

Corporate Profile

Founded in 1950 as a small printing shop in Hong Kong, Hung Hing Printing Group Limited has, over the course of half a century, built an integrated and technologically-advanced operation in the printing and manufacturing of paper and carton boxes, corrugated cartons, and trading of paper.

Headquartered at the Tai Po Industrial Estate in Hong Kong, Hung Hing also has one plant in Fuyong (Shenzhen, China) and two plants (one of which is 35% — owned joint venture) in Zhongshan, China. A paper distribution and warehouse facility in Shenzhen and a printing and corrugating facility in Wuxi, near Shanghai, are also under construction. Total production floor space reaches 4.2 million square feet, with a workforce of over 9,000 in Hong Kong and China.

The Group places strong emphasis on providing reliable and value-added services. These qualities have won the Group many customers, including brand name manufacturers of toys and consumer goods from Japan, Europe and the U.S.A., as well as Chinese and Hong Kong companies.

Hung Hing's financial objective is to deliver consistent and superior returns to shareholders from a leading position in its industry. The strategy to achieve this involves long-term investments in fixed and human assets, and an unwavering focus on quality, efficiency and customer service.
