

COMMITMENT TO CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Company is firmly committed to maintaining statutory and regulatory standards and adherence to the principles of corporate governance emphasizing transparency, independence, accountability, responsibility and fairness. The Board has adopted the Code on Corporate Governance Practices (the "Code") contained in Appendix 14 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited as its own Code on Corporate Governance Practices.

Throughout the year ended 31 December 2006, the Company was in compliance with the Code of Corporate Governance Practices, save for a deviation from code provision A. 4.1 of the Code in respect of the service term of independent non-executive directors.

Under code provision A. 4.1 of the Code, non-executive directors (including independent non-executive directors) shall be appointed for a specific term and subject to re-election. None of the Company's existing independent non-executive directors was appointed for a specific term. This constitutes a deviation from code provision A.4.1 of the Code. However, all independent non-executive directors are subject to retirement by rotation and re-election at the annual general meeting of the Company in accordance with the provisions of the Company's Articles of Association.

In addition to complying with applicable statutory requirements, the Board expects continually reviewing and enhancing its corporate governance practices in light of local and international best practices.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors of the Company determines the overall strategies, monitors and controls operating and financial performance and set appropriate policies to manage risks in pursuit of the Group's strategic objectives. Day-to-day management of the Company's business is delegated to the executive directors or officers in charge. The functions and power that are so delegated are reviewed periodically by the Board to ensure that they remain appropriate.

Matters reserved for the Board of Directors are those affecting the Group's overall strategic policies, finances and shareholders, including financial statements, dividend policy, significant changes in accounting policies, material contracts and major investments. All Board members have separate and independent access to the Group's senior management to fulfill their duties. They also have full and timely access to relevant information about the Group and are kept abreast of the conduct, business activities and development of the Group. Independent professional advice can be sought at the Group's expense upon their request.

The Directors are responsible for the preparation of the accounts for each financial period that gives a true and fair view of the states of the Group and of the results and cash flows for that period. In preparing these accounts for the year ended 31 December 2006, the Directors have selected suitable accounting policies and applied them consistently; made judgments and estimates that are prudent, fair and reasonable.

The Board of Directors of the Company currently comprises six (6) Directors, as set out below:

- Zhou Ling, Chairman of the Board;
- Lee Sin Pyung, Managing Director;
- Sit Mei, Executive Director;

The Stock Exchange

allows issuers to devise their own codes on corporate governance practices on such terms as they may consider appropriate, provided reasons are given for any deviation from the Code.

- Lu Ren Jie, Independent Non-Executive Director;
- Chai Woon Chew, Independent Non-Executive Director; and
- Ho Choi Chiu, Independent Non-Executive Director

All Directors, other than three Executive Directors, are non-executive and independent of Management. The Board includes three active independent Non-Executive Directors to whom shareholders concerns can be conveyed. The Non-Executive Directors also bring a wide range of business and financial experience to the Board, which contributes to the effective direction of the Group.

Under the Company's Articles of Association, every director is subject to retirement by rotation at least once every three years. One-third of the Directors must retire from office at each annual general meeting and their re-election is subject to a vote of shareholders.

The details of all Directors, including Chairman, Executive Directors and Independent Non-Executive Directors are given on page 7 of this Annual Report.

There was no financial, business, family or other material or relevant relationships among members of the Company's Board of Directors.

During the year ended 31 December 2006, the Board at all times fulfilled the requirements of the Listing Rules relating to the appointment of at least three independent Non-Executive Directors.

Directors ensure that they can give sufficient time and attention to the affairs of the Company. Directors have disclosed to the Company the number and nature of offices held in public companies or organizations and other significant commitments, with the identity of the public companies or organizations and an indication of the time involved. The Company considers all of the Independent Non-Executive Directors to be independent.

BOARD MEETINGS

The full Board meets at least quarterly and on other occasions when a Board decision is required on major issues. The following table sets out the details of Directors' attendance at the AGM, Board and Board Committee Meetings held in 2006:

CHAIRMAN AND MANAGING DIRECTOR

The Chairman of the Board is Mr. Zhou Ling, and the Managing Director is Ms. Lee Sin Pyung, who is the Chief Executive Officer as described in Appendix 14 of the Listing Rules. The Chairman's and the Managing Director's roles are clearly defined to ensure the independence, accountability and responsibility.

The Chairman takes the lead in formulating overall strategies and policies of the Company; ensures the effective performance by the Board of its functions, including compliance with good corporate governance practices; and encourages and facilitates active contribution of Directors in Board activities and constructive relations between Executive and Non-Executive Directors. The Chairman also ensures effective communication with shareholders of the Company and receipt by the Directors of adequate and complete information.

The Managing Director, supported by other Board members and the senior management, is responsible for the day-to-day business of the Company. She is also accountable to the Board for the implementation of the Company's overall strategies, and coordination of overall business operations.

NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

Non-Executive Directors are expected to participate in the activities of the Board, particularly in the establishment of a selection process to ensure a mix of competent Directors and officers; adoption of a system of internal check and balances; scrutiny of the Company's performance in achieving agreed corporate goals and objectives; and ensuring that exercise of Board authority is within the powers conferred to the Board under its Articles of Association and applicable laws, rules and regulations.

INDEPENDENCE

The independent Non-Executive Directors of the Company are highly skilled professionals with a broad range of expertise and experience in the fields of accounting, finance, laws and business. Their skills and expertise in the Board ensure that strong independent views and judgment are brought in the Board's deliberations and that such views and judgment carry weight in the Board's decision-making process. Their presence and participation also enable the Board to maintain high standards of compliance in financial and other mandatory reporting requirements, and provide adequate checks and balances to safeguard the interests of shareholders of the Company.

Each Independent Non-Executive Director gives the Company an annual confirmation of his independence. The Company considers such Directors to be independent under the guidelines set out in Rule 3.13 of the Listing Rules.

Each Director, upon reasonable request, is given access to independent professional advice in circumstances he may deem appropriate and necessary for the discharge of his duties to the Company, at the expenses of the Company.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

There is currently no Nomination Committee in the Company. Directors of the Company are responsible for making recommendations to the Board for consideration and approval on nominations, appointment of Directors, with a view to appointing to the Board individuals with those experienced, high caliber individuals. The Board formulates the policy, reviews the size, structure and composition of the Board, and assesses the independence of its Independent Non-Executive Directors in accordance with the criteria prescribed under the Listing Rules and the Code.

All Non-Executive Directors are appointed for a term of not more than three years. This term is subject to curtailment upon that Director's retirement by rotation and re-election by shareholders. One third of the Directors, including both Executive and Non-executive Directors, are required to retire from office at the AGM in each year. A retiring director is eligible for re-election.

COMPLIANCE OF THE MODEL CODE FOR SECURITIES TRANSACTIONS BY DIRECTORS

The Company has adopted the Model Code for Securities Transactions by Directors of Listed Companies (the "Model Code") contained in Appendix 10 of the Listing Rules. All directors have confirmed that, following specific enquiry by the Company, they complied with the required standard as set out in the Model Code throughout the year of 2006.

Directors are required to declare their direct or indirect interests, if any, in any proposals or transactions to be considered by the Board of Directors at Board Meetings and withdraw from the meetings as appropriate. At each financial reporting period, the Company seeks confirmation from Directors in respect of any transactions of the Company or its subsidiaries that are related to Directors or their associates.

At the date of this Report, the Directors of the Company held following long position in the ordinary share of the Company:

All Directors have confirmed that throughout the year ended 31 December 2006 they complied with the required standard set out in the Model Code.

REMUNERATION OF DIRECTORS

Remuneration Committee of the Board of Directors comprises three independent Non-Executive Directors. The committee was set up to review and approve the remuneration packages of the directors.

The main elements of the Company's remuneration policies are:

- No individual should determine his or her own remuneration;
- Remuneration should be broadly aligned with companies with whom the Company competes for human resources; and
- Remuneration should reflect performance, complexity and responsibility with a view to attracting, motivating and retaining high performing individuals and promoting the enhancement of the value of the Company to its shareholders.

NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION

The role of Non-Executive Directors has become more complex and demanding due to regulatory changes and the increasing part they play in the governance of listed companies. The Company believes that the level of remuneration for any particular non-executive directors should reflect the likely workload, the scale and complexity of the business and the responsibility involved.

Non-executive directors of the Company are paid fees in line with market practice. Executive Directors serving on the Board and Board Committee are not entitled to any Directors' fees. The fee paid by the Company to each of our non-executive directors in 2006 for their services on the Company's Board of Directors is as below:

Name of Independent Non-Executive Directors	Fees Paid in 2006 (US$'000)
Mr. Lu Ren Jie	20
Mr. Chai Woon Chew	15
Mr. Ho Choi Chiu	15

The Non-Executive Directors of the Company received no other compensation from the Company except for the fees disclosed above.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION

In determining the remuneration of Executive Directors, the remuneration data of comparable positions in the market, including local and regional companies of comparable size, complexity and business scope, are referenced.

The remuneration paid to the Executive Directors of the Company in 2006 was as below:

Name of Executive Directors	Compensation Per Annum (US$'000)
Mr. Zhou Ling	110

No Executive Directors has a service contract with the Company or any of its subsidiaries with a notice period in excess of one year or with provisions for predetermined compensation on termination that exceeds one year's salary and benefits in kind.

The Company does not have a share option scheme.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

As of 31 December 2006, the Audit Committee consists of the following three directors: Mr. Ho Choi Chiu, Mr. Lu Ren Jie and Mr. Chai Woon Chew. Mr. Ho was the Committee Chairman. All of the Committee members were independent non-executive Directors.

It is the practice of the Audit Committee to meet twice each year. Special meetings may be called at the discretion of the Chairman or at the request of the Managing Director to review significant control or financial issues.

During 2006, the Audit Committee met two times and discharge its responsibilities in its review of the half-yearly and annual results and system of internal control, and its other duties as set out in Listing Rules of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

In 2006, the Audit Committee discharged its responsibilities by:

- Making recommendations to the Board on the reappointment of the external auditor and approval of the remuneration and terms of engagement of the external auditor;
- Monitoring the external auditor's independence and objectivity and the effectiveness of the audit process in accordance with applicable standard, and discussing with external auditor the nature and scope of the audit and reporting obligations;
- Reviewing, and monitoring the integrity of, the financial statements of the Company and the Company's annual and interim reports and the auditor's report to ensure that the information presents a true and balance assessment of the Company's financial position;
- Reviewing the Company's financial controls, internal control and risk management systems to ensure that management has discharged its duty to have an effective internal control system;
- Reviewing the Company's financial and accounting policies and practices;
- Reviewing the external auditor's management letter, material queries raises by the external auditor to the management in respect of the accounting records, financial accounts or systems of control and the management's response to such queries; and

- Reporting to the Board on the matters set out in the Code on Corporate Governance Practices on the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee oversees the financial reporting process and the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's system of internal control. During the year, the Committee carried out their own independent review of the interim and annual financial statements and financial reports and statements included in circulars of the Company published during the year. The Audit Committee is authorized by the Board to obtain external legal or other independent professional advice and to ensure the attendance of outsiders with relevant experience and expertise if it considers necessary in the performance of its functions. The Audit Committee is provided with sufficient resources by the Company to discharge its duties.

None of the members of the Committee has any personal financial interests, conflicts of interest in the business of the Company and its subsidiaries.

AUDITORS' REMUNERATION

Prior to 31 October 2006, the Company's independent auditors were Johnny Chan & Co. Limited, and after 22 November 2006, the Company's independent auditors are K. M. Choi & Au Yeung Limited. In order to maintain their independence, the Company's independent auditors will not be employed for non-audit work unless it is permissible under the Listing Rules of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and has been pre-approved by the Audit Committee of the Company.

The following is a summary of the fees billed to us by our principal independent auditors during the financial years ended 31 December 2006 and 2005:

Fee Category	2006 (US$'000)	2005 (US$'000)
Audit fees	168	124
Other services	26	23

The Audit Committee has resolved the re-appointment of K.M. Choi & Au Yeung Limited for statutory audits for the financial year 2007. This resolution has been approved by the Board of Directors and is subject to final approval and authorization by the shareholders at the 2007 AGM.

INTERNAL CONTROLS

The Company's internal control system is designed to facilitate the effectiveness and efficiency of operations, safeguard assets against unauthorized use and disposition, ensure the maintenance of proper accounting records and the truth and fairness of the financial statements, and ensure compliance with relevant rules and regulations.

The Board is responsible for maintaining an adequate system of internal control and for reviewing its effectiveness. The Board Audit Committee conducts reviews of the effectiveness of the Company's system of internal control, including those of its subsidiaries twice a year, and reports annually to the Board on such reviews.

For the year ended 31 December 2006, based on the evaluation of the Company's internal control, the Board considered its internal control system effective and adequate. No significant areas of concern that might affect shareholders were identified.

FINANCIAL REPORTING

The Directors acknowledge their responsibility for preparing all information and representations contained in the financial statements of the Company for the year under review. The Directors consider that the financial statements have been prepared in conformity with the generally accepted accounting standards published by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and reflect amounts that are based on the best estimates and reasonable, informed and prudent judgment of the Board and Management with an appropriate consideration to materiality. As at 31 December 2006, the Directors, having made appropriate enquiries, are not aware of any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions which may cast significant doubt upon the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Accordingly, the Directors have prepared the financial statements of the Company on a going concern basis.

In 2006, the Company adopted some new and revised Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards, including Hong Kong Accounting Standards and applicable Interpretations which came into effect on 1 January 2006. They are set out in the Significant Accounting Policies of the Notes to the Accounts on pages 28.

The responsibilities of the external auditors with respect to financial reporting are set out in the Report of the Auditors on page 17 to 18.

By Order of the Board
