(c) Guarantees by holding company

Certain unsecured bank borrowings of the Group totaling of RMB1,141 million (2007: RMB1,008 million) were guaranteed by CEA Holding (Note 17). No bank borrowing of the company was guaranteed by CEA Holding as at 30 June 2008 (2007: Nil).

Notes:

- * EAGF is a 25% associate of the Group. SDATC is a 27.16% associate of the Group, CAASC and EAIEC are both 45% associates of the Group.
-  Wheels & Brakes and STA are 40% and 51% jointly controlled entities of the Group respectively.
-  These companies are related companies of the Group as they are either, directly or indirectly, controlled by, under the joint control or significant influence of CEA Holding.

21. Seasonality

The civil aviation industry is subject to seasonal fluctuations, with peak demand during the holiday season in the second half of the year. As such, the revenues and results of the Group in the first half of the year are generally lower than those in the second half of a year.

22. Working capital

The Group's primary cash requirements have been for additions of and upgrades to aircraft and flight equipment and payments for debt related to such additions and upgrades. The Group finances its working capital requirements through a combination of funds generated from operations and short and long-term bank borrowings.

The Group generally operates with a working capital deficit. The Directors believe that cash from operations and short and long-term bank borrowings will be sufficient to meet the Group's operating cash flow needs for the foreseeable future. The Group's treasury department aims to maintain flexibility in funding by keeping credit lines available. The Directors believe that the Group has obtained sufficient general credit facilities from PRC banks for financing future capital commitments and for working capital purposes.

23. Contingent liabilities

In 2005, the family members of certain victims in the aircraft accident (the aircraft was then owned and operated by China Eastern Air Yunnan Company), which occurred in Baotou on 21 November 2004, sued the Company in a U.S. court for compensation.

On 5 July 2007, pursuant to several conditions with which the Company has complied, the Superior Court of the State of California ordered the action stayed on the grounds of forum non convenience for the purpose of permitting proceedings in the PRC. The plaintiffs filed an appeal of the stay order. On 20 February 2008, the plaintiffs filed a motion with the Superior Court of the State of California to lift the stay. The motion was denied by the U.S. court in May 2008. The plaintiffs filed a second motion to lift the stay in July 2008. The case is still pending. The Directors believe that a negative outcome will not have a material adverse effect on the financial condition and results of operations of the Company.

24. Post balance sheet event

On 27 June 2008, the Company entered into agreements in relation to the sale and purchase and the leasing-back of three A340 aircraft in finance lease for a period of 72 months. The transaction was completed in July 2008.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Review of operations

As at 30 June 2008, the Group operated a total of 398 routes, of which 293 were domestic routes, 16 were Hong Kong routes (including 1 cargo route), and 89 were international routes (including 14 international cargo routes). The Group operated approximately 5,922 scheduled flights per week, serving a total of 138 domestic and foreign cities. At present, the Group owns or operates a total of 225 aircraft, including 199 passenger jet aircraft, each with a capacity of over 100 seats, 15 passenger jet aircraft each, with a capacity of 50 seats and 11 jet freighters.

During the first half of 2008, the global economy slowed down further. The outbreak of the U.S. sub-prime mortgage crisis has triggered continuous volatility in international financial markets, while the ever increasing prices of primary commodities in international markets have added pressure on global inflation. Under the continuing macroeconomic adjustment policy, China's national economy has, in general, maintained a steady and relatively rapid growth momentum despite the difficulties caused by a series of catastrophic natural disasters. In this complicated and ever-changing economic environment, the trend of growth of China's air transport market has markedly slowed. Though the exchange rate of Renminbi against the US dollar continued to appreciate, which contributed to the improvement of the Group's results, the price of international crude oil and aviation fuel has experienced extended high-level fluctuations, which have resulted in prolonged high fuel costs and brought about substantial pressure on the air transport industry. Consequently, the results of the Group have also been significantly affected.

For the first half of the year, the Group's flights accounted for 36.9% and 36.1% of all flights at Hongqiao Airport and Pudong Airport, respectively.

In terms of passenger traffic, the Group successfully introduced several new international routes for scheduled flights, including "Sanya-Moscow" and "Shijiazhuang-Seoul", thus further improving the Group's international route network. By optimizing our airline network, reasonably allocating capacity and proactively developing foreign cooperation, the Group was able to improve its overall efficiency. The Group continued to improve its online flight ticketing service and the selling process of international electronic passenger tickets through the establishment of three systematic networks, namely the commercial website, call centers and high-end membership, in order to further develop its e-commerce services. For the first half of the year, the daily average utilisation rate of the Group's aircraft was 9.1 hours.

In terms of freight transport, the Group increased the consolidation of its one-stop freight transport management system and market developing efforts, continued to take advantage of Shanghai as an aviation hub by optimizing its product portfolio, and developed the high margin international freight transport market and the transit connecting freight market by leveraging the Group's route network resources in order to improve freight revenues.

In terms of services, the Group launched the gourmet culture week, namely "東方航空空中美食文化年 (Air Gourmet Culture Year of China Eastern Airlines)", and the "金牌服務迎奧運 (Welcome the Olympic Games with Gold Medal Services)" campaign, so as to promote branded service and create a new perspective for branded services. In terms of on-time flight rate, we lead the industry due to enhanced on-site coordination and monitoring, regular analysis, and performance evaluation as well as through proactively seeking external support.

As at 30 June 2008, the total traffic volume of the Group was 3,613 million tonne-kilometres, representing an increase of 2.10% from the same period last year, while traffic revenues amounted to RMB19,197 million, representing an increase of 5.13% from the same period last year.

During the first half of 2008, passenger traffic volume was 26,558 million passenger-kilometres, representing an increase of 0.17% from the same period last year. Compared to the same period last year, passenger revenues increased by 3.67% to RMB16,429 million, accounting for 85.58% of the Group's transportation revenues.

Passenger traffic volume on domestic routes was 16,629 million passenger-kilometres, representing an increase of 1.91% from the same period last year. Compared to the same period last year, the passenger load factor increased by 0.80 percentage points to 75.28% and the domestic passenger revenues increased by 3.01% to RMB10,002 million, accounting for 60.88% of total passenger revenues. Average yield per passenger-kilometre amounted to RMB0.60 during the reporting period, which remained unchanged from the same period last year.

Passenger traffic volume on international routes was 8,389 million passenger-kilometres, representing a decrease of 2.25% from the same period last year. Compared to the same period last year, the passenger load factor decreased by 3.12 percentage points to 65.03% and the revenues increased by 7.47% to RMB5,431 million, accounting for 33.06% of total passenger revenues. Average yield per passenger-kilometre amounted to RMB0.65 during the period, representing an increase of 10.17% compared to the same period last year.

Passenger traffic volume on Hong Kong routes was 1,540 million passenger-kilometres, representing a decrease of 4.58% from the same period last year. Compared to the same period last year, the passenger load factor increased by 3.45 percentage points to 65.27% and the revenues decreased by 8.10% to RMB996 million, accounting for 6.06% of total passenger revenues. Average yield per passenger-kilometre amounted to RMB0.65 during the reporting period, representing a decrease of 2.99% compared to the same period last year.

During the first half of 2008, cargo traffic volume increased by 5.90% to 1,241 million tonne-kilometres compared to the same period last year. The Group's freight revenues increased by 14.72% to RMB2,768 million for the first half of this year, accounting for 14.42% of the Group's transportation revenues. Average yield per freight tonne-kilometre of cargo and mail amounted to RMB2.23, representing an increase of 8.25% compared to the same period last year.

Total operating costs of the Group for the first half of 2008 increased by 10.53% to RMB21,940 million compared to the same period last year. The increase was primarily due to the persistently high price of international aviation fuel.

During the first half of 2008, the price of international aviation fuel continued to fluctuate at a high level and on several occasions set new highs, placing significant pressure on the Group's operations. In addition, the fleet expansion correspondingly increased aircraft fuel consumption. During the first half of 2008, the Group's expenditure on aircraft fuel was RMB8,567 million, representing an increase of 22.84% compared to the same period last year. The Group continued to make use of financial derivatives to assist in managing its risks related to aircraft fuel prices.

Take-off and landing charges were RMB2,654 million, representing an increase of 4.74% from the same period last year.

Depreciation and amortisation were RMB2,314 million, representing an increase of 6.87% compared to the same period last year.

Wages, salaries and benefits expenses were RMB2,029 million, representing an increase of 12.98% compared to the same period last year.

Aircraft maintenance expenses decreased by 11.91% to RMB1,082 million compared to the same period last year.

In-flight food and beverages expenses increased by 16.32% to RMB661 million compared to the same period last year.

Aircraft operating lease rentals were RMB1,362 million, representing a decrease of 6.21% compared to the same period last year.

Other operating lease rentals were RMB168 million, representing an increase of 42.01% compared to the same period last year.

Selling and marketing expenses increased by 7.16% to RMB802 million compared to the same period last year.

Civil aviation infrastructure levies paid to the General Administration of Civil Aviation of China decreased by 2.32% to RMB373 million compared to the same period last year.

Ground services and other charges decreased by 6.80% to RMB79 million compared to the same period last year.

Office, administrative and other expenses increased by 2.83% to RMB1,848 million compared to the same period last year.

Other operating income increased by 0.64% to RMB551 million compared to the same period last year.

Finance income was RMB1,947 million, representing an increase of 150.26% compared to the same period last year, which primarily relates to the translation of liabilities denominated in U.S. dollar. Finance costs were RMB1,065 million, representing an increase of 18.46% compared to the same period last year. The increase was primarily attributable to the increase of bank loan interest expense of RMB115 million.

During the six months ended 30 June 2008, the Group's consolidated loss attributable to equity holders of the Company as calculated under the IFRS were RMB212 million and the loss per share attributable to equity holders were RMB0.04.

Liquidity and capital resources

The Group finances its working capital requirements through business operations and short-term bank loans. As at 30 June 2008, the Group had cash and cash equivalents of RMB4,618 million, most of which were denominated in Renminbi. Net cash inflow generated by the Group's operating activities in the first half of 2008 was RMB1,083 million, representing a decrease of 57.83% compared to the same period last year.

During the first half of 2008, the Group was not involved in any major labour disputes with its employees, nor has it ever experienced a substantial reduction in the number of employees, nor has the Group encountered any difficulty in recruiting new employees.

Outlook for the second half of 2008

The Group would like to remind readers of this report that the Group's 2008 interim results report contains certain forward-looking statements, such as descriptions of the Group's work plans for the second half of the year and beyond, and forward-looking statements on the global and domestic economies and aviation markets. Such forward-looking statements are subject to numerous uncertainties and risks, and actual events may be materially different from those indicated in the Group's forward-looking statements.

For the second half of 2008, we will be facing an extremely complicated operating environment. With increasing uncertainties in the global economy, the Chinese economy will probably experience a slowdown under the macroeconomic adjustment policy. As a result, demand in the air transport market is likely to experience a downturn, while pressure from ever-increasing costs is likely to pose a threat to the development of the air transport industry. However, there has been a significant improvement in the relationship between Mainland China and Taiwan, which will facilitate the development of economic, tourism and cultural exchange between the two sides. Moreover, other favourable factors, such as the Beijing Olympic Games and the relaxing of travel restrictions on Chinese tourists visiting the U.S., will probably bring about new opportunities for the development of the aviation industry. To expand the size of the Group, increase its competitiveness and steadily increase its market share, adjust and optimize its route network, and create more attractive services and products to meet market demand, the Group will continue to increase its fleet by introducing three A330-300, four A321, seven A320, one B737-700 and one B737-800 passenger aircraft. It is anticipated that these new aircraft will be delivered and put into operation in the second half of 2008.

In view of the current market operating environment and the Group's actual situation, the Group intends to undertake specific measures in the second half of 2008 as follows:

1. In terms of safety, the Group will implement rules and standards so as to ensure steady and safe operation.

2. In terms of marketing for passenger traffic, we will bring about creative ideas, ensure reasonable allocation of our Group's resources, enhance our marketing ability, improve the management of our transit routes, take full advantage of our network, and develop in full force our transit connecting flights business. We will seize the favourable opportunities brought about by the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games, the newly commenced weekend direct charter flights between Mainland China and Taiwan, the gradual lifting of travel restrictions on Chinese tourists visiting the U.S., and commit stronger efforts to marketing, expand our market share and maximize our income. We will continue to optimize our route network, enhance aircraft utilization rates and fully explore any potential for cost-efficiency. We will promote the development of e-commerce, make the best use of the resources of our customer relations management system, expand the market coverage of the "95808" customer service hotline and realize system integration and resources sharing so that all of our international routes are covered by our electronic ticketing system.
3. In terms of freight transport, we will continue to implement and develop the "one-stop" concept and rationalize internal operating procedures. We will update our selling concept, innovate selling strategies, explore growth potential of income and develop new profit growth areas. By optimizing our route network, strengthening freight combined transport and transit, standardizing freight transport prices, improving management and enhancing examination methods, we will gradually improve the level of freight income.
4. We will control our costs in a stringent manner, vigorously implement our fuel saving plan and continue to implement centralized merchandising so as to reduce costs and expenditures. We will reduce our investment scale, eliminate non-productive investments, enhance corporate risk management, extend financing and fund-raising channels and reduce finance costs.
5. We will develop our concept of service, enrich the quality of our services and improve our brand image. We will increase our investment in hardware and infrastructure, enhance the standards for food and beverages, improve the comfort of our VIP rooms and update the in-flight entertainment systems to enhance the overall comfort of flight. We will reward frequent flyers with more distinguished services, and provide personalized and customized service products for our gold and silver card members. We will continue to improve our flight on-time rate. We will enrich and improve the contents of our brand "culture week" and provide our services in a creative manner.
