

PROSPECTS

The uncertain outlook for the US economy affects prospects for the second half of the year. The business environment remains difficult and challenging. The Group will strengthen its main business of manufacture and sale of consumer home products and continue its effective ongoing strategy and implement stringent control over expenses. The Group does not expect the adverse conditions to deteriorate significantly.