2024 ANNUAL REPORT

CHARACTERISTICS OF GEM OF THE STOCK EXCHANGE OF HONG KONG LIMITED (THE “STOCK EXCHANGE”)

GEM has been positioned as a market designed to accommodate small and mid-sized companies to which a higher investment risk may be attached than other companies listed on the Stock Exchange. Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration.

Given that the companies listed on GEM are generally small and mid-sized companies, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the Main Board and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on GEM.

Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited and the Stock Exchange take no responsibility for the contents of this report, make no representation as to its accuracy or completeness and expressly disclaim any liability whatsoever for any loss howsoever arising from or in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents of this report.

This report, for which the directors (the “Directors”, each a “Director”) of FY Financial (Shenzhen) Co., Ltd. (the “Company”, together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”), collectively and individually, accept full responsibility, includes particulars given in compliance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on GEM of the Stock Exchange (the “GEM Listing Rules”) for the purpose of giving information with regard to the Company. The Directors, having made all reasonable enquiries, confirm that, to the best of their knowledge and belief, the information contained in this report is accurate and complete in all material aspects and not misleading or deceptive; and there are no other matters the omission of which would make any statement herein or this report misleading.

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

On behalf of the board (the "Board") of directors (the "Directors") of FY Financial (Shenzhen) Co., Ltd. (the "Company"), I present the annual report of the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Group") for the year ended 31 December 2024 (the "Reporting Period") to the shareholders of the Company (the "Shareholder(s)").

In 2024, the external international environment remains extremely complex, and the internal operating environment has become increasingly difficult, with the overall business environment still being less than ideal. The Group has been actively responding to these challenges. For the Group's finance leasing and factoring business, we continue to be cautious by adopting prudent financial management strategies and strengthening risk management measures to ensure the safety of funds. At the same time, we will strengthen the advancement of our energy storage business and cross-border e-commerce business into new or developing overseas markets.

Due to factors such as the sluggish growth in the number of new 5G base station sites, in order to reduce the operational and maintenance costs of the base stations and avoid potential losses caused by a decline in base station value, on 16 May 2024, the Group sold the assets of its 5G base station business (a total of 123 base stations) to Zhejiang Xinzhan Communication Technology Co., Ltd. (浙江新展通信技术有限公司) ("Zhejiang Xinzhan"). The sale of the 5G base stations will optimize resource allocation, improve operational quality and efficiency, and be beneficial for the overall development of the Group.

Looking ahead, the Group maintains a cautiously optimistic attitude towards the long-term business outlook. We will continue to promote the energy storage business and cross-border e-commerce business to enter overseas markets.

Finally, on behalf of the Board, I would like to thank all of our employees for their dedication and express my gratitude to the Shareholders and our customers.

Li Peng
Chairman

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

1. BUSINESS REVIEW

In 2024, the external international environment remains extremely complex, and the internal operating environment has become increasingly difficult. Geopolitical conflicts in Europe and the Middle East, along with escalating U.S.-China trade tensions, have led to a decline in global trade cooperation. The Group has been actively responding to these changes, enhancing efforts to advance the energy storage business and cross-border e-commerce business into new or developing overseas markets.

The Group is principally engaged in the provision of financial leasing, factoring, consultancy and customer referral services, supply of medical equipment, energy storage business and newly launched cross-border e-commerce business in the PRC.

During the Reporting Period, the Group's finance leasing and factoring business, which serves small-and medium-sized enterprises, continued to be cautious by adopting prudent financial management strategies and strengthening risk management measures to ensure the safety of funds. The Group's factoring business kept improving as mirrored by a steady trend of growth in its business scale and revenue.

During the Reporting Period, competition in the energy storage industry intensified, leading to an accelerated restructuring of the industry chain and further increases in market and installed capacity. The PRC and local governments have introduced multiple relevant policies, including development plans, new energy upgrades, electricity market regulations, and subsidies, to further clarify the status of market participants in the energy storage sector. The Group has made breakthroughs in the overall development of its energy storage business compared to last year and has achieved profitability.

During the Reporting Period, the energy storage business achieved product series diversification and segmentation based on existing products. The commercial and industrial energy storage products have formed two major series: air-cooled and liquid-cooled, with various power and capacity combinations. The electric energy storage products have been tailored to meet the needs of different customers and projects, achieving a series range from 2MWh to 5MWh. The Group has also continued to increase investment in product research and development and upgrades, with multiple comprehensive energy storage products and microgrid products developed and set to be gradually launched in the market as planned.

During the Reporting Period, the energy storage business team focused on three main areas: sales, after-sales service, and research and development. On the sales front, commercial energy storage and electric energy storage sectors were established based on market conditions, operating relatively independently yet collaboratively, forming a comprehensive sales training system for commercial energy storage with effective results. As production and sales scale grew, the after-sales service team was strengthened to cover installation, delivery, debugging, and maintenance, providing complete after-sales service support to customers. In terms of research and development, efforts were made to optimize the structure and capabilities of R&D personnel, enhancing the research strength for new technologies and products.

During the Reporting Period, the products of the Group's cross-border e-commerce business were mainly Bluetooth stereos, and the business area was mainly the United States and European markets. Influenced by the tariff policy of the United States, it will increase the Group's cost of products exported to the United States. However, the government of China continued to increase its support for cross-border e-commerce exports, which helped to promote the development of the cross-border e-commerce business. As the Group's cross-border e-commerce business is in the market development stage, the business is not yet profitable.

1. BUSINESS REVIEW (CONTINUED)

During the Reporting Period, the cross-border e-commerce business newly shelved 6 branded audio products, and had 9 branded audio products with selling prices ranging from US$30 to US$200 per unit. Meanwhile, in the second half of 2024, the Group took down a product of energy storage power supply due to the high cost of the product and low export selling price due to market fluctuation. In addition, there are corresponding processes for product selection, product ordering, sales pricing, advertising strategies and inventory levels to ensure the effective operation of the cross-border e-commerce business.

During the Reporting Period, the cross-border e-commerce business developed sales channels primarily through the Amazon platform and logistics channels mainly through domestic professional logistics service providers, responsible for transporting products from domestic manufacturers to overseas Amazon warehouses. The Group has also established a relatively complete small Amazon e-commerce team to ensure the normal operation of this business.

2. FUTURE PROSPECTS

Due to the complexity of the international political and economic situation, the world economy is likely to remain sluggish in recovery. Looking ahead, the Group remains cautiously optimistic about the long-term prospects of its business. The Group will continue to be prudent and adopt a prudent financial management strategy. Meanwhile, the Group will further develop its energy storage business and cross-border e-commerce business to expand its revenue base. This will ensure the long-term and stable development of the Group and create the best value return for the Shareholders.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Revenue

During the Reporting Period, the revenue of the Group amounted to approximately RMB133.07 million, representing a increase of approximately 133.17% from approximately RMB57.07 million for the same period of last year. The increase is due to the increased in income from energy storage business and cross-border e-commerce business.

Gross Profit

During the Reporting Period, the Group's gross profit amounted to approximately RMB44.87 million, representing a increase of approximately 158.61% compared to approximately RMB17.35 million for the same period of last year. The increase in gross profit was mainly due to the increased in revenue from energy storage business and cross-border e-commerce business.

Cost of Sales

During the Reporting Period, the Group's cost of sales amounted to approximately RMB88.20 million, representing a increase of approximately 122.05% compared to approximately RMB39.72 million for the same period of last year. The increase was primarily due to increase in cost of sales for the energy storage business and cross-border e-commerce business.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

OTHER INCOME AND GAINS

During the Reporting Period, the Group's other income and gains amounted to approximately RMB5.11 million, representing a decrease of approximately 53.04% from approximately RMB10.88 million for the same period of last year. The decrease was mainly due to changes in bank interest income, medical equipment maintenance service income and gains on financial assets at fair value through profit or loss.

OPERATING EXPENSES

During the Reporting Period, the Group's operating expenses amounted to approximately RMB16.93 million, representing an increase of approximately 80.79% from approximately RMB9.36 million for the same period of last year. Such increase was mainly due to the increase in promotion expenses and logistics and transportation expenses incurred by cross-border e-commerce business.

ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

During the Reporting Period, the Group's administrative expenses amounted to approximately RMB27.01 million, representing an increase of approximately 14.96% from approximately RMB23.49 million for the same period of last year. The increase was mainly due to increase in staff remuneration and related administrative expenses for cross-border e-commerce business.

IMPAIRMENT LOSS ON ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

Impairment loss of the Group mainly included the impairment losses on on financial lease receivables, receivables from sale and leaseback transactions, factoring receivables and other receivables (comprising trade receivables and receivables from operating lease). The main impairment losses recognized during the Reporting Period are as follows:

	31 December 2024 RMB'000 (audited)	31 December 2023 RMB'000 (audited) (Restated)
(1) Reversal of impairment loss on financial lease receivables	(1,660)	(2,678)
(2) Impairment loss on receivables from sale leaseback transactions (reversal of impairment loss)	(1,985)	264
(3) Impairment loss on factoring receivables (reversal of impairment loss)	10,614	(6,478)
(4) Impairment loss on other receivables (reversal of impairment loss)	2,652	(1,292)
Total impairment loss (reversal of impairment loss)	9,621	(10,184)

During the Reporting Period, provision for impairment of accounts receivable was approximately RMB9.62 million, while there was a provision for reversal of impairment of accounts receivable of approximately RMB10.18 million for the same period last year, which was mainly due to the following reasons:

- (1) Taking into account the improvement in the operating conditions of the two customers of the finance lease project and their continued repayment, a reversal of impairment provision was made;
- (2) Taking into account the decrease in total receivables from sale and leaseback transactions, a reversal of impairment provision was made;
- (3) Taking into account the fact that three customers of the factoring program were overdue for more than six months and had not repaid their receivables, and the mismanagement or poor operating performance of these customers, which resulted in the revenues received by them not being able to cover their operating costs. A corresponding impairment provision was therefore made for the amounts that these customers were unable to repay the Group; and
- (4) Other amounts include provision for impairment of trade receivables of RMB3,451,000; provision for impairment of operating lease receivables of RMB4,000; and reversal of impairment loss on amounts due from related companies of RMB803,000. In particular, the increase in provision for impairment of trade receivables was mainly due to the fact that one of the customers had been overdue for more than 12 months and had not repaid the receivables, therefore a corresponding provision for impairment was made.

The method, key assumptions and basis used

The Company measured loss allowances by assessing the expected credit loss (“ECL”), which is a probability-weighted estimate of credit losses in accordance with HKFRS9 where credit losses are measured as the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contracts and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive.

As disclosed in notes 3, 4, 19, 20 and 41(b) to the consolidated financial statements, the Group assessed the ECL according to forward-looking information and used appropriate models and a large number of assumptions in its expected measurement of credit losses in respect of receivables in accordance with HKFRS 9. These models and assumptions relate to the future macroeconomic conditions and borrower’s creditworthiness (e.g. the likelihood of default by customers and the corresponding losses). The Group has adopted judgement, assumptions and estimation techniques in order to measure the ECL according to the requirements of accounting standards such as criteria for judging significant increases in credit risk, definition of credit-impaired financial assets, parameters for measuring ECL and forward-looking information.

In assessing the ECL, the Group would categorize its receivables into five categories, namely “Normal”, “Special-Mention”, “Substandard”, “Doubtful” and “Loss”. Expected loss rates would be estimated based on actual loss experience over the past 3 years. These rates were adjusted to reflect differences between economic conditions during the period over which the historical data had been collected, current conditions and the Group’s view of economic conditions over the expected lives of the receivables. Details of the classification of the receivables and the estimation of the expected loss rates are set out in note 41(b) to the consolidated financial statements.

As explained in note 3 to the consolidated financial statements, the Group measured loss allowances for finance lease receivables and trade receivables based on lifetime ECLs. For factoring receivables, sales leaseback receivables and operating lease receivables, the Group would assess the loss allowances based on 12-month ECLs. However, if there was a significant increase in credit risk since origination, the allowance will be based on the lifetime ECLs.

For the year ended 31 December 2024, the Company engaged an independent valuer, Flagship Appraisals and Consulting Limited ("Flagship"), to perform the ECL assessment and provided for the impairment loss on the financial assets based on such assessment. Details of the ECL assessment, which are largely similar to the above disclosure.

Flagship has used the general approach for valuing the ECL for, among others, the operating lease receivables, factoring receivables and sale-leaseback receivables as required by HKFRS9 under which the 12-month ECL will be determined. Under this approach, financial assets would be classified into different stages in accordance with the respective credit risk and specific industry default rates and loss given default would be used to estimate the ECL. In the case of a significant increase in credit risk since origination of these receivables, the allowance will be based on the lifetime ECLs.

As for the ECL on finance lease receivables and trade receivables, Flagship has used the simplified approach to determine the lifetime ECL. Under this approach, financial assets would be grouped under different risk categories by industry, and historical loss rates were used to estimate the ECL.

The Company considers that there had been no substantial changes to the way it estimated the ECL. The bases, assumptions and factors employed in assessing the ECL for the year 2024 were similar to prior years. The increase in the provision for the impairment on the receivables was primarily due to increase in the number of credit-impaired customers in 2024 as a result of some poorly-managed projects and the poor business performance of some projects. These credit-impaired customers were either under severe financial difficulties, placed under liquidation or in legal proceedings. To safeguard the interest of the Group, the Group took legal actions against them and the court had ordered asset seizure for the benefit of the Group. The Group has made a provision on the receivables from these credit-impaired customers because it is highly uncertain that the Group will be able to realize the pledged asset to recover the relevant receivables.

INCOME TAX EXPENSES

During the Reporting Period, the Group's income tax expenses amounted to approximately RMB0.51 million, representing a decrease of approximately 85.34% as compared to the income tax expenses of approximately RMB3.45 million for the same period of last year. Such decrease was mainly due to an increase in the deferred income tax credit.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

FOREIGN EXCHANGE RISK

The Group's income and expenditure during the Reporting Period were principally denominated in RMB and most of the assets and liabilities during the Reporting Period were also denominated in RMB. During the Reporting Period, the Group did not experience any material impact or difficulties in liquidity on its operations resulting from the fluctuation in exchange rate and no hedging transaction or forward contract arrangement was made by the Group.

FINANCIAL LEASING OPERATIONS, FACTORING, AND RELATED CREDIT RISK

The Group's major credit risk mainly arises from financing lease receivables and factoring receivables.

Financial Leasing Operations

The Group mainly provide two types of financing leasing services to its customers, namely direct financing leasing and sale and leaseback, including (i) new product direct leasing, which involves the leasing of new equipment purchased by the Group; (ii) new product leaseback, which involves the leasing of new equipment purchased by its customers from equipment suppliers prior to leasing transactions; and (iii) used product leaseback transactions, which involves the leasing of used equipment owned by the Group's customers and sold to the Group prior to leasing transactions. The Group may require additional collateral or guarantees from lessees and third parties for all finance lease transactions to better protect them against credit risks. Such additional collateral or guarantees include: (i) joint and several guarantees by the lessee's legal representatives, major stakeholders, related party companies, and third party companies; (ii) mortgages of production equipment, real estate, or account receivables; and (iii) mortgages of the lessee's shares in the company.

Factoring

In respect of the Group's factoring business, it provides financing and receivables management services to its customers in exchange for interest and management fee income. The Group's customers are required to transfer it the legal title to the receivables to the Group. Upon such transfer, the Group has the right to collect the outstanding amount of the receivables from the buyers (i.e. the debtors of the receivables).

The Group's financing leasing and factoring business mainly focuses on small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) through providing financial support to enterprises. Its customers come from the fast moving consumer goods, electronic products, alternative energy, medical, transport, construction, decoration, property development and machinery parts processing industries.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

FINANCIAL LEASING OPERATIONS, FACTORING, AND RELATED CREDIT RISK (CONTINUED)Internal Control Procedures

In the course of carrying out the above businesses, the main processes of the Group's credit risk management system are set out below:

Risk management measures for different stages of a project	Responsible department(s)	Functions
Initiation and Internal Review	• Business Department	• Conduct preliminary assessment
Due Diligence	• Business Department • Risk Management Department	• Conduct due diligence into background and creditworthiness of customer, guarantor, equipment supplier and/or underlying debtor • Submit proposal(s) to committee(s) at higher level

Signing and Closing	• Business Department • Asset Management Department • Finance Department	• Draft, review and execute contracts • Prepare and submit project documents (if bank finance required) • Complete registration of assets and collateral • Purchase insurance
Portfolio Management and Monitoring	• Business Department • Risk Management Department • Asset Management Department • Finance Department	• Monitor customer's payments, financial condition and operations • Conduct monthly assessments of assets
Risk Management and Enforcement Measures	• Business Department • Risk Management Department • Asset Management Department	• Enforce collateral • Extend repayment schedule • Transfer non-performing assets

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The Group develops and implements certain risk management procedures in order to mitigate its losses. After on-site visits to see a customer with overdue payments, the Group usually tries to negotiate with the customer to revise repayment terms, including an extension or adjustment of the customer's repayment schedule, or a return and disposal of the Group's leased equipment. If the Group is not able to agree with its customer on the revised repayment terms, it would typically undertake other risk management procedures. The Group's business department, asset management department and risk management department are primarily responsible for implementing these procedures. Such procedures include conducting on-site inspections, sending letters of demand for payment after the scheduled repayment date, initiating legal proceedings against its customers and their guarantors to recover payments, and taking enforcement actions in respect of the collateral and/or guarantee, including:

- disposal of the leased equipment (for finance leases) and/or collateral through sales or auction;
- claims against the guarantor(s) and/or the underlying debtor (for factoring);
- acceleration of repayment; and
- application for court orders to seize the assets (including real property, personal property, and securities) of the customer and/or guarantor(s), and to block their bank accounts.

In addition to the above risk management procedures, the Group may also consider transferring its non-performing assets to third parties such as asset management companies and private equity firms in the PRC.

Amount of Receivables Related To Financing Business and Factoring

As at 31 December 2024, the Group's receivables from financing leasing as well as sale and leaseback transactions ("Financial Leasing") amounted to approximately RMB25.90 million in total, factoring receivables with recourse ("Factoring") amounted to approximately RMB223.77 million in total, and the total principal amount was approximately RMB249.67 million. Other details are set out in note 19, note 20(a), note 20(b), and note 41 in the section headed Credit risk of the consolidated financial statements.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

The Board is pleased to present the Corporate Governance Report of the Company for the Reporting Period.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

The Group recognises the vital importance of good corporate governance to its success and sustainability. The Company is committed to achieving a high standard of corporate governance practices as an essential component of high quality and has introduced corporate governance practices appropriate to the operation and growth of its business. The Company has applied the principles and code provisions set out in the Corporate Governance Code (the “CG Code”) as contained in Appendix C1 to the GEM Listing Rules.

CULTURE AND VALUES

A healthy corporate culture is critical to the realization of the Group’s vision and strategy. The Board is responsible for fostering a corporate culture with the following core principles and ensuring that the Company’s vision, values and business strategies are aligned with the corporate culture.

1. Integrity and Code of Conduct

The Group stays committed to maintaining high standards of business ethics and corporate governance in all our activities and operations. Directors, management and employees are required to act in a lawful, ethical and responsible manner and the required standards and codes are clearly set out in the training materials for all new employees and have been incorporated into various policies, such as the Group’s Employee Handbook that includes the Group’s Code of Conduct therein and the Group’s Anti-Corruption Policy and Whistleblowing Policy. The Company conducts training from time to time for the purpose of reinforcing the necessary standards of ethics and integrity.

2. Integrity, Responsibility, Innovation and Dedication

The Group believes that a culture characterized with commitment to employee development, workplace safety and health, diversity and sustainability can create a sense of commitment and dedication to the Group, which lays a solid foundation for a strong and productive workforce that can attract, develop and retain the best talent, and strengthens the innovative thinking and dedication of its employees, thereby enhancing the Company’s efficiency. In addition, the Company’s strategies in business development and management aim at achieving long-term, stable and sustainable growth, as well as focus on environmental, social and governance to some extent.

During the Reporting Period, in the opinion of the Board, the Company has complied with all code provisions set out in Part 2 of the CG Code, save and except for the deviation from code provision C.2.1.

Under code provision C.2.1, the roles of chairman and chief executive officer should be separate and performed by different individuals. Presently, the Company does not have a position with the title “chief executive officer”. The role of general manager of the Company is to carry out the duties of a chief executive officer. Mr. Li Peng is the Chairman and the general manager of the Company. Since Mr. Li Peng has demonstrated suitable management and leadership capabilities along with his thorough understanding of the Group’s business since his appointment as a Director and the general manager of the Company in 2012 and 2015, respectively, the Board believes that vesting both the roles of Chairman and general manager of the Company in Mr. Li can facilitate the execution of the Group’s business strategies and maximizes the effectiveness of its operations. In addition, as all major decisions are made in consultation with the members of the Board and relevant Board committees, and there are three independent non-executive Directors offering independent perspectives, the Board is of the view that there are adequate safeguards in place to ensure sufficient balance of powers within the Board. The Board shall nevertheless review its structure from time to time to ensure that appropriate action is being taken as and when appropriate.

Remuneration Committee

The Remuneration Committee consists of one non-executive Director, being Mr. Peng Qilei and two independent non-executive Directors, being Mr. Liu Shengwen and Mr. Hon Leung. The Remuneration Committee is chaired by Mr. Liu Shengwen. The primary duties of the Remuneration Committee include (but are not limited to): (i) to review annually and recommend to the Board the remuneration policy and structure for the Directors, chief executive and senior management; (ii) to oversee the performance evaluation of the executive Directors, chief executive and senior management and recommend to the Board their remuneration packages, promotions, specific adjustments in remuneration and/ or reward payments, if any; (iii) to make recommendations to the Board on the remuneration of non-executive Directors and to ensure that the level of remuneration for non-executive Directors are linked to their level of responsibilities undertaken and contributions to the effective functioning of the Board; (iv) to review the terms and conditions of service of the executive Directors, chief executive and senior management including their total remuneration package for market competitiveness; and recommend changes to the Board whenever necessary; and (v) to ensure that no Director or any of his/ her associates is involved in deciding his/her own remuneration. The Remuneration Committee considers factors such as salaries paid by comparable companies, time commitment and responsibilities of the Directors, employment conditions elsewhere in the Group and desirability of performance-based remuneration.

During the Reporting Period, the Remuneration Committee held one meeting to review the remuneration package of the Directors (including non-executive Directors) and senior management and the remuneration policy of the Company.

REMUNERATION POLICY

The primary goal of the Group's remuneration policy for executive Directors is to enable the Company to reflect their individual performance by a reasonable remuneration package. The remuneration package includes basic salary, performance and other benefits. Remuneration of the independent non-executive Directors mainly includes the director's fee which is a matter for the Board to decide by reference to the duties and responsibilities of the independent non-executive Directors and their experience.

The Group provides employees and Directors with fair and equitable remuneration and benefits based on individual performance, experience and market benchmarks. RESPONSIBILITIES, ACCOUNTABILITIES AND CONTRIBUTIONS OF THE BOARD AND MANAGEMENT

The Board is responsible for the leadership and control of the Company and oversees the Group's businesses, strategic decisions and performance and is collectively responsible for promoting the success of the Company by directing and supervising its affairs. The Directors make decisions objectively having considered the interests of the Company and the Shareholders. The Board has delegated to the general manager of the Company, and through him, to the senior management of the Company the authority and responsibility for the day-to-day management and operation of the Group. In addition, the Board has established Board committees and has delegated to these Board committees various responsibilities as set out in their respective terms of reference. Further details of these committees are set out in the section headed "Board Committees" in this annual report.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

RESPONSIBILITIES, ACCOUNTABILITIES AND CONTRIBUTIONS OF THE BOARD AND MANAGEMENT (CONTINUED)

The Board reserves for its decision on all major matters relating to policy matters, strategies and budgets, internal control and risk management, material transactions (in particular those that may involve conflict of interests), financial information, appointment of directors and other significant operational matters of the Company. Responsibilities relating to implementing decisions of the Board, directing and coordinating the daily operation and management of the Company are delegated to the management.

All the Directors, including the non-executive Directors and the independent non-executive Directors, have brought a wide spectrum of valuable business experience, knowledge and professional skill to the Board for its efficient and effective functioning.

In compliance with code provision B.1.4 of the CG Code, the Board has adopted a Board Independence Evaluation Mechanism, which includes various measures to ensure independent views and input are available to the Board.

The Board shall at all times comprise at least three independent non-executive Directors that represent at least one-third of the Board, such that there is always a strong element of independence on the Board which can effectively exercise independent judgement. Each independent non-executive Director is required to provide an annual confirmation of his/her independence to the Company and the Nomination Committee is responsible to assess the independence of each independent non-executive Director at least annually.

All the Directors, including the independent non-executive Directors, are given equal opportunities and channels to communicate and express their views to the Board and have separate and independent access to the management of the Group in order to make informed decisions. All Directors have full and timely access to all the information of the Company and may, upon request, seek independent professional advice in appropriate circumstances, at the Company's expenses for discharging their duties to the Company.

The Chairman will hold meetings with the independent non-executive Directors without the involvement of other Directors at least annually to discuss any issues and concerns.

Any Director or his/her associate who has a conflict of interest in a matter to be considered by the Board will be dealt with by a physical Board meeting rather than by written resolutions. Such Director will be required to declare his/her interests before the meeting and abstain from voting and not counted towards the quorum on the relevant resolutions. Independent non-executive Directors who, and whose associates, have no material interest in the matter should attend the relevant Board meeting.

The Board has reviewed the implementation and effectiveness of the Board Independence Evaluation Mechanism and considered that, during the Reporting Period, it is effective in ensuring that independent views and input are available to the Board.

All the Directors shall ensure that they carry out duties in good faith, in compliance with applicable laws and regulations, and in the interest of the Company and the Shareholders at all times. The CG Code requires the Directors to disclose the number and nature of offices held in public companies or organizations and other significant commitments as well as their identity and the time involved to the issuer. The Directors have agreed to disclose their commitments to the Company in a timely manner and the Board regularly reviews the contribution required from each Director to perform his/her responsibilities to the Company.

The Company has arranged appropriate liability insurance coverage for the Directors in relation to legal proceedings against the Directors.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE FUNCTIONS

The Board is responsible for the corporate governance functions. During the Reporting Period, the Board has discharged the following corporate governance duties:

- to develop and review the Company's policies and practices on corporate governance;
- to review and monitor the training and continuous professional development of the Directors and the senior management;
- to review and monitor the Company's policies and practices on compliance with legal and regulatory requirements;
- to develop, review and monitor the code of conduct applicable to employees and the Directors; and
- to review the Company's compliance with the CG Code and disclosure in the corporate governance report in the annual report of the Company.

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL

During the Reporting Period, the Group is committed to maintaining comprehensive risk management and internal control systems that enhance the Company's overall strategy and promote the Company's risk control capabilities while addressing various risks, including credit risks, liquidity risks, interest risks, operational risks and legal compliance risks. During the Reporting Period, the Group has implemented a comprehensive and effective risk management system with stringent procedures and measures in place, including multi-level assessments and approval processes.

The Company has set up an internal audit department to analyze and evaluate the Company's risk management and internal control systems. The results of internal audits and reviews will be reported to the Audit Committee and the Board. Within the scope of review on internal control, no significant control defects have been found. The review results have been reported to the Audit Committee and the Board.

The Board oversees and manages the overall risks associated with our operations and reviews the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control systems at least annually. During the Reporting Period, the Board has reviewed the effectiveness of risk management and internal control systems of the Group and considered such were effective and adequate in all material aspects in both design and operations. The Board oversees the risk management and internal control systems of the Group on an ongoing basis. The systems are designed to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve business objectives and provide only reasonable but not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss.

The Company has developed and adopted different risk management procedures and guidelines with a clear division of power and responsibility. The Company would conduct self-assessment each year to confirm that all departments and the Company have properly complied with the risk management and internal control policy.

During the Reporting Period, all departments conducted regular internal control evaluation to identify risks with potential impact on the Group's business and other aspects including major operational and financial procedures, regulatory compliance and information security. The risk assessment results and the proposed internal control measures have been submitted to the senior management and the general manager of the Company for review and approval. The senior management and the general manager of the Company are also responsible for supervising the effectiveness of implementation and future execution of the risk control measurement.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

WHISTLEBLOWING POLICY

The Board has adopted a whistleblowing policy (the “Whistleblowing Policy”) which: (i) fosters a culture of compliance, ethical behaviour and good corporate governance across the Group; and (ii) promotes the importance of ethical behaviour and encourages the reporting of misconduct, unlawful and unethical behavior. The nature, status and the results of the complaints received under the Whistleblowing Policy are reported to the chairman of the Audit Committee or the company secretaries. No incident of fraud or misconduct that have material effect on the Group’s financial statements or overall operations for the year ended 31 December 2024 has been discovered. The Whistleblowing Policy is reviewed annually by the Audit Committee to ensure its effectiveness.

COMMUNICATIONS WITH SHAREHOLDERS AND INVESTORS

The Company considers that effective communication with the Shareholders is essential for enhancing investor relations and investor understanding of the Group’s business performance and strategies. The Company also recognizes the importance of transparency and timely disclosure of corporate information, which enables the Shareholders and investors to make the best investment decisions.

In order to promote effective communication, the Company maintains a website at “www.fyleasing.com”, where extensive information and updates on the Group’s business developments and operations, financial information, corporate governance practices and other information are available for public access.

Shareholders and investors may send written enquiries or requests to the Company as follows:

Address: Room 1603, Cheung Kei Building, No. 128 Xinzhou 11th Street, Futian District, Shenzhen, Guangdong
The PRC

Email: jgzx@fyleasing.com

Enquiries are dealt with in an informative and timely manner.

The Board welcomes views of the Shareholders and encourages them to attend general meetings to raise any concerns they might have with the Board or the management directly. Board members and appropriate senior staff of the Group are available at the meetings to answer any questions raised by the Shareholders.

The Board has reviewed the Shareholders’ communication policy. Having considered the aforementioned policy enabling the Shareholders to access to the Group’s information and to raise concerns and views directly with the Company, the Board considered that the Company’s communication policy was effective during the Reporting Period.

Shareholders’ Rights to Propose Resolutions

According to Article 71 of the Articles of Association, when the Company convenes a general meeting, the Board, the Supervisory Committee, or the Shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 3% of the total number of shares of the Company shall have the right to propose resolutions. Shareholders individually or jointly holdings 3% or more of the shares of the Company may submit ad hoc proposals in writing to the convener of the general meeting 10 days before the convening of the general meeting. The convener shall issue a supplemental notice of the general meeting within two days upon receipt of the proposals and announce the contents of the ad hoc proposals. If the ad hoc proposal does not comply with Article 59 of the Articles of Association according to the view of the convener after his/her reviewing and the convener decides not to include this ad hoc proposal into the agenda, the convener shall issue a notice for not including this ad hoc proposal into the agenda within 2 days and specify the reasons; and at the same time, the convener shall make explanation at this general meeting, and make announcement on the content of ad hoc proposal and the explanation of the convener and as well as the resolutions of general meeting after general meeting.

Except for circumstances provided in the above paragraph, the convener, after issuing the notice and announcement of the general meeting, shall neither revise the proposals stated in the notice of general meetings nor add new proposals.

If a notice of general meeting does not specify the proposed resolutions or does not comply with Article 59 of the Articles of Association, no voting for resolutions shall be carried out at the general meeting.

Shareholders' Right to Requisite a Meeting

Shareholders requesting an extraordinary general meeting or the Shareholders class meeting shall abide by the following procedures:

- (a) Shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of shares of the Company are entitled to request the Board in writing to convene an extraordinary general meeting. The Board shall, in accordance with the requirements of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, reply with a written opinion to state whether it agrees or disagrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting within 10 days upon receipt of the request.
- (b) If the Board agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice of convening the extraordinary general meeting within five days after the date of the resolution of the Board. Any changes made to the original proposal in the notice shall be agreed by the relevant Shareholders. If the Board disagrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, or does not reply within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal, Shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the shares of the Company are entitled to request the Supervisory Committee in writing to convene an extraordinary general meeting.
- (c) If the Supervisory Committee agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice of convening the extraordinary general meeting within five days upon receipt of the proposal. Any changes made to the original proposals in the notice shall be agreed by the relevant Shareholders. If the Supervisory Committee does not issue the notice of general meeting within the prescribed period, it shall be deemed as the Supervisory Committee not convening and not holding the extraordinary general meeting. Then the Shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the shares of the Company for more than 90 consecutive days are entitled to convene and hold the meeting themselves.

POLICY ON PAYMENT OF DIVIDENDS

The Company has adopted a dividend policy to provide the Board with a guidance to the Board on whether to declare and distribute dividends. In order to keep sufficient reserves for the future development of the Company, the Board will appraise its dividend policy based on the operations and earnings, cash flow, financial position, capital and other reserve requirements and surplus, contractual restrictions and its overall financial conditions and any other conditions or factors that the Board considers relevant, so as to determine or recommend dividends for any financial year and also the number, amount and form of dividends paid. GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

Board’s oversight of ESG issues

The Board is committed to the long-term sustainability of the environment and communities in which the Group operates and continually enhances investment value to stakeholders through proper and effective internal control systems and ESG risk management measures throughout its operations. The Board considers ESG-related risks and opportunities as part of the Group’s overall strategic formulation, and the significant ESG impact caused by daily operations and businesses. The Board maintains oversight of and approves the identification and assessment of ESG issues and confirms that to the best of its knowledge, this ESG Report addresses material topics related to the operations of the Group and fairly presents its ESG performance and impacts.

The Board has appointed the Group’s management to supervise the ESG-related issues and work of the Group. The Group’s management is responsible for monitoring and reviewing the compliance with local laws and regulations with regards to ESG-related issues. The management is also responsible for establishment of sustainability strategies, policies and measures to implement sustainability initiatives, provide sustainability reporting and prepare the ESG Report.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Board's ESG management approach and strategy for material ESG-related issues

In order to better understand the opinions and expectations of different stakeholders on the ESG issues, materiality assessment is conducted annually. The Group ensures various platforms and channels of communication are used to reach, listen and respond to its key stakeholders. Through communication with the stakeholders, the Group is able to understand their expectations and concerns. The feedbacks obtained allow the Group to make more informed decisions, and to better assess and manage the impacts of the business decisions.

The Group has evaluated the materiality for each of the ESG aspects through the following steps: (i) identification of ESG issues by the Group; (ii) key ESG areas prioritisation with stakeholder engagement; and (iii) validation and determining material ESG issues based on the results of communication with the stakeholders.

Engaging these steps can enhance the understanding of the degree of importance of the Group's stakeholders to each material ESG issue, and can enable the Group to plan the sustainable development direction more comprehensively in the future.

Board reviews progress made against ESG-related goals and targets

The progress of implementation and the performance of the goals and targets should be closely reviewed from time to time. Modification may be needed if the progress falls short of expectation or change of business operations. Effective communication about the goals and targets with key stakeholders such as employees, customers and suppliers are essential. Setting strategic goals enable the Group to develop a realistic roadmap and focus on results of achieving the visions.

REPORTING PRINCIPLES

The ESG Report is based on the following four reporting principles:

Materiality: Stakeholder engagement and materiality assessment were conducted to identify material ESG issues, and to ensure that these issues are addressed in the report.

Quantitative: Data presented in this ESG Report have been collected prudently. Please refer to the environmental and social performance data for standards and methodologies used for calculation of key performance indicators.

Balance: Both positive and negative sides of the performance have been presented in a transparent manner.

ENVIRONMENTAL

The operation of the Group has limited impact on the environment. The Group's business area is not the main causes of environmental pollution. Moreover, the business of the Group does not involve industrial activities and thus the total amount of emission, resources used and waste produced is low.

However, the Group understands that it is the responsibility of all corporations to ensure that emission of pollutants and consumption of resources are minimized and carbon footprints are produced. For such purpose, the Group has identified the following goals to reduce consumption of resources:

Goals

- Reducing air emissions and greenhouse gases ("GHG") emissions;
- Reducing consumption of resources; and
- Reducing production of waste.

EMISSIONS

During the Reporting Period, air emissions include nitrogen oxides ("NOx"), sulphur oxides ("SOx") and particulate matter ("PM") which were generated through the use of the Group's vehicle.

There were mainly three types of GHG emissions of the Group during the Reporting Period, including but not limited to direct emission from a vehicle, indirect emission from electricity consumed in offices and indirect emissions from aircrafts when the employees went for business trips.

During the Reporting Period, the Group had two vehicles which travelled 30,508 km (2023: 33,596 km), mainly for short distance business trip. The Group encourages all employees taking public transport to customers' companies and using the vehicle only in case of emergency. Meanwhile, the vehicle was monitored and inspected by the system on a regular basis to keep them in the best conditions in order to increase fuel consumption efficiency and ensure road safety.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

The employees took aircrafts for business trips for 98 times (2023: 154 times) and the total carbon dioxide equivalent generated from air travel amounted to 12,411.31 kg (2023: 19,503.49 kg). The purposes of business trip are business development, risk auditing and asset management, etc. The Group has adopted a policy of emission reduction including, (i) the employees only took aircrafts for business trips when necessary; and (ii) the Group arranges phone or video conference instead of face-to-face meetings to reduce emissions from transportation.

For electricity consuming in offices, the Group encourages its employees to set the air conditioners at the most comfortable temperature and switch air conditioners and lights off when they are not necessary so as to reduce emission of greenhouse gases. The Group has also put notices at eye-catching areas in the offices to remind its employees about energy saving in the ordinary course of business. The Group has launched the target of reducing Air emissions and GHG emission density by 5% in five years based on 2021.

Air emissions from the use of motor vehicles (Note 1)

Environmental Indicators	Unit	2024	2023
Nitrogen oxides (NOx) emissions	Kg	25.02	25.89
Sulphur oxides (SO ₂) emissions	Kg	0.08	0.08
Particulate matter (PM) emissions	Kg	2.56	2.64

GHG emissions from operation

Environmental Indicators	Unit	2024	2023
Direct emissions (Scope 1)	Kg CO ₂ e	19,883	20,753
Indirect emissions (Scope 2) (Note 2)	Kg CO ₂ e	71,531	74,632
Other indirect emissions (Scope 3)	Kg CO ₂ e	19,532	20,377
Total GHG emissions	Kg CO ₂ e	110,946	115,762
GHG emissions intensity	Kg CO ₂ e per employee	1,585	1,346

GHG emissions can be classified into three scopes:

Scope 1: Direct GHG emissions from operations that are owned or controlled by the Group including fuel consumption of motor vehicle(s) controlled by the Group.

Scope 2: Indirect GHG emissions resulting from electricity purchased from power suppliers.

Scope 3: Other indirect GHG emissions resulting from paper waste disposed at landfills, water consumed and employees' business trips by aircraft of the Group.

Note 1: The emission factors used to calculate the NOx, SO₂ and PM are sourced from: (i) the Hong Kong Environmental Protection Department's ("EPD") EMFAC-HK Vehicle Emission Calculation model; and (ii) the United States Environmental Protection Agency's Vehicle Emission Modeling Software – MOBILE6.1. The assumption of 80% relative humidity, a temperature of 25 degrees Celsius, an average speed of 30kmh, and include running exhaust emissions only.

Note 2: The national emission factors for Shenzhen, Beijing and Tianjin are sourced from The Ministry of Ecology and Environmental of PRC (2019).

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Production of waste

Solid waste of the Group is mainly produced in the daily operation of the offices, including daily paper consumption, office paper waste and food waste made by employees. The paper consumption in this year was 406 kg in total (2023: 351 kg). All domestic waste is collected and disposed by the property management office of the office building on a regular basis. No hazardous wastes are generated in the operations of the offices.

The Group is committed to reducing waste production. The Group encourages the employees to recycle stationery and reduce waste with an aim to prevent waste production at the initial stage. Moreover, the Group has adopted a digital operation method to centralize all documents and regularly educates its employees regarding environmental protection. For example, the employees are required to print double-sided and reuse paper printed single-sided in order to save and reduce the use of paper and other natural resources. Permission is also required for printing in the offices for statistical and adjustment purposes on the use of paper, so that resource utilization can be enhanced.

The Group has established appropriate measures for disposal of computers and related products such as printers and toner cartridges. Unused digital products are transferred or reused while obsolete accessories and used toner cartridges are collected by third party companies for recycling.

In case it is necessary to dispose of an item, the Group encourages its employees to collect and classify the waste before disposing so as to reduce the negative impact on the environment.

Hazardous waste produced intensity	Kg per employee	N/A	N/A
Non-hazardous waste produced ^(Note 2)	Kg	N/A	N/A
Non-hazardous waste produced intensity	Kg per employee	N/A	N/A

Note 1: No hazardous waste is produced by the Group. Therefore, such disclosure is not applicable to the Group.

Note 2: Non-hazardous waste produced by the Group is minimal. Therefore, no relevant figure is quantified.

The targets of the Group are to maintain zero generation of hazardous waste and minimal generation of non-hazardous waste in the next five years.

During the Reporting Period, the Group was in compliance with the Environmental Protection Law of the PRC the Law of the PRC on the Prevention and Control of Atmospheric Pollution and other applicable rules and regulations related to environmental protection and did not identify any violations that were related to environmental protection and other applicable laws and regulations that has significant impact relating to air and greenhouse gases emissions, discharges into water and land, generation of hazardous and non-hazardous waste of the Group.

In addition, no significant fines or non-monetary sanctions for non-compliance with relevant laws and regulations had been reported during the Reporting Period.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

USE OF RESOURCES

The Group has always been promoting sustainability by assuming the social responsibility of environmental protection in the course of business and, on the premise of minimizing the impact on the environment, creating unlimited possibilities with limited resources. In this regard, the Group attaches great importance to employees' environmental awareness, and thus has put forth a number of initiatives with the goal of "green office", educating employees about how to fully utilize the resources and save energy. The Group aims at maximizing the efficiency of our resources in commercial aspect while eliminating waste and contributing to the society in social aspect.

The Group also embraces its responsibility in environmental protection throughout the course of office administration and daily operation. Apart from adhering to the principle of recycling and reducing use, the Group is committed to creating green offices to minimize the impact on the environment. In light of the nature of the business of the Group, the consumption of energy, electricity, water and other natural resources in the offices are limited. Electricity consumed by the Group for the Reporting Period is mainly due to daily consumption in the offices.

Below are measures taken by the Group in saving energy:

- Adopting double-sided printing and promoting use of recycled paper;
- Switching off unused lights and electric appliances to reduce energy consumption;
- Keeping the room temperature at a comfortable level and switching off the air conditioners when not necessary;
- Switching off the air conditioners and lights after office hour and when they are not in use;
- Requiring employees to turn their computers and other devices to the sleep mode or switch them off when leaving the office (including when visiting clients and having lunch); and
- Conducting regular maintenance for office equipment (such as air conditioners, computers, lights, refrigerators and paper shredders) to ensure normal operation.

Signs for reminding employees to save energy

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

As per the business nature of the Group, water consumption is very limited, mainly daily water consumption by the employees in offices during business hours. The domestic sewage of the Group does not include hazardous wastewater and is directly discharged to the municipal sewer pipeline. In order to reduce wastewater, employees of the Group are encouraged to save water.

The Group has launched the target of reducing energy consumption and water consumption density by 5% in five years based on 2021.

Note 2: The conversion factor used to convert data in other units to kWh is sourced from the Energy Statistics Manual issued by the International Energy Agency.

Note 3: As the Group is principally engaged in provision of finance lease services, factoring and advisory services, customer referral services and the supply of medical equipment in the PRC, no packaging material was consumed during the Reporting Period.

THE ENVIRONMENT AND NATURAL RESOURCES

The Group aims to conserve natural resources and is concerned with the environmental impact of its activities. The Group encourages all employees to participate in different kinds of recycling activities and minimize the use of natural resources. During the Reporting Period, there is no significant impact on the environment and natural resources from the operations of the Group.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

CLIMATE CHANGE

Awareness over climate change continues to grow and is one of the most discussed topics among companies. The Group is no exception, having increasing concerns over the potential impact from climate change on the Group's business and operation. The Group regularly reviews global and local government policies, regulatory updates and market trends to identify potential climate-related risks which may have impact on the Group's business operation.

In accordance to the reporting framework developed by the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures, there are two major categories of climate-related risks, physical and transition risks. The Group will immediately develop a response plan such as changing the business strategy and modifying the development plan in order to reduce the negative impacts of such climate-related risks.

The Group will continuously incorporate sustainable practices in its business operations and prepare and maintain sufficient resources for managing identified climate-related risks and studying the potential remediation measures.

During the Reporting Period, there is no climate-related risk, including physical and transitional risks, which have significant impact to the Group.

EMPLOYMENT AND LABOUR PRACTICES

The Group regards its employees as the cornerstone of its development, and an integral part to its sustainable development. Therefore, the Group attaches high importance to the training and welfare of its employees, and is committed to providing a working environment of job satisfaction for its employees. The Group puts much efforts to ensure the statutory rights of its employees be protected and its strict compliance with a series of labour law of the PRC, including the PRC Labour Contract Law, the PRC Labour Law, and the Social Insurance Law of the PRC. The Group provides competitive remuneration and good promotion opportunities to facilitate career development of its employees. The Group has a goal to attract, train, motivate and retain suitable talents.

Employment

The human resources policies of the Group are developed in accordance with the applicable labour laws and regulations of the PRC, including the Labour Law of the PRC, the Labour Contract Law of the PRC and the Social Insurance Law of the PRC, to protect its employees' interests. The asset management department of the Group has also engaged qualified lawyers in the PRC to closely monitor updates of the laws and relevant regulatory requirements to ensure its compliance with relevant regulations.

The Group has formulated its staff manual and management system of human resources according to relevant labour regulations, covering human resources policies and working conditions, such as recruitment and promotion procedures, trainings, performance appraisals, remuneration and benefits, working hours, vacations and other leaves (marriage leave, compassionate leave, maternity leave).

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF FY FINANCIAL (SHENZHEN) CO., LTD.

(incorporated in the PRC with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of FY Financial (Shenzhen) Co., Ltd. (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (hereinafter connectively referred to as the “Group”) set out on pages 74 to 150, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2024, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2024, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (the “HKICPA”) and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing (“HKSAs”) issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA’s Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the “Code”) and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

IMPAIRMENT OF FINANCE LEASE RECEIVABLES AND ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLES

Refer to notes 3, 19 and 20 to the consolidated financial statements.

The Key audit matter

As at 31 December 2024, the Group's finance lease receivables and account receivables are approximately RMB2,010,000 and RMB313,951,000 respectively. During the year ended 31 December 2024, net impairment loss of finance lease receivables and accounts receivables is approximately RMB10,424,000. The assessment of impairment of finance lease receivables and accounts receivables under the expected credit loss ("ECL") model requires the application of judgement and use of subjective assumptions by management.

We have identified the impairment of the finance lease receivables and account receivables as a key audit matter because of the significant management judgement, assumptions and estimations adopted in the calculation of ECL allowance and may be subject to management bias.

How the matter was addressed in our audit

Our audit procedures were designed to obtain an understanding of the key internal controls on how the management assesses the impairment of finance lease receivables and trade receivables under ECL model.

We reviewed the credit profiles, guarantors and the collaterals (if any) as well as external evidence and factors of finance lease receivables and accounts receivables on a sample basis, to assess whether management's assessment of ECL was appropriate.

We also evaluated the parameters and assumptions used in the measurement of ECL such as criteria for judging significant increases in credit risk, definition of credit-impaired financial assets, parameters for measuring ECL and forward-looking information.

We also assessed the appropriateness of the Group's disclosure of the impairment of finance lease receivables and accounts receivables, credit risk grading and the related credit risk.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

VALUATION OF FINANCIAL ASSETS AT FAIR VALUE THROUGH PROFIT OR LOSS

Refer to notes 3 and 17 to the consolidated financial statements.

The Key audit matter	How the matter was addressed in our audit
As at 31 December 2024, the Group's financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are approximately RMB71,075,000. The fair values of financial assets that are not quoted in active markets are determined by using valuation techniques. Valuation techniques used include option pricing models, market approach and recent transaction price. The Group uses market-observable data to the extent it is available. Management judgement and estimates are required for the selection of appropriate valuation parameters, assumptions and modeling techniques. We have identified the valuation of financial assets at fair value through profit or loss as a key audit matter because of the significance management judgement, assumptions and estimations adopted in the selection of valuation techniques and use of significant unobservable inputs and may be subject to management bias.	Our audit procedures were designed to assess the selection of the valuation technique the reasonableness of those key assumptions, including marketability discount and minority discount, adopted in the calculations of the fair values. When assessing those key assumptions, we discussed with management and management's expert to understand and evaluate management's basis for determining the assumptions. We also engaged our valuation expert to assist us in assessing the reasonableness of the assumptions and discount rates used by management by comparing with comparable companies with similar risk profiles and market information. We also assessed the appropriateness of the Group's fair value disclosure of financial assets at fair value through profit or loss.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

IMPAIRMENT ASSESSMENT ON CASH GENERATING UNITS OF ENERGY STORAGE BUSINESS SEGMENT

Refer to notes 3, 15, 21 and 32 to the consolidated financial statements.

The Key audit matter

The Group's cash generating units ("CGU") of energy storage business segment consisted of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and goodwill with carrying values of RMB7,821,000, RMB190,000 and RMB1,638,000 respectively as at 31 December 2024. During the year ended 31 December 2024, no impairment loss was recognised against property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and goodwill of energy storage business CGU in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC").

We have identified the impairment assessment of the CGU of energy storage business segment as a key audit matter because of the significant management judgement, assumptions and estimations when performing the impairment testing and may be subject to management bias.

How the matter was addressed in our audit

Our audit procedures were designed to assess the reasonableness of the selection of valuation model, adoption of key assumptions and input data by reference to the historical information together with other external available information. In particular, we have tested the future cash flow forecast prepared by management on whether it is agreed to the budget approved by the directors of the Company and compared the budget with actual results available up to the report date. We have also evaluated the appropriateness of the assumptions, including the future revenue, the future expenses and profit margin, against latest market expectations.

We have also assessed the discount rate employed in the calculation of value-in-use by reviewing its basis of calculation and comparing its input data to market sources.

As any changes in these assumptions and input to valuation model may result in significant financial impact, we have tested management's sensitivity analysis in relation to the key inputs to the impairment assessment which included changes in future revenue and expenses.

We also assessed the appropriateness of the Group's disclosure of the impairment assessment of CGU of energy storage business segment.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all of the information included in the annual report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements, or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE COMPANY AND THOSE CHARGED WITH GOVERNANCE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors of the Company determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors of the Company are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors of the Company either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are also responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion, solely to you, as a body, in accordance with our agreed terms of engagement, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSA's, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors of the Company.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Company's directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the Group as a basis for forming an opinion on the Group financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for purposes of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Mr. Wong Hon Kei, Anthony.

CONSOLIDATED STATEMENT OF CHANGES IN EQUITY

Note:

The nature and purposes of reserves within equity are as follows:

(a) Merger reserve

The merger reserve amounted to approximately RMB1,582,000 as at 31 December 2024 and 2023 represents the difference between the consideration and the nominal value of share capital of Beijing Shan Shan Medical Technology Development Co., Ltd (“Beijing Medical”), a subsidiary of the Group pursuant to the business combination under common control.

(b) Capital reserve

The capital reserve of the Company represents (i) the difference of the shares issued at premium over par value, net of share issue expenses, (ii) waive of amount due to non-controlling interest of Ningbo Shanshan Contract Energy Management Co., Ltd, the subsidiary of the Company, agreed to waive the outstanding balances amounted to RMB3,900,000 during the year ended 31 December 2023 and (iii) acquisition of the Company acquired additional equity interest in the subsidiary, Ningbo Shanshan Contract Energy Management Co., Ltd., amounting to approximately RMB4,210,000 during the year ended 31 December 2023.

(c) Statutory reserve

In accordance with the relevant laws and regulations in the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”) and Articles of Association of the company incorporated in the PRC now comprising the Group, i.e. the PRC Operational Entity, it is required to appropriate 10% of the annual net profits of the PRC Operational Entity, after offsetting any prior years’ losses as determined under the PRC accounting standards, to the statutory reserve fund before distributing any net profit. When the balance of the statutory reserve fund reaches 50% of the registered capital of the PRC Operational Entity, any further appropriation is at the discretion of shareholders. The statutory reserve fund can be used to offset prior years’ losses, if any, and may be capitalised as capital, provided that the remaining balance of the statutory reserve fund after such issue is no less than 25% of registered capital.

(d) It is represented by the capital contribution by non-controlling interests of Jiangsu Anshi Commercial Energy Storage System Co., Ltd and Guangdong YuanYu Jishi Xinx Technology Limited, the subsidiaries of the Company, after the acquisition during the year ended 31 December 2023, amounting to approximately RMB8,800,000 and approximately RMB490,000 respectively with no change in the ownership interests.

The functional currency and presentation currency of the Company and the subsidiaries are Renminbi ("RMB").

2. APPLICATION OF AMENDMENTS TO HONG KONG FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS ("HKFRSs")

Application of amendments to HKFRSs

In the current year, the Group has applied, for the first time, the following amendments to Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (the "HKICPA") which are effective for the Group's financial year beginning on 1 January 2024:

Amendments to HKFRS 16	Lease Liability in a Sale and Leaseback
Amendments to HKAS 1 (note)	Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current and the related amendments to Hong Kong Interpretation 5 (2020) Presentation of Financial Statements – Classification by the Borrower of a Term Loan that Contains a Repayment on Demand Clause
Amendments to HKAS 1	Non-current Liabilities with Covenants
Amendments to HKAS 7 and HKFRS 7	Supplier Finance Arrangements

The application of the amendments to HKFRSs in the current year has had no material effect on the Group's financial performance and positions for the current and prior periods and/or on the disclosures set out in these consolidated financial statements.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. APPLICATION OF AMENDMENTS TO HONG KONG FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS ("HKFRSs") (CONTINUED)

New and amendments to HKFRSs issued but not yet effective

The Group has not early applied the following new and amendments to HKFRSs that have been issued but are not yet effective:

HKFRS 18	Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements ³
HKFRS 19	Subsidiaries without Public Accountability: Disclosures ³
Amendments to HKAS 21	Lack of Exchangeability ¹
Amendments to HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 7	Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments ²
Amendments to HKFRS Accounting Standards	Annual Improvements to HKFRS Accounting Standards – Volume 11 ²
Amendments to HKFRS 10 and HKAS 28	Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture ⁴
Amendments to HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 7	Contracts Referencing Nature-dependent Electricity ²

¹ Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2025.

² Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2026.

³ Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027.

⁴ Effective for annual periods beginning on or after a date to be determined.

The directors of the Company anticipate that, except as described below, the application of other new and amendments to HKFRSs will have no material impact on the results and the financial position of the Group.

HKFRS 18 – Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements

HKFRS 18 sets out requirements on presentation and disclosures in financial statements and will replace HKAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements. HKFRS 18 introduces new requirements to present specified categories and defined subtotals in the statement of profit or loss; provide disclosures on management-defined performance measures in the notes to the financial statements and improve aggregation and disaggregation of information to be disclosed in the financial statements. Minor amendments to HKAS 7 "Statement of Cash Flows" and HKAS 33 "Earnings per Share" are also made.

HKFRS 18, and the consequential amendments to other HKFRS Accounting Standards, will be effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027, with early application permitted.

The application of the HKFRS 18 is not expected to have material impact on the financial position of the Group. The directors are in the process of making an assessment of the impact of HKFRS 18, but is not yet in a position to state whether the adoption would have a material impact on the presentation and disclosures of consolidated financial statements of the Group.

3. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA. In addition, the consolidated financial statements include applicable disclosures required by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on GEM of the Stock Exchange (“Listing Rules”) and by the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for certain financial instruments that are measured at fair values, at the end of each reporting period.

Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. Details of fair value measurement are explained in the accounting policies set out below.

The material accounting policies are set out below.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and entities controlled by the Company and its subsidiaries.

Control is achieved where the Group has: (i) the power over the investee; (ii) exposure, or rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and (iii) the ability to use its power over the investee to affect the amount of the Group’s returns.

When the Company has less than a majority of the voting rights of an investee, it considers that it has power over the investee when the voting rights are sufficient to give it the practical ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee unilaterally. The Company considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether or not the Company’s voting rights in an investee are sufficient to give it power, including:

- the size of the Company’s holding of voting rights relative to the size and dispersion of holdings of the other vote holders;
- potential voting rights held by the Company, other vote holders or other parties;
- rights arising from other contractual arrangements;
- any additional facts and circumstances that indicate that the Company has, or does not have, the current ability to direct the relevant activities at the time that decisions need to be made, including voting patterns at previous shareholders’ meetings

The Group reassesses whether it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of these elements of control stated above.

Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Group obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiary.

Income and expenses of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income from the date the Group gains control until the date when the Group ceases to control the subsidiary.

Profit or loss and each item of other comprehensive income of subsidiaries are attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests. Total comprehensive income or expenses of subsidiaries is attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

All intra-group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between entities of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

3. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (CONTINUED)

Changes in the Group's ownership interests in existing subsidiaries

Changes in the Group's ownership interests in existing subsidiaries that do not result in the Group losing control over the subsidiaries are accounted for as equity transactions. The carrying amounts of the Group's interests and the non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their relative interests in the subsidiaries. Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognised directly in equity and attributed to owners of the Company.

Goodwill

Goodwill arising on an acquisition of a business is carried at cost as established at the date of acquisition of the business less accumulated impairment losses, if any.

For the purposes of impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units that is expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination.

A cash-generating unit to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment annually or more frequently when there is indication that the unit may be impaired. For goodwill arising on an acquisition in a reporting period, the cash-generating unit to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment before the end of that reporting period. If the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the unit and then to the other assets of the unit on a pro rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit. Any impairment loss for goodwill is recognised directly in profit or loss. An impairment loss recognised for goodwill is not reversed in subsequent periods.

The Group's policy for goodwill arising on the acquisition of an associate is described below.

Investment in an associate

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but is not control or joint control of those policies.

The results and assets and liabilities of an associate is incorporated in these consolidated financial statements using the equity method. Under the equity method, investment in an associate is initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the profit or loss and other comprehensive income or expense of the associate. If the Group's share of losses of an associate equals or exceeds its interest in the associate, the Group discontinues recognising its share of further losses. Additional losses are provided for, and a liability is recognised, only to the extent that the Group has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate.

An investment in an associate is accounted for using the equity method from the date on which the investee becomes an associate. On acquisition of the investment, any excess of the cost of acquisition over the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities of the associate is recognised as goodwill and is included in the carrying amount of the investment.

The Group assesses whether there is an objective evidence that the interest in an associate may be impaired. When any objective evidence exists, the entire carrying amount of the investment (including goodwill) is tested for impairment in accordance with HKAS 36 as a single asset by comparing its recoverable amount (higher of value in use and fair value less costs of disposal) with its carrying amount. Any impairment loss recognised is not allocated to any asset, including goodwill, that forms part of the carrying amount of the investment. Any reversal of that impairment loss is recognised in accordance with HKAS 36 to the extent that the recoverable amount of the investment subsequently increases.

3. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (CONTINUED)Non-current assets held for sale

Non-current assets and disposal groups are classified as held for sale if their carrying amounts will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use. Such classification requires the asset or the disposal group must be available for immediate sale in its present condition subject only to terms that are usual and customary for sales of such asset or disposal group and its sale is highly probable. Management must be committed to the sale, which should be expected to qualify for recognition as a completed sale within one year from the date of classification.

When the Group is committed to a sale plan involving loss of control of a subsidiary, all of the assets and liabilities of that subsidiary are classified as held for sale when the criteria described above are met, regardless of whether the Group will retain a non-controlling interest in its former subsidiary after the sale.

Non-current assets and disposal groups classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of their previous carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell, except for financial assets within the scope of HKFRS 9, which continue to be measured in accordance with the relevant accounting policies.

Impairment losses on plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets (other than impairment of goodwill set out in accounting policy of goodwill)

At the end of each reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets with finite useful life to determine whether there is any indication that these assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any). The recoverable amount of plant and equipment, right-of-use assets, and intangible assets are estimated individually. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. When a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be identified, corporate assets are also allocated to individual cash-generating unit, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of cash-generating units for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be identified.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset (or a cash-generating unit) for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or a cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or the cash generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. For corporate assets or portion of corporate assets which cannot be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis to a cash-generating unit, the Group compares the carrying amount of a group of cash-generating units, including the carrying amounts of the corporate assets or portion of corporate assets allocated to that group of cash-generating units, with the recoverable amount of the group of cash-generating units. In allocating the impairment loss, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill (if applicable) and then to the other assets on a pro-rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit or the group of cash-generating units. The carrying amount of an asset is not reduced below the highest of its fair value less costs of disposal (if measurable), its value in use (if determinable) and zero. The amount of the impairment loss that would otherwise have been allocated to the asset is allocated pro rata to the other assets of the unit or the group of cash-generating units. An impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or the cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (or the cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Leases

Definition of a lease

A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys a right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

The Group as lessee

For contracts entered into or modified on or after the date of initial application of HKFRS 16 or arising from business combinations, the Group assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease based on the definition under HKFRS 16 at inception, modification date or acquisition date, as appropriate. Such contract will not be reassessed unless the terms and conditions of the contract are subsequently changed.

The Group has elected not to recognise right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for low-value assets and leases for which at the commencement date have a lease term less than 12 months. The lease payments associated with those leases have been expensed on straight-line basis over the lease term.

Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of a lease, the Group measures lease liability at the present value of the lease payments that are unpaid at that date. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses the incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date if the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable.

The lease payments include:

- fixed lease payments (including in-substance fixed payments); and
- payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising an option to terminate the lease.

The Group presents lease liabilities as a separate line item on the consolidated statement of financial position.

The lease liability is subsequently measured by increasing the carrying amount to reflect interest on the lease liability (using the effective interest method) and by reducing the carrying amount to reflect the lease payments made.

Right-of-use assets

The right-of-use assets comprise the initial measurement of the corresponding lease liability, lease payments made at or before the commencement date and any initial direct costs, less lease incentives received.

Right-of-use assets are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. They are depreciated over the shorter period of lease term and useful life of the underlying asset. The depreciation starts at the commencement date of the lease.

The Group presents right-of-use assets as a separate line item on the consolidated statement of financial position.

The Group applies HKAS 36 to determine whether a right-of-use asset is impaired and accounts for any identified impairment loss.

The Group as a lessor

Classification and measurement of leases

Leases for which the Group is a lessor are classified as finance or operating leases. Whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee, the contract is classified as a finance lease. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

Rental income from operating leases is recognised on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease.

3. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (CONTINUED)Leases (Continued)The Group as lessee (Continued)

Amounts due from lessees under finance leases are recognised as receivables at the amount of the Group's net investment in the leases. Finance lease income is allocated to accounting periods so as to reflect a constant periodic rate of return on the Group's net investment outstanding in respect of the leases.

Revenue from contracts with customers

Revenue is recognised to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods.

Specifically, the Group uses a 5-step approach to revenue recognition:

- Step 1: Identify the contract(s) with a customer
- Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 3: Determine the transaction price
- Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 5: Recognise revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation

The Group recognises revenue when (or as) a performance obligation is satisfied, i.e. when "control" of the goods or services underlying the particular performance obligation is transferred to customers.

A performance obligation represents a good or service that is distinct or a series of distinct goods that are substantially same.

Control is transferred over time and revenue is recognised over time by reference to the progress towards complete satisfaction of the relevant performance obligation if one of the following criteria is met:

- The customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group's performance as the Group performs;
- The Group's performance creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the asset is created or enhanced; or
- The Group's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use to the Group and the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

Otherwise, revenue is recognised at a point in time when the customer obtains control of the distinct goods or services.

Revenue is measured based on the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in a contract with a customer.

Principal versus agent

When another party is involved in providing goods to a customer, the Group determines whether the nature of its promise is a performance obligation to provide the specified goods itself (i.e. the Group is a principal) or to arrange for those goods to be provided by the other party (i.e. the Group is an agent). The Group is a principal if it controls the specified good before that good is transferred to a customer. The Group is an agent if its performance obligation is to arrange for the provision of the specified good by another party. In this case, the Group does not control the specified good provided by another party before that good is transferred to the customer. When the Group acts as an agent, it recognises revenue in the amount of any fee or commission to which it expects to be entitled in exchange for arranging for the specified goods to be provided by the other party.

Contract liabilities

A contract liability represents the Group's obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Group has received consideration from the customer.

For a single contract with the customer, either a net contract asset or a net contract liability is presented.

The Group recognised revenue from the following major sources:

- Advisory service fee income
- Sales of goods – energy storage system
- Sales of goods – electronic products
- Energy storage solutions and general construction

Revenue for the provision of advisory services

Revenue for the provision of advisory services is recognised at point in time when the services have been rendered.

Revenue from sales of goods – energy storage system

For revenue from sales of goods – energy storage system provided by the Group, the Group entered the contract with the customers. The Group determined that revenue from sales of goods is recognised at point in time when the goods are delivered to and have been accepted.

Revenue from sales of goods – electronic products

For revenue from sales of goods – electronic products provided by the Group, the Group entered the contract with the customers. The Group determined that revenue from sales of goods is recognised at point in time when the goods are delivered to and have been accepted by customers.

3. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (CONTINUED)Revenue from contracts with customers (Continued)Contract assets and contract liabilities (Continued)Revenue from energy storage solution and general contraction

The Group has determined that for contracts with customers for the provision of energy storage solution and general construction, which refer to the construction of energy storage system. Such contracts are entered into before the services begin. Under the terms of the contracts, the Group is contractually required to perform the construction works and services at the customers' specified sites that the Group's performance creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the Group performs. Revenue from provision of such construction works and services (including materials and equipment, construction services and design and consultancy services components) is therefore recognised over time using input method, i.e. based on the actual costs incurred by the Group to date compared with the total budgeted cost for the project to estimate the revenue recognised during the year. The management of the Group considers that input method would faithfully depict the Group's performance obligation under HKFRS 15.

Revenue from other sourcesFinance leases income

Amounts due from lessees under finance leases are recognised as receivables at the amount of the Group's net investment in the leases. Finance lease income is allocated to accounting periods so as to reflect a constant periodic rate of return on the Group's net investment outstanding in respect of the leases.

Income from sale-leaseback transactionsThe Group acts as a buyer-lessor

For a transfer of asset that does not satisfy the requirements of HKFRS 15 to be accounted for as a sale of asset, the Group as a buyer-lessor does not recognise the transferred asset and recognises account receivables equal to the transfer proceeds within the scope of HKFRS 9.

Factoring income

The Group's factoring income arise from the provision of factoring services to companies located in the PRC.

Factoring income is recognised in accordance with the accounting policy under "Financial Instruments".

Energy storage service income

The Group, as a lessor, accounts for the provision of energy storage service as operating lease, such revenue is recognised over the lease period with variable lease payment. Variable lease payment not based on index or rate are recognised as revenue as incurred.

Provision of 5G base stations site space

The Group, as a lessor, accounts for the provision of 5G base stations site space as operating lease, such revenue is recognised on a straight-line basis over the lease period. Lease payments are fixed.

Intangible asset

Intangible asset acquired separately

Intangible asset with finite useful life that is acquired separately are carried at costs less accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses. Amortisation for intangible asset with finite useful life is recognised on a straight-line basis over its estimated useful life. The estimated useful life and amortisation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis.

Plant and equipment

Plant and equipment are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost less subsequent accumulated depreciation and subsequent accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost of assets less their residual values over their estimated useful lives, using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

An item of plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in profit or loss.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents presented on the consolidated statement of financial position include:

- (a) cash and bank balances; and
- (b) cash equivalents, which comprises of short-term (generally with original maturity of three months or less), highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. Cash equivalents are held for the purpose of meeting short-term cash commitments rather than for investment or other purposes.

For the purposes of the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and cash equivalents as defined above.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost of inventories are determined on a first in, first out method. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price for inventories less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale. Cost necessary to make the sale include incremental cost directly attributable to the sale and non-incremental costs which the Group must incur to make the sale.

Taxation

Income tax expenses represents the sum of current and deferred income tax expenses.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from (loss) profit before tax as reported in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income because it excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and it further excludes items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary difference to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from goodwill or from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit and at the time of the transaction does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries and associates, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences associated with such investments and interests are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that there will be sufficient taxable profits against which to utilise the benefits of the temporary differences and they are expected to reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset is realised, based on tax rate (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority and the Group intends to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis.

For leasing transactions in which the tax deductions are attributable to the lease liabilities, the Group applies HKAS 12 requirements to the lease liabilities and the related assets separately. The Group recognises a deferred tax asset related to lease liabilities to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary difference can be utilised and a deferred tax liability for all taxable temporary differences.

Current and deferred tax are recognised in profit or loss.

Short-term employee benefits

A liability is recognised for benefits accruing to employees in respect of wages and salaries in the period the related service is rendered at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid in exchange for that service.

Liabilities recognised in respect of short-term employee benefits are measured at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid in exchange for the related service.

Retirement benefits costs

Payments to stage-managed retirement benefit schemes are recognised as an expense when employees have rendered services entitling them to the contributions.

Investments in subsidiaries

Investments in subsidiaries are stated on the statement of financial position of the Company at cost less accumulated impairment loss.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

All other borrowings costs are recognised as expenses in the period in which they are incurred.

Foreign currencies

In preparing the financial statements of each individual group entity, transactions in currencies other than the functional currency of that entity (foreign currencies) are recorded in the respective functional currency (i.e., the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates) at the rates of exchanges prevailing on the dates of the transactions. At the end of each reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items, and on the retranslation of monetary items, are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when a group entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value, except for trade receivables arising from contracts with customers which are initially measured in accordance with HKFRS 15. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Financial assets

All regular way purchases or sales of financial assets are recognised and derecognised on a trade date basis. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame established by regulation or convention in the marketplace.

All recognised financial assets are subsequently measured in their entirety at either amortised cost or fair value, depending on the classification of the financial assets. Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, as subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVTOCI"), and fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL").

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Group's business model for managing them.

Classification and subsequent measurement of financial assets

Financial assets at amortised cost (debt instruments)

Financial assets that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at amortised cost:

- the financial assets is held within a business model whose objective is to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and
- the contractual terms give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured using the effective interest method and are subject to impairment.

Financial assets at FVTPL

Financial assets that do not meet the criteria for being measured at amortised cost are measured at FVTPL. Specifically: investments in equity instruments are classified as at FVTPL, unless the Group designates an equity investment that is neither held for trading nor a contingent consideration arising from a business combination as at FVTOCI on initial recognition.

Financial assets at FVTPL are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period, with any fair value gains or losses recognised in profit or loss. The net gain or loss recognised in profit or loss excludes any dividend or interest earned on the financial assets and is included in the "other income and gains" line item in profit or loss. Fair value is determined in the manner described in note 41.

Dividends from investments in equity instruments are recognised in profit or loss when the Group's right to receive the dividends is established, unless the dividends clearly represent a recovery of part of the cost of the investment. Dividends are included in the 'other income and gains' line item in profit or loss.

Amortised cost and effective interest method

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a debt instrument and of allocating interest income over the relevant period.

For financial assets, the effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) excluding expected credit losses, through the expected life of the debt instrument, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the gross carrying amount of the debt instrument on initial recognition.

The amortised cost of a financial asset is the amount at which the financial asset is measured at initial recognition minus the principal repayments, plus the cumulative amortisation using the effective interest method of any difference between that initial amount and the maturity amount, adjusted for any loss allowance. The gross carrying amount of a financial asset is the amortised cost of a financial asset before adjusting for any loss allowance.

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method for debt instruments measured subsequently at amortised cost. For financial asset, interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset, except for financial assets that have subsequently become credit-impaired (see below). For financial assets that have subsequently become credit-impaired, interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate to the amortised cost of the financial assets. If, in subsequent reporting periods, the credit risk on the credit-impaired financial instrument improves so that the financial assets are no longer credit-impaired, interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of the financial assets.

Interest income is recognised in profit or loss and is included in the "Revenue" (note 5) and "Other income and gains" line item (note 7).

Impairment of financial assets and other items subject to impairment assessment under HKFRS 9

The Group performs impairment assessment under expected credit loss ("ECL") model on financial assets (including finance lease receivables, accounts receivables, amounts due from related companies and a non-controlling interest, other receivables, deposits and cash and cash equivalents) which are subject to impairment assessment under HKFRS 9. The amount of ECL is updated at each reporting date to reflect changes in credit risk since initial recognition.

Lifetime ECL represents the ECL that will result from all possible default events over the expected life of the relevant instrument. In contrast, 12-month ECL ("12m ECL") represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date. Assessments are done based on the Group's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors, general economic conditions and an assessment of both the current conditions at the reporting date as well as the forecast of future conditions.

The Group has adopted judgement, assumptions and estimation techniques in order to measure ECL according to the requirements of accounting standards such as criteria for judging significant increases in credit risk, definition of credit-impaired financial assets, parameters for measuring ECL and forward-looking information.

The Group has elected to measure loss allowances for finance lease receivables and certain trade nature receivables using HKFRS 9 simplified approach and has calculated ECLs based on lifetime ECLs. To measure the ECL, finance lease receivables and certain trade nature receivables have been grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics. The Group estimated the expected loss rate based on the Group's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors, general economic conditions and an assessment of both the current as well as the forecast direction of conditions at the reporting date, including time value of money where appropriate.

For all other financial instruments including factoring receivables, receivables from sale-leaseback transaction and receivables from operating lease, the Group measures the loss allowance equal to 12-month ECL, unless when there has a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, the Group recognises lifetime ECL. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increase in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition.

Significant increase in credit risk

In assessing whether the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition. In making this assessment, the Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

In particular, the following information is taken into account when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition:

- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the financial instrument's external (if available) or internal credit rating;
- existing or forecast adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations;
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtor;
- significant increases in credit risk on other financial instruments of the same debtor;
- an actual or expected significant adverse change in the regulatory, economic, or technological environment of the debtor that results in a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations.

Irrespective of the outcome of the above assessment, the Group presumes that the credit risk on a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due, unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information that demonstrates otherwise.

Despite the foregoing, the Group assumes that the credit risk on a debt instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition if the debt instrument is determined to have low credit risk at the reporting date. A financial instrument is determined to have low credit risk if (i) the financial instrument has a low risk of default, (ii) the debtor has a strong capacity to meet its contractual cash flow obligations in the near term, and (iii) adverse changes in economic and business conditions in the longer term may, but will not necessarily, reduce the ability of the borrower to fulfill its contractual cash flow obligations. The Group considers a debt instrument to have low credit risk when the asset has external credit rating of 'investment grade' in accordance with the globally understood definition or if an external rating is not available, the asset has an internal rating of 'normal'. Normal means that the counterparty has a strong financial position and there is no past due amounts.

The Group regularly monitors the effectiveness of the criteria used to identify whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk and revises them as appropriate to ensure that the criteria are capable of identifying significant increase in credit risk before the amount becomes past due.

Definition of default

For internal credit risk management, the Group considers an event of default occurs when the information developed internally or obtained from external sources indicates that the debtor is unlikely to pay its creditors, including the Group, in full (without taking into account any collaterals held by the Group).

Irrespective of the above analysis, the Group considers that default has occurred when a financial asset is more than 90 days past due unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information to demonstrate that a more lagging default criterion is more appropriate.

Credit-impaired financial assets

A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of that financial asset have occurred. Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes observable data about the following events:

- significant financial difficulty of the issuer or the borrower;
- a breach of contract, such as a default or past due event;
- the lender(s) of the borrower, for economic or contractual reasons relating to the borrower's financial difficulty, having granted to the borrower a concession(s) that the lender(s) would not otherwise consider;
- it is becoming probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation;
- the disappearance of an active market for that financial assets because of financial difficulties; or
- the financial asset is more than 180 days past due.

Write-off policy

The gross carrying amount of a financial asset is written off (either partially or in full) to the extent that there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when the Group determines that the debtor does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subject to the write-off. Subsequent recoveries of an asset that was previously written off are recognised as a reversal of impairment loss in profit or loss in the period in which the recovery occurs.

Measurement and recognition of expected credit losses

The measurement of expected credit losses is a function of the probability of default, loss given default (i.e. the magnitude of the loss if there is a default) and the exposure at default. The assessment of the probability of default and loss given default is based on historical data adjusted by forward-looking information. As for the exposure at default, for financial assets, this is represented by the assets' gross carrying amount at the reporting date.

Generally, the ECL is the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at the effective interest rate determined at initial recognition. For a lease receivable, the cash flows used for determining the ECL is consistent with the cash flows used in measuring the lease receivable in accordance with HKFRS 16 Leases.

Lifetime ECL for finance lease receivables and certain trade nature receivables are considered on a collective basis taking into consideration past due information and relevant credit information such as forward looking macroeconomic information.

If the Group has measured the loss allowance for a financial instrument at an amount equal to lifetime ECL in the previous reporting period, but determines at the current reporting date that the conditions for lifetime ECL are no longer met, the Group measures the loss allowance at an amount equal to 12-month ECL at the current reporting date, except for assets for which simplified approach was used.

The grouping is regularly reviewed by management to ensure the constituents of each group continue to share similar credit risk characteristics.

The Group recognises an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss for all financial instruments with a corresponding adjustment to their carrying amount through a loss allowance account.

3. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (CONTINUED)Financial instruments (Continued)Financial assets (Continued)Derecognition of financial assets

The Group derecognises a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another party.

On derecognition of a financial asset measured at amortised cost, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable is recognised in profit or loss.

Financial liabilities and equity instruments*Classification as debt or equity*

Debt and equity instruments issued by a group entity are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Company are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Financial liabilities

All financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Financial liabilities at amortised cost

Financial liabilities that are not 1) contingent consideration of an acquirer in a business combination, 2) held-for-trading, or 3) designated as at FVTPL, are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial liability and of allocating interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial liability, or (where appropriate) a shorter period, to the amortised cost of a financial liability.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

The Group derecognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or they expire. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in profit or loss.

3. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (CONTINUED)

Fair value measurement

When measuring fair value except for the Group's leasing transactions, net realisable value of inventories, impairment assessment of non-current assets, the Group takes into account the characteristics of the asset or liability if market participants would take those characteristics into account when pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial assets takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs. Specifically, the Group categorised the fair value measurements into three levels, based on the characteristics of inputs, as follow:

Level 1 – Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 – Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable.

Level 3 – Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

At the end of the reporting period, the Group determines whether transfer occur between levels of the fair value hierarchy for assets and liabilities which are measured at fair value on recurring basis by reviewing their respective fair value measurement.

4. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

In the application of the Group's accounting policies, which are described in note 3, the directors of the Company are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses reported and disclosures made in the consolidated financial statements. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Critical judgement in applying accounting policies

The following are the critical judgements, apart from those involving estimations (see below), that the directors of the Company have made in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies and that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements.

4. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATES UNCERTAINTY (CONTINUED)Classification between finance leasing and operating leasing as a lessor

Leases are required to be classified as either finance leases (which transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership, and give rise to asset and liability recognition by the lessee and a receivable by the lessor) and operating leases (which result in expenses recognition by the lessee, with the asset remaining recognised by the lessor).

Situations that would normally lead to a lease being classified as finance lease including the following:

- (a) The lease transfers ownership of the underlying asset to the lessee by the end of the lease term;
- (b) The lessee has the option to purchase the underlying asset at a price which is expected to be sufficiently lower than the fair value at the date the option becomes exercisable and, at the inception of the lease, it is reasonably certain that the option will be exercised;
- (c) The lease term is for the major part of the economic life of the asset, even if title is not transferred;
- (d) At the inception of the lease, the present value of the lease payments amounts to at least substantially all of the fair value of the underlying asset; and
- (e) The underlying assets are of a specialised nature such that only the lessee can use them without major modification being made.

The Group does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset, therefore, those lease are classified as operating leasing as lessor.

Principal versus agent consideration

The Group engages in trading of energy storage system and electronic products. The Group assessed whether the Group should recognise revenue on gross basis based on the requirements in HKFRS 15. The Group concluded that the Group acts as the principal for such transactions as it controls the specified good before it is transferred to the customer after taking into consideration indicators such as that the Group is primarily responsible for fulfilling the promise to provide the goods. The Group has inventory risk and discretion in establishing selling prices of the goods. When the Group satisfies the performance obligation, the Group recognises trading revenue in the gross amount of consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled as specified in the contracts.

During the year ended 31 December 2024, the Group recognised revenue in respect of such business is approximately RMB101,804,000 (2023: RMB29,917,000).

4. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATES UNCERTAINTY (CONTINUED)

Controls in subsidiaries

As stated in note 35, some subsidiaries are considered as subsidiaries of the Group even though the Group holds less than 50% ownership interest and less than 50% of the shareholdings in those subsidiaries. The directors of the Company assessed the Group's control over these subsidiaries based on its practical ability to unilaterally direct the relevant activities. In making their judgment, the directors of the Company considered that the Group holds significantly more voting rights than any other individual vote holder or organized group of vote holders. As a result, the Group has the power to control those subsidiaries.

Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The following are the key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period that may have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

Impairment of finance lease receivables and accounts receivables

The impairment provisions for finance lease receivables and accounts receivables are based on assumptions about expected credit loss. The assessment of impairment of finance lease and accounts receivables under the expected loss model is considered to be a matter of most significance as it requires the application of judgement and use of subjective assumptions by management. The Group assesses the expected credit loss ("ECL") according to forward-looking information and used appropriate models and a large number of assumptions in its expected measurement of credit losses. These models and assumptions relate to the future macroeconomic conditions and borrower's creditworthiness (e.g., the likelihood of default by customers and the corresponding losses). The Group has adopted judgement, assumptions and estimation techniques in order to measure ECL according to the requirements of accounting standards such as criteria for judging significant increases in credit risk, definition of credit-impaired financial assets, parameters for measuring ECL and forward-looking information.

At 31 December 2024, the carrying amounts of finance lease receivables and accounts receivables are approximately RMB2,010,000 and RMB313,951,000 (2023: RMB8,230,000 and RMB214,299,000), net of accumulated impairment losses of approximately RMB8,967,000 and RMB28,976,000 (2023: RMB10,627,000 and RMB35,962,000) respectively.

During the year ended 31 December 2024, net impairment loss of finance lease receivables and accounts receivables is approximately RMB10,424,000 (2023: reversal of impairment loss RMB10,614,000).

Valuation of financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

As at 31 December 2024, the Group's financial assets at FVTPL amounting to approximately RMB71,075,000 (2023: RMB63,102,000) are measured at fair value. The fair values of financial assets that are not quoted in active markets are determined by using valuation techniques. Valuation techniques used include income approaches, market approaches and option pricing models. Changes in assumptions relating to these factors could result in material adjustments to the fair value of these instruments.

Deferred tax assets

As at 31 December 2024, no deferred tax asset has been recognised on the tax losses for certain subsidiaries due to the unpredictability of future profit streams. In cases where the actual future taxable profits generated are less or more than expected, or change in facts and circumstances which result in revision of future taxable profits estimation, a material reversal or further recognition of deferred tax assets may arise, which would be recognised in profit or loss for the period in which such a reversal or further recognition takes place.

4. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATES UNCERTAINTY (CONTINUED)Impairment of interest in an associate

As at 31 December 2024, the Group performed impairment assessment on an associate. Determining whether impairment loss should be recognised requires an estimation of the recoverable amount of the relevant associate which is the higher of value in use and fair value less costs of disposal. The value in use calculation requires the management of the Group to estimate the present value of the estimated cash flows. In cases where the actual cash flows are less or more than expected, or change in facts and circumstances which result in revision of future cash flows estimation or discount rate, a material reversal or further recognition of impairment may arise, which would be recognised in profit or loss for the period in which such a reversal or further recognition takes place.

As at 31 December 2024, the carrying amount of interest in an associate amounted to approximately RMB45,760,000 (2023: RMB50,806,000). No impairment loss is recognised during the years ended 31 December 2024 and 2023.

Impairment assessment on cash generating unit of energy storage business segment ("CGUs")

The Group's cash generating units ("CGU") of energy storage business segment consisted of certain property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and goodwill. In determining whether there is any impairment loss of the CGU, management estimated the recoverable amounts of the CGU based on the value in use calculation. The value in use calculation is prepared by independent professional valuers based on the management's assumptions and estimates taking into account the existing business plan and other strategic business development. These calculations require the use of estimates such as the future revenue, expenses and discount rates.

As at 31 December 2024, the carrying amounts of plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and goodwill of the CGU of energy storage business segment subject to impairment assessment were approximately RMB7,821,000, RMB190,000 and RMB1,638,000 (2023: RMB9,071,000, RMB647,000 and RMB1,638,000) respectively. No impairment loss is recognised during the years ended 31 December 2024 and 2023.

6. SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Group's chief operating decision maker ("CODM") has been identified as the executive directors of the Company. Information reported to the CODM for the purposes of resource allocation and assessment of segment performance focuses on types of goods or services delivered or provided. The directors of the Company have chosen to organise the Group around differences in products and services.

Specifically, the Group's reportable segments are as follows:

- Financial and advisory business – comprises direct finance leasing, sale-leaseback transactions, factoring, advisory services and investment holding
- Trading operation business – comprises trading of electronic products
- Energy storage business – comprises trading of energy storage system, energy storage solutions and general construction and provision of energy storage services

During the year ended 31 December 2024, the Group disposed of the interest in 5G base station business segment which was presented as "discontinued operations" and details are set out in note 11. The 5G base station business comprises provision of 5G base stations site space. The following segment information of the Group's business segment does not include the discontinued operations. No new reportable segments identified during the year ended 31 December 2024 and 2023.

The following is an analysis of the Group's revenue and results from continuing operations by reportable and operating segments.

For the year ended	Financial and advisory business 31 December		Trading operation business 31 December		Energy storage business 31 December		Total 31 December

Change in fair value of financial assets at FVTPL, net							(1,027)	(800)
Group's (loss) profit before tax							(8,900)	4,365

The accounting policies of the operating segments are the same as the Group's accounting policies described in note 3. Segment profit/loss represents the profit earned by/loss from each segment without allocation of share of loss of an associate, gain on partial disposal of financial assets at FVTPL, dividend income from financial assets at FVTPL and change in fair value of financial assets at FVTPL, net. This is the measure reported to CODM for the purposes of resource allocation and performance assessment.

The Group and its subsidiaries in the PRC are subject to PRC Enterprise Income Tax at the rate of 25% based on the estimated assessable profits for the years ended 31 December 2024 and 2023.

Under the two-tiered profits tax rates regime of Hong Kong Profits Tax, the first HK$2 million of profits of qualifying corporation will be taxed at 8.25%, and profits above HK$2 million will be taxed at 16.5%. Hong Kong profits tax of the qualified entity of the Group is calculated in accordance with the two-tiered profits tax rates regime. The profits of other group entities in Hong Kong not qualifying for the two-tiered profits tax rates regime will continue to be taxed at the flat rate of 16.5%.

During the years ended 31 December 2024 and 2023, the Group is not subject to any Hong Kong Profits Tax since the assessable profit is wholly absorbed by tax losses brought forward.

The income tax expenses for the year can be reconciled to (loss) profit before tax in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income as follows:

11. DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS/DISPOSAL ASSETS HELD FOR SALE

On 16 May 2024, the Group entered into an asset transfer agreement with an independent third party whereby the Group agreed to dispose all base stations constructed by its subsidiaries, Shenzhen Huixin Zhida Technology Co., Ltd.* (深圳匯信致達科技有限公司) (“Huixin”) at cash consideration of RMB1,410,000 and Guangdong Yideng Engineering Construction Co., Ltd.* (廣東壹登工程建設有限公司) (“Yideng”) at cash consideration of RMB8,750,000 for the use of the third party telecommunications operators, including the base station equipment and auxiliary facilities owned by Huixin and Yideng. In order to reduce the operating and maintenance costs of the base stations and to avoid potential loss resulting from the decrease in value of base stations, the directors of the Company considered that the disposal of assets offer an opportunity for the Group to optimize its resources allocation and enhance the quality and efficiency of its operations, which will be beneficial to the overall development of the Group. Details are set out in announcement dated 16 May 2024. After the disposal of those assets, the Group has discontinued its operations of 5G base stations. The net proceeds of disposal are expected to exceed the net carrying amount of the relevant assets and liabilities and accordingly, no impairment loss has been recognised.

As at 31 December 2024, the disposal of certain base stations was completed and the remaining base stations are expected to be completed in coming twelve months. The Group recognised the consideration receivable of RMB2,756,000 for the disposed based stations and received the partial settlement of RMB2,372,000 during the year ended 31 December 2024.

The remaining base stations and their associated assets and liabilities as at 31 December 2024 were classified as assets and liabilities held for sale and the results of 5G base station business segment have been presented as loss from discontinued operations. The comparative figures in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income have been restated to re-present the results of 5G base station business segment for the year ended 31 December 2023 as loss from discontinued operations.

40. CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group manages its capital to ensure that entities in the Group will be able to continue as a going concern while maximising the return to shareholders through the optimisation of the debt and equity balance. The Group's overall strategy remains unchanged from prior year.

The capital structure of the Group consists of net debt, which includes bank borrowings and lease liabilities disclosed in notes 31 and 32, net of cash and cash equivalents and equity attributable to owners of the Company, comprising issued share capital, retained profits and other reserves.

The directors of the Company review the capital structure regularly. As part of this review, the directors of the Company consider the cost of capital and the risks associated with each class of capital. Based on recommendations of the directors of the Company, the Group will balance its overall capital structure through the payment of dividends, new shares issues and share buy-backs as well as the issue of new debt or the redemption of existing debt.

Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk that the Group's counterparties default on their contractual obligations resulting in financial losses to the Group. As at 31 December 2024 and 2023, the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk without taking into account any collateral held or other credit enhancements, which will cause a financial loss to the Group due to failure to discharge an obligation by the counterparties is arising from the carrying amount of the respective recognised financial assets as stated in the consolidated statement of financial position.

The credit risk of the Group mainly arises from finance lease receivables, account receivables, amounts due from related companies and a non-controlling interest, cash and cash equivalents, and other receivables and deposits. The carrying amounts of these balances represent the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in relation to financial assets.

In order to minimise the credit risk, the management of the Group has delegated a team responsible for determination of credit limits, credit approvals and other monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up action is taken to recover overdue debts.

The Group considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout the reporting period. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the asset as at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition. It considers available reasonable and supportive forward-looking information. Especially the following indicators are incorporated:

- internal credit rating
- actual or expected significant adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant change to the debtor's ability to meet its obligations
- significant changes in the expected performance and behavior of the debtors, including changes in the payment status of debtors in the Group and changes in the operating results of the debtors

Finance lease receivables, receivables from sale and leaseback transaction, trade receivables and amounts due from related companies

As at 31 December 2024, the Group's concentration of credit risk on the finance lease receivables, receivables from sale and leaseback transaction, trade receivables and trade-related amounts due from related companies included five major counterparties accounting for 53% (2023: 59%) and the largest customers accounted for 29% (2023: 23%) of the Group's total revenue.

Receivables from operating leases

Given the nature of the Group's business, it has concentration risk for the receivables due from two customers which are subsidiaries of large telecommunication operators accounting for 100% of the Group's total receivables from operating leases as at 31 December 2023. No concentration risk on the receivables from operating leases as at 31 December 2024.

Cash and cash equivalents

Most of the Group's cash and cash equivalents are held in major reputable financial institutions in the PRC, which management believes are of high credit quality.

The Group is exposed to the concentration of geographic risk on revenue which is generated mostly from customers located in the PRC. The Group has closely monitor the business performance of these customers in the PRC and will considered diversifying its customer base as appropriate.

Other receivables and amount due from a non-controlling interest

For other receivables and amount due from a non-controlling interest, the directors of the Company make periodic individual assessment on the recoverability of other receivables based on quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportive forward looking information. The directors of the Company believe that there are no significant increase in credit risk of these amounts since initial recognition and the Group provided impairment based on 12m ECL. The Group performs impairment assessment under ECL model on outstanding balances individually. In this regard, the directors of the Company consider that the Group's credit risk is significantly reduced.

In accordance with the Guideline for Loan Credit Risk Classification issued by the CBRC, the Group has established a loan credit risk classification system and performs credit risk management based on loan classification in one of five categories. The Group classifies loans into the following five categories: normal, special-mention, substandard, doubtful and loss, of which substandard, doubtful and loss loans are regarded as non-performing loans. The five categories of loan classification into which the Group classifies its accounts receivable are set out below:

The Group's current credit risk grading framework comprises the following categories:

Description		Finance lease receivables and trade receivables/ and amounts due from related companies	Other financial assets
Normal	Borrowers can honour the terms of their loans. There is no reason to doubt their ability to repay principal and interest in full on a timely basis. (refer to as Stage 1)	Lifetime ECL – not credit impaired	12 month ECL
Special mention	Borrowers are able to service their loans currently, although repayment may be adversely affected by specific factors. (refer to as Stage 1)	Lifetime ECL – not credit impaired	Lifetime ECL – not credit impaired
Substandard	Borrowers ability to service their loans is in question and they cannot rely entirely on normal operating revenues to repay principal and interest. Losses may ensue even when collaterals or guarantees are invoked. (refer to as Stage 2)	Lifetime ECL – credit impaired	Lifetime ECL – credit impaired
Doubtful	Borrowers cannot repay principal and interest in full and significant losses will need to be recognised even when collaterals or guarantees are invoked. (refer to as Stage 3)	Lifetime ECL – credit impaired	Lifetime ECL – credit impaired
Loss	Only a small portion or none of the principal and interest can be recovered after taking all possible measures and exhausting all legal remedies	Amounts is written off	Amount is written off

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk relates to the risk that the Group will not be able to meet its obligations associated with its financial liabilities. The Group is exposed to liquidity risk in respect of settlement of trade payables and its financing obligations and also in respect of its cash flow management.

The Group's policy is to maintain sufficient cash and bank balances and has available funding to meet its working capital requirements. The Group's liquidity is dependent upon the cash received from its customers. The directors of the Company are satisfied that the Group will be able to meet in full its financial obligations as and when they fall due in the foreseeable future.

The liquidity policies have been followed by the Group since prior years and are considered to have been effective in managing liquidity risks.

The following tables details the Group's remaining contractual maturities for its non-derivative financial liabilities at the end of the reporting period. The table has been drawn up based on undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Group can be required to pay. The tables below include both interest and principal cash flows.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk means the risk on the fluctuation of fair value on future cash flows of financial instruments which arise from changes in interest rates. Floating interest rate instruments will result in the Group facing the risk of changes in market interest rate, and fixed interest rate instruments will result in the Group fair value interest rate risk.

Other than cash and cash equivalents, finance lease and accounts receivables, bank borrowings and lease liabilities, the Group does not have any other significant interest-bearing financial assets and liabilities. Any change in the interest rate promulgated by banks from time to time is not considered to have significant impact to the Group.

The Group's interest rate risk arises primarily from the floating rate cash and cash equivalent. The Group is exposed to cash flow interest rate risk in relation to cash and cash equivalent. The Group is exposed to fair value interest rate risk in relation to fixed-rate bank borrowings and lease liabilities.

At 31 December 2024, it is estimated that a general increase of 50 basis points in interest rates, with all other variables held constant, would decrease/increase the Group's loss/profit for the year by approximately RMB130,000 (2023: RMB233,000). For a general decrease of 50 basis points in interest rates, with all other variables held constant, there would be an equal and opposite impact on the Group's loss for the year. No impact would be on other components of consolidated equity in response to the general increase/decrease in interest rates.

The sensitivity analysis as above has been determined assuming that the change in interest rates had occurred at each of reporting date and had been applied to the exposure to interest rate risk for financial instruments in existence at that date. The 50 basis point increase or decrease represents the management's assessment of a reasonably possible change in interest rates over the period until the next reporting date.

The measures to manage interest rate risk have been followed by the Group for the year and are considered to be effective.

Currency risk

The Group mainly operates and invests in the PRC with most of the transactions denominated and settled in RMB. All the financial assets and financial liabilities are denominated in RMB, which is the functional currency of the Company and the subsidiaries in the PRC to which these transactions relate and did not have significant exposure to risk resulting from changes in foreign currency exchange rates.

Other price risk

The Group is exposed to equity price risk through its investments in equity securities measured at FVTPL. For equity securities measured at FVTPL, the management manages this exposure by maintaining a portfolio of investments with different risks. In addition, the Group has appointed a special team to monitor the price risk and will consider hedging the risk exposure should the need arise.

The sensitivity analyses below have been determined based on the exposure to equity price risks at the end of the reporting period. If the prices of the respective equity instruments had been 5% (2023: 5%) higher/lower: loss for the year ended 31 December 2024 would decrease/increase by RMB3,553,000 (2023: post-tax profit increase/decrease by RMB2,366,000) as a result of the changes in fair value of financial assets at FVTPL.
