Third Quarterly Report

CHARACTERISTICS OF GEM ("GEM") OF THE STOCK EXCHANGE OF HONG KONG LIMITED (THE "STOCK EXCHANGE")

GEM has been positioned as a market designed to accommodate small and mid-sized companies to which a higher investment risk may be attached than other companies listed on the Stock Exchange. Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration.

Given that the companies listed on GEM are generally small and mid-sized companies, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on GEM.

Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited and the Stock Exchange take no responsibility for the contents of this report, make no representation as to its accuracy or completeness and expressly disclaim any liability whatsoever for any loss howsoever arising from or in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents of this report.

This report, for which the directors (the "Directors") of Perfect Optronics Limited (the "Company") collectively and individually accept full responsibility, includes particulars given in compliance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on GEM of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "GEM Listing Rules") for the purpose of giving information with regard to the Company. The Directors, having made all reasonable enquires, confirm that to the best of their knowledge and belief the information contained in this report is accurate and complete in all material respects and not misleading or deceptive, and there are no other matters the omission of which would make any statement herein or this report misleading.

NOTES TO THE UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL RESULTS

1. BASIS OF PREPARATION

The Company was incorporated in the Cayman Islands on 13 June 2013, as an exempted company with limited liability under the Companies Law (as Revised) of the Cayman Islands. The Company's shares are listed on the GEM.

The Company is an investment holding company and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Group") are principally engaged in the trading and processing of display components for electronics, development and sales of optics products and trading of related electronic components.

The unaudited condensed consolidated financial results of the Group for the nine months ended 30 September 2018 (the "Consolidated Financial Results") have been prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the disclosure requirements of the GEM Listing Rules. The Consolidated Financial Results are presented in Hong Kong dollars ("HK$"), unless otherwise stated, and have been prepared under the historical cost convention, except for financial asset classified as fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI") and financial asset classified as fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL") which have been measured at fair value.

The Consolidated Financial Results have been reviewed by the audit committee of the Company.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The significant accounting policies that have been used in the preparation of the Consolidated Financial Results are consistent with those followed in the preparation of the Group's annual financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2017, except as described below.

The Group has adopted and applied, for the first time, the following new standards that have been issued and effective for the accounting periods beginning on 1 January 2018:

HKFRS 9 Financial Instruments

HKFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers and the related

Amendments

HK(IFRIC)-Int 22 Foreign Currency Transactions and Advance Consideration

Amendments to HKFRS 2 Classification and Measurement of Share-Based Payment

Amendments to HKFRS 4 Applying HKFRS 9 Financial Instruments with HKFRS 4

Amendments to Hong Kong As part of the Annual Improvements to HKFRSs 2014–2016

("HKAS") 28

Amendments to HKAS 40

Transfers of Investment Property

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

There have been changes to the Group's accounting policies as a result of adopting HKFRS 9 Financial Instruments. The Group has applied the new standard with effect from 1 January 2018, with the practical expedients permitted under the standard. Comparatives for 2017 have not been restated. The impacts of the adoption of HKFRS 9 are disclosed below.

HKFRS 9 replaces the provisions of HKAS 39 that relate to the recognition, classification and measurement of financial assets and financial liabilities, derecognition of financial instruments, impairment of financial assets and hedge accounting.

Classification and measurement

On 1 January 2018 (the date of initial application of HKFRS 9), the Group's management has classified its financial instruments into the appropriate HKFRS 9 categories. There is no significant impact on the classification and measurement of the available-for-sale ("AFS") financial assets elected to be classified as financial assets at FVOCI. However, gains or losses realised on the sale of financial assets at FVOCI will no longer be transferred to profit or loss on sale, but instead reclassified below the line from the FVOCI reserve to retained earnings. With respect to the Group's financial assets reclassified as financial assets at FVTPL, any fair value change is recognised in profit or loss as it arises.

The main effects resulting from this reclassification are as follows:

Financial assets — 1 January 2018	Note	FVTPL HK$'000 (Unaudited)	FVOCI HK$'000 (Unaudited)	AFS HK$'000 (Unaudited)

The impact of these changes on the Group's equity is as follows:

Opening balance 1 January 2018

Notes:

(a) Reclassification from AFS to EVTPL

The Group's investment in preferred shares was reclassified from AFS financial asset to financial asset at FVTPL (HK$54,269,000 as at 1 January 2018). They do not meet the criteria to be classified either as financial asset at FVOCI or at amortised cost. These preferred shares with a fair value of HK$54,269,000 were reclassified from AFS financial asset to financial asset at FVTPL and related fair value gain of HK$30,314,000 was reclassified from the AFS reserve to the retained earnings on 1 January 2018.

(b) Equity investment previously classified as AFS financial asset

The Group elected to present in other comprehensive income changes in the fair value of all its remaining equity investment previously classified as AFS financial asset, because such investment is held as long-term strategic investment that is not expected to be sold in the short to medium term. As a result, asset with a fair value of HK$2,678,000 was reclassified from AFS financial asset to financial asset at FVOCI and fair value gain of HK$72,000 was reclassified from the AFS reserve to the FVOCI reserve on 1 January 2018.

Impairment of financial assets

The new impairment model under HKFRS 9 requires the recognition of impairment provisions based on expected credit losses ("ECL") rather than only incurred credit losses as is the case under HKAS 39. The Group's trade receivables are financial assets that are subject to HKFRS 9's new expected credit loss model. While cash and cash equivalents are also subject to the impairment requirements of HKFRS 9, the identified impairment loss was immaterial.

The Group applies the HKFRS 9 simplified approach to measuring ECL by using a lifetime expected loss allowance for all trade receivables. Since the Group's historical credit loss experience for its trade receivable was minimal, the restatement of the loss allowance for trade receivables on transition to HKFRS 9 as a result of applying the expected credit risk model was immaterial.

The adoption of other new standards, amendments to standards and interpretations did not have significant impact on the Group's accounting policies.

For those new standards, amendment to standards and interpretations which had been issued but not yet effective and have not been early adopted in prior accounting periods, the Group is in the process of assessing their impact on its results and financial position.

The preparation of the Consolidated Financial Results in conformity with HKFRSs requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income and expense. Actual results may differ from these estimates. The significant judgements made by the management in applying the Group's accounting policies and the key sources of estimation uncertainty were the same as those applied to the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2017.

3. REVENUE

Revenue represents the sales of display panels, optics products and related electronic components to external parties.

The Group's revenue from its major products are as follows:

("Mobvoi"), a private company principally engaged in the business of developing and providing voice search systems on mobile, smart wearable and other devices. There was no addition and disposal of such a private equity investment since the Group acquired it in January 2015. Mobvoi further issued its new preferred shares to a new investor in late March 2017 and the Group's shareholding in Mobvoi was diluted to approximately 1.53% (on a fully diluted and as converted basis).

As detailed in note 2 above, on 1 January 2018 (the date of initial application of HKFRS 9), the Group's investment in preferred shares in Mobvoi was reclassified from AFS financial asset to financial asset at FVTPL (HK$54,269,000 as at 1 January 2018) and any fair value change is recognised in profit or loss as it arises. The fair value of the Group's investment in preferred shares in Mobvoi as at 30 September 2018 amounted to approximately HK$54,909,000 (31 December 2017: HK$54,269,000), which is based on market comparable companies and equity value allocation with option-pricing method performed by an independent valuer. The fair value is within level 3 of the fair value hierarchy. MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Business Review and Prospects

The Group business is principally engaged in the trading of display components for electronics, the development and sale of optics products and related electronic components. The Group also processes some of the products which it trades.

During the nine months ended 30 September 2018 (the "Period"), the business environment for the sale of the Group's mobile phone display panels remained shrinking, which continued to affect the Group's performance. The Group recorded an approximately 22% decrease in revenue during the nine months ended 30 September 2018 as compared with the corresponding period of 2017. During the Period, the Group's revenue amounted to approximately HK$193,779,000 (nine months ended 30 September 2017: approximately HK$248,708,000). Loss attributable to equity holders of the Company for the Period amounted to approximately HK$39,198,000, represented a decrease in loss of approximately HK$10,172,000 as compared with the nine months ended 30 September 2017 of approximately HK$49,370,000.

According to a report published by China Academy of Information and Communications Technology, China's domestic mobile phone shipments for the nine months ended 30 September 2018 reached 304.7 million units and the number of new model release reached 635, down 17.0% and 22.8% year-over-year respectively. The downturn indicated that the market demand for mobile phones is becoming mature and the consumers' purchase and change frequency of mobile phones have slowed down. The period of flourishing mobile phone brands in China has passed and China's domestic mobile phone market share has been concentrated in several major brands. Under the impact of recent economic uncertainties, the decreasing number of mobile phone shipments, and market consolidation by dominating brands, the Group being an upstream mobile phone component supplier for those scattered non-mainstream or second-tier mobile phone manufacturers has encountered serious pressure under such transformation. During the Period, the Group recorded a revenue of approximately HK$189,225,000 from its display products segment, down by approximately 20% as compared with the corresponding period in 2017 of approximately HK$236,792,000. Sales of TFT-LCD panels and modules amounted to approximately HK$172,656,000 during the Period (nine months ended 30 September 2017: approximately HK$219,747,000), which showed a drop of approximately 21% as compared with the corresponding period in 2017. For other display products such as polarisers and driver ICs, the Group's revenue from its polarisers and driver ICs for the Period amounted to approximately HK$3,744,000 (nine months ended 30 September 2017: approximately HK$3,689,000) and HK$2,253,000 (nine months ended 30 September 2017: approximately HK$9,419,000), respectively.

To mitigate the severe impacts of the decrease in sales revenue of mobile phone display panels and the difficult situation in the small-sized display panel market, the Group continued to expand its product categories and enrich its product portfolio. The Group increased to a large extent its sales of medium-to-large size display products, including display modules for computer notebooks, monitors and televisions. Sales of medium-to-large size display products has become the major revenue driver of the Group during the Period. However, the gross profit margins for the Group's trading of these products were relatively low.

The virtual reality ("VR") market was not as promising as it had been generally expected. During the Period, the Group's optics products segment recorded a revenue of approximately HK$4,554,000, representing an approximately 62% decrease as compared with the corresponding period in 2017 of approximately HK$11,916,000. Under fierce price competition of similar products in the market and lack of breakthrough in content development, the Group faced difficult challenges in the sales of its self-developed automotive head-up display and VR entertainment headsets. Sales of optics components also decreased during the Period as compared with the corresponding period in 2017.

As to the Group's investment in Mobvoi, Mobvoi has not raised a new round of funding during the Period. During the Period, Mobvoi continued to enrich and update its product mix. It has recently launched new model of Android wear watches (TicWatch) and portable smart speakers, which enhanced its revenue base. Various smart experience stores have been established in Beijing, Shenzhen, Wuhan and Chengdu to promote and retail its products. In the near future, Mobvoi is going to continue enriching its product lines, expand offline channels and global footprint.

Looking forward, the Group will endeavor to improve its revenue performance through enriching product categories and explore new business opportunities. Display products segment is expected to remain as the Group's core business. Furthermore, the Group is exploring different display products markets, such as digital information signage and electronic shelf display products. The Group has exhibited its products in these areas in the Hong Kong Electronic Fair (Autumn Edition) recently. In addition, the Group will continue to explore and reinforce the business relationships with new suppliers and customers in mainland China to widen its revenue base. Despite the enduring bottleneck that VR market is experiencing, the Group will keep on updating its technologies on optics products for maximizing its opportunities when the augmented reality and VR markets experience a more robust growth.
