

Corporate Profile

New World CyberBase Limited (“NWCB”) was established in August 1999 as a technology company that provides total e-Business solutions to Greater China. With corporate headquarters in Hong Kong, NWCB has offices in Beijing, Shanghai, Shenzhen and the United States. The shares of the Company are listed on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (stock code: 276).

The corporate mission of NWCB is founded on the provision of e-Business solutions that include: Software Products, Application Solutions, Network Solutions and IT Services. These products and services are based on proprietary technology as well as solutions delivered together with strategic partners and alliances. With its IT professionals, commitment to innovative products and solutions, service excellence, and a dedication to customer satisfaction, NWCB delivers total e-Business solutions to improve enterprises’ work efficiencies and effectiveness through the use of technology.