

The structure of conch naturally extends outward concentrically. Such centrifugal form of development, when used to describe the capabilities of the Company, represents our efforts in actively diversifying into related businesses by relying on its core operations as foundations, thus sustaining strong momentum for its development.

Conch is plentiful in colours, and symbolizes the gorgeous living environment created by the Company for the people and the society in the past 25 years.