned Assets Supervision and Administration Commission of the State Council for the disposal of the state-owned shares. Depending on market conditions, the directors may or may not exercise the Proposed Specific Mandate (if granted) to issue new H Shares. If the directors proceed to issue and allot new H Shares pursuant to the Proposed Specific Mandate (if granted), a separate announcement will be made as required by the GEM Listing Rules.

The possible placing of new H Shares will enlarge the shareholder and capital bases of the Company and strengthen the financial position of the Group.

Should the Board, proceed to exercise the Proposed Specific Mandate to issue new H Shares, the Company will apply to the GEM Listing Committee for the listing and permission to deal in all of the new H Shares to be issued and placed pursuant to the possible placing and the H Shares converted from domestic shares involved in the disposal of the state-owned shares.

REPORT OF THE SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

To: All Shareholders

The Supervisory Committee of CCID Consulting Company Limited (the "Supervisory Committee"), in accordance with the Company Law of the PRC, requirements of the relevant laws and regulations of Hong Kong and the Articles of Association of the Company during the year ended 31 December 2009, exercised conscientiously its authority, safeguarded the interests of the shareholders and the Company, followed the principle of honesty and trustworthiness and worked cautiously and diligently.

During the year, Supervisory Committee had reviewed cautiously the operations and development plans of the Company and provided reasonable suggestions and opinions to the Board of Directors. It also strictly and effectively monitored and supervised the Company's management in making significant policies and decisions to ensure that they are in compliance with the laws and regulations of the PRC and the Articles of Association of the Company, and in the interests of its shareholders.

We have reviewed and agreed to the report of the Directors and audited financial statements for the presentation at the forthcoming annual general meeting. We are of the opinion that the Directors, the general manager and other senior management of the Company were able to strictly observe their fiduciary duty, to act diligently and to exercise their authority faithfully in the best interests of the Company. Up till now, none of the Directors, general manager and senior management staff had been found abusing their authority, damaging the interests of the Company and infringing upon the interests of its shareholders and employees. And none of them were found to be in breach of any laws and regulations or the Articles of Association of the Company.

The Supervisory Committee is satisfied with the performance of the Company in year 2009 and has confidence in the future of the Company.

By Order of the Supervisory Committee

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the shareholders CCID Consulting Company Limited 賽迪顧問股份有限公司 (Incorporated in the People's Republic of China with limited liability)

We have audited the financial statements of the Company and of the Group set out on pages 43 to 98 which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position of the Group and the separate statement of financial position of the Company as at 31 December 2009, and the consolidated income statement, consolidated statement of comprehensive income, consolidated statement of cash flows and consolidated statement of changes in equity of the Group for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory notes.

Directors' responsibility for the financial statements

The Directors are responsible for the preparation and the true and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with HKFRS and the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. This responsibility includes designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and the true and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error; selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies; and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

Auditors' responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit and to report our opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with section 141 of the Companies Ordinance and for no other purpose. We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing issued by the HKICPA. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance as to whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal control relevant to the Company's and the Group's preparation and true and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's and the Group's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the Company and of the Group as at 31 December 2009 and of the Group's profit and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with HKFRS, and have been properly prepared in accordance with the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION

(a) Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with all applicable HKFRSs, HKASs and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. These financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosure provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the GEM of Exchange.

(b) Basis of presentation of the financial statements

The consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2009 comprise the Company and all of its subsidiaries.

These financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention as modified by the fair value of financial assets.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with HKFRSs requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis of making the judgments about carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Judgments made by management in the application of HKFRSs that have significant effect on the financial statements and estimates with a significant risk of material adjustment in the next year are discussed in note 2(c).

(c) Critical accounting judgments and key sources of estimation uncertainty

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies (as stated in note 3), management has made the following judgments that have significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements. The key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are also discussed below.

Impairment of property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and long-term investments

In determining whether an asset is impaired or the event previously causing the impairment no longer exists, the Group has to exercise judgment in the area of asset impairment, particularly in assessing: (i) whether an event has occurred that may affect the asset value or such event affecting the asset value has not been in existence; (ii) whether the carrying value of an asset can be supported by the net present value of future cash flows which are estimated based upon the continued use of the asset or derecognition; and (iii) the appropriate key assumptions to be applied in preparing cash flow projections including whether these cash flow projections are discounted using an appropriate rate. Changing the assumptions selected by management to determine the level of impairment, including the discount rates or the growth rate assumptions in the cash flow projections, could materially affect the net present value used in the impairment test. The Group determines whether an asset is impaired at least on an annual basis or where an indication of impairment exists. This requires an estimate of the value in use of the asset. Estimating the value in use requires the Group to make an estimate of the expected future cash flows from the assets and also to choose a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value of those cash flows.

(c) Critical accounting judgments and key sources of estimation uncertainty (Continued)

Impairment loss for bad and doubtful debts

The policy for impairment loss for bad and doubtful debts of the Group is based on the evaluation of collectability and ageing analysis of accounts and on management's judgment. A considerable amount of judgment is required in assessing the ultimate realisation of these receivables, including the current creditworthiness and the past collection history of each customer. If the financial conditions of customers of the Group were to deteriorate, resulting in an impairment of their ability to make payments, additional impairment losses may be required.

(d) Change after adoption of HKFRS

In this year, the Company as well as the Group firstly adopt the following HKFRS, HKAS and HK(IFRIC)-Ints together with their amendments, newly issued or revised as indicated, in these financial statements, viz:-

| HKAS 1 (Revised) | Presentation of financial statements |
|------------------|---|
| HKFRS 8 | Operating segments |
| HK(IFRIC)-Int 16 | Hedges of a net investment in a foreign operation |

The Company as well as the Group also adopt in advance the following HKFRS, HKAS and their improvements, newly issued or revised as indicated, in these financial statements, viz:-

| HKAS 24 (Revised) | Related party disclosures |
|----------------------------|---|
| HKAS 27 (Revised) | Consolidated and separate financial statements |
| HKFRS 3 (Revised) | Business combination |
| Improvement to HKFRSs | Amendments to HKFRSs and related basis for conclusions and |
| | guidance made in response to the IASB annual improvements project |
| Improvement to HKFRSs 2009 | Amendments to HKFRSs and related basis for conclusions and |
| | guidance made in response to the IASB annual improvements project |
| | in 2009 |

The comparatives have been amended, as required, in accordance with the relevant requirements.

The adoption of HKAS 1 (Revised) materially affects the presentations of the financial statements. Under HKAS 1 (Revised), consolidated balance sheet, separate balance sheet and consolidated cash flow statements are no longer components of financial statements. A complete set of financial statements shall present consolidated income statement, consolidated statement of comprehensive income, consolidated and separate statements of financial position, consolidated statement of cash flows, consolidated statement of changes in equity and notes to financial statements. The disclosure and presentation of consolidated income statement remain unchanged. Consolidated statement of comprehensive income presents total profit for the year as shown in consolidated income statement together with other comprehensive income. The disclosures and presentation of consolidated and separate balance sheets and consolidated cash flows are similar to former consolidated and separate balance sheets and consolidated cash flow statement. The presentation of statement of changes in equity remains unchanged. However, it requires disclosure of total comprehensive income and dividends recognized as distribution to owners during the year.

Moreover, the standard requires that current asset and liabilities, non-current assets and liabilities to be presented in the consolidated and separate statements of financial position separately. Assets that should be realized within 12 months after reporting period are presented as current assets. Other assets are presented as non-current assets. Liabilities that should be settled within 12 months after reporting period are presented as non-current liabilities. Other liabilities are presented as non-current liabilities.

HKFRS 8 requires an entity to report financial and descriptive information about its reportable segments on the same basis as is used internally for evaluating operating segment performance and decision-making purposes. Measures of operating segment profit or loss, of segment assets and liabilities, and of particular income and expense items used by management for operating decision-making are required to be disclosed. HKFRS 8 requires an entity to report information by product and services and by geographic locations together with some descriptive information. The adoption of HKFRS 8 does change the presentation of note to financial statements in respect of segment reporting in comparison period. However, it does not have material financial implications to the comprehensive income and financial position of the Company as well as the Group in prior periods.

HK(IFRIC)-Int 16 addresses three issues regarding the application of hedge accounting on net investments in foreign operation. These include nature of the hedged risk and amount of the hedged item for which a hedging relationship may be designated; where the hedging instrument can be held; and disposal of a hedged foreign operation. The adoption of this Interpretation has resulted that hedge accounting may be applied only to the foreign exchange differences arising between functional currencies of the foreign operation and of the Company as well as the Group; a derivative or a non-derivative instrument held by the Company or the Group may be designated as a hedging instrument; and the amount to be reclassified from equity to profit or loss as reclassification adjustment on disposal of foreign operation is equal to the cumulative gain or loss on the hedging instrument that was determined to be an effective hedge under HKAS 39.

Improvements to HKFRSs set out amendments to HKFRS 5, HKAS 1, HKAS 16, HKAS 19, HKAS 20, HKAS 23, HKAS 27, HKAS 28, HKAS 29, HKAS 36, HKAS 38, HKAS 39, HKAS 40 and HKAS 41 that result in accounting changes for presentation, recognition or measurement purposes. It also contains amendments to HKFRS 7, HKAS 8, HKAS 10, HKAS 18, HKAS 20, HKAS 29, HKAS 34, HKAS 40 and HKAS 41 that are terminology or editorial changes only. The adoption of Improvements to HKFRSs shall have the following implication to the financial statements:-

- Borrowing costs may include interest expense calculated using effective interest rate method as described in HKAS 39; finance charges in respect of finance leases recognized in accordance with HKAS 17; and exchange differences arising from foreign currency borrowings to the extend that they are regarded as an adjustment to the interest costs.
- Additional disclosures are required on the estimates used to measure recoverable amounts of cash-generating units containing goodwill or intangible assets with indefinite useful lives if the fair value less costs to sell is determined using discounted cash flow projections.
- Property that is being constructed or developed for future use as investment property shall no longer be classified as property, plant and equipment. All such kind of property shall be reclassified from property, plant and equipment to investment property.
- The amount of dividends proposed or declared after the reporting period but before the financial statements are authorized for issue are disclosed together with related amount per share in note to financial statements.
- HKAS 38 require that if no active market for an intangible asset to determine its fair value, those intangible asset shall be carried at cost less any accumulated amortization and impairment losses, if any.

HKAS 24 (Revised) provides exemption clauses from disclosure of transactions with government-related entities. Hence, entities controlled or significantly influenced by a government are exempted to disclose related party transactions, balances and commitments. However, it require the disclosure of the name of the government. The early adoption of this HKAS reduces the burden on excessive disclosures.

HKAS 27 (Revised) primarily relates to the accounting for non-controlling interests and loss of control of a subsidiary. Non-controlling interests replace former minority interests and will be measured in accordance with HKFRS 3 (Revised). Total comprehensive income must be attributed to the Group and to the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance. Moreover, HKAS 27 (Revised) requires the Group derecognizing assets and liabilities associated with the subsidiaries of which the Company has lost controls; any gain or loss on derecognizion of uncontrollable subsidiaries shall be recognized in profit or loss. Any previously recognized other comprehensive income originated from the uncontrollable subsidiaries shall be reclassified to profit or loss. As HKAS 27 (Revised) contains exemption clauses, the adoption of this HKAS 27 (Revised) does not result restatement or change of the comprehensive income and financial position of the Company as well as the Group in prior periods.

Improvements to HKFRSs 2009 set out amendments to HKFRS 2, HKFRS 5, HKFRS 8, HKAS 1, HKAS 7, HKAS 17, HKAS 18, HKAS 36, HKAS 38, HKAS 39, HKAS 40, HKAS 41, HK(IFRIC)-Int 9 and HK(IFRIC)-Int 16. The adoption of Improvements to HKFRSs 2009 shall have the following implication to the financial statements:-

- The Group shall report, among other things, a measure of total assets and liabilities for each reportable segment.
- The Group shall classify a liability as current liabilities when it does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period disregarding any exercisable share option held by the counterparty.
- For the purpose of consolidated statement of cash flows, only expenditure that results in a recognised asset in the consolidated statement of financial position are eligible for classification as investing activities.
- The amendment to HKAS 17 has removed the paragraphs that require "land held under a lease should be classified as an operating lease unless title to the land is expected to pass at the end of the lease It provides new guidance which indicates that entities should use judgment to decide term". whether the lease transfers the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the land in accordance with the criteria set out in HKAS 17. An entity shall reassess the classification of land elements of unexpired leases at the date it adopts the amendments on the basis of information existing at the inception of the lease. It shall recognize a lease newly classified as a finance lease or operating lease retrospectively in accordance with HKAS 8 "Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors" if the criteria of a financial lease or operating lease is met. On the early adoption of this amendment, the Group has made a reassessment of the existing land lease arrangement and concluded that such arrangement has not substantially transferred all risks and rewards incidental to ownership of the leased land to the Group (note 14 to financial statements). Nevertheless, prepaid land lease expense of the Group and the Company has been reclassified to property, plant and equipment and amortization of prepaid land lease expense has been reclassified to depreciation retrospectively. Such reclassification had no effect on the result and the financial position of the Company and of the Group.

The requirements of HKFRS 3 (Revised) are similar to the former HKFRS 3 with the exception that non-controlling interests and goodwill in a business combination fully recognize the fair value of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. As the Company as well as the Group adopt HKFRS 3 (Revised) prospectively to business combination effective on or after 1 January 2009, the adoption of this HKFRS 3 (Revised) does not have material financial implication to the comprehensive income and financial position of the Company as well as the Group in prior periods.

The adoption of new or revised HKFRS has resulted the following prior period adjustments:-

- 1. Reclassification of land lease prepayment
- 2. Intangible assets that was measured using fair value model are re-measured using cost model
- 3. Accrued assets and accrued liabilities that should be realized and settled within twelve months after reporting period are reclassified as non-current assets and liabilities respectively

As the Company and the Group adopted the above amendments which has resulted in retrospective application of three accounting policies and reclassification of certain items in the financial statements, in accordance with HKAS 1 (Revised) "Presentation of Financial Statements", the Company and the Group have presented an additional statement of financial position and related notes as at 1 January 2008 that reflect the financial position of the Company and of the Group at the beginning of the earliest comparative period (Opening statement of financial position) being presented.

The Company as well as the Group have early adopted HKAS 24 (Revised) and HKAS 27 (Revised), HKFRS 3 (Revised) in this set of financial statements. Improvement to HKFRSs and Improvement to HKFRSs 2009.

The Company as well as the Group have not early adopted the other New Standards and Amendments in this set of financial statements. The Company and the Group have already commenced an assessment of the impact of the other New Standards and Amendments but not yet in a position to state whether the other New Standards and Amendments would have a significant impact on their operating results and financial positions.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The followings are the specific accounting policies that are necessary for a proper understanding of the financial statements.

(a) Subsidiaries and non-controlling interests

Subsidiaries are entities, including unincorporated body such as partnership, which are controlled by the Company. Control exists when the Group has the power to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities. In assessing control, potential voting rights that presently are exercisable taken into account.

An investment in a subsidiary is consolidated into the consolidated financial statements from the date that control commences until the date that control ceases. Intra-group balances and transactions, and any unrealised profits arising from intra-group transactions, are eliminated in full in preparing the consolidated financial statements. Unrealised losses resulting from intra-group transactions are eliminated in the same way as unrealised gains, but only to the extent that there is no evidence of impairment.

Non-controlling interests represent the portion of the net assets of subsidiaries attributable to interests that are not owned by the Company, whether directly or indirectly through subsidiaries, and in respect of which the Group has not agreed any additional terms with the holders of those interests which would result in the Group as a whole having a contractual obligation in respect of those interest that meets the definition of a financial liability. Non-controlling interests are presented in the consolidated statement of financial position within equity, separately from equity attributable to the equity shareholders of the Company. Non-controlling interests in the results of the Group are presented on the fact of the consolidated income statement as an allocation of the total profit or loss for the year between non-controlling interests and the equity shareholders of the Company.

Where losses attributable to the non-controlling interests exceed their interest in the equity of a subsidiary, the excess are still charged against the non-controlling interests. The Group shall not bear the liabilities attributable to non-controlling interests.

In the Company's statement of financial position, an investment in a subsidiary is stated at cost less impairment losses, unless the investment is classified as held for sale (or included in a disposal group).

(b) Intangible assets

Intangible assets having definite useful lives are stated at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment losses. Cost incurred for internally generated goodwill and brand name is recognised as an expense in the period in which it is incurred. Amortisation of intangible assets is charged to profit or loss on a straight line basis over the assets' estimated useful lives unless the useful live is infinite. The information database is amortised from the date it is available for use and its estimated useful life is 10 years. Both the period and method of amortisation are reviewed annually.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are stated at cost less accumulated amortization and impairment losses, if any brought forward from previous years. They are not subject to amortisation but reviewed for impairment annually.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

(c) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment loss, if any. Cost comprises purchase price and conversion cost. Expenditure such as repairs and maintenance, overhaul costs and cost of restoring are normally charged to profit or loss when they are incurred. Where expenditure has resulted in an increase in the future economic benefit from the use of the property, plant and equipment, the expenditure is capitalised. On disposal or retirement, the cost together with associated accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, if any, of the property, plant and equipment are removed from the accounts and any gain or loss resulting from the disposal is included in profit or loss.

The residual value and useful lives of property, plant and equipment are reviewed annually. Depreciation is calculated to write off the depreciable amount of items of property, plant and equipment, using the straight line method over their estimated useful lives as follows:

|---|----------|----------|----------|
| Land and buildings held under operating lease | 30 years | 30 years | 30 years |
| Furniture, fixtures and equipment | 5 years | 5 years | 5 years |
| Motor vehicles | 5 years | 5 years | 5 years |

(d) Leased assets

Leases where substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of assets are not transferred to the lessee are accounted for as operating leases. Annual rents (included land held under operating lease) applicable to such operating leases are charged to the profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The lease prepayment for the useful right of the land and building are charged to the profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Incentives such as rent-free period or subsidy on decoration, if any, are recognized as a reduction of rental expenses over the lease term on straight-line basis.

(e) Impairment of assets

i) Impairment of receivables

Receivables that are stated at cost or amortised cost are reviewed at the end of each reporting period to determine whether there is objective evidence of impairment. If any such evidence exists, any impairment loss is determined and recognised. For financial assets carried at amortised cost, the impairment loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the financial assets original effective interest rate (i.e. the effective interest rate computed at initial recognition of these assets), where the effect of discounting is material.

An impairment loss is reversed if the impairment loss reduced by subsequent favourable changes in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. A reversal of an impairment loss is limited to the asset's carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised in prior years.

ii) Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives

Intangible assets are evaluated based on the relevant profit after tax, appropriate discounting factor and expected growth rate, and computed using dividend model with several major assumptions. Impairment loss is determined by comparing the recoverable amount with carrying value of the intangible assets.

- (e) Impairment of assets (Continued)
 - iii) Impairment of other assets

Internal and external sources of information are reviewed at the end of each reporting period to identify indications that the following assets may be impaired or, an impairment loss previously recognised no longer exists or may have decreased:

- property, plant and equipment;
- intangible assets with finite useful life;
- investments in subsidiaries (excluding non-current assets held for sale and disposal group);
- Available-for-sale financial assets stated at cost.

If any such indication exists, the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. In addition, for intangible assets that are not yet available for use and intangible assets that have indefinite useful lives, the recoverable amount is estimated annually whether or not there is any indication of impairment.

- Calculation of recoverable amount

The recoverable amount of an asset is the greater of its net selling price and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. Where an asset does not generate cash inflows largely independent of those from other assets, the recoverable amount is determined for the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows independently (i.e. a cash-generating unit).

- Recognition of impairment losses

An impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss whenever the carrying amount of an asset, or the cash-generating unit to which it belongs, exceeds its recoverable amount. Impairment losses recognised in respect of cash-generating unit are allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the cash-generating unit (or group of units) and then, to reduce the carrying amount of the other assets in the unit (or group of units) on a pro rata basis, except that the carrying value of an asset will not be reduced below its individual fair value less costs to sell, or value in use, if determinable.

- Reversals of impairment losses

An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a favourable change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. A reversal of an impairment loss is limited to the asset's carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised in prior years. Reversals of impairment losses are credited to profit or loss in the year in which the reversals are recognised.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

(f) Accounts and other receivables

Accounts and other receivables are initially recognised at fair value and thereafter stated at amortised cost less impairment losses for bad and doubtful debts, except where the receivables are interest-free loans made to related parties without any fixed repayment terms or the effect of discounting would be immaterial. In such cases, the receivables are stated at cost less impairment losses for bad and doubtful debts.

(g) Accounts and other payables

Accounts and other payables are initially recognised at fair value and subsequently stated at amortised cost unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at cost.

(h) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at bank and on hand, demand deposits with banks and other financial institutions, and short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, having been within three months of maturity at acquisition. Bank overdrafts that are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management are also included as a component of cash and cash equivalents for the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows.

(i) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets that are classified as held for trading or are designated at fair value through profit or loss at initial recognition are classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss. Derivatives are also categorized as held for trading unless they are designated as hedges. Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are initially recognised at fair value of transaction date. After initial recognition, financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are insign from change of fair value or otherwise are recognised in income statement.

(j) Available-for-sale financial assets

Unlisted equity instruments whose fair value cannot be reliably measured are classified as available-for-sale financial assets. Available-for-sale financial assets are initially recognized and subsequently measured at cost. Impairment loss, exchange gain or loss and gain or loss after derecognition are recognised in profit or loss. All other gains or losses are dealt with directly in equity.

(k) Employee benefits

Salaries, paid annual leave, contributions to defined contribution retirement plans and the cost of non-monetary benefits are accrued in the year in which the associated services are rendered by employees. Where payment or settlement is deferred and the effect would be material, these amounts are stated at their present values. Annual bonus determined by the management by reference to the operating result of previously years, unless there are objective evidences showing that the bonuses are associated to the services rendered by employees in previous years are recognised as expenses at the time of payment.

The Group participates in a defined contribution retirement plan organised by the local municipal government for its staff. The Group is required to make contributions to the retirement plan at a certain rate of the salaries, bonuses and certain allowance of its staff. The contributions payable are charged to profit and loss on an accrual basis according to the contribution determined by the plan. The local municipal government undertakes to assume the retirement benefits obligations of all existing and future retired employees of the Group. The only obligation of the Group with respect to the plan is to pay the ongoing required contributions under the plan mentioned above.

(l) Income tax

Income tax for the year comprises current tax and movements in deferred tax assets and liabilities. Current tax and movements in deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognised in profit or loss except to the extent that they relate to items recognised directly in equity, in which case they are recognised in equity.

Current tax is expected tax payable on taxable income for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities arise from deductible and taxable temporary differences respectively, being the differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and their tax bases. Deferred tax assets also arise from unused tax losses and unused tax credits.

Apart from certain limited exceptions, all deferred tax liabilities, and all deferred tax assets to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the asset can be utilised, are recognised. Future taxable profits that may support the recognition of deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences include those that will arise from the reversal of existing taxable temporary differences, provided those differences relate to the same taxation authority and the same taxable entity, and are expected to reverse either in the same period as the expected reversal of the deductible temporary difference or in periods into which a tax loss arising from the deferred tax asset can be carried back or forward. The same criteria are adopted when determining whether existing taxable temporary differences support the recognition of deferred tax assets arising from unused tax losses and credits, that is, those differences are taken into account if they relate to the same taxation authority and the same taxable entity, and are expected to reverse in a period, or periods, in which the tax loss or credit can be utilised.

The limited exceptions to recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities are those temporary differences arising from goodwill not deductible for tax purposes, the initial recognition of assets or liabilities that affect neither accounting nor taxable profit (provided they are not part of a business combination), and temporary differences relating to investments in subsidiaries to the extent that, in the case of taxable differences, the Group controls the timing of the reversal and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future, or in the case of deductible differences, unless it is probable that they will reverse in the future.

The amount of deferred tax recognised is measured based on the expected manner of realisation or settlement of the carrying amount of the assets and liabilities, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the end of reporting period. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are not discounted.

The carrying amount of a deferred tax asset is reviewed at each closing date of reporting period and is reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow the related tax benefit to be utilised. Any such reduction is reversed to the extent that it becomes probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available.

Additional income taxes that arise from the distribution of dividends are recognised when the liability to pay the related dividends is recognised.

(1) Income tax (Continued)

Current tax balances and deferred tax balances, and movements therein, are presented separately from each other and are not offset. Current tax assets are offset against current tax liabilities, and deferred tax assets against deferred tax liabilities if, the Company or the Group has the legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the following additional conditions are met:

- in the case of current tax assets and liabilities, the Company or the Group intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously; or
- in the case of deferred tax assets and liabilities, if they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority; or
- the same taxable entity; or
- different taxable entities, which, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered, intend to realise the current tax assets and settle the current tax liabilities on a net basis or realise and settle simultaneously.
- (m) Provisions and contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognised for liabilities of uncertain timing or amount when the Group or the Company has a legal or constructive obligation arising as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made. Where the time value of money is material, provisions are stated at the present value of the expenditure expected to settle the obligation.

Where it is not probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required, or the amount cannot be estimated reliably, the obligation is disclosed as a contingent liability, unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote. Possible obligations, whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more future events are also disclosed as contingent liabilities unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote.

(n) Contracts for services

Contract revenue on the rendering of services comprises the agreed contract amount. Costs of rendering services comprise labour and other costs of personnel directly engaged in providing the services and attributable overheads.

When the outcome of a contract can be estimated reliably, revenue from the rendering of services is recognised using the percentage of completion method, measured by reference to the percentage of contract costs incurred to date to estimated total contract costs for the contract. Contract costs are recognised as an expense by reference to the stage of completion of the contract at the end of the reporting period.

When the outcome of a contract cannot be estimated reliably, revenue is recognised only to the extent of contract costs incurred that it is probable will be recoverable, and contract costs are recognised as an expense in the period in which they are incurred.

Where it is probable that total contract costs will exceed total contract revenue, the expected loss is recognised as an expense immediately.

Where contract costs incurred to date plus recognised profits less recognised losses exceed progress billings, the surplus is treated as an amount due from contract customers. Where progress billings exceed contract costs incurred to date, plus recognised profits less recognised losses, the surplus is treated as an amount due to contract customers.

- 3. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)
 - (o) Information engineering supervision

Information engineering supervision contract revenue on the rendering of services comprises the sum agreed by contractual parties. Cost of rendering services comprise labour and other cost directly engaged in providing the services and attributable overheads.

Revenue from the rendering of service is recognised in profit or loss on straight line basis over the contract period. In case of variation of contract period, the unrecognized revenue will be equally allocated to the remaining contract period.

(p) Revenue recognition

Provided it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the revenue and costs, if applicable, can be measured reliably, revenue is recognised in profit or loss as follows:

- i) Revenue from the rendering of data information management, market research, management consultancy and public relationship consultancy services is recognised in note 3 (n) above;
- ii) Revenue from rendering of information engineering supervision service is recognised according to note 3 (o) above;
- iii) Revenue from the provision of training courses is recognised in accordance with the progress of the training programme; and
- iv) Interest income is recognised as it accrues using the effective interest method.

Revenue excludes sales taxes, where applicable.

(q) Translation of foreign currencies

Foreign currency transactions during the year are translated at the foreign exchange rates ruling at the transaction dates. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the foreign exchange rates ruling at the end of reporting period. Exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

(r) Related parties

For the purposes of these financial statements, a party is considered to be related to the Group if:

- i) the party has the ability, directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, to control the Group or exercise significant influence over the Group in making financial and operating policy decisions, or has joint control over the Group;
- ii) the Group and the party are subject to common control;
- iii) the party is a member of key management personnel of the Group or the Company's parent, or a close family member of such an individual, or is an entity under the control, joint control or significant influence of such individuals;
- iv) the party is a close family member of a party referred to in (i) or is an entity under the control, joint control or significant influence of such individuals; or
- v) the party is a post-employment benefit plan which is for the benefit of employees of the Company or of any entity that is a related party of the Group.

Close family members of an individual are those family members who may be expected to influence, or be influenced by, that individual in their dealings with the entity.

(s) Associates

Associates are all entities over which the Group has significant influence but not control. In general, if the Group holds, directly or indirectly, 20% or more of the voting power of the investee company, it is presumed that the Group has significant influence in the investee company unless it can be clearly demonstrated that it is not the case. In the Group's consolidated financial statements, the Group's share of the post-acquisition results of associates is included in the consolidated income statement under equity method of accounting. The Group's investments in associates are initially recognised at cost and adjusted with the share of post-acquisition results of the associates recognised in consolidated income statement.

In the Company's separate financial statements, investments in associates are stated at cost less impairment loss, if any. The results of associates are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividend received and receivable.

Investment in newly acquired associate is initially recognised at cost. Investment in an associate which was a subsidiary of the Company who loses control over the former subsidiary but retains significant influence is initially recognized at deemed cost, being the carrying value of former subsidiary at the date of reclassification.

Its carrying amount is increased or decreased to recognise the Group's share of profit/loss and other comprehensive income of the associates from the date the investees become associates. The Group's share of the profit or loss of the associates is recognised in the Group's profit or loss. The Group's share of other comprehensive income of the associates is included in consolidated statement of comprehensive income. Distributions received by way of dividend or otherwise from an associate will reduce the carrying amount of the investment. In case the carrying value of the investment in associates is reduced to zero, additional losses are not provided for unless the Company has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associates.

4. REVENUE

(a) Turnover

Turnover represents the sales value of services provided to customers, which excludes sales surtaxes. The amount of each significant category of revenue recognised in turnover during the year is as follows:

| | | 2009 RMB | 2008 RMB |
|----|---|--|---|
| | Market research services Data information management services Management and public relationship | 31,336,874 1,934,353 | 41,854,712 3,780,994 |

| | (b) Other revenue | 2009 RMB | 2008 RMB |
| | Interest income from bank deposits Sundry income | 190,431 829,103 1,019,534 | 590,724 13,220 603,944 |
| 5. | IMPAIRMENT OF ASSETS | 2009 | 2008 |
| | Trade receivables Bad and doubtful debts recognised in profit or loss Bad and doubtful debts recovered | RMB 279,540 (188,655) 90,885 | RMB 175,755 (43,000) 132,755 |

The Directors have carried out individual assessment on trade and other receivables at the end of reporting period based on the result of collection actions taken by Credit Control Department and/or Accounting Department, collaterals on hand, guarantee obtained and the experience of the Directors. The Directors have also carried out collective assessment based on ageing analysis and the irrecoverable rate of bad debt. Impairment loss recognised/(reversed) during the year include:-

| | 2009 | 2008 |
|-----------------------|--------------------|-----------|
| | RMB | RMB |

| | 90,885 | 132,755 |

6. PROFIT BEFORE TAXATION

Profit before taxation is arrived at after charging:

a) Staff costs (including directors' and supervisors' remuneration)

| Starr costs (including directors and supervisors remuneration | 2009 RMB | 2008 RMB |
|---|-------------|-------------|
| Salaries, wages and other benefits | 37,889,791 | 31,844,689 |

The proposed final dividend for the year is subject to the approval of the Company's shareholders at the forthcoming annual general meeting.

11. DIVIDENDS (Continued)

Pursuant to the PRC Company Law and the Articles of Association of the Company and all of its subsidiaries, dividend shall only be distributed having deducted all of the following items from the profit after tax:

- Making up prior year's commulative losses, if any. _
- Allocations to the statutory common reserve funds of at least 10% of profit after tax, until the fund aggregates 50% of its registered capital. For the purpose of calculating the transfer to reserves, the profit after tax shall be the amount determined under PRC accounting principles and financial regulations. The transfer to this reserve must be made before any distribution of dividends to shareholders.
- The statutory common reserve funds can be used to offset prior years' losses, if any, and part of the statutory common reserve funds can be capitalised as share capital/registered capital provided that the amount of such reserve remaining after the capitalisation shall not be less than 25% of the share capital/registered capital.
- Allocations of profit after tax, to the statutory public welfare funds. As the PRC Company Law abolished statutory welfare funds since 1 January 2006 and the Articles of Association of the Companies within the Group have not defined minimum amount to be transferred from the post tax profit to the statutory welfare funds the Group and the Company do not transfer fund to this account in this year (2008: Nil).

12. EARNINGS PER SHARE

Basic

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the profit attributable to equity holders of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares in issue during the year.

Diluted

As there were no diluted potential shares outstanding during the year, the diluted earnings per share is identical to the basic earnings per share.

The basic and diluted earnings per share are computed as follows:-

| | 2009 | 2008 |
|---|--------------------|-------------|
| Profit attributable to equity holders of the Company (RMB) Divided by weighted average number of | 11,876,557 | 12,138,339 |
| issued shares (shares) Basic and diluted earnings per share (cents) | 700,000,000 1.7 | 700,000,000 |

13. OPERATING SEGMENTS

Descriptive information about the Group's reportable segments

The Group's operating segments are structured and managed separately, according to the nature of their operations and the products and services they provide. Each operating segments represents a strategic business unit that provides services which are subject to risks and returns that are different from those of other operating segments. In a manner consistent with the way in which information is reported internally to the Group's most senior executive management for the purpose of resource allocation and performance assessment, the Group has presented the following five reportable segments.

- the market research services segment provides two kinds of services: standard research on specific sectors and tailor-made research;
- the data information management services segment mainly includes the supply and provision of data information products and services, government data information management solutions and total enterprise information management solutions;
- the management and public relation consultancy services segment provides services involving the application and implementation of enterprise management information digitalisation. This incorporates the functions of business process re-engineering, enterprise resource planning, customer relationship management, supply chain management, call centre and other electronic business pattern designs, marketing, brand name promotion, public relationship and advertising;
- the information engineering supervision services segment provides information engineering supervision services to undertaken projects; and
- the provision of training services segment provides the relevant know-how and skills in monitoring and controlling of information engineering to employees of commercial clients.

Measurement of segment profit or loss, assets and liabilities

For the purpose of assessing segment performance and allocating resources between segments, the Group's senior executive management monitors the results, assets and liabilities attributable to each reportable segment on the following bases:-

Segment assets include all tangible assets, intangible assets and current assets directly managed by the segments. Segment liabilities include trade creditors, accruals and loans attributable to the operating and sales activities of the individual segments and bank borrowings managed directly by the segments.

Revenue and expenses are allocated to the reportable segments with reference to sales generated by those segments and the expenses incurred by those segments or which otherwise arise from the depreciation and amortization of assets attributable to those segments.

The measure used for reporting segment profit is "adjusted earnings before taxation". To arrive at adjusted earnings before taxation, the Group's earnings are adjusted for items not specifically attributed to individual segment, such as head office or corporate administration cost.

14. PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT (Continued)

On 25 April 2002, the Company entered into a sale and purchase agreement (the "S&P Agreement") with its holding company, MIICMD, to purchase the ninth and tenth floors of the CCID Plaza in Beijing (the "Properties") at a total consideration of RMB32,818,854, including deed tax of RMB1,262,264.

MIICMD has obtained a mortgage loan facility from a PRC commercial bank (the "Bank") by pledging the entire CCID Plaza with the Bank. The Bank was advised by MIICMD of the above sale and a written consent was obtained from the Bank. MIICMD has obtained the ownership certificates of the CCID Plaza from relevant government authorities. Pursuant to the S&P Agreement, MIICMD should make all necessary arrangements for the transfer of the ownership of the Properties to the Company once its title over the CCID Plaza and the Bank's approval of the transfer are obtained or upon the settlement of all outstanding principal and interest by MIICMD of the mortgage loan relating to the said floors of the CCID Plaza. However, if MIICMD is in default of the terms as set out in the respective mortgage loan agreement with the Bank, the Bank has the right to sell CCID Plaza and apply the proceeds to settle all outstanding amounts due to the Bank by MIICMD. Should this event occur, pursuant to the S&P Agreement, MIICMD has committed to repay to the Company the consideration received from the Company in respect of the purchase within seven days without interest (the "MIICMD undertaking"). In addition, pursuant to an undertaking letter dated 30 September 2002, supplemented by a confirmation and executed by CCID, CCID has undertaken to utilise its own financial resources and procure members of the CCID Group to utilise their respective financial resources to honour the MIICMD undertaking should MIICMD fail to honour such an undertaking itself. As at 31 December 2007, the Company had settled a total sum of RMB29.978.760 (2008; RMB29.978.760) to MIICMD in relating to the purchase of the Properties. The Properties are currently being occupied by the Group as offices and for other ancillary purposes.

As of 31 December 2009, the Bank has agreed to discharge the charge against the Properties without involving litigation. The Directors are of their opinions that the legal title of the Properties can be assigned to the Company by the end of 2010.

Since the legal title of the Property has yet assigned to the Company, the significant risk and reward of ownership of the Properties have not yet passed to the Company. Accordingly, the Group recognizes the Properties as land and buildings held under operating lease.

The information database is updated on a continuous basis, and now it has stored more than 16,000,000 units. The Company and the Group depend on the information provided by the information database to earn subscription fees, as well as service charges of standard research reports, special research reports, and providing consultation on public relations.

Prior to 2008, the intangible assets used to be recognized as expenses on straight-line basis based on its estimated useful life of 10 years. The amortized expenses were included in cost of sales in the consolidated income statement.

At the beginning of 2008, the Group reformed its website, and introduced a website with brand new layout in the middle of 2008, which was named www.cciddata.com ("the CCIDDATA"). As a new version of website was introduced to the market, the management held that carrying value of the information database might not reflect its fair value. They engaged LCH (Asia-Pacific) Surveyors Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Surveyor") to revalue the information database. Because the Group reformed its website at the beginning of 2008, the Surveyor, in order to clearly differentiate values of the original and present websites and the associated costs, revalued the information database on the basis of 1 January 2008, and measured the information database by means of weighted-average cost of capital. In considering the basis of measurement, one of the major presumptions of the Surveyor was the useful life of the information database. The surveyor presumed that the useful life of the information database could be prolonged indefinitely on the condition that it was under ongoing maintenance and data update. As such, the estimated useful life of the information database is indefinite. According to the Directors, the Group depends on the information provided by the information database to make profits, and the Group has to maintain the information database and to update its data in the foreseeable future. The Directors regard that the foregoing assumption made by the Surveyor corresponds to the present situation and long-term development orientation of the Group.

According to the Surveyor's report, the valuation of the information database at 1 January 2008 is RMB15,000,000. As the information database does not have active market to justify its fair value, it is stated at cost less accumulated amortization and impairment losses in accordance with paragraph 74 of HKAS 38 ("Intangible assets"). As the useful life of the information database is indefinite, no amortization is made for it according to paragraph 107 of HKAS 38 ("Intangible assets"), but it needs to be tested for impairment annually according to paragraph 10 of HKAS 36 ("Impairment of assets").

Although different accounting policies for the information database were adopted in 2007 and 2008, its measuring conditions (namely the certainty on the length of useful life) were, after revaluation, different from those of 2007, so this does not constitute a change of accounting policy and no prior period adjustments should be made in accordance with paragraph 16 of HKAS 8.

At the end of the year, the management of the Group evaluated the recoverable amount of the intangible assets. The recoverable amount is based on the relevant post-tax profit in 2009, quoted the discounting factor and expected growth rate from the Surveyor's report, and computed using dividend model with several major assumptions. The evaluation indicates that the recoverable amount of the information database at the end of year is larger than its carrying value, so provision for impairment loss is not necessary.

29. RESERVES (Continued)

Notes:

- (a) The capital reserve account can only be used to increase share capital.
- (b) Under the PRC Company Law and the Articles of Association of the companies within the Group, net profit after tax as reported in the PRC financial statements can only be distributed as dividends after allowance has been made for the following:
 - Making up prior year's cumulative losses, if any.
 - Allocations to the statutory common reserve fund of at least 10% of profit after tax, until the fund aggregates 50% of its registered capital. For the purpose of calculating the transfer to reserves, the profit after tax shall be the amount determined under PRC accounting principles and financial regulations. The transfer to this reserve must be made before any distribution of dividends to shareholders.
 - The statutory common reserve funds can be used to offset prior years' losses, if any, and part of the statutory common reserve funds can be capitalised as share capital/registered capital provided that the amount of such reserve remaining after the capitalisation shall not be less than 25% of the share capital/registered capital.
 - Allocations to the discretionary reserve funds if approved by the shareholders. A discretionary reserve funds can be used to offset prior years' losses, if any, and capitalised as the share capital/registered capital.
 - Accordingly, the Company and CCID Supervision are required to transfer 10% of profit after tax, if any, to the statutory reserve funds. Subject to certain restrictions as set out in the relevant PRC regulations, the statutory reserve funds may be used to offset against the accumulated losses of the respective companies, capitalised as the respective companies' share capital/registered capital and used to provide collective welfare benefits to the staff. No discretionary reserve funds were appropriated for 2009 (2008: Nil).
 - In accordance with the Articles of Association of the companies, the net profit after tax of the Company for the purpose of profit distributions/dividends will be deemed to be the lesser of (i) the net profit determined in accordance with PRC accounting principles and financial regulations; and (ii) the net profit determined in accordance with Hong Kong accounting standards.
 - The Company's reserve available for distribution pursuant to Section 79B of Companies Ordinance is as follow:-

Unrealised profit refers to the profit on adjustment on fair value of financial assets.

30. SHARE OPTION SCHEME

The Company adopted a share option scheme on 20 November 2002. Pursuant to the share option scheme, the Board of Directors of the Company may, at its discretion, grant options to any full-time employees of the Group to subscribe for shares in the Company, to a maximum of 30% of the Company's H shares in issue from time to time. The exercise price will be determined by the Board of Directors, and will not be less than the highest of: (a) the closing price of the H shares as stated in the GEM's daily quotations sheet on the date of offer, which must be a business day; (b) the average closing prices of the H shares as stated in the GEM's daily quotation sheets for the five business days immediately preceding the date of offer; and (c) the nominal value of an H share. However, employees who are Chinese nationals in Mainland China shall not be entitled to exercise the option until the current restrictions on these persons for subscribing or dealing in H shares imposed by the laws and regulations in Mainland China have been amended or removed. Until 31 December 2009, no options were granted to the Group's employees since the listing of the Company in the Exchange.

31. COMMITMENTS

(a) At 31 December 2009, the total future minimum lease payments under non-cancellable operating leases were payable as follows:

| | The | The Group | | The Company | |

33. NON-ADJUSTING EVENTS AFTER REPORTING PERIOD

No non-adjusting event occurred after the end of reporting period and before the approved and authorized for issue of these annual audited financial statements by Board of Directors.

34. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

Financial assets and liabilities carried on the statement of financial position include the following assets and liabilities:-

- Financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss;
- Available-for-sale financial assets;
- Cash and cash equivalents;
- Trade and other receivables; and
- Trade and other payables.

Exposure to financial risks on its financial assets and liabilities comprises:-

- Currency risk on monetary assets, monetary liabilities and commitments denominated in foreign currencies resulting from change of foreign exchange rate;
- Price risk on financial assets at fair value of which the value is subject to fluctuation as a result of changes in market price;
- Credit risk on credit period offered to its trade debtors and advances to other debtors; and
- Liquidity risk on withdrawal or cutting of credit limit and credit period offered by trade creditors.

Financial risk management objectives and policies

Risk management is carried out by a group's Financial Controller under policies approved by the Board of Directors. The financial Controller identifies, evaluates and hedges financial risks in close co-operation with the Group's operating units. The Board of Directors provides written principles for overall risk management, as well as written policies covering specific areas, such as foreign exchange risk, interest-rate risk, credit risk, use of derivative financial instruments and non-derivative financial instruments, and investing excess liquidity.

Currency risk

The Group's monetary assets and transactions are principally denominated in Renminbi. The Group is exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from the exposure of RMB against United States Dollars and Hong Kong Dollars. Having regard the exchange rates between RMB and the other two foreign currencies, the Group believes that its exposure to foreign exchange risk is remote. At present, the Group does not intend to hedge its exposure to foreign exchange risk profile, and will consider appropriate hedging measures in future upon necessary.

As at 31 December 2009, had RMB been strengthened or weakened by 1% against the foreign currencies with all other variables held constant, the profit before tax would have been increased or decreased by RMB1,717 (2008: RMB8,725).

Price risk

As the financial assets at fair value represent an immaterial portion to the Group's total assets, the management does not measure its price risk. The maximum exposure to price risk is the carrying amount at the end of reporting period.

At 31 December 2009, had the fair value of the investment profolio been 1% higher or lower with all other variables held constant, the profit/loss for the year after tax would have been increased or decreased by RMB2,902 (2008: RMB2,136).

Credit risk

Credit risk arises from the possibility that the counterparty to a transaction is unwilling or unable to fulfill its obligation with the results that the Group thereby suffers financial loss. In order to minimise the credit risk, the Group has designated personnel to take care the overdue debts. Moreover, the management of the Group evaluates regularly the level of credit limits, credit approvals and other monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up action is taken to recover overdue debts. In addition, the Group reviews regularly the recoverable amount of each individual receivable to ensure that adequate impairment losses are made for irrecoverable amounts. In this regards, the Directors consider that the Group's credit risks is significantly reduced. The Group has no significant concentrations on credit risk.

| Pass due more than one year | 8,381,421 | 4,409,039 | 956,314 | 356,992 |

Liquidity risk

The Group will consistently maintain a prudent financial policy and ensure that it maintains sufficient cash to meet its liquidity requirements.

Maturity analysis

As at 31 December 2009, the remaining contractual maturities of the Group's and the Company's financial liabilities which are based on contractual undiscounted cash flows (including interest payments computed using contractual rates or, if floating, based on rates current at the end of reporting period) and the earliest date of the Group and of the Company can be required to pay are as follow:-

| | 83,480,451 | 78,603,611 | 112,407,790 | 112,851,837 |

The Group is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements. Accordingly, the Group's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, so that it can continue to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders; and to provide an adequate return to shareholders by pricing products and services commensurately with the level of risk.

The Group monitors its capital structure on the basis of a net debt-to-adjusted capital ratio. For this purpose the Group defines net debt as total debt (which includes interest-bearing loans and borrowings and trade and other payables) plus accrued proposed dividend. Adjusted capital comprises all components of equity less unaccrued proposed dividend.

During 2009, the Group's strategy, which was unchanged from 2008, was to maintain the net debt-to-adjusted capital ratio at the lower end of the range 20% to 30%.
