

EMPLOYEE

As at 30 June 2001, the Group has about 300 employees. Employee's remuneration is in accordance with individual's responsibility and performance. Other fringe benefits such as medical insurance, pension funds, education/training subsidies are offered to most employees. Share options are granted at directors' discretion under the terms and conditions of employees share option schemes.