

MISSION

---

The strategic mission of New World CyberBase is to fully utilize the integration of voice, data, and multimedia technology and unleash the power of IP and wireless applications to deliver the best-in class services to consumers and businesses in China.

Leverage on the integration of most advanced wireless and Internet technology to provide innovative infotainment and entertainment services.

Provide high quality outsourcing solutions by the use of integrated technology platform, delivering through a team of well-trained professional experts.

Effectively integrate the multi-platform resources to create a new generation of interactive media services.

