

CONSTRUCTION

During the period under review, the Group had not involved in any new contract but continued its efforts in completing all jobs in hand amiably with both employers and sub-contractors. During the exercise some indifferences have occurred with all parties concerned, nevertheless we are aiming to finalise all matters in its near future with minimum adverse effort on its company.