

Significant Events of the Year

2004

May

Synergis was one of the first batch of property and facility management companies to receive the "Q-Mark Service Certificates" from the Hong Kong Q-Mark Council of Federation of Hong Kong Industries.

June

Synergis won The Top Service Award 2004 (Property Management Section) organized by the Next Media.

July

The Group participated in the "Corporate & Employee Contribution Programme" organized by The Community Chest of Hong Kong and raised approximately HK$120,000 for the community.

August

Synergis was honoured to receive the "Superbrand" status from the Superbrand Council, representing the external recognition of the Synergis brand's goodwill and market dominance.

2004

September

Synergis expanded its management portfolio to the cultural and arts sector by taking over the management of the Hong Kong Heritage Museum.

October

Synergis was appointed by the Hong Kong Jockey Club to provide facility management consultancy services to the Club's off-course betting branches, telebet centers, quarters, riding schools, staff resort house and staff social club.

October

Synergis was appointed by the Hong Kong Housing Authority to manage its Headquarters (Blocks 3 & 4) in Homantin.

December

The Annual "Vision Day" was held to promote the Group's business directions among all management staff and encourage them to join hands together for achieving goals and mutual benefits.

2005

January

Synergis was awarded a contract to provide facility management services to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. ("SPCA").

January

The Annual Strategic Planning Workshop was held for the senior management team to discuss and devise the Group's future business directions and strategies.

January

Synergis established a new joint venture Beijing Financial Street Synergis Property Management Company Limited to manage Xihuan Plaza, which is a large scale commercial development located in Xicheng District of Beijing.

March

Synergis was the only company being awarded the Business Performance Index (BPI) 9004 Excellence Class Certificate, the highest level of achievement accredited by the Hong Kong Quality Assurance Agency.