7. Tax

Hong Kong profits tax has been provided at the rate of 16.5% (2007: 17.5%) on the estimated assessable profits arising in Hong Kong during the Period. Taxes on profits assessable elsewhere have been calculated at the rates of tax prevailing in the jurisdictions in which the Group operates, based on existing legislations, interpretations and practices in respect thereof.

Ltd. and Asia Electronics Technologies (Dongguan) Company Limited, wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Company, are entitled to a preferential tax treatment with full tax exemption from corporate income tax ("CIT") for the two years starting from the first profitable year, after deducting the tax losses carried forward, and are granted a 50% reduction in tax for the three years thereafter.

Computime Electronics (Shenzhen) Co. Ltd. was entitled to 50% tax relief for the six months ended 30 September 2007 and 2008 as those were respectively its fourth and fifth profitable years of operations, while Asia Electronics Technologies (Dongguan) Company Limited was fully exempt from CIT for the six months ended 30 September 2007 and 2008 as those were respectively its first and second profitable years of operation.

Under the new PRC Corporate Income Tax Law, which has been effective from 1 January 2008, corporate income tax rate for domestic companies and foreign-invested enterprises are unified at 25% effective from 1 January 2008. Details of the Scheme are set out in the Company's annual report for the year ended 31 March 2008 (note 30 to the financial statements).

Details and movements of the share options granted under the Scheme for the six months ended 30 September 2008 are as follows:

			Number of	share option	s
Category of participants	As at 1 April 2008	Granted during the Period		Cancelled during the Period	Lapsed during the Period	As at 30 September 2008	Date of grant of share options <sup>(1)</sup>	Exercise period of share options	Exercise price per share

in aggregate	1,076,000	_	_	_	(120,000)	956,000	27 September 2007	31 August 2009 to 30 August 2017	HK$1.75
	1,076,000	-	-	-	(120,000)	956,000	27 September 2007	31 August 2010 to 30 August 2017	HK$1.75
	3,228,000	_	_	_	(360,000)	2,868,000

Notes:

- The vesting period of the share options is from the date of grant until the commencement 1. of the exercise period.
- 2. No share options were granted to directors of the Company under the Scheme during the Period.

The fair value of the share options granted at the date of grant was approximately HK$2,263,000 (HK$0.62 each) of which the Group recognized a share option expense of HK$314,000 (30 September 2007: HK$16,000) during the Period.

30 September 2008

The fair value of the share options was estimated as at the date of grant using a binomial model, taking into account the terms and conditions upon which the options were granted. The following table lists the inputs to the model used:

Exercise price (HK$)	1.75
Expected volatility (%)	46.23
Expected option life (years)	9.93
Risk-free interest rate (%)	4.39
Share price at the date of grant (HK$)	1.40
Suboptimal exercise factor (times)	2.00

The expected life of the option is based on the contractual life and is not necessarily indicative of the exercise patterns that may occur. The expected volatility reflects the assumption that the historical volatility is indicative of future trends, which may not necessarily be the actual outcome.

14. Commitments

As at 30 September 2008, the Group had capital commitments of HK$2,325,000 (31 March 2008: HK$5,038,000), which represented commitment authorized but not contracted for in respect of investment in a subsidiary. ## Management Discussion and Analysis

Overview

For the six months ended 30 September 2008, the Group, like most enterprises in the world faced an adverse business environment as a result of the global economic downturn which diminished market demand. On the positive side, the Group was able to maintain a degree of continuous growth in sales, customer base and branded businesses in the face of this adversity. Yet surging raw material prices, rising manufacturing costs in Mainland China and unfavourable foreign exchange fluctuations adversely affected the Group's profitability and continued to outpace management's efforts to throttle their impact.

Financial Highlights

Turnover

During the Period, the Group achieved an increase in turnover by approximately 13.0% to HK$1,246,603,000 as compared to HK$1,102,761,000 recorded for the corresponding period last year. The growth was driven mainly by the considerable increase in sales to the European and Asian markets with strong performance of the Group's appliance controls and commercial and industrial controls business segments. Sales of appliance controls rose by approximately 29.7% to HK$477,555,000 while sales of commercial and industrial controls surged by approximately 32.9% to HK$199,560,000, offsetting the slight decrease of approximately 2.6% in the sales of building and home controls in an extremely soft United States ("US") market.

With the Group's strategic expansion of its business coverage and distribution network in Europe and Asia to diversify revenue sources, sales generated from the European and Asian markets increased by approximately 48.7% and 92.0% respectively, contributing approximately 37.5% and 18.1% to the Group's total turnover respectively. During the Period, sales to the Americas decreased by approximately 17.4% due to the further weakening of the US housing market, lowering its contribution to the Group's total turnover to approximately 43.8%.

Profitability and Margin

In the first half of the financial year 2008/2009, the Group faced more severe cost pressure, as many manufacturers with production facilities in Mainland China encountered. Cost of sales increased drastically due to the surge in raw material prices as well as the increase in labour costs and manufacturing overhead. Rising costs, compounded by continuous appreciation of Renminbi ("RMB"), substantially reduced the gross margin of the Group's businesses. Gross profit for the Period declined approximately 30.8% to HK$126,570,000 as compared to HK$182,880,000 for the corresponding period last year. With its continuous efforts in enhancing innovative design and product development capabilities, the Group was able to increase the selling prices and pass part of the soaring costs to most customers, yet the effect was not fully reflected in the first half of the year.

In analyzing the major operating expenses as a percentage to turnover, selling and distribution costs as well as finance costs were improved to 3.4% and 0.3% of the Group's total turnover as compared to approximately 4.0% and 0.7% respectively for the corresponding period last year. Administrative expenses as a percentage to turnover were relatively stable and maintained at approximately 5.6%. The Group recorded a profit attributable to equity holders of the Company of HK$10,058,000 for the Period, as compared to HK$74,516,000 for the same period last year.

During the Period and throughout the remainder of the year, the Group's focus continues to be working with customers, suppliers and staff to manage costs, slim down operations and mitigate risk wherever possible. The Group may also benefit from recent improvement in the scale and downward direction of commodity costs and from the actions we are taking to improve profitability.

Business Review

Despite the slowdown in traditional demand due to decrease in newly built homes, the Group managed to gain new customers through expansion into new geographical markets and increased its market share as a result of existing customers' vendor consolidation.

Building and Home Controls Business

During the Period, sales of building and home controls amounted to HK$569,488,000, representing approximately 45.7% of the Group's total turnover. Sales from this business segment decreased slightly by approximately 2.6% as compared to the corresponding period last year mainly due to the decrease in demand for home controls products in the US, which was partly offset by the increase in sales of electronic controls for air conditioning products in Asia and the continuous increasing demand for energy management products in the European market.

The Group continued to diversify the product and service offerings of its own "Salus" brand and expanded into new geographical markets in Europe. Apart from distributing heating controls and energy management products ranging from programmers, programmable thermostats, digital electronic thermostats, wiring centres, valves to under floor heating controls, the Group commenced to launch renewable energy products under its brand "Salus Solar" during the Period. "Salus Solar" offers effective solar systems for water heating, together with a full system design service and clean air project analysis. Although the sales of "Salus" brand products only contributed a small portion to the Group's total turnover, it is a fast growing business with sales revenue up approximately 91.7% during the Period.

Appliance Controls Business

Appliance controls business segment achieved a strong growth during the Period which sales increased by approximately 29.7% or HK$109,443,000 to HK$477,555,000 as compared to the corresponding period last year, accounting for approximately 38.3% of the Group's total turnover. The revenue growth was mainly attributable to the increasing sale of controllers to certain existing European customers due to its vendor consolidation as well as drawing new customers in other markets.

Commercial and Industrial Controls Business

During the Period, commercial and industrial controls business segment reported considerable growth with sales up approximately 32.9% or HK$49,409,000 to HK$199,560,000, contributing approximately 16.0% to the Group's total turnover. The growth was driven by the increase in sale of industrial equipment products in Asia and generating sales from new customers.

Outlook

In 2008, the global economy has been subjected to drastic changes and volatilities. The outbreak of the subprime mortgage crisis has triggered worldwide financial turmoil and credit crunch in the finance and banking industries. Economic downturn has undermined consumer confidence and lowered their spending. Weakening market demand, volatile commodity prices, general inflation and unprecedented foreign exchange fluctuations reduced profitability and capital spending of most corporations. Undergoing a challenging first six-month period of the financial year, although the Group managed to maintain sales growth, the unfavourable macroeconomic factors have set back its results for the Period. Under the uncertain economic conditions, it is difficult for the Group, its customers and vendors to forecast and plan accurately for future business growth. Yet, such factors as surging raw material prices, increase in labour costs and appreciation of RMB, which have adversely affected the Group's operating results in the first half of the year, seem to have stabilized recently. The persistence of such stability and the duration of the economic downturn will materially impact the outlook of the Group's performance in the year to come.

Given the difficult operating environment, the Group will continue to pursue a prudent but proactive approach towards business expansion. The Group will put in greater efforts to increase market share and seek new customers by continuously diversifying its product and service offerings, with a view to strengthening its core businesses. Additionally, the Group will continue to explore business opportunities in Asian markets through expanding its branded businesses to capture potential customers as strategically planned.

Despite the upheaval in the global economy and each of the markets the Group operates in, the management believes the Group's products, manufacturing services and innovation pipeline are particularly well suited for the smart energy and environmentally friendly approaches that are now a common element of many of the stimulus programs under consideration in both developed and developing countries.

From the financial management perspective, the Group will exercise more stringent cost control measures, in particular on negotiating material price reduction, consolidating production facilities and increasing outsourcing activities to boost factory productivity as well as shrinking overall operating and administrative expenses. Conservative cash management including closely monitoring of inventory level and account receivables cycle is also in place to continuously maintain a healthy cash position of the Group.

Though it is generally expected that the business conditions in the coming year and the next will be more difficult, which will further accelerate the pace of industry consolidation, this provides opportunities for stronger players to gain further market share. Backed by the Group's resilient business model, diversified customer base, strong pipeline as well as a still healthy financial position, the Group remains confident in its prospects and its capabilities to overcome the challenges ahead.

Liquidity, Financial Resources and Capital Structure

As at 30 September 2008, the Group had cash and cash equivalents of HK$525,755,000, majority of which were denominated either in US dollars or Hong Kong dollars and HK$61,618,000 were denominated in RMB. As at 30 September 2008, the Group had net cash of HK$244,603,000, representing total cash and cash equivalents less total interest-bearing bank and other borrowings such that no gearing ratio was presented. The Group's net cash position remained strong during the Period.

Treasury Policies

The majority of the Group's sales and purchases are denominated in US dollars and Hong Kong dollars and also denominated in European currency to a certain extent. Due to the fact that Hong Kong dollar is pegged to US dollar, the Group's exposure to this foreign currency risk is low. Certain production and operating overhead of the Group's production facilities in Mainland China are denominated in RMB. As at the date of this interim report, the Group does not have any outstanding financial instrument nor enter into any financial instrument for hedging purpose. Nevertheless, the Group will closely monitor its overall foreign exchange exposure and interest rate exposure and will adopt a proactive but prudent approach to minimise the relevant exposures when necessary.

The Company has also adopted a share option scheme under which the Company can grant options to, inter alia, employees of the Group to subscribe for shares of the Company with a view to rewarding those who have contributed to the Group and encouraging employees to work towards enhancing the value of the Company and its shares for the benefit of the Company and its shareholders as a whole. As at 30 September 2008, 2,868,000 share options remained outstanding under such share option scheme.

The proceeds from the Company's issue of new shares (including shares issued on the exercise of over-allotment option) for listing on the Stock Exchange in October 2006, after deduction of related expenses, amounted to approximately HK$469,419,000. The Group intends to apply the net proceeds for the purposes as set out in the section headed "Future Plans And Use of Proceeds" in the prospectus of the Company dated 25 September 2006. As at 30 September 2008, approximately HK$106,250,000 were utilised for strategic business combination and acquisitions, approximately HK$8,215,000 for the expansion of distribution network, approximately HK$44,176,000 for the repayment of bank borrowings and approximately HK$44,176,000 for general corporate purposes, and the remaining balance of the net proceeds were placed in certain financial institutions and licensed banks in Hong Kong as short-term deposits.
