

To all shareholders:

During the reporting period, the Supervisory Committee has strictly complied with the PRC Company Law and the Articles of Association of the Company in performing the supervisory duties and exercising the rights conferred thereon by the Articles of Association, and has also in good faith safeguarded the shareholders' interests in a diligent, pragmatic and serious manner.

Through attending Board meetings and general meetings, the Supervisory Committee performed its duties of supervising the major operating activities of the Company, as well as the Directors and senior management officers.

The Supervisory Committee has reviewed the Report of the Board of Directors which the Board submitted to the general meeting, and considered that the report has fairly described the current position of the Company. In 2004, the Board and the senior management of the Company had duly exercised various powers conferred by the shareholders pursuant to the laws, performed various obligations, and used their best endeavours to make important contributions to the development of the Company.

The Supervisory Committee has also reviewed the financial statements as audited by PricewaterhouseCoopers, and considered that the statements had fairly reflected the financial condition and operating results of the Company. The Company's accounts are prepared accurately with clear records and complete information.

During the period of this report, to standardize supervision process and to better perform the functions on supervision, the Supervisory Committee led to draft out Rules of Procedure of AviChina Industry & Technology Company Limited Supervisory Committee, and has advised the Board of Directors on the Company's current operation.

The Supervisory Committee is fully confident in the prospect of the Company. In 2005, the Supervisory Committee will continue to strictly perform its duties in accordance with the Articles of Association and the relevant requirements to safeguard shareholders' interests.

By Order of the Supervisory Committee

Wang Shouxin

Chairman of the Supervisory Committee
