Chairman's Statement

Dear Shareholders,

On behalf of the board (the "Board") of directors (the "Directors") of Zhejiang Chang'an Renheng Technology Co., Limited (the "Company"), I hereby present the annual report of the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Group") for the year ended 31 December 2017 (the "Year Under Review") to shareholders (the "Shareholders") for your review.

In 2017, the Board committed to focus in development of new products' project and application of product marketing. The overall condition of production and operation of the Group remained stable, and the balance of production and sale was generally kept. Under the set development plan, the Group implemented the "adjusting structure, promoting development" plan step by step. During the Year Under Review, three industry fields planned by the Group, namely fields of paper chemicals, water treatment chemicals and organic bentonite have come into being initially.

RESULTS OF OPERATION

The Group recorded an aggregate revenue of approximately RMB80,583,000 for the year ended 31 December 2017, representing an increase of approximately RMB5,323,000 or 7.1% as compared to the previous year. Loss for the year attributable to the equity holders of the Company was approximately RMB6,364,000, while there was a profit of approximately RMB1,836,000 for the year ended 31 December 2016. The overall gross profit margin was down to 46.2% and loss per share was approximately RMB0.20, while the earnings per share was approximately RMB0.06 for the previous year. The Board believes that the existing financial position and cash flow of the Group are sufficient to support the long-term development of the Group.

BROADEN SALES MARKETS

During the Year Under Review, the Group concentrated to develop the promotion and marketing of the organic bentonite products while Shanghai's sales centers had stable operating. It began to be applied in certain customers and had a good response. The Group's Department for Major Clients had a stable operation to mantain the business relationship with quality clients. We will gradually eliminate relatively small-scale clients with outdated facilities to ensure safe operation of the Group, and actively explored oversea market, such as, the sale of bentonite products for manufacturing paper had been taken a shape in Southeast Asia.

DEVELOP NEW PRODUCTS

During the Year Under Review, the Group developed the application of bentonite in the field of water treatment in accordance with development plan. We cooperated with colleges and universities at home and overseas on the platform of academician expert team. The products of bentonite in the field of water treatment included wastewater in manufacturing paper, printing and dyeing aquaculture.

Chairman's Statement

FUTURE OUTLOOK AND DEVELOPMENT STRATEGY

The Group will carry on its efforts to consolidate its principal business as determined by the Board, increase investment in research and development, technology innovation and plan for optimizing our product range structure. On the basis of stabilizing the existing products, the Group will add new products and reduce manufacturing cost to enhance the Group's profitability. We will also further reduce its manufacturing cost through the transformation and upgrading of products and raw materials and developing new technology and new craft. The Group will also continuously broaden its company's sales channel and enhance its comprehensive competitiveness.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Here, on behalf of the Board of the Company, I hereby wish to extend my gratitude for the hard work contributed by all staff and the Directors, as well as the support to the Company from all the Shareholders. We will adhere to advanced development concept, follow development trend, grasp market opportunities, and make continuous efforts to create greater value for our Shareholders and make new contribution to the community.

Mr. Zhang Youlian
Chairman of the Board

Management Discussion and Analysis

INDUSTRY REVIEW

In 2017, the economic situation of China slowed down steadily but with improvement; the economic structure continued to be optimized; the reform achieved initial results; and the green development started to make improvements.

Papermaking industry has become an important industry in China's national economy. During the "13th Five-Year-Plan", China's papermaking industry has stepped into a period of adjustment of the overall industrial structure, and efforts must be made to solve three prominent problems, namely resources, environment and structure so as to promote industrial upgrading. In the medium and long term, the implementation of the papermaking industry policy and the new environmental protection standards will increase the barriers to entry of the industry, thus the elimination of companies with outdated production capacity and small and medium-sized enterprises will increase. Sized, intensive and environment-friendly large-scale enterprises will become the main body in the market. The general guiding principle is to build a green papermaking industry. There is still room for development in the papermaking industry on the basis of stable development.

The papermaking fine chemicals industry in which the Group is located has benefited from the positive impact of such factors as national environmental remediation and reform, accelerating the elimination of backward production capacity and resource integration in the industry and mitigating the periodic conflict between the supply and demands of the industry. Meanwhile, the positive impact of the steady growth of the domestic economy and on market demand and the promotion of product costs has resulted in a relatively stable product price and a good trend of recovery in the industry.

In recent years, the international bentonite market is widely favored. With the strengthening of environmental protection in various countries in the world, bentonite is used more and more widely to remove various harmful ions and molecules from the sewage system. International oil prices is expensive in result of geo and political factors, and all countries are intensely seeking and exploring oil and natural gas. The usage of bentonite in the field of paint and coatings and other applications made a substantial increase in the added value of bentonite products. These factors will lead to the further increase of bentonite demand.

BUSINESS REVIEW

During the Year Under Review, the Group stepped up the promotion of new products. The organic bentonite products market had taken a shape which began to be applied in customers at home and overseas and had a good reflecting. The Group continued to focus in the development of overseas markets. The sales of bentonite for manufacturing paper in the Southeast Asia market have been taken shape during the Year Under Review.

The Group attaches great importance to the research and development of new products and continues to research and develop several projects for the environmental protection field with Jilin Design and Research Institute for Petrochemical Engineering during the Year Under Review. In 2017, the Group obtained 7 invention patents and undertook the development of 2 new products which were on provincial-level.

Management Discussion and Analysis

FINANCIAL REVIEW

1. Revenue

The following table sets out revenue by product categories and the corresponding percentage of total revenue for the Year Under Review:

	For the year ended 31 December
	2017		2016
Product	RMB'000	%	RMB'000	%
Papermaking chemicals series	56,034	69.6	68,410	90.9
Organic bentonite	17,841	22.1	863	1.1
Quality calcium-bentonite	3,248	4.0	1,460	1.9
Bentonite for metallurgy pellet	1,585	2.0	2,525	3.4
Others (i)	1,875	2.3	2,002	2.7
Total	80,583	100.0	75,260	100.0

(i) Other chemicals mainly comprise inorganic gel and flocculating agent, which are principally applied in the coating preparation industry.

Revenue from sales of papermaking chemicals series decreased by approximately RMB12,376,000 or 18.1% from approximately RMB68,410,000 for the year ended 31 December 2016 to approximately RMB56,034,000 for the year ended 31 December 2017. As the average unit selling price remained stable for the comparative periods, the decrease in revenue was mainly due to the decrease in sales volume, which decreased by approximately 17.9% from approximately 14,500 tonnes for the year ended 31 December 2016 to approximately 11,900 tonnes for the year ended 31 December 2017.

Revenue from sales of organic bentonite increased by approximately RMB16,978,000 or 1,967.3% from approximately RMB863,000 for the year ended 31 December 2016 to approximately RMB17,841,000 for the year ended 31 December 2017. The increase was mainly due to the fact that the Group sold more products with lower gross profit margin to the customer in order to increase the sales volume.

Revenue of quality calcium-bentonite for the year ended 31 December 2017 increased by approximately RMB1,788,000 or 122.5% to approximately RMB3,248,000 as compared to approximately RMB1,460,000 for the year ended 31 December 2016. While the average unit selling price remained steady for these two periods, the increase in revenue was mainly due to the increase in sales volume.

Revenue of bentonite for metallurgy pellet decreased by approximately RMB940,000 or 37.2% from approximately RMB2,525,000 for the year ended 31 December 2016 to approximately RMB1,585,000 for the year ended 31 December 2017.

Revenue of others for the year ended 31 December 2017 decreased by approximately RMB127,000 or 6.3% to approximately RMB1,875,000 as compared to approximately RMB2,002,000 for the year ended 31 December 2016. Others mainly comprise inorganic gel and flocculating agent, which are principally applied in the coating preparation industry.

Management Discussion and Analysis

2. Cost of sales

The cost of sales mainly comprised cost of raw materials, direct labour costs and manufacturing overhead costs such as depreciation and utility charges. The following table sets out the breakdown of the cost of sales of the Group for the Year Under Review:

	For the year ended 31 December
	2017		2016
	RMB'000	%	RMB'000	%
Cost of raw materials and consumable	32,561	75.1	24,336	73.3
Direct labour costs	3,483	8.0	2,350	7.1
Manufacturing overhead cost	6,073	14.0	5,765	17.4
Others	1,253	2.9	756	2.2
Total	43,370	100.0	33,207	100.0

The cost of sales increased approximately RMB10,163,000 or 30.6% from approximately RMB33,207,000 for the year ended 31 December 2016 to approximately RMB43,370,000 for the year ended 31 December 2017.

Cost of raw materials accounted for approximately 73.3% and 75.1% of cost of sales for the year ended 31 December 2016 and 2017 respectively. The cost of raw materials increased by approximately RMB8,225,000 or 33.8% from approximately RMB24,336,000 for the year ended 31 December 2016 to approximately RMB32,561,000 for the year ended 31 December 2017 was mainly due to the increase of quantity consumed of CPAM. CPAM was the major raw material for a kind of product in papermaking chemicals with a relatively high unit price. As sales volume of this kind of product increased for the year ended 31 December 2017, the cost of sales for CPAM increased accordingly.

Direct labour costs accounted for approximately 7.1% and 8.0% of cost of sales for the year ended 31 December 2016 and 2017 respectively. Direct labour costs increased by approximately RMB1,133,000 or 48.2% from approximately RMB2,350,000 to RMB3,483,000 during the comparative years.

Manufacturing overhead costs accounted for approximately 17.4% and 14.0% of cost of sales for the year ended 31 December 2016 and 2017 respectively. Manufacturing overhead costs increased by approximately RMB308,000 or 5.3% from approximately RMB5,765,000 for the year ended 31 December 2016 to approximately RMB6,073,000 for the year ended 31 December 2017.

3. Gross profit and gross profit margin

Gross profit margin decreased from 55.9% in 2016 to 46.2% in 2017. The decrease in gross profit margin was mainly attributable to the drop in gross profit margin of organic bentonite and quality calcium-bentonite by selling more products with lower gross profit margin to the customers in order to increase the sales volume.

Management Discussion and Analysis

The table below sets out the Group's gross profit and gross profit margin by product for the Year Under Review:

	For the year ended 31 December
	2017		2016
Product	RMB'000	%	RMB'000	%
Papermaking chemicals series	32,222	57.5	38,945	56.9
Organic bentonite	2,570	14.4	591	68.5
Quality calcium-bentonite	1,261	38.8	1,235	84.6
Bentonite for metallurgy pellet	614	38.8	866	34.3
Others	546	25.9	416	20.8
Total	37,213	46.2	42,053	55.9

The gross profit margin of papermaking chemicals series increased slightly from 56.9% for the year ended 31 December 2016 to 57.5% for the year ended 31 December 2017. The increase in gross profit margin was mainly due to the change of product mix in response to the market demand. The Group sold more products with higher gross profit margin for the year ended 31 December 2017.

The gross profit margin of organic bentonite was 68.5% and 14.4% for the year ended 31 December 2016 and 2017. The gross profit margin decreased by 54.1% points during the comparative years. The decrease was mainly due to the fact that the Group sold more products with lower gross profit margin to the customers in order to increase the sales volume.

The gross profit margin of quality calcium – bentonite was 84.6% and 38.8% for the year ended 31 December 2016 and 2017 respectively. The gross profit margin decreased by 45.8% points during the comparative years. The decrease was mainly due to the fact that the Group sold more products with lower gross profit margin to the customers in order to increase the sales volume.

The gross profit margin of bentonite for metallurgy pellet was 34.3% and 38.8% for the year ended 31 December 2016 and 2017 respectively. The gross profit margin remained stable during the comparative years.

The gross profit margin of other products was 20.8% and 25.9% for the year ended 31 December 2016 and 2017 respectively. The gross profit margin increased by 5.1% points during the comparative years.

4. Distribution costs

The distribution costs for the year ended 31 December 2016 and 2017 amounted to approximately RMB16,527,000 and RMB17,999,000 respectively. The distribution costs increased by approximately RMB1,472,000 or 8.9% mainly because of the increase in business development expenses during the Year Under Review.

5. Administrative expenses

The administrative expenses increased by approximately RMB1,034,000 or 6.5% from approximately RMB15,853,000 for the year ended 31 December 2016 to approximately RMB16,887,000 for the year ended 31 December 2017. The increase was mainly due to the increase in provision for trade receivables.

6. Research and development expenses

The research and development expenses increased by approximately RMB1,474,000 or 39.4% from approximately RMB3,744,000 for the year ended 31 December 2016 to approximately RMB5,217,000 for the year ended 31 December 2017. The increase was mainly due to the starting of new research and development project for the environmental protection field with Jilin Design and Research Institute for petrochemical engineering.

Management Discussion and Analysis

7. Other gains – net

Other gains for the year ended 31 December 2016 and 2017 amounted to approximately RMB1,129,000 and RMB645,000 respectively. The decrease in other gains was mainly due to the loss on disposal of property, plant and equipment of approximately RMB4,000 for the year ended 31 December 2017 while there was a gain of approximately RMB218,000 for the year ended 31 December 2016.

8. Finance income and expenses

The net finance expenses increased slightly by approximately RMB52,000 or 1.0% from approximately RMB4,999,000 for the year ended 31 December 2016 to approximately RMB5,051,000 for the year ended 31 December 2017. The increase was mainly due to the increase of interest expenses on borrowings as a result of the increase in average bank borrowings. The borrowings were financed for working capital and capital investments in the production facilities.

9. Income tax expense

The income tax expense was a tax credit of RMB933,000 for the year ended 31 December 2017 while the income tax expense was RMB224,000 for the year ended 31 December 2016. The tax credit was a result of the loss before income tax.

The effective tax rates were 10.9% and (12.8)% for the years ended 31 December 2016 and 2017, respectively.

10. (Loss)/profit for the year attributable to the equity holders of the Company

The loss for the year attributable to the equity holders of the Company was approximately RMB6,364,000 for the year ended 31 December 2017 while there was a profit of approximately RMB1,836,000 for the year ended 31 December 2016. The decrease in net profit of the Group was mainly due to the decrease in gross profit and increase in operating expenses during the Year Under Review.

ANALYSIS OF MAJOR BALANCE SHEET ITEMS

1. Inventories

The inventories comprise raw materials, finished goods and low-value consumables. The following table sets out the inventories as at balance sheet dates indicated:

	As at 31 December
	2017	2016
	RMB'000	RMB'000
Raw materials	25,110	19,088
Finished goods	7,654	6,376
Low-value consumables	172	134
Total	32,936	25,598

Management Discussion and Analysis

Raw materials mainly comprised bentonite and CPAM. Finished goods are bentonite fine chemicals mainly applied in the papermaking industries. The Group customizes the formulas for bentonite fine chemicals based on customers' requirements and makes enhancement in response to customers' production conditions.

Provision for impairment of inventories

The Group has established policies to evaluate the amount of provision required for impairment of inventories. The Group inspects and reviews the aging and conditions of inventories on a regular basis. If the Group considers that the inventories have become obsolete or damaged, provision for impairment of inventories will be provided against these inventories to reflect the net realisable value of these inventories.

The amount of the provision for impairment of inventories was approximately RMB627,000 at 31 December 2017 (at 31 December 2016: nil).

Inventory turnover

The following table sets out the average inventory turnover days for the year indicated:

	Year ended 31 December
	2017	2016
Average inventory turnover days (note)	246	260

Note:

Average inventory turnover days are equal to the average inventory divided by cost of sales and multiplied by 365 days. Average inventory equals inventory at the beginning of the financial year plus inventory at the end of the financial year and divided by 2.

The average inventory turnover days decreased from 260 days for the year ended 31 December 2016 to 246 days for the year ended 31 December 2017. The decrease in average inventory turnover days in 2017 was primarily due to the increase in cost of sales.

Management Discussion and Analysis

2. Trade and other receivables

The following table sets out an analysis of the trade and other receivables as at the balance sheet dates indicated:

	As at 31 December 2017 RMB'000	2016 RMB'000

Trade receivables

Trade receivables as at 31 December 2016 and 2017 mainly represented the outstanding amounts of receivable from customers less any provision for impairment of trade receivables. The following table sets out an analysis of the trade receivables as at the balance sheet dates indicated:

	As at 31 December 2017 RMB'000	2016 RMB'000
Trade receivables	47,052	47,218
Less: provision for impairment	(6,260)	(3,887)
Trade receivables – net	40,792	43,331

The customers are normally required to make payment pursuant to the credit terms which is determined by the length of the customers' relationship with the Group and the contract value. The Group generally provides a credit term up to 180 days to its customers.

Management Discussion and Analysis

The table below sets out the aging breakdown of trade receivables as at the balance sheet dates indicated:

	As at 31 December
	2017	2016
	RMB'000	RMB'000
Within 180 days	34,009	30,732
Over 180 days and within 1 year	3,637	4,997
Over 1 year and within 2 years	2,296	4,843
Over 2 years and within 3 years	3,218	6,120
Over 3 years	3,892	526
Total	47,052	47,218

The Group's trade receivables decreased slightly by approximately RMB166,000 or 0.35% from approximately RMB47,218,000 as at 31 December 2016 to approximately RMB47,052,000 as at 31 December 2017. The trade receivables due over 180 days decreased by approximately RMB3,443,000 or 20.9% from approximately RMB16,486,000 as at 31 December 2016 to approximately RMB13,043,000 as at 31 December 2017. The decrease was mainly due to the fact that less customers delayed their settlements during the Year Under Review.

Trade receivable turnover days

The following table sets out the Group's trade receivables turnover days for the year indicated:

	Year ended 31 December
	2017	2016
Trade receivable turnover days (note)	214	232

Note:

The number of trade receivables turnover days is calculated as average trade receivables (trade receivables at the beginning of the year plus trade receivables at the end of the year then divided by 2) divided by total revenue for the year multiplied by 365.

The Group's trade receivables turnover days for the years ended 31 December 2016 and 2017 were approximately 232 days and 214 days respectively. The decrease of turnover days was mainly due to the increase in revenue and decrease in trade receivables.

Provision for impairment of trade receivables

The Group determines the provision for impairment of trade receivables based on credit history of the customers and the current market condition. The Group reassesses the provision at each balance sheet date.

Thus, significant judgment is exercised in assessing the collectability of trade receivables from each customer. In making the judgment, the Group takes into consideration the following factors when assessing the recoverability of the trade receivables from individual customer: (i) indications that the debtor is experiencing significant financial difficulty; (ii) history or indication of default in payment; and (iii) relationship with the debtor and subsequent settlement of receivables. If the financial conditions of the customers of the Group were to deteriorate, which resulted in an impairment of their ability to make payments, additional provision of impairment may be required.

The effect of eliminating the bad and remaining the good began to show; the existing enterprises were forced to transform and upgrade; the adjustment and upgrading of the industrial product structure became faster; and the concentration of the industry improved step by step.

The China fine paper chemical industry will present a favorable development while remain steady. However, due to the remaining stress of steady increase of the macro economic, weak growth from the demand side plus the new round of the investment momentum and capacity release as a result of the expected improvement of the profits, it will take more time to enter the sound development track.

The Group's overall mind set of work: profit-centered, innovation-driven, market-oriented, sales as a leader to improve the market's rapid response capability. To this end, the Group will formulate and implement the following strategies:

(1) The Group's work focuses on promoting organic bentonite products, opening up the market scale for new products and establishing new profit growth points;

(2) The Group further perfects the management of "the Department for Major Clients" and gradually eliminated backward small customers to ensure the safety of funds; and

(3) Promoting the market application of water treatment bentonite products and the development of a series of products to be used in a variety of water treatment areas, such as paint and aquaculture waste water.

The followings are the key risks and uncertainties identified by our Group. There may be other risks and uncertainties in addition to those shown below which are not known to our Group or which may not be material now but could turn out to be material in the future.

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk that deteriorates profitability or affects ability to meet business objectives arising from the movement in market prices. The management of our Group manages and monitors these exposures to ensure appropriate measures are implemented on a timely and effective manner.

Foreign exchange risk

The Group's principal business is located in the PRC and its major transactions are conducted in Renminbi. Most of its assets and liabilities are denominated in Renminbi, except for certain payables to professional parties that are denominated in Hong Kong dollars.

The Renminbi is not freely convertible. There is a risk that the Chinese government may take actions affecting exchange rates which may have a material adverse effect on the Group's net assets, earnings and any dividends it declares if such dividend is to be exchanged or converted into foreign exchange. Report of the Directors

CONTINGENT LIABILITIES, LEGAL AND POTENTIAL PROCEEDINGS

As at 31 December 2017, the Group did not have any material contingent liabilities, legal proceedings or potential proceedings.

GOING CONCERN

The Group incurred a net loss of RMB6,363,974 for the year then ended 31 December 2017 and the Group's current liabilities exceeded its current assets by RMB6,197,308 as at 31 December 2017 which included current bank loans of RMB63,800,000 due for payment within one year. In addition, the Group's cash and cash equivalent decreased significantly from RMB13,193,021 as at 31 December 2016 to RMB1,845,424 as at 31 December 2017. These conditions indicate the existence of a material uncertainties which may cast significant doubt about the Group's ability to continue on a going concern.

In view of such circumstances, the directors have given careful consideration to the future liquidity and performance of the Group and its available sources of financing in assessing whether the Group will have sufficient financial resources to continue as a going concern, and have taken the following measures to mitigate the liquidity pressure and to improve its cash flows:

- As at 31 December 2017, the Group's bank loans amounted to RMB46,000,000 were guaranteed by a third party. On 28 February 2018, the third party confirmed its intention to renew the guarantee for another year from the expiry dates of each of these bank loans;

- Subsequent to 31 December 2017, the Group has been negotiating with various banks for renewal of its existing bank loans that would be due for repayment in 2018 and for granting of new loans. In this connection, the Group was able to secure a new bank loan of RMB5,000,000 in January 2018, and one of its banks has in February 2018 indicated its intention to renew certain existing bank loans of RMB36,000,000 upon their maturity to 31 March 2019. The directors believe that the Group will be able to renew the existing bank loans as well as to secure new bank loans when needed given the Group's good credit history, the intended renewal of the third party guarantee described above, and the availability of the Group's property, plant and equipment as security for these loans;

- The Group has obtained a financial support from Mr. Zhang Youlian, the controlling shareholder of the Company, who pursuant to his letter to the Group dated 24 March 2018 confirmed his intention to provide financial supports to the Group to meet its working capital and other needs for a period from 1 January 2018 to 31 March 2019; and

- The Group expects to generate a stable cash inflow from its operating activities. It also plans to enhance its inventory management by further reducing the inventory level and strengthen its collection of receivables to meet its cash flow demand. In addition, the Group will further control its operating expenses and capital expenditures.

The directors have reviewed the Group's cash flow projections prepared by management, which cover a period of not less than twelve months from 31 December 2017. They are of the opinion that, taking into account the above-mentioned planned measures, the Group will have sufficient working capital to finance its operations and to meet its financial obligations when they fall due within the next twelve months from the end of the reporting period. Accordingly, the directors are satisfied that it is appropriate to prepare the consolidated financial statements on a going concern basis.

Report of the Directors

Notwithstanding the above, material uncertainties exist as to whether the Group can achieve its plans and measures as described above. Whether the Group will be able to continue as a going concern would depend upon whether: (1) the third party will renew the guarantee to the Group upon maturity of the relevant bank loans; (2) the Group will be able to timely renew its existing bank loans and secure new bank loans at terms acceptable to the Group; (3) Mr Zhang Youlian will and has sufficient financial resources to provide financial supports to the Group as and when needed; and (4) the Group will be able to successfully implement its operational plans to generate adequate operating cash inflows and control its costs and expenditures. Should the Group be unable to achieve its plans and measures and operate as a going concern, adjustments would have to be made to reduce the carrying values of the Group's assets to their recoverable amounts, to provide for financial liabilities which might arise and to reclassify non-current assets and non-current liabilities as current assets and current liabilities. The effect of these adjustments has not been reflected in the consolidated financial statements.

Independent Auditor's Report

羅兵咸永道

To The Shareholders Of Zhejiang Chang'an Renheng Technology Co., Ltd.
(incorporated in the People's Republic of China with limited liability)

OPINION

What we have audited

The consolidated financial statements of Zhejiang Chang'an Renheng Technology Co., Ltd. (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (the "Group") set out on pages 46 to 99, which comprise:

- the consolidated balance sheet as at 31 December 2017;
- the consolidated statement of comprehensive income for the year then ended;
- the consolidated statement of changes in equity for the year then ended;
- the consolidated cash flow statement for the year then ended; and
- the notes to the consolidated financial statements, which include a summary of significant accounting policies.

Our opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2017, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing ("ISAs"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Independence

We are independent of the Group in accordance with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants' Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants ("IESBA Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the IESBA Code.

MATERIAL UNCERTAINTY RELATED TO GOING CONCERN

We draw attention to Note 2.1.1 of the consolidated financial statements, which states that the Group incurred a net loss of RMB6,363,974 for the year then 31 December 2017, and as at that date, the Group's current liabilities exceeded its current assets by RMB6,197,308 which included current bank borrowings of RMB63,800,000 due for payment within one year. In addition, the Group's cash and cash equivalent decreased significantly from RMB13,193,021 as at 31 December 2016 to RMB1,845,424 as at 31 December 2017. Such conditions, along with other matters as set forth in Note 2.2.1, indicate the existence of a material uncertainty which may cast significant doubt regarding the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Independent Auditor's Report

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. In addition to the matter described in the Material Uncertainty Related to Going Concern section, we have determined the matter described below to be the key audit matter to be communicated in our report.

A key audit matter of revenue recognition is identified as follows:

Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter
Revenue recognition - sales of goods Refer to Note 2.23 and Note 6 to the Group consolidated financial statements Revenue recognition has significant and wide influence on financial statements. Revenue is recognised when the amounts and the related costs are reliably measured, and the risks and rewards of the underlying products have been transferred to the customers. Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised when the Group has delivered products to the customers and the customers have confirmed the acceptance of the products. We focused on this area due to the fact that the sales of the Group are derived from a large number of customers which locate over the country with relatively small amount transactions. As a result, to obtain sufficient audit evidence, magnitude audit work and resource is required.	We understood, evaluated and validated the key controls related to Group's sales process from end to end, from contracts approval and sign-off, customer order's approval, recording of sales,, all the way through to reconciliations with cash receipts and customers' records. We conducted substantive testing of revenue recorded covering different products, locations and customers, using sampling techniques, by examining the relevant supporting documents including customer orders, goods delivery notes and customs declaration notes. In addition, we confirmed certain customers' receivable balances at the balance sheet date and their transaction amounts during the period, selected on a sample basis by considering the amount, nature and characteristics of those customers. No material issues were found that would impact our audit work. Furthermore, we tested the sales transactions recognized shortly before and after the balance sheet date, including the credit notes issued after that date, to exam whether sales transactions were recorded in the correct reporting periods. No exception were noted. Based on our audit work performed, we found the Group's revenue recognition in relation to sales of goods was supported by the evidence that we gathered.

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all of the information included in the annual report other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Independent Auditor's Report

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND AUDIT COMMITTEE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with IFRSs and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The audit committee is responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Independent Auditor's Report

- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the audit committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the audit committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with the audit committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Mr. Lam Siu Wing, Benny.

2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

2.1 Basis of preparation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with all applicable International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs") and under the historical cost convention.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated financial statements are disclosed in Note 4.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

2.1 Basis of preparation (Continued)

(a) New and amended standards adopted by the Group

The Group has applied the following standards and amendments for the first time for their annual reporting period commencing 1 January 2017:

- Annual improvements to IFRSs 2014 – 2016 cycle, and

- Disclosure initiative – amendments to IAS 7.

The amendments are not material to the Group.

(b) New standards and interpretations not yet adopted

Certain new accounting standards and interpretations have been published that are not mandatory for 31 December 2017 reporting periods and have not been early adopted by the group. The group's assessment of the impact of these new standards and interpretations is set out below.

- IFRS 9, 'Financial instruments'

  Nature of change

  IFRS 9 addresses the classification, measurement and derecognition of financial assets and financial liabilities, introduces new rules for hedge accounting and a new impairment model for financial assets.

  Impact

  The Group has reviewed its financial assets and liabilities and is expecting the following impact from the adoption of the new standard on 1 January 2018:

  Financial assets included cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash and trade and other receivables. There will be no impact on the Group's accounting for these financial assets.

  There will be no impact on the Group's accounting for financial liabilities, as the new requirements only affect the accounting for financial liabilities that are designated at fair value through consolidated statement of comprehensive income and the Group does not have any such liabilities. The derecognition rules have been transferred from IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement and have not been changed.

  The new impairment model requires the recognition of impairment provisions based on expected credit losses (ECL) rather than only incurred credit losses as is the case under IAS 39. It applies to financial assets classified at amortised cost, debt instruments measured at FVOCI, contract assets under IFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers, lease receivables, loan commitments and certain financial guarantee contracts. Based on the assessments undertaken to date, the Group does not expect material change of the loss allowance for the Group's trade debtors.

(b) New standards and interpretations not yet adopted (Continued)

  Impact (Continued)

  The new standard also introduces expanded disclosure requirements and changes in presentation. These are expected to change the nature and extent of the Group's disclosures about its financial instruments particularly in the year of the adoption of the new standard.

  Date of adoption by Group

  Must be applied for financial years commencing on or after 1 January 2018. The Group will apply the new rules retrospectively from 1 January 2018, with the practical expedients permitted under the standard. Comparatives for 2017 will not be restated, except in relation to changes in the fair value of foreign exchange forward contracts attributable to forward points, which will be recognised in the costs of hedging reserve.

- IFRS 15, 'Revenue from contracts with customers'

  Nature of change

  The IASB has issued a new standard for the recognition of revenue. This will replace IAS 18 which covers contracts for goods and services and IAS 11 which covers construction contracts and the related literature. The new standard is based on the principle that revenue is recognised when control of a good or service transfers to a customer. The standard permits either a full retrospective or a modified retrospective approach for the adoption.

  Impact

  IFRS 15 establishes a comprehensive framework for determining when to recognise revenue and how much revenue to recognize through a 5-step approach:

  (1) Identify the contract(s) with customer;

  (2) Identify separate performance obligations in a contract;

  (3) Determine the transaction price;

  (4) Allocate transaction price to performance obligations; and

  (5) Recognise revenue when performance obligation is satisfied.

  The core principle is that the Group should recognise revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to the customer in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. It moves away from a revenue recognition model based on an "earnings process" to an "asset-liability" approach" based on transfer of control.

  Management has assessed the effects of applying the new standard on the Group's financial statements and does not expect a significant impact on the recognition of revenue.

(b) New standards and interpretations not yet adopted (Continued)

  Date of adoption by Group

  The Group intends to adopt this new standard for the financial year commencing on 1 January 2018, using the modified retrospective approach which means that the cumulative impact of the adoption will be recognised in retained earnings as of 1 January 2018 and that comparatives will not be restated.

- IFRS 16, 'Leases'

  Nature of change

  IFRS 16 was issued in January 2016. It will result in almost all leases being recognised on the balance sheet, as the distinction between operating and finance leases is removed. Under the new standard, an asset (the right to use the leased item) and a financial liability to pay rentals are recognised. The only exceptions are short-term and low-value leases. The accounting for lessors will not significantly change.

  Impact

  The standard will affect primarily the accounting for Group's operating leases. As at the reporting date, the Group has no non-cancellable operating lease commitments. There will be no impact on the Group's accounting as lessor.

  The Group has not yet assessed what other adjustments, if any, are necessary for example because of the change in the definition of the lease term and the different treatment of variable lease payments and of extension and termination options. It is therefore not yet possible to estimate the amount of right-of-use assets and lease liabilities that will have to be recognised on adoption of the new standard and how this may affect the Group's profit or loss and classification of cash flows going forward.

  Date of adoption by Group

  The new standard is mandatory for financial years commencing on or after 1 January 2019. At this stage, the Group does not intend to adopt the standard before its effective date. The Group intends to apply the simplified transition approach and will not restate comparative amounts for the year prior to first adoption.

  There are no other standards that are not yet effective and that would be expected to have a material impact on the entity in the current or future reporting periods and on foreseeable future transactions.

2.1 Basis of preparation (Continued)

2.1.1 Going concern

The Group incurred a net loss of RMB6,363,974 for the year then ended 31 December 2017 and the Group's current liabilities exceeded its current assets by RMB6,197,308 as at 31 December 2017 which included current bank loans of RMB63,800,000 due for payment within one year. In addition, the Group's cash and cash equivalent decreased significantly from RMB13,193,021 as at 31 December 2016 to RMB1,845,424 as at 31 December 2017. These conditions indicate the existence of a material uncertainties which may cast significant doubt about the Group's ability to continue on a going concern.

In view of such circumstances, the directors have given careful consideration to the future liquidity and performance of the Group and its available sources of financing in assessing whether the Group will have sufficient financial resources to continue as a going concern, and have taken the following measures to mitigate the liquidity pressure and to improve its cash flows:

- As at 31 December 2017, the Group's bank loans amounted to RMB46,000,000 were guaranteed by a third party. On 28 February 2018, the third party confirmed its intention to renew the guarantee for another year from the expiry dates of each of these bank loans;

- Subsequent to 31 December 2017, the Group has been negotiating with various banks for renewal of its existing bank loans that would be due for repayment in 2018 and for granting of new loans. In this connection, the Group was able to secure a new bank loan of RMB5,000,000 in January 2018, and one of its banks has in February 2018 indicated its intention to renew certain existing bank loans of RMB36,000,000 upon their maturity to 31 March 2019. The directors believe that the Group will be able to renew the existing bank loans as well as to secure new bank loans when needed given the Group's good credit history, the intended renewal of the third party guarantee described above, and the availability of the Group's property, plant and equipment as security for these loans;

- The Group has obtained a financial support from Mr. Zhang Youlian, the controlling shareholder of the Company, who pursuant to his letter to the Group dated 24 March 2018 confirmed his intention to provide financial supports to the Group to meet its working capital and other needs for a period from 1 January 2018 to 31 March 2019; and

- The Group expects to generate a stable cash inflow from its operating activities. It also plans to enhance its inventory management by further reducing the inventory level and strengthen its collection of receivables to meet its cash flow demand. In addition, the Group will further control its operating expenses and capital expenditures.

The directors have reviewed the Group's cash flow projections prepared by management, which cover a period of not less than twelve months from 31 December 2017. They are of the opinion that, taking into account the above-mentioned planned measures, the Group will have sufficient working capital to finance its operations and to meet its financial obligations when they fall due within the next twelve months from the end of the reporting period. Accordingly, the directors are satisfied that it is appropriate to prepare the consolidated financial statements on a going concern basis.

Notwithstanding the above, material uncertainties exist as to whether the Group can achieve its plans and measures as described above. Whether the Group will be able to continue as a going concern would depend upon whether: (1) the third party will renew the guarantee to the Group upon maturity of the relevant bank loans; (2) the Group will be able to timely renew its existing bank loans and secure new bank loans at terms acceptable to the Group; (3) Mr Zhang Youlian will and has sufficient financial resources to provide financial supports to the Group as and when needed; and (4) the Group will be able to successfully implement its operational plans to generate adequate operating cash inflows and control its costs and expenditures. Should the Group be unable to achieve its plans and measures and operate as a going concern, adjustments would have to be made to reduce the carrying values of the Group's assets to their recoverable amounts, to provide for financial liabilities which might arise and to reclassify non-current assets and non-current liabilities as current assets and current liabilities. The effect of these adjustments has not been reflected in the consolidated financial statements.

2.2 Principles of consolidation

Subsidiaries are all entities (including structured entities) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power to direct the activities of the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for business combinations by the Group (refer to Note 2.3).

Intercompany transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between Group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

Non-controlling interests in the results and equity of subsidiaries are shown separately in the consolidated statement of profit or loss, statement of comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and balance sheet respectively.

2.3 Business combinations

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for all business combinations, regardless of whether equity instruments or other assets are acquired. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary comprises the:

- fair values of the assets transferred
- liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquired business
- equity interests issued by the group
- fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement, and
- fair value of any pre-existing equity interest in the subsidiary.

Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are, with limited exceptions, measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. The group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquired entity's net identifiable assets.

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

The excess of the

- consideration transferred,
- amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity, and
- acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquired entity over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If those amounts are less than the fair value of the net identifiable assets of the business acquired, the difference is recognised directly in profit or loss as a bargain purchase.

Contingent consideration is classified either as equity or a financial liability. Amounts classified as a financial liability are subsequently remeasured to fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the acquisition date carrying value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is remeasured to fair value at the acquisition date. Any gains or losses arising from such remeasurement are recognised in profit or loss.

2.4 Separate financial statements

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost includes direct attributable costs of investment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividend received and receivable.

Impairment testing of the investments in subsidiaries is required upon receiving a dividend from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary in the period the dividend is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount in the consolidated financial statements of the investee's net assets including goodwill.

2.5 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision-maker. The chief operating decision-maker, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments, has been identified as the executive director of the Company that makes strategic decisions.

2.6 Foreign currency translation

(a) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates ('the functional currency'). The consolidated financial statements are presented in Renminbi ("RMB"), which is the Company and it subsidiaries' functional and presentation currency.

(b) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions or valuation where items are re-measured. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at year-end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in the income statement, except when deferred in other comprehensive income as qualifying cash flow hedges and qualifying net investment hedges.

Foreign exchange gains and losses that relate to borrowings and cash and cash equivalents are presented in the income statement within 'finance income or expenses'. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the income statement within 'other gains – net'.

2.7 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment, other than construction in progress, are stated at historical cost less depreciation. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognized as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognized. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the consolidated statement of comprehensive income during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost to their residual values over their estimated useful lives, as follows:

	Estimated useful lives	Estimated residual values
Buildings, fixtures and facilities	5 to 30 years	5%
Machinery and equipment	4 to 10 years	5%
Vehicles	4 to 10 years	5%
Electronic and office equipment	3 to 5 years	5%

Construction in progress represents buildings, plant and equipment under construction or pending installation and is stated at cost less provision for impairment loss, if any. Cost includes the costs of construction and acquisition. When the assets concerned are available for use, the costs are transferred to property, plant and equipment and depreciated in accordance with the policy as stated above.

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount (Note 2.9).

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing the proceeds with the carrying amount and are recognised within "other gains – net" in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

2.8 Prepaid leasing expenses

Prepaid leasing expenses (land use rights) are stated at cost and amortized over the remaining period of the leases on a straight-line basis, net of any impairment losses, if any (Note 2.9).

2.9 Mining rights

Mining rights are stated at cost and amortized over the remaining period of the license periods on a straight-line basis, net of any impairment losses, if any (Note 2.9).

2.10 Leasehold improvements

Leasehold improvements are stated at cost and amortized over the lower of expected beneficial periods or lease periods on a straight-line basis, net of any impairment losses, if any (Note 2.9).

2.11 Impairment of non-financial assets

Assets that are subject to amortisation are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at each reporting date.

2.12 Financial assets

2.12.1 Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets in the following categories:

- at fair value through profit or loss,
- loans and receivables,
- available for sale.

The classification depends on the purpose for which the financial assets were acquired. Management determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition. The Group only has financial assets classified as "loans and receivables" during the years ended 31 December 2017 and 2016.

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. They are included in current assets, except for maturities greater than 12 months after the end of the reporting period. These are classified as non-current assets. The Group's loans and receivables comprise "trade and other receivables", "restricted cash" and "cash and cash equivalents", in the consolidated balance sheets (Notes 17 and 19).

2.12.2 Recognition and derecognition

Regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on trade-date, the date on which the group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial assets have expired or have been transferred and the group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership.

When securities classified as available-for-sale are sold, the accumulated fair value adjustments recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss as gains and losses from investment securities.

2.12.3 Measurement

At initial recognition, the Group measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed in profit or loss.

Loans and receivables and held-to-maturity investments are subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.13 Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or group of financial assets is impaired. A financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired and impairment losses are incurred only if there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the asset (a "loss event") and that loss event (or events) has an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset or group of financial assets that can be reliably estimated.

Evidence of impairment may include indications that the debtors or a group of debtors is experiencing significant financial difficulty, default or delinquency in interest or principal payments, the probability that they will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation, and where observable data indicate that there is a measurable decrease in the estimated future cash flows, such as changes in arrears or economic conditions that correlate with defaults.

For loans and receivables category, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows (excluding future credit losses that have not been incurred) discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate. The carrying amount of the asset is reduced and the amount of the loss is recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income. If a loan has a variable interest rate, the discount rate for measuring any impairment loss is the current effective interest rate determined under the contract. As a practical expedient, the Group may measure impairment on the basis of an instrument's fair value using an observable market price.

If, in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognised (such as an improvement in the debtor's credit rating), the reversal of the previously recognised impairment loss is recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

2.14 Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined using the weighted average method. The cost of finished goods comprises design costs, raw materials, direct labour, other direct costs and related production overheads (based on normal operating capacity). It excludes borrowing costs. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less applicable variable selling expenses.

2.15 Trade and other receivables

Trade receivables are amounts due from customers for goods sold in the ordinary course of business. If collection of trade and other receivables is expected in one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer), they are classified as current assets. If not, they are presented as non-current assets.

Trade and other receivables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment.

2.16 Cash and cash equivalents

In the consolidated cash flow statement, cash and cash equivalents includes cash in hand, deposits held at call with banks, other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less. Restricted cash is excluded from cash and cash equivalent.

2.17 Restricted cash

Restricted cash represents guaranteed deposits held in a separate reserve account to be pledged to the bank for issuance of trade facilities such as time deposits as security deposits for borrowing agreement, guaranteed deposits for issuance of bills payable and guaranteed deposits for purchase of equipment. Such restricted cash will be released when the Group repays the related trade facilities or bank loans.

2.18 Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

2.19 Trade and other payables

Trade payables are obligations to pay for goods, construction or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of business from suppliers. Trade payables and other payables are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer). If not, they are presented as non-current liabilities.

Trade payables and other payables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.20 Borrowings

Borrowings are recognised initially at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently carried at amortised cost; any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption value is recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

Fees paid on the establishment of loan facilities are recognised as transaction costs of the loan to the extent that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down. In this case, the fee is deferred until the draw-down occurs. To the extent there is no evidence that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down, the fee is capitalised as a pre-payment for liquidity services and amortised over the period of the facility to which it relates.

Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the end of the reporting period.

2.21 Borrowing costs

General and specific borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

2.22 Current and deferred income tax

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

(a) Current income tax

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date in the countries where the Company's subsidiaries operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

(b) Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred income tax is also not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognised only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are not recognised for temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in foreign operations where the company is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

2.23 Employee benefits

(a) Pension obligations

The full-time employees of the Group in the PRC are covered by various government-sponsored defined contribution pension plans under which the employees are entitled to a monthly pension based on certain formulas. The relevant government agencies are responsible for the pension liability to these retired employees. The Group contributes on a monthly basis to these pension plans. Under these plans, the Group has no obligation for post-retirement benefits beyond the contributions made. Contributions to these plans are expenses as incurred and contributions paid to the defined-contribution pension plans for a staff are not available to reduce the Group's future obligations to such defined-contribution pension plans even if the staff leave the Group.

(b) Housing benefits

The Group contributes to the state-prescribed housing fund. Such costs are charged to the consolidated statement of comprehensive income as incurred. Apart from those described above, the Group does not have other legal or constructive obligations over such benefits.

(c) Bonus entitlements

The expected cost of bonus payments is recognised as a liability when the Group has a present contractual or constructive obligation as a result of services rendered by employees and a reliable estimate of the obligation can be made.

2.24 Provisions

Provisions for environmental rehabilitation are recognised when: the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events; it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; and the amount has been reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of the expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation using a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the obligation. The increase in the provision due to passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

2.25 Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, and represents amounts receivable for goods supplied, stated net of discounts returns and value-added tax. The Group recognises revenue when the amount of revenue can be reliably measured, it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the entity and when specific criteria have been met for each of the Group's activities as described below.

(a) Sales of goods

Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised when the Group has delivered products to the customers and the customers have confirmed the acceptance of the products, which means the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods are transferred to the buyer, the Group retains neither continuing managerial involvement to the degree usually associated with ownership nor effective control over the goods sold, and it is probable that the economic benefit associated with the transaction will flow to the Group and the relevant revenue and costs can be measured reliably.

(b) Interest income

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method. When a loan and receivable is impaired, the Group reduces the carrying amount to its recoverable amount, being the estimated future cash flow discounted at the original effective interest rate of the instrument, and continues unwinding the discount as interest income.

2.26 Government grants

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all the attached conditions.

Government grants relating to costs are deferred and recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate.

Government grants relating to assets are deferred and credited to the consolidated statement of comprehensive income on a straight-line basis over the expected useful lives of the related asset.

2.27 Research and development

Research expenditure is recognised as an expense as incurred. Costs incurred on development projects relating to design and testing of new or improved products are recognised as intangible assets when it is probable that the project will be a success, considering its commercial and technological feasibility, and costs can be measured reliably. Other development expenditures are recognised as an expense as incurred. Development costs previously recognised as an expense are not recognised as an asset in a subsequent period.

2.28 Operating leases

Leases in which a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases (net of any incentives received from the lessor) are charged to the consolidated statement of comprehensive income on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

2.29 Dividend distribution

Dividend distribution to the Company's shareholders is recognised as a liability in the Group and the Company's financial statements in the period in which the dividends are approved by the Company's shareholders.

2.30 Safety fund

According to CaiQi [2012] No 16 "Measures for the accruals and utilization of safety fund for enterprises", issued by the Ministry of Finance ("MOF") and Safety Production General Bureau, the Group is required to accrue a "safety fund" to improve the production safety. Accruals to the safety fund are treated as an appropriation to reserves, which will be reversed to retained earnings upon utilization and charged to cost of sales.

3 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

3.1 Financial risk factors

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (including foreign exchange risk, cash flow and fair value interest rate risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's overall risk management policy focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance. The Group currently does not use any derivative financial instruments to hedge certain risk exposures.

(a) Market risk

(i) Foreign exchange risk

The Group's major operational activities are carried out in mainland China and a majority of the transactions are denominated in RMB. The Group is exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from the recognised assets and liabilities, and future transactions denominated in foreign currencies, primarily with respect to HK dollars ("HKD"). The Group's finance department at its headquarters is responsible for monitoring the amount of assets and liabilities, and transactions denominated in foreign currencies to minimise the foreign exchange risk. Therefore, the Group may consider entering into forward exchange contracts or currency swap contracts to mitigate the foreign exchange risk. During the years ended 31 December 2017 and 2016, the Group did not enter into any forward exchange contracts or currency swap contracts.

As at 31 December 2017, if the RMB had strengthened/weakened by 5% against the HKD while all other variables had been held constant, the Group's net profit for the year would have been approximately RMB32 (2016: RMB52,000) higher/lower respectively for various financial assets and liabilities denominated in HKD.

(ii) Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk

The Group's interest rate risks arise from borrowings. Borrowings obtained at variable rates expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk which is partially offset by cash held at variable rates. Borrowings obtained at fixed rates expose the Group to fair value interest rate risk. As at 31 December 2017, the Group's borrowings of RMB29,000,000 (2016: RMB36,000,000) were charged at variable rates while the Group's borrowings of RMB36,050,000 (2016: RMB38,611,393) were charged at fixed rates, respectively.

The Group has not hedged its respective cash flow and fair value interest rate risks. The interest rates, terms of repayments and fair value of borrowings are disclosed in Note 26.

As at 31 December 2017, if the interest rates on the Group's borrowing charged at variable rates had been 50 basis points higher/lower, the net profit for the years would have been approximately RMB123,000 (2016: RMB160,000) lower/higher, respectively.

(b) Credit risk

The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash and trade and other receivables included in the consolidated balance sheets and the balance sheets represent the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in relation to its financial assets.

The Group expects that there is no significant credit risk associated with cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash since they are substantially deposited at state-owned banks and other large or medium size listed banks. Management does not expect that there will be any significant losses from non–performance by these counterparties.

In addition, the Group has policies to limit the credit exposure on trade and other receivables. The Group assesses the credit quality of and sets credit limits on their customers by taking into account their financial position, their credit history and other factors such as current market conditions. The credit history of the customers is regularly monitored by the Group. In respect of customers with a poor credit history, the Group will use written payment reminders, or shorten or cancel credit periods, to ensure the overall credit risk of the Group is limited to a controllable extent. See Note 17 for further disclosure on credit risk.

(c) Liquidity risk

The Group's objective is to maintain sufficient cash and sources of funding through committed credit facility and maintain flexibility in funding by maintaining committed credit lines. To manage the liquidity risk, management monitors rolling forecasts of the Group's liquidity reserve (comprising undrawn banking facilities) and cash and cash equivalents on the basis of expected cash flow. The Group expects to fund the future cash flow needs through internally generated cash flows from operations and borrowings from financial institutions.

The table below analyses the Group and the Company's financial liabilities into relevant maturity Groupings based on the remaining period at the balance sheet date to the contractual maturity date. The amounts disclosed in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows.

3.2 Capital management

The Group's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders, return capital to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt.

Consistent with others in the industry, the Group monitors capital on basis of the gearing ratio. This ratio is calculated as net debts divided by total capital. Net debts are calculated as total borrowings less cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash. Total capital is calculated as "equity" as shown in the consolidated financial statements plus net debts.

The gearing ratios as at 31 December 2017 and 2016, respectively, are as follows:

	As at 31 December
	2017	2016
	RMB	RMB
Total borrowings (Note 26)	65,050,000	74,611,393
Less: Cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash (Note 19)	(1,845,424)	(16,693,021)
Net debt	63,204,576	57,918,372
Total equity	88,880,133	94,751,372
Total capital	152,084,709	152,669,744
Gearing ratio	42%	38%

The increase in the gearing ratio was resulted primarily from the increase in borrowings during this year.

3.3 Fair value estimation

Financial assets and liabilities not measured at fair value

Financial assets not measured at fair value included cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash and trade and other receivables (except for prepayments) and financial liabilities included borrowings and trade and other payables (except for advance from customers, staff salaries and welfare payables and accrued taxes other than income tax). The carrying amount of these financial assets and liabilities not measured at fair value is a reasonable approximation of their fair value.

4 CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

Estimates are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

The Group makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the related actual results. The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are addressed below.

(a) Impairment of receivables

Management determines the provision of impairment of trade and other receivables, based on the credit history of its customers and the current market condition. Management reassesses the provision at each balance sheet date.

Significant judgment is exercised on the assessment of the collectability of trade receivables from customers. In making the judgment, management considers a wide range of factors such as results of follow-up procedures performed by sales personnel, customer payment trends including subsequent payments and customers' financial performance. If the financial conditions of the customers of the Group were to deteriorate, which resulted in an impairment of their ability to make payments, additional provision of impairment may be required.

(b) Environment rehabilitation obligations

Environment rehabilitation obligations are inherently imprecise and represent only the approximate amounts because of the subjective judgments involved in the estimation of the costs. Environment rehabilitation obligations are subject to a considerable amount of uncertainties which affects the Group's ability to estimate the ultimate cost of remediation efforts. These uncertainties include: (i) the exact nature and extent of the contamination at various sites including, but not limited to, mines and land development areas, whether operating, closed or sold, (ii) the extent of required clean up efforts, (iii) varying cost of alternative remediation strategies, (iv) changes in environmental remediation requirements, and (v) the identification of new remediation sites. In addition, as prices and cost levels change from year to year, the estimate of environment liabilities also changes. Despite the inherent imprecision in these estimates, these estimates are used in assessing the provision for rehabilitation.

(c) Income taxes

The Group is subject to income taxes in a few jurisdictions. There are many transactions and events for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. Significant estimate is required from the Group in determining the provision for income taxes in each of these jurisdictions. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the income tax and deferred tax provisions in the period in which such determination is made.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

5 SEGMENT INFORMATION

The chief operating decision-maker of the Group assesses the performance and allocates the resources of the Group as a whole, as all of the Group's activities are considered to be primarily dependent on the performance of production and sales of bentonite clay products, and all of the Group's operations are carried out in China. Therefore, management considers there is only one operating segment, under the requirements of IFRS 8, Operating Segments. In this regard, no segment information is presented.
