

Milestones

China Motion was granted a licence to operate IDD retail services in Taiwan and another licence to operate IDD calling card services in Singapore – a significant opportunity to penetrate into these two major consumer markets.

“ChinaOne 0050” launched the “True Price” Campaign, signing up over 100,000 customers.

China Motion completed the stage one acquisition of 25% shareholding in CM NetCom, which currently provides VOIP related services in China, and obtained 3 trial operating licences (including the Domestic Multi-party Communications Services Business Licence) issued by China's Ministry of Information Industry, enhancing the Group's China businesses.

2003

April

July

August

September

China Motion launched international voice services in the United Kingdom – one of the major gateways between Europe and North America.

China Motion launched the “Individual Visit” IDD calling card, targeting visitors of the “Individual Visit Scheme”.

The Group cooperated with China Telecommunications Corporation to establish a new cross-border telecommunications optic-fibre network by utilising network resources of both parties, enhancing the Group's diversified value-added telecommunications services in both China and Hong Kong.

November

2004 January

China Motion launched "Let's Talk" prepaid SIM card, targeting Hong Kong's consumer market.

May

June

China Motion was awarded a licence to operate Internet Protocol Leased Circuit (IPLC) services in Singapore, enabling the business to operate direct data transmission services between Singapore and the rest of the world.

"CM Mobile" launched the "Dual-Network Mobile Service" – pioneering Hong Kong's mobile market.

"CM Concept" opened a new flagship store to provide quality and diversified digital and telecommunications products together with one-stop-shop services to customers.

