MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

BUSINESS REVIEW AND PROSPECTS

Overview

Being a game developer focusing on the development of browser and mobile games, we achieved substantial growth in our results for the year 2017. This was mainly attributable to the game development ideas which we adhered to as well as the refinement and cultivation of game products. During the year, the Group emphasised on increasing inputs for mobile games, developed and commercially launched numerous mobile game series, which better captured the development opportunity from the constantly fast-growing mobile game industry and attained satisfying results.

Revenue of mobile games amounted to 83.4% of our total revenue. Profit increased by 97.3% from approximately RMB22.0 million for 2016 to approximately RMB43.4 million for 2017.

In 2017, affected by the downslope trend in the browser games industry, the revenue of our browser games amounted to approximately RMB13.3 million, represented a drastic drop compared to the same period in 2016 yet it managed to account for 16.6% of the Group's total revenue. This was attributable to our analysis on game players' demand and the continuous optimisation on the games' core mode of play so as to constantly enhance the attractiveness of our games to the players.

In 2017, although the global game industry was highly competitive, the entire industry still achieved significant growth compared to the same period last year with the exceptionally outstanding performance of the PRC market. According to the "2017 Report on the Game Industry of China" (《二零一七年中國遊戲產業報告》) jointly published by the Game Publishers Association Publications Committee (GPC) of The China Audio-video and Digital Publishing Association (中國音數協遊戲工委), Gamma Data (伽馬數據) and International Data Corporation (國際數據公司), the total revenue for the game industry in China amounted to approximately RMB 203.61 billion in 2017, represented an increase of 23.0% over the corresponding period last year. During the year, the Group adopted the development strategies of reducing the amount of and improving the quality of browser games, while investing substantial resources in the research and development of mobile games, which achieved a breakthrough amid the keen competition of the mobile game market.

Revenue

We are engaged in the development of browser and mobile games, including game design, programming and graphics, and licensing of our self-developed browser and mobile games to licensed operators around the world.

During the year ended 31 December 2017, our revenue was originated from our licensed operators and derived from the following revenue types: (i) license fees in accordance with the contractual terms agreed with our licensed operators for granting the exclusive operating right for specific games within an agreed period and designated territories; and (ii) royalties which were calculated based on a pre-determined percentage sharing of the net sales of credits of our licensed operators which have been exchanged into our in-game tokens purchased through platforms designated by our licensed operators in accordance with the terms of the licensing agreements.

Our revenue increased by approximately 78.4% from approximately RMB45.0 million for the year ended 31 December 2016 to approximately RMB80.3 million for the year ended 31 December 2017. The increase in revenue was mainly due to the increase in revenue brought by the commercial launch of eight mobile game series in 2017, including Number Drop game series, G-game game series, Sweeties Fighting (零食大亂鬥) game series, War of the Sulfulons (薩弗隆戰記) game series, Super Tycoon (超級大亨) game series, Forest Gala (森林大聯歡) game series, Fish Catching Contest (捕魚大亂鬥) game series and Super Cute Monster (超級逗萌獸) game series.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Direct costs

Our direct costs for the year ended 31 December 2017 amounted to approximately RMB11.5 million, representing an increase of approximately 55.4% as compared to approximately RMB7.4 million for the year ended 31 December 2016. The increase in our direct costs was mainly because we commercially launched eight new mobile games during the year, being the Number Drop series, the G-game series, the Sweeties Fighting (零食大亂鬥) series, the War of the Sulfulons (薩弗隆戰記) series, the Super Tycoon (超級大亨) series, the Forest Gala (森林大聯歡) series, Fish Catching Contest (捕魚大亂鬥) and Super Cute Monster (超級逗萌獸) which resulted in the increase in amortisation of our intangible assets, the increase in salaries and welfare expenses and the increase in other tax and surcharges resulted from the significant increase in revenue.

Gross profit and gross profit margin

Our gross profit for the year ended 31 December 2017 amounted to approximately RMB68.8 million, representing an increase of approximately RMB31.2 million as compared to approximately RMB37.6 million for the year ended 31 December 2016. Our gross profit margin for the year ended 31 December 2017 amounted to approximately 85.7% and approximately 83.6% for the year ended 31 December 2016. The increase in our gross profit and gross profit margin was mainly due to the increase in revenue generated from the newly commercialised games during the year.

Other Income

Our other income mainly consisted of interest income on short-term bank deposits and government grants. For the year ended 31 December 2017, our other income was approximately RMB3.3 million, compared with approximately RMB2.6 million in 2016. Such increase was mainly attributable to the increase of government grants of a PRC subsidiary of the Group received from the local government from approximately RMB1.4 million in 2016 to approximately RMB2.2 million during the year.

Game Research Costs

Our game research costs for the year ended 31 December 2017 amounted to approximately RMB0.2 million, representing a decrease of approximately RMB0.4 million as compared to approximately RMB0.6 million for year ended 31 December 2016. The significant decrease in our game research costs as compared with last year was due to the fact that we have invested less manpower and resources to the mobile games which entered into the game inception and evaluation stage for the year ended 31 December 2017 as most of the games were small-scale productions, thus lowering our game research costs.

Distribution Costs

Our distribution costs for the year ended 31 December 2017 amounted to approximately RMB0.6 million, representing a decrease as compared to approximately RMB0.8 million in 2016. The decrease was mainly due to the decrease in the number of promotional personnel.

Administrative Expenses

Our administrative expenses for the year ended 31 December 2017 amounted to approximately RMB11.7 million, representing a decrease of 8.6% as compared to approximately RMB12.8 million for the year ended 31 December 2016. Without taken into account the listing related expenses incurred in 2016, our administrative expenses for the year ended 31 December 2017 amounted to approximately RMB11.7 million, representing an increase of approximately 30.0% as compared to approximately RMB9.0 million for the year ended 31 December 2016. The increase in administrative expenses was mainly due to the increase in salaries of our personnel as well as the increase in rentals for our operating premises.

Income Tax Expense

Our income tax expense for the year ended 31 December 2017 amounted to approximately RMB16.2 million while we recorded approximately RMB3.9 million for the year ended 31 December 2016. The increase in our income tax expense was mainly because the profits of the PRC subsidiary of the Group increased significantly during the year as compared to 2016 as well as the increase in income tax expense withheld under the provisions of the PRC tax law with respect to the distribution of dividends to foreign investors by the PRC subsidiary of the Group.

Profit for the Year

RISK FACTORS FACED BY THE COMPANY AND RISK MITIGATION MEASURES

The Group principally engaged in the developing of our games in different language versions and licensing our games to different licensed operators for operation internationally. The major risks involved in our business include credit risks, interest risks, liquidity risks, currency risks and business risks. Details of the above mentioned major risks and risk mitigation measures are set forth in Note 29 "Financial risk management" to the consolidated financial statements in this annual report.

We believe that there are certain risks involved in our operations, mainly include (i) risks relating to our business; and (ii) risks relating to our industry.

(i) Risks relating to our business

Although the revenue contribution by two of our games series, Kings & Legends (王者召喚) series and Hero's Crown (英雄皇冠) series decreased from 77.2% in 2016 to 29.7% in 2017, in case of any unfavourable developments in relation to our existing self-developed games may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. In response, we expanded our game portfolio during the year. In 2017, the mobile version of eight games series, namely the Number Drop series, the G-game series, the Sweeties Fighting (零食大亂鬥) series, the War of the Sulfurons (薩弗隆戰記) series, the Super Tycoon (超級大亨) series, the Forest Gala (森林大聯歡) series, Fish Catching Contest (捕魚大亂鬥) and Super Cute Monster (超級逗萌獸) were launched, and Super Rich (超級大富翁) series will be launched soon, to further expand and enrich our game portfolio.

We rely heavily on our licensed operators from which our revenue is sourced, and any deterioration or interruption of our business relationships with our licensed operators may have a material and adverse impact on our business, results of operations and financial position. In response, we adopted the following measures in 2017 to manage those risks: we actively looked for new competent licensed operators and licensed the game products to various new licensed operators for operation so we could minimise our reliance on major licensed operators; we continued to provide new premium licensed game products for licensed operators and upgraded our existing game products to attract and retain our players and enhance the players' gaming experience and consumption power; we consolidated our relationship with business partners to attain a win-win cooperation.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

(ii) Risks relating to our industry

As a game developer, we expect to face intense competition from many counterparts domestically and internationally. We also face stiff competition from other forms of entertainment generally available to the public such as console gaming, offline games, cinema, television, sports and music. In response, we continue to regularly upgrade and modify existing games to keep players interested and maintain their experience in our game portfolio, and incentivise game players to increase their spending on our games. Furthermore, we also continue to focus on research and development for new games and explore new markets to maintain our competitiveness.

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF FIRE ROCK HOLDINGS LIMITED

火岩控股有限公司

(incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Fire Rock Holdings Limited (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (together the “Group”) set out on pages 75 to 116, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2017, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2017 and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”) and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing (“HKSA”) issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the “Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements” section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA’s “Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants” (the “Code”), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Impairment assessment of intangible assets

(Refer to note 15 to the consolidated financial statements and the Group's critical accounting judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty in relation to impairment of intangible assets set out in note 5(ii))

The carrying values of the Group's development costs recognised as intangible assets as at 31 December 2017 were RMB1,248,425. Management has performed an impairment review in accordance with Hong Kong Accounting Standard 36 "Impairment of Assets". The recoverable amounts are determined based on value in use calculations, which included significant assumptions and judgements made by management concerning the estimated future cash flows.

Our response:

Our procedures in relation to management's impairment assessment of development costs included:

- Checking the mathematical accuracy of the value in use calculations;
- Discussing with senior management to understand the cash flow projection and key assumptions;
- Assessing the reasonableness of key assumptions for:
 - growth rate based on our knowledge of the business and industry and by considering the historical performance achieved;
 - discount rate used in the calculation based on the market data and research; and
- Performing sensitivity analysis including assessing the effect of a reasonably possible change in discount rate.

OTHER INFORMATION IN THE ANNUAL REPORT

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Company's annual report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors are also responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process. The Audit Committee assists the directors in discharging their responsibility in this regard.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. This report is made solely to you, as a body, in accordance with the terms of our engagement, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

- obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with the directors, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. ADOPTION OF HONG KONG FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS (“HKFRSs”) (Continued)

(b) New or revised HKFRSs that have been issued but are not yet effective

The following new or revised HKFRSs, potentially relevant to the Group’s consolidated financial statements, have been issued, but are not yet effective and have not been early adopted by the Group. The Group’s current intention is to apply these changes on the date they become effective.

Annual Improvements to HKFRSs 2014-2016 Cycle	Amendments to HKFRS1, First-time adoption of Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ¹
Annual Improvements to HKFRSs 2015-2017 Cycle	Amendments to HKAS 12, Income Tax; HKAS 23, Borrowing costs; HKFRS 3, Business Combinations; HKFRS 11, Joint Arrangements ²
HKFRS 9	Financial Instruments ¹

HKFRS 16	Leases ²
Amendments to HKFRS 9	Prepayment Features with Negative Compensation ²
Amendments to HKFRS 15	Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Clarifications to HKFRS 15) ¹
HK(IFRIC)—Int 22	Foreign Currency Transactions and Advance Consideration ¹
HK(IFRIC)—Int 23	Uncertainty over Income Tax Treatments ²

¹ Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2018

² Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2019

HKFRS 9, Financial Instruments

HKFRS 9 introduces new requirements for the classification and measurement of financial assets. Debt instruments that are held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets in order to collect contractual cash flows (the business model test) and that have contractual terms that give rise to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding (the contractual cash flow characteristics test) are generally measured at amortised cost. Debt instruments that meet the contractual cash flow characteristics test are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (“FVTOCI”) if the objective of the entity’s business model is both to hold and collect the contractual cash flows and to sell the financial assets. Entities may make an irrevocable election at initial recognition to measure equity instruments that are not held for trading at FVTOCI. All other debt and equity instruments are measured at fair value through profit or loss (“FVTPL”). The Group has assessed that its financial assets currently measured at amortised cost will continue with their respective classification and measurements upon the adoption of HKFRS 9.

The new impairment model in HKFRS 9 replaces the “incurred loss” model in HKAS 39 with an “expected credit loss” model. Under the expected credit loss model, it will no longer be necessary for a loss event to occur before an impairment loss is recognised. Instead, an entity is required to recognise and measure either a 12-month expected credit loss or a lifetime expected credit loss, depending on the asset and the facts and circumstances. This new impairment model may result in an earlier recognition of credit losses on the Group’s trade receivables and other financial assets. However, a more detailed analysis is required to determine the extent of the impact.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 December 2017

2. ADOPTION OF HONG KONG FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS (“HKFRSs”) (Continued)

(b) New or revised HKFRSs that have been issued but are not yet effective (Continued)

In addition, HKFRS 9 introduces new general hedge accounting requirements to allow entities to better reflect their risk management activities in financial statements. However, the Group currently does not have any hedge relationship and therefore it will not have any impact on the Group’s consolidated financial statements.

HKFRS 9 carries forward the recognition, classification and measurement requirements for financial liabilities from HKAS 39, except for financial liabilities designated at FVTPL, where the amount of change in fair value attributable to change in credit risk of the liability is recognised in other comprehensive income unless that would create or enlarge an accounting mismatch. In addition, HKFRS 9 retains the requirements in HKAS 39 for derecognition of financial assets and financial liabilities. The Group currently does not have any financial liabilities designated at FVTPL and therefore this new requirement will not have any impact on the Group on adoption of HKFRS 9.

HKFRS 15, Revenue from Contracts with customers

The new standard establishes a single revenue recognition framework. The core principle of the framework is that an entity should recognise revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods and services. HKFRS 15 supersedes existing revenue recognition guidance including HKAS 18 Revenue, HKAS 11 Construction Contracts and related interpretations.

HKFRS 15 requires the application of a 5 steps approach to revenue recognition:

- Step 1: Identify the contract(s) with a customer
- Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 3: Determine the transaction price
- Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to each performance obligation
- Step 5: Recognise revenue when each performance obligation is satisfied

HKFRS 15 includes specific guidance on particular revenue related topics that may change the current approach taken under HKFRS. The standard also significantly enhances the qualitative and quantitative disclosures related to revenue.

The Group is currently assessing the impact of this standard and expects that the standard will not have significant impact, when applied, on the consolidated financial statements of the Group.

2. ADOPTION OF HONG KONG FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS (“HKFRSs”) (Continued)

(b) New or revised HKFRSs that have been issued but are not yet effective (Continued)

HKFRS 16, Leases

HKFRS 16, which upon the effective date will supersede HKAS 17 “Leases” and related interpretations, introduces a single lessee accounting model and requires a lessee to recognise assets and liabilities for all leases with a term of more than 12 months, unless the underlying asset is of low value. Specifically, under HKFRS 16, a lessee is required to recognise a right-of-use asset representing its right to use the underlying leased asset and a lease liability representing its obligation to make lease payments. Accordingly, a lessee should recognise depreciation of the right-of-use asset and interest on the lease liability, and also classifies cash repayments of the lease liability into a principal portion and an interest portion and presents them in the statement of cash flows. Also, the right-of-use asset and the lease liability are initially measured on a present value basis. The measurement includes non-cancellable lease payments and also includes payments to be made in optional periods if the lessee is reasonably certain to exercise an option to extend the lease, or to exercise an option to terminate the lease. This accounting treatment is significantly different from the lessee accounting for leases that are classified as operating leases under the predecessor standard, HKAS 17.

In respect of the lessor accounting, HKFRS 16 substantially carries forward the lessor accounting requirements in HKAS 17. Accordingly, a lessor continues to classify its leases as operating leases or finance leases, and to account for those two types of leases differently.

HKFRS 16 will primarily affect the Group’s accounting as a lessee of leases for offices which are currently classified as operating leases. The application of the new accounting model is expected to lead an increase in both assets and liabilities and to impact on the timing of the expense recognition in the statement of profit or loss over the period of the lease. As at 31 December 2017, the Group had non-cancellable operating lease commitments of RMB1,071,072 as set out in note 24. The interest expense on the lease liability and the depreciation expense on the right-of-use asset under HKFRS 16 will replace the rental charge under HKAS 17. A preliminary assessment indicates that these arrangements will meet the definition of a lease under HKFRS 16, and hence the Group will recognise a right-of-use asset and a corresponding lease liability in respect of all the leases unless they qualify for low value or short-term leases upon the application of HKFRS 16. In addition, the application of new requirement may result changes in measurement, presentation and disclosure as indicated above.

Amendments to HKFRS 9, Prepayment Features with Negative Compensation

The amendments clarify that prepayable financial assets with negative compensation can be measured at amortised cost or at fair value through other comprehensive income if specified conditions are met – instead of at fair value through profit or loss.

Amendments HKFRS 15, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Clarifications to HKFRS 15)

The amendments to HKFRS 15 included clarifications on identification of performance obligations; application of principal versus agent; licenses of intellectual property; and transition requirements.

3. BASIS OF PREPARATION

(a) Statement of compliance

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with all applicable HKFRSs, HKASs and Interpretations (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “HKFRSs”) and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. In addition, the consolidated financial statements include applicable disclosures required by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on GEM of the Stock Exchange.

(b) Basis of measurement

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared under historical costs basis. The measurement bases are fully described in the accounting policies in note 4.

(c) Functional and presentation currency

The functional currency of the Company is Hong Kong dollars (“HK$”). However, the consolidated financial statements are presented in Renminbi (“RMB”) instead of its functional currency as RMB is the principal currency of the economic environment on which the Group operates.

4. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries. Inter-company transactions and balances between group companies together with unrealised profits are eliminated in full in preparing the consolidated financial statements. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of impairment on the asset transferred, in which case the loss is recognised in profit or loss.

(b) Subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an investee over which the Company is able to exercise control. The Company controls an investee if all three of the following elements are present: power over the investee, exposure, or rights, to variable returns from the investee, and the ability to use its power to affect those variable returns. Control is reassessed whenever facts and circumstances indicate that there may be a change in any of these elements of control.

In the Company’s statement of financial position, interests in subsidiaries are stated at cost less impairment loss, if any. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividend received and receivable.

(c) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

The cost of property, plant and equipment includes its purchase price and the costs directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other repairs and maintenance are recognised as an expense in profit or loss during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Property, plant and equipment are depreciated so as to write off their cost net of expected residual value over their estimated useful lives on a straight-line basis. The useful lives, residual value and depreciation method are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period. The useful lives are as follows:

Office equipment	3 years
Furniture and fixtures	5 years
Leasehold improvement	Over the lease term

An asset is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if its carrying amount is higher than the asset's estimated recoverable amount (note 4(l)).

The gain or loss on disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is the difference between the net sale proceeds and its carrying amount, and is recognised in profit or loss on disposal.

(d) Intangible assets

(i) Game intellectual properties

Game intellectual properties are initially recorded at cost and included internally generated intangible assets (i.e. capitalised development costs as detailed in note 4(d)(ii) below) that are available for use. These intangible assets are amortised on a straight-line basis over their license periods or estimated useful lives of respective game intellectual properties.

(ii) Research and development costs

Costs associated with research activities are expensed in profit or loss as incurred. Costs that are directly attributable to development activities (relating to the design and testing of new or improved products controlled by the Group) are recognised as intangible assets provided that they meet the following recognition requirements:

- (1) demonstration of technical feasibility of completing the prospective product for internal use or sale;
- (2) there is intention to complete the intangible asset and use or sell it;
- (3) the Group's ability to use or sell the intangible asset is demonstrated;
- (4) how the intangible asset will generate future economic benefits through internal use or sale;

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

31 December 2017

(d) Intangible assets (Continued)

(ii) Research and development costs (Continued)

- (5) sufficient technical, financial and other resources are available for completion and to use or sell the intangible asset; and
- (6) the expenditure attributable to the intangible asset during its development can be reliably measured.

As mentioned in note (i) above, capitalised development costs are transferred to game intellectual properties for amortisation when the intangible assets are available for use. The Group initially determines the useful lives of its game intellectual properties based on the contracted period of license granted to the Group's licensed operators (the "Licensed Operators") which is normally 2 years and subsequently reviews the estimated useful lives on a periodic basis. The useful lives of particular game intellectual properties will be extended if that game intellectual properties are popular resulting in extension of existing licensing agreements or more licensing agreements being granted to the Licensed Operators.

Development expenditure not satisfying the above criteria and expenditure on the research phase of the projects are recognised in profit or loss as incurred.

(e) Leasing

Leases are classified as finance leases whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to lessee. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

The Group as lessee

The total rentals payable under the operating leases are recognised in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Lease incentives received are recognised as an integrated part of the total rental expense, over the term of the lease.

(f) Financial instruments

(i) Financial assets

The Group classifies its financial assets at initial recognition, depending on the purpose for which the asset is acquired. Regular way purchases or sales of financial assets are recognised and derecognised on a trade date basis. A regular way purchase or sale is a purchase or sales of a financial asset under a contract whose terms require delivery of the asset within the time frame established generally by regulation or convention in the marketplace concerned.

Loans and receivables

These assets are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. They arise principally through the provision of goods and services to customers and also incorporate other types of contractual monetary asset. Subsequent to initial recognition, they are carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less any identified impairment losses.

(ii) Impairment loss on financial assets

The Group assesses, at the end of each reporting period, whether there is any objective evidence that financial asset is impaired. Financial asset is impaired if there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more events that has occurred after the initial recognition of the asset and that event has an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset that can be reliably estimated.

Evidence of impairment may include:

- significant financial difficulty of the debtor;
- a breach of contract, such as a default or delinquency in interest or principal payments;
- granting concession to a debtor because of debtor's financial difficulty; or
- it becoming probable that the debtor will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation.

An impairment loss on loan and receivables is recognised in profit or loss when there is objective evidence that the asset is impaired, and is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of the estimated future cash flows discounted at the original effective interest rate. The carrying amount of financial asset is reduced through the use of an allowance account. When any part of financial asset is determined as uncollectible, it is written off against the allowance account for the relevant financial asset.

Impairment losses are reversed in subsequent periods when an increase in the asset's recoverable amount can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognised, subject to a restriction that the carrying amount of the asset at the date the impairment is reversed does not exceed what the amortised cost would have been had the impairment not been recognised.

(f) Financial instruments (Continued)

(iii) Financial liabilities

The Group classifies its financial liabilities depending on the purpose for which the liabilities were incurred. Financial liabilities at amortised costs are initially measured at fair value, net of directly attributable costs incurred.

Financial liabilities at amortised cost

Financial liabilities at amortised cost including trade and other payables and dividend payables are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method. The related interest expense is recognised in profit or loss.

Gains or losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the amortisation process.

(iv) Effective interest method

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial asset or financial liability and of allocating interest income or interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts or payments through the expected life of the financial asset or liability, or where appropriate, a shorter period.

(v) Equity instruments

Equity instruments issued by the Company are recorded at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

(vi) Derecognition

The Group derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the future cash flows in relation to the financial asset expire or when the financial asset has been transferred and the transfer meets the criteria for derecognition in accordance with HKAS 39.

Financial liabilities are derecognised when the obligation specified in the relevant contract is discharged, cancelled or expires.

(g) Revenue recognition

- (i) The Group engaged in browser and mobile games development, including the game design, programming and graphics and licensing of its developed games in China and overseas markets. The Group's revenue is principally derived from granting the exclusive and non-exclusive rights of the self-developed games to the Licensed Operators and sharing of game revenue with the Group's Licensed Operators ("License fees and Royalties").

The Group's self-developed browser and mobile games are designed under free-to-play model. These games are operated directly by the Licensed Operators on their own platforms as well as third party internet platforms, subject to the contractual terms agreed with them. Moreover, the Licensed Operators are responsible for hosting the games, providing customers' services to game players, determining the selling price of the in-game token, selection of distribution and payment channels and preventing, detecting and resolving cheating and hacking activities. The Group has evaluated and determined it is not the primary obligor in the rendering services to game players. Accordingly, the Group considers the Licensed Operators as their customers and the License fees and Royalties reported in the financial statements are net of taxes and related surcharges.

The Group receives License fees and Royalties from the Licensed Operators for the provision of the license to operate the game. License fees represented the upfront fee from its Licensed Operators in exchange for exclusive operating rights of the Group's self-developed games in certain regions and providing related technical support. License fees are recognised on a straight-line basis over the contracted license period. Royalties are calculated monthly based on a pre-determined percentage of net sales of credits of the Licensed Operators which have been exchanged into in-game tokens purchased through platforms designated by the Licensed Operators and typically unaffected by the marketing discounts on the prices of credits offered by the Licensed Operators. On the other hand, the Group can access in-game accounts for the data of game player's purchase activity to estimate the royalties which is recognised when the Licensed Operators confirm their sales activities for the period.

- (ii) Interest income is accrued on a time basis on the principal outstanding at the applicable interest rate.

(h) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and deposits held at call with banks and other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amount of cash and are subject to an insignificant risks of change in value.

(i) Income taxes

Income taxes for the year comprise current tax and deferred tax.

Current tax is based on the profit or loss from ordinary activities adjusted for items that are non-assessable or disallowable for income tax purposes and is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the end of reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the corresponding amounts used for tax purposes. Except for goodwill and recognised assets and liabilities that affect neither accounting nor taxable profits, deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates appropriate to the expected manner in which the carrying amount of the asset or liability is realised or settled and that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the end of reporting period.

Income taxes are recognised in profit or loss except when they relate to items recognised in other comprehensive income in which case the taxes are also recognised in other comprehensive income or when they related to items recognised directly in equity in which case the taxes are also recognised directly in equity.

(j) Foreign currency

Transactions entered into by group entities in currencies other than the currency of the primary economic environment in which they operate (the “functional currency”) are recorded at the rates ruling when the transactions occur. Foreign currency monetary assets and liabilities are translated at the rates ruling at the end of reporting period. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items, and on the translation of monetary items, are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

For the purposes of presenting the consolidated financial statement, the assets and liabilities of the Company and certain subsidiaries are translated into the presentation currency of the Group (i.e. RMB) at the rate of exchange prevailing at the end of the reporting period, and their income and expenses items are translated at the average exchange rates for the period, unless exchange rates fluctuate significantly during the period, in which case, the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of transactions are used. Exchange differences arising, if any, are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity as foreign exchange reserve.

(k) Employee benefits

(i) Retirement benefit costs

The employees of the Group's subsidiary which operates in the PRC are required to participate in a central pension scheme operated by the local municipal government. This subsidiary is required to contribute certain percentage of employees' salaries to the central pension scheme.

Contributions are recognised as an expense in profit or loss when the services are rendered by the employees. The Group's obligations under these plans are limited to the fixed percentage contributions payable.

(ii) Short-term employee benefits

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised when they accrue to employees. A provision is made for the estimated liability for annual leave as a result of services rendered by employees up to the end of reporting period. Non-accumulating compensated absences such as sick leave and maternity leave are not recognised until the time of leave.

(l) Impairment of other assets

At the end of each reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its property, plant and equipment and intangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss or an impairment loss previously recognised no longer exists or may have decreased.

If the recoverable amount (i.e. the greater of the fair value less costs of disposal and value in use) of an asset is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognised as an expense immediately.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, to the extent that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of depreciation or amortisation) had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised as income immediately.

(m) Government grants

Government grants are recognised when there is reasonable assurance that they will be received and that the Group will comply with the conditions attaching to them. Grants that compensate the Group for expenses incurred are recognised as other income in profit or loss on a systematic basis in the same periods in which the expenses are incurred.

(n) Provisions and contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognised for liabilities of uncertain timing or amount when the Group has a legal or constructive obligation arising as a result of a past event, which will probably result in an outflow of economic benefits that can be reasonably estimated.

Where it is not probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required, or the amount cannot be estimated reliably, the obligation is disclosed as a contingent liability, unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote. Possible obligations, the existence of which will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more future events, are also disclosed as contingent liabilities unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote.

(o) Related parties

- (a) A person or a close member of that person's family is related to the Group if that person:
 - (i) has control or joint control over the Group;
 - (ii) has significant influence over the Group; or
 - (iii) is a member of key management personnel of the Group or the Company's parent.
- (b) An entity is related to the Group if any of the following conditions apply:
 - (i) The entity and the Group are members of the same group (which means that each parent, subsidiary and fellow subsidiary is related to the others).
 - (ii) One entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a group of which the other entity is a member).
 - (iii) Both entities are joint ventures of the same third party.
 - (iv) One entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity.
 - (v) The entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of the employees of the Group or an entity related to the Group.
 - (vi) The entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (a).
 - (vii) A person identified in (a)(i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity).
 - (viii) The entity, or any member of the group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the Group or the Group's parent.

(o) Related parties (Continued)

Close members of the family of a person are those family members who may be expected to influence, or be influenced by, that person in their dealings with the entity and include:

- (i) that person's children and spouse or domestic partner;
- (ii) children of that person's spouse or domestic partner; and
- (iii) dependents of that person or that person's spouse or domestic partner.

5. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

In the application of the Group's accounting policies, the directors are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

In addition to information disclosed elsewhere in this consolidated financial statements, other key sources of estimation uncertainty that have significant risks of resulting a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within next financial year are as follows:

(i) Estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets

The Group's management determines the useful lives and the related depreciation or amortisation charges for its property, plant and equipment and intangible assets. The estimates are based on the historical experience of the actual useful lives of those assets of similar nature and functions. Management will increase the depreciation or amortisation charges where useful lives are subsequently assessed to be less than previously estimated lives. It will write off or write down the technically obsolete or non-strategic assets that have been abandoned or sold. Actual economic lives may differ from the estimated useful lives. Periodic review could result in a change in depreciable or amortisable lives and therefore affect the depreciation or amortisation charges in future periods.

As mentioned in note 4(d)(ii), the Group initially determines the useful lives of its game intellectual properties based on the contracted period of license granted to the Group's Licensed Operators which is normally 2 years and subsequently reviews the estimated useful lives on a periodic basis.

The useful lives of particular game intellectual properties will be extended if that game intellectual properties are popular resulting in extension of existing licensing agreements or more licensing agreements being granted to the Licensed Operators.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

5. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY (Continued)

(ii) Impairment of intangible assets

Intangible assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. The recoverable amounts have been determined based on the higher of value in use and fair value less costs of disposal. These calculations require the use of judgements and estimates.

Management judgement is required in the area of asset impairment particularly in assessing: (a) whether an event has occurred that may indicate that the related asset values may not be recoverable; (b) whether the carrying value of an asset can be supported by the recoverable amount, being the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and net present value of future cash flows which are estimated based upon the continued use of the asset in the business; and (c) the appropriate key assumptions to be applied in preparing cash flow projections including whether these cash flow projections are discounted using an appropriate rate. Changing the assumptions selected by management in assessing impairment, including the discount rates or the growth rate assumptions in the cash flow projections, could materially affect the net present value used in the impairment test and as a result affect the Group's financial condition and results of operations. If there is a significant adverse change in the projected performance and resulting future cash flow projections, it may be necessary to take an impairment charge to profit or loss.

(iii) Impairment of property, plant and equipment

The Group assesses whether there are any indicators of impairment for property, plant and equipment at the end of each reporting period. The property, plant and equipment are tested for impairment when there are indicators that the carrying amounts may not be recoverable. An impairment exists when the carrying value of an asset or a cash-generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount, which is higher of its fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. The calculation of the fair value less costs of disposal is based on available data from binding sales transactions in an arm's length transaction of similar assets or observable market prices less incremental costs for disposal of the asset. When value in use calculation is undertaken, management must estimate the expected future cash flows from the asset or cash-generating unit and choose a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value of those cash flows.

(iv) Impairment of trade receivables

Recoverability of the trade receivables are reviewed by management based on the receivables' aging characteristics, the current creditworthiness and past collection history of each Licensed Operator. Judgement is required in assessing the ultimate realisation of these receivables, and the financial conditions of the debtors may undergo adverse changes since the last management evaluation. If the financial conditions of the debtors were to deteriorate, resulting in an impairment of their ability to make payments, additional provision may be required in future accounting periods.

(a) Reportable segments

During the year, information reported to the executive directors of the Company, being the chief operating decision makers, for the purposes of resource allocation and assessment of segment performance, is the financial information of the Group as a whole as reported under HKFRSs. Such information does not contain profit or loss information of particular product or service line or geographical area. Therefore, the executive directors of the Company have determined that the Group has only one single reportable segment which is browser and mobile games development for earning License fees and Royalties from the Licensed Operators. The executive directors of the Company allocate resources and assess performance on an aggregated basis.

Due to their short-term nature, the carrying values of these financial instruments approximate their fair values.

29. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The main risks arising from the Group's financial instruments in the normal course of the Group's business are credit risk, liquidity risk, interest rate risk and currency risk. These risks are limited by the Group's financial management policies and practices described below.

(a) Credit risk

The Group's credit risk is primarily attributable to its trade and other receivables, short-term bank deposits and cash and cash equivalents. Management has a credit policy in place and the exposures to these credit risks are monitored on an ongoing basis.

In respect of trade and other receivables, individual credit evaluations are performed on Licensed Operators. These evaluations focus on their past history of making payments when due and current ability to pay, and take into account information specific to them as well as pertaining to the economic environment in which they operate. Trade receivables are due within 120 days. Normally, the Group does not obtain collateral from Licensed Operators.

The Group's exposure to credit risk is influenced mainly by the individual characteristics of each Licensed Operator. The default risk of the industry and country in which Licensed Operators operate also has an influence on credit risk but to a lesser extent. As at 31 December 2017, two Licensed Operators with the highest trade receivables balance (2016: three Licensed Operators) were approximately RMB24,966,000 (2016: RMB9,518,000) and represented 86% (2016: 72%) of the total balance of trade receivables.

In addition, the credit risk for liquid funds is considered negligible. Short-term bank deposits and cash and cash equivalents are placed with reputable banks with high quality external credit ratings. There was no recent history of default of cash and cash equivalents and short-term deposits from such financial institutions.

The credit policy has been followed by the Group since prior year and is considered to have been effective in limiting the Group's exposure to credit risk to a desirable level.

(b) Liquidity risk

The Group's policy is to regularly monitor its liquidity requirements to ensure that it maintains sufficient reserves of cash to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term. Management of the Company is satisfied that the Group will be able to meet in full its financial obligations as and when they fall due in the foreseeable future in the normal course of business.

The following table shows the remaining contractual maturities at the end of each of the reporting period of the Group's financial liabilities, which are based on contractual undiscounted cash flow (including interest payment computed using contractual rates or, if floating, based on the current rates at the reporting date) and the earliest date the Group may be required to pay.

	Carrying amount RMB	Total contractual undiscounted cash flows RMB	Within 1 year or on demand RMB

29. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT (Continued)

(c) Interest rate risk

Other than deposits held in banks, the Group does not have significant interest-bearing assets. The directors of the Company consider the Group's cash flow interest rate risk on bank balances is not significant due to low level of deposit interest rate.

As at 31 December 2017 and 2016, the Group has no interest-bearing liabilities, which may expose the Group to any interest rate risk.

(d) Currency risk

The Group is exposed to currency risk primarily through the License fees and Royalties that are denominated in a currency other than the functional currency of the operations to which they relate. The currencies giving rise to this risk are primarily EUR, USD, Japanese Yen ("JPY"), Russian Rouble ("RUB") and HK$.

Foreign currency risk arises from the Group's financial assets, which were denominated in EUR, USD, JPY, RUB and HK$ other than the functional currency at the end of each reporting period are as follows:

	Assets
	2017 RMB	2016 RMB
EUR	961,737	966,433
USD	5,536,093	5,694,442
JPY	103,992	153,866
RUB	—	5,938
HK$	6,258,991	15,206,661

The following table indicates the approximate effect on the profit for the year in response to reasonably possible changes in the foreign exchange rates, with all other variables held constant, to which the Group has significant exposure at the end of each reporting period.

	Year ended 31 December 2017
	Appreciates against RMB	Increase in profit for the year and retained profits RMB	Depreciates against RMB	Decrease in profit for the year and retained profits RMB
EUR	5%	41,990	5%	(41,990)
USD	5%	232,882	5%	(232,882)

(d) Currency risk (Continued)

		Increase in profit for the year and retained profits	Decreases in profit for the year and retained profits
	Appreciates against RMB	RMB	Depreciates against RMB	RMB
EUR	5%	42,201	5%	(42,201)
USD	5%	239,258	5%	(239,258)
JPY	5%	6,732	5%	(6,732)
RUB	5%	260	5%	(260)
HK$	5%	665,291	5%	(665,291)

The sensitivity analysis has been determined assuming that the change in foreign exchange rates had occurred at the end of the reporting period and had been applied to each of the group entities; exposure to currency risk for financial assets in existence at that date, and that all other variables, in particular interest rates, remain constant.

The stated changes represent management's assessment of reasonably possible changes in foreign exchange rates over the period until the next annual reporting date. Results of the analysis as presented in the above table represent an aggregation of the effects on Groups' profit for the year and equity measured in the respective foreign currencies, translated into RMB at the exchange rate ruling at the end of reporting period for presentation purposes. The measures to manage foreign currency risk have been followed by the Group since prior years and are considered to be effective.
