

China Life Insurance Company Limited, Mainland China's largest life insurance company, provides insurance services to over 100 million long-term policy holders.

We strive to maximize the value for our shareholders, and at the same time, we remain committed to meeting our customers' increasingly sophisticated insurance needs by providing a broad range of products and services to match.

With an incomparable sales and distribution network, customer service centers and branches distributed across China, and a highly experienced management team, we look forward to continuing our leading position in China's insurance industry for many years to come.

