

Management Discussion and Analysis

Financial Review

OVERALL PERFORMANCE

The Group achieved a profit attributable to shareholders of HK$366 million (2004: HK$431 million), a decrease of HK$65 million or 15%. This decrease was mainly attributable to the recognition of one-time receipt from a customer who prematurely terminated a long-term transponder utilisation agreement in 2004.

SALES

Sales for the year decreased by approximately 12% to HK$880 million (2004: HK$1,005 million). This decrease was also due to the recognition of one-time receipt from a customer who prematurely terminated a long-term transponder utilisation agreement in 2004. Excluding the one-time contribution of HK$107 million on the contract termination, sales were down by HK$18 million.

COST OF SERVICES

Cost of services of HK$419 million (2004: HK$420 million) remained unchanged. There was an increase in depreciation on satellite tracking facilities but was offset by a reduction in in-orbit insurance. Depreciation accounted for 70% of the cost of services.

OTHER GAINS

Other gains of HK$44 million (2004: HK$22 million) were mainly arising from interest income on short-term deposits.

ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

Administrative expenses decreased to HK$84 million (2004: HK$102 million), a decrease of HK$18 million or 18%. The decrease was mainly attributable to a smaller provision for impairment of receivables and a reduction in performance bonuses.

FINANCE COSTS

In 2005, there were minimal finance costs incurred (2004: minimal) after the commissioning of AsiaSat 4.

SHARE OF LOSS OF ASSOCIATES

The share of loss from associates, amounted to HK$4 million (2004: HK$12 million), mainly from the joint venture, Beijing Asia, in which the Company holds 49%.

Liquidity and Financial Resources

SOURCES OF FINANCING

The Group's principal use of capital during the year under review was the payment of dividends, profits tax and capital expenditure related to the construction of ground facilities at Tai Po Earth Station to support the operations of the satellite fleet. These payments were financed through cash flow generated from operating activities.

Cash flow generated from operating activities, was more than sufficient to meet these payments. The Group generated a net cash inflow of HK$401 million (2004: HK$575 million) and remained debt free.

Capital Structure

FUNDING AND TREASURY POLICY

The Group adopts conservative treasury policies and exercises tight control over its cash and risk management. Cash is generally placed on short-term deposits denominated in U.S. Dollars to meet its payments. The Hong Kong Dollar is pegged to the U.S. Dollar at the exchange rate of HK$7.80 to US$1.00. The exchange movement has been kept within a narrow band. Therefore, the Group does not have any significant currency exposure.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS FOR HEDGING

Since almost all the revenue of the Group is in U.S. Dollars there is no need to hedge its liabilities, which are also substantially denominated in U.S. Dollars.

FOREIGN CURRENCY INVESTMENT

The Group does not have any material investment in currencies other than in U.S. Dollars or Hong Kong Dollars.

Order Book

At 31 December 2005, the value of contracts on hand amounted to HK$2,611 million (2004: HK$2,939 million), the majority of which will be realised over the next few years. Almost all the contracts are denominated in U.S. Dollars. The decline in backlog was mainly attributable to reduced values of contracts on renewals reflecting the acutely competitive pricing and new leases being for shorter durations. Neither the Company nor its customers were willing to make long-term commitments in the current market conditions and in view of the uncertainty on price movement.
