CHARACTERISTICS OF GEM OF THE STOCK EXCHANGE OF HONG KONG LIMITED (THE "STOCK EXCHANGE")

GEM has been positioned as a market designed to accommodate small and mid-sized companies to which a higher investment risk may be attached than other companies listed on the Stock Exchange. Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration.

Given that the companies listed on GEM are generally small and mid-sized companies, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on GEM.

Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited and the Stock Exchange take no responsibility for the contents of this report, make no representation as to its accuracy or completeness and expressly disclaim any liability whatsoever for any loss howsoever arising from or in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents of this report.

This report, for which the directors (the "Directors") of China Golden Classic Group Limited (the "Company") collectively and individually accept full responsibility, includes particulars given in compliance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the GEM of the Stock Exchange (the "GEM Listing Rules") for the purpose of giving information with regard to the Company. The Directors, having made all reasonable enquiries, confirm that to the best of their knowledge and belief the information contained in this report is accurate and complete in all material respects and not misleading or deceptive, and there are no other matters the omission of which would make any statement herein or this report misleading.

Chairman's Statement

Dear Shareholders,

On behalf of the board (the "Board") of directors (the "Directors") of China Golden Classic Group Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively the "Group"), I am pleased to present our annual report for the year ended 31 December 2020 (the "Year").

BUSINESS REVIEW

The Year was a year full of challenges for the Group and the management team who are dedicated to creating value for the shareholders of the Company. In the first quarter of the Year, COVID-19 was widely spread in the People's Republic of China ("PRC" or "China"), where the Group's principal business is located. Due to the COVID-19 outbreak, the Chinese government implemented very stringent nation-wide movement control and social distancing measures. After the Chinese New Year public holiday, the Group experienced delay in resumption of production due to governmental control. For the majority period in the first quarter of the Year, the Group also encountered difficulty in sourcing logistic service providers to transport the Group's products. As a result, the operation and revenue of the Group was adversely affected. However, with the successful control and prevention of large-scale COVID-19 transmissions in China since the second quarter of the Year, the economic activities in China have gradually returned back to normal. The Group was one of the first batch of enterprises who resumed normal business operation in Jiangyin city.

The outbreak of COVID-19 has also changed the lifestyle of Chinese and foreign consumers and the way the Group conducts its business. With heightened awareness of health and hygiene and increasing time spent at home, there is a rising demand for personal and household hygiene products with sanitization and sterilization functions. As a personal and household hygiene products manufacturer, the Group has been taking all necessary actions to leverage on opportunities brought by the consumption trend. Steps taken include upgrading the Group's production workshop for household hygiene products and adjusting the marketing strategies to accommodate the imminent demands of the consumers. During the Year, the Group's household hygiene products segment saw a substantial increase in revenue of approximately 17.8% compared with the year ended 31 December 2019 (the "Last Corresponding Period"). The Group also gained substantial increase from exporting our household hygiene products which are manufactured on OEM (original equipment manufacturer) basis. Apart from the Group's main businesses, the management team has also been seeking for growth of income by investing surplus cash in wealth management products provided by creditable financial institutions. During the Year, other income of the Group increased by approximately 28% compared with the Last Corresponding Period.

On the other hand, because of the impact of regional lockdowns, people-flow control and social distancing, there was a decrease of patronage in offline chain stores and supermarkets during the Year. Accordingly, the Group reduced engagement of sales personnel in the offline sales channels, which resulted in a decrease of approximately 8.7% of selling and distribution costs compared with the Last Corresponding Period. Thanks to the abovementioned measures, the Group recorded net profit of RMB18.2 million in the Year, which shows a significant increase of approximately 89.3% as compared with the Last Corresponding Period.

PROSPECTS

Looking ahead, the outlook of the Group remains optimistic. Since the second quarter of the Year, thanks to the timely and aggressive contamination control measures taken by the Chinese government, the COVID-19 epidemic in China has been largely alleviated. Despite the lockdowns and nationwide economic lull in the first quarter, China still managed to stage an impressive recovery in the later quarters of the Year, and achieved a 2.3% gross domestic product yearly growth. COVID-19 still imposes great uncertainties in the economy at both macro and micro levels. However, on the basis that there has been very limited number of new COVID-19 infection cases in China since the year of 2021, it is expected that both Chinese economy and consumer spending power are going to achieve a higher growth rate. Accordingly, the management has developed the following strategies for the Group:

Firstly, the Group will leverage on the consumers' strong demands for high efficacy personal and household hygiene products to achieve further growth. The Group's upgraded household hygiene product workshop is expected to be put into use in the third quarter of 2021. The newly renovated workshop is equipped with highly automated production equipment, which is able to enhance the Group's production capacity and reduce workforce costs.

Secondly, the Group will strive to ride on the high-speed development of China's e-commerce sales channels. China is the largest e-commerce market in the world. In recent years, the prevalence of China's mobile Internet and upgrading of logistics technology and payment technology have promoted the continuous and vigorous development of China's e-commerce. Thanks to the rapid development of China's e-commerce platform, online retail channel has become the fastest-growing sales channel in China's personal and household hygiene industry. The management has been looking for professional e-commerce marketing service providers and investors to enhance the Group's online sales performance.

Last but not least, the Group will continue to develop products applying the Group's core patent technology FE enzyme. Clinical study reports published by authoritative medical institutions such as Shanghai Institute of Stomatology (上海市口腔醫學研究所) have shown that FE enzyme has biological sterilization effects. The Board believes that there are great potentials in the extended application of the Group's FE enzyme technology in the Group's products. Therefore, the Group will continue its efforts in the development and promotion of these products.

Management Discussion and Analysis

BUSINESS REVIEW

During the Year and up to the date of this report, the Group had been principally engaged in the manufacturing and trading of oral care, household hygiene and leather care products in China and overseas.

Business Review

For the Year, the Group recorded a turnover of approximately RMB305.8 million, which slightly decreased by approximately 0.5% as compared to the Last Corresponding Period. The net profit for the Year was approximately RMB18.2 million, which increased by approximately 89.3% compared to the Last Corresponding Period. Net profit margin for the Year was approximately 5.9%, representing an increase of approximately 2.8% as compared to the Last Corresponding Period (2019: 3.1%).

The strong growth in profit for the Year was mainly attributable to (i) the rapid growth of high profit margin household hygiene products; (ii) enhanced export income deriving from exporting our household hygiene products which are manufactured on OEM basis; (iii) reduction of selling and distribution costs; and (iv) increase in investment income arising from the wealth management financial products subscribed by the Group. On the other hand, the Group's overall gross profit margin increased from approximately 41.4% for the Last Corresponding Period to approximately 43.3% for the Year. The increase in gross profit margin was mainly due to the increase in proportion of high margin products.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Turnover

Turnover of the Group slightly decreased by approximately 0.5% from approximately RMB307.4 million for Last Corresponding Period to approximately RMB305.8 million for the Year. The decrease in the Group's total turnover was mainly attributable to the decreased turnover of oral care products. The turnover of oral care products decreased by approximately RMB15.7 million or 9.2% from approximately RMB170.2 million for Last Corresponding Period to approximately RMB154.5 million for the Year. Such decrease was mainly due to the disruption of business in the first quarter of the Year brought by the outbreak of COVID-19. It is our Group's policy to prevent our distributors from overstocking. As a result, when logistics and transportation was unavailable in the first quarter of the Year, we experienced difficulties in supplying the retail stores with sufficient stock of oral care products before the previous stocks were sold out. Although the sales volume of our oral care products gradually went back to normal after resumption of business activities in mid-March, the overall sales volume of our oral care products was still negatively affected.

On the other hand, the turnover of household hygiene products recorded an increase of approximately RMB19.7 million or 17.8% from approximately RMB110.3 million for the year ended 31 December 2019 to approximately RMB130.0 million for the Year. Such increase was mainly due to the soaring market demand from the Chinese consumers as a result of enhanced awareness of household hygiene since the outbreak of COVID-19. In particular, one of our high profit margin household hygiene products witnessed a substantial increase in sales volume. Since the Directors have given greater attention to household hygiene products and strengthened the cooperation with Jiangnan University, one of the most famous university in the field of household chemical research, the future turnover of household hygiene products will be optimistic.

Turnover of our leather care products decreased by approximately RMB5.6 million or 20.8%, from approximately RMB26.9 million for the year ended 31 December 2019 to approximately RMB21.3 million for the Year. Such decrease was mainly due to the continuingly shrinking leather care products market during the Year.

Details of the segment revenue, cost and profit for the Year and the Last Corresponding Period are summarised as follows:

	For the year ended 31 December 2020				For the year ended 31 December 2019
	Oral care products RMB'000	Leather care products RMB'000	Household hygiene products RMB'000	Total RMB'000	Oral care products RMB000	Leather care products RMB'000	Household hygiene products RMB'000	Total RMB'000
Segment revenue	154,555	21,289	129,950	305,794	170,207	26,873	110,293	307,373
Segment cost	81,380	16,734	76,131	174,245	90,138	20,726	69,225	180,089
Segment profit	73,175	4,555	53,819	131,549	80,069	6,147	41,068	127,284

Cost of sales

Cost of sales decreased from approximately RMB180.1 million for the Last Corresponding Period to approximately RMB173.5 million for the Year, showing a decrease of approximately 3.6%. The change was mainly due to the growth of the proportion of high gross profit margin products.

Gross profit and gross profit margin

Gross profit of the Group increased by approximately 3.9% from approximately RMB127.3 million for the Last Corresponding Period to approximately RMB132.3 million for the Year. The increase was mainly attributable to the steady growth of the proportion of high gross profit margin products.

In addition, our gross profit margin increased by 1.9% from approximately 41.4% for the Last Corresponding Period to approximately 43.3% for the Year. The increase was mainly attributed to the sustained growth of kitchen cleanser products which has a higher profit margin.

Selling and distribution costs

Selling and distribution costs decreased by approximately RMB6.1 million or 8.7% from approximately RMB70.4 million for the Last Corresponding Period to approximately RMB64.3 million for the Year. The decrease was mainly attributable to the reduced engagement of temporary sales personnel and decreased travelling costs.

Administrative expenses

Administrative expenses incurred for the Year was approximately RMB49.7 million, representing an increase of approximately RMB1.8 million or approximately 3.9%, as compared to approximately RMB47.9 million for Last Corresponding Period. The main reason was driven by the increase in depreciation for property, plant and equipment, salaries of employees of the research and development department.

Finance costs

Finance costs incurred for the Year which mainly represent interest expenses, was approximately RMB2.6 million. It decreased by approximately RMB0.3 million as compared to RMB2.9 million in the Last Corresponding Period, representing a decrease of approximately 8.7%. The decrease was mainly attributable to the decrease in the average balance of the interest-bearing loans during the Year.

Income tax expenses

Income tax expenses incurred for the Year was approximately RMB4.6 million, increased by approximately RMB2.5 million as compared to RMB2.1 million for the Last Corresponding Period, representing a sharp increase of approximately 116.4%. The major reason is that the Group was not accredited as high-tech enterprise in the Year, which led to loss of preferential tax status.

Profit for the Year

As a result of the foregoing, our net profit for the Year was approximately RMB18.2 million which represents a substantial increase of approximately 89.3% as compared with the profit of approximately RMB9.6 million for the Last Corresponding Period. Net profit margin was approximately 5.9%, representing an increase of approximately 2.8% as compared to the Last Corresponding Period (2019: approximately 3.1%).

LIQUIDITY, FINANCIAL RESOURCES AND CAPITAL STRUCTURE

The capital of the Group only comprises of ordinary shares and there was no change in the capital structure of the Group during the Year.

The total shareholders' equity of the Group as at 31 December 2020 was approximately RMB235.5 million (31 December 2019: RMB218.1 million). The Group had current assets of approximately RMB189.0 million (31 December 2019: RMB202.4 million) and current liabilities of approximately RMB122.2 million (31 December 2019: RMB158.2 million). The current ratio was 1.55 and 1.28 as at 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively.

During the Year, the Group generally financed its operations with internally generated cash flow and credit facilities provided by its principal bankers in China. As at 31 December 2020, the Group had outstanding bank borrowings of approximately RMB20.0 million (31 December 2019: RMB60.0 million). These bank loans were secured by certain buildings, prepaid lease payments and right-of-use assets owned by the Group. As at 31 December 2020, the Group maintained bank balances and cash of approximately RMB74.7 million (31 December 2019: RMB80.9 million). The Group's net cash-to-equity ratio (total bank borrowings net of cash and cash equivalents over shareholders' equity) was 0.23 and 0.1 as at 31 December 2020 and 2019, respectively.

The Directors believe that with the current capital and the available banking facilities, the Group possesses sufficient cash to meet its commitments and working capital requirements.

CAPITAL COMMITMENTS

The Group had approximately RMB4.4 million of capital commitments not provided for in respect of property, plant and equipment as at 31 December 2020 (31 December 2019: approximately RMB2.9 million). The increase in capital commitments was mainly arising from the renovation and upgrading costs of the Group's production workshop for household hygiene products.

FUTURE PLANS FOR MATERIAL INVESTMENTS AND CAPITAL ASSETS

Save as disclosed in the Company's prospectus dated 30 June 2016 (the "Prospectus") and this report, the Group did not have other plans for material investments and capital assets as at 31 December 2020.

GEARING RATIO

As at 31 December 2020, the Group's gearing ratio was approximately 8.5% (31 December 2019: approximately 27.5%), based on total debt of approximately RMB20.0 million and total equity of approximately RMB235.5 million. The decrease is mainly attributable to the decrease in the average balance of the interest-bearing loans during the Year as compared to the Last Corresponding Period.

Note: Gearing ratio is calculated as the total debt divided by total equity. Total debt includes bank and other borrowings.

CHARGE OVER ASSETS OF THE GROUP

As at 31 December 2020, bank borrowings were secured by certain buildings and right-of-use asset in aggregate of RMB18.4 million. As at 31 December 2019, bank borrowings were secured by certain buildings and prepaid lease payment in aggregate of RMB19.8 million. As at 31 December 2020 and 2019, bill payables were secured by trademarks in carrying amount of nil.

SIGNIFICANT INVESTMENTS, ACQUISITIONS AND DISPOSALS

There has been no material acquisitions or disposals of subsidiaries or affiliated companies of the Group for the Year.

During the Year, the Group subscribed for wealth management products for an aggregate principal amount of RMB52.9 million offered by a group of affiliated institutions which comprises of ZZ International Investment Holdings Limited* (中植國際投資控股有限公司) ("ZZ Investment Holdings"), ZZ High-Tech (Beijing) Investment Co., Ltd. ("ZZ High-Tech Investment")* (中植高科(北京)投資有限公司) and Beijing Zhixin Fund Sales Co., Ltd.* (北京植信基金銷售有限公司) ("Beijing Zhixin") (collectively, the "ZZ Group"), and structured deposit product for an aggregate principal amount of RMB20 million offered by the Bank of China (the "Subscriptions"). A summary of the Subscriptions are set out below:

2020 Private Fund Raising Plan

1) Subscription of a wealth management product involving investment of RMB30 million to ZZ Investment Holdings for a term of 6 months on 2 January 2020, the subscription of which has been redeemed on 14 July 2020;

2) Subscription of a wealth management product involving investment of RMB10 million to ZZ High-Tech Investment for a term of 12 months on 17 January 2020, the subscription of which has been redeemed on 19 January 2021.

Medium and Short Term Bond Fund

3) Subscription of a wealth management product involving investment of RMB5 million to Beijing Zhixin on 13 January 2020, the subscription amount of which has been redeemed on 23 March 2020;

4) Subscription of a wealth management product involving investment of RMB7.9 million to Beijing Zhixin on 10 March 2020, the subscription amount of which has been redeemed on 23 March 2020 (collectively the "WM Products").

Structured Deposit Product

5) Subscription of a structured deposit product of RMB20 million provided by Bank of China on 27 August 2020 for a term of 92 days, the subscription of which has been redeemed on 1 December 2020.

CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

As at 31 December 2020, the Group had no material contingent liabilities (2019: nil).

FOREIGN EXCHANGE EXPOSURE

Most of the sales and cost of production of the Group are settled in Renminbi ("RMB"). There are only limited sales and administrative expenses which are denominated in United Stated Dollars ("US$") and Hong Kong Dollars ("HK$"). Therefore, the Group was not exposed to material foreign exchange risks. The Group currently does not have a foreign currency hedging policy in respect of foreign currency transactions, assets and liabilities. However, the Directors will continuously monitor the related foreign exchange exposure and will consider hedging significant foreign currency exposure should the need arise.

EMPLOYEES AND REMUNERATION POLICIES

As at 31 December 2020, the Group had a total of approximately 273 employees (2019: 298). The Group's staff cost for the Year amounted to approximately RMB28.1 million (2019: approximately RMB29.1 million). The decrease was mainly due to the decline of number of employees required for the production process after our Group improved the production automation. The Group's remuneration policies are in line with the prevailing market practice and are determined on the basis of performance, qualification and experience of individual employee. The Group recognises the importance of maintaining a good relationship with its employees. The remuneration payable to its employees includes salaries and allowance.

In the PRC, the Group's employees have participated in various security insurance including social insurance prescribed by the Social Insurance Law of PRC* (中華人民共和國社會保險法) and housing provident fund prescribed by the Regulations on Management of Housing Provident Fund* (住房公積金管理條例).

SUBSEQUENT EVENT

Since the end of the Year and up to the date of this report, there was no material event or change in the operation or financial conditions of the Group. The Group is in the process of renovating the production workshop for the Group's household hygiene products with the aim of increasing the Group's production capacity and reducing reliance on workforce. It is expected that the upgraded workshop will be put in use in the third quarter of 2021.

Although the risk of China experiencing another large-scale COVID-19 outbreak is relatively low, certain regional outbreaks can still negatively and substantially affect the supply chain system of the Group. To minimise such risk, the management has implemented the following measures in 2021:

(i) setting up epidemic prevention mechanism, actively monitoring the body temperature of the employees, and encouraging the employees to take the COVID-19 vaccination;

(ii) further improving the automation rate of the production process to reduce the reliance on production workers;

(iii) exploring and approaching more alternative suppliers, adequately increasing the stock volume of particular production materials and packaging materials to prevent disruption of production caused by late delivery of a single supplier;

(iv) further improving the Group's online sales performance, establishing online and offline selling channels.

RETIREMENT BENEFITS PLANS

Particulars of retirement benefits plans of the Group as at 31 December 2020 are set out in note 27 to the consolidated financial statements.

Pursuant to the applicable PRC laws and regulations, the Group contributes to various security insurance including social insurance and housing provident fund.

No forfeited contributions are available to reduce the contribution payable by the Group in future years.

PRINCIPAL RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

Foreign exchange risk

Foreign exchange rate risk refers to the risk that movement in foreign currency exchange rates will affect the Group's financial results and cash flows. Since the Group's sales and productions are primarily in China, the Group is not expected to incur a significant amount of sales, assets and liabilities denominated in a currency other than RMB. However, certain administrative expenses related to legal and professional fees are denominated in HK$. In this case, the Group would be exposed to risks related to the exchange rate and the currency in which the Group's assets and liabilities is denominated. A depreciation of the RMB would require the Group to use more RMB funds to service the same amount of foreign currency liabilities, or a depreciation of foreign currency against RMB would result in receipts from receivables substantially less than the contractual amounts in terms of RMB at the settlement date. The Group neither has a formal foreign currency hedging policy nor engages in hedging activities designed or intended to manage such exchange rate risk during the Year. Since RMB is not freely convertible, the Group's ability to reduce foreign exchange rate risk is limited.

Credit risk

The Group is exposed to credit risk primarily arising from trade receivables, other receivables, advances to employees and independent third parties loans to employees and bank balances. Trade receivables are substantially from customers with good collection track records with the Group. For trade receivables, the Group delegated a team responsible for determination of credit limits, credit approvals and other monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up action is taken to recover overdue debts and to mitigate credit risks. Reversal of the impairment losses on trade receivables recognised during the Year was RMB91,000 under the expected credit loss model ("ECL") (2019: impairment loss of RMB79,000). The remaining amounts are still considered recoverable because there were subsequent settlements or no historical default of payments by the respective customers.

The Group is also subject to concentration of credit risk arising from its trade receivables as approximately 15% (2019: approximately 23%) of these receivables are due from the Group's largest five customers as at the year ended 31 December 2020.

The credit risk for bank balances is considered minimal as such amounts are placed with banks with high credit ratings assigned by international credit-rating agencies or with good reputation.

The maximum exposure to credit risk in the event that the counterparties fail to perform their obligations as of the end of each reporting period in relation to each class of recognised financial assets was the carrying amounts of those assets as stated on the Group's consolidated statements of financial position.

Liquidity risk

The Group's financial liabilities are all falling due within the next 12 months from the end of the Year. As at 31 December 2020, the Group had net current assets and net assets of RMB66.8 million and RMB235.5 million, respectively. As a result, the Group is not exposed to liquidity risk. The Group manages the liquidity risk by maintaining sufficient cash and banking facilities to enable the Group to meet the Group's normal operating and capital commitments.

Interest rate risk

The Group's interest rate risk relates primarily to the Group's bank balances as well as bank borrowings. The Group currently has not entered into any interest rate swaps to hedge against the Group's exposure to changes in fair values of the Group's borrowings. It is the Group's policy to maintain an appropriate level between the Group's borrowings so as to balance the fair value and cash flow interest rate risk. In addition, to the extent that the Group may need to raise debt financing in the future, upward fluctuations in interest rates will increase the cost of new debts. Fluctuations in interest rates can also lead to significant fluctuations in the fair values of the Group's debt obligations. The Group currently does not use any derivative instruments to manage the Group's interest rate risk. To the extent the Group decides to do so in the future, there can be no assurance that any future hedging activities will protect the Group from fluctuations in interest rates.

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICIES AND PERFORMANCE

The Group has implemented environmental protection measures, including procedures and programs related to noise control and waste discharge management, including waste water, solid waste and gases. The Group has sought to optimise the production procedure by adopting low energy consumption and pollution control techniques, implementing environmental-friendly waste disposal methods and enhancing the environmental awareness of our employees through regular trainings. To ensure compliance with applicable regulations, the Group has dedicated staff responsible for supervising and monitoring compliance with statutory regulations and the internal standards relating to environmental protection. Ms. Li Qiuyan, the chairman and executive Director of the Company, has the overall responsibility for environmental protection matters within the Group. The Group's operations were in compliance in all material respects with currently applicable national and local environmental protection laws and regulations in the PRC during the Year.

COMPLIANCE WITH THE RELEVANT LAWS AND REGULATIONS

As far as the Board and the management are aware, the Group has complied in material respects with the relevant laws and regulations that have a significant impact on the business and operation of the Group. During the Year, there was no material breach of or non-compliance with the applicable laws and regulations by the Group.

RELATIONSHIP WITH SUPPLIERS, CUSTOMERS AND OTHER STAKEHOLDERS

The Group understands the importance of maintaining a good relationship with its suppliers and customers to meet its immediate and long-term goals. The Group has maintained a good relationship with suppliers and customers. During the Year, there was no material and significant dispute between the Group and its suppliers and/or customers. First, comprehensive training were provided to employees to enhance their abilities to cope with customers. Second, the production and defective rate of our products were strictly controlled to ensure product quality and prevent product shortages. Third, we encouraged our customers to participate in designing new products. Major suppliers maintain years of cooperation with us as we strived to grow with the suppliers.

Directors' Report

The Directors present to the Shareholders this report and the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries for the Financial Year ended 31 December 2020 (the "Year").

PRINCIPAL ACTIVITIES

The principal business activity of the Company is investment holding. The principal activities and other particulars of the Company's subsidiary are set out in notes 1 and 32 to the consolidated financial statement in this report. There were no significant changes in the nature of the Group's activities during the Year.

RESULTS

The results of the Group for the Year are set out in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income on page 58 of this report.

BUSINESS REVIEW

Further discussion and analysis of these activities, including a discussion of the principal risks and uncertainties facing the Group and an indication of likely future developments in the Group's business, can be found in the section headed "Management Discussion and Analysis" on pages 6 to 12 of this report. These discussions form part of this directors' report.

FINAL DIVIDEND

The Company has adopted a policy on payment of dividends in compliance with code provision E.1.5 of the Corporate Governance Code contained in Appendix 15 to the GEM Listing Rule (the "Code"), which establishes an appropriate procedure on declaring and recommending the dividend payment of the Company. The Company will declare and/or recommend the payment of dividends to Shareholders after considering the Company's ability to pay dividends, which will depend upon, among other things, its actual and expected financial results, cash flow, general business conditions and strategies, current and future operations, statutory, contractual and regulatory restrictions and so on. The Board has complete discretion on whether to pay a dividend, subject to Shareholders' approval, where applicable. Even if the Board decides to recommend and pay dividends, the form, frequency and amount will depend upon the operations and earnings, capital requirements and surplus, general financial condition, contractual restrictions and other factors of and affecting the Group. The Board may also consider declaring special dividends from time to time, in addition to the interim and/or final dividends. The Company shall review and reassess the Dividend Policy and its effectiveness on a regular basis or as required.

The Board does not recommend the payment of a final dividend for the Year (2019: nil) in light of the profit level of the Company during the Year. There is no arrangement where a Shareholder has waived or agreed to waive any dividend.

Note:

1. Ms. Zhang Li is the spouse of Mr. Tong. Accordingly, Ms. Zhang Li is deemed, or taken to be, interested in the Shares held by Mr. Tong for the purposes of the SFO.

Save as disclosed above, as at 31 December 2020, the Directors are not aware of any other persons who had any interests or short positions in the shares or underlying shares of the Company which would fall to be disclosed to the Company under the provisions of Divisions 2 and 3 of Part XV of the SFO or which would be recorded in the register required to be kept under section 336 of the SFO, and/or who are directly or indirectly interested in 5% or more of the nominal value of any class of share capital carrying rights to vote in all circumstances at general meetings of any other member of the Group.

DIRECTORS' RIGHT TO ACQUIRE SHARES OR DEBENTURES

Apart from as disclosed under the paragraphs headed "Directors' and chief executives' interests and/or short positions in shares, underlying shares and debentures of the Company or any associated corporations" above, and "Share Option Scheme" below, at no time during the Year was the Company, its holding company, or subsidiaries a party to any arrangement to enable the Directors or the chief executive of the Company or their associates to acquire benefits by means of the acquisition of shares in or debentures of the Company or any other body corporate.

SHARE OPTION SCHEME

The Company adopted a share option scheme (the "Share Option Scheme") on 17 June 2016 (the "Adoption Date"). The following is a summary of the principal terms and conditions of the Share Option Scheme.

1. Purpose

The purpose of the Share Option Scheme is to attract and retain the best available personnel, to provide additional incentive to employees (full-time and part-time), directors, consultants, advisers, distributors, contractors, suppliers, agents, customers, business partners or service providers of the Group and to promote the success of the business of the Group.

2. Participants

The Board may, at its absolute discretion and on such terms as it may think fit, grant any employee (full-time or part-time), director, consultant or adviser of the Group, or any substantial shareholder of the Group, or any distributor, contractor, supplier, agent, customer, business partner or service provider of the Group, options to subscribe at a price calculated in accordance with the terms of the Share Option Scheme.

The basis of eligibility of any participant to the grant of any option shall be determined by the Board (or as the case may be, including, where required under the GEM Listing Rules, the independent non-executive Directors) from time to time on the basis of the participant's contribution or potential contribution to the development and growth of the Group.

3. Maximum Number of Shares

The maximum number of Shares in respect of which options may be granted under the Share Option Scheme shall not in aggregate exceed 10% of all the Shares in issue as at the Listing Date of the Company (i.e. a total of 100,000,000 Shares representing 10% of the issued share capital of the Company as at the date of this report).

4. Maximum Entitlement of Each Participant and Connected Persons

The total number of Shares issued and to be issued upon exercise of options granted to each participant (including both exercised and outstanding options) under the Share Option Scheme or any other share option scheme of the Company in any 12-month period up to the date of grant shall not exceed 1% of the Shares in issue.

5. Time of Exercise of Option

An option may be exercised in accordance with the terms of the Share Option Scheme at any time during a period as the Board may determine which shall not exceed ten years from the date of grant subject to the provisions of early termination thereof.

6. Performance Target

Save as determined by the Board and provided in the offer of the grant of the relevant options, there is no performance target which must be achieved before any of the options can be exercised.

7. Price of Shares

The subscription price of a Share in respect of any particular option granted under the Share Option Scheme shall be a price solely determined by the Board and notified to a participant and shall be at least the higher of: (i) the closing price of the Shares as stated in the Stock Exchange's daily quotations sheet on the date of grant of the option, which must be a business day; (ii) the average closing price of the Shares as stated in the Stock Exchange's daily quotations sheets for the five business days immediately preceding the date of grant of the option; and (iii) the nominal value of a Share on the date of grant of the option, provided always that for the purpose of calculating the subscription price, where the Company has been listed on the Stock Exchange for less than five business days, the new issue price shall be used as the closing price for any business day falling within the period before Listing.

8. Rights are Personal to Grantee

An option shall not be transferable or assignable and shall be personal to grantee of the option. No grantee shall in any way sell, transfer, charge, mortgage, encumber or create any interest (legal or beneficial) in favor of any third party over or in relation to any option (where the grantee is a company, any change of its major shareholder or any substantial change in its management will be deemed to be a sale or transfer of interest as aforesaid). Any breach of these restrictions will automatically render the option lapsed.

9. Period of the Share Option Scheme

The Share Option Scheme will remain in force for a period of ten years commencing on the Adoption Date and shall expire at the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the tenth anniversary thereof.

Since the adoption of the Share Option Scheme and up to the date of this report, no share options have been granted pursuant to the Share Option Scheme.

There is no option outstanding, granted, cancelled and lapsed during the Year.

EMPLOYEES AND REMUNERATION POLICY

As at 31 December 2020, the Group had 273 employees (2019: 298), including the Directors. The Directors and senior management received compensation in the form of fees, salaries, allowances, benefits in kind and/or discretionary bonuses relating to the performance of the Group. When reviewing and determining the specific remuneration package for the Directors and senior management, the Company took into consideration factors such as, among other things, the economic situation, the market level of salaries paid by comparable companies, the respective responsibilities and duties of the individual and the performance of the individual and the Group. The remuneration committee of the Board has been set up for reviewing the Group's emolument policy and structure for the remuneration of the Directors.

The Group's remuneration to employees included salaries and allowances.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Information on the corporate governance practices adopted by the Company is set out in the section headed "Corporate Governance Report" on pages 28 to 40 of this report.

Corporate Governance Report

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

Pursuant to Rule 18.44 of the GEM Listing Rules, the Board is pleased to present the corporate governance report of the Company for the Year (this "Report").

The Board recognises the value and importance of achieving high corporate governance standards and is committed to upholding good corporate standards and procedures for the best interest of the Shareholders.

During the Year, the Company has complied with all the applicable code provisions in the Code. The principles of the Code have been applied throughout in order to enable the Shareholders to evaluate how the principles have been applied.

CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Pursuant to the code provision A.2.1 of the Code, the roles of the chairman and the chief executive officer should be separate and should not be performed by the same individual. The division of responsibilities between the chairman and the chief executive officer is clearly established and set out in writing. To ensure a balance of power and authority, the Company has been fully supportive of the division of responsibility between the chairman and the chief executive officer. The roles of the chairman and the chief executive officer have been segregated and performed by Ms. Li Qiuyan and Mr. Tong Xing, respectively. Ms. Li Qiuyan has been primarily responsible for making sure that adequate information about the Company's business is provided to the Board on a timely basis, and that all directors were properly briefed on issues arising at board meetings. Apart from providing information, Ms. Li Qiuyan has also been providing leadership for the Board, ensuring that all issues are discussed in a timely manner, and good corporate governance practices and procedures has been established, and encouraging all directors to make full and active contribution to the Board's affairs to ensure it acts in the best interests of the Company. Ms. Li Qiuyan has also been promoting a culture of openness and debate by facilitating effective contribution of all directors. Also, she has been ensuring that appropriate steps have been taken to provide effective communication with Shareholders and that their views have been communicated to the Board as a whole.

Mr. Tong Xing has been primarily responsible for the overall management and operation of the Group, and implementation of the objectives, policies and strategies approved by the Board.

Ms. Li Qiuyan has held a meeting with the independent non-executive Directors without the presence of other Directors on 27 March 2020.

APPOINTMENT, RE-ELECTION AND RETIREMENT OF THE DIRECTORS

The Company has implemented a formal and transparent procedure for appointment of directors in compliance with the Code. Pursuant to Article 108(a) of the articles of association of the Company, at every AGM of the Company, one third of the Directors for the time being (or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, then the number nearest to, but not less than, one-third) shall retire from office by rotation provided that every Director (including those appointed for a specific term) shall be subject to retirement by rotation at least once every three years. A retiring Director shall retain office until the close of the meeting at which he retires and shall be eligible for re-election thereat. The Company at any annual general meeting at which any Directors retire may fill the vacated office by electing a like number of persons to be Directors.

DIRECTORS SERVICE CONTRACTS AND APPOINTMENT LETTERS

Each of the Directors has entered into a service contract or letter of appointment with the Company for an initial term of three years commencing from the Listing Date, which may only be terminated in accordance with the provision of the service contract or by (i) the Company giving to any Director not less than three months' prior notice in writing or (ii) any Director giving to the Company not less than three month's prior notice in writing.

No Director proposed for re-election at the forthcoming AGM has a service contract with the Company which is not determinable by the Company within one year without payment of compensation, other than statutory compensation.

SECURITIES TRANSACTIONS BY DIRECTORS

The Company has adopted as the code of conduct regarding securities transactions by Directors in respect of the shares of the Company (the "Code of Conduct") the required standard of dealings as set out in Rules 5.48 to 5.67 of the GEM Listing Rules. Having made specific enquiry of all Directors, the Directors confirmed that they have complied with the Code of Conduct during the Year and up to the date of this Report.

Ms. Li Qiuyan is the step-mother of Mr. Tong Xing, our executive Director and the chief executive officer of our Company. She is also the cousin of Ms. Du Yongwei, our executive Director.

The list of Directors identifying their names, roles and functions are set out on the Company's website and on the GEM website.

FUNCTIONS OF THE BOARD

The Board supervises the management of the business and affairs of the Company. The Board's primary duties are to ensure the business viability of the Company and to ensure that it is managed in the best interests of the Shareholders while taking into account the interests of other stakeholders. The Group has adopted internal guidelines in compliance with the Code, setting forth matters that require the Board's approval. Apart from its statutory responsibilities, the Board approves the Group's strategic plan, key operational initiatives, major investment and funding decisions. It also reviews the Group's financial performance, identifies principal risks of the Group's business and ensures implementation of appropriate systems to manage these risks. Daily business operations and administrative functions of the Group are delegated to the management.

The Board also delegated the corporate governance functions under code provision D.3.1 of the Code. After reviewing the Company's corporate governance policies and practices, training and continuous professional development of Directors and senior management, policies and practices on compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, compliance with the Code of Conduct and compliance manual, and the compliance with the Code and disclosure in this Report, the Board is satisfied with the effectiveness of the Company's corporate governance policy.

BOARD MEETING AND PROCEDURES

Board members were provided with complete, adequate and timely information to allow them to fulfill their duties properly in compliance with the Code. In compliance with code provision A.1.3 of the Code, at least 14 days' notice has been given for a regular Board meeting to give all Directors an opportunity to attend. Notice, agenda and board papers of regular Board meetings are sent to all Directors with reasonable time and at least 3 days prior to the meetings to ensure all directors are given an opportunity to include matters in the agenda for regular board meetings and are able to make informed decisions on matters placed before them. The management has supplied the Board and its committees with adequate and reliable information, and all Directors can make further enquiries as to the board meetings.

Directors are free to contribute and share their views at meetings and major decisions will only be taken after deliberation at Board meetings.

Independent non-executive Directors are also encouraged to give the Board and any committees on which they serve the benefit of their skills, expertise and varied backgrounds and qualifications through regular attendance and active participation. They have made a positive contribution to the development of the Company's strategy and policies through independent, constructive and informed comments.

Directors who are considered to have conflict of interests or material interests in the proposed transactions or issues to be discussed will not be counted in the quorum of meeting and will abstain from voting on the relevant resolutions.

Full minutes are prepared after the meetings and the draft minutes are sent to all Directors for their comments on the final version of which are endorsed in the subsequent Board meeting.

Each of the executive Directors and independent non-executive Directors has entered into a service agreement or letter of appointment with the Company for an initial term of three years commencing from the Listing Date.

Every Director is subject to re-election on retirement by rotation in accordance with the articles of association of the Company.

The Company established the Audit Committee on 17 June 2016 with written terms of reference which are in compliance with Rule 5.28 to 5.33 of the GEM Listing Rules and code provision C.3.3 and C.3.7 of the Code. The primary duties of the Audit Committee are to make recommendations to the Board on appointment or reappointment and removal of external auditors; review financial statements of the Company and judgments in respect of financial reporting; and oversee internal control procedures and risk management system of the Company. As at 31 December 2020, the Audit Committee is chaired by Mr. Tan Wai Yau (an independent non-executive Director), and consists of two other independent non-executive Directors, namely Mr. Ye Jingzhong and Mr. Pan Qingwei. None of them acted as former partner of the Company's existing auditing firm within 2 years immediately prior to their respective date of appointment. All of them do not have any material interest in any principal business activity of the Group, nor is or was any of them involved in any material business dealing with the Group or with any core connected persons of the Group within 1 year immediately prior to their respective date of appointment.

During the Year, the Audit Committee had reviewed the Group's unaudited quarterly results for the three months ended 31 March 2020, the nine months ended 30 September 2020 and the unaudited interim results for the six months ended 30 June 2020 as well as audited annual results for the year ended 31 December 2020 and the Group's internal controls for the Year. The Group's results for the Year had been reviewed by the Audit Committee before submission to the Board for approval. The Audit Committee had also reviewed this Report, and confirmed that this Report complies with the GEM Listing Rules.

The Audit Committee held five meetings during the Year. Details of the attendance of the Audit Committee at the Audit Committee meetings are set out in the section headed "Board Meeting and Procedures".

REMUNERATION COMMITTEE

The Company established the Remuneration Committee on 17 June 2016 with written terms of reference which are in compliance with Rule 5.34 of the GEM Listing Rules and code provision B.1.2 of the Code. The Remuneration Committee is provided with adequate resources to perform its duties. The primary duties of the Remuneration Committee are to make recommendations to the Board on the policy and structure for all Directors and senior management remuneration and on the establishment of a formal and transparent procedure for developing remuneration policy; to review and approve the management's remuneration proposals with reference to the Board's corporate goals and objectives; and to make recommendations to the Board on the remuneration packages of individual executive Directors and senior management. As at 31 December 2020, the Remuneration Committee is chaired by Mr. Ye Jingzhong (an independent non-executive Director), and consists of two other members, namely Ms. Li Qiuyan (an executive Director) and Mr. Pan Qingwei (an independent non-executive Director).

The Remuneration Committee has reviewed the remuneration packages and emoluments of the Directors and senior management and considered that the remuneration packages and emoluments are fair and reasonable during the Year.

One Remuneration Committee meeting was held during the Year. Details of the attendance of the Remuneration Committee at the Remuneration Committee meeting are set out in the section headed "Board Meeting and Procedures".

NOMINATION COMMITTEE

The Company established the Nomination Committee on 17 June 2016 with written terms of reference which are in compliance with the code provision A.5 of the Code. The primary duties of the Nomination Committee are to review the structure, size and composition of the Board annually; identify individuals suitably qualified to become Board members; assess the independence of the independent non-executive Directors; and make recommendations to the Board on relevant matters relating to appointment or re-appointment of Directors. As at 31 December 2020, the Nomination Committee is chaired by Ms. Li Qiuyan, who is also the chairman of the Board, and consists of two other members, namely Mr. Ye Jingzhong (an independent non-executive Director) and Mr. Pan Qingwei (an independent non-executive Director).

One Nomination Committee meeting was held during the Year. Details of the attendance of the Nomination Committee at the Nomination Committee meeting are set out in the section headed "Board Meeting and Procedures".

BOARD NOMINATION POLICY

The Company has adopted a nomination policy in compliance with the Code. It has written guidelines for the nomination committee to identify individuals suitably qualified to become Board members and make recommendations to the Board on the selection of individuals nominated for directorships with reference to the formulated criteria. The Board is ultimately responsible for selection and appointment of new Directors. The Board, through the delegation of its authority to the nomination committee, has used its best efforts to ensure that Directors appointed to the Board possess the relevant background, experience and knowledge in business, finance and management skills critical to the Group's business to enable the Board to make sound and well considered decisions. Collectively, the Directors have competencies in areas which are relevant and valuable to the Group.

NOMINATION PROCESS

The nomination committee has been responsible for assessing whether any vacancy on the Board has been created or is expected on a regular basis or as required. The nomination committee utilises various methods for identifying director candidates, including recommendations from Board members, management, and professional search firms. All director candidates, including incumbents and candidates nominated by Shareholders are evaluated by the nomination committee based upon the director qualifications. Director candidates will be evaluated on the same criteria through a review of his/her resume, personal interview and of background checks. The nomination committee retains the discretion to establish the relative weighting of such criteria, which may vary based on the composition, skill sets, age, gender and experiences of the collective Board rather than on the individual candidate for the purpose of diversity perspectives appropriate to the requirement of the Company's business.

SELECTION CRITERIA

The nomination committee will take into account whether a candidate has the qualifications, skills, experience and gender diversity that add to and complement the range of skills, experience and background of existing Directors by considering the highest personal and professional ethics and integrity of the director candidates, proven achievement and competence in the nominee's field and the ability to exercise sound business judgment, skills that are complementary to those of the existing Board, the ability to assist and support management and make significant contributions to the Company's success and such other factors as it may deem are in the best interests of the Company and its Shareholders. The Company shall review and reassess the nomination policy and its effectiveness on a regular basis or as required.

DIVERSITY OF THE BOARD

The composition of the Board is reviewed on an annual basis by the nomination committee to ensure that the Board has the appropriate mix of expertise and experience, and collectively possesses the necessary core competence for informed decision-making and effective functioning. The Company adopted its own board diversity policy and recognised the benefits of having diversity in the composition of the Board.

The Company noted that that people from different backgrounds and with different professional and life experiences would likely approach problems in different ways and accordingly, members of the Board with diverse backgrounds will bring different concerns and questions to the table, and allow the Board to consider a wider range of options and solutions when deciding on corporate issues and formulating policies for the Group. In determining the Board's composition and selection of candidates to the Board, nomination committee will consider factors including but not limited to gender, age, cultural and educational background, ethnicity, professional experience, skills, industry knowledge and length of service.

All Board appointments will be based on meritocracy, and candidates will be considered against the selection criteria, having regard for the benefits of diversity on the Board, the business model and specific needs of the Group. The ultimate decision will be based on merit and contribution that the selected candidates will bring to the Board.

COMPOSITION OF THE DIVERSIFIED BOARD

As at the date of this Report, the Board comprises six Directors, two of which are females. PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE DIRECTORS

In compliance with the code provision A.6.5 of the Code, all Directors participated in continuous professional development to develop and refresh their knowledge and skills to ensure that their contribution to the Board remains informed and relevant. The Directors have provided the relevant record to the Company for the Year.

The Company is committed to arranging and funding suitable training to all Directors for their continuous professional development. Each Director is briefed and updated from time to time to ensure that he/she is fully aware of his/her responsibilities under the GEM Listing Rules and applicable legal and regulatory requirements and the governance policies of the Group. All the Directors also understand the importance of continuous professional development and are committed to participate in any suitable training to develop and refresh their knowledge and skills.

During the Year, each of the Directors, namely Ms. Li Qiuyan, Mr. Tong Xing, Ms. Du Yongwei, Mr. Ye Jingzhong, Mr. Pan Qingwei, and Mr. Tang Wai Yau received from the Company from time to time updates on laws, rules and regulations which might be relevant to their roles, duties and functions as director of a listed company.

All Directors, namely Ms. Li Qiuyan, Mr. Tong Xing, Ms. Du Yongwei, Mr. Ye Jingzhong, Mr. Pan Qingwei, and Mr. Tang Wai Yau, were updated with the latest developments regarding the Listing Rules and other applicable regulatory requirements to ensure compliance and enhance their awareness of good corporate governance practices. Continuing briefing and professional development to Directors will be arranged whenever necessary.

HANDLING AND DISSEMINATION OF INSIDE INFORMATION

The Group has adopted its own information disclosure policy aiming to provide a general guide to the directors and senior management of the Company in handling of confidential information and/or monitoring of information disclosure pursuant to applicable laws and regulations, particularly the GEM Listing Rules and Securities and Futures Ordinance Cap. 571. The Group has strictly prohibited unauthorised use of confidential or inside information and has a system of internal procedures for processing and publication of information in order to ensure the timely, accurate and appropriate disclosure of relevant information to the public and regulatory authorities. The Board authorised only the authorised representatives registered in the Stock Exchange for responding on behalf of the Company.

COMPANY SECRETARY

The Board appointed Mr. Xiang Dongliang ("Mr. Xiang") and Mr. Raymond Chi Ho Wong ("Mr. Wong") as joint company secretaries (the "Joint Company Secretaries"). Mr Xiang became an authorised representative of the Company on 28 August 2018.

All Directors have access to the advice and services of the Joint Company Secretaries. The Joint Company Secretaries report to the Chairman on board governance matters, and are responsible for ensuring that board procedures are followed and facilitating communications among Directors as well as with Shareholders and management. For the Year, the Joint Company Secretaries confirmed that both of them have undertaken no less than 15 hours of relevant professional training.

The Joint Company Secretaries' biographies are set out in the section headed "Biographies of Directors and Senior Management" of this report.

SENIOR MANAGEMENT REMUNERATION

The Senior Management's remuneration payment of the Group in the Year falls within the following band:

	Number of individuals
HK$1,000,000 or below	3
HK$1,000,001 to HK$1,500,000	Nil
HK$1,500,001 to HK$2,000,000	Nil

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements of the Group for each financial period to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Group and of the results and cash flows for that period in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Hong Kong. The financial statements are prepared with sufficient explanation and information provided by the management to the Board, where the management provides the Board with monthly updates giving balanced and understandable assessment of the Company's performance, position and prospects in detail. The goal is for the Board to present a balanced, clear and understandable assessment in annual and interim reports, and other financial disclosures required by the GEM Listing Rules. The statement by auditors of the Company about their responsibilities for the financial statements is set out in the independent auditors' report contained in this report. The Directors have adopted the going concern approach in preparing the consolidated financial statements and are not aware of any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

An analysis of the Company's performance is set out under the section "Management Discussion and Analysis" which discusses the group's performance, explains the basis on which Company generates/preserves value over the longer term, and explains the strategy for delivering the Company's objectives.

EXTERNAL AUDITORS' REMUNERATION

The Company engaged SHINEWING (HK) CPA Limited as its external auditors for the Year. There was no disagreement between the Board and the Audit Committee on the selection, appointment, resignation or dismissal of the external auditors. During the Year, the fee paid or payable to SHINEWING (HK) CPA Limited in respect of its statutory audit services provided to the Group was RMB631,000. Fees for non-audit services for the same period were RMB677,000, consisting of the non-audit service of the Group's financial results for the three months ended 31 March 2020, the six months ended 30 June 2020 and the nine months ended 30 September 2020 and other services performed by SHINEWING (HK) CPA Limited's affiliated firms.

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROLS

The Board recognises its responsibility to ensure the Company maintains an effective risk management and internal control systems, where it oversees the systems on an ongoing basis and ensures that the review of the effectiveness of the systems is adequate.

The Group has an Internal Audit ("IA") function, which consists of professional staff with relevant expertise (such as Certified Public Accountant). The IA function is independent of the Group's daily operation and carries out appraisal of the risk management and internal control systems by conducting interviews, walkthroughs and tests of the internal control system's operating effectiveness.

During the year ended 31 December 2020, the audit committee of the Company conducted an annual review based on the internal control framework developed by the IA function which comprises assessment on the financial reporting process and the bank and cash management procedure of the Group. Such internal control system adopted by the Company is compatible with the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission ("COSO") 2013 framework. This framework enables the Group to ensure the effectiveness and efficiency of operations, reliability of financial reporting and compliance with applicable laws and regulations. The components of the framework are control environment, risk assessment, control activities, information and communication, and monitoring.

The controls built into the risk management system are intended to manage, not eliminate, significant risks in the Group's business environment.

The Group adopts a risk management system which manages the risks associated with its business and operations. The system comprises the following phases:

- Risk identification
- Risk analysis
- Risk evaluation
- Risk treatment
- Risk monitoring and reporting

Based on the IA function's rigorous evaluation, no significant deficiencies were identified in the Group's operation. The Company's audit committee reviewed the internal control review report and the Company's risk management and internal control systems for the Year, and believed that they were effective and adequate. The Board also assessed the effectiveness of the Company's internal control systems by considering the internal control review report and reviews performed by the audit committee and concurred with the same. The Company will perform ongoing assessment to identity material risk factors and take measures to manage these risks on a regular basis. In any case, reviews on risk management and internal control system are conducted annually.

In order to enhance the Group's system of handling inside information, and to ensure the truthfulness, accuracy, completeness and timeliness of its public disclosures, the Group also adopts and implements an inside information policy and procedures. Certain reasonable measures have been adopted from time to time to ensure that proper safeguards exist to prevent a breach of a disclosure requirement in relation to the Group, which include:

- restricting the access of information to a limited number of employees on a need-to-know basis. Employees who are in possession of inside information are fully conversant with their obligations to preserve confidentiality;

- confidentiality agreements are in place when the Group enters into significant negotiations;

- the Executive Directors are designated persons who speak on behalf of the Company when communicating with external parties such as the media, analysts or investors; and

- the Company has a retained compliance adviser and legal adviser during the Year and have consulted them in the event where inside information may have arisen.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

INTRODUCTION

The Group is a daily household products producer with a strategic business focus on the production and sales of oral care products which mainly include functional toothpastes, as well as household products and leather care products in the PRC. The headquarter and production facilities of the Group are based in Jiangyin City, Jiangsu Province, the PRC.

The Group highly recognises its corporate social responsibility owed to the society. The Group has always considered promoting high environmental and social standards in the daily operations as one of its core commitments. As such, the Group has been adopting environment and social friendly measures and keeping up with the industry best practice with a view to achieve sustainability and transparency, and to avoid negative environmental and social impacts arising from its business operations.

SCOPE AND REPORTING PERIOD

As such, the Group is pleased to present this environmental, social and governance ("ESG") report (this "Report"). This ESG Report captures the Group's ESG performance for the Year, and it is prepared in accordance with the requirements set out in the ESG Reporting Guide, Appendix 20 of the GEM Listing Rules.

This ESG Report focuses on the Group's operation at its headquarter, and production facilities in respect of their ESG performances for the Year, unless otherwise stated. The Group has complied with the "comply or explain" provisions set out in the ESG Reporting Guide for the Year.

STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT AND MATERIALITY

The Group has maintained close communication with its stakeholders since Listing. For this ESG report, the Group undertook regular assessments that included input from internal and external stakeholders, including investors, Shareholders, and employees of the Group to identify and discuss important issues that have a direct bearing on its operations and potential growth.

STAKEHOLDERS' FEEDBACK

The Group welcomes stakeholders' feedback on its ESG approach and performance. Please send your comments and feedback on the ESG Report or on the Group's ESG approach to xiangdongliang@126.com.

A. ENVIRONMENT

To demonstrate the Group's commitment to sustainable development and its compliance with the applicable laws and regulations in relation to environmental protection, the Group endeavours to minimise the environmental impact of business activities and to promote the concept of green operation and green office practice.

The Group has incorporated measures to minimise energy consumption and environmental pollution from its production activities, such as adopting environmentally friendly methods of waste disposal, and providing regular trainings to employees to increase their environmental awareness. The Group has also appointed a dedicated employee to closely monitor the Group's compliance with the applicable laws and regulations, and to review and update the Group's internal environmental protection policy (the "Environmental Protection Policy"). The employee is also obliged to make regular reports to the management team, where the management team has the overall responsibility for overseeing matters concerning environmental protection within the Group. The management team reviews the Group's environmental compliance on a quarterly basis and deals with environmental pollution accidents on occurrence.

The Group maintains the environmental management system in conformity with the internationally applied environmental protection system requirement – ISO14001:2004. The Group has been accredited by the certification body recognised by the General Administration of Quality Supervision, Inspection and Quarantine of the People's Republic of China (國家質量監督檢驗檢疫總局) (the "AQSIQ") since 2009. In 2019, the Group was recognised as an advanced enterprise in ecological civilization construction (生態文明建設先進企業) by the Jiangyin Environmental Protection Committee* (江陰市環境保護委員會) under the appraisal system. In November 2019, the company was recognized as an outstanding company with the China environmental label (中國環境標誌優秀企業) by the Environmental development center of Ministry of ecological environment (生態環境部生態發展中心). In December 2019, the company obtained the certificate of integration of the Information and Industrialization (兩化融合) and management systems (工業化和信息化管理體系). In February 2021, the Group was accredited with the Certificate of Energy Management System (能源管理體系認證證書) for compliance with the standard ISO50001:2018. The directors believe that this will contribute positively to strengthening the Group's ability to save energy and reduce emissions.

EMISSIONS

The carbon foot prints arising from the Group's daily operations is primarily from emissions of a small amount of waste water, solid waste, and to a lesser extent, gas. To comply with the applicable laws and regulations, and the Group's Environmental Protection Policy, the Group has been conducting regular assessments on air and greenhouse gas emissions of the production facilities, and on the handling of hazardous and non-hazardous waste disposal against the relevant national standards. In accordance with relevant environmental laws and regulations and our relevant environmental policies, the Group must ensure that national emissions standards are met. The applicable PRC national environmental laws and regulations also require the payment of fees in connection with activities that involve the discharge of waste materials. Fines and other penalties will be imposed on facilities that threaten the environment. During the Year, the Group possessed the necessary pollutant discharging licences issued by competent environment protection authorities for discharging waste water, solid waste and gas.

The key performance index ("KPI") of the Group for the Year is as follows:

Air emissions

The Group did not generate much air emissions from its production. The air pollutants generated by the Group included nitrogen oxide ("NO_x"), sulphur oxide ("SO_x") and particulate matters ("PM"), which arose primarily from the petroleum and diesel consumption for transportation. During the Year, the air emissions data is as follows:

Categories	Quantity	Unit	Intensity – Unit per employees
Nitrogen oxide (NO_x) emissions

Greenhouse gas emissions

The consumption of electricity and steam in the Group's production facilities and the office, and the consumption of petroleum and diesel for transportation constitute the major sources of greenhouse gas ("GHG") emissions of the Group. During the Year, the GHG emissions data is as follows:

Categories	Quantity	Unit	Intensity – Unit per employees
Carbon dioxide emissions
Direct GHG emission from operation	279.38	tonnes	1.02
Direct GHG emission from petroleum and diesel consumption	148.52	tonnes	0.54
Indirect GHG emission from electricity consumption	895.54	tonnes	3.3
Indirect GHG emission from steam consumption	479.37	tonnes	1.76
Indirect GHG emission from flight travels	13.11	tonnes	0.05
Less: Deduction of GHG emission from planting trees	(3.25)	tonnes	(0.01)
Total carbon dioxide emissions	1812.77	tonnes	6.64
Methane
Direct GHG emission from operation	2.52	kg	0.01
Direct GHG emission from petroleum and diesel consumption	12.27	kg	0.04
Total methane emissions	14.78	kg	0.05
Nitrous oxide
Direct GHG emission from operation	0.79	kg	0
Direct GHG emission from petrol and diesel consumption	38.44	kg	0.14
Total nitrous oxide emissions	39.23	kg	0.14

Apart from the launch of initiatives mentioned under the heading "Use of Resources", the Environmental Protection Policy also incorporates measures to reduce GHG emissions, such as:

- formulating and implementing award policy for Energy Conservation and Emission Reduction;
- realizing the integration of factory automation and information to avoid energy waste;
- recommending employees to choose direct flights to reduce GHG emissions for unavoidable business trips;
- setting up charging stations to encourage employees to purchase electric vehicles; and
- continuing to strengthen the integration of the manufacturing execution system and automated equipment, which is able to conduct massive data analysis in real time to reduce the production costs and lower the level of energy emissions per person.

During the Year, the electricity generated by our solar power increased by approximately 50,000 kWh or 2.9% from approximately 1.75 million kWh for the year ended 31 December 2019 to approximately 1.80 million KWh for the Year.

Since we made sustained measures to replace fossil energy by electricity, and approximately 58.6% of the total electricity consumed by the Group was generated by solar power, compared to 65% in 2019. As a result, total carbon dioxide emissions of the Group's operation dropped sharply in the past several years.

	2018	2019	2020
Total carbon dioxide emissions (Unit tonnes)	5654.39	3158.54	1812.77

Looking forward, the Group will continue to increase the energy generated from Photovoltaic and adopt various measures to reduce carbon dioxide emissions.

Waste Management

During the Year, the Group generated a small volume of waste which includes hazardous waste and non-hazardous waste. The hazardous waste generated from the daily operation of the Group mainly consisted of containers and packaging bags of chemicals, whereas the non-hazardous waste included general unrecyclable waste and paper used for operation, sales and marketing purposes.

Hazardous waste produced
The consumption volume of the hazardous waste produced by the Group for the Year is as follows:

Categories	Quantity	Unit	Intensity – Unit per employees
Containers of chemicals	0.138	tonnes	0.0005
Packaging bags of chemicals	1.6545	tonnes	0.0061
Activated carbon	0.66	tonnes	0.0024

Non-hazardous waste produced

The consumption volume of the non-hazardous waste produced by the Group for the Year is as follows:

Categories	Quantity	Unit	Intensity – Unit per employees
Paper	1.9	tonnes	0.007
General unrecyclable waste	35.18	tonnes	0.1289

During the Year, the Group has engaged a professional hazardous waste management company to dispose the Group's hazardous waste to avoid potential misplacement of hazardous waste. For non-hazardous waste, the general unrecyclable waste is handled by a local waste management company on daily basis. In addition, the carton containers made by paper would normally be reused for temporary storage during the production process before being disposed of at landfills. These measures have successfully reduced the volume of the Group's hazardous and non-hazardous waste.

During the Year, the volume of paper and unrecyclable waste consumed by the Group reduced approximately 5.00% and 20.41%, respectively, compared to 2019.

USE OF RESOURCES

The resources used by the Group were principally attributed to electricity and water consumed at its production facilities and office, and the petroleum and diesel consumed for transportation. The Group also used paper and plastics as the packaging materials of the finished products. The carton containers made by paper would normally be reused for temporary storage during the production process before disposed of at landfills. The Group endeavours to comply with the environmental laws and regulations to achieve efficient use of resources and to reduce waste and emissions. The Environmental Protection Policy encourages employees to reduce the use of resources and to promote efficient use of resources, some of the policies include:

- turning off unnecessary or unused lights and electronic appliances;
- using independent lighting and air-conditioning for different rooms;
- purchasing energy-efficient products and equipment;
- cleaning light fixtures and air conditioners regularly;
- increase the rate of efficiency of automated equipment and the manufacturing execution system and replace old equipment with new equipment that have higher energy saving features; and
- closely monitoring the utilisation of resources and reporting to senior management on this aspect of performance.

Energy consumption

The data of energy consumption which comprised the electricity and steam consumption in the production facilities, and the petroleum and diesel consumption from transportation for both 2020 and 2019 is as follows:

	At the end of 2020			At the end of 2019
Categories	Quantity	Unit	Intensity – Unit per employees	Quantity	Unit	Intensity – Unit per employees
Electricity	3,073,116	kWh	11,256	2,693,084	kWh	9,037
– purchase from power plant	1,272,980	kWh	4,663	943,302	kWh	3,615
– self-generated from solar energy panels	1,800,136	kWh	6,594	1,749,782	kWh	5,872
Steam	1,930	tonnes	7.1	2,453	tonnes	8
Petroleum and diesel	60,026	litre	220	67,564	litre	227

Water consumption

The data of the water consumption a in the production facilities and the office for the Year is as follows:

Categories	Quantity	Unit	Intensity – Unit per employees
Water	245,883	tonnes	900.67

The water consumed was purchased from a local water company with reliable water supply. The Group did not have any issue in sourcing water during the Year. The Group has been encouraging employees to use resources properly in order to conserve water. The company checks the water pipeline every three months to avoid water waste.

During the Year, the quantity of electricity and water consumed increased by approximately 2.9% and 9.4% respectively from the year ended 31 December 2019. The increase in the consumption of electricity is mainly attributable to the sustained measures to replace fossil energy by electricity. During the Year, the company maintained the solar power generation efficiency. In the future, the company will further increase the energy generated from Photovoltaic and decrease the quantity of electricity, generated from fossil fuels.

The increase in the consumption of water is mainly attributable to the surge in household hygiene products which are produced directly from our reliable water supplies.

Packaging materials used

The data of the use of packaging materials in the production facilities is as follows:

Categories	Quantity	Unit	Intensity – Unit per employees
Paper carton container	1,005	tonnes	3.7
Plastic	1,880	tonnes	6.9
Total packaging materials used	2,885	tonnes	10.6

THE ENVIRONMENT AND NATURAL RESOURCES

Due to the nature of the Group's business, apart from the above-mentioned emissions and resources usage, the Group did not have other significant impact on the environment and natural resources during its course of operation.

The Group has incorporated measures to minimise energy consumption and environmental pollution, such as adopting low energy consumption and pollution control techniques, implementing environmentally friendly methods of waste disposal, and providing regular trainings to employees to increase their environmental awareness. The Group has also appointed a dedicated employee to closely monitor the Group's compliance with the applicable laws and regulations, and to review and update the Environmental Protection Policy. The employee is also obliged to make regular reports to the management team, where the management team has the overall responsibility for overseeing matters concerning environmental protection within the Group. The management team reviews the Group's environmental compliance on a quarterly basis and deals with environmental pollution accidents on occurrence.

B. SOCIAL

The Group believes that its employees are the most valuable assets as they contribute significantly to the Group's success. Accordingly, the Group places high values on employees' rights and welfare to maintain good labour relationship and promote employee loyalty. The Group has adopted comprehensive human resources policies to manage its employment and labour relationship. The policies outlined the Group's compensation, working hours, rest periods, and other benefits and welfare in compliance with the application laws and regulations. The Group provides competitive employee benefits and comprehensive training programs to encourage employees to achieve their potential and put their abilities to good use. Furthermore, the Group regularly holds staff activities to enhance employees' sense of belonging and to foster a friendly and harmonious working environment.

EMPLOYMENT AND LABOR PRACTICES

Employment

The Group had a total number of 273 employees, as of 31 December 2020 (2019: 298), where all of them were full-time employees.

The age and gender distribution of employees as of 31 December 2020 are as follows:

	18–25	26–35	36–45	46–55	Above 56	Male	Female	Percentage
Age	24.2%	40.3%	29.3%	24.2%	5.5%			100%
Gender						36.6%	63.4%	100%

The age and gender distribution of employees as of 31 December 2019 are as follows:

	18–25	26–35	36–45	46–55	Above 56	Male	Female	Percentage
Age	5%	33%	36%	21%	5%			100%
Gender						34%	66%	100%

In accordance with the Labor Law of the PRC, the Labor Contract Law of the PRC and other applicable laws and regulations, the Group has strictly managed employment and established the Measures Governing Employment and Appointment (Tentative), etc, so as to practically protect the legal rights and interests of the employees.

When hiring new employees, the Group gives equal opportunities to people of all nationalities, races, genders, age groups or background. The Group strives to maintain an equal working environment with a view to avoiding discrimination or unfair treatment of any kind. For example, we have 5 disabled employees. Our aim is to create a friendly working environment where people possessing different sets of values and backgrounds can work with vitality and apply their capabilities to the fullest.

The average weekly working hours of the Group's employees were not more than 40 hours and their working hours were not more than eight hours. The group also limited overtime work to less than 36 hours a month. In 2020, there were no labor disputes caused by violation of laws and regulations.

Employees are regarded as the most valuable assets of the Group as they are the driving force behind the continuous innovations of the Group. The Group rewards and recognises high-performing employees by providing a competitive remuneration package, implementing a sound performance appraisal system with appropriate incentives, promoting career development and progression, and providing comprehensive trainings. In order to maintain a fair working environment and safeguard the well-being of employees, the Group welcomes opinions and suggestions from employees to enhance workplace productivity, unity, and harmony.

During the Year, the Group strictly complied with the applicable laws and regulations in the PRC, and the relevant administrative rules and measures adopted by the Group were strictly enforced. These rules and regulations specify the requirements in relation to employment, labor relationships, employees' remunerations and welfare to protect the rights of employees.

During the Year, the Group also strictly complied with the laws, regulations and policies regarding the Social Insurance Law in the PRC. The Group has paid social insurances and housing funds in a timely manner to all the employees.

Health and Safety

The Group is committed to protect employees' health and safety. Not only has the Group been complying with the applicable laws and regulations in the PRC with respect to occupational health and safety, the Group has successfully acquired the qualification of the internationally applied occupational health and safety management system of OHSAS18001:2007. Additionally, the Group places high emphasis on providing a safe workplace environment to employees, where the Group has been accredited by a certification body recognized by the AQSIQ since 2012, which demonstrates its workplace environment attests to a high safety standard. In 2020, the air conditionings was installed in all workshops. Moreover, the group provides its employees with annual health and medical welfare with the belief that the welfare could build a solid foundation for the safe operation of the Group.

Development and Training

Skilled employees who are capable of meeting the demands of the dynamic industry is crucial to the success of the Group. Hence, providing comprehensive training is critical to improve the overall work performance and personal development of the employees. The Group has continued to perfect and modify the employee training management system, establish a multi-level training system, and create various learning opportunities for the employees. The Group is of the belief that these measures could enhance the employees' competence, problem-solving skills, technical knowledge and overall performance. The Group also encourages employees to identify their personal development objectives and encourage them to grow together with the Group. In 2019, the staff members of the household hygiene products workshop were recognized as Jiangsu workers pioneer (工人先鋒號) by the Jiangsu federation of trade unions (江蘇總工會) for their work performance. And in 2020, the Group was awarded as a five-star working committee for the younger generation (五星級關工委) by Jiangyin government.

The Group provides induction trainings for new employees, where experienced employees act as mentors to guide new employees. This arrangement has enhanced the communication among employees, encouraged team spirit at the workplace, improved the technical skills and managerial capability of the employees, and promoted the concept of continuous learning. The trainings have been customised in accordance with the roles and responsibilities of the employees, where they have been mainly provided in areas such as human resources management, managerial skills, legal affairs, risk management, project running, financial and auditing, technical research and development, environmental protection, and occupational health and safety, etc. The Group also provides the latest industry trends and updates on the laws and regulations which are relevant to the Group's operations or to the employees' job responsibilities.

Labour Standards

The Group has adopted a recruitment management system, where verification of an applicant's identity and age is required during the recruitment process, and the recruitment of child labour is strictly prohibited. Every applicant is also required to provide document proof of academic qualifications and working experiences for verification purpose. Any applicant who is suspected to have false academic qualifications or working experiences will not be employed by the Group. From time to time, background checks of job candidates will be requested by the Group.

The Group provides its employees with a safe, healthy and comfortable working environment with adequate labour protection, reasonable remuneration and welfare. The Group was awarded the "Model Work's Home*" in 2019 by Jiangyin Federation of Trade Unions* (江陰市總工會).

The Group enters into employment contracts with its employees in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations in the PRC. The Group also prohibits forced labour.

OPERATING PRACTICES

Supply Chain Management

To provide top quality services to customers, the Group carefully sourced its raw materials, packaging materials and equipment with standardised procurement policies (the "Procurement Policy"). The Procurement Policy and the Group's comprehensive procurement management systems aim to screen out undesirable raw materials, packaging materials and equipment, and to enhance product formulation, product packaging, quality management system in factories, and transportation, etc.

Suppliers of raw materials, packaging materials and equipment have been selected based upon rational and clear criteria, such as business reputation, technical skills, quality consistency, and the supplier's compliance with national and/or industrial standards. The goal is for the Group to procure superior goods and services from the most competitive suppliers. Apart from sourcing, conducting proper risk management is equally important to the Group. Anticipating and mitigating the impact of an unexpected interruption in the delivery of goods and materials can keep the Group running smoothly.

The Group's research and development department sets out product specifications for the suppliers to follow, while the quality control department performs sample tests to ensure that goods and materials received by the Group are of desirable quality and in compliance with the requested specifications before they are accepted and transferred to the warehouse.

Product Responsibility

The Group aims to achieve the highest possible standard for all the products sold. The Group has established product responsibility policies to assure product quality and safety (the "Product Responsibility Policy"). To ensure adherence to the Product Responsibility Policy, the Group has set up a dedicated quality control department with 9 employees, where all of them possess approximately 12 years of relevant industry experiences. They work in collaboration with the Group's research and development department, procurement department, and production and warehousing department to ensure that the products are of high quality and that the products comply with all legal and regulatory requirements pertaining to the health and safety, and other matters related to the Group's products. In 2020, 2 employees of quality control department were awarded by Jiangyin working committee of caring for younger generation for their excellent works.

The Group sends its products to product quality supervision and testing institutions for testing (i) before introducing new products to the market and (ii) on an annual basis. In addition, to ensure the safety and efficacy of the oral care products, the Group has engaged several reputable medical institutions to conduct clinical studies, toxicity tests and irritation tests on its oral care products. The test results demonstrated that the Group's oral care products could effectively suppress and prevent various oral problems and that the products would be safe for ordinary use by consumers.

The Group has obtained and maintained the necessary permits, licenses and approvals such as the National Industrial Product Manufacturer Licensing Certificates* (全國工業品生產許可證) and Disinfectant Products Manufacturer Licensing Certificates* (消毒產品生產許可證). It also maintains quality control of the design, development and production procedure of its products in conformity with the internationally applied quality management systems requirement – ISO9001:2008. The Group was accredited by the certification body recognised by AQSIQ since 2003. The certifications demonstrate that the quality control system has met a high degree of assurance.

The Group recognises that the quality of the products is crucial to the goodwill and image of the brand. The sales department and quality control department of the Group are responsible for processing any comments and/or complaints from customers. The Group is committed to and places heavy emphasis on the feedback of the customers with regards to its products. The Group has implemented after-sales services, such as customer service hotlines, manuals on handling customers' complaints and follow-up procedures. The Group generally deals with and processes the complaints in cooperation with relevant distributors or retailers and provides replies and solutions within 5 days.

Anti-corruption

The Group is a strong believer in upholding high ethical standards. It has strictly complied with the applicable laws and regulations in the PRC in relation to bribery, extortion, fraud and money-laundering, including the Criminal Law of the PRC.

The Group requires employees to strictly conform to the code of business ethics developed by the Group and it strives to put any corruption bribery act to an end as stipulated in the employment contract and the relevant policies of the Group. Any conflict of interest must be reported to the Group's management. Employees who engage in business operations and represent the Company are strictly prohibited to use business opportunities or the inherent power of their positions for personal interest or benefit.

COMMUNITY

Community Investment

The Group always seeks to be a positive force in the communities in which it operates. It strives to maintain close interactions with the communities to make contributions to the development of the communities.

The Group believes that the creation of a peaceful community relies on the cooperation of people, corporations and the government. By working together with various community partners, the Group believes it can bring a tremendous impact on the sustainable development of the communities in which it operates.

The Group will actively encourage employees to volunteer their time and skills to benefit the communities. This gives employees the opportunity to learn more about the social and environmental concerns, and improves their understandings of the Group's corporate values.

The Group will consider to make donations to charitable organisations by the time the Group records significant profit after tax deduction and possesses sufficient cash flow. During the Year, the Group donated RMB200,000 to Fudan University in order to help poor students and retired professors and donated large quantities of disinfection and sterilization products.

TO THE MEMBERS OF CHINA GOLDEN CLASSIC GROUP LIMITED

(incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of China Golden Classic Group Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Group") set out on pages 58 to 121, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2020, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, consolidated statement of changes in equity and consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2020, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (the "HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the "Code") and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

VALUATION OF INVENTORIES

Refer to note 18 to the consolidated financial statements and the accounting policies on pages 73.

The key audit matter	How the matter was addressed in our audit
We have identified valuation of inventories as a key audit matter because the Group has significant amount of inventories of approximately RMB33,622,000 representing 18% of the Group's current assets as at 31 December 2020. The management of the Group reviews ageing analysis of inventories at the end of each reporting period and makes allowance for obsolete and slow-moving items identified that are no longer suitable for sale or use. The Group makes allowance for inventories based on the assessment of the net realisable value. The management estimates the net realisable value for inventories based primarily on the latest invoice prices, the costs necessary to make the sale and current market conditions.	Our audit procedures were designed to assess the judgement and assumptions used by the management in calculating the inventory provisions. We reviewed management's identification of slow-moving and obsolete inventories, and critically assessed whether appropriate provisions had been established for slow-moving and obsolete items. When considering management's assessment, we have also taken into account the most recent prices achieved on sales across the product lines and the adequacy of provision for inventories. We have challenged the methodology and assumptions and compared to those used in prior years for consistency. We also assessed the reliability of management's assessment by considering the utilisation or release of previously recorded provisions and the net realiseable value for all classes of inventories.

RECOVERABILITY OF TRADE RECEIVABLES

Refer to note 19 to the consolidated financial statements and the accounting policies on pages 76–79.

The key audit matter	How the matter was addressed in our audit
We have identified recoverability of trade receivables as a key audit matter because the Group has significant amount of trade receivables of approximately RMB42,152,000 representing 22% of the Group's current assets as at 31 December 2020. The measurement of impairment losses under expected credit loss ("ECL") model across trade receivables requires management judgement, in particular, the impairment calculation adopted by the Group is based on the Group's historical credit loss experience and forward-looking information at the end of the reporting period. ECL are assessed collectively using a provision matrix with appropriate groupings. The allowance for impairment of trade receivables is considered to be a matter of significance as it requires the application of judgement and use of subjective assumptions by management.	Our procedures were designed to review the management's assessment of the ECL and challenge the reasonableness of the methods and assumptions used to estimate the allowance for doubtful debts. We have considered element of the ECL model that affect the judgements and estimates, including the internal credit grading model with individual grades of customers, criteria for assessing determination of forward looking information. We have assessed the reasonableness of management's loss allowance estimates by examining the information used by management to form such judgements, including evaluating whether the historical loss rates are appropriately adjusted based on current economic conditions and forward-looking information and examining the actual losses recorded and assessing whether there was an indication of management bias when recognising loss allowances.

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors of the Company (the "Directors") are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all of the information included in the annual report other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND THOSE CHARGED WITH GOVERNANCE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the Directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the Directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion, solely to you, as a body, in accordance with our agreed terms of engagement, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Directors.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Tang Kwan Lai.

1. GENERAL

China Golden Classic Group Limited (the "Company") is an investment holding company and its subsidiaries (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Group") are principally engaged in the manufacture and trading of oral care, leather care and household hygiene products.

The Company was incorporated in the Cayman Islands on 29 July 2015 as an exempted company with limited liability under the Cayman Companies Law, Chapter 22 (Law 3 of 1961, as combined and revised) of the Cayman Islands. The address of its registered office and principal place of business is Flat B, 19/F, Times Media Centre, 133 Wan Chai Road, Wan Chai, Hong Kong. The Company's shares were listed on GEM of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange").

The functional currency of the Company and the Group's principal subsidiaries is Renminbi ("RMB"). As the Group mainly operates in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC"), the directors of the Company consider that it is appropriate to present the consolidated financial statements in RMB.

2. APPLICATION OF NEW AND AMENDMENTS TO HONG KONG FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS ("HKFRS(s)")

In the current year, the Group has applied, for its first time, the Amendments to References to the Conceptual Framework in Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") and the following amendments to HKFRSs issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (the "HKICPA") which are effective for the Group's financial year beginning 1 January 2020:

Amendments to HKFRS 3	Definition of a Business
Amendments to HKAS 1 and HKAS 8	Definition of Material
Amendments to HKFRS 9, HKAS 39 and HKFRS 7	Interest Rate Benchmark Reform

The application of the Amendments to References to the Conceptual Framework in HKFRSs and the amendments to HKFRSs in the current year has had no material impact on the Group's financial performance and position for the current and prior years and/or on the disclosures set out in these consolidated financial statements.

2. APPLICATION OF NEW AND AMENDMENTS TO HONG KONG FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS ("HKFRS(s)") (Continued)

New and amendments to HKFRSs issued but not yet effective

The Group has not early applied the following new and amendments to HKFRSs that have been issued but are not yet effective:

HKFRS 17	Insurance Contracts and related Amendments[5]
Amendments to HKFRS 3	Reference to Conceptual Framework[3]
Amendments to HKFRS 10 and HKAS 28	Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture[2]
Amendments to HKAS 1	Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current and the related amendments to Hong Kong Interpretation 5 (2020) Presentation of Financial Statements – Classification by the Borrower of a Term Loan that Contains a Repayment on Demand Clause[5]
Amendments to HKAS 16	Property, plant and equipment: Proceeds before intended use[3]
Amendments to HKAS 37	Onerous contracts – Cost of Fulfilling a Contract[3]
Amendments to HKFRS 9, HKAS 39, HKFRS 7, HKFRS 4 and HKFRS 16	Interest Rate Benchmark Reform – Phase 2[1]
Amendment to HKFRS 16	COVID-19-Related Rent Concessions[4]
Amendment to HKFRSs	Annual improvement to HKFRSs 2018–2020 cycle[3]

1 Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2021.
2 Effective for annual periods beginning on or after a date to be determined.
3 Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022.
4 Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 June 2020.
5 Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023.

The directors of the Company anticipate that the application of the new and amendments to HKFRSs will have no material impact on the results and the financial position of the Group.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA. In addition, the consolidated financial statements include applicable disclosures required by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on GEM of the Stock Exchange and by the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for financial asset that are measured at fair values, at the end of each reporting period. Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants in the principal (or most advantageous) market at the measurement date under current market conditions (i.e. an exit price) regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique.

The principal accounting policies are set out below.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and entities controlled by the Company and its subsidiaries. If a subsidiary prepares its financial statements using accounting policies other than those adopted in the consolidated financial statements for like transactions and events in similar circumstances, appropriate adjustments are made to that subsidiary's financial statements in preparing the consolidated financial statements to ensure conformity with the Group's accounting policies.

Control is achieved where the Group has: (i) the power over the investee; (ii) exposure, or rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and (iii) the ability to use its power over the investee to affect the amount of the Group's returns.

The Company reassesses whether it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of these elements of control stated above.

Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Group obtains control of the subsidiary and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiary.

Income and expenses of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income from the date the Group gains control and until the date when the Group ceases to control the subsidiary.

All intra-group assets, liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between entities of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognised to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. Specifically, the Group uses a 5-step approach to revenue recognition:

- Step 1: Identify the contract(s) with a customer
- Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 3: Determine the transaction price
- Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 5: Recognise revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation

The Group recognised revenue when (or as) a performance obligation is satisfied, i.e. when "control" of the goods or services underlying the particular performance obligation is transferred to customers.

A performance obligation represents a good or service (or a bundle of goods or services) that is distinct or a series of distinct goods or services that are substantially same.

Control is transferred over time and revenue is recognised over time by reference to the progress towards complete satisfaction of the relevant performance obligation if one of the following criteria is met:

- The customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group's performance as the Group performs;
- The Group's performance creates and enhances an asset that the customer controls as the asset is created and enhanced; or
- The Group's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use to the Group and the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

Otherwise, revenue is recognised at a point in time when the customer obtains control of the distinct goods or service.

Revenue is measured based on the consideration specified in a contract with a customer, excludes amounts collected on behalf of third parties, discounts and sales related taxes.

Contract liabilities

A contract liability represents the Group's obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Group has received consideration from the customer.

The Group manufactures and sells a range of oral care products, leather care products and household hygiene products to external customers.

Revenue from sale of goods is recognised at the point when control of the products has been transferred, being when the products are delivered to the customers' designated location and the customers have inspected and accepted the products. Customers have full discretion over the channel and price to sell the products, and there is no more unfulfilled obligation that could affect the acceptance of the products. The risks of obsolescence and loss have been transferred to the customers when either the customer has accepted the products in accordance with the sales contract, or the Group has objective evidence that all criteria for acceptance have been satisfied.

The Group typical receives a deposit on acceptance of sale order, giving rise to a contract liability until the customer obtains control of the goods.

The Group's obligations to provide a refund for faulty products are under the standard warranty terms. Accumulated experience is used to estimate such returns at the time of sales. Because of the large size and low value of each individual product, the amounts of products returned were immaterial. It is highly probable that a significant reversal in the cumulative revenue recognised will not occur. Therefore, no refund liability for goods return was recognised. The validity of this assumption and the estimated amount of returns are reassessed at each reporting date.

Consideration payable to a customer
Consideration payable to a customer includes rebate for promotional activities at customers' location that the Group pays, or expects to pay, to the customer. Consideration payable to a customer also includes credit or other items that can be applied against amounts owed to the Group. The Group accounts for consideration payable to a customer as a reduction of the transaction price and, therefore, of revenue as the payment is not exchange for distinct good or service that the customer transfers to the Group. The Group recognises such reduction of revenue when (or as) the later of either of the following events occurs:

- The Group recognises revenue for the transfer of the related goods or services to the customer; and

- The Group pays or promises to pay the consideration (even if the payment is conditional on a future event).

Leasing

Definition of a lease
A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys a right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

The Group as lessee
For contracts entered into or modified on or after the date of initial application, the Group assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease, at inception of the contract or modification date. The Group recognises a right-of-use asset and a corresponding lease liability with respect to all lease arrangements in which it is the lessee, except for short-term leases (defined as leases with a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option) and leases of low value assets. For these leases, the Group recognises the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease unless another systematic basis is more representative of the time pattern in which economic benefits from the leased assets are consumed.

Lease liabilities
At the commencement date of a lease, the Group measures lease liability at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at that date. The lease payments are discounted by using the interest rate implicit in the lease. If this rate cannot be readily determined, the Group uses its incremental borrowing rate.

Lease payments included in the measurement of the lease liability comprise:

- fixed lease payments (including in-substance fixed payments), less any lease incentives receivable; and

- the exercise price of purchase options if the lessee is reasonably certain to exercise the options.

The lease liability is presented as a separate line in the consolidated statement of financial position.

The lease liability is subsequently measured by increasing the carrying amount to reflect interest on the lease liability (using the effective interest method) and by reducing the carrying amount to reflect the lease payments made.

Leasing (Continued)

Lease liability is remeasured (and with a corresponding adjustment to the related right-of-use asset) whenever:

- the lease term has changed or there is a change in the assessment of exercise of a purchase option, in which case the lease liability is remeasured by discounting the revised lease payments using revised discount rate.

- a lease contract is modified and the lease modification is not accounted for as a separate lease, in which case the lease liability is remeasured based on the lease term of the modified lease by discounting the revised lease payments using a revised discount rate at the effective date of the modification.

Right-of-use assets

The right-of-use assets comprise the initial measurement of the corresponding lease liability, lease payments made at or before the commencement date and any initial direct costs, less lease incentives received. Whenever the Group incurs an obligation for costs to dismantle and remove a leased asset, restore the site on which it is located or restore the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease, provision is recognised and measured under HKAS 37 "Provision, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets". The costs are included in the related right-of-use asset, unless those costs are incurred to produce inventories.

Right-of-use assets are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. They are depreciated over the shorter period of lease term and useful life of the underlying asset. The depreciation starts at the commencement date of the lease.

The Group presents right-of-use assets as a separate line item in the consolidated statement of financial position.

The Group applies HKAS 36 to determine whether a right-of-use asset is impaired and accounts for any identified impairment loss.

The Group as lessor

The Group enters into lease agreements as a lessor with respect to some of its equipments and buildings. Leases for which the Group is a lessor are classified as operating leases.

When a contract includes both lease and non-lease components, the Group applies HKFRS 15 to allocate the consideration under the contract to each component.

Rental income from operating leases is recognised on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognised on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Foreign currencies

In preparing the financial statements of each individual entity, transactions in currencies other than the functional currency of that entity (foreign currencies) are recorded in the respective functional currency (i.e. the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates) at the rates of exchanges prevailing on the dates of the transactions. At the end of the reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items, and on the retranslation of monetary items, are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

For the purposes of presenting the consolidated financial statements, the assets and liabilities of the Group's foreign operation are translated into the presentation currency of the Company (i.e. RMB) using exchange rates prevailing at the end of each reporting period. Income and expenses items are translated at the average exchange rates for the year. Exchange differences arising, if any, are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity under the heading of translation reserve.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sales, are added to the cost of those assets until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

Government grants

Government grants are not recognised until there is reasonable assurance that the Group will comply with the conditions attaching to them and that the grants will be received.

Government grants that are receivable as compensation for expenses or losses already incurred or for the purpose of giving immediate financial support to the Group with no future related costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they become receivable.

Research and development expenditure

Expenditure on research activities is recognised as an expense in the period in which it is incurred.

Retirement benefits costs

Payments to the PRC local government defined contribution retirement scheme pursuant to the relevant labour rules and regulations in the PRC and the Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme (the "MPF Scheme") are recognised as an expense when employees have rendered service entitling them to the contributions.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Short-term employee benefits

A liability is recognised for benefits accruing to employees in respect of wages and salaries in the period the related service is rendered at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid in exchange for that service.

Liabilities recognised in respect of short-term employee benefits are measured at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid in exchange for the related service.

Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from 'profit before tax' as reported in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income because it excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and it further excludes items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary difference between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statement and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary difference to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from goodwill or from the initial recognition of other assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences associated with such investments are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that there will be sufficient taxable profits against which to utilise the benefits of the temporary differences and they are expected to reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset is realised, based on tax rate (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Taxation (Continued)

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either (i) the same taxable entity; or (ii) different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered.

Current and deferred taxes are recognised in profit or loss.

Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost less subsequent accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Ownership interests in leasehold land and buildings
When the Group makes payments for ownership interests of properties which includes both leasehold land and building elements, the entire consideration is allocated between the leasehold land and the building elements in proportion to the relative fair values at initial recognition. To the extent the allocation of the relevant payments can be made reliably, interest in leasehold land is presented as "right-of-use assets" in the consolidated statement of financial position. When the consideration cannot be allocated reliably between non-lease building element and undivided interest in the underlying leasehold land, the entire properties are classified as property, plant and equipment.

Depreciation is recognised so as to allocate the cost of items of property, plant and equipment (other than construction in progress), less their residual values over their estimated useful lives, using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

Construction in progress includes property, plant and equipment in the course of construction for production, supply or administrative purposes. Construction in progress is carried at cost less any recognised impairment loss. Costs include professional fees and, for qualifying assets, borrowing costs capitalised in accordance with the Group's accounting policy. Construction in progress is classified to the appropriate categories of property, plant and equipment when completed and ready for intended use. Depreciation of these assets, on the same basis as other property assets, commences when the assets are ready for their intended use.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in profit or loss.

Intangible assets acquired separately

Intangible assets with finite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at costs less accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses. Amortisation for intangible assets with finite useful lives is recognised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The estimated useful life and amortisation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis.

An intangible asset is derecognised on disposal, or when no future economic benefits are expected from use or disposal. Gains or losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset are measured at the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognised in profit or loss in the period when the asset is derecognised.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Costs of inventories are calculated using the weighted average method. Net realisable value represented the estimated selling price for inventories less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sales.

When inventories are sold, the carrying amount of those inventories is recognised as cost of goods sold in the period in which the related revenue is recognised. The amount of any write-down of inventories to net realisable value and all losses of inventories are recognised as an expense in the period the write-down or loss occurs. The amount of any reversal of any write-down of inventories is recognised as a reduction in the amount of inventories recognised as an expense in the period in which the reversal occurs.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and short-term deposits in the consolidated statement of financial position comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with a maturity of three months or less.

For the purpose of the consolidated statements of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of bank balances and cash as defined above.

Investments in subsidiaries

Investments in subsidiaries are stated on the statement of financial position of the Company at cost less accumulated impairment loss.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position when a group entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value, except for trade receivables arising from contracts with customers which are initially measured in accordance with HKFRS 15. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets at FVTPL) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets at FVTPL are recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Financial assets

All regular way purchases or sales of financial assets are recognised and derecognised on a trade date basis. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame established by regulation or convention in the marketplace.

All recognised financial assets are subsequently measured in their entirety at either amortised cost or fair value, depending on the classification of the financial assets. The Group's financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, as subsequently measured at amortised cost and FVTPL.

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Group's business model for managing them.

Financial assets at amortised cost (debt instruments)
The Group measures financial assets subsequently at amortised cost if both of the following conditions are met:

- the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and

- the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured using the effective interest method and are subject to impairment.

Financial assets at amortised cost (debt instruments) (Continued)

(i) Amortised cost and effective interest method

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a debt instrument and of allocating interest income over the relevant period.

The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) excluding expected credit losses, through the expected life of the debt instrument, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the gross carrying amount of the debt instrument on initial recognition.

The amortised cost of a financial asset is the amount at which the financial asset is measured at initial recognition minus the principal repayments, plus the cumulative amortisation using the effective interest method of any difference between that initial amount and the maturity amount, adjusted for any loss allowance. The gross carrying amount of a financial asset is the amortised cost of a financial asset before adjusting for any loss allowance.

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method for debt instruments measured subsequently at amortised cost. Interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset, except for financial assets that have subsequently become credit-impaired (see below). For financial assets that have subsequently become credit-impaired, interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate to the amortised cost of the financial asset. If, in subsequent reporting periods, the credit risk on the credit-impaired financial instrument improves so that the financial asset is no longer credit-impaired, interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of the financial asset.

Interest income is recognised in profit or loss and is included in the "Other income and gain" line item (note 8).

Financial assets at FVTPL

Financial assets that do not meet the criteria for being measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVTOCI") are measured at FVTPL. Specifically:

- Investments in equity instruments are classified as at FVTPL, unless the Group designates an equity investment that is neither held for trading nor a contingent consideration arising from a business combination as at FVTOCI on initial recognition.

- Debt instruments that do not meet amortised cost criteria or the FVTOCI criteria are classified as FVTPL.

Financial assets at FVTPL are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period, with any fair value gains or losses recognised in profit or loss to the extent they are not part of a designated hedging relationship. The net gain or loss recognised in profit or loss excludes any dividend or interest earned on the financial asset and is included in the "other income and gain" line item. Fair value is determined in the manner described in note 6.

A financial asset is held for trading if:

- it has been acquired principally for the purpose of selling it in the near term; or

- on initial recognition, it is part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that the Group manages together and has evidence of a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or

- it is a derivative (except for a derivative that is a financial guarantee contract or a designated and effective hedging instrument).

Impairment of financial assets

The Group recognises a loss allowance for expected credit losses on investments in debt instruments that are measured at amortised cost. The amount of expected credit losses is updated at each reporting date to reflect changes in credit risk since initial recognition of the respective financial instrument.

The Group always recognises lifetime ECL for trade receivables. The expected credit losses are estimated using a provision matrix based on the Group's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors, general economic conditions and an assessment of both the current as well as the forecast direction of conditions at the reporting date, including time value of money where appropriate.

For all other financial instruments, the Group measures the loss allowance equal to 12-month ECL, unless when there has a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, the Group recognises lifetime ECL. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increase in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition.

Significant increase in credit risk

In assessing whether the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition. In making this assessment, the Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

In particular, the following information is taken into account when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition:

- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the financial instrument's external (if available) or internal credit rating;

- existing or forecast adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations;

- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtor;

- significant increases in credit risk on other financial instruments of the same debtor;

- an actual or expected significant adverse change in the regulatory, economic, or technological environment of the debtor that results in a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations.

Irrespective of the outcome of the above assessment, the Group presumes that the credit risk on a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due, unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information that demonstrates otherwise.

Despite the foregoing, the Group assumes that the credit risk on a debt instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition if the debt instrument is determined to have low credit risk at the reporting date. A financial instrument is determined to have low credit risk if i) the financial instrument has a low risk of default, ii) the borrower has a strong capacity to meet its contractual cash flow obligations in the near term, and iii) adverse changes in economic and business conditions in the longer term may, but will not necessarily, reduce the ability of the borrower to fulfill its contractual cash flow obligations. The Group considers a debt instrument to have low credit risk when the asset has external credit rating of 'investment grade' in accordance with the globally understood definition.

The Group regularly monitors the effectiveness of the criteria used to identify whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk and revises them as appropriate to ensure that the criteria are capable of identifying significant increase in credit risk before the amount becomes past due.

Definition of default

The Group considers the following as constituting an event of default for internal credit risk management purposes as historical experience indicates that receivables that meet either of the following criteria are generally not recoverable:

- when there is a breach of financial covenants by the debtor; or
- information developed internally or obtained from external sources indicates that the debtor is unlikely to pay its creditors, including the Group, in full (without taking into account any collaterals held by the Group).

The Group considers that default has occurred when a financial asset is more than one to two years past due unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information to demonstrate that a more lagging default criterion is more appropriate.

Credit-impaired financial assets

A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of that financial asset have occurred. Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes observable data about the following events:

- significant financial difficulty of the issuer or the borrower;
- a breach of contract, such as a default or past due event;
- the lender(s) of the borrower, for economic or contractual reasons relating to the borrower's financial difficulty, having granted to the borrower a concession(s) that the lender(s) would not otherwise consider;
- it is becoming probable that the borrower will enter into bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation; or
- the disappearance of an active market for that financial asset because of financial difficulties.

Write-off policy

The Group writes off a financial asset when there is information indicating that the debtor is in severe financial difficulty and there is no realistic prospect of recovery, e.g. when the counterparty has been placed under liquidation or has entered into bankruptcy proceedings, or in the case of trade receivables, when the amounts are over two to three years past due. Financial assets written off may still be subject to enforcement activities under the Group's recovery procedures, taking into account legal advice where appropriate. Any recoveries made are recognised in profit or loss.

Measurement and recognition of expected credit losses

The measurement of expected credit losses is a function of the probability of default, loss given default (i.e. the magnitude of the loss if there is a default) and the exposure at default. The assessment of the probability of default and loss given default is based on historical data adjusted by forward-looking information. As for the exposure at default, for financial assets, this is represented by the assets' gross carrying amount at the reporting date.

For financial assets, the expected credit loss is estimated as the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at the original effective interest rate.

If the Group has measured the loss allowance for a financial instrument at an amount equal to lifetime ECL in the previous reporting period, but determines at the current reporting date that the conditions for lifetime ECL are no longer met, the Group measures the loss allowance at an amount equal to 12-month ECL at the current reporting date, except for assets for which simplified approach was used.

The Group recognises an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss for all financial instruments with a corresponding adjustment to their carrying amount through a loss allowance account.

Derecognition of financial assets

The Group derecognises a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another party. If the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, the Group continues to recognise the financial asset and also recognises a collateralised borrowing for the proceeds received.

On derecognition of a financial asset measured at amortised cost, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable is recognised in profit or loss.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Classification as debt or equity
Debt and equity instruments issued by a group entity are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Financial liabilities
The Group's financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial liability and of allocating interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial liability, or (where appropriate) a shorter period, to the amortised cost of a financial liability.

Derecognition of financial liabilities
The Group derecognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or they expire. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in profit or loss.

Equity instruments
An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by a group entity are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Impairment losses on property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets

At the end of the reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets with finite useful lives to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss, if any. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. When a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be identified, corporate assets are also allocated to individual cash-generating unit, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of cash-generating units for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be identified.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or a cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or the cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. For corporate assets or portion of corporate assets which cannot be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis to a cash-generating unit, the Group compares the carrying amount of a group of cash-generating units, including the carrying amounts of the corporate assets or portion of corporate assets allocated to that group of cash-generating units, with the recoverable amount of the group of cash-generating units. In allocating the impairment loss, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill (if applicable) and then to the other assets on a pro-rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit or the group of cash-generating units. The carrying amount of an asset is not reduced below the highest of its fair value less costs of disposal (if measurable), its value in use (if determinable) and zero. The amount of the impairment loss that would otherwise have been allocated to the asset is allocated pro rata to the other assets of the unit or the group of cash-generating units. An impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or the cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (or the cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised as income immediately.

Fair value measurement

When measuring fair value, except for the Group's leasing transactions, net realisable value of inventories and value in use of asset for the purpose of impairment assessment, the Group takes into account the characteristics of the asset or liability if market participants would take those characteristics into account when pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs. Specifically, the Group categorised the fair value measurements into three levels, based on the characteristics of inputs, as follow:

Level 1 – Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 – Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable.

Level 3 – Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

At the end of the reporting period, the Group determines whether transfer occur between levels of the fair value hierarchy for assets and liabilities which are measured at fair value on recurring basis by reviewing their respective fair value measurement.

4. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENT AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

In the application of the Group's accounting policies, which are described in note 3, the directors of the Company are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and underlying assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

4. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENT AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY (Continued)

Critical judgement in applying accounting policies

The following is the critical judgement, apart from those involving estimations (see below), that the directors of the Company have made in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies and that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements.

Ownership of the buildings

Despite the Group has paid the full purchase consideration as detailed in note 15, formal titles of certain of the Group's buildings were not yet granted from the relevant government authorities. In the opinion of the directors of the Company, the absence of formal title to these buildings does not impair the value of the relevant assets and the ownership of the buildings to the Group.

Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The followings are the key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

Estimated allowance for inventories

The management of the Group reviews an ageing analysis of inventories at the end of each reporting period and makes allowance for obsolete and slow-moving items identified that are no longer suitable for sale or use. The Group makes allowance for inventories based on the assessment of the net realisable value. The management estimates the net realisable value for inventories based primarily on the latest invoice prices, the costs necessary to make the sale and current market conditions. As at 31 December 2020, the carrying amounts of inventories were approximately RMB33,622,000 (2019: RMB38,525,000), net of accumulated impairment loss of RMB3,300,000 (2019: RMB3,300,000).

Impairment loss of trade receivables

The impairment provisions for trade receivables are based on assumptions about ECL. The Group uses judgement in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation, bases on the number of days that an individual receivable is outstanding as well as the Group's historical experience and forward-looking information at the end of the reporting period. Changes in these assumptions and estimates could materially affect the result of the assessment and it may be necessary to make additional impairment charge to the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income. The ECL are assessed collectively using a provision matrix with appropriate groupings. At 31 December 2020, the carrying amount of trade receivables is approximately RMB42,152,000 (2019: RMB45,567,000), net of impairment loss of RMB458,000 (2019: RMB549,000).

Estimated useful lives and impairment of property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment, if any. The estimation of useful lives impacts the level of annual depreciation expenses recorded. In determining whether an asset is impaired, the Group has to exercise judgement and make estimation, particularly in assessing: (1) whether an event has occurred or any indicators that may affect the asset value; (2) whether the carrying value of an asset can be supported by the recoverable amount, in the case of value-in-use, the net present value of future cash flows which are estimated based upon the continued use of the asset; and (3) the appropriate key assumptions to be applied in estimating the recoverable amounts including cash flow projections and an appropriate discount rate. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the assets belongs.

As at 31 December 2020, the carrying amounts of property, plant and equipment were RMB147,161,000 (2019: RMB149,904,000). Impairment loss of RMB708,000 (2019: Nil) is recognised during the year ended 31 December 2020.

5. CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group manages its capital to ensure that entities within the Group will be able to continue as a going concern while maximising the return to stakeholder through the optimisation of the debt and equity balance. The Group's overall strategy remained unchanged throughout the reporting period.

The capital structure of the Group consists of bank borrowings, bank balances and cash and equity attributable to owners of the Company, comprising issued share capital and reserves.

The directors of the Company review the capital structure of the Group periodically. As part of this review, the directors of the Company consider the cost of capital and the risks associated with each class of capital. Based on recommendations of the directors of the Company, the Group will balance its overall capital structure through new share issues. The directors of the Company will also consider the raise of additional borrowings as additional capital.

The directors of the Company also endeavor to ensure the steady and reliable cash flows from the normal business operation.

6. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

(a) Categories of financial instruments

	2020 RMB'000	2019 RMB'000

	131,217	143,652
Financial liabilities
Financial liabilities at amortised cost	80,181	120,175

(b) Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Group's major financial instruments include trade and other receivables, financial assets at FVTPL, bank balances and cash, trade and other payables and bank borrowings. Details of these financial instruments are disclosed in respective notes. The risks associated with these financial instruments included credit risk, market risk (interest rate risk) and liquidity risk. The policies on how to mitigate these risks are set out below. The management manages and monitors these exposures to ensure appropriate measures are implemented on a timely and effective manner.

Credit risk

As at 31 December 2020, the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk which will cause a financial loss to the Group due to failure to discharge an obligation by the counterparties is arising from the carrying amount of the respective recognised financial assets as stated in the consolidated statement of financial position.

The credit risk of the Group mainly arises from cash and cash equivalents and trade and other receivables. The carrying amounts of these balances represent the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in relation to financial assets.

In order to minimise the credit risk, the management of the Group has delegated a team responsible for determination of credit limits, credit approvals and other monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up action is taken to recover overdue debts. In addition, the Group reviews the recoverability of each individual trade debt at the end of the reporting period to ensure that adequate impairment losses are made. In this regard, the directors of the Company consider that the Group's credit risk is significantly reduced.

For trade receivables, the Group has applied the simplified approach in HKFRS 9 to measure the loss allowance at lifetime ECL. The Group determines the ECL by using a provision matrix, estimated based on historical credit loss experience, as well as the general economic conditions of the industry in which the debtors operate. In this regard, the directors of the Company consider that the Group's credit risk is significantly reduced.

6. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT (Continued)

For other non-traded related receivables, the Group has assessed whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. If there has been a significant increase in credit risk, the Group will measure the loss allowance based on lifetime rather than 12-month ECL.

The credit risk on liquid funds is limited because the counterparties are banks with high credit ratings assigned by international credit-rating agencies.

As at 31 December 2020, the Group has concentration of credit risk as 3% (2019: 3%) and 15% of the total trade receivables (2019: 23%) was due from the Group's largest customer and the top five customers respectively.

The Group's concentration of credit risk by geographical locations is mainly in the PRC, which accounted for approximately 91% (2019: 99%) of the total trade receivables as at 31 December 2020.

The Group's current credit risk grading framework comprises the following categories:

Category	Description	Basis for recognising ECL
Performing	For financial assets where there has low risk of default or has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition and that are not credit impaired (refer to as Stage 1)	12-month ECL
Doubtful	For financial assets where there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition but that are not credit impaired (refer to as Stage 2)	Lifetime ECL – not credit impaired
Default	Financial assets are assessed as credit impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of that asset have occurred (refer to as Stage 3)	Lifetime ECL – credit impaired
Write-off	There is evidence indicating that the debtor is in severe financial difficulty and the Group has no realistic prospect of recovery	Amount is written off

The credit quality of the Group's financial assets as well as the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk by credit risk rating grades are as follows:

	Internal credit rating	12-month or lifetime ECL	2020 Gross carrying amount RMB'000	2020 Loss allowance RMB'000	2020 Net carrying amount RMB'000	2019 Gross carrying amount RMB'000	2019 Loss allowance RMB'000	2019 Net carrying amount RMB'000
Trade receivable	Note	lifetime ECL (not credit – impaired)	42,433	(281)	42,152	45,939	(372)	45,567
Trade receivable	Note	lifetime ECL (credit – impaired)	177	(177)	–	177	(177)	–
Other receivable	Performing	lifetime ECL (not credit – impaired)	3,465	–	3,465	6,242	–	6,242

Note: The Group has applied simplified approach in HKFRS 9 to measure the loss allowance at lifetime ECL.

The carrying amount of the Group's financial assets at FVTPL as disclosed in note 20 best represents their respective maximum exposure to credit risk. The Group holds no collateral over any of these balances.

Market risk

Interest rate risk

As at 31 December 2020, the Group was exposed to fair value interest rate risk in relation to fixed-rate bank borrowings (see note 23 for details). The Group is also exposed to cash flow interest rate risk in relation to variable-rate bank balances (see note 21 for details) (2019: variable rate bank borrowings and bank balances).

The Group's exposures to interest rates on financial liabilities are detailed in the liquidity risk management section of this note. The Group's cash flow interest rate risk is mainly concentrated on the fluctuation of the RMB base deposit/lending rate stipulated by the People's Bank of China arising from the Group's RMB denominated bank balances and bank borrowings.

6. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT (Continued)

Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on the exposure to interest rates for variable-rate bank borrowings. Bank balances are excluded from sensitivity analysis as a reasonably possible change in interest rates is not expected to have a material impact to the Group's profit for the year. The sensitivity analysis is prepared assuming the bank borrowings outstanding at the end of each reporting period were outstanding for the whole year. The basis point increase or decrease used represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in interest rates.

For variable-rate bank borrowings, if the interest rates had been 200 basis points higher/lower and all other variables were held constant which was considered reasonably possible at the end of the respective reporting period, the Group's profit for the year ended 31 December 2019 would decrease/increase by approximately RMB1,020,000. No sensitivity analysis was prepared for the year ended 31 December 2020 as there was no variable-rate bank borrowings as at 31 December 2020.

Liquidity risk

Individual operating entities within the Group are responsible for their own cash management, including cash, current working capital and the raising of funds. The Group's policy is to regularly monitor current and expected liquidity requirements to ensure that it maintains sufficient reserves of cash and current working capital to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term.

In the management of the liquidity risk, the Group obtains financing deemed adequate by the management to finance its operations.

The following table details the Group's remaining contractual maturities for their financial liabilities, based on undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities on the earliest date on which the Group can be required to pay. The maturity dates for other financial liabilities are based on the agreed repayment dates.

The table includes both interest and principal cash flows. To the extent that interest flows are floating rate, the undiscounted amount is derived from interest rate that exists at the end of the reporting period.

(c) Fair values of financial instruments

The following table provides an analysis of financial instruments that are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period for recurring and non-recurring measurement, grouped into Levels 1 to 3 based on the degree to which the fair value is observable in accordance to the Group's accounting policy.

	Fair value hierarchy	Valuation techniques and key inputs	As at 31 December 2020 RMB'000	As at 31 December 2019 RMB'000	Significant unobservable inputs	Expected return rate	Relationship of key inputs and significant unobservable inputs to fair value
Financial assets at FVTPL
Wealth management products	Level 3	Discounted cash flow method with estimated yield rate as the key input	10,940	10,972	Yield rate	9.8% (2019: 9.8%)	The higher the yield rate, the higher the fair value

Reconciliation of Level 3 fair value measurements of financial assets on recurring basis:

	2020 RMB'000	2019 RMB'000
Balance at beginning of the year	10,972	–
Purchases	77,900	30,000
Disposal	(80,492)	(20,361)
Fair value gain recognised in other income	2,560	1,333
Balance at end of the year	10,940	10,972

The directors of the Company consider that the carrying amounts of other financial assets and financial liabilities recorded at amortised cost in the consolidated financial statements approximate their fair values due to their short-term maturities.

7. REVENUE AND SEGMENT INFORMATION

Information reported to the executive directors of the Company, being the chief operating decision maker ("CODM"), for the purposes of resource allocation and assessment of segment performance focuses on types of goods or services delivered or provided. No operating segments identified by the chief operating decision maker have been aggregated in arriving at the reportable segments of the Group.

Specifically, the Group's reportable and operating segments are as follows:

1) Oral care products segment reports manufacture and sales of oral care products including functional toothpaste, mouthwash, oral spray and toothbrush.

2) Leather care products segment reports manufacture and sales of leather care products including leather shoe care products and leather clothing care products.

3) Household hygiene products segment reports manufacture and sales of household hygiene products including surface cleaners, laundry care products, toilet care products and mould proof products.

Segment revenue and results

Segment revenue represents revenue derived from the sales of oral care, leather care, and household hygiene products.

The followings are analysis of the Group's revenue and results by reportable and operating segments:

	Oral care products RMB'000	Leather care products RMB'000	Household hygiene products RMB'000	Total RMB'000
For the year ended 31 December 2020

Profit before tax				11,710

The accounting policies of the operating segments are the same as the Group's accounting policies described in note 3. Segment profit represents the profit earned by each segment without allocation of selling and distribution costs, certain administrative expenses, other income and gain and finance costs. This is the measure reported to the CODM of the Group for the purposes of resource allocation and performance assessment.

7. REVENUE AND SEGMENT INFORMATION (Continued)

Segment assets and liabilities

The following is an analysis of the Group's assets and liabilities by reportable and operating segments.

	2020 RMB'000	2019 RMB'000
SEGMENT ASSETS
Jointly-shared by sales of oral care products, leather care products and household hygiene products segments	207,961	216,465
Unallocated	151,159	160,272
Total assets	359,120	376,737
SEGMENT LIABILITIES
Jointly-shared by sales of oral care products, leather care products and household hygiene products segments	98,850	97,145
Unallocated	24,754	61,455
Total liabilities	123,604	158,600

For the purposes of monitoring segment performance and allocating resources between segments:

- all assets are allocated to operating segments other than certain property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets, bank balances and cash, financial asset at FVTPL and deferred tax assets as these assets are managed on a group basis; and

- all liabilities are allocated to operating segments other than certain other payables, bank borrowings, tax payable and deferred tax liabilities as these liabilities are managed on a group basis.

The Group's CODM is of the view that the Group's principal assets and liabilities are jointly used and shared by oral care products, leather care products and household hygiene products segments.

	4,578	2,116

(a) Pursuant to the rules and regulations of the British Virgin Islands ("BVI") and Cayman Islands, the Group is not subject to any income tax in the BVI and Cayman Islands.

(b) No provision for Hong Kong Profits Tax has been made for the subsidiaries established in Hong Kong as the subsidiaries did not have any assessable profits subject to Hong Kong Profits Tax during both years.

(c) Under the Law of the PRC on Enterprise Income Tax (the "EIT Law") and Implementation Regulation of the EIT Law, the tax rate of the PRC subsidiaries registered in the PRC is 25% from 1 January 2008 onwards. The provision for PRC income tax is based on the respective corporate income tax rates applicable to the subsidiaries located in the PRC as determined in accordance with the relevant income tax rules and regulations of the PRC.

(d) One of the Group's subsidiaries registered in the PRC is recognised as a High and New-technology Enterprise which has been granted tax concessions by the local tax bureau and was entitled to PRC Enterprise Income Tax at concessionary rate of 15% during the year ended 31 December 2019.

(e) One of the Group's subsidiaries registered in the PRC is recognised as a small and low profit enterprise which has been granted tax concessions by the local tax bureau and is entitled to PRC Enterprise Income Tax at concessionary rate of 5% (2019: 5%) during the year.

(f) According to the prevailing EIT Law and its relevant regulations, non-PRC-resident enterprises are levied withholding tax at 10%, unless reduced by tax treaties or similar arrangements, on dividends from their PRC-resident investees for earnings accumulated beginning on 1 January 2008. Undistributed earnings generated prior to 1 January 2008 are exempted from such withholding tax.

The directors of the Company determined that the management of the Group can control the quantum and timing of distribution of profits of their PRC subsidiaries. Deferred tax liabilities are only provided to the extent that such profits are expected to be distributed in the foreseeable future.

10. INCOME TAX EXPENSES (Continued)

The income tax expenses for the year can be reconciled to the profit before tax per the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income as follows:

15. PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT (Continued)

The above items of property, plant and equipment, other than construction in progress, are depreciated on a straight-line basis, after taking into account their estimated residual values, over their estimated useful lives at the following rates per annum:

Buildings	5% or over the lease term, whichever is shorter
Leasehold improvements	20% or over the lease term, whichever is shorter
Motor vehicles	20%
Plant and machinery	10%
Office equipment	20%

During the year ended 31 December 2020, the directors of the Company conducted an impairment review of the Group's plant and machinery and determined that a number of those assets were impaired, due to technical obsolescence. Accordingly, impairment losses of RMB708,000 have been recognised in respect of plant and machinery. The recoverable amounts of the relevant assets have been determined on the basis of their value-in-use calculation using cash flow projections based on financial budgets which was approved by the directors of the Company covering the remaining useful lives of the respective items of the property, plant and equipment.

As at 31 December 2020, the Group's buildings with carrying amount amounting to approximately RMB12,266,000 (2019: RMB13,472,000) were pledged to secure banking facilities granted to the Group (note 23).

At 31 December 2020 and 2019, the Group has not obtained building ownership certificates for certain properties with a carrying amount of approximately RMB1,683,000 (2019: RMB1,695,000). In the opinion of the directors of the Company, the absence of formal titles to these properties does not impair their values to the Group as the Group has paid full consideration for acquiring the relevant properties and the probability of being evicted on the ground of an absence of formal title is remote.

During the year ended 31 December 2020, loan A with original amount of RMB1,200,000 which was unsecured, interest bearing at 4.75% per annum was fully repaid. Loan B with principal amount of RMB2,541,000 was partially repaid and remained at RMB1,291,000 as at 31 December 2020. Loan B is secured by a property interest, interest bearing at fixed interest rate of 4.75% per annum and repayable on demand.

19. TRADE AND OTHER RECEIVABLES (Continued)

The Group does not hold any collateral over its trade receivables, deposits and other receivables.

The Group allows a credit period of 0 to 60 days to its trade customers. The following is an aged analysis of trade receivables presented based on the invoice dates, which approximated the respective revenue recognition dates, at the end of the reporting period.

	2020	2019
	RMB'000	RMB'000
0–30 days	39,746	42,987
31–60 days	1,113	1,276
61–90 days	458	569
Over 3 months but less than 6 months	447	735
Over 6 months but less than 1 year	388	–
	42,152	45,567

The Group measures the loss allowance for trade receivables at an amount equal to lifetime ECL. The Group considers the credit risk characteristic and the days past due of trade receivables to measure the expected credit losses. The Group considers the historical loss rates in the past three years and adjusts for forward looking macroeconomic data in calculating the expected credit loss rates. There has been no change in the estimation techniques or significant assumptions made during the current reporting period.

As the Group's historical credit loss experience does not indicate significantly different loss patterns for different customer segments, the loss allowance based on past due status is not further distinguished between the Group's different customer bases. The grouping is regularly reviewed by management to ensure relevant information about specific debtors is updated.

19. TRADE AND OTHER RECEIVABLES (Continued)

As at 31 December 2020, the expected credit losses is determined using the provision matrix as follows:

	Average loss rate %	Gross carrying amount RMB'000	Impairment loss allowance RMB'000
0–30 days (including amounts not yet past due)	0.33	35,250	115
31–60 days	0.86	4,496	38
61–90 days	1.97	1,571	31
Overdue 3 months to 6 months	4.05	447	18
Overdue 6 months to 2 years	11.72	669	79
		42,433	281
Default receivables	100	177	177
		42,610	458

As at 31 December 2019, the expected credit losses is determined using the provision matrix as follows:

	Average loss rate %	Gross carrying amount RMB'000	Impairment loss allowance RMB'000
0–30 days (including amounts not yet past due)	0.47	39,055	185
31– 60 days	1.27	3,932	50
61–90 days	2.94	1,845	54
Overdue 3 months to 6 months	6.05	972	59
Overdue 6 months to 2 years	17.56	135	24
		45,939	372
Default receivables	100	177	177
		46,116	549

19. TRADE AND OTHER RECEIVABLES (Continued)

Movement in the impairment on trade receivables:

	Lifetime ECL (not credit-impaired) RMB'000	Lifetime ECL (credit-impaired) RMB'000	Total RMB'000
At 1 January 2019	293	177	470
Impairment loss for the year	79	–	79
At 31 December 2019 and 1 January 2020	372	177	549
Reversal of the impairment loss for the year	(91)	–	(91)
At 31 December 2020	281	177	458

The Group writes off trade receivable when there is information indicating that the debtor is in severe financial difficulty and there is no realistic prospect of recovery, e.g. when the debtor has been placed under liquidation or has entered into bankruptcy proceedings, or when the trade receivables are over two to three years past due, depending on the types of customers, whichever occurs earlier.

For the purpose of internal credit risk management for advances and loans to employees, the directors of the Company have assessed the past due status of the debts, the financial position of the debtors and concluded that there has not been a significant increase in the credit risk since initial recognition. As such, no loss allowance was made in 2020 and 2019 as 12-month ECL is insignificant.

Included in the impairment on prepayments are individually impaired prepayments of RMB260,000 as at 31 December 2020 (2019: RMB260,000) since the directors of the Company considered the prolonged outstanding balances cannot be utilised or recovered.

20. FINANCIAL ASSETS AT FVTPL

As at 31 December 2020 and 2019, financial assets at FVTPL represented wealth management products, which placed at a financial institute with maturity date of one year from the date of purchase, were matured in January 2021. The products are non-guaranteed with expected return of 9.8% per annum (2019: 9.8% per annum).

21. BANK BALANCES AND CASH

Cash at banks carried interest at floating rates based on market interest rate ranging from 0.01% to 0.385% per annum for both 2020 and 2019. The fixed deposit carries fixed interest rate of 1.21% (2019: 1.21%) per annum.

Details of impairment assessment of bank balances are set out in note 6.

22. TRADE AND OTHER PAYABLES AND CONTRACT LIABILITIES

	2020 RMB'000	2019 RMB'000
Trade and bills payables (Note i)	47,682	48,595

Contract liabilities	34,460	32,444

Notes:

(i) As at 31 December 2020 and 2019, bill payables were secured by trademarks with carrying amount of nil.

(ii) Included in accruals and other payables, there were RMB76,000 accrued director's remuneration (2019: RMB40,000).

The significant changes in contract liabilities in 2020 were mainly due to the increase in the sales orders received before year end.

Revenue recognised during the year ended 31 December 2020 that was included in the contract liabilities as at 1 January 2020 is approximately RMB32,127,000 (2019: RMB22,537,000). There was no revenue recognised in the current year that related to performance obligations that were satisfied in prior year.

22. TRADE AND OTHER PAYABLES AND CONTRACT LIABILITIES (Continued)

The following is an aged analysis of trade and bills payables presented based on the invoice date.

	2020 RMB'000	2019 RMB'000
0–30 days	38,831	39,985
31–60 days	4,568	4,465
61–90 days	2,065	1,241
Over 3 months but less than 6 months	1,096	1,243
Over 6 months but less than 1 year	387	847
Over 1 year but less than 2 years	316	388
Over 2 years but less than 5 years	419	426
	47,682	48,595

The average credit period on purchases of goods is 30 to 60 days. The Group has financial risk management policies in place to ensure that all payables are settled within the credit timeframe.

23. BANK BORROWINGS

	2020 RMB'000	2019 RMB'000
Secured bank borrowings repayable within one year	20,000	60,000

The Group's bank borrowings are interest-bearing as follows:

	2020 RMB'000	2019 RMB'000

At 1 January 2019, 31 December 2019, 1 January 2020 and 31 December 2020	1,000,000	10,000	8,606

(b) Reserves

(i) Share premium

Under the Companies Law of the Cayman Islands, the share premium account of the Company may be applied for payment of distributions or dividends to shareholders provided that immediately following the date on which the distribution or dividend is proposed to be paid, the Company is able to pay its debts as they fall due in the ordinary course of business.

(ii) PRC statutory reserves

PRC statutory reserves were established in accordance with the relevant PRC rules and regulations and the articles of association of Jiangsu Snow Leopard Daily Chemical Co., Limited and Shanghai Snow Leopard Daily Chemical Co., Limited. Appropriations to the reserves were determined by the board of directors and can be used to offset accumulated losses and increase capital upon approval from the relevant government authorities.

The Company and its subsidiaries in the PRC have to set aside 10% of its profit for the statutory common reserve fund (except where the fund has reached 50% of its registered capital). Since the amount of the Company's statutory surplus reserve has reached 50% of the registered capital of the Company, no appropriation was made for both 2020 and 2019.

(iii) Capital reserve

Capital reserve represents the difference between the aggregate amount of issued and fully paid share capital of the subsidiaries acquired by the Company and the nominal amount of the shares issued by the Company in exchange for the entire equity interests in the subsidiaries as part of the reorganisation.

27. RETIREMENT BENEFIT SCHEMES

The Group operates the MPF Scheme under the Hong Kong Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance for its employees in Hong Kong. The MPF Scheme is a defined contribution retirement plan and the assets of the MPF Scheme are held separately from those of the Group in funds administrated by independent trustee. Under the MPF Scheme, the Group and its employees makes monthly contributions to the MPF Scheme at 5% of the employee's earnings capped at HK$1,500 per month to the MPF Scheme.

The employees of the Group's subsidiaries in the PRC are members of a state-managed retirement benefit scheme operated by the PRC government. The subsidiaries are required to contribute a specified percentage of payroll costs to the retirement benefit scheme to fund the benefits. The only obligation of the Group with respect to the retirement benefit scheme is to make the specified contributions.

The total cost charged to profit or loss of RMB1,900,000 (2019: RMB4,222,000) represent contributions payable to these schemes by the Group for the year ended 31 December 2020.
