

An Energetic Summer for our Young People ...

For the third summer in succession, CLP is partnering with Junior Achievement Hong Kong to launch the Young Power Programme 2006 in Hong Kong. This will offer an opportunity to 50 secondary school students from 10 schools to go on a journey of discovery that will cover the technical, environmental and social responsibilities, as well as the business aspects, of electricity supply and customer service.