ANNUAL REPORT 年度報告

Characteristics of the Growth Enterprise Market (“GEM”) of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Stock Exchange”)

GEM has been positioned as a market designed to accommodate companies to which a higher investment risk may be attached than other companies listed on the Stock Exchange. Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration. The greater risk profile and other characteristics of GEM mean that it is a market more suited to professional and other sophisticated investors.

Given the emerging nature of companies listed on GEM, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on GEM.

Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited and the Stock Exchange take no responsibility for the contents of this report, make no representation as to its accuracy or completeness and expressly disclaim any liability whatsoever for any loss howsoever arising from or in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents of this report.

Chairman's Statement

Dear Shareholders,

On behalf of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Focus Media Network Limited (the "Company"), I am pleased to present the audited consolidated results of the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the "Group") for the year ended 31 December 2013.

We are very encouraged by the results of the year under review ("YUR"). Our Group's investments in 2012 and our team's hard work in 2013 have resulted in many positive developments and returns for the Company.

Business & Financial Overview

During the YUR, our Group attained double-digit growth in both our turnover (35% growth) and gross profit (33% growth). Turnover and gross profit were $72.3 million and $48.5 million, respectively, both represent record-highs in our Group's operating history. Gross profit margin stood at 67%. More importantly, through the expansion of our business beyond our core Out-of-Home ("OOH") networks, we turned around our financial performance from a loss of $27.3 million in 2012 to a profit of $4 million in 2013. We also attained our highest EBITDA ($8.6 million) and net profit in the three years since our listing. Our Group's turnover was generated from adspend by 272 customers with 833 campaign orders. Our board is very pleased with the successful outcome from the execution of our business development strategies for the YUR and our Group's continued growth and the turning around from a loss into a profitable year.

In addition to our financial performances, I would like to highlight a number of significant developments and accomplishments during the YUR.

Network Expansion & New Media Platforms

Our Group has, over the years, laid a solid foundation and established an infrastructure to leverage our core assets and resources of our relationships with our major partners — the real-estate developers. During the YUR, we continued to attain double-digit growth in our network size. As of 31 December 2013, our Group has deployed our branded flat-panel displays at 1,065 office and commercial buildings in Hong Kong and Singapore under our Office & Commercial Building digital OOH media network, and at 200 Mannings retail chain-stores in Hong Kong and at 50 Watsons retail chain-stores in Singapore under our In-store digital OOH media network. We will continue to pursue the expansion of these two core networks, adding progressively from one office and commercial building at a time as well as setting a goal to deploy our branded flat-panel displays to all of Mannings 300+ stores in Hong Kong and Macau and at all of Watsons 100+ stores in Singapore.

During the YUR, our Group reached beyond office and commercial buildings and launched a new Residential digital OOH media network at major private residential complexes in Hong Kong. As of 31 December 2013, the size of this new network stood at 91 residential apartments. During the YUR, we established a pipeline of landlord prospects to consider our business proposition and we are confident of a strong pick-up rate for them to join our newly launched network in the year ahead.

The pursuit for OOH billboard sites was one of our Group's main growth strategies in 2013. During the YUR, we launched our Static OOH billboard media solutions. Amongst other prominent OOH billboard sites our Group tendered, in October 2013, our Group was awarded by the Hong Kong Government the exclusive advertising sales rights to the Tsim Sha Tsui ("TST") Interchange Subways and the Middle Road Subway (total three subways). This underground transport hub beneath one of the busiest tourists and business districts in Hong Kong connects the TST MTR station and the East TST MTR station. The winning of this tender marks our Group's foray into marketing large scale OOH media assets that reaches out to ultra-high audience traffic. As of 31 December 2013, our Group secured OOH billboard sites covering three of the busiest shopping districts in Hong Kong, namely TST, Causeway Bay and Mongkok. With this encouraging success, our Group will continue to seek out opportunities for additional premium OOH billboard sites.

As well, in Singapore, our Group was awarded in December 2013, the exclusive advertising sales rights to operate and manage the newly installed mega-size LED screen at One Raffles Place ("ORP"), fronting Raffles Green. ORP is one of the three tallest buildings in Singapore and is a beacon in the heart of Singapore's financial district. Since our success at ORP, our Group has been presented with similar opportunities that would positively encourage our further development in this space.

China Digital Media Partnerships

In furtherance of our previous report, our Group has continuously been seeking for viable collaborations and partnerships with leading media enterprises in mainland China as part of our Group's low-cost and low-risk market entry strategy to meet advertisers' growing demand for quality media and advertising assets in mainland China. Notably to mention, during the YUR, to grow our Group's digital media partnership with Youku Tudou Inc. (NYSE: YOKU), China's largest online television company, our Group entered into partnership with major corporations including various gaming and integrated resorts, tourism boards and airlines; such as Marina Bay Sands Singapore, City of Dream Macau, Resort World Sentosa, Macau Government Tourist Office, Scoot Airline Singapore; and launched various digital media initiatives on the Youku Tudou platform.

Our Group has also been working on other new projects which require inputs from third party partners in developing business plans and strategies to facilitate appropriate assessment in our endeavors to look for further expansion of our business in alignment with those presented in the prospectus of the Company dated 30 June 2011 and in our 2011 & 2012 Annual Report.

The Year Ahead

With the solid foundation we have established, and in particular the very encouraging results in 2013, our Board is very confident of the Company's future prospects. We will continue to seek out new business opportunities for our Company and explore options to deliver returns to our shareholders.

Appreciation

On behalf of the directors, I would like to extend our sincere gratitude to our management and staff for their diligence and contributions to our Group's development and success. I would also like to express our sincere appreciation to our partners for offering our Group the opportunities to collaborate with them, our advertisers and their advertising agencies for their continuous support for our Group's products and services, and most especially we thank you, our shareholders, for your trust, patience and support.

In a few days from now our Group will be celebrating its tenth anniversary, Happy 10th Anniversary Focus Media Network!

As retail sales continues to surge due to the sustained growth in mainland China tourists, advertisers are increasing their investments in OOH media assets. The winning of the three subways beneath one of the busiest tourist districts in Hong Kong will certainly enable the Group to tap into this advertisers' demand.

Note 1: EBITDA represents earnings before finance costs, income tax, depreciation of property, plant and equipment, amortisation of equity-based compensation, share of profit/(loss) of a joint venture and amortization of intangible assets. While EBITDA is commonly used in the advertising and media industry worldwide as an indicator of operating performance, leverage and liquidity, it is not presented as a measure of operating performance in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards and should not be considered as representing net cash flows from operating activities. The computation of the Group's EBITDA may not be comparable to similarly titled measures of other companies.

The Group's turnover for the year of 2013 was approximately HK$72.3 million, representing an increase of approximately 35% over the previous year mainly due to the growth in adspend in the Group's In-store digital OOH media network in both Hong Kong and Singapore as well as the Group's newly launched Static OOH billboard media solutions in Hong Kong.

Gross profit for the year of 2013 was approximately HK$48.5 million, representing an increase of approximately 33% over the previous year. Gross profit margin decreased 1% to 67% from 68% due to higher cost-of-sales associated with the Group's Static OOH billboard media solutions.

The Group's total operating expenses (including non-cash equity-based compensation and depreciation) for year of 2013 were approximately HK$44.4 million, representing a decrease of approximately 31% over the previous year. The decrease in total operating expenses for the year of 2013 over the previous year was mainly due to:

- (1) decrease in provision for impairment of trade receivable;
- (2) decrease in professional parties' fees;
- (3) decrease in share option expenses; and
- (4) decrease in marketing expenses.

The Group's positive EBITDA amounted to approximately HK$8.6 million for the year of 2013 as compared to negative EBITDA amounted to approximately HK$21.3 million for the previous year.

Due to the increase in turnover and the decrease in operating expenses, the Group recorded a profit attributable to shareholders of approximately HK$4 million for the year of 2013 as compared to a loss attributable to shareholders of approximately HK$27.3 million for the previous year.

In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation of consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Each warrant carries the right to subscribe for one ordinary share of the Company at the subscription price of HK$1.29 per share. The subscription right will be exercisable during a period of 36 months from the date of issue of the warrants. As of 31 December 2013, no subscription right was exercised.

These consolidated financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars (“HK$”), unless otherwise stated. These consolidated financial statements have been approved for issue by the Board of Directors on 24 March 2014.

2 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

2.1 Basis of preparation

The consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (“HKFRS”). The consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with HKFRS requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Group’s accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated financial statements, are disclosed in Note 4.

- (a) The following new HKFRSs are mandatory for the first time for the financial year beginning on 1 January 2013. The adoption of the standards have no material effect on the Group's results and financial position:

HKAS 1 (Amendment)	Presentation of Financial Statement — Presentation of Items of Other Comprehensive Income
HKFRS 1 (Amendment)	First-time Adoption of Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards — Government Loans
HKFRS 7 (Amendment)	Disclosures — Offsetting Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities
HKFRS 10	Consolidated Financial Statements
HKFRS 11	Joint Arrangements
HKFRS 12	Disclosures of Interest in Other Entities
HKFRS 10, HKFRS 11 and HKFRS 12 (Amendment)	Consolidated Financial Statements, Joint Arrangements and Disclosure of Interests in Other Entities: Transition Guidance
HKFRS 13	Fair Value Measurement
HKAS 19 (2011)	Employee Benefit
HKAS 27 (2011)	Separate Financial Statements
HKAS 28 (2011)	Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures
HK (IFRIC)-Int 20	Stripping Costs in the Production Phase of a Surface Mine
Annual Improvements Project	Annual Improvements 2009–2011 Cycle

- (b) The following new or revised standards, amendments and interpretations to existing standards have been published but are not yet effective for the year ended 31 December 2013 and which the Group has not early adopted:

		Effective for annual periods beginning on or after
HKFRS 10, HKFRS 12 and HKAS 27 (2011) (Amendment)	Investment Entities	1 January 2014
HKAS 32 (Amendment)	Offsetting Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities	1 January 2014
HKAS 36 (Amendment)	Recoverable Amount Disclosures for Non-Financial Assets	1 January 2014
HKAS 39 (Amendment)	Novation of Derivatives and Continuation of Hedge Accounting	1 January 2014

HKFRS 7 and HKFRS 9 (Amendment)	Mandatory effective date and transition disclosures	1 January 2015
HKFRS 9	Financial Instruments	1 January 2015

Apart from the above, a number of improvements and minor amendments to HKFRSs have also been issued by the HKICPA but they are not yet effective for the accounting period ended 31 December 2013 and have not been adopted in these consolidated financial statements.

The Group is in the process of making an assessment of what the impact of these amendments, new standards and new interpretations would be in the period of initial application, but not yet in a position to state whether they would have a significant impact to the Group's results and financial position.

2.2 Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities (including special purpose entities) over which the Group has the power to govern the financial and operating policies generally accompanying a shareholding of more than one half of the voting rights. The existence and effect of potential voting rights that are currently exercisable or convertible are considered when assessing whether the Group controls another entity. The Group also assesses existence of control where it does not have more than 50% of the voting power but is able to govern the financial and operating policies by virtue of de-facto control. De-facto control may arise from circumstances where it does not have more than 50% voting power but is able to govern the financial and operating policies by virtue of de-facto control.

Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are de-consolidated from the date that control ceases.

Inter-company transactions, balances, income and expenses on transactions between group companies are eliminated. Profits and losses resulting from inter-company transactions that are recognised in assets are also eliminated. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

Business combination

The Group applies the acquisition method to account for business combination. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary is the fair values of the assets transferred, the liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquiree and the equity interests issued by the Group. The consideration transferred includes the fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. The Group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquiree on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis, either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the recognised amounts of acquiree's identifiable net assets.

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

Goodwill is initially measured as the excess of the aggregate of the consideration transferred and the fair value of non-controlling interest over the net identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed. If this consideration is lower than the fair value of the net assets of the subsidiary acquired, the difference is recognised in profit or loss.

Separate financial statements

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost also includes direct attributable costs of investment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividend and receivable.

Impairment testing of the investments in subsidiaries is required upon receiving dividends from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary in the period the dividend is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount in the consolidated financial statements of the investee's net assets including goodwill.

2.3 Joint venture

Investment in a joint venture is classified as either joint operations or joint ventures depending on the contractual rights and obligations each investor. The Group has assessed the nature of its joint arrangement and determined it to be joint venture. Joint venture is accounted for using the equity method.

Under the equity method of accounting, interest in a joint venture is initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the post-acquisition profits or losses and movements in other comprehensive income. When the Group's share of losses in a joint venture equals or exceeds its interests in the joint venture (which includes any long-term interests that, in substance, form part of the Group's net investment in the joint venture), the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the joint venture.

Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in the joint venture. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred.

2.4 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision-maker (the "CODM"). The CODM, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments, has been identified as the Group's executive directors that make strategic decisions.

2.5 Foreign currency transaction

(a) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The financial information is presented in Hong Kong dollars ("HK$"), which is also the Company's functional currency and the Group's presentation currency.

(b) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions or valuation where items are re-measured. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at year-end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

Foreign exchange gains and losses that relate to cash and cash equivalents, trade and other receivables and trade and other payables are presented in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income within "other income".

(c) Group companies

The results and financial position of all the group entities (none of which has the currency of a hyper-inflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- (i) assets and liabilities for each statement of financial position presented are translated at the closing rate at the date of that statement of financial position;
- (ii) income and expenses for each statement of comprehensive income are translated at average exchange rates (unless this average is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the rate on the dates of the transactions); and
- (iii) all resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income.

On consolidation, exchange differences arising from the translation of the net investment in foreign operations, and of borrowings and other currency instruments designated as hedges of such investments, are taken to shareholders' equity. When a foreign operation is partially disposed of or sold, exchange differences that were recorded in equity are recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income as part of the gain or loss on sale.

2.6 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at historical cost less depreciation and impairment losses. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

2.6 Property, plant and equipment (Continued)

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the consolidated statement of comprehensive income during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation on property, plant and equipment is calculated to write off the cost of property, plant and equipment using the straight line method, over their estimated useful lives as below:

LCD monitors	5 years
Furniture and office equipment	5 years
Computer equipment	4–5 years
Leasehold improvements	3–5 years or over the term of lease, whichever is shorter
Motor vehicles	3 years

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount (see Note 2.8).

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing the proceeds with the carrying amount and are recognised within "administrative expenses" in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

2.7 Intangible assets

(a) Intellectual properties and licences

Separately acquired rights to use intellectual properties and licences are shown at historical cost. Rights to use intellectual properties and licences have finite useful lives and are carried at cost less accumulated amortisation. Amortisation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate the cost of licences and the rights to use intellectual properties and licences over their estimated useful lives of 5 and 10 years respectively.

(b) Goodwill

Goodwill arises on the acquisition of a subsidiary and represents the excess of the consideration transferred over the Group's interest in net fair value of the net identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities of the acquiree and the fair value of the non-controlling interest in the acquiree.

For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is allocated to each of the cash-generating units ("CGUs"), or groups of CGUs, that is expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination. Each unit or group of units to which the goodwill is allocated represents the lowest level within the entity at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes. Goodwill is monitored at the operating segment level.

Goodwill impairment reviews are undertaken annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate a potential impairment. The carrying value of goodwill is compared to the recoverable amount, which is the higher of value in use and the fair value less costs to sell. Any impairment is recognised immediately as an expense and is not subsequently reversed.

2.8 Impairment of non-financial assets

Assets that have an indefinite useful life, for example goodwill or intangible assets not ready to use, are not subject to amortisation and are tested annually for impairment. Assets that are subject to amortisation are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at each reporting date.

2.9 Financial assets

(a) Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets as loans and receivables. The classification depends on the purpose for which the financial assets were acquired. Management determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition.

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. They are included in current assets, except for the amounts that are settled or expected to be settled more than 12 months after the end of the reporting period. These are classified as non-current assets. The Group's loans and receivables comprise "trade and other receivables", "pledged bank deposits" and "cash and bank balances" in the consolidated statement of financial positions (see Notes 2.11 and 2.12).

(b) Recognition and measurement

Regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on the trade-date — the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Investments are initially recognised at fair value plus transaction costs for all financial assets not carried at fair value through profit or loss. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the investments have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership. Loans and receivables are subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.10 Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or Group of financial assets is impaired. A financial asset or a Group of financial assets is impaired and impairment losses are incurred only if there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the asset (a “loss event”) and that loss event (or events) has an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset or Group of financial assets that can be reliably estimated.

2.11 Trade and other receivables

Trade receivables are amounts due from customers for services performed in the ordinary course of business. If collection of trade and other receivables is expected in one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer), they are classified as current assets. If not, they are presented as non-current assets.

Trade and other receivables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment.

2.12 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents includes cash in hand, deposits held at call with banks and other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less.

2.13 Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

2.14 Trade and other payables

Trade payables are obligations to pay for goods or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of business from suppliers. Trade and other payables are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer). If not, they are presented as non-current liabilities.

Trade and other payables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.15 Current and deferred income tax

The tax expense for the period comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case the income tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

(a) Current income tax

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the statement of financial position date in the countries where the Company's subsidiaries and associates operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

(b) Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is recognised, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, the deferred income tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when the deferred income tax assets and liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the taxable entity or different taxable entities where there is an intention to settle the balances on a net basis.

2.16 Employee benefits

(a) Pension obligations

Hong Kong

The Group operates a defined contribution plan, the mandatory provident fund scheme ("MPF") in Hong Kong, the assets of which are generally held in separate trustee-administered funds.

Singapore

Pursuant to the relevant local regulations in Singapore, the Singapore subsidiary of the Group is required to contribute to the Central Provident Fund based on the statutory funding requirement.

The Group's contributions to the defined contribution plan are charged to the consolidated statement of comprehensive income in the year incurred and are reduced by contributions forfeited by those employees who leave the scheme prior to vesting fully in the contributions. The Group has no further payment obligations once the contributions have been paid.

(b) Other employee benefits

Salaries, paid annual leave and the cost of non-monetary benefits are accrued in the year in which the associated services are rendered by employees. The amount recognised as a liability and an expense should be measured at the cost of providing the benefits.

2.17 Share-based payments

The Group operates an equity-settled, share-based compensation plan, under which the entity receives services from employees as consideration for equity instruments (options) of the Group. The fair value of the employee services received in exchange for the grant of the options is recognised as an expense. The total amount to be expensed is determined by reference to the fair value of the options granted:

- including any market performance conditions (for example, an entity's share price);
- excluding the impact of any service and non-market performance vesting conditions (for example, profitability, sales growth targets and remaining an employee of the entity over a specified time period); and
- including the impact of any non-vesting conditions (for example, the requirement for employees to save).

Non-market performance and service conditions are included in assumptions about the number of options that are expected to vest. The total expense is recognised over the vesting period, which is the period over which all of the specified vesting conditions are to be satisfied. In addition, in some circumstances employees may provide services in advance of the grant date and therefore the grant date fair value is estimated for the purposes of recognising the expense during the period between service commencement period and grant date. At the end of each reporting period, the Group revises its estimates of the number of options that are expected to vest based on the non-marketing performance and service conditions. It recognises the impact of the revision to original estimates, if any, in the income statement, with a corresponding adjustment to equity.

2.18 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when: the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events; it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; and the amount has been reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of the expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation using a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the obligation. The increase in the provision due to passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

2.19 Revenue recognition

Revenue comprises the fair value of the consideration received or receivable for the sale of goods and services in the ordinary course of the Group's activities. Revenue is shown net of value-added tax, rebates and discounts and after eliminating sales within the Group.

The Group recognises revenue when the amount of revenue can be reliably measured, it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the entity and when specific criteria have been met for each of the Group's activities as described below. The Group bases its estimates on historical results, taking into consideration the type of customer, the type of transaction and the specifics of each arrangement.

- (a) Revenue from advertising services is recognised when the related advertisements are telecasted. Barter revenue on advertising is recognised only when the goods or services being exchanged are of a dissimilar nature. Barter revenue is measured at the fair value of the goods or services rendered, adjusted by the amount of any cash or cash equivalents received or paid. If the fair value of the goods or services rendered cannot be reliably measured, the revenue is measured at the fair value of the goods or services received, again adjusted by the amount of cash or cash equivalents received.
- (b) Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method.
- (c) Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all attached conditions.

2.20 Leases

(a) Operating lease

Leases in which a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases (net of any incentives received from the lessor) are charged to the consolidated statement of comprehensive income on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

Benefits received and receivable as an incentive to enter into an operating lease are recognised as a reduction of rental expense over the lease term on a straight line basis.

(b) Finance lease

The Group leases certain property, plant and equipment. Leases of property, plant and equipment where the Group has substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are classified as finance leases. Finance leases are capitalised at the lease's commencement at the lower of the fair value of the leased property and the present value of the minimum lease payments.

Each lease payment is allocated between the liability and finance charges. The corresponding rental obligations, net of finance charges, are included in other long-term payables. The interest element of the finance cost is charged to the consolidated statement of comprehensive income over the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period. The property, plant and equipment acquired under finance leases is depreciated over the shorter of the useful life of the asset and the lease term.

3 Financial Risk Management

3.1 Financial risk factors

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (foreign exchange risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's overall risk management programme focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance.

(a) Market risk

Foreign exchange risk

The Group operates in Hong Kong and Singapore and is exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from various currency exposures, primarily with respect to the United States dollars ("US$") and Renminbi ("RMB"). Foreign exchange risk arises from future commercial transactions, recognised assets and liabilities and net investment in foreign operation.

To manage the foreign exchange risk arising from future commercial transactions and recognised assets and liabilities, the Group mitigates this risk by maintaining HK$ and US$ bank accounts to pay for the transactions denominated in these currencies. The exchange rate of RMB to HK$ is subject to the rules and regulations of foreign exchange control promulgated by the PRC government. The Group manages its foreign currency risk by closely monitoring the movement of the foreign currency rates.

As at 31 December 2013, if HK$ had weakened/strengthened by 7% (2012: 7%) against US$, with all other variables held constant, the Group's results for the year would have increased/decreased by approximately HK$43,170 (2012: results increased/decreased by HK$65,887), mainly as a result of foreign exchange gains/losses on translation of US$ denominated monetary assets and liabilities.

As at 31 December 2013, if HK$ had weakened/strengthened by 7% (2012: 7%) against RMB, with all other variables held constant, the Group's results for the year would have increased/decreased by approximately HK$219,399 (2012: results increased/decreased by HK$117,247), mainly as a result of foreign exchange gain/losses on translation of RMB denominated monetary assets and liabilities.

(b) Credit risk

The Group's credit risk is primarily attributable to deposits with banks and trade and other receivables. Management has policies in place and exposures to these credit risks are monitored on an ongoing basis.

Trade receivables have an average credit period of 60 to 90 days from the date of invoice unless there is a separate mutual agreement on extension of the credit period. Individual credit evaluations are performed by the Group on all customers requiring credit over a certain amount. These evaluations focus on the customer's past history of making payments when due and current ability to pay, and take into account information specific to the customer as well as pertaining to the economic environment in which the customer operates. Debtors who have overdue balances are requested to settle all outstanding balances before any further credit is granted. Normally, the Group does not obtain collateral from customers.

Further quantitative disclosures in respect of the Group's exposure to credit risk arising from trade receivables are set out in Note 15.

The Group also places its deposits with reputable banks to mitigate the risk arising from banks.

The maximum exposure to credit risk is represented by the carrying amount of each financial asset in the consolidated statement of financial positions.

(c) Liquidity risk

The Group's policy is to regularly monitor current and expected liquidity requirements and its compliance with debt covenants, to ensure that it maintains sufficient reserves of cash and adequate committed lines of funding from banks and other financial institutions to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term. Management believes there is no liquidity risk as the Group has sufficient committed facilities to fund its operations.

The table below analyses the Group's non-derivative financial liabilities into relevant maturity groupings based on the remaining period at the statement of financial position date to the contractual maturity date. The amounts disclosed in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows.

3.2 Capital risk management

The Group's primary objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt.

3.2 Capital risk management (Continued)

The Group manages its fund conservatively by maintaining a comfortable level of cash and cash equivalents to meet continuous operational needs.

3.3 Fair value estimation

The carrying value less impairment provision of current receivables and payables are a reasonable approximation of their fair values.

The fair value of financial liabilities for disclosure purposes is estimated by discounting the future contractual cash flows at the current market interest rate that is available to the Group for similar financial instruments.

4 Critical Accounting Estimates and Judgements

The Group makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the related actual results. The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are addressed below.

(a) Useful lives of property, plant and equipment

The Group is required to estimate the useful lives of property, plant and equipment in order to ascertain the amount of depreciation charges for each reporting period.

The useful lives are estimated at the time of purchases of these assets after considering future technology changes, business developments and the Group's strategies. The Group performs annual reviews to assess the appropriateness of the estimated useful lives. Such review takes into account any unexpected adverse changes in circumstances or events, including declines in projected operating results, negative industry or economic trends and rapid advancement in technology. The Group extends or shortens the useful lives and/or makes impairment provisions according to the results of the review.

(b) Current and deferred income taxes

The Group is subject to current income tax in Hong Kong and Singapore. Significant judgement is required in determining the relevant provision for income taxes. There are certain transactions and calculations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the current and deferred income tax provisions in the period in which such determination is made.

Deferred income tax assets are relating to tax losses recognised when management considers to be probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the tax losses can be utilised. When the expectation is different from the original estimate, such differences will impact the recognition of deferred income tax assets and taxation changes in the period in which such estimate is changed.

4 Critical accounting estimates and judgements (Continued)

(c) Revenue recognition

The Group recognises revenue when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of any goods and services have been transferred, in accordance with the accounting policies for revenue recognition as set out in Note 2.19. The assessment of when the Group has transferred the significant risks and rewards of ownership to customers and whether the Group acts as a principal requires the examination of the circumstance of the transaction. The Group's advertising clients include advertisers that directly purchase advertisements from the Group and third-party advertising agencies that are retained by some advertisers to place advertisements on the advertisers' behalf. In arrangements where the Group pays variable fees or share revenue with landlords, and insofar as the Group bears the risks and rewards incidental to the activity, the Group recognises all gross advertising income as revenue and records the fees paid or revenue shared as cost of sales. As part of the industry practice, the Group offers agency commissions to these third-party advertising agencies. The agency commissions in which the advertising agencies are entitled to are based on certain percentage of revenue generated by the Group. The Group records revenues on a net basis and the associated agency commissions are recorded as a deduction from the revenue because the advertising agencies are acting on behalf of the advertisers and are also considered as the Group's customers.

(d) Provision for impairment of trade and other receivables

Significant judgement is exercised in the assessment of the collectability of trade and other receivables from customers. In making its judgement, management considers a wide range of factors such as results of follow-up procedures performed by sales personnel, customers' payment pattern including subsequent payments and customers' financial position. If the financial conditions of the customers are to deteriorate, resulting in an impairment of their ability to make payments, additional allowances may be required.

5 Segment Information

The chief operating decision-maker ("CODM") has been identified collectively as the executive directors of the Company. The executive directors review the Group's internal reporting in order to assess performance and allocate resources. The CODM has determined the operating segments based on these reports.

Management regularly reviews the operating results from geographical perspective. The reportable operating segments derive their revenue primarily from the advertising. Management assesses the performance of the following segments:

Trade receivables that were past due but not impaired relate to customers that have a good track record with the Group or a sound credit quality. Based on past experience and regular credit risk assessment performed on all significant outstanding trade receivables, management believes that no provision for impairment is necessary in respect of these balances as there has not been a significant change in credit quality and the balances are still considered fully recoverable.

The other classes within trade and other receivables do not contain impaired assets.

The maximum exposure to credit risk at the reporting date is the carrying value of each class of receivable mentioned above. The Group does not hold any collateral over these balances.
