Furthering Diversifications, Pursuing Synergy.

Committed to its diversification development strategy throughout the years, Datang Power has witnessed its generation structure evolving from single-mode thermal generation into a strategically balanced deployment of thermal power, hydropower, wind power and nuclear power. Its business structure has also extended from a pure power generation operation to a chain of upstream and downstream businesses related to power generation.

In the future, based on various successful initiatives in its diversification strategy, Datang Power will further the development of its generation structure and business structure. It will continue to enhance its coal-fired power; aggressively expand its hydropower; continuously develop wind power; actively pursuing nuclear power; prudently proceed with coal-to-chemical projects; focus on suitable coal operations; and secure a complementary development of railway, port, and shipping.

Through furthering its diversifications, Datang Power marches towards all-encompassing synergistic developments, endeavouring to develop into an integrated energy company that enjoys a domestic leadership position and international reputation.

Management Discussion and Analysis

The Group is one of the largest independent power generation companies in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC"), which is primarily engaged in power generation businesses with its main focus on coal-fired power generation. As at 30 June 2009, the Group managed a total installed capacity of 27,790.2MW. The power generation businesses of the Group are primarily distributed in the North China Power Grid, the Gansu Power Grid, the Zhejiang Power Grid, the Yunnan Power Grid, the Fujian Power Grid, the Guangdong Power Grid, the Chongqing Power Grid, the Qinghai Power Grid, the Jiangxi Power Grid and the Liaoning Power Grid.

During the Period, the Group continued the implementation of the development strategy of "pursuing the power generation business as its core development whilst complementing with synergistic diversifications", and pushed forward power-related upstream and downstream projects such as coal mining, coal chemical, railway construction and shipping at a steady pace in accordance with plans.

During the Period, impacted by the global financial crisis, the PRC's economy was faced with tough challenges, realising a growth of approximately 7.1% Gross Domestic Product (GDP) which represented a decrease of approximately 3.3 percentage-points as compared to the Corresponding Period Last Year. Although power demand saw a rebound in May and June this year, power consumption during the Period saw a decline as compared to the Corresponding Period Last Year and utilisation hours of power generation facilities were lower than that in the Corresponding Period Last Year. These factors have affected the profitability of power companies. During the Period, the consolidated average on-grid tariff of the Group saw an increase over the Corresponding Period Last Year, and the Group, with reference to the changes in the market environment, took initiatives in planning budgets, implemented measures to expand income sources and reduce expenditure, as well as ensuring steady, safe and orderly production and operation management. As a result, the Group achieved a significant growth in profit as compared to the Corresponding Period Last Year.

Management's review on the operating results of various businesses

(Financial data are presented according to the PRC Accounting Standards. For segment information, please refer to note 14 to the unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial information attached.)

Power generation businesses

1. Business review

(1) Maintained stable power production

During the Period, the operational generating units of the Group maintained safe and stable operation. No casualties or incidents regarding the production facilities occurred to the Group during the course of power production. The equivalent availability factor of operational generating units amounted to 93.41%, maintaining at relatively high levels.

During the Period, total power generation of the Group amounted to approximately 61.3117 billion kWh, representing a decrease of approximately 1.51% as compared to the Corresponding Period Last Year. Total on-grid power generation of the Group amounted to approximately 57.7371 billion kWh, representing a decrease of approximately 1.47% over the Corresponding Period Last Year. The slight decreases in total power generation and on-grid power generation year-on-year were mainly attributable to a considerable decrease in utilisation hours of the Group's power generation facilities as compared to the Corresponding Period Last Year, primarily due to the impact of the PRC's macro-economy.

Meanwhile, benefitting from the two tariff hikes in the second half of 2008, power sales of the Group increased by approximately RMB1,329 million year-on-year, representing an increase of approximately 7.84%.

(4) New projects commenced production as scheduled

During the Period, the Group delegated management responsibilities level-by-level according to production commencement targets, thereby ensuring that new generating units with a total capacity of approximately 2,653.5MW commenced production successfully for power generation. Of such new capacity, 1,860MW, 735MW and 58.5MW were attributable to coal-fired units, hydropower units and wind power units, respectively.

As coal consumption declined caused by the year-on-year decrease of power generation, fuel costs decreased by approximately RMB494 million over the Corresponding Period Last Year, representing a decrease of approximately 5.02%. Depreciation expenses accounted for approximately 23.90% of the costs of power and heat generation, realising an increase of approximately RMB667 million over the Corresponding Period Last Year, representing an increase of approximately 23.33%. The increase was mainly attributable to the commencement of operation of certain generating units in the second half of 2008 and the Period.

(3) Operating profit

During the Period, operating profit from power generation amounted to approximately RMB3,790 million while gross margin was approximately 20.72%, representing an increase of approximately 4.30% over the Corresponding Period Last Year.

Coal chemical business

Duolun Coal Chemical Project, a project developed and constructed by the Group with a controlling interest, is located in Duolun County, Xilinguole League in the Inner Mongolia Autonomous Region. The project uses the brown coal from Shengli Coal Mine in Inner Mongolia as raw materials. It produces chemical products with the world's advanced technologies, including the pulverised coal gasification technology, the synthetic gas purification technology, the large-scale methanol synthesis technology, the methanol-to-propylene technology and the propylene polymerisation technology. It is a most advanced coal chemical project adopting clean, efficient and high value-added utilisation of coal. The ultimate products of the project are 460,000 tonnes of polypropylene per year and other by-products.

The project is in the process of construction and it is expected that the project will become a new source of profit growth of the Group upon its successful development and construction.

Coal business

1. Business review

The East Unit 2 coal mine of Shengli Coal Mine, developed and constructed by the Group, is located in the central area of Shengli Coal Mine in Inner Mongolia, with a planned production scale reaching 60 million tonnes. The coal produced will be mainly used as raw materials for coal chemical projects and coal-based gas projects including Duolun Coal Chemical Project and Kesheketeng Qi Coal-based Natural Gas Project. Including which, the Phase 1 project pertains to a production scale of 10 million tonnes and has been approved by the relevant PRC authorities. During the Period, production of coal has commenced.

Meanwhile, the Group is also proceeding with the preliminary development works on the Phase 2 and Phase 3 projects of the East Unit 2 coal mine of Shengli Coal Mine in Inner Mongolia, Wujianfang Coal Mine and Kongduigou Coal Mine. Outlook for the second half of 2009

In the second half of 2009, the Group has a daunting task on maintaining stable and healthy development whilst being faced with both opportunities and challenges. As the macro-economy of the PRC is gradually recovering, power demand is expected to have a growth trend in the second half of the year, thereby easing considerably the pressure on the operation of the Group. However, the uncertainties arising from key-contract coal prices; the volatilities arising from market coal prices; the relatively low utilisation hours; and continuous increase in finance costs will further impose pressure on the operations of the Group.

Faced with a difficult operating environment, the Group will actively expand its room for development and strengthen its marketing and sales efforts by fully leveraging its advantages in resources, scale, geographical distribution and costs, aiming to achieve the power generation target for the year. It will exercise stringent cost controls and strive to contain unit fuel cost increase, with a view to enhancing the profitability of the Company.

4. Actively pushing forward preliminary works in an orderly manner. The Company will have a proper control in different phases of its construction-in-progress so as to complete commissioning of its generation units in a safe and high quality manner through adhering to the principle of ensuring synchronised advancement in safety, quality, progress and production preparation;
5. Continuing the implementation of the Company's diversified development strategy by actively pursuing the expansion of the Company in projects of coal-fired power, hydropower, wind power and nuclear power, as well as pursuing the development of power-related upstream and downstream projects such as coal mining, coal chemical and railway, with a view to ensuring the Company's sustainable development;

Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Interim Financial Information (Unaudited)

For The Six Months Ended 30 June 2009
(Amounts expressed in thousands of Rmb unless otherwise stated)

1. Company Organisation and Principal Activities

Datang International Power Generation Co., Ltd. (the “Company”) was incorporated in Beijing, the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”), on 13 December 1994 as a joint stock limited company. The Company listed its H Shares on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and the London Stock Exchange Limited on 21 March 1997 and was registered as a sino-foreign joint stock limited company on 13 May 1998. On 20 December 2006, the Company listed its A Shares on the Shanghai Stock Exchange.

The principal activities of the Company and its subsidiaries are power generation and power plant development in the PRC.

This unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial information has been approved for issue by the Board of Directors on 14 August 2009.

2. Principal Accounting Policies

The unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial information for the six months ended 30 June 2009 has been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standard (“IAS”) 34 “Interim Financial Reporting”. The unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial information should be read in conjunction with the annual financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2008.

As at 30 June 2009, a significant portion of the funding requirements of the Company and its subsidiaries for capital expenditure was satisfied by short-term borrowings. Consequently, as at 30 June 2009, the Company and its subsidiaries had a negative working capital balance of approximately Rmb28,819 million (31 December 2008: Rmb38,336 million). The Company and its subsidiaries had significant undrawn borrowing facilities, subject to certain conditions, amounting to approximately Rmb100.02 billion (31 December 2008: Rmb38.16 billion) and may refinance and/or restructure certain short-term loans into long-term loans and will also consider alternative sources of financing, where applicable. The directors of the Company and its subsidiaries are of the opinion that the Company and its subsidiaries will be able to meet its liabilities as and when they fall due within the next twelve months and have prepared this unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial information on a going concern basis.

Except as described below, the accounting policies applied are consistent with those of the annual financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2008, as described in those annual financial statements.

Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Interim Financial Information (Unaudited)

For The Six Months Ended 30 June 2009

2. Principal Accounting Policies (Continued)

(a) Change of accounting policies as a result of change in standard requirements

The following new standards and amendments to standards are mandatory for the first time for the financial year beginning 1 January 2009.

- IAS 1 (revised), 'Presentation of financial statements'. The revised standard prohibits the presentation of items of income and expenses (that is 'non-owner changes in equity') in the statement of changes in equity, requiring 'non-owner changes in equity' to be presented separately from owner changes in equity. All 'non-owner changes in equity' are required to be shown in a performance statement.

Entities can choose whether to present one performance statement (the statement of comprehensive income) or two statements (the income statement and statement of comprehensive income).

The Company and its subsidiaries elected to present one performance statement and this unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial information has been prepared under the revised disclosure requirements.

- Amendments to International Financial Accounting Standard ("IFRS") 1 and IAS 27, 'Cost of an investment in a subsidiary, jointly controlled entity or associate', which the amendments to part of IAS 27 are relevant to the Company and its subsidiaries. The amendments to IAS 27 remove the definition of cost method and require an entity to recognise a dividend from a subsidiary, jointly controlled entity or associate in statement of comprehensive income in its separate financial statements when its right to receive the dividend is established. The Company and its subsidiaries apply the amendments prospectively from 1 January 2009 in their separate financial statements.
- IFRS 8, 'Operating segments'. IFRS 8 replaces IAS 14, 'Segment reporting'. It requires a 'management approach' under which segment information is presented on the same basis as that used for internal reporting purposes. The Company and its subsidiaries categorised their operating activities into power generation segment, chemical segment, coal segment and other segments for the purpose of segment reporting.

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision-maker. The chief operating decision-makers have been identified as executive directors and certain senior management of the Company that make strategic decisions.

IFRS 8 revised certain disclosure items which the Company and its subsidiaries have restated comparative information accordingly.

(Amounts expressed in thousands of Rmb unless otherwise stated)

(a) Change of accounting policies as a result of change in standard requirements (Continued)

- Amendment to IFRS 7, 'Financial instruments: disclosures'. The amendment increases the disclosure requirements about fair value measurement and reinforces existing principles for disclosure about liquidity risk. The amendment introduces a three-level hierarchy for fair value measurement disclosures about financial instruments and requires some specific quantitative disclosures for those financial instruments classified in the lowest level in the hierarchy. It also requires entities to provide additional disclosures about the relative reliability of fair value measurements. In addition, the amendment clarifies and enhances the existing requirements for the disclosure of liquidity risk primarily requiring a separate liquidity risk analysis for derivative and non-derivative financial liabilities. The Company and its subsidiaries will make additional relevant disclosures in its financial statements ending 31 December 2009.

(b) Change of accounting policy on jointly controlled entities at consolidation level

In 2007, the Company and its subsidiaries accounted for investments in jointly controlled entities under proportionate consolidation method at consolidation level, which is consistent with the accounting policy under PRC Accounting Standards ("PRC GAAP") and IFRS. In 2008, according to the CAS Interpretation No. 2 issued by the Ministry of Finance of the People's Republic of China ("MOF") released in September 2008, jointly controlled entities are no longer allowed to be proportionately consolidated and only the equity method is allowed when preparing consolidated financial statements. Since the Company is listed in both the PRC and Hong Kong and publishes financial statements under both PRC GAAP and IFRS simultaneously, to keep the comparability of the financial information produced under PRC GAAP and IFRS, the directors changed the accounting policy of jointly controlled entities under IFRS from proportionate consolidation into equity method at consolidation level as at 2008 year end, which has been retrospectively applied. Accordingly, this 2008 consolidated interim operating results were restated as follows. There is no impact on the earnings per share as a result of such a change.

For the six months ended
30 June 2008

Reduction in operating revenue	(256,386)
Reduction in operating costs	(210,007)
Increase in share of post-tax profit of jointly controlled entities	24,752
Reduction in interest income	(1,327)

(c) Adjustment on statutory surplus reserve

In year 2009, the Company and its subsidiaries adopted CAS Interpretation No. 3 promulgated by MOF on 11 June 2009 since 1 January 2009. According to CAS Interpretation No. 3, the Company and its subsidiaries recorded certain retrospective adjustments under PRC GAAP and adjusted statutory surplus reserves accordingly. In order to ensure the distributable reserve under IFRS is not affected by the adjustments at each period above, directors of the Company and its subsidiaries retrospectively reclassified the same amounts from retained earnings to statutory surplus reserve accordingly under IFRS. Please refer to Note 17 for further details.

3. Correction of Prior Period Errors

As at 2008 year end, an error was discovered whereby an associate engaged in coal mining business accrued certain provisions that did not meet the definition of liabilities under IFRS during 2007 and 2008. This error was corrected subsequently and disclosed in 2008 annual financial statements. The 2008 interim comparative figure of share of post-tax profit of associates was also increased by Rmb67.779 million accordingly. The basic and diluted earnings per share for profit attributable to equity holders of the Company for the six months ended 30 June 2008 were increased by Rmb0.0058 and Rmb0.0058, respectively.

Executive directors and certain senior management of the Company perform the function as chief operating decision makers (collectively referred to as the “senior management”). The senior management reviews the internal reporting of the Company and its subsidiaries in order to assess performance and allocate resources. Senior management has determined the operating segments based on these reports.

Senior management considers the business from a product perspective. Senior management primarily assesses the performance of power generation, chemical and coal separately. Other operating activities include investments in transportation services, financial services, etc., and are included in “other segments”.

Senior management assesses the performance of the operating segments based on a measure of profit before income tax (expense)/benefit prepared under PRC accounting standards.

Segment assets exclude deferred income tax assets. Segment liabilities exclude the current income tax liabilities and deferred income tax liabilities. Sales between operating segments are marked to market or contracted close to market price and have been eliminated at consolidation level. Unless otherwise noted below, all such financial information in the segment tables below is prepared under PRC GAAP.

To reflect the undistributable retained earnings in this financial information prepared under IFRS, a restricted reserve is set up to reduce the balance of retained earnings with an amount equals to the residual balance of deferred housing benefits, net of tax. For the six months ended 30 June 2009, approximately Rmb4 million (for the six months ended 30 June 2008: Rmb21 million) had been transferred from restricted reserve to retained earnings.

Pursuant to relevant PRC regulations, coal mining companies are required to set aside an amount to a fund for work safety and future development which they transferred certain amounts from retained earnings to restricted reserve. The fund can then be used for future development and work safety of the coal mining operations, and is not available for distribution to shareholders. When qualifying development expenditure and improvements of safety are incurred, an equivalent amount is transferred from restricted reserve to retained earnings. For the six months ended 30 June 2009, a net amount of approximately Rmb16 million (for the six months ended 30 June 2008: nil) was transferred from retained earnings to restricted reserve.

(a) Difference in the commencement of depreciation of property, plant and equipment

This represents the depreciation difference arose from the different timing of the start of depreciation charge in previous years.

(b) Difference in accounting treatment on monetary housing benefits

Under IFRS, the monetary housing benefits provided to employees who started work before 31 December 1998 are recorded as deferred assets and amortised on a straight-line basis over the estimated service lives of relevant employees.

Under PRC GAAP, these benefits were directly deducted from the retained earnings and statutory public welfare fund after approval by the general meeting of the Company and its subsidiaries.

(c) Difference in the recognition policy on housing benefits to the employees

The Company and its subsidiaries provided housing to its employees at a preferential price. The difference between the selling price and the cost of housing is considered to be a housing benefit during the related periods and is borne by the Company and its subsidiaries.

For PRC statutory reporting purposes, in accordance with the relevant regulations issued by the MOF of the PRC, the total housing benefits provided by the Company and its subsidiaries before 6 September 2000 should be directly deducted from the statutory public welfare fund and those provided after 6 September 2000 are charged to non-operating expenses as incurred. Under IFRS, the housing benefits provided by the Company and its subsidiaries are recognised on a straight-line basis over the estimated remaining average service lives of the employees.

(d) Difference in accounting treatment on mining funds

Under PRC GAAP, accrual of future development and work safety expenses are included in respective product cost or current period profit or loss and recorded in a specific reserve accordingly. When such future development and work safety expenses are applied and related to revenue expenditures, specific reserve is directly offset when expenses incurred. When capital expenditures are incurred, they are included in construction-in-progress and transferred to fixed assets when the related assets reach the expected use condition. They are then offset against specific reserve based on the amount included in fixed assets while corresponding amount is recognised in accumulated depreciation. Such fixed assets are not depreciated in subsequent periods.

(Amounts expressed in thousands of Rmb unless otherwise stated)

Under IFRS, coal mining companies are required to set aside an amount to a fund for future development and work safety through transferring from retained earnings to restricted reserve. When qualifying revenue expenditures are incurred, such expenses are recorded in statement of comprehensive income as incurred. When capital expenditures are incurred, an amount is transferred to property, plant and equipment and is depreciated in accordance with the depreciation policy of the Company. Internal equity items transfers take place based on the actual application amount of future development and work safety expenses whereas restricted reserve is offset against retained earnings to the extent of zero.

(e) Applicable deferred income tax impact on the above GAAP differences
