

AUDIT COMMITTEE

The audit committee, which comprises of two Independent Non-executive Directors of the Company, has reviewed with management the accounting principles and practices adopted by the Company and discussed auditing, internal controls and financial reporting matters including a review of the unaudited Interim Report.