

enhancing shareholder value

We have achieved another solid year, with strong growth in new business and in the embedded value of the company. Our well-experienced management team seeks to improve our returns and investment performance. The underlying performance of our company continues to move from strength to strength.