

COMPANY PROFILE

Tsingtao Brewery Company Limited (“the Company”), the earliest beer manufacturer in China, can trace its root back to 1903 when its predecessor, Tsingtao Brewery Factory, was first established. The Company was registered on June 16th, 1993 as a joint stock company in China and then issued H shares in Hong Kong which were listed on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited on July 15th, 1993. It was the first enterprise in mainland China listed on the Stock Exchange. In July 1993, the Company issued A shares in Shanghai which were listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange on August 27th, 1993.

The business scope of the Company is beer manufacturing, distribution and the related business. The Company, the largest beer brewer domestically in terms of production scale and market share, currently owns 42 beer plants and 2 malting mills in 15 provinces and cities around China. Its product Tsingtao Beer has become the most well known Chinese beer in the international beer market and has been distributed to more than 40 countries and regions throughout the world.

