

Mission Statement

VSC strives to be the best total solution provider of materials in China through global supply chain management and value-added processing.

Through Supply Chain Management, we will provide quality steel and products to customers in the construction industry.

Through Value-Added Processing, we will provide quality industrial products and reliable services to customers in information technology, home appliances and automobile parts industries.