

HSE & Community Contributions

- Production process of the highest health, safety and environmental standards
- Continual community support
- Active participation in building a greener environment

Employees' health and safety are crucial for the success and development of the Company and everyone plays a part in creating healthy, safe and environmentally friendly results. In order to monitor the Company's production activities and to provide proper guidelines for employees, the Company has established a set of comprehensive health, safety and environmental ("HSE") policies which constitutes an important part of the Company's corporate culture and represents one of the core competitive strengths of the Company.

With the goal of further improving levels of health, safety and environmental protection, the Company continued during 2001 to implement established HSE systems and key programs and realized the HSE targets set at the beginning of the year. During the year, there were no fatality, no incident of oil spillage of material quantities, and no single incident resulting in an economic loss exceeding US$120,000. The OSHA statistics on occupational injury and occupational disease showed a significant improvement compared to previous years with both incident and the days-away rates. As a result, the Company's HSE performance was above the average standards for international oil companies.
