

EMPLOYEES

As at 30th June, 2002, the Group employed approximately 3,100 employees, out of which approximately 2,100 are production workers. In addition to the provision of annual bonuses, medical and life insurances, and in-house and external training programs, discretionary bonuses and share options are also available to employees based on their performance. The remuneration policy and packages of the Group are reviewed from time to time.