

Mission

The Company has successfully transformed itself into a mobile phone manufacturer and distributor. Capitalising on the strengths and extensive business networks of our major shareholders and building on the resources of our own experienced research and development team, we aim to develop and deliver a full range of mobile phones to meet the increasingly sophisticated demands of customers in the growing China market.

Our mission

To become one of the most popular leading brands of mobile communication products in China