

BUSINESS REVIEW

The Group's operations have been maintained by the Receivers notwithstanding the Group's limited working capital .

The Group is still focusing on its core business on wholesale distribution of building materials, such as ceramic tiles, granite and marble products. The enhancement of the business will require the successful restructuring of Interform.