

ANNUAL REPORT

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE GROWTH ENTERPRISE MARKET ("GEM") OF THE STOCK EXCHANGE OF HONG KONG LIMITED (THE "STOCK EXCHANGE")

GEM has been positioned as a market designed to accommodate companies to which a higher investment risk may be attached than other companies listed on the Stock Exchange. Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration. The greater risk profile and other characteristics of GEM mean that it is a market more suited to professional and other sophisticated investors.

Given the emerging nature of companies listed on GEM, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the Main Board and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on GEM.

Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited and the Stock Exchange take no responsibility for the contents of this report, make no representation as to its accuracy or completeness and expressly disclaim any liability whatsoever for any loss howsoever arising from or in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents of this report.

This report, for which the directors (the "Directors") of China Wood Optimization (Holding) Limited (the "Company") collectively and individually accept full responsibility, includes particulars given in compliance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Growth Enterprise Market of the Stock Exchange (the "GEM Listing Rules") for the purpose of giving information with regard to the Company. The Directors, having made all reasonable enquiries, confirm that, to the best of their knowledge and belief, the information contained in this report is accurate and complete in all material respects and not misleading or deceptive, and there are no other matters the omission of which would make any statement herein or this report misleading.

Corporate Profile

China Wood Optimization (Holding) Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Group") are principally engaged in the processing, manufacturing and sale of Processed Wood Panels (as defined in the Management Discussion and Analysis ("MD&A") section of this annual report) and Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels (as defined in the MD&A section) (collectively, the "Processed Wood Products").

The Group commenced its production and sale of its Processed Wood Panels and Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels in 2010 and 2011, respectively. In 2012, the Group was recognised as an Advanced and New Technology Enterprise (高新技術企業) for a term of three years. In July 2013, the Group was also accredited with ISO9001:2008 and ISO14001:2004 for the first time.

The Group is currently operating a production plant in Wei County, Handan City, Hebei Province, the PRC.

Chairlady's Statement

To all shareholders,

I am pleased to present the annual report of the Group for the financial year ended 31 December 2014 on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board").

OVERVIEW

The Group was listed on the Growth Enterprise Market of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong on 6 January 2014, which denoted that the Group's development reached its new milestones. Along with the quality improvement of optimised wood products as well as the enhancement of credibility and presence of the Group, our products are well recognised by our customers, while production output and sales have steadily increased. Leveraging on the efforts of all the staff, the Group reported another high sales and profit record in 2014 and maintained its leading position in the industry.

BUSINESS AND OPERATION REVIEW

In China, one of the countries with inadequate timber resources, there are deficient forest resources available for development. Meanwhile, Russia, New Zealand and Canada, being the largest counties from which China imported timber, have imposed restrictions on logging and export. Consequently, the imbalanced demand and supply of timber raw materials has intensified, leading to a rising price in natural wood. The Group's Processed Wood Products, which are processed by its unique dipping solution and procedure, so as to modify and improve the characteristics of low quality wood, can be used as alternatives for a wide variety of natural wood. Processed Wood Products are widely used in furniture, doors, window frames and sound box in the interior wood product industry, capturing enormous opportunities in the market.

Research and development on products and technology is the key to the Group's success, so our team has strived for breakthroughs in this aspect. Registration of four research and development patents, for which the Group applied in 2012, have been approved in May and July 2014 respectively. Moreover, the Group proceeds its research and development on the use of impregnation fluid on coniferous and broad leaf tree species, so as to introduce more optimised wood products by broadening the application of impregnation fluid, and the progress is satisfactory. In addition, our research and development team has commenced its research on wood dyeing technology and high-temperature processing technology, expecting that will further enhance the quality and variety of our products. In April 2014, the Group's products passed the requirements promulgated by European Chemicals Agency ("ECHA") as well as the tests for 19 heavy metal elements, which further proved that the Group's products are green, ecofriendly and pollution-free.

In order to expand and consolidate the Group's market shares based on its strong research and development capability and technology, the Group participated in several large-scale exhibitions for construction materials and furniture and established three sales offices in Beijing, Chengdu and Shanghai, respectively, in 2014. We aimed to expand our sales network, provide closer sales services for our customers, keep abreast of the market trends and modify our flexible marketing strategy accordingly.

Chairlady's Statement

Aside from business development, the Group actively participated in industry events to broaden the development areas of "wood optimisation" in terms of technology and commerce and consolidated the Group's leading position. During the year, the Group was honoured to be recognised as a "Vice President Unit" (副會長單位) of the China Wood Protection Industry Association (CWPIA) by the "7th Conference of China Wood Protection Industry and Forums of New Technological on Wood Optimization of Plantation" (第七屆中國木材保護工業大會暨人工林木材優化新技術發展高峰論壇). Mr. LI Li, Chief Executive Officer of the Group, has also been honoured as an "Outstanding Young Entrepreneur" (傑出青年企業家) at the first "Jintan Award of China Wood Industry" (中國木業金檀獎). The Group will continue to advocate its corporate philosophy of "cherishing the fascinating virgin forest" and pioneer in the way to eco-friendly timber ecology.

PROSPECTS

As at the date of this report, the Group established its sole production base in Handan City, Hebei Province. To satisfy the rising market demand, the Group's urgent priority is to expand its production capacity. After several field trips and investigations, the Group decided to establish its new production base in Huaian City, Jiangsu Province, which is scheduled to commence production in the fourth quarter of 2015 and will double the current production capacity. The new production base in Huaian will emphasize energy conservation, more efficient production and labour cost reduction. The continuous growth of PRC economy leads to a rising demand for wood, while improving living standard of citizens, it also boosts the demand for quality solid wood furniture. With the commencement of the production of the new production plant in Huaian, the Group can swiftly seize the market opportunities for development. The new production plant also provides a solid backing for market expansion across the country.

APPRECIATION

As to the satisfactory results of the Group over the previous year, I would like to express my gratitude to all the staff for their contributions and efforts in a manner of professionalism and enthusiasm. Also, I would like to thank our loyal customers and business partners as well as all shareholders for their support and trust. I believe that the Group's vision of protecting natural environment, reducing deforestation and cherishing the fascinating virgin forest will be realized through our joint efforts.

BUSINESS REVIEW

For the year ended 31 December 2014, the Group continued to engage in the processing, manufacturing and sales of its Processed Wood Panels (as defined below) and Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels (as defined below) (collectively referred to as the "Processed Wood Products").

All the Processed Wood Products are processed by the Group's processing procedure (the "Wood Processing Procedure"), by which raw wood panels pass through an impregnation procedure of the Group's own impregnation fluid made with biological synthetic resin technologies. The Group's Wood Processing Procedure improves the hardness, shrinkage and swelling rate, density, deformation resistance, cracking resistance, anticorrosiveness, bending strength and elasticity of poplar wood. In addition, poplar logs and wood panels that have been processed through the Group's Wood Processing Procedure are strengthened in terms of moisture resistance and flame resistance. After the Group's Wood Processing Procedure, poplar can be used as a substitute of natural solid woods with wide application in the field of furniture making and indoor furnishing.

Processed Wood Panels

Processed wood panels ("Processed Wood Panels") are the Group's principal products which are principally made of poplar wood panels that have been processed by the Group's Wood Processing Procedure and then shaved, sanded and trimmed into strips of wood panels according to the dimension and other specifications specified by customers. The Group's Processed Wood Panels are generally used to produce floor planks, doors, sound box and furniture.

The Group also offers to its customers less-shaved Processed Wood Panels which involves lesser production processes and lower wastage of production materials.

Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels

Processed finger joint wood panels ("Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels") are another type of products of the Group. After the Wood Processing Procedure, Processed Wood Panels are trimmed into desired dimensions. Cutoffs and small pieces produced during the trimming process are laminated, pressed and further processed to form Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels. Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels are in the form of standard-sized boards of wooden panels, and are generally used to produce wooden furniture, doors and window frames.

Sales and Marketing

For the year ended 31 December 2014, all the Group's Processed Wood Products were sold to its customers in the PRC. These customers mainly included manufacturers of floor planks, sound box, furniture, doors and window frames and wholesalers of wooden panels. In order to expand and consolidate its market shares, the Group participated in six exhibitions held in Beijing, Shanghai, Chengdu, Dongguan and Guangzhou, respectively, during the year ended 31 December 2014. Besides, the Group had established three sales offices in Beijing, Chengdu and Shanghai, respectively. These sales offices have commenced their operations. In November 2014, the Group successfully held a forum in Shijiazhuang, Hebei Province, to discuss the future development of the wood panels industry and our Process Wood Products in China. The result was satisfactory and positive feedbacks were received from its customers.

Research and Development

In order to protect its self-invented intellectual property rights, the Group applied for registration of four patents in the PRC in May 2012. Out of these four patents, the registration of three patents, namely, an "Impregnating Method of a fast growing wood (一種速生材的浸漬方法)", "A fast growing wood impregnating solution (一種速生材浸漬液)" and a "Manufacturing Method of a fast growing wood impregnating solution (一種速生材浸漬液的製備方法)" have been approved in May 2014 and the registration of Manufacturing Method of a fast growing wood impregnating solution and fast growing wood impregnating solution (速生材浸漬液及速生材浸渍液的製備) has subsequently been approved in July 2014. The Group will continue to apply for the registration of other patents if the results of the Group's research and development are satisfactory.

In April 2014, the Group's products passed a test for one hundred and fifty one (151) substances on the Candidate List of Substances of Very High Concern ("SVHC") for authorisation (published by European Chemicals Agency ("ECHA") on and before 16 December 2013 in accordance with Regulation (EC) No. 1907/2006), which concerns, among others, registration, evaluation, authorisation and restriction of chemicals requirements on the use of chemical substances and their potential impacts on both human health and the environment. In addition, the Group's products also fulfilled the requirements of EN71-3:2013 (under European Directive 2009/48/EC-Migration of certain elements (for scrapped-off toy material)) and passed the tests for 19 heavy metal elements. The abovementioned tests were performed by an independent testing and certification institution.

During the year ended 31 December 2014, the Group commenced its research and development on the use of impregnation fluid on coniferous (such as pine wood) and broad leaf (such as rubber wood) tree spices with an intention to improve the technical specifications of these tree species and see if these wood materials can be used in the production of the Group's Processed Wood Products. The test results were satisfactory.

In addition, the Group installed seven new sets of thermocompressors during the year ended 31 December 2014 and all of them have been put into operation. The use of these new thermocompressors further improved the quality of the Group's products.

New Production Plant

On 29 December 2014, the Group entered into an agreement with the administration committee of Huaian Industrial Zone in Huaian City, Jiangsu Province for an investment to build a new production plant in the Huaian Industrial Zone. Occupying an area of approximately 151,000 square meters, the new production plant of the Group will be mainly used to produce Processed Wood Products. The first phase registered capital of the new production plant amounted to USD35.0 million. The plant is scheduled to be completed and will commence production in the fourth quarter of 2015. It is expected to double the Group's current production capacity.

The new production plant in Huaian will emphasise on energy conservation and production efficiency. To reduce energy consumption and emission during the production process, the Group intended to adopt solar power technology as well as heat exchange technology, and will also deploy environmentally-friendly electric forklift trucks. Moreover, the Huaian production plant will also emphasise on high efficiency in the design of production processes and will apply latest technology in place of some labour-intensive processes so as to reduce labour costs.

Other Business Developments

In 2013, the Group had five production lines for the production of Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels. As the Group intended to reduce the sales of Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels while focusing on the sales of Processed Wood Panels, the Group disposed of three out of the five production lines of Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels for about RMB5.9 million to one of the Group's customers at a profit of RMB92,000 during the year ended 31 December 2014.

The Company's shares were successfully listed on the GEM on 6 January 2014 (the "Listing Date"). The net proceeds from the Company's placing (the "Placing") were about HK$229.6 million after deducting listing-related expenses and 250,000,000 new shares were issued at a price of HK$1.0 per share pursuant to the Placing.

In addition, the Group has been designated as a "Vice President Unit" (副會長單位) by the China Wood Protection Industry Association (CWPIA) at the "7th Conference of China Wood Protection Industry and Forums of New Technological on Wood Optimization of Plantation" (第七屆中國木材保護工業大會暨人工林木材優化新技術發展高峰論壇) held on 30 and 31 October 2014 in Changsha, Hunan Province. Mr. LI Li, an Executive Director and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, has also been honored as an "Outstanding Young Entrepreneur" (傑出青年企業家) at the first "Jintan Award of China Wood Industry" (中國木業金檀獎). These achievements further illustrated that the Group is the pioneer in the processed wood industry.

COMPARISON OF BUSINESS OBJECTIVES AND ACTUAL BUSINESS PROGRESS

An analysis comparing the business objectives as stated in the prospectus of the Company dated 30 December 2013 ("Prospectus") with the Group's actual business progress for the year ended 31 December 2014 is set out below:

USE OF PROCEEDS

The net proceeds from the Company's Placing after deducting listing-related expenses were about HK$229.6 million which was based on 250,000,000 new shares being issued at a price of HK$1.0 per share pursuant to the Placing.

During the year ended 31 December 2014, the net proceeds from the Placing had been applied as follows:

	iness objectives for the year ended December 2014 as stated in the Prospectus	Planned use of proceeds for the year ended 31 December 2014 as stated in the Prospectus HK$ million	Actual use of proceeds for the year ended 31 December 2014 HK$ million
1.	Strengthen the Group's research and development capacities	13.7	13.7
2.	Continue to expand the Group's sales network	9.8	3.4
3.	Expansion of the Group's production capacity and integrated manufacturing operation (Note)	36.3	3.5

Note: Reference is also made to an announcement of the Company dated 9 January 2015 relating to the change in use of proceeds after the year ended 31 December 2014. The Group has decided to change in use of part of the net proceeds of about HK$31.3 million, which was previously planned for the acquisitions of a chemical factory and a wood processing factory, to finance the establishment of a new factory in Huaian, Jiangsu Province (江蘇省淮安市) (the "Huaian Factory").

As disclosed in the Prospectus, the Group intended to apply about 29.7% or HK$68.2 million (based on the net proceed received from Placing of about HK$229.6 million) from Placing to repay its loans. During the year ended 31 December 2014, the Group applied about HK$68.2 million from the net proceeds to repay its bank and other loans.

The Directors will constantly evaluate the Group's business objectives and may change or modify plans against the changing market condition to attain sustainable business growth of the Group.

All the unutilised balances have been placed in licensed banks in Hong Kong and the PRC.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Turnover

The Group recorded an increase in its turnover by about RMB31.4 million or 6.5% from about RMB481.3 million in 2013 to about RMB512.7 million in 2014. The increase in turnover in 2014 was mainly attributable to the increase in turnover of Processed Wood Panels. The average selling prices of Processed Wood Panels decreased from about RMB3,811 per cubic meter for the year ended 31 December 2013 to about RMB3,600 per cubic meter for the year ended 31 December 2014. It was because of the increase in sales of less-shaved Processed Wood Panels which had a lower average selling price than traditional Processed Wood Panels, which was partially offset by the increase in the average selling price of Processed Wood Products as a result of the increase in quality and market recognition of our Processed Wood Panels. It was the intention of the Group to produce more less-shaved Processed Wood Panels which allows the Group to shorten its production cycle and increase production output and efficiency. The average selling prices of Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels increased from about RMB4,103 per cubic meter for the year ended 31 December 2013 to about RMB4,342 per cubic meter for the year ended 31 December 2014. The increase in the average selling prices was driven by the increased quality and market recognition of the Group's Processed Wood Products. In addition, due to the continued increase in demand of the Group's Processed Wood Panels, the total volume of Processed Wood Panels sold also increased from 124,588 cubic meters for the year ended 31 December 2013 to 140,186 cubic meters for the year ended 31 December 2014.

TURNOVER BY SEGMENT

Analysis of turnover by segment is as follows:

	2014		2013
	Volume			Volume
	(m³)	RMB'000	%	(m³)	RMB'000	%
Processed Wood Panels	129,263	465,304	90.7	102,443	390,414	81.1
Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels	10,923	47,432	9.3	22,145	90,871	18.9
	140,186	512,736	100.0	124,588	481,285	100.0

Analysis of average selling price per cubic meter by segment is as follows:

	2014 RMB	2013 RMB
Processed Wood Panels	3,600	3,811
Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels	4,342	4,103
Overall average	3,658	3,863

Processed Wood Panels

Turnover from sales of Processed Wood Panels increased by about RMB74.9 million or 19.2% from about RMB390.4 million in 2013 to about RMB465.3 million in 2014. The increase in sales of Processed Wood Panels was primarily due to the increasing market acceptance and demands of the same. The percentage of sales of Processed Wood Panels increased from about 81.1% for the year ended 31 December 2013 to about 90.7% for the year ended 31 December 2014, it was the intention of the Group to promote the sales of Processed Wood Panels which had a higher profit margin than that of the Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels.

Following the enhancement of the product quality, the increasing market recognition and the continuing increase in demand of the Group's Processed Wood Panels led to the increase in the average selling price of each product, but the increase was offset by the increasing sales of less-shaved Processed Wood Panels which had a lower average selling price than traditional Processed Wood Panels, the Group recorded a decrease in average selling price from about RMB3,811 per cubic meter for the year ended 31 December 2013 to about RMB3,600 per cubic meter for the year ended 31 December 2014.

Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels

Turnover from sales of Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels decreased by about RMB43.5 million or 47.9% from RMB90.9 million in 2013 to RMB47.4 million in 2014. The decrease was mainly a result of the Group's intention to reduce the sales of the Group's Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels and that the Group focused on the sales of Processed Wood Panels, as the production of Processed Wood Panels requires lesser production processes that allows the Group to utilise its production capacity more efficiently. As the Group's production capacity was mainly used to produce Processed Wood Panels during the year, there was a decrease in sales of Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels in 2014.

Although the sales volume of Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels decreased substantially by about 11,222 cubic meters or 50.7% from about 22,145 cubic meters for the year ended 31 December 2013 to about 10,923 cubic meters for the year ended 31 December 2014, the Group was able to raise its average selling price from about RMB4,103 per cubic meter for the year ended 31 December 2013 to about RMB4,342 per cubic meter for the year ended 31 December 2014 due to the enhancement of the product's quality.

Cost of Sales

Cost of sales of the Group increased by about RMB37.6 million or 11.0%, from about RMB340.3 million in 2013 to about RMB377.9 million in 2014. The increase was a combined effect of the general increase of the costs of wood and other production materials purchased in the PRC during the year, the increase in the Group's total sales volume as discussed under the paragraph headed "Turnover" above and was partially offset by the decrease in fuel costs.

Gross Profit

Gross profit of the Group decreased by about 4.4% or RMB6.2 million from about RMB141.0 million in 2013 to about RMB134.8 million in 2014. The decrease in gross profit of the Group was mainly due to an increase in average purchase cost of wood materials for the year ended 31 December 2014.

GROSS PROFIT MARGIN BY SEGMENT

Analysis of gross profit margin by segment is as follows:

	Year ended 31 December
	2014 %
Processed Wood Panels	27.4	33.7
Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels	15.8	10.6
Overall gross profit margin	26.3	29.3

The overall gross profit margin of the Group decreased from about 29.3% in 2013 to about 26.3% in 2014. The decrease was a combined effect of increase in cost of wood materials and the substantial increase in the sales of less-shaved Processed Wood Panels which had a lower gross profit margin than traditional Processed Wood Panels.

Processed Wood Panels

Gross profit margin of Processed Wood Panels decreased from about 33.7% in 2013 to about 27.4% in 2014. Such decrease was mainly attributable to the increase in the costs of production materials and the increase in sales of less-shaved Processed Wood Panels which had a lower gross profit margin than the traditional Processed Wood Panels for the year ended 31 December 2014.

Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels

Gross profit margin of Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels increased from about 10.6% in 2013 to about 15.8% in 2014. Such increase was mainly attributable to the increase in the average selling price per cubic meter of Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels more than the increase in average cost of wood materials per cubic meter.

The Group's Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels have a lower gross profit margin than Processed Wood Panels because they are made of cut-offs produced in the manufacturing processes of Processed Wood Panels, which are in irregular shapes and sizes. Processing these cut-offs requires more production processes, and more production materials and labour are consumed in the production process. Therefore, the average cost of sales per cubic meter of the Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels sold was higher than that of the Processed Wood Panels but the average selling price of the Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels is in generally lower than that of the traditional Processed Wood Panels which resulted in a lower gross profit margin.

Other Revenue

Other revenue comprises rental income, income from government grants and interest income. Rental income represents income from leasing part of the Group's investment properties to two independent third parties who are customers of the Group. The increase in rental income by about RMB1.1 million for the year ended 31 December 2014 as compared to last year was due to the new lease of the Group's investment properties to a customer became effective from 1 April 2014, for a lease term of two years. Government grants increased by about RMB3.3 million from RMB0.2 million to RMB3.5 million because the Group received more subsidies from Handan City Provincial Bureau of Forest (邯鄲市林業局), Wei County Bureau of Finance (魏縣財務局) and the Department of Finance of Hebei Province (河北省財政廳) for the construction of wood processing facilities, among which RMB0.6 million was amortised in 2014. The Group received tax refund of RMB0.3 million from Wei County Local Taxation Bureau (魏縣地方稅務局) for the year ended 31 December 2014. In addition, the Group received an one-off bonus of RMB2 million from Handan City Provincial Bureau of Finance (邯鄲市財政局) for the successful listing of the Group in Hong Kong. Interest income represents income from the Group's bank deposits. The Group's interest income increased from about RMB0.1 million for the year ended 31 December 2013 to about RMB1.9 million for the year ended 31 December 2014 because part of the unused funds received from the proceeds from Placing have been placed into banks as short-term time deposits during the year ended 31 December 2014.

Other Net Income

The Group's other net income in 2014 principally represents the gain from sales of scrap materials and gain on disposal of property, plant and equipment.

Selling Expenses

The Group's selling expenses increased by about 31.6% or RMB1.2 million from about RMB3.8 million in 2013 to about RMB5.0 million in 2014. Such increase was mainly attributable to the increase in rental expenses. The rental expenses increased by about RMB1.1 million in 2014 was mainly because of the establishment of three new sales offices in Beijing, Shanghai and Chengdu in 2014.

Administrative Expenses

The Group's administrative expenses decreased by about 5.8% or RMB3.4 million from about RMB58.3 million in 2013 to RMB54.9 million in 2014. Such decrease was principally due to the decrease in professional fee and research and development expenses. The professional fee decreased by about RMB3.9 million from about RMB10.6 million in 2013 to about RMB6.7 million in 2014 as a result of the decrease in the professional fees incurred in relation to the preparation of the Group's listing in last year. The decrease in research and development expenses by about RMB3.8 million from about RMB29.7 million in 2013 to about RMB25.9 million in 2014. Such decrease was mainly due to the research projects conducted in 2014 consumed lesser wood materials and impregnation fluids than last year.

The decrease in administrative expenses was partially offset by the increase in staff cost. The staff costs increased from about RMB6.0 million in 2013 to about RMB8.5 million in 2014 which was mainly due to the increase in number of management staff and an increase in the remuneration of senior management after the Listing.

Finance Costs

The Group's finance cost decreased substantially from about RMB18.9 million for the year ended 31 December 2013 to about RMB8.3 million for the year ended 31 December 2014. The decrease was mainly attributable to the decrease in interest expense and related bank and finance charges by about RMB12.3 million for the year ended 31 December 2014 as a result of the repayment of bank loans and other loans. Such decrease was partially off-set by an increase in exchange loss of about RMB1.7 million arising from the conversion of HK$ into RMB and RMB exchange rate fluctuations during the year.

Income Tax Expenses

The Group's income tax expenses increased from about RMB8.4 million in 2013 to about RMB10.6 million in 2014. The increase was primarily attributable to the increase in profit before taxation from about RMB61.5 million in 2013 to about RMB74.3 million in 2014.

Profit for the Year

As a combined result of the factors discussed above, the Group's profit for the year increased from about RMB53.1 million in 2013 to about RMB63.7 million in 2014. In addition, the Group's net profit margin increased from about 11.0% in 2013 to about 12.4% in 2014. Such increase was mainly due to the decrease in the Group's finance costs.

LIQUIDITY AND FINANCIAL RESOURCES AND TREASURY POLICY

	As at 31 December
	2014	2013
Current ratio	4.60	1.02
Gearing ratio*	0.16	1.03

^{*} Calculated based on total debts at the end of the year divided by total equity at the end of the year. Total debts are defined to include payables incurred not in the ordinary course of business (total liabilities less trade payables and receipts in advance).

The current ratio of the Group as at 31 December 2014 was 4.60 times as compared to that of 1.02 times at 31 December 2013. The increase in current ratio was mainly due to the substantial increase in cash and cash equivalents from about RMB67.8 million at 31 December 2013 to RMB202.1 million at 31 December 2014 as a result of the receive of net proceeds from Placing and Listing of the Company's shares on the GEM of the Stock Exchange, and the substantial decrease in the Group's short-term loans after repayment of such loan after the Listing. The gearing ratio of the Group as at 31 December 2014 was about 0.16 as compared to that of 1.03 at 31 December 2013. Such decrease was primarily due to the enlarged equity base of our Company as a result of a substantial increase in share premium after the Listing, the increase in our accumulated profit for the year ended 31 December 2014 and the substantial decrease in bank and other loans.

The Group's finance department closely monitors the Group's cash flow position to ensure that the Group has sufficient working capital available to meet its operational needs. The finance department takes into account trade receivables, trade payables, cash on hand and at bank, repayment of bank borrowings, administrative and capital expenditures to prepare the cash flow forecast to forecast the Group's future liquidity.

After the Listing, the Group mainly finances its capital expenditure and operational requirements through internally generated cash flows, net proceeds from the Placing of the Company's shares in Listing, cash reserve and bank and other borrowings.

CAPITAL COMMITMENTS

On 29 December 2014, the Group, via the Company, entered into an agreement (the "Agreement") with the Administrative Committee of Jiangsu Huaian Industrial Park (the "Administrative Committee") in the establishment of a manufacturing company (the "New Subsidiary") in Huaian, Jiangsu Province. Pursuant to the Agreement, the first phase registered capital of the New Subsidiary is expected to be USD35,000,000, and the Group will acquire the land use right with a gross area of approximately 151,000 square metres from the Administrative Committee for a consideration to be determined after a listing-for-sale process. The Agreement will become effective upon the establishment of the New Subsidiary and the payment of a deposit of RMB1,000,000 by the Group.

PLEDGE OF ASSETS

At 31 December 2014, the Group's property, plant and equipment, investment properties and land use right with a carrying amount of about RMB118.1 million (2013: RMB162.9 million) and bank deposits of RMBNil (2013: RMB2.0 million) were pledged to third parties or banks for bank borrowings.

CONTINGENT LIABILITY

The Group had no material contingent liabilities as at 31 December 2014 (2013: Nil).

MATERIAL ACQUISITIONS OR DISPOSALS

The Group had no material acquisitions or disposals of subsidiaries and affiliated companies in 2014.

CAPITAL STRUCTURE

The Group's shares were successfully listed on GEM on the Listing Date. There has been no change in the capital structure of the Group since that Listing Date. The capital of the Group only comprises of ordinary shares.

As at 31 December 2014, all the bank loans of the Group are denominated in RMB and are subject to fixed interest rate.

SIGNIFICANT INVESTMENTS

At 31 December 2014, there was no significant investment held by the Group (2013: Nil).

FOREIGN CURRENCY EXPOSURE

During 2014, the Group's monetary assets and transactions were mainly denominated in Renminbi ("RMB") and Hong Kong Dollars ("HK$"). The management of the Group noted that the recent fluctuation in the exchange rate between RMB to HK$, and is of the opinion that it does not currently have a material adverse impact on the Group's financial position. The Group currently does not have a foreign currency hedging policy. However, the management monitors foreign exchange exposure and will consider hedging significant foreign currency exposure should the need arise.

EMPLOYEES AND EMOLUMENT POLICY

The Group recognises the importance of good relationship with employees. The Directors believe that the working environment and benefits offered to employees have contributed to building good staff relations and retention. The Group continues to provide training for new staff and existing staff to enhance their technical knowledge. The Group also provides fire and production safety training to the production staff. The Directors believe that such initiatives have contributed to the Group's increased productivity and efficiency.

The Group's remuneration policies are formulated based on the performance of individual employees and are reviewed regularly. Subject to the Group's profitability and the staff performance, the Group may also provide a discretionary bonus to employees as an incentive for their contribution to the Group. The primary goal of the remuneration policy with regard to the remuneration packages of the Group's executive Directors is to enable the Group to retain and motivate executive Directors by linking their compensation with performance as measured against corporate objectives achieved.

A remuneration committee is set up for reviewing the Group's emolument policy and structure of all remuneration of the Directors and senior management of the Group, having regard to the Group's operating results, individual performance and comparable market practices.

As at 31 December 2014, the Group employed 354 employees, the total staff costs amounted to RMB24.1 million (2013: RMB21.1 million). The Company maintains a share option scheme ("Share Option Scheme") for the purpose of providing incentives and rewards to the participants for their contributions to the Group. As at the date of this report, no option has been granted under the Share Option Scheme.

ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURES

Relocation of three office premises and a warehouse of the Group

As disclosed in the Prospectus, the Group leased four properties in the PRC. All the lease contracts were not registered with relevant authorities in the PRC administration department, and for one of which the lessors failed to provide the building ownership certificate. Among the four leased properties, three were used as the Group's office premises and one was used as warehouse. In addition, the usage of the three leased office premises was inconsistent with the designated usage as stated in the building ownership certificates. As at the date of this report, the Group's warehouse was relocated to the warehouse in the Group's production facility at Wei County, Handan City, Hebei Province. A new office was rented in March 2014 and the leases of the three office premises have been terminated in July 2014. The Group was able to register the lease agreement of the new office with relevant authority. The owner of that property was able to provide the Group with building ownership certificate and the use of such property as office is consistent with the designated usage as stated in the building ownership certificate.

OUTLOOK

The Group intends to increase its production capacity and further promote the market recognition of its Processed Wood Products in the PRC. To achieve this, the Group will establish its new production plant in Huaian, Jiangsu Province, expand the application spectrum and improve the quality of its Processed Wood Products, and expand its sales network through its newly established sales offices.

The principal terms of which are set out in the paragraph headed "Share Option Scheme" under the section headed "Statutory and General Information" of the Prospectus.

The purpose of the Share Option Scheme is to provide incentives to Participants (as defined in the following paragraph) to contribute to the Group and to enable the Group to recruit and retain high-calibre employees and attract and retain human resources that are valuable to the Group.

The Board may, at its absolute discretion, offer options to subscribe to such number of Shares in accordance with the terms set out in the Share Option Scheme to the following persons (the "Participants"): Any individual being an employee, officer, agent, consultant or representative of the Company or any subsidiary, including any executive or non-executive Director or any subsidiary.

The maximum number of Shares which may be issued upon exercise of all options to be granted under the Share Option Scheme and any other share option schemes of the Group shall not in aggregate exceed 10% of the total number of Shares in issue as at 6 January 2014, i.e. 100,000,000 Shares. No options may be granted to any Participant of the Share Option Scheme such that the total number of Shares issued and to be issued upon exercise of the options granted and to be granted to that person in any 12-month period up to the date of the latest grant exceeds 1% of the Company's issued share capital from time to time.

An option may be exercised in accordance with the terms of the Share Option Scheme at any time during a period as determined by the Board and not exceeding 10 years from the date of the grant under the Share Option Scheme. There is no minimum period for which an option must be held before it can be exercised. Participants of the Share Option Scheme are required to pay the Company HK$1.0 upon acceptance of the grant on or before 28 days after the offer date. The exercise price of the options is determined by the Board in its absolute discretion and shall not be less than whichever is the highest of:

- (i) the closing price of the Shares as stated in the Stock Exchange's daily quotations sheet on the date on which the option is granted, which date must be a business day;
- (ii) the average closing price of the Shares as stated in the Stock Exchange's daily quotations sheets for the five (5) business days immediately preceding the date on which the option is granted; and
- (iii) the nominal value of the Share.

The Share Option Scheme shall be valid and effective for a period of 10 years from 6 January 2014, after which no further options will be granted or offered.

There is no option outstanding, granted, cancelled and lapsed during the year ended 31 December 2014.

RESPONSIBILITY OF THE BOARD

The Board is primarily responsible for overseeing and supervising the management of the business affairs and the overall performance of the Group. The Board sets the Group's values and standards and ensures that the requisite financial and human resources support are in place for the Group to achieve its objectives. The functions and duties conferred on the Board include convening shareholders' meetings, reporting on the work of the Board to the shareholders at shareholders' meetings as may be required by applicable laws, implementing resolutions passed at shareholders' meetings, determining the Company's business plans and investment plans, formulating the Company's annual budget and final accounts, formulating the Company's proposals for dividend and bonus distributions as well as exercising other powers, functions and duties as conferred on it by the articles of association of the Company and applicable laws. The senior management is delegated the authority and responsibilities by the Board for the day-to-day management and operations of the Group. The Board meets regularly to review the financial and operating performance of the Company, and considers and approves the overall strategies and policies of the Company. The composition of the Board is well balanced with the Directors having sound industry knowledge, extensive corporate and strategic planning experience and/or expertise relevant to the business of the Group. The independent non-executive Directors bring a variety of experience and expertise to the Company.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE FUNCTIONS

The Company's corporate governance functions are carried out by the Board in compliance with code provision D.3.1 of the CG Code, which include (a) to develop and review the Company's policies and practices on corporate governance and make recommendations to the Board; (b) to review and monitor the training and continuous professional development of the Directors and senior management of the Group; (c) to review and monitor the Company's policies and practices in compliance with legal and regulatory requirements; (d) to develop, review and monitor the code of conduct and compliance manual (if any) applicable to employees of the Group and the Directors; and (e) to review the Company's compliance with the CG Code and disclosure in the corporate governance report.

Corporate Governance Report

All Directors have separate and independent access to the Company's senior management to fulfill their duties and, upon reasonable request, to seek independent professional advice in appropriate circumstances at the Company's expense. All Directors also have access to the company secretary of the Company (the "Company Secretary") who is responsible for ensuring that the Board procedures and all applicable rules and regulations are followed. An agenda and accompanying Board committee papers are distributed to the Directors/Board committee members with reasonable notice in advance of the meetings. Minutes of Board meetings and meetings of Board committees, which record in sufficient details of the matters considered by the Board and decisions reached, including any concerns raised by Directors or dissenting views expressed, are kept by the Company Secretary and are open for inspection by Directors.

DIRECTORS' TRAINING

According to the code provision A.6.5 of the CG Code, all Directors should participate in a programme of continuous professional development to develop and refresh their knowledge and skills to ensure that their contribution to the Board remains informed and relevant. The Company should be responsible for arranging and funding training, placing an appropriate emphasis on the roles, functions and duties of the Directors of the Company. Prior to the Listing Date, the Company had arranged to provide trainings to all the Directors.

CHAIRLADY AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

According to code provision A.2.1 of the CG Code, the roles of chairman and chief executive should be separate and should not be performed by the same individual. The division of responsibilities between the chairman and chief executive should be clearly established and set out in writing.

From the Listing Date to 31 December 2014, the roles of the chairlady and the chief executive officer are separate. Ms. Yim Tsun was the chairlady while the role of the chief executive officer was performed by Mr. Li Li.

INDEPENDENT NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS Terms of Appointment of Independent Non-executive Directors

Each of the independent non-executive Directors has entered into an appointment letter with the Company for a term of three years commencing from the Listing Date.

Independent Non-Executive Directors

Independent non-executive Directors have played a significant role in the Board by bringing their independent judgment at the Board meetings and scrutinizing the Group's performance. Their views carry significant weight in the Board's decisions; in particular, they bring an impartial view to bear on issues arising from the Group's strategy, performance and control. All independent non-executive Directors possess extensive academic, professional and industry expertise and management experience and have provided professional advice to the Board. The independent non-executive Directors provide independent advice on the Group's business strategy, results and management so that all interests of all the Shareholders can be taken into account, and the interests of the Company and its Shareholders can be protected.

In compliance with Rules 5.05(1) and 5.05A of the GEM Listing Rules, the Company has appointed three independent non-executive Directors representing more than one-third of the Board.

Among the three independent non-executive Directors, Mr. Lau Ying Kit has appropriate professional accounting qualifications and financial management expertise in compliance with the requirements set out in Rule 5.28 of the GEM Listing Rules.

The Company has received annual confirmations of independence from each of the existing independent non-executive Directors in accordance with Rule 5.09 of the GEM Listing Rules. Based on the contents of such confirmations, the Company considers that all the independent non-executive Directors are independent and that they have met the specific independence guidelines as set out in Rule 5.09 of the GEM Listing Rules.

BOARD COMMITTEES

As an integral part of sound corporate governance practices, the Board has established the following Board committees to oversee the particular aspects of the Group's affairs:

Audit Committee

The Company has established its audit committee on 20 December 2013 with terms of reference in compliance with the CG Code as set out in Appendix 15 to the GEM Listing Rules. Nomination Committee

The Company established a nomination committee on 20 December 2013 with terms of references in compliance with the CG Code as set out in Appendix 15 of the GEM Listing Rules. The nomination committee comprises one executive Director, namely Mr. Li Li and two independent non-executive Directors, namely Mr. Zhang Dali and Mr. Pu Junwen. The primary duties of the nomination committee are to make recommendations to the Board regarding candidates to fill vacancies on the Board. The chairman of the nomination committee is Mr. Zhang Dali.

The Nomination Committee adopted a board diversity policy (the "Board Diversity Policy") on 20 December 2013. The Company recognises and embraces the benefits of having a diverse Board to enhance the quality of its performance. The Company seeks to achieve Board diversity through the consideration of a number of factors, including but not limited to gender, age, cultural and educational background, ethnicity, professional experience, skills, knowledge and other qualities. The Company will also take into consideration its own business model and specific needs from time to time in determining the optimum composition of the Board. The ultimate decision will be based on merit and contribution that the selected candidates will bring to the Board.

The Nomination Committee has set measurable objectives based on three focus areas: education, PRC-related working experience and independence to implement the Board Diversity Policy. Such objectives will be reviewed from time to time to ensure their appropriateness and the progress made towards achieving those objectives will be ascertained. The Nomination Committee will review the Board Diversity Policy, as appropriate, to ensure its continued effectiveness from time to time.

During the year ended 31 December 2014, one meeting of the nomination committee was held. The attendance records of individual committee members are as follows:

	Number of Meetings Attended/Held
Mr. Zhang Dali (Chairman)	1/1
Mr. Li Li	1/1

Directors' and Auditors' Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The management provides such explanation and information to the Board and reports regularly to the Board on financial position and prospects of the business of the Company so as to enable the Board to make an informed assessment of the financial and other information put before the Board for approval.

The Directors acknowledge their responsibility for preparing the consolidated financial statements of the Group. The Company's consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with all relevant statutory requirements and applicable accounting standards. The Directors are responsible for ensuring that appropriate accounting policies have been adopted and applied consistently, and that judgments and estimates made are prudent and reasonable. Having made appropriate enquiries, the Board is not aware of any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions which may cast significant doubt over the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. Accordingly, the Board has continued to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the consolidated financial statements.

The reporting responsibilities of external auditors of the Company are disclosed in "Independent Auditor's Report".

AUDITORS' REMUNERATION

The remuneration paid/payable to the Company's external auditors, KPMG, for the year ended 31 December 2014, is set out as follows:

Nature of Services	Fee paid/ payable RMB'000
Annual audit service	1,900

The fee charged by KPMG in respect of annual audit service for the year ended 31 December 2014 amounted to RMB1.9 million. The external auditor did not provide any non-audit services to the Company for the year ended 31 December 2014.

INTERNAL CONTROLS

The Board had conducted a review of the effectiveness of the system of internal control of the Group covering all material controls, including finance, operation, compliance controls, etc.. The Group's internal control system includes a defined management structure with limits of authority, is designed to help the achievement of business objectives, safeguard assets against unauthorised use or disposition, ensure the maintenance of proper accounting records for the provision of reliable financial information for internal use or for publication, and ensure compliance with relevant legislation and regulations. The system is designed to provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance against material misstatement or loss, and to manage, rather than eliminate, risks of failure in operation systems and achievement of the Group's objectives. The Board reviews the effectiveness of the Group's material internal controls. Based on information furnished to it and on its own observations, the Board is satisfied with present internal controls of the Group.

COMPANY SECRETARY

The Company has entered into a service contract with an external service provider, pursuant to which Ms. Ho Wing Yan ("Ms. Ho") was appointed as the Company Secretary. Mr. Chor Ngai, the chief financial officer of the Company, is the primary corporate contact person of the Company with Ms. Ho.

Being the Company Secretary, Ms. Ho plays an important role in supporting the Board by ensuring good information flow within the Board and that Board policy and procedures are followed. Ms. Ho is responsible for advising the Board on corporate governance matters and should also facilitate induction and professional development of Directors.

Ms. Ho is an associate member of The Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators and The Hong Kong Institute of Chartered Secretaries. Ms. Ho continues to study professional course of corporate governance and has extensive experience in the company secretarial field for listed companies. Ms. Ho is also a holder of the Practitioner's Endorsement issued by The Hong Kong Institute of Chartered Secretaries. According to Rule 5.15 of the GEM Listing Rules, Ms. Ho took more than 15 hours of relevant professional training for the year ended 31 December 2014.

SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS

The general meetings of the Company provide an opportunity for communication between the shareholders and the Board. An Annual General Meeting of the Company shall be held in each year and at the place as may be determined by the Board. Each general meeting, other than an Annual General Meeting, shall be called an extraordinary general meeting ("EGM").

To convene an EGM

Pursuant to article 64 of the articles of association of the Company, any one or more shareholders holding at the date of deposit of the requisition not less than one-tenth of the paid up capital of the Company having the right of voting at general meetings of the Company shall at all times have the right, by written requisition to the Board or the secretary of the Company, to require an EGM to be called by the Board for the transaction of any business specified in such requisition; and such meeting shall be held within two months after the deposit of such requisition. If within twenty-one days of such deposit the Board fails to proceed to convene such meeting the requisitionist(s) himself (themselves) may do so in the same manner, and all reasonable expenses incurred by the requisitionist(s) as a result of the failure of the Board shall be reimbursed to the requisitionist(s) by the Company.

Procedures by which enquiries may be put to the Board

To ensure effective communication between the Board and the shareholders, the Company has adopted a shareholders' communication policy (the "Policy") on 20 December 2013. Under the Policy, the Company's information shall be communicated to the shareholders mainly through general meetings, including annual general meetings of the Company, the Company's financial reports (interim reports and annual reports), and its corporate communications and other corporate publications on the Company's website and the Stock Exchange's website.

Shareholders may at any time make a request for the Company's information to the extent such information is publicly available. Any such questions shall be first directed to the Company Secretary at the Company's head office and principal place of business in Hong Kong.

Procedures for putting forward proposals at general meeting

The number of shareholders necessary for a requisition for putting forward a proposal at a shareholders' meeting shall be any number of shareholders representing not less than one-tenth of the paid up capital of the Company carrying the right of voting at general meetings at the date of the requisition.

A copy or copies of requisition signed by all requisitionists shall be deposited, with a sum reasonably sufficient to meet the Company's expenses in giving notice of the proposed resolution or circulating any necessary statement, at the Company's principal place of business in Hong Kong in the case of:

- (i) a requisition requiring notice of a resolution, not less than six weeks before the meeting; and
- (ii) any other requisition, not less than one week before the meeting.

The Company will verify the requisition and upon confirming that the requisition is proper and in order, the Board will proceed with necessary procedures.

Communication with Shareholders

The Board recognises the importance of maintaining clear, timely and effective communication with the shareholders and investors of the Company. The Board also recognises that effective communication with its investors is critical in establishing investor confidence and to attract new investors. Therefore, the Group is committed to maintaining a high degree of transparency to ensure that the investors of the Company and the shareholders will receive accurate, clear, comprehensive and timely information of the Group through the publication of annual reports, interim reports, announcements and circulars. The Company also publishes all corporate communications on the Company's website at www.chinawood.com.hk. The Directors and members of various board committees will attend the Annual General Meeting of the Company to answer questions raised by the shareholders. The resolution of every important proposal will be proposed at general meetings separately.

Voting at general meetings of the Company are conducted by way of poll in accordance with the GEM Listing Rules. The poll results will be announced at general meetings and published on the websites of the Stock Exchange and the Company, respectively. In addition, the Company regularly meets with institutional investors, financial analysts and financial media to keep them informed of the Group's strategy, operations, management and plans, and promptly releases information related to any significant progress of the Company, so as to promote the development of the Company through mutual and efficient communications.

Independent Auditor's Report

Independent auditor's report to the shareholders of China Wood Optimization (Holding) Limited

(Incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability)

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of China Wood Optimization (Holding) Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (together the "Group") set out on pages 42 to 94, which comprise the consolidated and the Company's statements of financial position as at 31 December 2014, the consolidated statement of profit or loss, the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated cash flow statement for the year then ended and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards issued by the International Accounting Standards Board and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. This report is made solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

OPINION

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the Group as at 31 December 2014 and of the Group's profit and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards and have been properly prepared in accordance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

1 CORPORATE INFORMATION

China Wood Optimization (Holding) Limited (the "Company") was incorporated in the Cayman Islands on 6 June 2012 as an exempted company with limited liability under the Companies Law (as revised) of the Cayman Islands as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time. The shares of the Company were listed on the Growth Enterprise Market of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange") on 6 January 2014. The consolidated financial statements of the Company as at and for the year ended 31 December 2014 comprise the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the "Group"). The principal activities of the Group are the processing, production and sale of wooden products.

2 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with all applicable International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs"), which collective term includes all applicable individual International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards ("IASs") and related Interpretations issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (the "IASB"). These financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, which for this financial year and the comparative period continue to be those of the predecessor Hong Kong Companies Ordinance (Cap. 32), in accordance with transitional and saving arrangements for Part 9 of the new Hong Kong Companies Ordinance (Cap. 622), "Accounts and Audit", which are set out in sections 76 to 87 of Schedule 11 to that Ordinance. These financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosure provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Growth Enterprise Market of the Stock Exchange (the "GEM Listing Rules"). A summary of the significant accounting policies adopted by the Group is set out below.

The IASB has issued certain new and revised IFRSs that are first effective or available for early adoption for the current accounting period of the Group and the Company. Note 2(c) provides information on any changes in accounting policies resulting from initial application of these developments to the extent that they are relevant to the Group for the current and prior accounting periods reflected in these financial statements.

(b) Basis of preparation of the financial statements

The consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2014 comprise the Group.

The measurement basis used in the preparation of the financial statements is the historical cost basis.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRSs requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis of making the judgements about carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

(Expressed in RMB unless otherwise indicated)

Judgements made by management in the application of IFRSs that have significant effect on the financial statements and major sources of estimation uncertainty are discussed in Note 3.

(c) Changes in accounting policies

The IASB has issued a number of amendments to IFRSs and one new Interpretation that are first effective for the current accounting period of the Group and the Company. Of these, the following developments are relevant to the Group's financial statements:

- Amendments to IFRS 10, IFRS 12 and IAS 27, Investment entities
- Amendments to IAS 32, Offsetting financial assets and financial liabilities
- Amendments to IAS 36, Recoverable amount disclosures for non-financial assets
- IFRIC 21, Levies

None of these developments have had a material effect on how the Group's results and financial position for the current or prior period have been prepared or presented. The Group has not applied any new standard or interpretation that is not yet effective for the current accounting period.

(d) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when it is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. When assessing whether the Group has power, only substantive rights (held by the Group and other parties) are considered.

An investment in a subsidiary is consolidated into the consolidated financial statements from the date that control commences until the date that control ceases. Intra-group balances, transactions and cash flows and any unrealised consolidated profits arising from intra-group transactions are eliminated in full in preparing the consolidated financial statements. Unrealised losses resulting from intra-group transactions are eliminated in the same way as unrealised gains but only to the extent that there is no evidence of impairment.

In the Company's statement of financial position, an investment in a subsidiary is stated at cost less impairment losses (see Note 2(i)(ii)), unless the investment is classified as held-for-sale.

(Expressed in RMB unless otherwise indicated)

(e) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses (see Note 2(i)(ii)).

The cost of self-constructed items of property, plant and equipment includes the cost of materials, labour cost, the initial estimate, where relevant, of the costs of dismantling and removing the items and restoring the site on which they are located, and an appropriate proportion of production overheads and borrowing costs (see Note 2(t)).

Gains or losses arising from the retirement or disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment are determined as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the item and are recognised in profit or loss on the date of retirement or disposal.

Depreciation is calculated to write off the cost of items of property, plant and equipment, less their estimated residual values, if any, using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives as follows:

Estimated useful lives

Plant and buildings 20 years
Machinery and equipment 10 years
Motor vehicles and other equipment 5–10 years

Where parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, the cost of the item is allocated on a reasonable basis between the parts and each part is depreciated separately. Both the useful life of an asset and its residual value, if any, are reviewed annually. No depreciation is provided in respect of construction in progress until it is completed and ready for its intended use.

(f) Investment properties

Investment properties are land and/or buildings which are owned or held under a leasehold interest (see Note 2(h)) to earn rental income and/or for capital appreciation.

Investment properties are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses (see Note 2(i)(ii)). The depreciation policy is the same as that of property, plant and equipment (see Note 2(e)). Rental income from investment properties is accounted for as described in Note 2(r)(ii).

(Expressed in RMB unless otherwise indicated)

(g) Intangible asset

Expenditure on research and development activities is recognised as an expense in the period in which it is incurred

Intangible asset that is acquired by the Group is stated at cost less accumulated amortisation (where the estimated useful life is finite) and impairment losses (see Note 2(i)(ii)).

Amortisation of intangible asset with finite useful life is charged to profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the asset's estimated useful life. The following intangible asset with finite useful life is amortised from the date it is available for use and its estimated useful life is as follows:

Patent use right 5 years

Both the period and method of amortisation are reviewed annually.

(h) Leased assets

An arrangement, comprising a transaction or a series of transactions, is or contains a lease if the Group determines that the arrangement conveys a right to use a specific asset or assets for an agreed period of time in return for a payment or a series of payments. Such a determination is made based on an evaluation of the substance of the arrangement and is regardless of whether the arrangement takes the legal form of a lease.

(i) Classification of assets leased to the Group

Assets that are held by the Group under leases which transfer to the Group substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are classified as being held under finance leases. Leases which do not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to the Group are classified as operating leases.

(ii) Operating lease charges

Where the Group has the use of assets held under operating leases, payments made under the leases are charged to profit or loss in equal instalments over the accounting periods covered by the lease term, except where an alternative basis is more representative of the pattern of benefits to be derived from the leased asset. Lease incentives received are recognised in profit or loss as an integral part of the aggregate net lease payments made. Contingent rentals are charged to profit or loss in the accounting period in which they are incurred.

Payments made on the acquisition of land held under an operating lease is stated at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment losses (see Note 2(i)(ii)). Amortisation is charged to profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease term.

(Expressed in RMB unless otherwise indicated)

(i) Impairment of assets

(i) Impairment of receivables

Receivables that are stated at cost or amortised cost are reviewed at the end of each reporting period to determine whether there is objective evidence of impairment. Objective evidence of impairment includes observable data that comes to the attention of the Group about one or more of the following loss events:

- significant financial difficulty of the debtor;
- a breach of contract, such as a default or delinquency in payments;
- it becoming probable that the debtor will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation;
 and
- significant changes in the market, economic or legal environment that have an adverse effect on the debtor.

If any such evidence exists for trade and other receivables and other financial assets carried at amortised cost, the impairment loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate (i.e. the effective interest rate computed at initial recognition of these assets), where the effect of discounting is material. This assessment is made collectively where these financial assets share similar risk characteristics, such as similar past due status, and have not been individually assessed as impaired. Future cash flows for financial assets which are assessed for impairment collectively are based on historical loss experience for assets with credit risk characteristics similar to the collective group.

If in a subsequent period the amount of an impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be linked objectively to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognised, the impairment loss is reversed through profit or loss. A reversal of an impairment loss shall not result in the asset's carrying amount exceeding that which would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised in prior years.

Impairment losses are written off against the corresponding assets directly, except for impairment losses recognised in respect of receivables whose recoveries are considered doubtful but not remote. In this case, the impairment losses for doubtful debts are recorded using an allowance account. When the Group is satisfied that recovery is remote, the amount considered irrecoverable is written off against the receivables directly and any amounts held in the allowance account relating to that debt are reversed. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously charged to the allowance account are reversed against the allowance account. Other changes in the allowance account and subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off directly are recognised in profit or loss.

(Expressed in RMB unless otherwise indicated)

(i) Impairment of assets (Continued)

(ii) Impairment of other assets

Internal and external sources of information are reviewed at the end of each reporting period to identify indications that the following assets may be impaired or an impairment loss previously recognised no longer exists or may have decreased:

- property, plant and equipment;
- investment properties;
- pre-paid interests in leasehold land classified as being held under an operating lease;
- intangible asset; and
- investment in a subsidiary in the Company's statement of financial position.

If any such indication exists, the asset's recoverable amount is estimated.

Calculation of recoverable amount

The recoverable amount of an asset is the greater of its fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. Where an asset does not generate cash inflows largely independent of those from other assets, the recoverable amount is determined for the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows independently (i.e. a cash-generating unit).

Recognition of impairment losses

An impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss if the carrying amount of an asset, or the cash-generating unit to which it belongs, exceeds its recoverable amount. Impairment losses recognised in respect of cash-generating units are allocated to reduce the carrying amount of the assets in the unit (or group of units) on a pro rata basis, except that the carrying value of an asset will not be reduced below its individual fair value less costs of disposal (if measurable) or value in use (if determinable).

Reversals of impairment losses

An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a favourable change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount.

A reversal of an impairment loss is limited to the asset's carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised in prior years. Reversals of impairment losses are credited to profit or loss in the year in which the reversals are recognised.

(Expressed in RMB unless otherwise indicated)

(i) Impairment of assets (Continued)

(iii) Interim financial reporting and impairment

Under the GEM Listing Rules, the Group is required to prepare an interim financial report in compliance with IAS 34, Interim financial reporting, in respect of the first six months of the financial year. At the end of the interim period, the Group applies the same impairment testing, recognition, and reversal criteria as it would at the end of the financial year (see Notes 2(i)(i) and 2(i)(ii)).

(j) Inventories

Inventories are carried at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Cost is calculated using the weighted average cost formula and comprises all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

When inventories are sold, the carrying amount of those inventories is recognised as an expense in the period in which the related revenue is recognised. The amount of any write-down of inventories to net realisable value and all losses of inventories are recognised as an expense in the period the write-down or loss occurs. The amount of any reversal of any write-down of inventories is recognised as a reduction in the amount of inventories recognised as an expense in the period in which the reversal occurs.

(k) Trade and other receivables

Trade and other receivables are initially recognised at fair value and thereafter stated at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less allowance for impairment of doubtful debts (see Note 2(i)(i)), except where the receivables are interest-free loans made to related parties without any fixed repayment terms or the effect of discounting would be immaterial. In such cases, the receivables are stated at cost less allowance for impairment of doubtful debts (see Note 2(i)(i)).

(I) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at bank and on hand, demand deposits with banks and other financial institutions, and short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

(m) Interest-bearing borrowings

Interest-bearing borrowings are recognised initially at fair value less attributable transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, interest-bearing borrowings are stated at amortised cost with any difference between the amount initially recognised and redemption value being recognised in profit or loss over the period of the borrowings, together with any interest and fees payable, using the effective interest method.

(Expressed in RMB unless otherwise indicated)

(n) Trade and other payables

Trade and other payables are initially recognised at fair value, and are subsequently stated at amortised cost unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at cost.

(o) Employee benefits

- (i) Short-term employee benefits and contributions to defined contribution retirement plans
 Salaries, annual bonuses, paid annual leave, contributions to defined contribution retirement plans and the cost of non-monetary benefits are accrued in the year in which the associated services are rendered by employees of the Group. Where payment or settlement is deferred and the effect would be material, these amounts are stated at their present values.
- (ii) Termination benefits

 Termination benefits are recognised at the earlier of when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits and when it recognises restructuring costs involving the payment of termination benefits.

(p) Income tax

Income tax for the year comprises current tax and movements in deferred tax assets and liabilities. Current tax and movements in deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognised in profit or loss except to the extent that they relate to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case the relevant amounts of tax are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

Current tax is the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities arise from deductible and taxable temporary differences respectively, being the differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and their tax bases. Deferred tax assets also arise from unused tax losses and unused tax credits.

Apart from certain limited exceptions, all deferred tax liabilities, and all deferred tax assets to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the asset can be utilised, are recognised. Future taxable profits that may support the recognition of deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences include those that will arise from the reversal of existing taxable temporary differences, provided those differences relate to the same taxation authority and the same taxable entity, and are expected to reverse either in the same period as the expected reversal of the deductible temporary difference or in periods into which a tax loss arising from the deferred tax asset can be carried back or forward. The same criteria are adopted when determining whether existing taxable temporary differences support the recognition of deferred tax assets arising from unused tax losses and credits, that is, those differences are taken into account if they relate to the same taxation authority and the same taxable entity, and are expected to reverse in a period, or periods, in which the tax loss or credit can be utilised.

(Expressed in RMB unless otherwise indicated)

(p) Income tax (Continued)

The limited exceptions to recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities are those temporary differences arising from the initial recognition of assets or liabilities that affect neither accounting nor taxable profit (provided they are not part of a business combination), and temporary differences relating to investments in subsidiaries to the extent that, in the case of taxable differences, the Group controls the timing of the reversal and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future, or in the case of deductible differences, unless it is probable that they will reverse in the future.

The amount of deferred tax recognised is measured based on the expected manner of realisation or settlement of the carrying amount of the assets and liabilities, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are not discounted.

The carrying amount of a deferred tax asset is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and is reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow the related tax benefit to be utilised. Any such reduction is reversed to the extent that it becomes probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available.

Current tax balances and deferred tax balances, and movements therein, are presented separately from each other and are not offset. Current tax assets are offset against current tax liabilities, and deferred tax assets against deferred tax liabilities, if the Company or the Group has the legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the following additional conditions are met:

- in the case of current tax assets and liabilities, the Company or the Group intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously; or
- in the case of deferred tax assets and liabilities, if they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either:
 - the same taxable entity; or
 - different taxable entities, which, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered, intend to realise the current tax assets and settle the current tax liabilities on a net basis or realise and settle simultaneously.

(q) Provisions and contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognised for liabilities of uncertain timing or amount when the Group or the Company has a legal or constructive obligation arising as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made. Where the time value of money is material, provisions are stated at the present value of the expenditure expected to settle the obligation.

(Expressed in RMB unless otherwise indicated)

(q) Provisions and contingent liabilities (Continued)

Where it is not probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required, or the amount cannot be estimated reliably, the obligation is disclosed as a contingent liability, unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote. Possible obligations, whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more future events are also disclosed as contingent liabilities unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote.

(r) Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable. Provided it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the revenue and costs, if applicable, can be measured reliably, revenue is recognised in profit or loss as follows:

(i) Sale of goods

Revenue is recognised when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods have been transferred to the customers. Revenue excludes value added tax or other sales taxes and is after deduction of any sales discounts. No revenue is recognised if there are significant uncertainties regarding recovery of the consideration due, the possible return of goods, or continuing management involvement with the goods.

(ii) Rental income from operating leases

Rental income receivable under operating leases is recognised in profit or loss in equal instalments over the periods covered by the lease term, except where an alternative basis is more representative of the pattern of benefits to be derived from the use of the leased asset. Lease incentives granted are recognised in profit or loss as an integral part of the aggregate net lease payments receivable. Contingent rentals are recognised as income in the accounting period in which they are earned.

(iii) Interest income

Interest income is recognised as it accrues using the effective interest method.

(iv) Government grants

Government grants are recognised in the statement of financial position initially when there is reasonable assurance that they will be received and that the Group will comply with the conditions attaching to them. Grants that compensate the Group for expenses incurred are recognised as income in profit or loss on a systematic basis in the same periods in which the expenses are incurred. Grants that compensate the Group for the cost of an asset are recognised as deferred income and consequently recognised in profit or loss over the useful life of the asset.

(s) Translation of foreign currencies

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency of the entity to which they relate at the foreign exchange rates ruling at the transaction dates. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency of the entity to which they relate at the foreign exchange rates ruling at the end of the reporting period. Exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss.

Non-monetary assets and liabilities that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated into the functional currency of the entity to which they relate using the foreign exchange rates ruling at the transaction dates.

The presentation currency of the Group is RMB. The results of foreign operations which have a functional currency other than RMB are translated into RMB at the exchange rates approximating the foreign exchange rates ruling at the dates of the transactions. Statement of financial position items are translated into RMB at the closing foreign exchange rates at the end of the reporting period. The resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated separately in equity in the exchange reserve.

(t) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset which necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use are capitalised as part of the cost of that asset. Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

The capitalisation of borrowing costs as part of the cost of a qualifying asset commences when expenditure for the asset is being incurred, borrowing costs are being incurred and activities that are necessary to prepare the asset for its intended use are in progress. Capitalisation of borrowing costs is suspended or ceases when substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the qualifying asset for its intended use are interrupted or completed.

(u) Related parties

- (a) A person, or a close member of that person's family, is related to the Group if that person:
 - (i) has control or joint control over the Group;
 - (ii) has significant influence over the Group; or
 - (iii) is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or the Group's parent.

(Expressed in RMB unless otherwise indicated)

(u) Related parties (Continued)

- (b) An entity is related to the Group if any of the following conditions applies:
 - (i) the entity and the Group are members of the same group.
 - (ii) one entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a group of which the other entity is a member).
 - (iii) both entities are joint ventures of the same third party.
 - (iv) one entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity.
 - (v) the entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the Group or an entity related to the Group.
 - (vi) the entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (a).
 - (vii) a person identified in (a)(i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity).

Close members of the family of a person are those family members who may be expected to influence, or be influenced by, that person in their dealings with the entity.

(v) Segment reporting

Operating segments, and the amounts of each segment item reported in the financial statements, are identified from the financial information provided regularly to the Group's most senior executive management for the purposes of allocating resources to, and assessing the performance of, the Group's various lines of business and geographical locations.

Individually material operating segments are not aggregated for financial reporting purposes unless the segments have similar economic characteristics and are similar in respect of the nature of products, the nature of production processes, the type or class of customers, the methods used to distribute the products, and the nature of the regulatory environment. Operating segments which are not individually material may be aggregated if they share a majority of these criteria.

3 ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES

Note 27 contains information about the assumptions and their risk factors relating to fair value of financial instruments. Other key sources of estimation uncertainty are as follows:

(a) Impairment of trade and other receivables

The Group maintains an allowance for doubtful accounts for estimated losses resulting from the inability of the customers and other debtors to make the required payments. The Group bases the estimates on the assessment of recoverability of individual receivable balance, debtor credit-worthiness, and historical write-off experience. If the financial condition of the customers and other debtors were to deteriorate, actual write-offs would be higher than estimated.

(b) Impairment of long-lived assets

If circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of a long-lived asset may not be recoverable, the asset may be considered "impaired", and an impairment loss may be recognised in accordance with accounting policy for impairment of long-lived assets as described in Note 2(i)(ii). These assets are tested for impairment whenever the events or changes in circumstances indicate that their recorded carrying amounts may not be recoverable. When such a decline has occurred, the carrying amount is reduced to recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the greater of the fair value less costs of disposal and the value in use. In determining the value in use, expected future cash flows generated by the asset are discounted to their present value, which requires significant judgement relating to the level of revenue and amount of operating costs. The Group uses all readily available information in determining an amount that is a reasonable approximation of the recoverable amount, including estimates based on reasonable and supportable assumptions and projections of the level of revenue and amount of operating costs. Changes in these estimates could have a significant impact on the carrying value of the assets and could result in additional impairment charge or reversal of impairment in future years.

(c) Depreciation

Property, plant and equipment are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets, after taking into account the estimated residual values. The management reviews the estimated useful lives and residual values of the assets regularly in order to determine the amount of depreciation expense to be recorded during any reporting period. The determination of the useful lives and residual values are based on historical experience with similar assets and taking into account anticipated technological changes. The depreciation expense for future periods is adjusted if there are significant changes from previous estimates.

4 TURNOVER AND SEGMENT REPORTING

(a) Turnover

The principal activities of the Group are the processing, production and sale of wooden products.

Turnover represents the sales value of goods supplied to customers, net of value added tax.

The Group's customer base includes one customer with whom transactions have exceeded 10% of the Group's turnover for the year ended 31 December 2014 (2013: two customers). Turnover from sales of wooden products to this customer amounted to RMB103,516,000 for the year ended 31 December 2014 (2013: RMB128,305,000), and arose from both product types, as mentioned in Note 4(b), in which the Group sells. Details of concentrations of credit risk arising from the Group's customers are set out in Note 27(a).

Further details regarding the Group's principal activities are disclosed below.

(b) Segment reporting

The Group manages its businesses by products. In a manner consistent with the way in which information is reported internally to the Group's most senior executive management for the purposes of resource allocation and performance assessment, the Group has presented the following two reportable segments: Processed Wood Panels and Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels. No operating segments have been aggregated to form the following reportable segments.

- Processed Wood Panels: this segment produces and sells wooden panels which have gone through the Group's self-developed wood processing procedure, and also the shaving and sanding in accordance with the specifications of the customers.
- Processed Finger Joint Wood Panels: this segment sells wooden panels which are produced from the pressing and laminating cut-offs arising from the trimming process of the Processed Wood Panels.

(i) Segment results

For the purposes of assessing segment performance and allocating resources between segments, the Group's most senior executive management monitors the results attributable to each reportable segment on the following bases:

Revenue and expenses are allocated to the reportable segments with reference to sales generated by those segments and the expenses incurred by those segments. The measure used for reporting segment result is gross profit. No inter-segment sales have occurred for the years ended 31 December 2014 and 2013. The Group's other operating expenses, such as selling and administrative expenses, and assets and liabilities, including the sharing of technical know-how, are not measured under individual segments. Accordingly, neither information on segment assets and liabilities nor information concerning capital expenditure, interest income and interest expenses is presented.

(Expressed in RMB unless otherwise indicated)

(b) Segment reporting (Continued)

(c) Deferred tax assets not recognised

In accordance with the accounting policy set out in Note 2(p), the Group has not recognised deferred tax assets in respect of unused tax losses of RMB16,951,000 at 31 December 2014 (31 December 2013: RMB9,570,000), as it is not probable that future taxable profits against which the losses can be utilised will be available in the relevant tax jurisdiction and entity.

(Expressed in RMB unless otherwise indicated)

24 INCOME TAX IN THE CONSOLIDATED STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL POSITION (Continued)

(d) Deferred tax liabilities not recognised

At 31 December 2014, taxable temporary differences relating to the retained profits of the subsidiary of the Group established in the PRC amounted to RMB176,888,000 (31 December 2013: RMB112,165,000), where deferred tax liabilities in respect of the 10% PRC withholding tax that would be payable on the distributions of these profits have not been recognised as the Company controls the dividend policy of this subsidiary and it has been determined that it is probable that such profits will not be distributed in the foreseeable future.

25 CAPITAL, RESERVES AND DIVIDENDS

(a) Movements in components of equity

The proceeds of HK$2,500,000 (equivalent to approximately RMB1,967,000), representing the par value, were credited to the Company's share capital. The remaining proceeds of HK$229,828,000 (equivalent to approximately RMB180,641,000), after deduction of share issuance expenses of approximately RMB14,092,000, were credited to the share premium account.

(d) Nature and purpose of reserves

(i) Share premium

The application of the share premium account is governed by Section 34 of the Companies Law, Chapter 22 (as revised) of the Cayman Islands as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time.

(ii) Other reserve

Other reserve represented the capital contribution paid by the ultimate holding company of the Company on the acquisition of a subsidiary in excess of its paid-in capital prior to the group reorganisation that took place in 2012.

(iii) Statutory reserves

In accordance with the articles of association of the subsidiary of the Group established in the PRC, this subsidiary is required to set up certain statutory reserves, which are non-distributable. The appropriation to these reserves is at discretion of the directors of this subsidiary. The statutory reserves can only be utilised for predetermined means upon approval by the relevant authority.

(Expressed in RMB unless otherwise indicated)

(d) Nature and purpose of reserves (Continued)

(iv) Exchange reserve

The exchange reserve comprises foreign exchange differences arising from the translation of the financial statements of foreign operations into RMB. The reserve is dealt with in accordance with the accounting policy set out in Note 2(s).

(e) Distributability of reserves

At 31 December 2014, the aggregate amount of reserves (including the Company's retained profits, if any, and share premium) available for distribution to equity shareholders of the Company is RMB259,976,000 (31 December 2013: RMB79,335,000). The directors of the Company do not recommend the payment of a final dividend for the year ended 31 December 2014 (2013: RMBNil).

(f) Capital management

The Group's primary objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, so that it can continue to provide returns for equity shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders, by pricing products commensurately with the level of risk and by securing access to finance at a reasonable cost.

The Group actively and regularly reviews and manages its capital structure to maintain a balance between the higher equity shareholder returns that might be possible with higher levels of borrowings and the advantages and security afforded by a sound capital position, and makes adjustments to the capital structure in light of changes in economic conditions.

The Group monitors its capital structure on the basis of the ratio of total liabilities to total assets (i.e. the "liability-to-asset ratio"). During the year ended 31 December 2014, the Group's strategy was to lower the liability-to-asset ratio. In order to maintain or adjust the ratio, the Group may adjust the amount of dividends paid to equity shareholders, issue new shares, return capital to equity shareholders, raise new debt financing or sell assets to reduce debt. At 31 December 2014, the liability-to-asset ratio of the Group is 13.9% (31 December 2013: 51.0%).

Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries are subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

(Expressed in RMB unless otherwise indicated)

26 MATERIAL RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The material related party transactions entered into by the Group during the year are set out below.

(a) Transactions with related parties

	2014 RMB'000	2013 RMB'000
Net decrease in non-interest bearing advances received from related parties		(2,603)

(b) Transactions entered into by the Company with its subsidiaries

Net (decrease)/increase in non-interest bearing advances received from a subsidiary	(1,641)	1,641
Net increase in non-interest bearing advances granted to subsidiaries	167,335	834

(c) Key management personnel remuneration

Remuneration for key management personnel of the Group, including amounts paid to the directors of the Company as disclosed in Note 8 and certain of the highest paid employees of the Group as disclosed in Note 9, is as follows:

	2014 RMB'000	2013 RMB'000
Short-term employee benefits	2,927	1,260
Retirement schemes contributions	100	125
	3,027	1,385

Total remuneration is included in "staff costs" (see Note 6(b)).

(d) Applicability of the GEM Listing Rules relating to connected transactions

The related party transactions entered in 2013 and as disclosed in Note 26(a) above constitute connected transactions as defined in Chapter 20 of the GEM Listing Rules. These transactions were discontinued after the listing of the Company's shares on the Stock Exchange on 6 January 2014.

(Expressed in RMB unless otherwise indicated)

27 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND FAIR VALUES

Exposure to credit, liquidity, interest rate and currency risks arises in the normal course of the Group's business.

The Group's exposure to these risks and the financial risk management policies and practices used by the Group to manage these risks are described below.

(a) Credit risk

The Group's credit risk is primarily attributable to trade and other receivables. Management has a credit policy in place and the exposure to these credit risks are monitored on an ongoing basis.

Individual credit evaluations are performed on all customers and debtors. These evaluations focus on the past history of making payments of the customers/debtors when due and current ability to pay, and take into account information specific to the customers/debtors as well as pertaining to the economic environment in which the customers/debtors operate. For trade receivables, cash before delivery is generally required for all customers, where a credit period of 30 days may be granted to customers, depending on credit assessment carried out by management on an individual customer basis. Normally, the Group does not obtain collateral from customers and debtors.

The Group's exposure to credit risk is influenced mainly by the individual characteristics of each customer/debtor rather than the industry in which the customers/debtors operate and therefore significant concentrations of credit risk primarily arise when the Group has significant exposure to individual customers/debtors. At 31 December 2014, 40.8% (31 December 2013: 60.6%) of the total trade receivables were due from the Group's largest debtor, and 100.0% of the total trade receivables were due from the Group's largest four debtors (31 December 2013: 99.8% from the largest five debtors).

The Group does not provide any guarantees which would expose the Group or the Company to credit risk.

Further quantitative disclosures in respect of the Group's exposure to credit risk arising from trade and other receivables are set out in Notes 17 and 18.

(b) Liquidity risk

Individual operating entities within the Group are responsible for their own cash management, including the short term investment of cash surpluses and the raising of loans to cover expected cash demands, where approvals by the directors of the Company are required when the borrowings exceed certain pre-determined levels of authorisation. The Group's policy is to regularly monitor its liquidity requirements and its compliance with lending covenants, to ensure that it maintains sufficient reserves of cash and adequate committed lines of funding from major financial institutions to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term.

(b) Liquidity risk (Continued)

The following table details the remaining contractual maturities at the end of the reporting period of the Group's and of the Company's non-derivative financial liabilities, which are based on contractual undiscounted cash flows (including interest payments computed using contractual rates or, if floating, based on rates current at the end of the reporting period) and the earliest dates the Group and the Company can be required to pay:

(c) Interest rate risk

The Group's interest rate risk arises primarily from interest bearing borrowings. Borrowings issued at fixed rates expose the Group to fair value interest rate risk.

The following table details the interest rate profile of the Group's and the Company's borrowings at the end of the reporting period:

The Group

	2014 Effective interest rate		2013 Effective interest rate

The Company

	2014 Effective interest rate % RMB'000		2013 Effective interest rate % RMB'000
Fixed rate borrowing: Other loan	-	-	18.0%	8,660

No sensitivity analysis was performed for the years ended 31 December 2014 and 2013, as the Group's fixed rate borrowings do not expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk.

(d) Currency risk

The Group is exposed to currency risk primarily through advances to group companies and cash balances denominated in currencies other than the functional currency of the lender/holder, which give rise to receivables and cash balances that are denominated in a foreign currency, i.e. a currency other than the functional currency of the operations to which the transactions relate. The currency giving rise to this risk is primarily RMB.

The Group ensures that the net exposure is kept to an acceptable level, by buying or selling foreign currencies at spot rates where necessary to address short-term imbalances.

(i) Exposure to currency risk

The following table details the Group's exposure at the end of the reporting period to currency risk arising from recognised assets or liabilities denominated in a currency other than the functional currency of the entity to which they relate. The Company does not have balances that are denominated in a currency other than the functional currency of the Company. For presentation purposes, the amounts of the exposure are shown in RMB, translated using the spot rates at the year end date. Differences resulting from the translation of the financial statements of foreign operations into the Group's presentation currency are excluded.

(d) Currency risk (Continued)

(ii) Sensitivity analysis

The following table indicates the instantaneous change in the Group's profit after tax and retained profits that would arise if foreign exchange rates to which the Group has significant exposure at the end of the reporting period had changed at that date, assuming all other risk variables remained constant.

The Group

	20	14	20′	13

	rates	profits	rates	profits
		RMB'000		RMB'000
RMB	5%	6,589	_	_
	(5%)	(6,589)	_	-

Results of the analysis as presented in the above table represent an aggregation of the instantaneous effects on each of the Group entities' profit after tax and retained profits measured in their respective functional currencies, translated into RMB at the exchange rates ruling at the end of the reporting period for presentation purposes.

The sensitivity analysis assumes that the change in foreign exchange rates had been applied to remeasure those financial instruments held by the Group which expose the Group to foreign currency risk at the end of the reporting period, including inter-company payables and receivables within the Group which are denominated in a currency other than the functional currencies of the lender or the borrower. The analysis excludes differences that would result from the translation of the financial statements of foreign operations into the Group's presentation currency, which depends on the foreign currencies the Group is exposed to, may or may not have an effect on the Group's net assets.

(e) Fair values

The Group does not have any financial instruments measured at fair value at 31 December 2014 and 2013.

The carrying amounts of the Group's financial instruments carried at cost or amortised cost are not materially different from their fair values at 31 December 2014 and 2013.

On 29 December 2014, the Group, via the Company, entered into an agreement (the "Agreement") with the Administrative Committee of Jiangsu Huai'an Industrial Park (the "Administrative Committee") in the establishment of a manufacturing company (the "New Subsidiary") in Huai'an, Jiangsu Province. Pursuant to the Agreement, the first phase registered capital of the New Subsidiary is expected to be USD35,000,000, and the Group will acquire the land use right with a gross area of approximately 151,000 square metres from the Administrative Committee for a consideration to be determined after a listing-for-sale process. The Agreement will become effective upon the establishment of the New Subsidiary and the payment of a deposit of RMB1,000,000 by the Group. Up to the date of these financial statements, the Agreement has not been effected.

(b) At 31 December 2014, the total future minimum lease payments under noncancellable operating leases are payable as follows:

	2014 RMB'000	2013 RMB'000
Within 1 year	1,577	218
After 1 year but within 5 years	3,623	60
	5,200	278

29 IMMEDIATE AND ULTIMATE HOLDING COMPANY

(Expressed in RMB unless otherwise indicated)

30 POSSIBLE IMPACT OF NEW STANDARDS, AMENDMENTS TO STANDARDS AND INTERPRETATIONS ISSUED BUT NOT YET EFFECTIVE FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 DECEMBER 2014

Up to the date of issue of these financial statements, the IASB has issued a few new standards, amendments to standards and interpretations which are not yet effective for the year ended 31 December 2014 and which have not been adopted in these financial statements. These include the following which may be relevant to the Group.

Effective for accounting periods beginning on or after

Annual improvements to IFRSs 2010-2012 cycle	1 July 2014
Annual improvements to IFRSs 2011-2013 cycle	1 July 2014
Annual improvements to IFRSs 2012-2014 cycle	1 January 2016
Amendments to IAS 16 and IAS 38, Clarification of acceptable methods of depreciation and amortisation	1 January 2016
Amendments to IAS 27, Equity method in separate financial statements	1 January 2016
Amendments to IAS 1, Disclosure initiative	1 January 2016
IFRS 15, Revenue from contracts with customers	1 January 2017
IFRS 9, Financial instruments	1 January 2018

The Group is in the process of making an assessment of what the impact of these new standards, amendments to standards and interpretations is expected to be in the period of initial application. So far it has concluded that the adoption of them is unlikely to have a significant impact on the Group's consolidated financial statements.

In addition, the requirements of Part 9, "Accounts and Audit", of the new Hong Kong Companies Ordinance (Cap. 622) come into operation from the Company's first financial year commencing after 3 March 2014 (i.e. the Company's financial year which began on 1 January 2015) in accordance with section 358 of that Ordinance. The Group is in the process of making an assessment of the expected impact of the changes in the Companies Ordinance on the consolidated financial statements in the period of initial application of Part 9. So far it has concluded that the impact is unlikely to be significant and will primarily only affect the presentation and disclosure of information in the consolidated financial statements.
