

EMPLOYEES

As at 31 December 2001, the total number of employees of the Group was 937. The employees are offered discretionary bonuses based on merits and the performance. The Group also encourages and subsidizes employees to enroll in external training courses and seminars organized by professional bodies. Employees of the Group are eligible to be granted share options under the Company's share option scheme at the discretion of the Board.