TO SHAREHOLDERS:

Since the establishment of the Supervisory Committee, each member has been performing his duty in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association with a view of protecting the interests of shareholders and the Company. We have given our opinions regarding the operations, technological reform and development of the Company during board meetings. We have also monitored the guiding ideology of the management and considered whether the decisions made by the management were in compliance with state laws and whether they were appropriate for the development of the Company and were in the interests of shareholders.

The Supervisory Committee has reviewed the Company's accounts, books, reports and other accounting information from time to time. In our opinion, the financial statements have been properly prepared while the accounting principles and the method of financial management adopted are in compliance with relevant rules and regulations.

We have carefully examined the financial statements, the Directors' Report and the proposal for appropriation of profit to be presented before the forthcoming annual general meeting by the Board of Directors. In our opinion, the chairman of the board, directors, managers and senior management have not engaged in any malpractices which would be prejudicial to the interests of shareholders and employees of the Company.

The Supervisory Committee is satisfied with the performance as well as the economic results of the Company, and we are confident about the future development of the Company.

Liu Qi

Chairman of the Supervisory Committee
