Connected Transactions

On 11 September 2000, a revolving credit agreement (the "Revolving Credit Agreement") was entered into between More Growth Finance Limited ("More Growth"), an indirectly wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, and Chai-Na-Ta Corp. ("CNT"), a 62% indirectly owned subsidiary of the Company.

Pursuant to the Revolving Credit Agreement, More Growth agreed to provide C$5 million (approximately HK$24,540,000) unsecured revolving credit bearing interest at the Canadian prime rate plus 2.5% per annum. Following maturity in March 2001, this facility was further extended until March 2002. For each extension More Growth charged an extension fee equal to 1% of the commitment amount. The purpose of the fund was to provide general working capital to CNT.

Subsequent to the balance sheet date, the above loan was further renewed and extended for another twelve months until March 2003 with an extension fee equal to 1% of the commitment amount.

The above transaction was structured on normal commercial terms and was approved by the Board of Directors of the Company.

Purchase, Sale or Redemption of the Company's Listed Securities and Secured Loans

During the year, the Company repurchased certain of its own shares, details of which are set out in note 27 to the financial statements. The directors considered that, as the Company's shares were trading at a discount to the net asset value per share, the repurchases would increase the net asset value per share of the Company.

Save as disclosed above, neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries has purchased, sold or redeemed any of the Company's listed securities during the year ended 31 December 2001.

Details of the repurchase of certain secured loans are set out in note 30 to the financial statements.

Pre-emptive Rights

There are no provisions for pre-emptive rights under the Company's Bye-laws, or the laws of Bermuda, which would oblige the Company to offer new shares on a pro-rata basis to existing shareholders.

Major Customers and Suppliers

The principal business of the Group is to invest in, develop, operate and manage toll roads and expressways in the PRC. There are no major customers and suppliers in view of its nature of business.

Code of Best Practice

The Company has complied throughout the year ended 31 December 2001 with the Code of Best Practice as set out in Appendix 14 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited ("Listing Rules").

Audit Committee

Pursuant to the requirements of the Listing Rules, the Company had on 30 July 1998 established an Audit Committee comprising three members (two of them being independent non-executive directors) with reference to "A Guide for the Formation of an Audit Committee" issued by the Hong Kong Society of Accountants.

Practice Note 19 to the Listing Rules

In compliance with Practice Note 19 to the Listing Rules, the following information is disclosed:

1. Pursuant to part 3.3 of the Practice Note 19:

- (a) All the Group's investments in highway projects take the form of Sino-foreign co-operative joint ventures. Except for one joint venture, all the remaining 33 joint ventures are regarded as infrastructure joint ventures irrespective of whether the Group's interests exceed 50% or not. The investments are in the form of both registered capital and loan. The size of loans made by the Group and by the other joint venture partner(s) to each joint venture is in proportion to the respective interests in each joint venture.
- (b) During the year, the Group has provided guarantees of HK$151 million to banks in respect of bank facilities utilised by infrastructure joint ventures.
- (c) The total amount of loans to the infrastructure joint ventures is HK$2.51 billion which exceeds 58% of the Group's net assets as at 31 December 2001. The loans are actually part of the investments and are unsecured, interest free and have no definite repayment terms.
- (d) The loans to the infrastructure joint ventures were funded by equities raised at the listing of the Company or by borrowings or internal resources of the Group.
