

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

The Group has been committed to maintaining high standards of corporate governance and continued to uphold a good, solid and sensible framework of corporate governance. The Board considers such commitment is essential for the internal management, financial management, balance of business risk and protection of shareholders' interest.

The Group truly believe that a sound corporate governance bases itself upon accountability system, information disclosure and corporate transparency. The Group acknowledges the importance to provide Shareholders with an open and highly transparent management. Apart from enhancing Shareholders' value and improving corporate earnings, sound corporate governance can also facilitate the steady development of the financial sector in Hong Kong.

In addition, sound corporate governance may also promote our communication with external parties, such that investors can understand more about our development potential and future prospects, to realize our investment value. The Group also believe that the procedures and systems under sound corporate governance can improve operational efficiency of the Group, such that all divisions or departments can enhance earnings of the Group through close and intimate communication.

The Group and the Board believe that sound corporate governance bases itself upon accountability system, timely information disclosure and effective mutual communication. As for internal management, systematic management and a comprehensive accountability system will enhance operational efficiency and strengthen profitability. Externally, sound corporate governance enables investors to fully capture the immense development potential and future development strategy for the Group for better understanding of the Group's investment value.

For the review year ended 31 December 2006, the Group has complied with the Code on Corporate Governance Practices (the "Corporate Governance Code") set out in the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange") (the "Listing Rules").

In addition to the Audit Committee, the Group also established the Nomination Committee and Remuneration Committee. The Directors of the Company believe that the internal control system is comprehensive to ensure the Company and the Directors of the Company are in compliance with the responsibilities set out in the Listing Rules and the requirement of the relevant rules and regulations in Hong Kong.

THE BOARD

Responsibilities

The Board provides leadership, approves policies, strategies and plans, and oversees their implementation to further the healthy growth of the Company, in the interests of its shareholders.

The Board takes responsibility for all major matters of the Company, including: the approval and monitoring of all policy matters, overall strategies and budgets, internal control and risk management systems, financial information, appointment of Directors and other significant financial and operational matters.

All Directors have full and timely access to all relevant information as well as the advice and services of the Company Secretary, with a view to ensuring that Board procedures and all applicable rules and regulations are followed. Each Director is normally able to seek independent professional advice in appropriate circumstances at the Company's expense, upon making request to the Board.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

The day-to-day management, administration and operation of the Company are delegated to the Managing Director, Executive Director and the senior management. The delegated functions and work tasks are periodically reviewed by the Board. Approval has to be obtained from the Board prior to any significant transactions entered into by the abovementioned officers.

The Board has the full support of the Managing Director, Executive Director and the senior management to discharge its responsibilities.

Composition

The composition of the Board reflects the necessary balance of skills and experience desirable for effective leadership of the Company and independence in decision making. During the year, the Board comprises nine members, consisting of two executive Directors, four non-executive Directors and three independent non-executive Directors.

The Board of the Company comprises the following Directors:

Executive Directors:

ZHANG Guotong (Vice-Chairman, Managing Director, member of Remuneration Committee and Nomination Committee)
WANG Hongxin
WU Chun Wah, Michael*

Non-executive Directors:

MA Zhengwu (Chairman, Chairman of Nomination Committee and member of Remuneration Committee)
HONG Shuikun (member of Audit Committee)
XU Zhen (member of Audit Committee)
GU Laiyun

Independent non-executive Directors:

KWONG Che Keung, Gordon (Chairman of Audit Committee, member of Remuneration Committee and member of Nomination Committee)
TSUI Yiu Wa, Alec (Chairman of Remuneration Committee, member of Audit Committee and member of Nomination Committee)
LAO Youan (member of Audit Committee, member of Remuneration Committee and member of Nomination Committee)

* Mr. WU Chun Wah, Michael resigned from the office as Executive Director on 10 February 2006.

The list of Directors (by category) is also disclosed in all corporate communications issued by the Company pursuant to the Listing Rules from time to time.

During the year ended 31 December 2006, the Board at all times met the requirements of the Listing Rules relating to the appointment of at least three independent non-executive Directors with at least one independent non-executive Director possessing appropriate professional qualifications, or accounting or related financial management expertise. The Company has received written annual confirmation from each independent non-executive Director of his independence pursuant to the requirements of the Listing Rules. The Company considers all independent non-executive Directors to be independent in accordance with the independence guidelines set out in the Listing Rules.

The non-executive Directors bring a wide range of business and financial expertise, experiences and independent judgement to the Board. Through active participation in Board meetings, taking the lead in managing issues involving potential conflict of interests and serving on Board committees, all non-executive Directors make various contributions to the effective direction of the Company.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

Appointment and Succession Planning of Directors

The Company has established a Nomination Committee and formal, considered and transparent procedures for the appointment and succession planning of Directors.

In accordance with the Company's Articles of Association, one third of the Directors are subject to retirement by rotation every year and any new Director appointed to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board shall be eligible for re-election by shareholders at the first general meeting after appointment.

Code Provision A.4.1 of Appendix 14 to the Listing Rules requires that non-executive directors should be appointed for a specific term and should be subject to re-election. With respect to Code Provision A.4.1, the non-executive directors of the Company have not been appointed for any specific terms since they are subject to retirement by rotation and re-election at the annual general meeting of the Company in accordance with the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company. As such, the Company considers that sufficient measures have been taken to serve the purpose of this Code Provision.

The Board and Nomination Committee as a whole is responsible for reviewing the Board composition, developing and formulating the relevant procedures for nomination and appointment of Directors, monitoring the appointment and succession planning of Directors and assessing the independence of independent non-executive Directors. The Board reviewed its own structure, size and composition regularly to ensure that it has a balance of expertise, skills and experience appropriate to the requirements of the business of the Company.

Where vacancies on the Board exist, the Board will carry out the selection process by making reference to the skills, experience, professional knowledge, personal integrity and time commitments of the candidates proposed by the Nomination Committee, the Company's needs and other relevant statutory requirements and regulations. An external recruitment agency may be engaged to carry out the recruitment and selection process when necessary.

In accordance with the Company's Articles of Association, Mr. Wang Hongxin, Mr. Gu Laiyun and Ms. Xu Zhen shall retire by rotation and being eligible, offer themselves for re-election at the Annual General Meeting ("AGM") of the Company to be held on 22 June 2007.

The Board recommended the re-appointment of the Directors standing for re-election at the forthcoming annual general meeting of the Company.

The Company's circular in relation to the forthcoming annual general meeting contains detailed information of the Directors standing for re-election.

Board papers together with all appropriate, complete and reliable information are sent to all Directors at least 3 days before each Board meeting or committee meeting to keep the Directors apprised of the latest developments and financial position of the Company and to enable them to make informed decisions. The Board and each Director also have separate and independent access to the senior management whenever necessary.

The Company Secretary of the Company is responsible for keeping minutes of all Board meetings and committee meetings. Draft minutes are normally circulated to Directors for comment within a reasonable time after each meeting and the final version is open for Directors' inspection.

According to current Board practice, any material transaction, which involves a conflict of interests for a substantial shareholder or a Director, will be considered and dealt with by the Board at a duly convened Board meeting. The Company's Articles of Association also contains provisions requiring Directors to abstain from voting and not to be counted in the quorum at meetings for approving transactions in which such Directors or any of their associates have a material interest.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

CHAIRMAN AND MANAGING DIRECTOR

The Company fully supports the division of responsibility between the Chairman of the Board and the Managing Director to ensure a balance of power and authority. The positions of the Chairman and Managing Director are held by Mr. MA Zhengwu and Mr. ZHANG Guotong respectively. Their respective responsibilities are clearly defined and set out in writing.

The Chairman provides leadership and is responsible for the effective functioning of the Board in accordance with good corporate governance practice. With the support of the senior management, the Chairman is also responsible for ensuring that the Directors receive adequate, complete and reliable information in a timely manner and appropriate briefing on issues arising at Board meetings.

The Managing Director focuses on implementing objectives, policies and strategies approved and delegated by the Board. He is in charge of the Company's day-to-day management and operations. He is also responsible for developing strategic plans and formulating the company practices and procedures, business objectives, and risk assessment for the Board's approval.

BOARD COMMITTEES

The Board has established three committees, namely, the Audit Committee, Remuneration Committee and Nomination Committee, for overseeing particular aspects of the Company's affairs. All Board committees of the Company are established with defined written terms of reference. The terms of reference of the Board committees kept in the Company and are available to shareholders upon request. The majority of the members of each Board committee are independent non-executive Directors and the list of the Chairman and members of each Board committee is set out in this report on page 13.

The Board committees are provided with sufficient resources to discharge their duties and, upon reasonable request, are able to seek independent professional advice in appropriate circumstances, at the Company's expenses.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee comprises three independent non-executive Directors (including one independent non-executive Director who possesses the appropriate professional qualifications or accounting or related financial management expertise) and two Non-executive Directors.
