BUSINESS REVIEW

On 24th June 2000, the Group entered into an agreement with certain minority shareholders of RNA Holdings Limited ("RNA") to reorganise their beneficial interests in RNA. Upon the completion of the agreement on 18th August 2000, RNA ceased to be a subsidiary of the Company and the Company's holding interests in RNA was re-classified as short-term investment of the Company since then.

As announced on 8th June 2001, the Company received the summons and the petition on 29th May 2001 made by a promissory note holder (the "Petitioner") for winding up of the Company for the repayment of outstanding principal amount of HK$357,175,000 due by the Group. Subsequently, the Company entered into a standstill agreement (the "Standstill Agreement") with certain creditors including the Petitioner representing approximately 76% in value of the entire indebtedness of the Company, pursuant to which the creditors agreed to take no action to recover their claims so long as the Company complies with its obligations under the Standstill Agreement. On 9th May 2002, the Company entered into a restructuring agreement (the "Restructuring Proposal") with, inter alia, the Petitioner and an investor (the "Investor") for the proposed restructuring of the Company. The proposed restructuring involved capital restructuring, debt restructuring of the Company, subscription of new shares and capitalisation of loans by the Investor. Pursuant to the Restructuring Proposal, the Investor will inject up to HK$57.6 million of cash into the Company in exchange for approximately 95% of the enlarged issued share capital of the Company and all the creditors of the Company will settle their claims against the Company in accordance with the terms of the Restructuring Proposal and the schemes of arrangement. The completion of the proposed restructuring is subject to fulfillment of certain conditions precedent as set out in the Restructuring Proposal.

The Board regrets that the Group incurred substantial losses due to the sustained unfavourable economic conditions. It is the hope of the Board and is for the benefit of the shareholders to complete the restructuring as announced on 21st May 2002 as soon as possible.
