

The Group's vessels operated under the brand names Star Cruises, Norwegian Cruise Line, Orient Lines and Cruise Ferries call at over 200 destinations and islands in Asia-Pacific, Caribbean, Alaska, Bermuda, Antarctica, Hawaii, North and South America, Europe, Australia and Mediterranean.

Parthenon Pool, SuperStar Virgo

fleet profile

SuperStar Leo & SuperStar Virgo

Scandinavian Captains and Officers

Samurai Restaurant, SuperStar Virgo

SuperStar Aries

SuperStar Gemini

SuperStar Capricorn

Star Pisces

MegaStar Aries

MegaStar Taurus

Star Cruises

Star Cruises' eight ships in Asia-Pacific are SuperStar Virgo, SuperStar Leo, SuperStar Aries, SuperStar Gemini, SuperStar Capricorn, Star Pisces, MegaStar Aries and MegaStar Taurus.

Cruise Ferries

The Cruise Ferries brand was founded in 2001 and presently comprises the Wasa Queen which is plying between Hong Kong and China. The Cruise Ferries brand is designed to provide an entry-point experience for first-time cruisers.

Wasa Queen

Norwegian Dawn

Norwegian Star

Norwegian Sun

Norwegian Sky

Norwegian Wind

Norwegian Sea

Norwegian Dream

Norwegian Majesty

The Norway

Norwegian Cruise Line

The Norwegian Cruise Line fleet comprises the Norwegian Dawn, Norwegian Star, Norwegian Sun, Norwegian Sky, Norwegian Wind, Norwegian Dream, Norwegian Sea, Norwegian Majesty and The Norway.

The 92,250-grt Norwegian Dawn is the latest addition to the Norwegian Cruise Line fleet and was christened in New York on 16 December 2002.

Norwegian Crown

Orient Lines

Orient Lines was founded in 1992 and is an award-winning cruise line specialising in destination-oriented cruises worldwide. The Norwegian Crown and Marco Polo are the two mid-size ships in the fleet. Norwegian Crown is scheduled to be transferred to Norwegian Cruise Line in September 2003.

Marco Polo

