Glossary

This glossary contains certain definitions of technical terms used in this annual report as they relate to the Group. Some of these definitions may not correspond to standard industry definitions or usage.

3G	Third-generation mobile networks supporting peak data rates of 144 Kbps at mobile user speeds, 384 Kbps at pedestrian user speeds and 2 Mbps in fixed locations (peak speeds), although some initial deployments were configured to support just 64 Kbps. ITU coordinates 3G standards through its IMT-2000 project and key standards bodies such as 3GPP and 3GPP2.
CDMA	Code division multiple access, one of the standards for 2G mobile communications. It is a spread spectrum technology standard that assigns a pseudo-noise (PN) code to all speech and data bits, sends a scrambled transmission of the encoded speech over the air and reassembles the speech in its original format. By assigning a unique correlating code to each transmitter, several simultaneous conversations can share the same frequency allocations.
FTTX	FTTX Abbreviation of “Fiber-to-the-X”, a collective name given to various methods for fiber access. FTTX commonly includes: FTTN (Fiber-to-the-Node), FTTC (Fiber-to-the-Curb), FTTB (Fiber-to-the-Building), FTTH (Fiber-to-the-Home).
GSM	A global system for mobile communications, a digital cellular phone system standard that originated in Europe. It is deployed in more than 170 countries and uses a TDMA radio propagation scheme.
IP	Internet protocol, as more specifically defined in RFC 791, the primary purpose of which is to define packet architecture and address format.
PTN	Packet based Transport Network. In contrast to the traditional TDM mode, PTN transmits data flow in packets. PTN is a novel integrated equipment utilizing IP packet-based internal audit and incorporating traditional TDM user habits.
TD-SCDMA	Time division synchronous code division multiple access, a 3G technology developed in China to support voice and data transmission.
WCDMA	Wideband CDMA, a UMTS standard for 3G digital mobile networks adopting CDMA technologies to provide enhanced capacity for voice with a theoretical maximum data rate of 3Mbps.
UMTS	A reference to WCDMA standards generally used in Europe. 3G technologies have been collectively referred to as UMTS (Universal Mobile Telecommunications System) by European Telecommunications Standards Institute (ETSI) since the early 1990s.
xPON	Optical access that applies WDM technology with optical fiber as transmission medium, enabling high access bandwidth and end-to-end POS (passive optical splitting) transmission. xPON has a significant edge over other optical access technology and comprises EPON and GPON.
Service network	Built upon the access network/carrying network/core network to provide value-added services to users, the service network comprises the service engine (SMS centres, colour ringtone colours and WAP), the service platform and various value-added services (prepaid services, colour ringtone, VPN, paging centres, SMS, colour messaging, WAP, positioning and payments).

Access network	Located in the public telecommunications network as an interface between the local switchboard and users, the primary function of which is to facilitate user access to the core network. The access network is formed by a series of equipment between the service node interface (SNI) and the user-network interface (UNI).
Carrying network	Carrying level network that provides the basic carriage function for the services. It directs each service information flow from its source to the destination according to various service requirements and modulates network resources on the basis of the attributes of these requirements to ensure the functionality and performance of these services, providing QoS assurance and network safety assurance for communications of different types and natures.
Core Network	A mobile network comprises a wireless access network and a core network, the latter of which provides services such as call control, billing and mobility.
LTE	LTE (Long Term Evolution) refers to the long-term evolution of 3G technology with OFDM as the core, and is regarded as 4G in the making. LTE is being promoted by 3GPP and its major performance targets include maximum speeds of 100Mbps (download) and 50Mbps (upload) using 20MHz bandwidth.
Wimax	Wimax (World Interoperability for Microwave Access) is a MAN broadband wireless access technology using OFDM on the basis of IEEE802.16 Standard to support high-speed data access. Currently the technology is being developed towards compatibility with fully mobile cellular networks and has become one of the 3G technology standards defined by ITU.

Company Profile

The Company is a leading integrated communications manufacturer in the world market and a provider of global telecommunications solutions, with its shares listed on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange and the Main Board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

In November 1997, the Company conducted an initial public offering of A shares for listing on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange. The Company is currently the largest telecommunications equipment manufacturer in China's A share market in terms of market capitalisation, operating revenue and net profit. In December 2004, the Company conducted an initial public offering of H shares for listing on the Main Board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, making the Company the first A-share company to be listed in the Main Board of Hong Kong.

The Group is dedicated to the design, development, production, distribution and installation of a broad range of advanced telecommunications systems and equipment, including carriers' networks, terminals and telecommunications software systems, services and other products.

The Group is one of the major telecommunications equipment suppliers in China's telecommunications market and has also succeeded in gaining access to the global telecommunications market with respect to each of its major product segments. The Group has achieved a leading market position for its telecommunications products in China with longstanding business ties with China's leading telecommunications service providers, including China Mobile, China Telecom and China Unicom, etc. With respect to the global telecommunications market, the Group has provided premium products and services with high price-performance ratios to over 500 customers in more than 140 countries and regions around the world, having established long-term business cooperation with various global telecommunications service providers including France Telecom, British Telecom, Vodafone, Telecom Australia and Hutchison Telecom, etc.

Chairman's Statement

DEAR SHAREHOLDERS,

I am pleased to present to you the report for the financial year ended 31 December 2009. On behalf of the Board of Directors, I would like to express sincere gratitude for the concern and support you have shown towards ZTE.

2009 has been a most difficult year for China's economy, with national exports declining by a significant margin. Nevertheless, the Group overcame the enormous challenge and maintained steady progress in scale and profit by capturing market opportunities which were rare, while continuing to improve its corporate governance regime. Our achievements during the year are summarized as follows:

OPERATING RESULTS

The Group's operating revenue for 2009 amounted to RMB60.273 billion, representing a year-on-year growth of 36.08%, while net profit attributable to shareholders of the parent company grew 48.06% to RMB2.458 billion. Basic earnings per share amounted to RMB1.40. The Group's international business continued to enjoy stable growth in 2009, reporting revenue of RMB29.869 billion, an 11.34% growth over the previous year, to account for 49.56% of the Group's overall operating revenue.

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Against an extremely volatile global financial environment and intense competition in 2009, the Group succeeded in breaking new grounds while ensuring sustainable growth in its mainstream products, markets as well as carrier-customers. While new ideas and developments such as Mobile Internet, Internet of Things and Cloud Computing have had an enormous impact on the traditional telecommunications industry, they have also ushered in a unique period of differentiation for the evolving telecommunications industry. By capitalising on its structural differentiation, the Group continued to enhance its market position while sustaining stable business development.

For the Group, 2009 was underpinned by steady upgrades in overall product quality and marked improvements in terms of customer satisfaction, as it reported significant breakthroughs and growth in mainstream products such as carriers' networks, access networks, GSM and terminals. In the domestic market, the Group's position as a leading supplier and business partner for major customers has been significantly enhanced with the benefit of large-scale 3G construction. Elsewhere, the Group reported continuous growth in the international market on the back of its cost advantage, technological edge and financial strengths, gaining new grounds in several high-end markets.

The Group's strategy of internationalization was further implemented in its organisational structure and evaluation system in 2009, with the objective of improving its core competitiveness on a continuous basis. With ongoing optimization in project-based management and market-driven research and development, the standards of our market and R&D management have been significantly enhanced.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

In compliance with the Company Law, Securities Law, Corporate Governance Standards for Listed Companies, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange and relevant laws and regulations of the CSRC, the Company has further advanced its corporate governance initiatives on top of the specific requirements for listed companies in 2009. In accordance with CSRC Document 2008 No. 57, the Company revised the provisions of its Articles of Association on its cash dividend policy and formulated certain new regulations, including the Specific System for the Selection and Appointment of Accountants' Firm and the System for the Registration of Owners of Insider Information. Our corporate governance regime has been further regulated and improved as a result.

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

The Group published a new mission statement on corporate social responsibility in 2009 that incorporated environment-friendly initiatives in product development, manufacturing, supply-chain, logistics and engineering, as it strived to develop a sustainable "green" network in a joint effort with the carriers, while encouraging commitment to social responsibility on the part of its up/downstream business associates through enhanced supply-chain management and customer training. The Group is currently in the process of implementing and incorporating the United Nations Global Compact and its ten principles in its operations and corporate culture, after officially becoming a signatory to the Compact in 2009. Corporate social responsibility has become an integral part of our corporate values, and our efforts in this regard have been widely recognized by governments, international organizations and media.

DIVIDEND DISTRIBUTION

In view of the Group's solid operating results in 2009 and taking into account its overall financial conditions and cash flow, the dividend distribution proposal dividend of RMB3 (including tax) for every 10 shares recommended by the Board of Directors will be as follows: A bonus issue of 5 shares for every 10 shares held and a cash dividend of RMB3 (including tax) for every 10 shares.

FUTURE PROSPECTS

In the year ahead, 3G networks, optical communications products and terminals will be among the major drivers for investments in the domestic market. An expedited integration process is also expected to facilitate growth in the market for new communications equipment. Internationally, the telecommunications industry should embrace stable growth amid global economic recovery, while investments in equipment and terminal products are expected to increase in line with large-scale construction of 3G networks around the world, particularly in the Asia Pacific. Given the new market situation, it would be a matter of priority for the Group to work actively in response to the government's call for the development of strategic new industries, reinforce its strategy of internationalization, enhance its overall competitive strengths and identify potential business opportunities in the domestic and foreign markets.

OUR WORK IN 2010 WILL BE FOCUSED ON THE FOLLOWING:

In the coming year, the Group will increase its investment in the overseas market and enhance its marketing capabilities and ability to provide integrated solutions. We will seek to optimize our global network by increasing customer satisfaction with the provision of high-quality networks. Meanwhile, we will assure that our market share in the domestic market is maintained or even enlarged, striving to achieve stable development in 2010 in the domestic and international markets, on the back of our substantial growth at home in 2009.

The Group will continue to pursue internationalization with greater depth in a bold and venturesome spirit. As we seek to extend our lead in the market, we will confront competition with a keen sense of crisis that forbids us to slip into complacency or hotheadedness, taking one step at a time to realize the goal of becoming a world-class enterprise while continuing to deliver sound results to our shareholders and the community.

Hou Weigui
Chairman

Corporate Governance Structure

The Company has prepared the “Corporate Governance Work Report” and the “Corporate Governance Report” in accordance with different requirements in form and content of PRC securities regulatory authorities and the Listing Rule of Hong Kong, respectively. To avoid undue repetitions and to keep the presentation lucid, a cross-referencing approach has been adopted.

PART I: CORPORATE GOVERNANCE WORK REPORT PREPARED IN ACCORDANCE WITH PRC SECURITIES REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS

I. Status of corporate governance

In accordance with the corporate governance initiatives led by the CSRC, 2009 has been designated as the year of corporate governance rectification for listed companies. In compliance with the Company Law, Securities Law, Corporate Governance Standards for Listed Companies, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange and relevant laws and regulations of the CSRC, the Company has further advanced its corporate governance initiatives on top of the specific requirements for listed companies. Our corporate governance regime has been further regulated and improved as a result.

In accordance with CSRC Document 2008 No. 57, the Company revised the provisions of its Articles of Association on its cash dividend policy and formulated certain new regulations, including the Specific System for the Selection and Appointment of Accountants’ Firm and the System for the Registration of Owners of Insider Information.

As at the end of the reporting period, the status of corporate governance of the Company was in compliance with the relevant requirements of the CSRC.

- (I) Shareholders and general meetings: The Company has established a corporate governance structure to ensure that all shareholders can fully exercise their rights and enjoy equal status, in particular for minority shareholders. Sufficient time is provided at general meetings of shareholders, which are to be convened legally and validly, for the discussion of each proposal, to provide a good opportunity for communications between the Board and the shareholders. In addition, shareholders may contact the Company through its shareholder hotline during normal working hours or through its designated e-mail address for any enquiries.
- (II) Controlling shareholder and the listed company: the Company’s controlling shareholder is Zhongxingxin. The controlling shareholder exercises its rights as an investor in strict compliance with the law, without adversely affecting the lawful rights and interests of the Company and other shareholders. Candidates for election as Directors and Supervisors are nominated in strict compliance with laws and regulations and the terms and procedures as set out in the Articles. The staffing, assets, financial affairs, organisation and business of the controlling shareholder are independent to those of the listed company, with the controlling shareholder and listed company each carrying out independent auditing and assuming its own responsibilities and risks. The controlling shareholder has not directly or indirectly interfered with the decision-making and business activities of the Company beyond the general meeting.
- (III) Directors and the Board: the Company appoints directors in strict compliance with the procedures set out in its Articles, ensuring that the directors are appointed in an open, fair, just and independent manner. In order to fully reflect the opinions of minority shareholders, a cumulative voting scheme is adopted for the appointment of directors. The Board of Directors has a reasonable professional structure, acting in the best interests of the Company and in good faith. The Company has formulated a set of rules of procedure for Board of Directors meetings, and board meetings are convened and held in strict compliance with the Articles and Rules of Procedure of the Board of Directors Meetings. To optimise the corporate governance structure, three specialist committees — the Nomination Committee, Audit Committee and Remuneration and Evaluation Committee — have been established by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Governance Standards for Listed Companies. The majority of members and the convenors in each of these committees are Independent Directors, providing scientific and professional opinions for reference by the Board of Directors in its decision-making.

Corporate Governance Structure

- (IV) Supervisors and the Supervisory Committee: The Supervisors possess professional knowledge and work experience in legal, accounting and other areas and are elected by way of cumulative voting. They monitor the financial affairs and supervise the lawful and regulatory performance of duties by the Company's Directors, the President and other members of the senior management, and safeguard the legal rights and interests of the Company and shareholders. The Company has formulated rules of procedure for the Supervisory Committee meetings. Meetings of the Supervisory Committee are convened and held in strict compliance with the Articles and the Rules of Procedure for Supervisory Committee Meetings.
- (V) Performance appraisal and incentive mechanism: During the year, the Remuneration and Evaluation Committee of the Board of Directors linked the salaries of the senior management with the results of the Company and personal performance in accordance with the Scheme for the Administration of Senior Management's Remuneration and Performance. Senior management personnel are recruited and appointed in strict compliance with relevant rules, regulations and the Articles. In order to establish a long-term incentive mechanism closely linked with the Company's business performance and long-term strategy, so as to help optimise the overall remuneration structure and create a competitive advantage in human resources that will contribute to the long-term, sustainable growth of the Company's operation, the Remuneration and Evaluation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company has formulated the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme of the Company, which has come into effect upon approval by the general meeting of the Company.
- (VI) Stakeholders: the Company respects the legal rights and interests of banks and other stakeholders such as creditors, employees, consumers, suppliers, and the community, and works actively with these stakeholders to promote the sustainable and healthy development of the Company.
- (VII) Information disclosure and transparency: the Secretary to the Board of Directors and dedicated officers are responsible for handling information disclosure, arranging receptions of visiting shareholders and answering enquiries on behalf of the Company. Relevant information is disclosed in strict compliance with Rules on Fair Information Disclosure by Companies Listed on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange and the Articles in a true, accurate, complete and timely manner, ensuring that all shareholders have equal access to information. There were no instances of majority shareholders or de facto controllers owning information otherwise not publicly disclosed or other irregularities in corporate governance during 2009.

II. Establishment, Improvement and Performance of the Independent Director System

In accordance with the requirements of the CSRC, the Articles of Association and the Independent Directors' System of ZTE Corporation, the Company has formulated the System of the Independent Directors' Duties on Annual Reporting to leverage the role of independent directors in information disclosure.

During the year, the Independent Directors played a significant role in optimising the corporate governance structure of the Company and protecting the interests of minority shareholders. During the year, the Independent Directors of the Company raised no objections on the resolutions passed by the Board of Directors meetings and other matters of the Company. In relation to important matters for which they were required to give independent opinions (including connected transactions, third-party guarantees, external investments and the granting of reserved Subject Shares under the Share Incentive Scheme), the Independent Directors have diligently reviewed the matters concerned and have issued written independent opinions. The Independent Directors provided valuable and professional recommendations on major decisions by the Company, improving the rationality and objectiveness of the Company's decisions. Attendance of Independent Directors of the Company at Board of Directors meetings during 2009 was as follows:

Name of Independent Directors	Number of Board meetings required to attend	Attendance in person	Attendance by proxy	Absence
Mi Zhengkun	10	8	2	0
Li Jin	10	9	1	0

Note: Mr. Zhu Wuxiang, Mr. Chen Shaohua and Mr. Qiao Wenjun were released from their office upon the conclusion of a six-year term in July 2009. Ms. Qu Xiaohui, Mr. Wei Wei and Mr. Chen Naiwei became Independent Director of the Company with effect from July 2009.

III. "Five Separations"

The Company is independent of its controlling shareholder Zhongxingxin in respect of the staff, assets, finance, organisation and business. Each of the Company and Zhongxingxin is audited independently and assumes its own responsibilities and risks.

With respect to staffing, the Company is fully independent in matters including the management of labour, human resources and salaries. Members of the senior management receive their remuneration from the Company and do not receive any remuneration from the controlling shareholder or take up other major positions other than as directors.

With respect to assets, the Company's assets are fully independent and the Company has clear ownership of its assets. The Company has independent production systems, supplementary production systems and ancillary facilities. Intangible assets such as industrial property rights, trademarks, and other non-patentable technologies are owned by the Company. The Company's procurement and sales systems are independently owned by the Company.

With respect to finance, the Company has an independent financial department. It has established an independent accounting and auditing system and a financial management system, and maintains an independent bank account.

With respect to business, the Company's business is fully independent from the controlling shareholder. Neither the controlling shareholder nor its subsidiaries are engaged in any business identical or similar to that of the Company.

Corporate Governance Structure

With respect to organisation, the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Committee and other internal organizations of the Company operate in complete independence from the controlling shareholder. There are no subordinate relationships between the controlling shareholder (and its functional departments) and the Company (and its functional departments).

IV. Establishment and Implementation of the Appraisal and Incentive Mechanism for Senior Management of the Company

The Company has established a performance appraisal system for senior management and an incentive mechanism linking remuneration to the Company's results and the individual staff member's performance. The Remuneration and Evaluation Committee is mainly responsible for formulating and examining proposals for the management of remuneration and performance of the Directors and senior management of the Company, conducting annual performance appraisals for the senior management of the Company and determining the remuneration of the senior management based on the results of the appraisal.

V. Establishment, Improvement and Self-Assessment of the Company's Internal Control System

(I) Overall Planning for the Development of the Internal Control System

Internal control of the Company is implemented under the leadership of the Audit Committee under the Board, while day-to-day internal control tasks are carried out by the Risk Management Committee, the Internal Control Task Force and the Internal Audit Department. The Risk Management Committee is the core department for internal control set-up, being focused on risk assessment and the creation of an environment for internal control. The Internal Control Task Force is focused on streamlining and regulating internal control activities, as well as the communication of information on the implementation of internal control. The internal Audit Department conducts internal control audit and relevant tests on a regular basis and exercises supervisory functions.

(II) Establishment and Improvement of Internal Control Regulation

The Company has developed various internal control rules and regulations, including the Rules of Procedure of the General Meetings, Rules of Procedure of the Board of Directors Meetings, Rules of Procedure of the Supervisors' Meetings, Independent Director System, Administrative Rules of the Company on Information Disclosure, Internal Control System of the Company and Administrative Rules of the Company on Issue Proceeds, in accordance with the Company Law, the Securities Law, the Corporate Governance Standards for Listed Companies, Guidelines for Internal Control of Listed Companies and other laws and regulations and regulatory documents and taking into account its specific conditions. Our internal control establishment has basically covered all operating segments of the Company, including but not limited to: internal operations and management, finance guarantees, investment management, connected transactions, treasury management and information disclosure, etc. In 2009, the Company further enhanced its business regulation, risk control and subsidiary management by making improvements its existing systems from time to time, while formulating and implementing new internal regulations including Administrative Measures for Risk Management in Project Implementation, Administrative Measures for Risk Clauses in International Sales Contract and Measures for the Performance Appraisal of Externally Deployed Financial Officers.

(III) Self-assessment of Internal Supervision and Internal Control

VII. Internal Control

The Board of Directors of the Company is responsible for reviewing the Company’s internal control systems to ensure its effective implementation. The Board of Directors has delegated to the Audit Committee the responsibility for reviewing the effectiveness of the internal control systems of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Directors are responsible for reviewing the financial reporting functions to determine whether there is sufficient manpower.

The Company continued to improve its internal control system in 2009 and monitor on a daily ongoing basis any significant changes in five areas, namely the environment for control, risk assessment, business controls, information and communications and supervision. Timely and effective assessments were conducted in respect of any internal control elements that might have a significant impact. Effective implementation of the internal control system is assured through a fourfold process: regular review of key risk exposures, processes and internal control designs in response to key risk exposures, process implementation, effectiveness assessment of internal controls and measures for improvement.

The Audit Committee under the Board of Directors convenes regular meetings each year in accordance with relevant laws and regulations to review the effectiveness of and identify rooms for further improvements in financial, operational and supervisory controls and the risk management procedures. Reports are being submitted to the Board of Directors of the Company on the implementation of internal control measures.

The internal control system of the Company was designed to provide reasonable (but not absolute) assurance against material misstatements or losses and to manage (but not eliminate) risks arising from the malfunctioning of operating systems or failures to attain the Company's objectives. The Board of Directors is of the view that the internal control system was in normal operation during the year ended 31 December 2009.

During the year, the Company performed self-inspection on its corporate governance and self-assessment on its internal control. A self-assessment report on internal control has been prepared as a result. For details of the Company's internal control in 2009, please refer to the sections headed "I. Status of Corporate Governance" and "V. Establishment, Improvement and Self-Assessment of the Company's Internal Control System" in "PART I: CORPORATE GOVERNANCE WORK REPORT".

(I) Business Review for 2009

Overview of the PRC telecommunications industry in 2009

China's telecommunications industry sustained stable development in 2009, as domestic carriers were engaged in vigorous 3G network building to take advantage of favourable government policies. According to statistics published by the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology ("MIIT"), revenue for the domestic telecommunications sector grew by 3.9% to RMB842.43 billion for 2009, as compared to the same period last year. New fixed asset investments grew 26.1% to RMB372.49 billion. In overview, the process of the industrialisation and commercialisation of 3G networks in China was gaining pace, with the three leading carriers having made direct investments of RMB160.90 billion in aggregate in 3G network construction.

Overview of the global telecommunications industry in 2009

The global 3G business moved into the stage of rapid development in 2009 having undergone a prolonged induction period. Despite a slowdown in growth, revenue from global mobile voice businesses continued to account for a dominant share of carriers' income. The data business became the fastest-growing segment thanks to the fast penetration of 3G and the development of mobile Internet connections, while the business of fixed-line broadband sustained growth as usage was driven by multi-media applications on the Internet. Region-wise, the Asia Pacific has surpassed North America and Western Europe to claim the world's largest share of telecommunications investments, with growing investments in segments such as mobile communication, broadband access, optical transmission and data communication.

For carriers in developed markets, mobile broadband services and value-added customer services represented the major growth drivers in 2009. Carriers were more focused on cost efficiency and users' experience, seeking to lower overall network ownership costs and operating costs in particular, while network quality, environment-friendliness, smooth upgrades and resource recycling, etc were also top on the agenda. In emerging markets, the development of carriers' mobile business was driven by the ability in cost-effective and efficient network building and the massive demand for terminal products, while the efficient utilization of frequency resources was also a concern of carriers given their relative scarcity and the fast pace of user growth.

Report of the Board of Directors

A new scenario in competition was emerging in the equipment manufacturing industry, as certain players were gaining control with increasing market shares and influence, while others were seeking to diversify their products or moving to exit the mainstream market.

Operating results of the Group for 2009

The Group performed strongly amid adverse market conditions in 2009, capitalising rare market opportunities to report growth in scale and profit. Operating revenue of the Group based on financial statements prepared in accordance with PRC ASBEs and HKFRSs amounted to RMB60.273 billion, representing a year-on-year growth of 36.08%. Net profit grew 48.06% to RMB2,458 million.

By market

The domestic market

The Group reported operating revenue of RMB30.404 billion in the domestic market during 2009, representing a year on-year growth of 74.07%. The construction of 3G networks was strongly supported by the government as a new driver of economic growth. Leveraging the opportunity of full-scale 3G construction in the nation, we emerged become China's largest supplier of 3G network equipment as we dominated in the network construction tenders of the three leading carriers and developed positive and balanced strategic partnerships with the big three. Meanwhile, strong sales were reported for our TD-SCDMA, CDMA and XPON products.

The international market

During reporting period, the Group's revenue from its international operations grew 11.34% to RMB29.869 billion and accounted for 49.56% of its total operating revenue. We overcame the impact of the financial crisis and sustained growth in a lacklustre international telecom market on the back of its cost-competitiveness, technological edge and financial strengths. We made successive breakthroughs in the high-end markets around the world, as our principal products (with the exception of terminals), such as carrying networks, access networks and service networks, were gaining footholds in important markets in Europe and America, which are set to become significant growth spots for the Company.

By products

Carriers' network

In 2009, the Group attained significant breakthroughs and growth in the mainstream product of carriers' network. In wireless products, the ability of the WCDMA and LTE products to deliver was gaining recognition among top-rate customers, while the Group's GSM and WCDMA products sustained rapid year-on-year growth with steady increase in global market shares. Our CDMA, TD-SCDMA, WiMAX and core network service products continued to lead the market, while our carriage products received a significant boost in overall competitiveness with breakthroughs in key technologies. Our continuous innovation in wireline fixed network products also enabled us to maintain a leading edge in the FTTx market. In terms of new products, the Group orchestrated a strategic transformation in product development through technological upgrades and operational innovations in service software products, capitalising on new opportunities presented by the Mobile Internet and the Internet of Things.

While breaking into new markets, the Group was also aware of the importance of constantly improving its ability in full network delivery, key network indicator protection, engineering quality management and work progress control. Engineering service centres were set up to provide tailor-made services to customers that would meet the diversified needs of carriers, so that the Company could readily compete on its project delivery capabilities and premium service quality.

In the mainstream market, the Group topped the overall ranking for the PRC 3G market during the reporting period, while revenue from Europe and America was growing fast as a percentage of the Group's sales revenue from international markets. We succeeded in making major breakthroughs in the mainstream market on the back of our strengths in research and development as well as our ability in swift network delivery, winning contracts to build commercial networks in major cities around the world for mainstream carriers such as CSL, KPN and Telenor.

Terminals

The Group's terminal business sustained rapid growth throughout 2009, as its global ranking in terms of handset delivery continued to rise. In the domestic market, we reported stable growth in our terminal products throughout the year thanks to the thriving 3G market. On the international front, we continued to make breakthroughs in important country markets and mainstream carriers, resulting in a more balanced global presence. Sales of our terminal products were on the rise in Europe and the United States, auguring well for the realization of our development and business objectives for 2010.

Telecommunication software systems, services and other products

Income growth for the segment in 2009 was driven by stronger sales of fixed terminals in the domestic market and elsewhere in Asia, as well as strong growth in service income in the home market.

(II) Discussion and analysis prepared under PRC ASBEs

The financial data below are extracted from the Group's audited financial statements prepared in accordance with PRC ASBEs. The following discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with the Group's financial statements audited by Ernst & Young Hua Ming and the accompanying notes thereto set out in the Annual Report.

Report of the Board of Directors

7. There was no special-purpose entity under the control of the Company, as provided for in the practice note of “ASBE No. 33 – Combined Financial Statements”.

8. Technological innovations

Proprietary development of new products is and will be a key strategic focus in the Group’s development. The Group had been consolidating its research and development platform with increased investments and enhanced parallel development since 2008 and in 2009 the systems concerned were further optimised to strengthen project operation, providing strong assurance for the swift development of the Group’s business.

The objective of the Group is to drive technological progress of the industry as a whole and contribute to China’s development into a leading telecom power through its own efforts in proprietary innovations. In 2009, the Group received the “Class II National Award for Technological Progress” for three projects: “next-generation wireless technology platform”, “application of CDMA-based digital cluster communication technology standards” and “international standards and application of ITU-T multi-media service series.” Among these projects, our proprietary intellectual property was embodied in the “next-generation wireless technology platform,” which was applied in numerous products of the Company and contributed to significant enhancements in the competitiveness of the Company’s wireless products.

Proprietary product innovation remains the most important driver for the Group’s growth. To facilitate ongoing progress in product innovation, the Company ensures that the annual investment in technology research and development will be no less than approximately 10% of its sales revenue and has formed a research and development team comprising over 20,000 staff. In 2009, the Group worked actively to support the government’s call for cooperation among enterprises, academies and research institutes and took the lead in the formation of the “ZTE Forum for Cooperation of Enterprises, Academies and Research Institutes in Telecommunications” in association with 17 elite colleges and 4 research institutes specializing in telecommunications, with the aim of forging a value chain linking the industry, the academia and the research sector. Through this forum, a number of joint venture projects in the wireless, wireline and services segments were set up during the year, effectively combining academic research with industrial capabilities to shorten the lead-time for product development and improve the Company’s core competitiveness as a result.

In 2009, the Group undertook over 20 major technology research projects designated by the government, such as the “next-generation broadband wireless mobile telecom net” and “core electronic components, high-end general chips and base software products.” We were also charged with the research, development and industrialization of the National 863 Project, the Electronic Development Foundation and the Guangdong-Hong Kong Foundation.

The Company’s drive to promote and improve its environment-friendly solutions is underpinned by an emphasis on the building of “green” networks and the application of environment-friendly energy conservation technologies, with the green concept of “energy conservation and waste reduction” being implemented throughout its entire business process from product design, procurement, production, transportation, application to recycling, ensuring that carriers’ networks will operate in full compliance with this initiative for environmental protection.

9. Major suppliers and customers

Purchases by the Group from its largest supplier amounted to RMB3,144 million in 2009, accounting for 9.18% of the total purchases of the Group for the year, while the purchases made from its five largest suppliers amounted to RMB7,207 million, accounting for 17.98% of the total purchases of the Group for the year. None of the Directors or Supervisors or their associates or any of the shareholders of the Company (other than Zhongxingxin) had any interest in any of the five largest suppliers of the Group (the above figures for the Group prepared in accordance with PRC ASBEs were consistent with corresponding figures prepared in accordance with HKFRSs).

Sales by the Group in 2009 to its largest customer amounted to RMB10,239 million, accounting for 16.99% of the total sales of the Group for the year, while sales to its five largest customers amounted to RMB28,295 million, accounting for 46.95% of the total sales of the Group for the year. None of the Directors or Supervisors or their associates or any of the shareholders of the Company had any interest in any of the five largest customers of the Group (the above figures of the Group are consistent under PRC ASBEs and HKFRSs).

Report of the Board of Directors

The progress of the projects and the earnings generated are discussed as follows:

The building-up of the R&D and production environment and scale production capacity of TD-SCDMA HSDPA system equipment

With the completion of ancillary facilities for production environments such as the assembly environment, adjustment and testing environment and high-temperature aging environment, the project was ready for large-scale production and commercial supply. TD system equipment supplied under the Phase I, Phase II and Phase III tenders of China Mobile reported stable application in operating networks, while TD system equipment required by the Phase IV tenders of China Mobile was under production.

The building-up of the development environment and scale production capacity of TD-SCDMA terminal products

The building of the development environment and large-scale production capacity for TD-SCDMA terminals has been completed, pending project inspection and acceptance by the National Development and Reform Commission. With such completion, ZTE's delivery of TD-SCDMA terminal products, such as handsets, data cards, modules and wireless terminals, increased significantly both in terms of volume and value in 2009, and were firmly established in a forefront position in terms of market share. The project has contributed strongly in terms of social as well as economic benefits.

Industrialisation of TD upgrade technology

In line with increased government efforts to advance TD-LTE, ZTE was also gaining rapid progress in the industrialisation of TD-LTE as it stepped up with LTE research and development, passing the indoor and outdoor stages of the PoC test organised by the MIIT TD-LTE Task Force in association with China Mobile in April and August, respectively, in 2009. In September 2009, we were appointed as one of the contract-suppliers of TD-LTE demo networks at the Shanghai World Expo after completing relevant tests at the invitation of China Mobile. This was followed by a demo of the first TD-LTE service between different supplier systems and terminals at the Telecom World 2009 held in Geneva in October, in a joint effort by ZTE and Hong Kong-based ASTRI. In November, ZTE's system realised the theoretical download speed of 130Mbps at the TD-LTE demo for Guangdong Mobile. In December 2009, ZTE became one of the first manufacturers to commence technical tests (outdoor testing) after the first batch of its TD-LTE passed the technical tests (laboratory testing) organised by the MIIT TD-LTE Task Force. The first stage of outdoor testing was completed in January 2010.

Construction of innovative handset platform

Handset TVs: The handset service was put to large-scale commercial application following completion of research and development and coordinated on-site fine-tuning for a majority of the world's markets and TV standards. The project mainly comprised the research and development, coordinated on-site fine-tuning and large-scale commercial application of proprietary TV data cards for international markets and the research and development and large-scale commercial application of TD TVs for the domestic market. Next we will be looking at the integration and system optimisation of various service standards, markets and product requirements.

Smart handsets: The EVDO smart handsets operating on the Qualcomm platform were launched in the overseas market, while at home they were supplied to China Telecom. The year under review also saw our global launch of Windows Mobile 6.5 smart handsets in association with Microsoft. Meanwhile, we have joined the Google OHA Alliance and overseas delivery of the Android handset has been scheduled for the first quarter.

GoTa handsets: GoTa terminals G880, G660, G79 and S580 were commercially launched during the year. In addition, a new model G380 has been developed in 2010 to further enrich the product line of GoTa terminals.

IMS customer-end software platform: The commercial version of the IMS customer-end software was launched on a number of TD-SCDMA and EVDO handsets, featuring IMS-based software such as real-time communication, video-phone and video-conference.

Construction of next-generation broadband wireless mobile SDR platform

Our SDR-based wireless products delivered solid performance in the market, as we captured the largest overall market share for 3G in China during the reporting period, Internationally, the Company's CDMA products continued to rank top in market shares, while our G/U dual-mode products were ascending fast in ranking. As new products in the market, our WIMAX/LTE products enjoyed a leading edge at the outset. At present, we are looking to extend the scope of our SDR products and add more depth to their functional aspects. Study is currently underway on multi-mode SDR products featuring closer coupling and more extensive coverage, with preliminary research and development completed on multi-modes with base-band sharing and RF sharing features.

Industrialisation of next generation IP-based amalgamation network for full multi-media services

The next-generation IP-based IMS amalgamation network of ZTE was developed in close tandem with carriers' shift of focus to all-rounded service offerings, with the aim of providing comprehensive support to different applications in the context of all-rounded services. ICT amalgamated solutions were provided to corporate customers to meet their needs to reduce operating costs, enhance administrative efficiency, improve business process flows and increase revenue. For home users, the amalgamated video solution featuring 3-way communications, IPTV and video monitoring promised to satisfy household requirements for entertainment, communication and safety. On a personal note, a rich variety of exclusive and personalised features were provided in multi-media services such as video phones, multi-media colour ringtones, colour vibration alerts and video-sharing. Fast service deployment and provision was also supported. These cutting-edge solutions have lent powerful support for ZTE's solid results, such as in the case of China Mobile, who became the first carrier in the industry to offer an IMS-based HD video conference system with the assistance of ZTE, giving the mobile telecommunications carrier a significant edge in expanding its customer bases in the government and corporate sectors for its all-rounded service. On the back of its technical strengths, ZTE secured a lion's share in China Telecom's IMS trial projects, while in the overseas market, ZTE was picked as IMS partner by mainstream carriers in the high-end market of Europe and America, such as Telenor.

Research, development and production of integrated network management system

As at the end of 2009, our integrated network management system completed equipment management over 13 types of specialised networks developed by ZTE, as well as systems integration with centralised security, centralised storage, malfunctioning electronic workflow processing, smart resource management and GIS mapping. In addition, further sophisticated functions were developed in 2009, such as end-to-end performance monitoring and trend analysis, and warning relevances/root problem analysis. In 2009, commercial applications of our products under research and development were launched in Ethiopia, India and Hong Kong, while a high-end market project in Canada was acquired.

Industrialisation of xPON optical access

The domestic xPON market grew significantly during 2009 as China Telecom and China Unicom continued to expand their EPON networks while China Mobile was also starting large-scale E/GPON construction. ZTE consolidated its position as the leading brand name for xPON as it continued to distinguish itself from competition in the domestic xPON market on the back of its solid research and development capabilities and comprehensive range of sophisticated products. With the global debut and commercial application of 10GEPON featuring smooth upgrades of FTTx products, ZTE has been firmly established as the global forerunner in next-generation PON technologies.

Our EPON and GPON products continued to penetrate high-end markets such as Europe, North America and the Asia Pacific leveraging its strengths in research and development and the range and sophistication of its products, following successful applications in numerous countries and regions, including Italy, Indonesia, Russia, Ukraine, Lithuania, Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Holland, Algeria, Hong Kong, Saudi Arabia and Ethiopia, etc.

Report of the Board of Directors

Industrialisation of next generation optical network transmission equipment

Branding itself as the “carrier of dreams and values,” this project strives to meet the needs of carriers in network upgrades by providing all-rounded transmission solutions such as MSTP/PTN, WDM/OTN and NMS, with special emphasis on matching the business requirements of 3G Backhaul carriage under the IP trend. In 2009, the project reported sound progress with the launch of the ZXCTN series of PTN products, Mx20 series of wave division products, as well as the large-capacity ASON and ZXONE 5800, which were widely recognized in the global market. At home, ZTE received three major awards at the “Optical Communications and Carrying Network Construction Forum 2009”: the “Optical Communications Industry Driver Award 2009,” the “Best Optical Communications Transmission System Supplier Award 2009” and the “Most Competitive Supplier of PTN Solution 2009.” Internationally, our IxWDM solution was honoured with the (BBWF Europe) InfoVision Award 2009.

As the ZTE project of “Industrialisation of next generation optical network transmission equipment” continues to advance, the Company’s market position in the optical network industry will be further consolidated. According to the report on market shares in 3Q09 issued by OVUM, a leading consultant, ZTE outpaced competitors in the optical network market during the past year, leapfrogging from 11th to 4th in global market share ranking to become a leading player. In line with project progress, further new products will be industrialised and marketed in 2010, which are expected to be well received by the market.

Construction of ICT integrated business platform

The primary purpose of the ICT integrated business platform project is to enhance the core competitiveness of ZTE’s business software products (especially the VAS products) by building an ICT business platform that addresses the general trend of ICT integration in the communications industry. The incorporation of success features of the Internet into business network planning has become a dominant trend among telecommunications carriers since 2009, in tandem with the ongoing fusion and cross-penetration between the telecommunications sector and the Internet. In view of this development, ZTE’s ICT integrated business platform was built upon the core concept of cluster service network (CSN), with the aim of helping carriers to provide cluster services based on unified and open standards in a fast and economical manner, as well as to deploy resources on a consolidated basis. The competitiveness of various service software products, such as service provision platforms, service management platforms, service access switches, software shops and support platforms for the Internet of Things, has been effectively enhanced as a result. On the solid foundation provided by this project, ZTE’s SIDE (service integration and deployment environment) project proposal was admitted by ITU-T in a further boost to the standing of PRC companies in the international communications industry.

Industrialisation of RFID systems integration

After three years of solid work in product research development as well as marketing, our RFID products and solutions were growing towards maturity and widely recognised in the market, while initial capabilities in RFID systems integration were also formed.

In 2009, the Group’s RFID 433MHz product achieved breakthrough in highway multi-path identification and became the established prime domestic brand name in this area with overwhelming market shares. The performance of our commercially launched ultra-high frequency products was further improved, ranking among the top band and outperforming domestic peers in various indicators in product tests. Performance consistency of the commercially launched label products was also improved with the full process from label design to commercial production in operation. Marketing options were broadened with our strengths in proprietary research, development and production, as well as OEM and ODM capabilities. New versions of software standard network units showing improved stability were launched in the latter half of 2009 after incorporating features to address new market requirements.

The Company also made significant progress in industry solutions as it concluded the first deal in electronic car plate in China’s transportation industry, paving the way for further development in this area and striking another note in terms of brand building. Currently we are involved in the tenders for multi-provincial electronic car plates, ETC free flow, multi-path identification and anti-fraud inspection for national-class items. We expect our status as the prime brand in China in this sector to be further reinforced in 2010, as we strive to grow into a large-scale supplier of RFID integrated systems.

(2) Significant investments using funds other than issue proceeds.

The Group had no significant investments using funds other than issue proceeds during the year.

11. There were no changes in the accounting policies, accounting estimates, auditing methods or adjustments of significant accounting errors of the Group for the year.

12. Items relating to fair value measurement and the internal control systems for these items

14. The Company has not made any profit forecast or relevant undertakings.

15. The independent opinion of the Independent Directors on the use of funds by connected parties of the Company and the Company's accumulated and current guarantees for 2009 was as follows:

- (1) The transfer of funds between the Company and the controlling shareholder and other connected parties represent sales and purchases of goods in the ordinary course of business. Such transactions have been conducted based on fair market prices and were not adverse to the Company's interests. Neither the controlling shareholder of the Company nor its subsidiaries nor other connected parties have appropriated the Company's funds.

As required by China Securities Regulatory Commission, the Independent Directors of the Company have reviewed the Company's transactions against the "Notice regarding Certain Issues on the Regulation of Financial Transactions Between Listed Companies and Connected Parties and Third-party Guarantees made by Listed Companies" (Zheng Jian Fa (2003) No. 56) and are of the view that the Company has diligently implemented the relevant provisions under the Notice and have not found any matter which is in breach of the Notice.

- (2) As at 31 December 2009, guarantees provided by the Company amounted to approximately RMB640,989,600 on an accumulative basis, accounting for 3.81% of the Company's audited net assets for 2009. The Company did not provide any external guarantees (excluding guarantees on behalf of subsidiaries) during the reporting period of 2009. As at the end of the reporting period of 2009, the balance of external guarantees (excluding guarantees on behalf of subsidiaries) amounted to approximately RMB70,484,600. Guarantees provided on behalf of subsidiaries during the reporting period amounted to approximately RMB513,114,000. The balance of external guarantees provided on behalf of subsidiaries as at the end of the reporting period of 2009 amounted to approximately RMB932,403,000. The information on guarantees disclosed in the 2009 Annual Report of the Company was true and accurate, and the Company had not been engaged in any guarantees or joint guarantees in breach of relevant regulations.
- (3) As required by China Securities Regulatory Commission, the Independent Directors of the Company have reviewed the Company's transactions against the "Notice regarding the Regulation of Third-party Guarantees made by Listed Companies" (Zheng Jian Fa [2005] No. 120) and the "Notice regarding Certain Issues on the Regulation of Financial Transactions Between Listed Companies and Connected Parties and Third-party Guarantees made by Listed Companies" (Zheng Jian Fa (2003) No. 56) and are of the view that the Company has diligently implemented the relevant provisions under the Notice and have not found any matter which is in breach of the Notice. In view of the above, we are of the opinion that the accumulated and current external guarantees of the Company are in compliance with the requirements of relevant documents issued by the CSRC, and there has been no breach of the guarantee or infringement on the interests of minority shareholders.

The record date for dividend payment for A shares was 4 June 2009. The ex-dividend date for A shares was 5 June 2009. Bonus A shares not subject to lock-up was listed on 5 June 2009. The payment date for cash bonus dividend for A shares was 5 June 2009.
- At the 2008 annual general meeting and the first extraordinary general meeting of 2009 of the Company, held on 19 May 2009 and 30 June 2009, respectively, the Board of Directors was granted an unconditional general mandate to separately or concurrently allot, issue and deal with additional domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares ("H Shares") of the Company (including securities convertible into domestic shares and/or H Shares of the Company) and to make or grant offers, agreements or options in respect of the above during the relevant period. Pursuant to the general mandate granted by the 2008 annual general meeting and the first extraordinary general meeting of 2009, the Board of Directors approved the issue of H shares to designated investors and diligently implemented the placing and listing of new H shares, which was completed on 21 January 2010. For details, please refer to the Announcement of the Company on the Completion of the Placing of New H Shares published in China Securities Journal, Securities Times and Shanghai Securities News on 22 January 2010.

Report of the Board of Directors

3. Pursuant to relevant resolutions of the first extraordinary general meeting of 2007, the Board of Directors implemented the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme of the Company. At the Twenty-sixth Meeting of the Fourth Session of the Board of Directors of the Company held on 6 July 2009, the total Subject Share quota granted to Scheme Participants under the First Award and the Second Award of the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme of the Company was ratified. The first unlocking of the Subject Shares under the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme of the Company was completed on 22 July 2009. For details, please refer to “(V) Progress of the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme of the Company during the Reporting Period” in “Material Matters” in this report.

(3) Summary report of the work of the Audit Committee

During the reporting period, the Audit Committee diligently performed its duties in accordance with the “Detailed Rules for the Work of the Audit Committee” (《審計委員會工作細則》) and the “Guidelines for Work of the Audit Committee relating to the Annual Report” (《審計委員會年報工作規程》) and performed important duties such as supervision and inspection of the building and improvement of the Company’s internal control system and vetting of the annual financial auditing.

1. For details of the work of the Audit Committee in 2009, please refer to the section headed “II. Board of Directors” in “PART II: CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT” of “CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE”.
2. Issue of three review opinions on the 2009 financial report of the Company

Members of the Audit Committee boast rich expertise and experience in financial operations. During the reporting period, the Audit Committee issued three review opinions on the annual financial and accounting report of the Company in accordance with relevant requirements of the CSRC. The Audit Committee first examined the unaudited financial statements and issued an opinion in writing. The Audit Committee was of the view that: relevant accounting standards had been appropriately applied and all significant accounting systems adopted had been consistent with those adopted for 2008; key financial indicators calculated on the basis of data from the 2009 management accounts were consistent with preliminary estimates made by the Committee members based on known facts and comparison with financial indicators of 2008. The passing of the financial statements to the PRC and Hong Kong auditors for auditing was approved.

Next, following timely review of the preliminary opinion of the audit report and discussions with the PRC and Hong Kong auditors, the Audit Committee was of the view that the preliminary audit results of the 2009 annual report was in compliance with the new accounting standards for business enterprises and their practice notes.

Finally, the Audit Committee reviewed the audit opinion of the PRC and Hong Kong auditors and the audited financial report of the Company for 2009. The Audit Committee was of the view that the report was a true representation of the financial conditions of the Company in 2009 and approved the submission of the report for the review of the Board of Directors.

3. Supervision of the audit work of the accountants’ firm

To ensure the conduct of auditing work in an orderly manner given the complex nature of the Company’s business, the PRC and Hong Kong auditors of the Company had finalised the audit timetable for the year by November 2009 and submitted such timetable to Shenzhen CSRC in early January 2010 in accordance with relevant requirements on annual report auditing announced by Shenzhen CSRC. In accordance with “Guidelines for Work of the Audit Committee relating to the Annual Report”, the Company arranged the timely report of such audit timetable to the Audit Committee. Following discussion with the accountants’ firms, the Audit Committee was of the view that the annual audit timetable scheduled by the Company according to actual circumstances was appropriate, and the Audit Committee concurred with the annual audit plan arranged by the accountants’ firms. During the course of audit, members of the Audit Committee held discussions with principal officers in charge of the assignment items to inform themselves of the progress of audit and concerns of the accountants. Such concerns were then communicated to relevant departments of the Company in a timely manner. The Audit Committee also issued two letters to the accountants' firms requesting auditors in charge of the assignment to expedite their work in accordance with the original timetable.

4. Summary Report on the 2009 audit work performed by the accountants' firms

The PRC and Hong Kong auditors of the Company performed auditing on the Company's annual report during the period from October 2009 to March 2010. During such period, the PRC and Hong Kong auditors of the Company and the Audit Committee held discussions on the audit plan, and issues identified in the audit process were also brought to the attention of the Audit Committee in a timely manner. The preliminary audit opinion was submitted to the Audit Committee for its review. The PRC and Hong Kong auditors of the Company completed the full audit process and acquired sufficient and appropriate audit evidence after nearly 4 months of auditing work. The A-share and H-share audit reports with unqualified opinion were then submitted to the Audit Committee.

During the course of the annual audit, the Audit Committee held discussions and exchanged views with the PRC and Hong Kong auditors of the Company, and also examined the annual audit report furnished by the PRC and Hong Kong auditors. The Audit Committee was of the view that the PRC and Hong Kong auditors of the Company were capable of performing their tasks in strict accordance with audit regulations, focusing on knowledge of the Company and the environment in which it operated, understanding the building, improvement and implementation of the Company's internal control, demonstrating acute risk awareness and completing the audit work in accordance with the audit timetable. The auditors maintained their independence and prudence in the course of audit and completed the audit of the Company's 2009 financial report in a satisfactory manner.

5. Recommendations on the appointment of PRC and Hong Kong auditors

Based on cooperation with Ernst & Young and Ernst & Young Hua Ming over the years, the Audit Committee was of the view that the PRC and Hong Kong auditors of the Company are major accountants' firms with high-calibre professional teams, full qualifications for the practice, rich practical experience and stringent internal management. As such, the Audit Committee recommends the Board of Directors to re-appoint Ernst & Young Hua Ming as PRC auditors and Ernst & Young as Hong Kong auditors of the Company for 2010.

6. Supervision of measures to improve the Company's internal control system

The Audit Committee is highly concerned with the establishment of a department with appropriate staffing for the inspection and supervision of the Company's internal control. The Audit Department serves as the day-to-day executive arm of the Audit Committee to implement supervision and inspection of internal controls on behalf of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee actively supports the Audit Department to perform its audit functions in accordance with the law and fulfill the supervisory role of the audit function. During the reporting period, the Audit Committee convened dedicated meetings to receive reports of the Audit Department and reports on the building, improvement and execution of the Company's internal control system. On this basis, suggestions for improvement were made in respect of the work of the Audit Department and the overall internal control of the Company.

(4) Summary report of the Remuneration and Evaluation Committee

1. For details of the work of the Remuneration and Evaluation Committee in 2009, please refer to the section headed "II. Board of Directors" in "PART II: CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT" of "CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE".
2. Examination of disclosed remuneration of Directors, Supervisors and senior management of the Company

Report of the Board of Directors

The Remuneration and Evaluation Committee has conducted detailed examination of disclosed remuneration of Directors, Supervisors and senior management of the Company, and is of the view that the procedure for determining the remuneration of Directors, Supervisors and senior management of the Company is in compliance with relevant provisions, and that the remuneration of Directors, Supervisors and senior management of the Company disclosed in the 2009 annual report of the Company is true and accurate.

17. Profit distribution or capitalisation from capital reserve

(1) Proposal for profit distribution and capitalisation from capital reserve for 2009

Net profit of the Company for the year 2009 calculated in accordance with PRC ASBEs amounted to RMB733,826,000. Together with undistributed profit of RMB1,992,735,000 carried forward at the beginning of the year, profit available for distribution amounted to RMB2,726,561,000. After deducting statutory surplus reserves of RMB73,383,000 profit available for distribution to shareholders amounted to RMB2,653,178,000. Profit of the Company for the year 2009 calculated in accordance with HKFRSs amounted to RMB721,736,000. Together with undistributed profit of RMB1,996,413,000 carried forward at the beginning of the year, profit available for distribution amounted to RMB2,718,149,000. After deducting statutory surplus reserves of RMB73,383,000, profit available for distribution to shareholders amounted to RMB2,644,766,000.

In accordance with the requirements of the Ministry of Finance of the People's Republic of China and the Articles of Association, profit available for distribution shall be the lower of profit available for distribution as calculated in accordance with PRC ASBEs and that calculated in accordance with HKFRSs. Therefore the amount of profit available for distribution is RMB2,644,766,000. The Board of Directors of the Company has recommended as follows:

Proposed profit distribution for 2009: A cash dividend of RMB3 (before tax) for every 10 shares held will be paid on the basis of the total share capital of the Company as at 8 April 2010 less the number of Subject Shares remaining in lock-up under the Share Incentive Scheme and the number of restricted shares that may be repurchased and cancelled during this period in accordance with the implementation of the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme (the "Share Incentive Scheme") as at the A share record date for the purpose of the 2009 profit distribution (the "Record Date"). As at 8 April 2010, 69,737,523 registered Subject Shares under the Share Incentive Scheme remained in lock-up. In accordance with relevant provisions of the Share Incentive Scheme, restricted shares remaining in lock-up shall not be entitled to the cash dividend. The number of shares entitled to the cash dividend under the 2009 profit distribution proposal will be 1,841,416,933 shares in case the second unlocking of registered Subject Shares granted under the first award of the Share Incentive Scheme (the "Second Unlocking") is not completed by the Record Date, on which basis the 2009 profit distribution plan will be implemented. In case the second unlocking is completed by the Record Date, the maximum of shares to be unlocked in accordance with the Share Incentive Scheme will be 35% of the Subject Shares under the first award, namely 26,797,252 shares, which will be entitled to the cash dividend.

Proposed capitalisation from capital reserve for 2009: The issue of 5 bonus shares for every 10 shares by way of capitalization of capital reserves. In case the aforesaid second unlocking is not completed by the Record Date, the capitalization will be based on the total share capital of the Company of 1,911,154,456 shares as at 8 April 2010 and the share capital will be increased by a total of 955,577,228 shares. In case the aforesaid second unlocking is completed by the Record Date, the capitalization will be based on the total share capital of the Company as at 8 April 2010 less the number of Subject Shares which are not unlocked owing to the failure of Scheme Participants to meet the performance appraisal requirements or their resignations and which may be required to be repurchased and cancelled prior to the Record Date for the purpose of the 2009 profit distribution.

According to the Enterprise Income Tax Law of the People's Republic of China and the Implementation Regulations for Enterprise Income Tax of the People's Republic of China which took effect on 1 January 2008, enterprise income tax is payable by non-resident enterprises in respect of income derived from the PRC at an applicable tax rate of 10% and listed issuers shall withhold such enterprise income tax on behalf of the non-resident enterprises. Cash dividend payable to H-share non-resident enterprises after the deduction of the said enterprise income tax is RMB2.7 per 10 shares.

(2) Implementation of the cash bonus distribution policy during the reporting period

The Company's profit distribution and capitalisation from capital reserves for 2008, was implemented on 5 June 2009. For further details, please refer to the "Announcement on Profit Distribution and Capitalisation from Capital Reserves for 2008 of ZTE Corporation" dated 27 May 2009 and published in China Securities Journal, Securities Times and Shanghai Securities News.

(3) Cash distribution of the Company for the past three years

Year	Cash distribution amount (before tax) (RMB ten thousands)	Net profit in the consolidated statements attributable to shareholders of the listed company (RMB ten thousands)	Cash distribution as a percentage of net profit in the consolidated statements attributable to shareholders of the listed company	Net profit of the year available for distribution (RMB ten thousands)
2008	40,299.9	166,019.9	24.27%	239,573.4
2007	23,988.0	125,215.8	19.16%	165,775.2
2006	14,392.8	76,697.2	18.77%	178,651.2

Accumulated cash distribution in the past three years as a percentage of average annual profit available for distribution (%)

40.42

Note: Profit available for distribution in 2006 amounted to RMB3,766,426,000 under PRC ASBEs and RMB1,786,512,000 under HKFRSs. In accordance with the requirements of the Ministry of Finance of the People's Republic of China and the Articles of Association, profit available for distribution shall be the lower of profit available for distribution as calculated in accordance with PRC ASBEs and that calculated in accordance with HKFRSs. Therefore profit available for distribution in 2006 was RMB1,786,512,000.

China Securities Journal, Securities Times and Shanghai Securities News have been designated as newspapers for information disclosure by the Company in China.

(III) Business outlook and risk exposures for 2010*1. Business outlook for 2010

2010 will be a year of opportunities as well as challenges, as the demand for telecommunication services is expected to grow in tandem with the general economic recovery, while we should continue to expect changing scenes in the competition among global suppliers of telecommunications equipment. In the domestic market, the Group's business should be well supported as carriers continue to invest in 3G networks, optical communications products and terminals. Elsewhere, the telecommunications industry is expected to embrace stable growth amid global economic recovery, with 3G network construction driving investment growth especially in the Asia Pacific. Our efforts to grow partnerships with high-end carriers in Europe and America over the past years are expected to pay off as businesses with these companies materialize, and these regions are expected to form a new growth spot for the Company.

In 2010, the Group will focus on improving its capabilities in integrate solutions and strive to constantly improve the quality of networks provided to customers by enhancing its competition strategy, product planning, product delivery and market behaviour, etc. Meanwhile, we will further increase our efficiency and pursue internationalization in greater depth, laying solid foundations for our growth into a top-rate world-class enterprise as we take advantage of the opportunities at hand.

Report of the Board of Directors

2. Risk exposure

(1) Interest rate risk

As the size of the Group's outstanding loans continued to grow, the total amount of interest payments owed by the Group will vary in line with any fluctuations in the loan interest rates determined by the State and the profitability of the Group will be affected as a result.

(2) Foreign exchange risk

The foreign exchange risk of the Group arose mainly from exchange differences in the conversion to RMB (the functional currency of the Group) of sales and purchases settled in currencies other than RMB. The impact of RMB exchange rate movements is a subject of exchange rate management. The Group adopted an open-ended principle in exchange rate management, with flexible application of a combination of approaches, such as the business planning method, financial management method and financial instrument method. The Group endeavoured to include terms relating to exchange risk aversion or sharing when entering into purchase and sales contracts and sought to enhance its internal management standards by actively managing its foreign exchange position and matching currencies and amounts received or incurred. Where matching was not practicable, derivative products such as foreign exchange forward contracts were employed to lock up exchange rates in varying proportions based on the maturity profile of the outstanding foreign exchange positions, so as to minimise the impact of exchange rate fluctuations on the principal business of the Group. With a strong emphasis on the research of exchange risk management policies, models and strategies, the Group has formulated a foreign exchange risk management policy that takes into account the actual conditions of the Company's operations and international standards in risk management with ongoing improvements and has gained considerable experience in the conduct of exchange rate risk management through the use of derivative financial instruments in foreign exchange.

(3) Credit risk

The Group encounters differing customer groups with the swift expansion of its one-stop communications solution services, and its business will be affected by the varied credit profiles of these customers.

(4) Country risk

Under the new global economic and financial order, the Group will continue to be exposed to debtors' risks, political risks or even warfare or the succession of political regimes in countries where the Group's projects are operated. As such, a very high level of operational and risk control capabilities is required.

(IV) Other Matters in the Report of the Directors

1. Fixed assets

Details of changes in fixed assets of the Company and the Group for the year are set out in note 15 to the financial statements prepared in accordance with HKFRSs.

2. Bank loans and other borrowings

Details of bank loans and other borrowings of the Company and the Group as at 31 December 2009 are set out in note 31 to the financial statements prepared in accordance with HKFRSs.

3. Reserves

Details of the reserves and changes in the reserves of the Company and the Group for the year are set out in note 39 to the financial statements prepared in accordance with HKFRSs.

4. *Pre-emptive rights

There is no provision under the Company Law of the People's Republic of China or the Articles of Association regarding preemptive rights that requires the Company to offer new shares to its existing shareholders on a pro-rata basis.

5. *Purchase, sale or redemption of shares

Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries has purchased, sold or redeemed any listed securities of the Company during the year.

6. *Share capital

Details of the share capital of the Company during the year, together with the changes in the share capital and the reasons therefor, are set out in note 37 to the financial statements prepared in accordance with HKFRSs and on page 24 in this annual report.

7. *Establishment and Improvement of the External Information User Management System

To stringently implement management requirements for the submission of information to external parties and further strengthen the management and disclosure of information submission to external parties, the "External Information User Management System" was formulated in accordance with the Company Law, the Securities Law, the Articles of Association and the System for the Management of Holders of Insider Information, and was considered and approved at the second meeting of the Fifth Session of the Board of Directors held on 8 April 2010. The system contains specific provisions on the preparation, review and disclosure period for regular reports and reports on material events, as well as the submission and use of external information.

REVENUE ANALYSED BY PRODUCT AND GEOGRAPHIC REGION

The following table sets out the revenue and the corresponding percentage of the total revenue attributable to the major product segments of the Group for the periods indicated:

Unit: RMB in millions

Product segment	2009		2008
	Revenue	As a percentage of operating revenue	Revenue	As a percentage of operating revenue
Carrier's networks	39,982.3	66.3%	28,963.8	65.4%
Terminal	13,071.5	21.7%	9,692.6	21.9%

Total	60,272.6	100.0%	44,293.4	100.0%

The Following table sets out the operating revenue of the Group and the corresponding percentage of the total operating revenue attributable to the PRC, Asia (excluding the PRC), Africa and other regions for the periods indicated:

Unit: RMB in millions

Region	2009		2008
	Revenue	As a percentage of operating revenue	Revenue	As a percentage of operating revenue
The PRC	30,404.3	50.4%	17,466.4	39.4%
Asia (excluding the PRC)	13,198.6	21.9%	10,432.9	23.6%
Africa	6,860.6	11.4%	9,311.1	21.0%
Other regions	9,809.1	16.3%	7,083.0	16.0%
Total	60,272.6	100.0%	44,293.4	100.0%

The Group reported RMB60,272.6 million in operating revenue for 2009, a 36.1% growth as compared to last year. Our domestic business sustained stable growth, with operating revenue growing 74.1% to RMB30,404.3 million. Analysed by product, revenue growth in varying degrees was reported in all product segments, namely carriers' networks, terminals and telecommunications software systems, services and other products, combining into substantial growth for the Group's total operating revenue for 2009.

The growth in operating revenue from the Group's carriers' networks segment was attributable mainly to the growth in domestic sales, CDMA, TD-SCDMA and WCDMA system equipment accounting for significant contributions.

The increase in operating revenue from the Group's terminal product segment was driven mainly by sales growth for CDMA terminals in the domestic market and for 3G terminals in both the domestic and the European markets.

The increase in operating revenue from the Group's telecommunications software systems, services and other products was mainly driven by growth in service income in the domestic market and sales of fixed terminals in both the domestic market and elsewhere in Asia.

Management Discussion and Analysis

COST OF SALES AND GROSS PROFIT

The following tables set out (1) the cost of sales of the Group and cost of sales as a percentage of total operating revenue and (2) the Group's gross profit and gross profit margin for the periods indicated:

Unit: RMB in millions

Product segment	2009		2008
	Cost of sales	As a percentage of segment revenue	Cost of sales	As a percentage of segment revenue
Carrier's networks	26,725.2	66.8%	18,589.2	64.2%
Terminal	9,770.9	74.7%	7,394.1	76.3%
Telecommunication software systems, services and other products	5,171.7	71.6%	3,928.2	69.7%
Total	41,667.8	69.1%	29,911.5	67.5%

Unit: RMB in millions

Product segment	2009		2008
	Gross profit	Gross profit margin	Gross profit	Gross profit margin
Carrier's networks	13,257.1	33.2%	10,374.6	35.8%
Terminal	3,300.6	25.3%	2,298.5	23.7%
Telecommunication software systems, services and other products	2,047.1	28.4%	1,708.8	30.3%
Total	18,604.8	30.9%	14,381.9	32.5%

Cost of sales of the Group for 2009 increased 39.3% as compared to last year to RMB41,667.8 million. The Group's overall gross profit margin of 30.9% was 1.6 percentage points lower as compared to last year, reflecting mainly the decline in the gross profit margin of carriers' networks.

Cost of sales for the Group's carriers' networks amounted to RMB26,725.2 million, a 43.8% increase as compared to last year. The gross profit margin for carriers' networks was 33.2% versus 35.8% for last year, reflecting lower gross profit margins for GSM system equipment and CDMA system equipment.

Cost of sales for the Group's terminal products amounted to RMB9,770.9 million, increasing by 32.1% as compared to last year. Gross profit margin for the Group's terminal segment was 25.3%, versus 23.7% for last year. The higher gross profit margin for terminal was attributable mainly to the substantial increase in the weighting of 3G terminals (including TD and WCDMA) as a percentage of the overall sales of the terminal segment.

Cost of sales for the Group's telecommunications software systems, services and other products amounted to RMB5,171.7 million, increasing by 31.7% compared to last year. The relevant gross profit margin was lower at 28.4%, compared to 30.3% for last year, reflecting primarily the decline in the gross profit margin of fixed terminal products.

OTHER INCOME AND GAINS

Other income and gains of the Group for 2009 amounted to RMB1,723.5 million, representing a 33.0% growth compared to RMB1,295.7 million for 2008. The increase was attributable mainly to exchange gains and the increase in value-added tax rebates for software products in 2009.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT COSTS

The Group's research and development costs for 2009 increased by 44.8% to RMB5,781.6 million from RMB3,994.1 million for 2008, and grew slightly from 9.0% in 2008 to 9.6% as a percentage of operating revenue.

SELLING AND DISTRIBUTION COSTS

The Group's selling and distribution costs for 2009 increased by 32.5% to RMB7,157.8 million from RMB5,401.0 million for 2008, but decreased from 12.2% to 11.9% as a percentage of operating revenue. The decrease of selling and distribution costs as a percentage of operating revenue despite the increase in total amount mainly reflected economies of scale.

ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

Administrative expenses of the Group for 2009 increased by 24.9% to RMB2,735.2 million, as compared to RMB2,190.0 million for 2008, but decreased from 4.9% to 4.5% as a percentage of operating revenue mainly as a result of economies of scale.

OTHER EXPENSES

Other expenses of the Group for 2009 decreased by 48.0% to RMB 603.2 million, as compared to RMB1,159.7 million for 2008. The decrease was mainly due to a change in accounting presentation, whereby exchange losses recorded in 2008 were accounted for as "Other expenses," while exchange gains for 2009 were presented under "Other income and gains."

PROFIT FROM OPERATING ACTIVITIES

The Group's profit from operating activities for 2009 increased by 38.1% to RMB4,050.5 million, as compared to RMB2,932.8 million for 2008, while the operating profit margin grew from 6.6% for 2008 to 6.7% for 2009, primarily as a result of expanded business scale.

FINANCE COSTS

Finance costs of the Group for 2009 increased by 8.9% to RMB751.7 million, as compared to RMB690.2 million for 2008, reflecting primarily the increase in interest payments relating to factoring and interest bearing bank borrowings.

TAX

The Group's income tax expense for 2009 was RMB629.1 million, which was 79.4% higher as compared to RMB350.6 million for 2008, reflecting mainly the 47.0% growth in pre-tax profit for 2009 over 2008 coupled with a higher effective tax rate of 18.9% for 2009, as compared to 15.5% for 2008, as a result of rapid profit growth of certain subsidiaries which were subject to higher tax rates.

PROFIT ATTRIBUTABLE TO MINORITY INTERESTS

The Group's minority interests for 2009 amounted to RMB237.6 million, which was 5.6% lower as compared to RMB251.7 million for 2008. Minority interests decreased from 13.2% for 2008 to 8.8% for 2009 as a percentage of profit for the year, reflecting mainly reduced profit for subsidiaries with a higher level of minority interests.

Management Discussion and Analysis

OTHER COMPREHENSIVE INCOME

Other comprehensive income of the Group for 2009 increased by 104.7% to RMB8.6 million, compared to RMB-181.5 million for 2008. The increase was mainly attributable to gains arising from the translation of financial statements denominated in foreign currencies.

DEBT-EQUITY RATIO AND THE BASIS OF CALCULATION

Debt-equity ratio is calculated by dividing interest-bearing liabilities by the sum of interest-bearing liabilities and equity (including minority interests).

The Group's debt-equity ratio for 2009 was 41.8%, increasing by 1.0 percentage points as compared to 40.8% for 2008. The increase was mainly attributable to the relatively substantial increase in interest-bearing bank loans.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

In 2009, the Group's development funds were financed mainly by cash generated from its operations and bank loans. The Group's cash requirements related primarily to production and operating activities, repayment of due liabilities, capital expenditure, interest and dividend payments and other unforeseeable cash requirements.

Cash and cash equivalents of the Group as of 31 December 2009 amounted to RMB14,075.8 million.

CASH FLOW DATA

Unit: RMB in millions

	2009	2008
Net cash inflow from operating activities	3,381.8	2,686.6
Net cash outflow from investing activities	(2,998.6)	(1,856.9)
Net cash inflow from financing activities	2,332.2	4,473.2
Net increase in cash and cash equivalents	2,715.4	5,302.9
Cash and cash equivalents at year-end	14,075.8	11,344.2

OPERATING ACTIVITIES

The Group had a net cash inflow from operating activities of RMB3,381.8 million for 2009 compared to RMB2,686.6 million for 2008, reflecting year-on-year increase of cash outflow for purchases and the provision of services by RMB7,821.4 million mainly as a result of expanded sales, increase of cash outflow for payments made to employees by RMB1,738.7 million, increase of tax payment by RMB772.3 million, coupled with increase of cash inflow for sales and the provision of services by approximately RMB13,128.5 million and the decrease of cash inflow from tax rebates by approximately RMB767.7 million.

INVESTING ACTIVITIES

The net cash outflow from the Group's investment activities for 2009 was RMB2,998.6 million compared to a net cash outflow of RMB1,856.9 million for 2008. Cash outflow was mainly applied in the purchase of property, plant and equipment with a cash payment of RMB1,592.1 million.

FINANCING ACTIVITIES

The Group's net cash flow from financing activities for 2009 was RMB2,332.2 million, compared to RMB4,473.2 million for 2008, reflecting mainly proceeds from the issue of Bonds cum Warrants in the previous year.

CAPITAL EXPENDITURE

The following table sets out the Group's capital expenditure for the periods indicated. The following capital expenditure was funded by long-term bank loans, cash generated from operating activities and government grants.

Unit: RMB in millions

Capital expenditure	2009	2008
Purchases of fixed assets and construction in progress payments	1,592.1	1,229.6

The Group's capital expenditure in 2009 amounting to RMB1,592.1 million was mainly used for the completion of construction work at ZTE Industrial Park, equipment installation and the purchase of machinery and equipment.

INDEBTEDNESS

Unit: RMB in millions

Item	31 December
	2009	2008
Secured bank loans	2,431.4	2,658.5
Unsecured bank loan	6,811.5	4,298.5

Unit: RMB in millions

Item	31 December
	2009	2008
Short-term bank loans	6,846.5	5,664.5
Long-term bank loans	2,396.4	1,292.5

Credit facilities available to the Group included long-term and short-term bank loans, which were mainly used as working capital. Of the Group's long-term loans, RMB loans were subject to fixed interest rates while USD loans were subject to floating interest rates. To control the risk associated with RMB appreciation, the Group's borrowings were mainly denominated in US dollars, apart from certain RMB loans.

The Group's bank loans in 2009 increased mainly as a result of the borrowing of bank loans to provide additional working capital.

(I) MATERIAL LITIGATION AND ABITRATION

During the year, the Group did not incur any material litigation or arbitration. Progress during the year of immaterial litigation and arbitration proceedings incurred prior to and other litigation and arbitration proceedings incurred during the year under review are as follows:

1. In November 2005, Beijing Success Communications and Electronic Engineering Company Limited (“Beijing Success”) instituted litigation against the Company’s subsidiary Yangzhou Zhongxing Mobile Telecom Equipment Company Limited (“Yangzhou Zhongxing”), and the Company to demand an indemnity of RMB71 million, comprising the refund of an advanced payment of RMB35 million and compensation for interests and other losses amounting to RMB36 million.

In December 2008, the Jiangsu Provincial High Court handed down its judgment for the first trial, which ruled that: (I) RMB35 million be refunded together with fund appropriation interests accrued on such amount to Beijing Success by Yangzhou Zhongxing; (II) Losses of Yangzhou Zhongxing amounting to over RMB11.66 million be indemnified by Beijing Success; (III) the Company be jointly responsible for the aforesaid liability of Yangzhou Zhongxing. The Company filed an appeal with the Supreme People’s Court after receiving the first trial judgment. On 11 December 2009, the Supreme People’s Court awarded a final judgement as follows: (I) RMB35 million be refunded to Beijing Success by Yangzhou Zhongxing; (II) Losses of Yangzhou Zhongxing amounting to over RMB35 million be indemnified by Beijing Success; (III) the Company be cleared of any legal liability.

2. In December 2005, a supplier of the Company alleged that the Company had breached the supply contract and infringed its intellectual property and claimed indemnity for a total amount of USD36.45 million (approximately RMB248,888,000) by instituting overseas arbitration.

In April 2009, the Company received a formal notification from the arbitration court which ruled that the case be terminated and the compensation claim of the Korean Company be refuted, that the Korean Company should reimburse the Company for the cost incurred by the arbitration of the case (including the fee paid to the arbitration court by the Company).

3. In August 2005, an Indian consultant firm issued an arbitration notice to the Company to claim indemnity for a total amount of approximately USD1.714 million (approximately RMB11.704 million) in respect of advisory fees, agency fees and related damages. The consultant firm subsequently raised its total claim amount to approximately USD2.27 million (approximately RMB15.50 million).

Arbitration of the case was conducted at an arbitration court formed by ICC in Singapore during 25–28 July 2008. The Company was represented at all arbitration sessions. There was no substantial progress of the case during the reporting period. It is currently awaiting the final award of the arbitration court. Based on the legal opinion furnished by lawyers engaged by the Company, the Directors are of the opinion that the aforesaid case will not have any material adverse impact on the financial conditions of the Group for the current period.

4. An administrative penalty notice had been served upon Zhongxing Telecom Pakistan (Pvt) Ltd, a subsidiary of the Company (the “Pakistanis Subsidiary”), by the Rawalpindi Collectorate of Customs in respect of a claim of additional custom duties of approximately RMB23.9 million for the misdeclaration of the imported goods by the Pakistanis Subsidiary and a fine of approximately RMB324 million.

Following negotiations between the Group and the Rawalpindi Collectorate held in June 2007, the Rawalpindi Collectorate agreed that the fine might be exempted if the Pakistanis Subsidiary made a remedial tax payment of PKR177 million (approximately RMB14,355,000) before 30 June 2007. Such payment had been made by the Pakistanis Subsidiary before 30 June 2007. Subsequently, the Rawalpindi Collectorate issued a notice to the Pakistanis Subsidiary demanding the payment of an addition tax amount of approximately PKR62 million (approximately RMB5,272,000). The Pakistanis Subsidiary appealed to the Customs Appellate Court against such demand. There was no substantial progress of the case during the reporting period. The case is currently pending final judgment.

Based on the legal opinion on the dispute furnished by the lawyer engaged by the Company, the Directors are of the view that the Group has sufficient documentary evidence to defend itself against such payment and that the aforesaid matter will not have any material adverse impact on the Group's financial position and operating results for the current period.

5. In August 2006, a customer instituted arbitration against the Company and demanded indemnity in the amount of PKR762.98 million (approximately RMB61,878,000). Meanwhile, the Company instituted a counter-claim against the customer's breach of contract demanding for damages and payment of outstanding contract amounts. In February 2008, the arbitration authorities issued its award ruling that an indemnity of PKR328.04 million (approximately RMB26,602,000) be paid by the Company. In accordance with local laws, the Company had filed with the local court an objection against the arbitration award and a counter-claim against the customer's breach of contract. Based on the legal opinion furnished by lawyers engaged by the Company, the case will likely stand a prolonged period of litigation. There was no substantial progress of the case during the reporting period.

The Company will attempt every legal means to close off this case at smaller costs. The Directors are of the opinion that the aforesaid matter will not have any material adverse impact on the financial conditions of the Group for the current period.

6. In July 2008, an agent filed arbitration against the Company demanding the payment of agency fees and interests with a total amount of USD35,819,000 (approximately RMB244,579,000).

On 30 September 2009, the Company received an arbitration award from the South China Sub-commission of the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission. According to the award, the Company was required to pay a compensation of USD2 million to the agent and bear the arbitration costs of USD56,600. The total amount payable by the Company to the counterparty was USD2,056,600 (approximately RMB14,043,000).

7. In April 2008, China Construction Fifth Engineering Division Corp., Ltd. ("China Construction Fifth"), an engineering contractor of the Company, demanded the Company to increase the contract amount on the grounds that raw material prices had increased in connection with first a slowdown in work, followed later by total suspension.

In September 2008, the Company instituted litigation with the Nanshan District People's Court, pleading for the revocation of the contract and court order of the evacuation of the work sites by the defendant, as well as a penalty payment for work delay in the amount of RMB24,912,000 and damages of RMB11,319,000 payable to the Company. The court handed the first trial judgement in July 2009, ruling that the contract between the Company and China Construction Fifth be revoked and a penalty payment for work delay in the amount of RMB12,817,000 be payable by China Construction Fifth. China Construction Fifth had appealed against the said judgement and the second trial is currently in progress.

In October and November 2009, the Group further instituted two complaints with the Nanshan District People's Court, demanding China Construction Fifth to undertake a penalty payment for work delay in the amount of RMB30,615,000 and the payment of RMB39,537,000, representing the amount of work payments in excess of the total contract amount. In July 2009, China Construction Fifth instituted a separate litigation with the Shenzhen Intermediate People's Court, demanding the Company to make a payment of RMB75,563,000 for raw materials and staff deployment. The said cases are currently in trial.

Based on the legal opinion furnished by lawyers engaged by the Company and the existing judgements and current progress of the case, the directors are of the opinion that the aforesaid arbitration will not have any material adverse impact on the financial conditions and operating results of the Group.

Material Matters

The Company will make timely announcements in respect of any substantial progress of the aforesaid arbitration and litigation.

Kangquan was established on 2 June 2003 under the laws of the PRC with limited liability. The Company holds a 57.5% interest in the capital of Kangquan through Changfei, the Company's subsidiary in which the Company holds a 51% interest. Hongde was established on 21 January 2005 under the laws of the PRC with limited liability. The Company's other subsidiary Ruide holds a 83.33% interest in the capital of Hongde.

Kangquan, Lead and Hongde are all non-wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company and are part of the Group pursuant to the Hong Kong Listing Rules. However, Ruide became an associate of the Group with a 20% equity interest in Hongde after partial disposal of its equity interests in Hongde in April 2009, and transactions with Ruide did not constitute connected transactions with the Group.

Ruide is a non-wholly owned subsidiary of the Company established on 27 April 2004 under the laws of the PRC with limited liability. Changfei, holds a 57.5% interest in Ruide and Zhongxing Xindi holds an approximately 23% interest. The remaining approximately 19.5% interest in Ruide is held by a director and individual shareholder of Ruide. As Zhongxingxin was the controlling shareholder and a promoter of the Company, as an associate of Zhongxingxin, Zhongxing Xindi is a connected person at the level of the Company (but not the subsidiary of the Company). As Zhongxing Xindi was the substantial shareholder of Ruide, Ruide is therefore a connected person of the Company under the Listing Rules of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong.

- Total transaction amount in 2009:

Approximately RMB11,968,000

- Pricing and other terms:

At the meeting of the Board of Directors held on 25 October 2006, the Directors approved the 2007–2009 connected transaction framework agreement in respect of the continuous sales of cases and accessories for handset batteries, LCD and battery cores to Ruide by Kangquan, Lead and Hongde. The purchase framework agreement shall be effective until 31 December 2009.

As suppliers of Ruide, Kangquan, Lead and Hongde were selected through a bidding process under which each potential supplier was assessed on its qualification, product quality and price. The prices for such transactions were determined after arm's length negotiations with reference to the prices quoted by Kangquan, Lead and Hongde respectively for sales of similar quantities of the same or similar products to independent third parties at the relevant time.

- Purpose of the transaction:

Ruide is primarily engaged in the production and sale of handset batteries. Kangquan, Lead and Hongde are respectively engaged in the production and sale of cases and accessories for handset batteries, LCM and battery cores. As the Group considers that having reliable and co-operative suppliers is important and beneficial to it, purchasing from Kangquan, Lead and Hongde allows the Group to secure essential control over most of the components of its production by being able to ensure timely delivery of such components while maintaining product quality. Each of Kangquan, Lead and Hongde is consistently able to produce the quantity of products required by Ruide and provide quality products and services at competitive prices which were determined on the same basis as the prices of the products sold to independent third parties.

b) Purchases of handset batteries by ZTE Kangxun from Ruide

- Description of the connected relationship between the parties to the transaction:

The Company holds 90% stake in ZTE Kangxun.

As explained in paragraph a), Ruide is a connected person of the Company under the Listing Rules of Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

- Total transaction amount in 2009:

Approximately RMB337,095,000

- Pricing and other terms:

At the meeting of the Board of Directors held on 25 October 2006, the Directors approved the 2007–2009 connected transaction framework agreement in respect of the continuous purchase of handset batteries from Ruide by ZTE Kangxun. The purchase framework agreement shall be effective until 31 December 2009. As the Group's sales of handsets increased in 2009, the total amount of handset batteries purchased by ZTE Kangxun is expected to exceed the approved annual cap for the year ended 31 December 2009. On 19 March 2009, the Board of Directors of the Company approved the increase of the annual cap of these transactions for the year ended 31 December 2009 to RMB550 million from the previous RMB392 million to meet the requirements arising from increased sales of handsets.

Ruide will still be required to undergo the Group's qualification and bidding procedures for the selection of suppliers. If Ruide succeeds in its bid to supply to ZTE Kangxun, ZTE Kangxun will issue purchase orders from time to time to Ruide pursuant to the framework agreement entered into with it. Purchase orders will specify product types, agreed quantities and prices, quality specifications, delivery times, places and modes, as well as contact details. Prices will be arrived at after arm's length negotiations, with reference to the prices quoted by Ruide for sales of similar quantities of the same or similar products to independent third parties at the relevant time.

- Purpose of the transaction:

The Group's handset products have become one of the major sources of revenue for the Company. The Directors of the Company consider it an important strategy to have a co-operative and reliable supplier for handset batteries. The Group's investment in Ruide was made with this purpose in mind. Through the Group's qualification and bidding procedures, Ruide was selected as one of our suppliers.

c) Sales of liquid crystal displays (LCD) and electronic components by ZTE Kangxun to Lead.

- Description of the connected relationship between the parties to the transaction:

Lead is a non-wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. The Company holds a 62.5% stake interest in the capital of Lead through Changfei. Zhongxingxin is a substantial shareholder of Lead with a 22.5% stake while an individual holds the remaining 15% stake. Given that Zhongxingxin is a connected person of the Group at the level of the Company (and not at the level of the Company's subsidiaries) and is a substantial shareholder of Lead, Lead itself constitutes a connected person of the Company under the Hong Kong Stock Exchange Listing Rules.

- Total transaction amount in 2009:

Approximately RMB3,000

- Pricing and other terms:

At the meeting of the Board of Directors held on 25 October 2006, the Directors approved the 2007–2009 connected transaction framework agreement in respect of the continuous sales of liquid crystal displays (LCD) and electronic components to Lead by ZTE Kangxun. The sales framework agreement shall be effective until 31 December 2009.

Pursuant to the framework agreement, Lead is to issue purchase orders to ZTE Kangxun from time to time, specifying product types, agreed quantities and prices, quality specifications, delivery times, places and modes, as well as contact details. Prices will be arrived at after arm's length negotiations, with reference to the prices quoted by the Group for sales of similar quantities of the same or similar products to independent third parties at the relevant time.

- Purpose of the transaction:

The Group's handset products have become one of the major sources of revenue for the Company. Liquid crystal modules are required for the production of handsets and the Group does not produce such components. The production of liquid crystal modules involves the assembly of liquid crystal displays with various electronic components. As this involves merely low cost assembly work, the Directors of the Company consider it suitable for outsourcing the production of liquid crystal modules to Lead and other independent third parties. Lead was selected as our supplier through the Group's qualification and bidding procedures. As Lead does not produce the said components required for the production of liquid crystal modules, ZTE Kangxun (as the Group's principal platform for procurement) purchases liquid crystal displays and various electronic components from independent third party suppliers for onward supply to Lead. The Directors of the Company consider it to be convenient and cost effective to include Lead's requirements in ZTE Kangxun's procurements for such parts.

d) Purchases of liquid crystal modules (LCM) by ZTE Kangxun from Lead

- Description of the connected relationship between the parties to the transaction:

Lead is a connected person of the Group as its substantial shareholder, Zhongxingxin, is a connected person at the level of the Company (and not at the level of the subsidiaries of the Company). Please refer to the above for further details of Lead.

- Total transaction amount in 2009:

Approximately RMB144,337,000

- Pricing and other terms:

At the meeting of the Board of Directors held on 25 October 2006, the Directors approved the 2007–2009 connected transaction framework agreement in respect of the continuous purchase of liquid crystal modules (LCM) from Lead by ZTE Kangxun. The purchase framework agreement shall be effective until 31 December 2009.

Lead will still be required to undergo the Group's qualification and bidding procedures for the selection of suppliers. If Lead succeeds in its bid to supply to ZTE Kangxun, ZTE Kangxun will issue purchase orders from time to time to Lead pursuant to the framework agreement entered into with it. Purchase orders will specify product types, agreed quantities and prices, quality specifications, delivery times, places and modes, as well as contact details. Prices will be arrived at after arm's length negotiations, with reference to the prices quoted by Lead for sales of similar quantities of the same or similar products to independent third parties at the relevant time.

Material Matters

- Purpose of the transaction:

The Group's handset products have become one of the major sources of revenue for the Company. The Group requires steady, reliable and quality supplies of liquid crystal modules for the Group's handset products. As the production of these liquid crystal modules involves merely low value-added assembly work, there are few suppliers of raw materials and components that are able to undertake such large-scale production as required by the Group for the prices we offer. Lead was established to handle large scale production at low unit cost and to specialise in the supply of liquid crystal modules. The Group believes that it has also been able to provide us a fast production turnaround time, consistent product quality and timely delivery. The Group has now taken a majority stake in Lead as the Directors of the Company consider that having Lead as our subsidiary allows us to secure steady supplies of quality liquid crystal modules in large volumes from a co-operative, reliable and specialised supplier that would not otherwise be easily available from other suppliers for comparable prices.

- e) Purchases of raw materials and components comprising primarily telecommunications cabinets, cases and racks, distribution frames and shelters by ZTE Kangxun from Zhongxingxin, Zhongxing Xindi, Zhongxing Xinyu and Zhongxing Xinzhou

- Description of the connected relationship between the parties to the transaction:

Zhongxingxin is the largest shareholder of the Company.

Given that Zhongxing Xindi is a non-wholly owned subsidiary of Zhongxingxin, Zhongxing Xindi is an associate of Zhongxingxin as defined under the provisions of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange Listing Rules. Zhongxingxin holds a 70% stake in Zhongxing Xindi. Given that Zhongxingxin is a controlling shareholder of the Company (and also one of the promoters of the Company), Zhongxing Xindi, as an associate of Zhongxingxin, constitutes a connected person of the Company.

Given that Zhongxing Xinyu is a non-wholly owned subsidiary of Zhongxingxin, Zhongxing Xinyu is an associate of Zhongxingxin as defined under the provisions of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange Listing Rules. Zhongxingxin holds a 55% stake in Zhongxing Xinyu. Given that Zhongxingxin is a controlling shareholder of the Company (and also one of the promoters of the Company), Zhongxing Xinyu, as an associate of Zhongxingxin, constitutes a connected person of the Company.

Given that Zhongxing Xinzhou is a non-wholly owned subsidiary of Zhongxingxin, Zhongxing Xinzhou is an associate of Zhongxingxin as defined under the provisions of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange Listing Rules. Zhongxingxin holds a 55% stake in Zhongxing Xinzhou. Given that Zhongxingxin is a controlling shareholder of the Company (and also one of the promoters of the Company), Zhongxing Xinzhou, as an associate of Zhongxingxin, constitutes a connected person of the Company.

- Total transaction amount in 2009:

Approximately RMB698,439,000

- Pricing and other terms:

Zhongxingxin and its relevant subsidiaries will each still be required to undergo the Group's qualification and bidding procedures for the selection of suppliers. If any one of them succeeds in its bid to supply to ZTE Kangxun, ZTE Kangxun will issue purchase orders from time to time to the successful bidder pursuant to the relevant framework agreement entered into with that bidder. Purchase orders will specify product types, agreed quantities and prices, quality specifications, delivery times, places and modes, as well as contact details. Prices will be arrived at after arm's length negotiations and on normal commercial terms.

- Purpose of the transaction

Zhongxingxin, Zhongxing Xindi, Zhongxing Xinyu and Zhongxing Xinzhou were selected through the Group's qualification and bidding procedures, and the Group believes that they have consistently been able to meet the Group's stringent demands for fast product turnaround time, high product quality and timely delivery. By virtue of the foregoing, Zhongxingxin and Zhongxing Xindi were selected as the suppliers of distribution frames and packaging materials, Zhongxing Xinyu was selected as the supplier of flexible printed circuit boards and Zhongxing Xinzhou was selected as the supplier of shelters. As the Group considers that having reliable and cooperative suppliers is important and beneficial to us, purchasing from Zhongxingxin, Zhongxing Xindi, Zhongxing Xinyu and Zhongxing Xinzhou allows us to secure essential control over most of the components of our production by being able to ensure timely delivery of such components while maintaining product quality.

f) Purchase of speakers, receivers, microphones, USB/data cable assembly, handset earphones and splitters by ZTE Kangxun from Shenzhen Fudekang Electronics Company Limited ("Shenzhen Fudekang")

- Description of the connected relationship between the parties to the transaction:

Shenzhen Fudekang was established on 8 June 2006 under the laws of PRC with limited liability. Shenzhen Fudekang is the non-wholly owned subsidiary of Shenzhen Juxian Investment Company Limited ("Shenzhen Juxian"), which is the substantial shareholder of ZTE Microelectronics Technology Company Limited ("ZTE Microelectronics") which in turn is a non-wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Shenzhen Juxian is therefore a connected person of the Group and Shenzhen Fudekang is an associate of Shenzhen Juxian and therefore is a connected person of the Group. Shenzhen Juxian disposed of its 51% equity interests in Shenzhen Fudekang in December 2009. Following the transfer of equity interests, Shenzhen Juxian was no longer holding any equity interests in Fudekang and Fudekang ceased to be a connected person of the Group.

- Total transaction amount in 2009:

approximately RMB32,594,000

- Pricing and other terms:

At the meeting of the Board of Directors held on 19 March 2009, the Directors approved the connected transaction framework agreement between ZTE Kangxun and Shenzhen Fudekang in respect of the purchase of speakers, receivers, microphones, USB/data cable assembly, handset earphones and splitters by ZTE Kangxun from Shenzhen Fudekang. The purchase framework agreement was effective from 19 March 2009 until 31 December 2009.

A potential supplier to the Group must pass the Group's internally formulated qualification procedures based on qualifications, product quality and price in order to become a qualified supplier. Shenzhen Fudekang was selected through the Group's qualification and bidding procedures as described in the above. Shenzhen Fudekang will still be required to undergo the Company's qualification and bidding procedures for other future transactions. The prices shall be determined on the same basis as the prices of similar quantities of the same or similar products sold to independent third parties by Shenzhen Fudekang.

- Purpose of the transaction

As the Group considers that having reliable and cooperative supplier is important and beneficial to it, purchasing from Shenzhen Fudekang allows the Group to secure essential control over most of the components of its production by being able to ensure timely delivery of such components while maintaining product quality. The Directors believe that Shenzhen Fudekang will be able to produce the quantity of products required by ZTE Kangxun and provide quality products and services at competitive prices which shall be determined on the same basis as the prices of similar products sold to independent third parties.

g) Purchase of handsets from Nanchang Xingfei Technology Company Limited (“Nanchang Xingfei”) by ZTE Kangxun

- Description of the connected relationship between the parties to the transaction:

Shenzhen Juxian, being a connected person of the Group, is indirectly interested in 40% of the capital in Nanchang Xingfei by holding a 40% of the interest in the capital of Shenzhen Zhongxing Development Company Limited (“Zhongxing Development”), which in turns holds a 40% of the interest in the capital of ZTE Software Technology (Nanchang) Company Limited (“ZTE Software (Nanchang)”), which in turn holds a 40% of the interest in the capital of Nanchang Xingfei. Nanchang Xingfei is therefore an associate of Shenzhen Juxian and a connected person of the Group. In December 2009, ZTE Software (Nanchang) transferred its 40% interests in Nanchang Xingfei to Shenzhen Xingfei Technology Company Limited (深圳市興飛科技有限公司) (“Shenzhen Xingfei”). Following the transfer, Shenzhen held 100% interests in Nanchang Xingfei and Nanchang Xingfei ceased to be a connected person of the Group.

- Total transaction amount in 2009:

approximately RMB58,518,000

- Pricing and other terms:

At the meeting of the Board of Directors held on 19 March 2009, the Directors approved the connected transaction framework agreement between ZTE Kangxun and Nanchang Xingfei in respect of the purchase of handsets from ZTE Kangxun by Nanchang Xingfei. The purchase framework agreement shall be effective from 19 March 2009 until 31 December 2009.

A potential supplier to the Group must pass the Group’s internally formulated qualification procedures based on qualifications, product quality and price in order to become a qualified supplier. Nanchang Xingfei was selected through the Group’s qualification and bidding procedures as described in the above. Nanchang Xingfei will still be required to undergo the Company’s qualification and bidding procedures for other future transactions. The prices shall be determined on the same basis as the prices of similar quantities of the same or similar products sold to independent third parties by Nanchang Xingfei.

- Purpose of the transaction

Nanchang Xingfei specializes in manufacturing customized handset products. The Group expects handset sales to continue to form a major part of its business in the near future and therefore it is important for the Group to maintain sufficient supply of the handset products. The Directors believe that Nanchang Xingfei will be able to produce the quantity of products required by ZTE Kangxun and provide quality products and services at competitive prices which shall be determined on the same basis as the prices of similar quantities of the same or similar products sold to independent third parties.

h) Supply of handset batteries and rechargers by Ruide to Nanchang Xingfei

- Description of the connected relationship between the parties to the transaction:

Ruide is a non-wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. Nanchang Xingfei’s relationship with the Group is discussed in paragraph g) above.

- Total transaction amount in 2009:

approximately RMB25,916,000

- Pricing and other terms:

At the meeting of the Board of Directors held on 19 March 2009, the Directors approved the connected transaction framework agreement between Ruide and Nanchang Xingfei in respect of the supply of handset batteries and rechargers by Ruide to Nanchang Xingfei. The purchase framework agreement shall be effective from 19 March 2009 until 31 December 2009.

The prices shall be determined on the same basis as the prices of the similar of the same or similar products sold to independent third parties by Ruide.

- Purpose of the transaction

As Nanchang Xingfei customarily manufactures handset products for the Group, purchasing from Ruide allows Nanchang Xingfei to have a reliable source of handset components and the Group will be able to secure essential control over most of the components of its production by being able to ensure timely delivery of such components while maintaining product quality.

i) Supply of handset keyboard and mechanical parts by Kangquan to Nanchang Xingfei

- Description of the connected relationship between the parties to the transaction:

Kangquan is a non-wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. Nanchang Xingfei's relationship with the Group is discussed in paragraph g) above.

- Total transaction amount in 2009:

approximately RMB1,048,000

- Pricing and other terms:

At the meeting of the Board of Directors held on 19 March 2009, the Directors approved the connected transaction framework agreement between Kangquan and Nanchang Xingfei in respect of the supply of handset keyboard and mechanical parts by Kangquan to Nanchang Xingfei. The purchase framework agreement shall be effective from 19 March 2009 until 31 December 2009.

The prices shall be determined on the same basis as the prices of the similar quantities of the same or similar products sold to independent third parties by Kangquan.

- Purpose of the transaction

As Nanchang Xingfei customarily manufactures handset products for the Group, purchasing from Kangquan allows Nanchang Xingfei to have a reliable source of handset mechanical parts and the Group will be able to secure essential control over most of the components of its production by being able to ensure timely delivery of such components while maintaining product quality.

j) Supply of liquid crystal modules (LCM) of handsets by Lead to Nanchang Xingfei

- Description of the connected relationship between the parties to the transaction:

Lead is a non-wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. Nanchang Xingfei's relationship with the Group is discussed in paragraph g) above.

- Total transaction amount in 2009:

approximately RMB5,049,000

Material Matters

- Pricing and other terms:

At the meeting of the Board of Directors held on 19 March 2009, the Directors approved the connected transaction framework agreement between Lead and Nanchang Xingfei in respect of the supply of liquid crystal modules (LCM) of handsets by Ruide to Nanchang Xingfei. The purchase framework agreement shall be effective from 19 March 2009 until 31 December 2009.

The prices shall be determined on the same basis as the prices of the similar quantities of the same or similar products sold to independent third parties by Lead.

- Purpose of the transaction

As Nanchang Xingfei customarily manufactures handset products for the Group, purchasing from lead allows Nanchang Xingfei to have a reliable source of handset components and the Group will be able to secure essential control over most of the components of its production by being able to ensure timely delivery of such components while maintaining product quality.

Note 1: Guarantee in favour of United Telecoms Limited of India provided by ZTE HK, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, in the form of a bank-issued irrevocable standby letter of credit. Performance of the guarantee has been completed as of now.

Note 2: Guarantee provided by ZTE HK, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, in the form of a standby letter of credit backed by its bank credit facility, while the bank credit facility of ZTE HK is guaranteed by the Company. In effect of the aforesaid two guarantees, ZTE is the ultimate guarantor and Benin Telecoms is the ultimate party being guaranteed, for an amount of USD3 million. As the gearing ratio of Benin Telecoms was in excess of 70%, the aforesaid guarantee was approved by the Board of Directors and the general meeting of the Company in accordance with requirements of relevant laws and regulations.

Note 3: It was respectively approved at the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Meetings of the Fourth Session of the Board of Directors that the 51% equity interests in Closed Joint-Stock Company CJSC TK Mobile ("CJSC TK Mobile") held by the Company be applied as a security against a bank loan extended to CJSC TK Mobile; a performance guarantee of USD40 million be provided by the Company for PT. ZTE Indonesia ("ZTE Indonesia"), a wholly-owned subsidiary, and application be made by the Company to the relevant bank for the issuance of a letter of performance guarantee with an amount of USD5 million. Since the gearing ratio of both CJSC TK Mobile and ZTE Indonesia was above 70%, the aforesaid guarantees were approved at the first extraordinary general meeting of 2009 in accordance with relevant laws and regulations. As at the date of this report, a USD5 million guarantee for ZTE Indonesia provided by way of standby letter of credit backed by the Company's banking credit facilities has been executed and the USD40 million performance guarantee agreement has been signed. The guarantee to provided in respect of CJSC TK Mobile's bank loans by way of pledge of equity has yet to be performed as the relevant agreement has yet to be signed.

It was approved at the Thirty-first Meeting of the Fourth Session of the Board of Directors that a performance guarantee of not more than USD30 million be provided by the Company for ZTE Telecom India Private Limited ("ZTE India"), a wholly-owned subsidiary million and application be made by the Company to the relevant bank for the issuance of an assurance letter in respect of contract performance to provide guarantee with an amount not exceeding USD3 million for ZTE India. Since the gearing ratio of ZTE India was above 70%, the aforesaid guarantees were approved at the second extraordinary general meeting of 2009 in accordance with relevant laws and regulations. As at the date of this report, an agreement in respect of the USD30 million performance guarantee provided by the Company has been signed and USD146,300 out of the USD3 million guarantee provided to ZTE India by way of bank assurance letter has been drawn upon.

Note 4: In addition to guarantees described in Note 2 and Note 3, the Company provided a guarantee in respect of a bank loan extended to subsidiary Congo-Chine Telecom S.A.R.L. by pledging its 51% equity interests in Congo-Chine Telecom S.A.R.L. As the gearing ratio of Congo-Chine exceeded 70%, the said guarantee was subject to consideration and approval by the Board of Directors and the general meeting of the Company in accordance with requirements of relevant laws and regulations.

Note 5: Guaranteed amounts denominated in Indian Rupee are translated at the exchange rate of 1 Indian Rupee to RMB0.14561 (being the book exchange rate of the Company on 31 December 2009). Guaranteed amounts denominated in US dollars are translated at the exchange rate of USD1 to RMB6.8282 (being the book exchange of the Company on 31 December 2009).

Note 6: All third party guarantees of the Company shall be submitted to the Board of Directors for its review and shall require the approval of two-thirds of the members of the Board. If such third party guarantees are otherwise subject to review and approval at the general meeting, then they shall be tabled at the general meeting following approval by the Board of Directors.

(2) Progress of previously granted guarantees during the reporting period:

In January 2005, the Company performed its guarantee to make a repayment of RMB3.50 million on behalf of Chengdu Information Port Company Limited. As at 1 September 2009, Juyou Industrial Group Limited, as counter-guarantor, had made a repayment of RMB1.85 million to the Company, and an amount of RMB1.65 million remained outstanding. The Company reached an agreement with Juyou Industrial Group Limited in September 2009, whereby the Company agreed to release Juyou Industrial Group Limited from any responsibility for guarantee and compensation after the one-off repayment of RMB1.05 million to the Company by Juyou Industrial Group Limited. (Please refer to the 2005 annual report of the Group for details of the guarantee).

Independent Auditors' Report

Ernst & Young Hua Ming (2010) Shen Zi No. 60438556_H01

To the Shareholders of ZTE Corporation:

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of ZTE Corporation (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively the "Group"), which comprise the consolidated and company balance sheets as at 31 December 2009, the consolidated and company income statements, statement of changes in equity and cash flow statement for the year ended 31 December 2009 and notes to the financial statements.

I. MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The management is responsible for preparing financial statements in accordance with Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises. This responsibility includes (1) designing, implementing and maintaining the internal control relevant to the preparation of the financial statements that are free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error; (2) selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies; and (3) making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

II. RESPONSIBILITY OF THE CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Chinese Auditing Standards issued by the Chinese Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain a reasonable assurance as to whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, we consider the internal control relevant to the entity's preparation of financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal controls. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

III. OPINION

In our opinion, the financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises, and present fairly, in all material aspects, the financial position of the Group and the Company as at 31 December 2009 and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the year ended 31 December 2009.

The controlling shareholder of the Group is Shenzhen Zhongxingxin Telecommunications Equipment Company Limited, a company incorporated in the PRC.

The financial statements were approved by the Board of Directors of the Company by way of resolution on 8 April 2010. In accordance with the Articles of Association of the Company, the financial statements will be tabled at the general meeting for consideration.

II. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

1. Basis of preparation

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the "Enterprise Accounting Standards — Basic Standards" and 38 specific accounting standards, subsequent practice notes, interpretations and other relevant regulations (collectively "ABSEs") promulgated by the Ministry of Finance in February 2006.

The financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis.

The Group's accounts have been prepared on an accrual basis. All items are recorded by using historical cost as the basis of measurement except for some financial instruments. Impairment provision is made according to relevant regulation if the assets are impaired.

Notes to Financial Statements

(Prepared in accordance with PRC ASBES)

II. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES (continued)

2. Statement of compliance

The financial statements truly and completely reflect the financial position of the Group and the Company as at 31 December 2009 and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the year ended 31 December 2009.

3. Financial year

The financial year of the Group is from 1 January to 31 December of each calendar year.

4. Reporting currency

Reporting currency and the currency used in preparing the financial statements were Renminbi. The amounts in the financial statements were denominated in thousand of Renminbi, unless otherwise stated.

The Group's subsidiaries, jointly-controlled entities and associates determine their reporting currency according to the major economic environment in which they operate the business, and translate into Renminbi when preparing the financial statements.

5. Business combination

Business combination represents transaction which combines two or more separate businesses into one reporting entity. Business combinations are classified into business combinations involving entities under common control and business combinations not involving entities under common control.

Business combinations involving entities under common control

A business combination involving entities under common control is a business combination in which all of the combining entities are ultimately controlled by the same party or parties both before and after the business combination, and that control is not transitory. The combining party is the entity that obtains control of the other entities participating in the combination at the combination date, and the other entities participating in the combination are the parties being combined. The combination date is the date on which the combining party effectively obtains control of the parties being combined.

Assets and liabilities obtained by combining party in the business combination are recognized at their carrying amounts at the combination date as recorded by the party being combined. The difference between the carrying amount of the consideration paid for the combination (or aggregate face values of the shares issued) and the carrying amount of the net assets obtained is adjusted to capital reserves. If the capital reserve is not sufficient to absorb the difference, any excess is adjusted to retained profits.

Any costs directly attributable to the combination are recognized as expenses when incurred by the combining party.

Business combinations not involving entities under common control

A business combination not involving entities under common control is a business combination in which all of the combining entities are not ultimately controlled by the same party or parties both before and after the business combination. The acquirer is the entity that obtains control of the other entities participating in the combination at the acquisition date, and the other entities participating in the combination are the acquirees. The acquisition date is the date on which the acquirer effectively obtains control of the acquiree.

The cost of acquisition is measured as the aggregate of the fair values of the assets given, liabilities incurred or assumed, equity instruments issued by the acquirer at the acquisition date, and all the costs incurred directly attributable to the acquisition, in exchange for control of the acquiree. The cost of acquisition of a business combination which is completed through multiple transactions is the sum of the cost of each transaction. Where a future event which is likely to affect combination costs has been agreed upon in the combination contract, and it is estimated as at the acquisition date that occurrence of the future event is likely and that the amount of impact on the combination cost can be reliably measured, such impact should be included in the combination cost.

The acquiree's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities are recognized at their fair values at the acquisition date.

Where the cost of a business combination exceeds the acquirer's interest in the fair value of the acquiree's identifiable net assets, the difference is recognized as goodwill. Where the cost of a business combination is less than the acquirer's interest in the fair value of the acquiree's identifiable net assets, the acquirer reassesses the measurement of the fair values of the acquiree's identifiable net assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities and the measurement of the cost of combinations. If after that reassessment, the cost of combination is still less than the acquirer's interest in the fair value of the acquiree's identifiable net assets, the remaining difference is recognised in the profit or loss for the current period.

6. Consolidated financial statements

The consolidation scope for consolidated financial statement is determined based on the concept of control, including the Company and all subsidiaries' financial statements as at 31 December 2009. Subsidiaries are those enterprises or entities which the Company has control over.

The financial statements of the subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting period as the Company, using consistent accounting policies. All profit and loss and unrealized profit and loss arising from intercompany transactions, and intercompany balances are eliminated on consolidation.

The consolidated portion of shareholders' equity of the subsidiaries not held by the Group is presented separately as minority interests in the consolidated financial statements.

For subsidiaries obtained through a business combination not involving entities under common control, the operating results and cash flows of the acquirees will be recognized in consolidated financial statements from the date the Group effectively obtains the control until the date that control is terminated. When consolidated financial statement is prepared, the subsidiaries' financial statements will be adjusted based on the fair values of the identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities at the acquisition date.

For subsidiaries obtained through a business combination involving entities under common control, the operating result and cash flow of the party being combined will be recognized in consolidated financial statement from the beginning of the period during which the combination occurs. In preparing the comparative consolidated financial statements, adjustments were made to relevant items in financial statements in previous periods as if the reporting entity formed after the consolidation had been in existence since the ultimate controlling party started to exercise effective control.

7. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash comprises cash on hand and deposits readily available for payments. Cash equivalents represent short-term highly liquid investments which are readily convertible to known amounts of cash, and subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

8. Foreign currency translation

For foreign currency transactions, the Group translates the foreign currency into its functional currency.

Upon initial recognition, foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the average exchange rate for the period when transactions occur. At the balance sheet date, foreign currency monetary items are translated using the spot exchange rate at the balance sheet date. The exchange differences arising from the above translation, except those relating to foreign currency borrowings for the acquisition, construction or production of assets eligible for the capitalization shall be dealt with according to the principle of capitalization of borrowing costs, are recognized in profit or loss. Also at the balance sheet date, foreign currency non-monetary items measured at historical cost continue to be translated using the spot exchange rate at the dates of the transactions and it does not change its carrying amount in functional currency. Foreign currency non-monetary items measured at fair value are translated using the spot exchange rate. The exchange differences arising from the above translation are recognized in current profit or loss or other comprehensive income.

The Group translates the functional currencies of foreign operations into Renminbi when preparing the financial statements. Asset and liability items in the balance sheet are translated at the spot exchange rate prevailing at the balance sheet date. Shareholders' equity items, except for retained profits, are translated at the spot exchange rates at the date when such items arose. Income and expense items in the income statement are translated using the average exchange rate for the periods when transactions occur. Translation differences arising from the above translation are presented as a separate line item under shareholders' equity in the balance sheet. When foreign operations are disposed, other comprehensive income relating to the foreign operation is transferred to current profit or loss. Partial disposal shall be recognized on a pro-rata basis.

Cash flows denominated in foreign currencies and foreign subsidiaries' cash flows are translated using the average exchange rate for the period when cash flows occur. The impact on cash by the fluctuation of exchange rates is presented as a separate line item of reconciliation in the cash flow statement.

9. Financial instruments

Financial instruments refer to the contracts which give rise to a financial asset in one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument in another entity.

Recognition and derecognition of financial instruments

The Group recognizes a financial asset or a financial liability when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument.

A financial asset (or part of it, or a part of a group of similar financial asset) is derecognized when one of the following criteria is met:

- (1) The right of receiving the cash flow generated from the financial asset has expired;
- (2) The right of receiving cash flow generated by the financial assets is transferred, or an obligation of paying the full amount of cash flow received to third parties in a timely manner has been undertaken under "pass-through" agreements, where (a) substantially all risks and rewards of the ownership of such financial assets have been transferred, or (b) control over such financial assets has not been retained even though substantially all risks and rewards of the ownership of such financial assets have been neither transferred nor retained.

If the obligation of financial liability has been fulfilled, cancelled or expired, the financial liability is derecognized. If the present financial liability is substituted by the same debtor with another liability differing in substance, or the terms of the present liability have been substantially modified, this substitution or modification is treated as derecognition of a present liability and recognition of a new liability with any arising differences recognized in profit or loss.

Conventional dealings in financial assets are recognised or derecognised under the trade day accounting method. Conventional dealings refer to the receipt or delivery of financial assets within periods stipulated by the law and according to usual practices. The trade day is the date on which the Group undertakes to buy or sell a financial asset.

Classification and valuation of financial assets

The Group classifies its financial assets into four categories at initial recognition: financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, held-to-maturity investments, loans and receivables, and available-for-sale financial assets. Financial assets are initially recognized at fair value. For financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, the relevant transaction costs are directly recognized in profit or loss; for other financial assets, the relevant transaction costs are recognized in their initial recognition amount.

The subsequent measurement of financial assets is dependent on its classification:

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss comprise held-for-trading financial assets and those designated at fair value through profit or loss at inception. Financial assets are classified as held-for-trading if they satisfy one of the following conditions: they are acquired or incurred principally for the purpose of selling or repurchasing in the near term; they are part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that are managed together, and for which there is objective evidence of a recent pattern of short-term profit taking; they are derivative financial instruments, with the exception of derivatives designated as valid arbitrage, derivatives under financial guarantee contracts and derivatives linked to and settled by way of delivery of equity investments not quoted in an active market and whose fair value cannot be reliably measured. These financial assets are subsequently measured at fair value, and gain or loss from changes in fair value and derecognition are recognized in current period's profit or loss. Dividends or interest income derived from financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are also recognized in current profit or loss.

Held-to-maturity investments

Held-to-maturity investments are non-derivative financial assets whose maturity and redemption amount are fixed or ascertained and in respect of which the Group has clear intentions or ability to hold until maturity. Such financial assets are subsequently measured using the effective interest method on the basis of amortised cost. Gains or losses arising from derecognition, impairment or amortization are recognised in the current profit or loss.

Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. Such assets are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method less any allowance for impairment. Amortized cost is calculated taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and includes fees that are an integral part of the effective interest rate and transaction costs. Gains and losses are recognized in the income statement when the loans and receivables are derecognized or impaired, as well as through the amortization process.

Available-for-sale financial assets

Available-for-sale financial assets are non-derivative financial assets that are designated as available-for-sale or those financial assets that are not classified in any of the above categories. Subsequent to initial recognition, these financial assets are measured at fair value. Gains and losses arising from fair value changes in available-for-sale financial assets, except for impairment losses and foreign currency monetary items' translation differences which are recognized in profit or loss, are recognized as other comprehensive income in capital reserves until the financial assets are derecognized or impaired upon which the cumulative gains or losses are transferred out from capital reserves to profit or loss. Dividends or interest income derived from available-for-sale financial assets is recognized in profit or loss.

Equity investments that are not quoted in an active market and whose fair value cannot be reliably measured are carried at cost.

Classification and valuation of financial liabilities

The Group classifies its financial liabilities at initial recognition: financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss and other financial liabilities. For financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, the relevant transaction costs are directly recognized in profit or loss; for other financial liabilities, the relevant transaction costs are recognized in their initial recognition amount.

The subsequent measurement of financial assets is dependent on its classification:

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss comprise held-for-trading financial liabilities and those designated at fair value through profit or loss at inception. Financial liabilities are classified as held-for-trading if they satisfy one of the following conditions: they are acquired or incurred principally for the purpose of selling or repurchasing in the near term; they are part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that are managed together, and for which there is objective evidence of a recent pattern of short-term profit taking; they are derivative financial instruments, with the exception of derivatives designated as valid arbitrage, derivatives under financial guarantee contracts and derivatives linked to and settled by way of delivery of equity investments not quoted in an active market and whose fair value cannot be reliably measured. These financial liabilities are subsequently measured at fair value, and all realised or unrealised gain or loss are recognized in current period's profit or loss.

Other financial liabilities

Subsequent to initial recognition, these financial assets are carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method.

Financial guarantee contracts

A financial guarantee contract is a contract under which the guarantor and the creditor agree that the guarantor shall assume the debts or liability in the event of default of the debtor. Financial guarantee contracts are initially recognized as liability at fair value. Financial guarantee contracts not classified as financial liabilities designated at fair value through profit or loss, after initial recognition, are subsequently measured at the higher of: (i) the amount of the best estimates of the expenditure required to settle the present obligations at the balance sheet date; and (ii) the initial amount less accumulated amortization.

Derivative financial instruments

The Group uses derivative financial instruments such as forward currency contracts to hedge its risks associated with foreign currency fluctuations. Such derivative financial instruments are initially recognized at fair value on the date on which a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently re-measured at fair value. Derivatives are carried as assets when the fair value is positive and as liabilities when the fair value is negative. Derivatives linked to and settled by way of delivery of equity investments not quoted in an active market and whose fair value cannot be reliably measured that are not quoted in an active market and whose fair value cannot be reliably measured are carried at cost.

Any gains or losses arising from the change in fair value on derivatives are taken directly to the income statement, except for those falling under cash flow hedging, which shall be recognized in other comprehensive income.

Bonds cum warrants

Upon issuance, the Group determines in accordance with the terms of the bonds cum warrants whether such bonds cum warrants consist of both equity and liability components. For bonds cum warrants that carry both equity and liability components, liability and equity are separately dealt with upon initial recognition. During the segregation, the fair value of the liability is first determined and recognized. Then the initial recognition of the equity component is determined by deducting the initial liability recognition amount from the overall issue price of the bonds cum warrants. Transaction costs are apportioned between liability and equity components according to their respective fair values. The liability component is presented as liability and subsequently measured on an amortised cost basis, until it is cancelled, converted or redeemed. The equity component is presented as equity and not remeasured in subsequent years.

The fair value of financial instruments

If there is an active market for a financial asset or financial liability, the Group uses quoted prices in the active market to establish its fair value. For financial instruments without active market, the fair value is established by using valuation techniques. Valuation techniques include reference to most recent market prices used by knowledgeable and willingness parties, reference to current fair value of other financial instrument with similar nature, discounted cash flow method and option valuation models.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses the carrying amount of financial assets at the balance sheet date. If there is any objective evidence that a financial asset is impaired, the Group provides for such impairment losses. The objective evidence, which indicates impairment of financial assets, represents events actually occurring after initial recognition of financial assets, having an impact on financial assets' estimated future cash flows, and such impact can be reliably measured.

Assets carried at amortised cost

If there is objective evidence that an impairment loss on such financial assets has been incurred, the financial asset's carrying amount is reduced to the present value of estimated future cash flows (excluding future credit losses that have not been incurred) discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate (namely the effective interest rate determined at initial recognition), taking into account the value of relevant collaterals. If floating interest rates are used, the current effective interest rate stipulated in the contract shall be adopted as the discount rate in calculating the present value of the future cash flows.

For a financial asset that is individually significant, the Group assesses the asset individually for impairment if there is objective evidence of impairment, and recognizes the amount of impairment in profit or loss. For a financial asset that is not individually significant, the Group include the asset in a group of financial assets with similar credit risk characteristics and collectively assess them for impairment. If it is determined that no objective evidence of impairment exists for an individually assessed financial asset, whether the financial asset is individually significant or not, the financial asset is included in a group of financial assets with similar credit risk characteristics and collectively assessed for impairment. Financial assets, for which an impairment loss is individually recognized, are not included in the collective assessment for impairment.

After the Group recognizes impairment loss of financial assets carried at amortized cost, if there is objective evidence that the financial assets' value recovered and the recovery is objectively related to an event occurring after the impairment is recognized, the previously recognized impairment loss shall be reversed and recognized in profit or loss. However the reversal shall not result in a carrying amount of the financial asset that exceeds what the amortized cost would have been had the impairment not been recognized at the date when the impairment is reversed.

Available-for-sale financial assets

If an available-for-sale financial asset is impaired, the cumulative loss arising from decline in fair value that had been recognized directly in capital reserves is removed from capital reserves and recognized in profit or loss. The cumulative loss that is removed from capital reserves is the difference between its acquisition cost (net of any principal repayment and amortization) and its current fair value, less any impairment loss previously recognized in profit or loss.

If after an impairment loss has been recognized on an available-for-sale debt instrument, the fair value of the debt instrument increases in a subsequent period whereby the increase can be objectively related to an event occurring after the impairment losses were recognized, the impairment loss is reversed which is recognized in profit or loss. Impairment losses recognized for equity instruments classified as available-for-sale are not reversed through profit or loss. Fair value gains that arise after the impairment are directly recognized in other comprehensive income.

Assets carried at cost

If financial assets carried at cost are impaired, the impairment loss are recognized in profit or loss and measured as the difference between the carrying amount of the financial asset and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the current market rate of return for a similar financial asset. Such impairment losses shall not be reversed.

For long term equity investments measured using the cost method regulated in "ASBE No. 2 — Long-term equity investments" which have no quotation in an active market and whose fair value cannot be reliably measured, their impairment is also calculated in accordance with the aforementioned principle.

Derecognition of financial assets

If the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards associated with the ownership of a financial asset to the transferee, the asset should be derecognized. If the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a financial asset, the asset should not be derecognized.

When the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, it may either derecognize the financial asset and recognize any associated assets and liabilities if control of the financial asset has not been retained; or recognizes the financial asset to the extent of its continuing involvement in the transferred financial asset and recognizes an associated liability if control has been retained.

10. Accounts Receivable

The Group reviews the carrying value of its account receivables at the end of each reporting period and recognizes provision for impairment, being the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, in the current profit or loss if there is objective evidence of impairment.

The Company conducts impairment tests in respect of its account receivables, whether significant or insignificant, and makes provision for impairment when there is objective evidence of impairment. Objective evidence for impairment includes: (1) significant financial difficulties experienced by the debtor; (2) default on or non-payment of due interest or principal payments; (3) concessions made to the insolvent debtor by creditors owing to economic or legal considerations; (4) probable bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation of the debtor; (5) inability to recover the debt after repayments from the bankruptcy assets or the estate upon the bankruptcy or death of the debtor.

Individually insignificant accounts, for which there is no objective evidence under individual impairment tests warranting individual provision, are divided into different asset groups based on their credit risk characteristics, and each group is assessed in accordance with different policies to determine their impairment provision. The management divides trade receivables (other than those in respect of which individual asset impairment provision has been made) into the following asset groups as follows on the basis of credit risk rating and historical repayment records:

0–6 months	—
7–12 months	0–15
13–18 months	5–60
19–24 months	15–85
2–3 years	50–100
Over 3 years	100

11. Inventories

Inventories include raw materials, materials sub-contracted for processing, work-in-progress, finished goods, materials for construction-in-progress and product deliveries.

Inventories are initially recorded at costs. Inventories' costs include purchasing costs, processing costs and other costs. Actual costs of goods delivered are recognized using the weighted moving average method. Materials for construction-in-progress include low-value consumables and packaging materials, which are amortised using the separate amortization method/one-off write-off method.

Inventories are valued using the perpetual inventories system.

Inventories at the end of the year are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Provision for impairment of inventories is made and recognized as expenses when the net realizable value is lower than cost. If the factors that give rise to the provision in prior years are not in effect in current year, as a result that the net realizable value of the inventories is higher than cost, provision should be reversed within the impaired cost, and recognized in profit or loss.

Net realizable values represent estimated selling prices less any estimated costs to be incurred to completion, estimated selling expenses and relevant tax amounts. Provision for impairment of inventories is made on the basis of individual categories.

12. Long-term equity investments

Long-term equity investments include equity investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates, as well as equity investments in investees over the Company does not exercise control, common control or significant influence which are not quoted in an active market and the fair value of which cannot be reliably measured.

Long-term equity investments were recorded at initial investment cost on acquisition. The initial investment cost of long-term equity investments derived from business combination through the merger of companies under the common control is measured as the share of the carrying value of the owner's equity of the acquiree. The initial investment cost of long-term equity investments derived from business combination through the merger of companies not under the common control is measured at the acquisition costs. The initial investment cost of long-term equity investments acquired other than through business combination is determined in the following manner: where the acquisition is made by cash payment, the initial investment cost is measured at the actual cash payment plus expenses directly related to the acquisition of the long-term investment, tax and other necessary expenses. Where equity securities are issued as consideration, the initial investment cost is measured at the fair value of the equity securities. Where the acquisition is funded by investors, the initial investment cost is measured at the value stipulated in the investment contract or agreement, unless the value so agreed is deemed unfair.

The cost method is used when the Group does not jointly control or has significant influence over the investee, and the long term equity investments are not quoted in active markets, and have no reliably measurable fair values. In the financial statements of the Company, the cost method is used for long-term equity investments in investees over which the Company exercises control.

When the cost method is used, long-term equity investments are measured at initial cost on acquisition. Other than prices actually paid upon the acquisition or cash dividends or profit included in the consideration which have been declared but not yet paid, cash dividends or profit declared by the invested enterprise are recognized as investment income for the current period. Impairment of long-term investments is considered in accordance with relevant asset impairment policies.

The equity method is used to account for long-term equity investments when the Company can jointly control or has significant influence over the invested entity. Joint control means sharing control over certain economic activities pursuant to contractual agreements and exists only if significant financial and operational decisions relating to such economic activities require unanimous approval of investing parties sharing such control. Significant control means having the authority to take part in the decision over the financial and operational policies but not the authority to control or jointly control with other parties the formulation of such policies.

Under the equity method, any excess of the initial investment cost over the Company's share of the net fair value of the investment's identifiable assets and liabilities is included in the initial investment cost of the long-term equity investment. Any excess of the Company's share of the investment's identifiable assets and liabilities over the cost of investment is excluded from the carrying amount of the investment and recognized in profit and loss for the current period, and the cost of long-term equity investment is adjusted accordingly.

Under the equity method, after the long-term equity investments are acquired, investment gains or losses are recognized and the carrying amount of the long-term equity investment is adjusted to reflect the Group's share of the investee's net profit or loss. When recognizing the Group's share of the net profit or loss of the invested entity, the Group makes adjustments based on fair values of the investees' identifiable assets and liabilities at the acquisition date and in accordance with the Group's accounting policy and accounting period to investee's net profits which also eliminates profit or loss from inter-transactions with associates and joint ventures attributed to investor which is calculated pro rata on the basis of share percentage (for loss from inter-transactions belonging to impairment loss, it shall be wholly recognized). When the invested enterprise declares profit appropriations or cash dividends, the carrying amount of investment is adjusted down by the Group's share of the profit appropriations and dividends. The Group shall discontinue recognizing its share of the losses of the investee after the long-term equity investment together with any long-term interests that in substance forms part of the Group's net investment in the investee are reduced to zero, except to the extent that the Group has incurred obligations to assume additional losses. The Group also adjusts the carrying amount of long-term equity investments for other changes in owner's equity of the investees (other than net profits or losses), and includes the corresponding adjustment in equity. Upon the disposal of such investment, it will be transferred to profit and loss for the current period on a proportionate basis.

On disposal of the long-term equity investments, the difference between book value and market price is recognized in profit or loss for the current period. Long-term equity investments accounted for under the equity method and recognised in the shareholders' equity shall be transferred to profit or loss for the current period on a proportionate basis upon disposal.

For details of impairment test methods and impairment provision methods for long-term equity investments in subsidiaries, jointly-controlled entities and associates, please refer to Note II.24. For details of impairment test methods and impairment provision methods for other long-term equity investments not quoted in an active market and whose fair value cannot be reliably measured, please refer to Note II.9.

13. Fixed assets

Fixed assets are tangible assets held for manufacturing of goods, rendering of services, rental or administrative purposes that are used for more than one accounting year.

A fixed asset is recognized when, and only when, it is probable that future economic benefits that are associated with the fixed asset will flow to the Group and the cost can be measured reliably. Subsequent expenditures related to a fixed asset are recognized in the carrying amount of the fixed asset if the above recognition criteria are met, and the book value of the replaced part is derecognized; otherwise, those expenditures are recognized in profit or loss as incurred.

Fixed assets are initially recognized at cost taking into account the impact of expected future disposal expenditure. Cost of purchased fixed assets includes purchasing price, relevant taxes, and any directly attributable expenditure for bringing the asset to working conditions for its intended use.

Fixed assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis, and the respective estimated useful lives, estimated residual values and annual depreciation rates are as follows

	Useful life	Estimated residual value ratio	Annual depreciation rate
Buildings (excluding temporary plants)	30 years	5%	3.17%
Electronic equipment	5–10 years	5%	9.5%–19%
Machinery equipment	5–10 years	5%	9.5%–19%
Motor vehicles	5–10 years	5%	9.5%–19%
Other equipment	5 years	5%	19%

The Group reviews, at least at each year end, useful lives, estimated residual values and depreciation methods of fixed assets and makes adjustments if necessary.

For details of impairment test methods and impairment provision methods for fixed assets, please refer to Note II.24.

14. Construction in progress

Construction-in-progress is measured at the actual construction expenditures, including the necessary costs incurred for fixed assets before they can be put into use and other related fees.

Construction-in-progress is transferred into fixed assets when it is ready for its intended use.

For details of impairment test methods and impairment provision methods for construction in progress, please refer to Note II.24.

15. Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs are interest and other costs incurred by the Group in connection with the borrowings of funds, which include borrowing interest, amortisation of discount or premium on debt, other supplementary costs and certain foreign exchange differences that occurred from the borrowings in foreign currencies.

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of assets qualified for capitalization, i.e., fixed assets, investment properties and inventories that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are capitalized as part of the cost of those assets. Other borrowing costs are charged to current profit or loss.

Capitalization of borrowing costs begins where:

- (1) Capital expenditure has already happened;
- (2) Borrowing expenses has already incurred;
- (3) Purchasing or production activities to get the assets ready for their intended use or sale have already happened.

The capitalization of such borrowing costs ceases when the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. Borrowing costs incurred afterwards are recognized in profit or loss.

During capitalization, interest of each accounting period is recognized using the following methods:

- (1) Where funds are borrowed specifically, costs eligible for capitalisation are the actual costs incurred less any income earned on the temporary investment of such borrowings.
- (2) Where funds are part of a general pool, the eligible amount is determined by applying a capitalization rate to the expenditure on that asset. The capitalization rate will be the weighted average of the borrowing costs applicable to the general pool.

Except for expected suspension under normal situation of qualifying assets, capitalization should be suspended during periods in which abnormal interruption has lasted for more than three months during the process of acquisition, construction or production. The borrowing cost incurred during interruption should be recognized as expenses and recorded in the income statement until the construction resumes.

16. Intangible assets

The Group's intangible assets are initially measured at cost.

Useful life of an intangible asset is determined by the period over which it is expected to bring economic benefits to the Group. For an intangible asset with no foreseeable limit to the period over which it is expected to bring economic benefits to the Group, it is treated as an intangible asset with indefinite useful life.

Useful life of respective intangible assets is as follows:

	Estimated useful lives
Software	5 years
Technology know-how	10 years
Land use rights	50 years
Operating concession	20 years

(All amounts in RMB'000 unless otherwise stated)

Land use rights acquired by the Group are normally accounted for as intangible assets. Land use rights and buildings relating to plants constructed by the Group are accounted for as intangible assets and fixed assets, respectively. The costs for acquiring land and buildings are apportioned between the land use rights and buildings, or accounted for as fixed assets if they cannot be apportioned.

Straight line amortization method is used during the useful life period for intangible assets with definite useful lives. The Group reviews, at least at each year end, useful lives and amortization method for intangible assets with definite lives and makes adjustment when necessary.

The Group classifies the expenses for internal research and development as research costs and development costs. All research costs are charged to the income statement as incurred. Expenditure incurred on projects to develop new products is capitalised and deferred only when the Group can demonstrate the technical feasibility of completing the intangible asset so that it will be available for use or sale, its intention to complete and its ability to use or sell the asset, how the asset will generate future economic benefits (including demonstration that the product derived from the intangible asset or the intangible asset itself will be marketable or, in the case of internal use, the usefulness of the intangible asset as such), the availability of technical and financial resources to complete the project and procure the use or sale of the intangible asset, and the ability to measure reliably the expenditure during the development. Product development expenditure which does not meet these criteria is expensed when incurred.

Corresponding projects in the Group are formed when they meet the above condition technical feasibility and economic feasibility studies. Then, those projects are progressed into the development phase.

For details of impairment test methods and impairment provision methods for intangible assets, please refer to Note II.24.

17. Provisions

The Group recognizes as liability an obligation that is related to contingent matters and fulfils all the following criteria:

- (1) the obligation is a present obligation of the Group;
- (2) the obligation would probably result in an outflow of economic resources from the Group;
- (3) the obligation could be reliably measured.

Provisions are initially valued according to the best estimate of expenses on fulfilling the current liabilities, in connection with the risk, uncertainty and timing value of the currency. The book value of the provisions would be reassessed on every balance sheet date. The book value will be adjusted to the best estimated value if there is certain evidence that the current book value is not the best estimate.

18. Share-based payments

Share-based payments can be distinguished into equity-settled share-based payments and cash-settled share-based payments. Equity-settled share-based payments are transactions of the Group settled through the payment of shares of other equity instruments in consideration for receiving services.

Equity-settled share-based payments made in exchange for services rendered by employees are measured at the fair value of equity instruments granted to employees. Instruments which are vested immediately upon the grant are charged to relevant costs or expenses at the fair value on the date of grant and the capital reserve is credited accordingly. Instruments of which vesting is conditional upon completion of services or fulfillment of performance conditions are measured by recognizing services rendered during the period in relevant costs or expenses and crediting the capital reserve accordingly at the fair value on the date of grant according to the best estimates conducted by the Group at each balance sheet date during the pending period based on subsequent information such as latest updates on the change in the number of entitled employees and whether performance conditions have been fulfilled, and etc. The fair value of equity instruments is determined using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. For details see Note VII. Share-based payment.

The cost of equity-settled transactions is recognised, together with a corresponding increase in capital reserve, over the period in which the performance and service conditions are fulfilled. The cumulative expense recognised for equity-settled transactions at the end of each reporting period until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Group's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest.

No expense is recognised for awards that do not ultimately vest, except where vesting is conditional upon a market or non-vesting condition, which are treated as vesting irrespective of whether or not the market or non-vesting condition is satisfied, provided that all other non-market conditions are satisfied.

Where the terms of an equity-settled share-based payment are modified, as a minimum, services obtained are recognized as if the terms had not been modified. In addition, an expense is recognized for any modification which increases the total fair value of the instrument granted, or is otherwise beneficial to the employee as measured at the date of modification.

Where an equity-settled award is cancelled, it is treated as if it had vested on the date of cancellation, and any expense not yet recognized for the award is recognized immediately. Where employees or other parties are permitted to choose to fulfill non-vesting conditions but have not fulfilled during the pending period, equity-settled share-based payments are deemed cancelled. However, if a new award is substituted for the cancelled award, and designated as a replacement award on the date that it is granted, the new awards are treated as if they were a modification of the original award.

19. Revenue

Revenue is recognized when it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the amount of the revenue can be measured reliably. Revenue is recognized on the following bases:

Revenue from the sales of goods

Revenue from sales of goods is recognized when the significant risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to the buyer, provided that the Group maintains neither managerial involvement to the degree usually associated with ownership, nor effective control over the goods sold and related costs incurred or to be incurred can be measured reliably. Revenue from sales of goods is determined according to amounts stipulated in contracts or agreements received or receivable from buyers, unless such amounts are deemed unfair. The receipt of amounts stipulated in contracts or agreements is recognized on a deferred basis. Those with a financing nature are measured at the fair value of amounts stipulated in contracts or agreements.

Revenue from the rendering of services

On the balance sheet date, when transaction result of the rendering of services could be measured reliably, related revenue from rendering of services is recognized according to the percentage of completion, otherwise revenue is recognized only to the extent of cost incurred and expected to be recoverable. The transaction result of the rendering of services could be measured reliably by meeting the following conditions at the same time: Revenue can be measured reliably, the relevant economic benefits will flow to the Group, the percentage of construction work and relevant cost incurred or to be incurred can be measured reliably. The percentage of completion is based on the percentage of costs incurred to date on a contract relative to the estimated total contract costs. Total revenue for the rendering of services is determined according to amounts stipulated in contracts or agreements received or receivable by workers, unless such amounts are deemed unfair.

Where the sales of goods and rendering of services are included in contracts or agreements between the Group and other enterprises, revenue is separately recognized according to the fair values of various sales items in the contracts, by reference to the aforesaid principles for revenue recognition.

Construction contracts

Construction contract revenue and cost are recognised by percentage of completion at the balance sheet date where the results of the contract could be reliably estimated, otherwise revenue is recognised on the basis of the actual contract cost amount which has been incurred and is expected to be recoverable. The results of the contract can be reliably estimated if it is probable that economic benefits relating to the contract will flow to the Group and the actually incurred contract cost can be clearly distinguished and reliably measured. For contracts with fixed prices, the following conditions should also be met: the total revenue of the contract can be reliably measured, and percentage of completion and outstanding cost for completion can be reliably estimated. The percentage of completion is based on the percentage of costs incurred to date on a contract relative to the estimated total contract costs. Total contract revenue includes initial income stipulated by the contract and income derived from contract modifications, compensation and rewards, and etc.

Interest income

Interest income is determined by the length of time for which the Group's cash is in use by other parties and the effective interest rate.

20. Government grants

Government grants are recognized when there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attaching conditions will be complied with. The grant is measured as the amount received or receivable where it takes the form of a cash asset, or at fair value where it is not a cash asset. Where the fair value cannot be reliably obtained, it should be measured at the nominal value. Government grants, relating to income and applied towards reimbursement of related costs or losses in subsequent periods, are recognized as deferred income and taken to current profit or loss for the period in which the related costs are recognized. Government grants, applied towards reimbursement of related costs or losses already incurred, are directly recognized in current profit or loss. Where the grant relates to an asset, it is recognized as a deferred income and allocated to the income statement over the expected useful life of the relevant asset by equal annual instalments. Where the grant is measured at nominal value, it is directly recognized in current profit or loss.

21. Income tax

Income taxes include current and deferred tax. Income taxes are recognized in current period's profit or loss as income tax expense or income tax benefit, except for the adjustment made for goodwill in a business combination and income tax from transactions or items that directly related to equity.

For current period's deferred tax assets and liabilities arising in current and prior periods, the Group measures them at the amount expected to be paid or recovered according to the relevant taxation regulations.

The Group recognizes deferred tax assets and liabilities based on temporary differences using balance sheet liability method. Temporary differences are differences between the carrying amount of assets or liabilities in the balance sheet and their tax base on the balance sheet date. Temporary differences also include the differences between the book values and tax bases of items not recognized as assets or liabilities where the tax base can be calculated according to the relevant tax regulations.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- (1) Where the deferred tax liability arises from goodwill or the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss;
- (2) In respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and interests in joint ventures, where the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognized for all deductible temporary differences, carryforward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses, to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carryforward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised except:

- (1) where the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary differences arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss;
- (2) in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and interests in joint ventures, deferred tax assets are only recognized to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilized.

As at balance sheet date, deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured in accordance with relevant tax laws at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, and reflects the tax consequences that would follow the manner in which the Group expects, at the balance sheet date, to recover the assets or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at the end of each reporting period and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the deferred taxes relate to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

22. Leases

Other than leases under which substantially all risks and rewards of ownership are transferred, which are classified as finance lease, all leases are classified as operating leases.

As lessee of operating leases

Rental expenses under operating leases are recognized as relevant asset costs or in current profit or loss on the straight-line basis over the lease term. Contingent rental is charged to current profit or loss when incurred.

23. Impairment of assets

The Group assesses impairment of assets other than inventories, deferred tax assets, financial assets and long-term equity investments under cost accounting which are not quoted in an active market and whose fair value cannot be reliably measured, using the methods described below:

The Group assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is an indication that a non-financial asset may be impaired. If any such indication exists, the Group makes an estimate of the asset's recoverable amount and performs a test of impairment for the asset. For goodwill generated from business consolidation and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives, tests for impairment is performed at least annually regardless of whether there are indications of impairment. Intangible assets which are not yet ready for use are also tested annually for impairment.

Recoverable amount is the higher of the asset's fair value less costs to sell and its present value of estimated future cash flows. The Group estimates recoverable value for individual assets. When it is difficult to estimate individually, the recoverable value of the cash generating units which the asset belongs to will be estimated. The definition of cash generating units is determined on the basis of whether the cash generating units generate cash flows which are largely independent of those from other cash generating units.

Where the carrying amount of an asset or a cash generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset or cash generating unit is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount. The difference between the carrying amount and recoverable amount is recognized in the current period's profit or loss and provision for impairment is made accordingly.

In connection with impairment tests for goodwill, the carrying value of goodwill arising from business combination is allocated to relevant cash generating units ("CGU") from the date of acquisition on a reasonable basis. If it is difficult to allocate such goodwill to a relevant CGU, it should be allocated to a relevant CGU group. A relevant CGU or CGU group is defined as one which can benefit from the synergies of the business combination and is not larger than the reporting segments determined by the Group.

In connection with impairment tests for CGUs or CGU groups that comprise goodwill, where indications of impairment exists in a CGU or CGU group related to goodwill, impairment tests should be performed first on CGUs or CGU groups that do not comprise goodwill and recognize impairment loss after estimating the recoverable amount. Then impairment tests on CGUs or CGU groups that comprise goodwill should be performed and the carrying value and recoverable amount should be compared. Where the recoverable amount is lower than the carrying value, the impairment loss should first be offset against the carrying value of the goodwill allocated to CGUs or CGU groups and then against assets in the CGUs or CGU groups other than goodwill in proportion to the weighting of these assets.

Previously recognised impairment losses are not reversed in subsequent periods.

24. Employee benefits

Employee benefits represent all kinds of benefits (other than share-based payments) and other relevant expenditures incurred by the Group in exchange for service rendered by employees. During the accounting period when employees provide services, employee benefits payable is recognized as a liability. Items which expire longer than one year after the balance sheet date are measured at present value if the discounting impact is significant.

Defined contribution pension scheme

Employees of the Group participated in contribution pension scheme managed by the local government, including pension scheme, medical insurance, unemployment insurance and housing fund. The contribution costs are charged as asset cost or to current profit or loss when incurred.

Defined benefits pension scheme

The Group provides certain employees, who joined the Group before 1 January 2002, with post-retirement monthly pension payments. The cost of providing these benefits under the Group's defined benefits pension scheme is actuarially determined and recognized over the employees' service period by using the projected unit credit method. The Group makes monthly pension payments to eligible retirees. The Group has not held any plan assets since the commencement of the defined benefits pension scheme, therefore it is not required to make any forecast on asset return.

25. Significant accounting judgements and estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires judgement and estimation of the management. Such judgement and estimation will affect the reported amounts of revenue, expenses, assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities as at the balance sheet date. However, the consequence arising from the uncertain nature of such estimation may result in significant adjustment to the book value of the asset or liability affected in the future.

Judgements

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgements, which have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the financial statements:

Revenue recognition

The Group's material revenue streams are the result of a wide range of activities, from custom design and installation over a period of time to a single delivery of equipment to a customer. The Group's networking solutions also cover a broad range of technologies and are offered on a global basis. As a result, our revenue recognition policies can differ depending on the level of customization within the solution and the contractual terms with the customer. Newer technologies within one of the Group's reporting segments may also have different revenue recognition policies, depending on, among other factors, the specific performance and acceptance criteria within the applicable contracts. Therefore, management must use significant judgement in determining how to apply the current accounting standards and interpretations, not only based on the networking solutions, but also within networking solutions based on reviewing the level of customization and contractual terms with the customer. As a result, our revenues may fluctuate from period to period based on the mix of solutions sold and the geographic regions in which they are sold.

When a customer arrangement involves multiple deliverables where the deliverables are governed by more than one authoritative standard, the Group evaluates all deliverables to determine whether they represent separate units of accounting based on the following criteria:

- 1) whether the delivered item has value to the customer on a stand alone basis;
- 2) whether there is objective and reliable evidence of the fair value of the undelivered item(s); and
- 3) if the contract includes a general right of return relative to the delivered item, delivery or performance of the undelivered item(s) is considered probable and is substantially in the Group's control.

The Group's determination of whether deliverables within a multiple element arrangement can be treated separately for revenue recognition purposes involves significant estimates and judgement, such as whether fair value can be established on undelivered items and/or whether delivered elements have standalone value to the customer. Changes to the Group's assessment of the accounting units in an arrangement and/or its ability to establish fair values could significantly change the timing of revenue recognition.

If objective and reliable evidence of fair value exists for all units of accounting in the contract, revenue is allocated to each unit of accounting or element based on relative fair values. In situations where there is objective and reliable evidence of fair value for all undelivered elements, but not for delivered elements, the residual method is used to allocate the contract consideration. Under the residual method, the amount of revenue allocated to delivered elements equals the total arrangement consideration less the aggregate fair value of any undelivered elements. Each unit of accounting is then accounted for under the applicable revenue recognition guidance. If sufficient evidence of fair value cannot be established for an undelivered element, revenue related to delivered elements is deferred until the earlier of when sufficient fair value is established and when all remaining elements have been delivered. Once there is only one remaining element to be delivered within the unit of accounting, the deferred revenue is recognized based on the revenue recognition guidance applicable to the last delivered element. For instance, where post-contract support is the last delivered element within the unit of accounting, the deferred revenue is recognized ratably over the remaining post-contract support term once post-contract support is the only undelivered element.

The Group's assessment of which revenue recognition guidance is appropriate for accounting for a deliverable also can involve significant judgement. For instance, the determination of whether software is more than incidental to hardware can impact on whether the hardware is accounted for based on software revenue recognition guidance or based on general revenue recognition guidance. This assessment could significantly impact the amount and timing of revenue recognition.

For elements related to customised network solutions and certain network build-outs, revenues are recognized under the ASBE No. 15 Construction Contract, generally using the percentage-of-completion method. In using the percentage-of-completion method, revenues are generally recorded based on a measure of the percentage of costs incurred to date on a contract relative to the estimated total expected contract costs. Profit estimates on long-term contracts are revised periodically based on changes in circumstances and any losses on contracts are recognized in the period that such losses become known. Generally, the terms of long-term contracts provide for progress billing are based on completion of certain phases of work. Contract revenues recognized, based on costs incurred towards the completion of the project, that are unbilled are accumulated in the contracts in progress account included in amount due from customers for contract works. Billings in excess of revenues recognized to date on long-term contracts are recorded as advance billings in excess of revenues recognized to date on contracts within amount due to customers for contract works. Significant judgement is often required when estimating total contract costs and progress to completion on these arrangements, as well as whether a loss is expected to be incurred on the contract. Management uses historical experience, project plans and an assessment of the risks and uncertainties inherent in the arrangement to establish these estimates. Uncertainties include implementation delays or performance issues that may or may not be within the control of the Group. Changes in these estimates could result in a material impact on revenues and net earnings.

Revenue for hardware that does not require significant customisation, and where any software is considered incidental, is recognized under ASBE No. 14 Revenue, revenue is recognized provided that: it is probable that the economic benefits of the income will flow to the Group; the amount can be reliably measured; the Group has transferred the principal risks and rewards of ownership to the buyer and has not retained ongoing management and effective control usually associated with ownership; and relevant costs incurred or to be incurred can be reliably measured.

For hardware, delivery is considered to have occurred upon shipment provided that the risk of loss and title have been transferred to the customer. For arrangements where the criteria for revenue recognition have not been met because legal title or the risk of loss on products was not transfer to the buyer until final payment had been received or where delivery had not occurred, revenue is deferred to a later period when title or the risk of loss passes either on delivery or on receipt of payment from the customer.

For further information on the Group's revenue recognition policies relating to our material revenue streams, please refer to Note II. 19 to the consolidated financial statements.

Deferred tax liabilities arising from dividend distribution

The Group is required to recognize deferred tax liabilities for taxable temporary differences relating to investments in certain subsidiaries, unless two conditions are met as follows: the Group is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference and such temporary difference is not likely to be reversed in the foreseeable future. The Group is of the view that it is able to fully control the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference arising from dividend distribution of the subsidiary and that the subsidiary will not make any profit distribution in the foreseeable future. Therefore, the Group has not recognised any deferred income tax liability. See Note V.16.

Estimation uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the balance sheet date, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within subsequent financial years, are discussed below.

Impairment of fixed assets, construction in progress and intangible assets

The Group assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is an indication that fixed assets, construction in progress and intangible assets may be impaired. If any such indication exists, the Group makes an estimate of the asset's recoverable amount and performs a test of impairment for the asset. The recoverable amount is measured at the net amount of the fair value of the asset less disposal costs or the present value of the estimated future cash flow of the asset, whichever is higher. This requires an estimate of the expected future cash flows from the asset or the cash-generating unit to which the asset was allocated and also to choose a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value of those cash flows.

An impairment loss is recognized when the carrying amount of fixed assets, construction in progress and intangible assets exceeds the recoverable amount. The carrying amount is written down to the recoverable amount and the write-down is charged to current profit or loss, while corresponding provision for asset impairment is also made.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group determines whether financial assets are impaired by estimating the future cash flow from the financial assets. An impairment loss is recognized only if the carrying amount of an asset exceeds the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate, taking into account the value of the related collateral. Where the actual future cash flows and less than expected, an impairment loss may arise.

Equity settled share expense

The estimated cost of the share incentive scheme is recognized in income statements based on estimation of various assumptions, including that in relation to the turnover rate of respective participants under the scheme. In situation that the actual turnover rate is less than the management estimation, such cost would be higher.

Depreciation and amortization

The Group depreciates items of fixed assets on the straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives, and after taking into account their estimated residual value, commencing from the date the items of fixed assets are placed into productive use. The estimated useful lives and dates that the Group places the items of fixed assets into productive use reflect the directors' estimate of the periods that the Group intends to derive future economic benefits from the use of the Group's fixed assets.

Development expenses

In determining the amount of capitalization, the management must make assumptions concerning the expected future cash flow, applicable discount rate and expected beneficial period.

Deferred tax assets

Deferred tax assets are recognized for all unused tax losses, to the extent that it is likely that taxable profit will be available to utilize these unused tax losses. Significant judgments are needed from management to estimate the timing and amount of taxable profit as well as applicable tax rate in the future, with tax planning strategies, to determine the amount of the deferred tax assets that should be recognized.

III. TAXATION

IV. SCOPE OF CONSOLIDATION OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENT (continued)

2. Changes in the scope of consolidation

The Group deregistered subsidiary ZIMAX (Cayman) Holding Limited during the current year. The subsidiary was mainly engaged in investment and establishment of industrial operations. Prior to deregistration, ZIMAX had no assets and liabilities other than cash and balances with the Company, and was not engaged in other ordinary business activities. Upon the decision of the Board of Directors of the subsidiary, ZIMAX was deregistered on 25 May 2009.

Subsidiaries established during 2009 are as follows: tier-one subsidiaries including 中興國通通訊裝備技術(北京)有限公司, Shenzhen Zhongxing ICT Co., Ltd. (深圳中興網信科技有限公司), 中興通訊(杭州)有限責任公司 and 深圳市中興和泰酒店投資管理有限公司; and tier-two subsidiaries including 南京中興力維軟件有限公司, 南京中興特種系統有限責任公司, 南京中興新軟件有限責任公司, 三亞中興軟件有限責任公司, 重慶中興軟件有限責任公司, 北京市中興百納有限責任公司, 濟南中興通訊技術有限責任公司 and 深圳市中興九歌信息技術有限公司.

Other than the newly established subsidiaries and the deregistered subsidiary, the scope of consolidation was consistent with that of the previous year.

As at 31 December 2009, the Group's cash subject to ownership restriction amounted to RMB420,986,000 (31 December 2008: RMB136,246,000), including acceptance bill deposits of RMB11,867,000 (31 December 2008: RMB131,520,000), letter of credit deposits of RMB163,214,000 (31 December 2008: RMB4,726,000) and risk compensation fund to be released within one year of RMB245,905,000 (31 December 2008: Nil).

Under the loan agreements or factored trade receivables agreements between the Group and certain domestic banks, provisions are being made for a risk compensation fund at a mutually determined percentage based on the risk profile of the facilities concerned. The risk compensation fund shall be released on a pro-rata basis in respect of the facilities if there is no overdue principal or interest payment at the agreed final payment date, or when the principal and interest of the banking facilities have been fully settled. As at 31 December 2009, the risk compensation fund under the arrangements for loans and factored trade receivables amounted to RMB854,264,000 (31 December 2008: Nil). Risk compensation fund to be released within one year amounting to RMB245,905,000 was accounted for as cash subject to ownership restriction. Risk compensation fund to be released after one year amounting to RMB608,359,000 was accounted for as other non-current assets.

As at 31 December 2009, the Group's overseas currency deposits amounted to RMB2,165,395,000 (31 December 2008: RMB1,535,102,000).

Current bank deposits earn interest income based on current deposit interest rate. The period for short-term time deposits varies from 7 days to 3 months. The short-term time deposits, subject to the Group's cash needs, earn interest income based on corresponding time deposits interest rate.

Please refer to Note V.17 for details of movements in bad debt provision for long-term receivables.

Transfer of trade receivables not qualified for derecognition is separately reflected in “factored long-term trade receivables” and “Bank advances on factored trade receivables”. The amount as at the end of the year under review was RMB2,968,629,000 (31 December 2008: RMB753,568,000).

In prior year, the Company entered into a telecommunications system project with an African telecommunications operator with a total contract amount of US$1.5 billion. The related accounts receivable is to be settled by promissory notes issued by the telecommunications operator with maturity dates ranging from 3 to 13 years. Two government strategic banks (2008: One) in the PRC have agreed to factor these promissory notes pursuant to receivables purchase agreements (the “Agreement”). During the financing period, the banks will charge interest at LIBOR+1.5% or LIBOR+1.8% which will be shared by the Company and the telecommunications operator at a predetermined portion. If there is any delay in the payment by the telecommunications operator, the Company is not responsible for the related penalties. If there is default in the payment, the Company would bear the first 20% of default losses on the factored amount unless the Company breaches the Agreements or the factoring conditions are not satisfied. As at 31 December 2009, under the above arrangement, accounts receivable due from the customer amounted to RMB6,082,427,000 (2008: RMB3,542,011,000) among which RMB4,865,942,000 (2008: RMB2,833,609,000) has been derecognised from the consolidated statement of financial position as these receivables have fulfilled the derecognition conditions as stipulated in ASBES No. 23. An associated liability of RMB1,216,485,000 (2008: RMB708,402,000) has been recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position to the extent of the Company’s continuing involvement.

In addition, factored finance interest for future periods relating to the derecognition of trade receivables undertaken by the Company as at 31 December 2009 amounted to RMB328,920,000 (31 December 2008: RMB120,000,000), comprising RMB73,868,000 (31 December 2008: RMB120,000,000) due within one year and classified as other payables (see Note V.25) and RMB255,052,000 (31 December 2008: Nil) due after one year and classified as other non-current liabilities (see Note V.31).

29. Bonds cum warrants

	2009	2009
Opening balance	3,514,652	—
Liability component of bonds cum warrants	3,381,234	3,381,234
Interest expenses	150,029	133,418
Interest payments	(32,000)	—
Balance at year-end	3,632,681	3,514,652

On 30 January 2008, the Company issued 40,000,000 bonds with warrants with a nominal value of RMB100 each and a total amount of RMB4 billion. The bonds and the warrants are listed on the Stock Exchange of Shenzhen. The bonds with warrants are guaranteed by China Development Bank, and are fully redeemable within 5 years from the date of issue. Holders of the bonds have also been issued 1.63 warrants at nil consideration for every bond issued and therefore a total of 65,200,000 warrants have been issued. The warrants are valid for 24 months from the date of listing. Holders of the Warrants are entitled to subscribe for one A Share for every two warrants held at an initial exercise price of RMB78.13 per Share. In the event of any ex-rights or ex-dividend netting of share prices during the effective period for the warrants, the exercise price and exercise ratio of the warrants will be adjusted accordingly. As the Company distributed share dividend and issued bonus shares during 2008 and 2009, the exercise price of the warrants was adjusted to RMB42.394 per share and the exercise ratio was adjusted to the subscription of 0.922 A share for every one warrant held.

With effect from 1 February 2010, the “中興ZXC1” warrant has become exercisable. Please refer to Note X. Post Balance Sheet Date Events for the results of the exercise and changes in shareholdings.

The coupon interest rate of the bonds cum warrants is 0.8% per annum payable on 30 January of each year. At the issue of the bonds, interest rates of similar bond issues (without warrants) in the market were higher than the interest rate of the bond cum warrants.

The fair value of the liability component of the bonds cum warrants was assessed by reference to interest rates of similar bond issues (without warrants) in the market at the issue date.

The net book value of the liability component of the bonds cum warrants at the issue date was set out as follows:

Coupon value of Bonds cum Warrants	4,000,000
Equity component	(580,210)
Direct transaction costs attributable to the liability component	(38,556)
Liability component at issue date	3,381,234

30. Specific payables

CASIC appropriations	80,000	—	80,000	—

In 2001, the China Aerospace Science and Industry Corporation (“CASIC”) Group granted a special R&D fund of RMB80 million to the Company on behalf of the government. It was specifically provided in the agreement governing the R&D fund that the Company was not required to repay the fund after the project was completed, while the CASIC Group would be entitled to rights as the representative of the State capital contributor for such amount. The R&D fund had been fully utilized by 2002 and due inspection for acceptance had been performed by the CASIC Group. However, since the Company is a listed company and it is not permissible under current State regulations to issue additional shares to the CASIC Group through private placing, the CASIC Group has not been able to exercise its rights as the representative of the State capital contributor. The CASIC Group has not made any demands for withdrawal of the fund.

As the project concerned has been completed for some years and no demand for the refund of the amount could possibly be made, the Company has transferred it to “Capital Reserve” for the year, which means that it will not be applied towards capitalisation, the making-up of losses or other uses for the time being.

Note 1: Pursuant to a resolution passed at the 2008 general meeting, the Company enlarged its share capital with the issuance of 3 shares by way of capitalisation of reserves for every 10 shares held on the basis of a total share capital of 1,343,330,310 shares as at 31 December 2008, resulting in the issuance of a total of 402,999,092 shares. Following the capitalisation, the share capital of the Company was increased to RMB1,746,329,402. The said change in share capital has been verified by BDO Guangdong Dahua Delu CPA, who has issued Capital Verification Report Hua De Yan Zi [2009] No. 106 in connection therewith.

Note 2: At the Twenty-sixth Meeting of the Fourth Session of the Board of Directors of the Company held on 6 July 2009, it was ratified that a total subject share quota of 85,050,238 shares had been granted to 4,022 Scheme Participants under the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme of the Company. After the deduction of subject share quota of 43,425 shares which had lapsed, the share capital of the Company has increased by 85,006,813 shares. For details, please refer to "Note VII. Share-based Payment". The share capital of the Company was increased to RMB1,831,336,215 as a result. The said change in share capital has been verified by BDO Guangdong Dahua Delu CPA, who has issued Capital Verification Report Hua De Yan Zi [2009] No. 107 in connection therewith. As at the date of approval of these financial statements, the Company had yet to obtain the amended business licence.

Note 1: It was ratified at the Twenty-sixth Meeting of the Fourth Session of the Board of Directors of the Company held on 6 July 2009 that a total subject share quota of 85,050,238 shares had been granted to 4,022 Scheme Participants under the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme of the Company, and the registration of such shares with China Securities Depository and Clearing Company Limited, Shenzhen Branch was completed in July 2009. The total share capital of the Company has increased by 85,006,813 shares, after deducting 43,425 subject shares which have lapsed, and a share premium amount of RMB474,037,000 had been credited to the capital reserves.

The proposals of profit distribution and capitalisation from capital reserve of the Company for 2008 were implemented on 4 June 2009, whereby 3 shares were issued for every 10 shares held by way of capitalization from capital reserves. A share premium amount of RMB402,999,000 was deducted from the capital reserve accordingly.

Note 2: In 2009, equity-settled share-based payments with a total amount of RMB299,594,000 were recognized as current expenses.

As at 12 March 2009, the lock-up period for Subject Shares under the First Award had expired and the unlocking conditions had been fulfilled. The unlocking of 15,269,290 shares, being 20% of the Subject Shares under the First Unlocking, was completed on 22 July 2009. A corresponding amount of RMB218,429,000 previously charged to share-based payments in the capital reserve was transferred to share premium in the capital reserve accordingly.

34. Restricted shares subject to lock-up

In July 2009, all of the 85,006,813 Subject Shares under the Share Incentive Scheme of the Company were registered as share capital on a one-off basis, whereby the total number of shares was increased from 1,746,329,402 shares to 1,831,336,215 shares. Unlocking conditions in respect of 15,269,290 shares, being 20% of the Subject Shares under the First Unlocking, had been fulfilled and such shares were listed on 23 July 2009. After the deduction of 15,269,290 Subject Shares under the First Unlocking, there were 69,737,523 registered Subject Shares for which unlocking conditions had not been fulfilled as at 31 December 2009. In accordance with the Share Incentive Scheme and relevant legal undertakings executed by the Company and the Scheme Participants, such shares are being held under the name of the Scheme Participants, who are not entitled to any cash dividend distribution and voting rights until the unlocking conditions have been fulfilled in respect of such shares. In the event of the departure of Scheme Participants prior to the end of the effective period of the Share Incentive Scheme, whether by resignation or layoff, such Scheme Participants may exercise their rights in the unlocked Subject Shares as normal in accordance with the provisions of the Share Incentive Scheme, while Subject Shares subject to lock-up will not be unlocked but will lapse after the Company refunds the subscription costs that have been paid by such Scheme Participants at their own cost for the subscription of Subject Shares. Therefore, subscription amounts paid by Scheme participants whose restricted shares subject to lock-up amounting to RMB447,235,000 were recognised in the balance sheet as a debt item in equity as "restricted shares subject to lock-up". For details of the Share Incentive Scheme, please refer to Note VII. "Share-based payment".

46. Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to equity holders of the parent for the year by the weighted average number of ordinary shares in issue.

In the calculation of diluted earnings per share, net profit attributable to ordinary equity holders of the Company for the year is adjusted for the following: (1) interests on potentially dilutive ordinary shares recognized as expenses for the year; (2) income or expenses arising from the conversion of potentially dilutive ordinary shares; and (3) income tax effect on the above adjustments.

In the calculation of diluted earnings per share, the denominator shall be the sum of: (1) weighted average number of ordinary shares of the Company in issue adopted in the calculation of basic earnings per share; and (2) weighted average number of ordinary shares created assuming conversion of potentially dilutive ordinary shares into ordinary shares.

In calculating the weighted average number of ordinary shares created upon conversion of potentially dilutive ordinary shares into ordinary share, potentially dilutive ordinary shares issued in previous years are assumed to have been converted at the beginning of the current year, whereas potentially dilutive ordinary shares issued in the current year are assumed to have been converted on the date of issue.

Calculations of basic and diluted earnings per shares were as follows:

	2009	2008 (Restated)
Earnings
Net profit attributable to ordinary shareholders of the Company for the year	2,458,121	1,660,199
Shares
Weighted average number of ordinary shares of the Company (Note 1)	1,752,692	1,746,329
Diluting effect — weighted average number of ordinary shares:
Restricted Shares under share incentive scheme (Note 2)	69,738	46,754
Warrants (Note 3)	—	—
Adjusted weighted average number of ordinary shares of the Company	1,822,430	1,793,083

Note 1: In June 2009, the Company enlarged its share capital by 402,999,092 shares by way of capitalisation of capital reserves. After the capitalisation, the total number of ordinary shares in issue was 1,746,329,402 shares. The amounts of earnings per share for the reported periods were computed on the basis of the adjusted number of shares.

All of the 85,006,813 Subject Shares under the Share Incentive Scheme of the Company were registered as share capital on a one-off basis, whereby the total share capital of the Company was increased from 1,746,329,402 shares to 1,831,336,215 shares. After the deduction of 69,737,523 shares which were restricted shares subject to the lock-up (Note V.34), the ordinary share capital of the Company for the purpose of calculating basic earnings per share shall be 1,761,598,692 shares in effect.

Note 2: During the reporting period, 69,737,523 restricted shares subject to lock-up under the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme of the Company gave rise to potentially dilutive ordinary shares.

Note 3: The average market price of the ordinary shares during the year is less than the exercise price of the warrants, and therefore, the effect of the warrants are not dilutive and are not considered in the calculation of diluted earnings per share.

2. Share incentive scheme

The implementation of the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme (Revised Version dated 5 February 2007) (hereinafter referred to as the "Share Incentive Scheme") commenced upon consideration and approval by shareholders at the first extraordinary general meeting of the Company for 2007 convened on 13 March 2007, after the receipt of a no-comment letter from the China Securities Regulatory Commission. The Company granted 47,980,000 Subject Shares to the Scheme Participants by way of the issue of new shares (A shares), including the grant to 3,435 Scheme Participants of Subject Share quotas with 43,182,000 shares (accounting for 90% of the Subject Share quotas under the Share Incentive Scheme, hereinafter referred to as the "First Award") and the reservation of 4,798,000 Subject Shares accounting for 10% of the Subject Share quotas under the Share Incentive Scheme. At the Twentieth Meeting of the Fourth Session of the Board of Directors held on 25 November 2008, the grant of the full amount of the reserved Subject Share quotas to 794 Scheme Participants (hereinafter referred to as the "Second Award") was considered and approved. The Scheme Participants of the Share Incentive Scheme were the directors and senior management of the Company and key staff of the Company and its subsidiaries.

The grant price of the Share Incentive Scheme shall be the closing price of the Company's A shares as quoted on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange on the trading day immediately preceding the date of the Board Meeting at which the Share Incentive Scheme is reviewed. The price of the First Award was RMB30.05 per share. Scheme Participants shall pay the subscription amounts for the Subject Shares on the basis of the purchase of 5.2 Subject Shares for every 10 Subject Shares granted, out of which the subscription amounts for 3.8 Subject Shares shall be funded by Scheme Participants at their own cost and the subscription amounts for 1.4 Subject Shares shall be funded by the conversion of the deferred bonus that Scheme Participants would have received had they participated in the distribution of 2006 deferred bonus, calculated as a percentage of the grant price. The price of the Second Award was RMB21.28 per share. Scheme Participants shall pay the subscription amounts for the Subject Shares on the basis of the purchase of 5.2 Subject Shares for every 10 Subject Shares granted.

The Share Incentive Scheme shall be valid for 5 years, comprising a lock-up period of 2 years and an unlocking period of 3 years:

- (1) The Lock-up Period shall last for a period of two years commencing on the date of approval of the Share Incentive Scheme by shareholders in a general meeting of the Company, during which the Subject Shares granted to Scheme Participants under the Share Incentive Scheme shall be subject to lock-up and shall not be transferable;
- (2) The Unlocking Period shall last for three years following expiry of the Lock-up Period, during which Scheme Participants may, subject to unlocking conditions stipulated by the Share Incentive Scheme being satisfied, apply for unlocking in three tranches: the first unlocking period shall be the first year following the expiry of the Lock-up Period and the number of shares to be unlocked shall not exceed 20% of the aggregate number of Subject Shares granted; the second unlocking period shall be the second year following the expiry of the Lock-up Period and the number of shares to be unlocked shall not exceed 35% of the aggregate number of Subject Shares granted; the third unlocking period shall be the third year following the expiry of the Lock-up Period and the number of shares to be unlocked shall represent all outstanding Subject Shares.

The unlocking of Subject Shares shall be conditional upon the simultaneous fulfilment of certain conditions, including but not limited to the following:

- (1) The Company's financial and accounting report for the most recent accounting year does not contain an audit report in which the certified public accountants indicate an opinion of disapproval or inability to express any opinion;
- (2) The Scheme Participant has not been subject to administrative penalties by the CSRC due to material non-compliance by the Company during the past three years;
- (3) The weighted average rates of return on net assets of ZTE for the years 2007, 2008 and 2009 shall be adopted as the results appraisal conditions to Scheme Participants' application for unlocking the Subject Shares in the first, second and third tranches, respectively. Such rates of return on net assets shall not be less than 10% (before or after extraordinary income/loss items, whichever is lower).

In accordance with the relevant terms of the Share Incentive Scheme, Subject Shares granted but which have lapsed in the absence of unlocking shall be repurchased and cancelled by the Company at the corresponding subscription amounts plus interest calculated at the prevailing call deposit interest rate published by the People's Bank of China.

The fair value of the Subject Shares was arrived at based on the market price of the Company's shares on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes model, which ranged from RMB21.28 to RMB36.81 per share. The aggregate fair value of the Subject Shares amounting to RMB1,106,794,000 is charged to profit and loss and the capital reserve as costs and expenses from the date of grant to the date on which the unlocking conditions are being fulfilled and the shares may be circulated according to the law. The Group has recognised an amount of RMB299,594,000 (2008: RMB299,551,000) at Share Incentive Scheme expenses for the year and an aggregate amount of RMB899,293,000 (2008: RMB599,699,000) has been recognised in expenses as at the end of the year on an accumulative basis.

The proposals of profit distribution and capitalisation from capital reserve for 2007 were implemented on 10 July 2008, whereby 4 shares were issued for every 10 shares held. The proposals of profit distribution and capitalisation from capital reserve for 2008 were implemented on 4 June 2009, whereby 3 shares were issued for every 10 shares held. As a result, the Subject Share quotas of the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme was adjusted to 87,323,600 shares accordingly, representing the adjustments of the Subject Share quotas under the First Award and the Second Award to 78,591,240 shares and 8,732,360 shares, respectively. Taking into consideration the departure of or waiver of participation in the Share Incentive Scheme by certain Scheme Participants, it was ratified at the Twenty-sixth Meeting of the Fourth Session of the Board of Directors of the Company held on 6 July 2009 that a total Subject Share quota of 85,050,238 shares had been granted to 4,022 Scheme Participants under the Share Incentive Scheme, and the registration of such shares with China Securities Depository and Clearing Company Limited, Shenzhen Branch was completed. The total number of issued share capital of the Company has increased by 85,006,813 shares, after deducting 43,425 Subject Shares which have lapsed.

In accordance with the Share Incentive Scheme, Subject Shares under the First Award shall be subject to a lock-up period of two years commencing on 13 March 2007 (the date on which the Share Incentive Scheme was approved by the shareholders in a general meeting of the Company). As at 12 March 2009, the lock-up period for Subject Shares under the First Award had expired and the unlocking conditions had been fulfilled. The unlocking of 15,269,290 shares, being 20% of the Subject Shares under the First Unlocking, was completed on 22 July 2009. After the deduction of 709,582 Subject Shares granted to 19 incumbent directors and senior management staff members of the Company and 1 former senior management staff member who had resigned effective 19 March 2009, which shall remain under lock-up and subject to sale restriction under the relevant regulations of the Company Law and the Guidelines for the Administration of Company Shareholdings by Directors, Supervisors and Senior Management Officers of Companies Listed on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange and Changes in Shareholdings, a total of 14,559,708 Subject Shares under the current unlocking were listed on 23 July 2009.

VIII. CONTINGENT EVENTS

1. In August 2006, a customer instituted arbitration against the Company to demand indemnity from the Company in the amount of PKR762,982,000 (approximately RMB61,874,000). Meanwhile, the Company instituted a counter-claim against the customer's breach of contract to demand for damages. In February 2008, the arbitration authority issued its award ruling that an indemnity of PKR328,040,000 (approximately RMB26,602,000) is to be paid by the Company. In accordance with local laws, the Company had filed with the local court an objection against the arbitration award and a counter-claim against the customer's breach of contract. Currently the case is pending trial by the Supreme Court and civil court of Istanbul. As at the date of approval of the financial statements, the Group had not made any payments of compensation pursuant to the aforesaid judgement. The legal department of the Company is of the view that it is difficult to predict the final outcome of the case at this stage. The directors are of the opinion that the aforesaid arbitration will not have any material adverse impact on the financial conditions and operating results of the Group. Accordingly, the Company has not made any further provisions.
2. In April 2008, China Construction Fifth Engineering Division Corp., Ltd. ("China Construction Fifth"), an engineering contractor of the Company, demanded the Company to increase the contract amount on the grounds that raw material prices had increased in connection with which it launched first a slowdown in work, followed later by total suspension. In September 2008, the Company instituted litigation with the Nanshan District People's Court, pleading for the revocation of the contract and court order of the evacuation of the work sites by the defendant, as well as a penalty payment for work delay in the amount of RMB24,912,000 and damages of RMB11,319,000 payable to the Company. The court handed the first trial judgement in July 2009, ruling that the contract between the Company and China Construction Fifth be revoked and a penalty payment for work delay in the amount of RMB12,817,000 be payable by China Construction Fifth. China Construction Fifth had appealed against the said judgement and the second trial is currently in progress. In October and November 2009, the Group further instituted two complaints with the Nanshan District People's Court, demanding China Construction Fifth to undertake a penalty payment for work delay in the amount of RMB30,615,000 and the payment of RMB39,537,000, representing the amount of work payments in excess of the total contract amount. In July 2009, China Construction Fifth instituted a separate litigation with the Shenzhen Intermediate People's Court, demanding the Company to make a payment of RMB75,563,000 for raw materials and staff deployment. The said cases are currently in trial. Based on the legal opinion furnished by lawyers engaged by the Company and the existing judgements and current progress of the case, the directors are of the opinion that the aforesaid arbitration will not have any material adverse impact on the financial conditions and operating results of the Group.

As at 31 December 2009, the Company owned 21.76 million shares of Nationz Technologies, representing 26.67% equity interest of Nationz Technologies before the offering.
- Pursuant to the profit distribution proposal recommended by the Board, the Company will pay a cash dividend of RMB3 (before tax) for every 10 shares held on the basis of the total share capital of the Company as at 8 April 2010 less the number of restricted shares remaining in lock-up under the Share Incentive Scheme and the number of restricted shares that may be repurchased and cancelled in accordance with the implementation of the Share Incentive Scheme as at the A share record date for the purpose of the 2009 profit distribution (the "Record Date"), and will also issue 5 bonus shares for every 10 shares held to shareholders whose name appear in the register as at the Record Date through an increase in registered capital by way of capitalisation of capital reserves. In accordance with relevant provisions of the Share Incentive Scheme, application will be made in 2010 for the second unlocking of 35% of the Subject Shares granted, and restricted shares remaining in lock-up shall not be entitled to the cash dividend. As at 8 April 2010, 69,737,523 restricted shares remained in lock-up. The number of shares entitled to the cash dividend under the 2009 profit distribution proposal will be 1,841,416,933 shares in case the second unlocking is not completed by the Record Date, or a maximum of 1,868,214,185 shares in case the second unlocking is completed by the Record Date. The said profit distribution proposal is subject to approval by the general meeting of the Company.

Financial instruments of the Company convertible into shares and outstanding as at 31 December 2009 were represented by 65.20 million warrants attached to the bonds cum warrants. See Note V.29.

3. Segment reporting

Operating segments

For management purposes, the Group is organised into business units based on their products and services and has three reportable operating segments as follows:

- (1) The networks (communication system) segment includes wireless communications, wireline switch and access and optical and data communications.
- (2) The terminals segment engages in the manufacture and sale of mobile phone handsets and data card products.
- (3) The telecommunications software systems, services and other products segment represent the provision of telecommunications software systems such as operation support systems and the provision of fee-based services.

Management monitors the results of the Group's operating segments separately for the purpose of making decisions about resources allocation and performance assessment. Segment performance is evaluated based on reportable segment profit, which is a measure of adjusted profit before tax. The adjusted profit before tax is measured consistently with the Group's profit before tax except that finance expenses, research and development costs, impairment losses, gain/(losses) from changes in fair values, investment income as well as head office and corporate expenses are excluded from such measurement.

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial losses arising from default of the counterparty.

The Group only trades with recognised and creditworthy third parties. It is the Group's policy that all customers who wish to trade on credit terms are subject to credit verification procedures. In addition, receivable balances are monitored on an ongoing basis and the Group's exposure to bad debts is not significant.

The Group's other financial assets, which comprise cash, available-for-sale financial assets, other receivables and certain derivatives. The Group's credit risk of financial assets and financial guarantee contract arises from default of the counterparty, with a maximum exposure equal to the carrying amounts of these instruments.

Although the top five accounts accounted for 43.80% of the total trade receivables, their risk profiles were relatively low and did not give rise to significant concentration of credit risk for the Group.

Since the Group trades only with recognised and creditworthy third parties, there is no requirement for collateral.

For further quantitative disclosures on the Group's credit risk arising from trade receivables, other receivables and long-term trade receivables, please refer to Notes V.4, 5 and 10.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk refers to the risk of the lack of funds in performing obligations relating to financial liabilities.

The group monitors its risk to a shortage of funds using a recurring liquidity planning tool. This tool considers the maturity profile of both its financial instruments and financial assets (e.g. trade receivables and bank loans) and projected cash flows from operations.

The Group's objective is to maintain balance between the continuity and flexibility of financing through the use of bank loans, bonds cum warrants and other interest-bearing loans. With the exception of the non-current portion of bank loans, all borrowings are repayable within one year.

The maturity profile of financial assets and financial liabilities based on undiscounted contractual cash flow as at 31 December 2009 is summarised as follows:

Capital management

The primary objective of the Group's capital management is to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern and to maintain healthy capital ratios in order to support its business and maximise shareholders' value.

The Group manages its capital structure and makes adjustments, in the light of changes in economic conditions. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the dividend payment to shareholders, return capital to shareholders or issue new shares. The Group is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements. No changes were made in the objectives, policies or processes for managing capital during the years ended 31 December 2009 and 31 December 2008.

The Group monitors capital using a gearing ratio, which is interest-bearing bank borrowings divided by the sum of total equity and interest-bearing bank borrowings. The gearing ratios as at the ends of the reporting periods were as follows:

	2009 RMB'000	2008 RMB'000
Interest-bearing bank borrowings	9,242,861	6,957,032
Total equity	17,948,866	15,183,547
Total equity and interest-bearing bank borrowings	27,191,727	22,140,579
Gearing ratio	34%	31%

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flow of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rate. The Group's risk exposure to movements in market interest rates is mainly related to the Group's long-term liabilities bearing interest at floating rates.

On 31 December 2009, the bank loans of the Group and the Company including fixed rate debts and floating debts based on LIBOR. The Group and the Company had no significant concentration of interest rate risk.

The Group's interest risk policy is to manage interest rate risk by maintaining an appropriate mix of fixed and variable rate instruments. The Group's policy is to maintain the fixed interest rate between 2% and 11.50%. On 31 December 2009, approximately 55% (2008: 46%) of the Group's interest-bearing borrowings bore interests at fixed rates.

All of the interest-bearing borrowings with floating interest rate are in US$. If the bank loan interest rate and the variable rate generally increase or decrease 0.25%, the Group's profit before tax and shareholders' equity will accordingly decrease by RMB9,895,000 and increase by RMB3,700,000 for the years ended 31 December 2009 and 2008, respectively.

Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk of volatility in the fair value of financial instruments or future cash flow resulting from changes in foreign currency exchange rates.

The Group has transactional currency exposures. Such exposures arise from sales or purchases by operating units in currencies other than the units' functional currency, where the revenue is denominated in US$ and RMB and certain portion of the bank loans is denominated in US$. The Group tends to avoid foreign currency exchange risk or provide for revenue allocation terms when arriving at purchase and sales contracts to minimize its transactional currency exposures. The Group takes rolling forecast on foreign currency revenue and expenses, matches the currency and amount incurred, so as to alleviate the impact to business due to exchange rate fluctuation.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity of a reasonably possible change in interest rates may lead to the changes in the Group's profit before tax, with all other variables held constant, as at the balance sheet date.

	Increase/ decrease in US dollars exchange rate	Impact on the Group's profit before tax
2009
Weaker RMB against US dollars	+3%	(60,243)
Stronger RMB against US dollars	-3%	60,243
2008
Weaker RMB against US dollars	+3%	26,855
Stronger RMB against US dollars	-3%	(26,855)

	Increase/ decrease in EUR exchange rate	Impact on the Group's profit before tax
2009
Weaker RMB against EUR	+5%	106,988
Stronger RMB against EUR	-5%	(106,988)
2008
Weaker RMB against EUR	+5%	61,722
Stronger RMB against EUR	-5%	(61,722)

Fair value

The fair values of the financial instruments of the Group did not differ significantly from their book values.

Independent Auditors' Report

To the shareholders of ZTE Corporation

(Established in the People's Republic of China with limited liability)

We have audited the financial statements of ZTE Corporation set out on pages 249 to 335, which comprise the consolidated and company statements of financial position as at 31 December 2009, and the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory notes.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation and the true and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. This responsibility includes designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and the true and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error; selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies; and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

AUDITORS' RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. Our report is made solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance as to whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and true and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

1. CORPORATE INFORMATION

ZTE Corporation (the “Company”) is a limited liability company established in the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”).

The registered office of the Company is located at ZTE Plaza, Keji Road South, Hi-Tech Industrial Park, Nanshan District, Shenzhen 518057, the PRC.

During the year, the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the “Group”) were principally involved in the design, development, manufacture and sale of telecommunications system equipment and solutions.

In the opinion of the directors, in accordance with the Chapter 8 Qualifications for Listing of Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, the controlling shareholder of the Group is Shenzhen Zhongxingxin Telecommunications Equipment Company Limited (“Zhongxingxin”), a limited liability company registered in the PRC.

2.1 BASIS OF PREPARATION

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (“HKFRSs”) (which include all Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards, Hong Kong Accounting Standards (“HKASs”) and Interpretations) issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants, accounting principles generally accepted in Hong Kong and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. They have been prepared under the historical cost convention, except for derivative financial instruments, which have been measured at fair value. These financial statements are presented in Renminbi (“RMB”) and all values are rounded to the nearest thousand except when otherwise indicated.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries for the year ended 31 December 2009. The results of subsidiaries are consolidated from the date of acquisition, being the date on which the Group obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases. All income, expenses and unrealised gains and losses resulting from intercompany transactions and intercompany balances within the Group are eliminated on consolidation in full.

Minority interests represent the interests of outside shareholders not held by the Group in the results and net assets of the Company’s subsidiaries. An acquisition of minority interests is accounted for using the parent entity extension method whereby the difference between the consideration and the book value of the share of the net assets acquired is recognised as goodwill.

2.2 CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICY AND DISCLOSURES

The Group has adopted the following new and revised HKFRSs for the first time for the current year's financial statements. Except for in certain cases, giving rise to new and revised accounting policies and additional disclosures, the adoption of these new and revised HKFRSs has had no significant effect on these financial statements.

HKFRS 1 and HKAS 27 Amendments	Amendments to HKFRS 1 First-time Adoption of HKFRSs and HKAS 27 Consolidated and Separate Financial Statements – Cost of an Investment in a Subsidiary, Jointly Controlled Entity or Associate
HKFRS 2 Amendments	Amendments to HKFRS 2 Share-based Payment – Vesting Conditions and Cancellations
HKFRS 7 Amendments	Amendments to HKFRS 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosures – Improving Disclosures about Financial Instruments
HKFRS 8	Operating Segments
HKAS 1(Revised)	Presentation of Financial Statements
HKAS 18 Amendment*	Amendment to Appendix to HKAS 18 Revenue – Determining whether an entity is acting as a principal or as an agent
HKAS 23 (Revised)	Borrowing Costs
HKAS 32 and HKAS 1 Amendments	Amendments to HKAS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation and HKAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements – Puttable Financial Instruments and Obligations Arising On Liquidation
HK(IFRIC) – Int 9 and HKAS 39 Amendments	Amendments to HK(IFRIC) – Int 9 Reassessment of Embedded Derivatives and HKAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement – Embedded Derivatives
HK(IFRIC) – Int 13	Customer Loyalty Programmes
HK(IFRIC) – Int 15	Agreements for the Construction of Real Estate
HK(IFRIC) – Int 16	Hedges of a Net Investment in a Foreign Operation
HK(IFRIC) – Int 18	Transfers of Assets from Customers (adopted from 1 July 2009)
Improvements to HKFRSs (October 2008)	Amendments to a number of HKFRSs

* Included in Improvements to HKFRSs 2009 (as issued in May 2009).

2.2 CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICY AND DISCLOSURES (continued)

The principal effects of adopting these new and revised HKFRSs are as follows:

(a) Amendments to HKFRS 1 First-time Adoption of HKFRSs and HKAS 27 *Consolidated and Separate Financial Statements – Cost of an Investment in a Subsidiary, Jointly Controlled Entity or Associate

The HKAS 27 Amendment requires all dividends from subsidiaries, associates or jointly-controlled entities to be recognised in the statement of comprehensive income in the parent's separate financial statements. The distinction between pre and post acquisition profits is no longer required. However, the payment of such dividends requires the Company to consider whether there is an indicator of impairment. The amendment is applied prospectively. The amendments have had no impact on the financial position or results of operations of the Group.

(b) Amendments to HKFRS 2 *Share-based Payment – Vesting Conditions and Cancellations

The HKFRS 2 Amendments clarify that vesting conditions are service conditions and performance conditions only. Any other conditions are non-vesting conditions. Where an award does not vest as a result of a failure to meet a non-vesting condition that is within the control of either the entity or the counterparty, this is accounted for as a cancellation. As the Group has not entered into share-based payment schemes with non-vesting conditions attached, the amendments have had no impact on the financial position or results of operations of the Group.

(c) Amendments to HKFRS 7 *Financial Instruments: Disclosures – Improving Disclosures about Financial Instruments

The HKFRS 7 Amendments require additional disclosures about fair value measurement and liquidity risk. Fair value measurements related to items recorded at fair value are to be disclosed by sources of inputs using a three-level fair value hierarchy, by class, for all financial instruments recognised at fair value. In addition, a reconciliation between the beginning and ending balances is now required for level 3 fair value measurements, as well as significant transfers between levels in the fair value hierarchy. The amendments also clarify the requirements for liquidity risk disclosures with respect to derivative transactions and assets used for liquidity management. During the year ended 31 December 2009, there were no transfer of fair value measurements between Level 1 and Level 2 and no transfer into or out of Level 3.

(d) HKFRS 8 *Operating Segments

HKFRS 8, which replaces HKAS 14 Segment Reporting, specifies how an entity should report information about its operating segments, based on information about the components of the entity that is available to the chief operating decision maker for the purposes of allocating resources to the segments and assessing their performance. The standard also requires the disclosure of information about the products and services provided by the segments, the geographical areas in which the Group operates, and revenue from the Group's major customers. The Group concluded that the operating segments determined in accordance with HKFRS 8 are the same as the business segments previously identified under HKAS 14. These revised disclosures, including the related revised comparative information, are shown in note 4 to the financial statements.

(e) HKAS 1 (Revised) *Presentation of Financial Statements

HKAS 1 (Revised) introduces changes in the presentation and disclosures of financial statements. The revised standard separates owner and non-owner changes in equity. The statement of changes in equity includes only details of transactions with owners, with all non-owner changes in equity presented as a single line. In addition, this standard introduces the statement of comprehensive income, with all items of income and expense recognised in profit or loss, together with all other items of recognised income and expense recognised directly in equity, either in one single statement, or in two linked statements. The Group has elected to present one single statement.

2.2 CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICY AND DISCLOSURES (continued)

(f) Amendment to Appendix to HKAS 18 Revenue – Determining whether an entity is acting as a principal or as an agent

Guidance has been added to the appendix (which accompanies the standard) to determine whether the Group is acting as a principal or as an agent. The features to consider are whether the Group (i) has the primary responsibility for providing the goods or services, (ii) has inventory risk, (iii) has the discretion to establish prices and (iv) bears credit risk. The Group has assessed its revenue arrangements against these criteria and concluded that it is acting as a principal in all arrangements. The amendment has had no impact on the financial position or results of operations of the Group.

(g) HKAS 23 (Revised) Borrowing Costs

HKAS 23 has been revised to require capitalisation of borrowing costs when such costs are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset. As the Group's current policy for borrowing costs aligns with the requirements of the revised standard, the revised standard has had no impact on the financial position or results of operations of the Group.

(h) Amendments to HKAS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation and HKAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements – Puttable Financial Instruments and Obligations Arising on Liquidation

The HKAS 32 Amendments provide a limited scope exception for puttable financial instruments and instruments that impose specified obligations arising on liquidation to be classified as equity if they fulfil a number of specified features. The HKAS 1 Amendments require disclosure of certain information relating to these puttable financial instruments and obligations classified as equity. As the Group currently has no such financial instruments or obligations, the amendments have had no impact on the financial position or results of operations of the Group.

(i) Amendments to HK(IFRIC) – Int 9 Reassessment of Embedded Derivatives and HKAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement – Embedded Derivatives

The amendment to HK(IFRIC) – Int 9 requires an entity to assess whether an embedded derivative must be separated from a host contract when the entity reclassifies a hybrid financial asset out of the fair value through profit or loss category. This assessment is to be made based on circumstances that existed on the later of the date the entity first became a party to the contract and the date of any contract amendments that significantly change the cash flows of the contract. HKAS 39 has been revised to state that if an embedded derivative cannot be separately measured, the entire hybrid instrument must remain classified as fair value through profit or loss in its entirety. The adoption of the amendments has had no impact on the financial position or results of operations of the Group.

(j) HK(IFRIC) – Int 13 Customer Loyalty Programmes

HK(IFRIC) – Int 13 requires customer loyalty award credits to be accounted for as a separate component of the sales transaction in which they are granted. The consideration received in the sales transaction is allocated between the loyalty award credits and the other components of the sale. The amount allocated to the loyalty award credits is determined by reference to their fair value and is deferred until the awards are redeemed or the liability is otherwise extinguished. As the Group currently has no customer loyalty award scheme, the interpretation has had no impact on the financial position or results of operations of the Group.

(k) HK(IFRIC) – Int 15 Agreements for the Construction of Real Estate

HK(IFRIC) – Int 15 replaces HK Interpretation 3 Revenue – Pre-completion Contracts for the Sale of Development Properties. It clarifies when and how an agreement for the construction of real estate should be accounted for as a construction contract in accordance with HKAS 11 Construction Contracts or an agreement for the sale of goods or services in accordance with HKAS 18 Revenue. The interpretation has had no impact on the accounting for the Group's construction activities. As the Group currently is not involved in any construction of real estate, the interpretation has had no impact on the financial position or results of operations of the Group.

(l) HK(IFRIC) – Int 16 Hedges of a Net Investment in a Foreign Operation

HK(IFRIC) – Int 16 provides guidance on the accounting for a hedge of a net investment in a foreign operation. This includes clarification that (i) hedge accounting may be applied only to the foreign exchange differences arising between the functional currencies of the foreign operation and the parent entity; (ii) a hedging instrument may be held by any entities within a group; and (iii) on disposal of a foreign operation, the cumulative gain or loss relating to both the net investment and the hedging instrument that was determined to be an effective hedge should be reclassified to profit or loss as a reclassification adjustment. As the Group currently has no hedge of a net investment in a foreign operation, the interpretation has had no impact on the financial position or results of operations of the Group.

(m) HK(IFRIC) – Int 18 Transfers of Assets from Customers (adopted from 1 July 2009)

HK(IFRIC) – Int 18 provides guidance on accounting by recipients that receive from customers items of property, plant and equipment or cash for the acquisition or construction of such items, provided that these assets must then be used to connect customers to networks or to provide ongoing access to a supply of goods or services, or both. As the Group currently has no such transactions, the interpretation has had no impact on the financial position or results of operations of the Group.

(n) In October 2008, the HKICPA issued its first Improvements to HKFRSs which sets out amendments to a number of HKFRSs. Except for the amendments to HKFRS 5 Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations – Plan to sell the controlling interest in a subsidiary which are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 July 2009, the Group adopted all the amendments from 1 January 2009. While the adoption of some of the amendments results in changes in accounting policies, none of these amendments has had a significant financial impact on the Group. Details of the key amendments most applicable to the Group are as follows:

- HKFRS 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosures: Removes the reference to “total interest income” as a component of finance costs.
- HKAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements: Clarifies that assets and liabilities which are classified as held for trading in accordance with HKAS 39 are not automatically classified as current in the statement of financial position.
- HKAS 16 Property, Plant and Equipment: Replaces the term “net selling price” with “fair value less costs to sell” and the recoverable amount of property, plant and equipment is the higher of an asset’s fair value less costs to sell and its value in use.

In addition, items of property, plant and equipment held for rental that are routinely sold in the ordinary course of business after rental are transferred to inventories when rental ceases and they are held for sale.

- HKAS 20 Accounting for Government Grants and Disclosure of Government Assistance: Requires government loans granted in the future with no or at a below-market rate of interest to be recognised and measured in accordance with HKAS 39 and the benefit of the reduced interest to be accounted for as a government grant.
- HKAS 36 Impairment of Assets: When discounted cash flows are used to estimate “fair value less costs to sell”, additional disclosures (e.g., discount rate and growth rate used) are required which are consistent with the disclosures required when the discounted cash flows are used to estimate “value in use”.
- HKAS 38 Intangible Assets: Expenditure on advertising and promotional activities is recognised as an expense when the Group either has the right to access the goods or has received the service.

The reference to there being rarely, if ever, persuasive evidence to support an amortisation method for intangible assets other than the straight-line method has been removed. The Group has reassessed the useful lives of its intangible assets and concluded that the straight-line method is still appropriate.

2.3 ISSUED BUT NOT YET EFFECTIVE HONG KONG FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS (continued)

HKFRS 1 (Revised) was issued with an aim to improve the structure of the standard. The revised version of the standard does not make any changes to the substance of accounting by first-time adopters. As the Group is not a first-time adopter of HKFRSs, the amendments will not have any financial impact on the Group.

The HKFRS 1 Amendments provide relief from the full retrospective application of HKFRSs for the measurement of oil and gas assets and leases. As a result of extending the options for determining deemed cost to oil and gas assets, the existing exemption relating to decommissioning liabilities has also been revised. As the Group is not a first-time adopter of HKFRSs, the amendments will not have any financial impact on the Group.

HKFRS 1 has been amended to allow first-time adopters to utilise the transitional provisions in HKFRS 7 as they relate to the March 2009 amendments. In addition, the transitional provisions in IFRS 7 are amended to clarify that the disclosures required by the March 2009 amendments need not be provided for: 1) Annual or interim periods, including any statement of financial position, presented within an annual comparative period ending before 31 December 2009. 2) Any statement of financial position as at the beginning of the earliest comparative period as at a date before 31 December 2009. As the Group is not a first-time adopter of HKFRSs, the amendments are not applicable to the Group.

The HKFRS 2 Amendments provide guidance on how to account for cash-settled share-based payment transactions in the separate financial statements of the entity receiving the goods and services when the entity has no obligation to settle the share-based payment transactions. The amendments also incorporate guidance that was previously included in HK(IFRIC) – Int 8 Scope of HKFRS 2 and HK(IFRIC) – Int 11 HKFRS 2 – Group and Treasury Share Transactions. The Group expects to adopt the HKFRS 2 Amendments from 1 January 2010.

HKFRS 3 (Revised) introduces a number of changes in the accounting for business combinations that will impact the amount of goodwill recognised, the reported results in the period that an acquisition occurs, and future reported results.

HKAS 27 (Revised) requires that a change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary without loss of control is accounted for as an equity transaction. Therefore, such a change will have no impact on goodwill, nor will it give rise to a gain or loss. Furthermore, the revised standard changes the accounting for losses incurred by the subsidiary as well as the loss of control of a subsidiary. Other consequential amendments were made to HKAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows, HKAS 12 Income Taxes, HKAS 21 The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates, HKAS 28 Investments in Associates and HKAS 31 Interests in Joint Ventures.

The Group expects to adopt HKFRS 3 (Revised) and HKAS 27 (Revised) from 1 January 2010. The changes introduced by these revised standards must be applied prospectively and will affect the accounting of future acquisitions, loss of control and transactions with minority interests.

HKFRS 9 issued in November 2009 is the first part of phase 1 of a comprehensive project to entirely replace HKAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement. This phase focuses on the classification and measurement of financial assets. Instead of classifying financial assets into four categories, an entity shall classify financial assets as subsequently measured at either amortised cost or fair value, on the basis of both the entity's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial assets. This aims to improve and simplify the approach for the classification and measurement of financial assets compared with the requirements of HKAS 39.

Notes to Financial Statements

(Prepared under Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards)
31 December 2009

2.3 ISSUED BUT NOT YET EFFECTIVE HONG KONG FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS (continued)

HKAS 39 is aimed to be replaced by HKFRS 9 in its entirety by the end of 2010. The Group expects to adopt HKFRS 9 from 1 January 2013.

HKAS 24 (Revised) clarifies and simplifies the definition of related parties. It also provides for a partial exemption of related party disclosure to government-related entities for transactions with the same government or entities that are controlled, jointly controlled or significantly influenced by the same government. The Group expects to adopt HKAS 24 (Revised) from 1 January 2011 and the comparative related party disclosures will be amended accordingly.

The HKAS 32 Amendment revises the definition of financial liabilities such that rights, options or warrants issued to acquire a fixed number of the entity's own equity instruments for a fixed amount of any currency are equity instruments, provided that the entity offers the rights, options or warrants pro rata to all of its existing owners of the same class of its own non-derivative equity instruments. The Group expects to adopt the HKAS 32 Amendment from 1 January 2011. The amendment will not have any material financial impact on the Group.

The HKAS 39 Amendment addresses the designation of a one-sided risk in a hedged item, and the designation of inflation as a hedged risk or portion in particular situations. It clarifies that an entity is permitted to designate a portion of the fair value changes or cash flow variability of a financial instrument as a hedged item. As the Group has not entered into any such hedges, the amendment is unlikely to have any financial impact on the Group.

The HK(IFRIC) – Int 14 Amendments remove an unintended consequence arising from the treatment of prepayments of future contributions in certain circumstances when there is a minimum funding requirement. The amendments require an entity to treat the benefit of an early payment as a pension asset. The economic benefit available as a reduction in future contributions is thus equal to the sum of (i) the prepayment for future services and (ii) the estimated future services costs less the estimated minimum funding requirement contributions that would be required as if there were no prepayments. The Group expects to adopt the HK(IFRIC) – Int 14 Amendments from 1 January 2011. The amendments will not have any material financial impact on the Group.

HK(IFRIC) – Int 17 standardises practice in the accounting for non-reciprocal distributions of non-cash assets to owners. The Group expects to apply the interpretation from 1 January 2010 prospectively. The interpretation clarifies that (i) a dividend payable should be recognised when the dividend is appropriately authorised and is no longer at the discretion of the entity; (ii) an entity should measure the dividend payable at the fair value of the net assets to be distributed; and (iii) an entity should recognise the difference between the dividend paid and the carrying amount of the net assets distributed in profit or loss. Other consequential amendments were made to HKAS 10 Events after the Reporting Period and HKFRS 5 Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations. While the adoption of the interpretation may result in changes in certain accounting policies, the interpretation is unlikely to have any material financial impact on the Group.

HK(IFRIC) – Int 19 addresses the accounting by an entity when the terms of a financial liability are renegotiated and result in the entity issuing equity instruments to a creditor of the entity to extinguish all or part of the financial liability. The Group expects to adopt the interpretation from 1 January 2011. The interpretation clarifies that equity instruments issued to a creditor to extinguish a financial liability are consideration paid in accordance with HKAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement and the difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability extinguished, and the consideration paid, shall be recognised in profit or loss. The consideration paid should be measured based on the fair value of the equity instrument issued or, if the fair value of the equity instrument cannot be reliably measured, the fair value of the financial liability extinguished. As the Group has not undertaken such transactions, the interpretation is unlikely to have any material financial impact on the Group.

The amendments to HKFRS 5 clarify that all assets and liabilities of a subsidiary shall be classified as held for sale if an entity has a sale plan involving loss of control of the subsidiary, regardless of whether the entity will retain a non-controlling interest. The Group expects to adopt the amendments from 1 January 2010. The changes must be applied prospectively and will affect future sale transactions or plans involving loss of control of a subsidiary.

Improvements to HKFRSs 2009 issued in May 2009 sets out amendments to a number of HKFRSs. Except for the amendment to HKAS 18, the Group expects to adopt the amendments from 1 January 2010. There are separate transitional provisions for each standard. While the adoption of some of the amendments may result in changes in accounting policies, none of these amendments are expected to have a significant financial impact on the Group. Those amendments that are expected to have a significant impact on the Group are as follows:

- (a) HKFRS 2 Share-based Payment: Clarifies that a contribution of a business on the formation of a joint venture and combination of entities or businesses under common control is not within the scope of HKFRS 2 even though it is outside the scope of HKFRS 3.
- (b) HKFRS 5 Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations: Clarifies that (i) the disclosures required in respect of non-current assets classified as held for sale or a discontinued operation are those set out in HKFRS 5; (ii) the general requirements of HKAS 1 still apply (e.g., source of estimation uncertainty); and (iii) the disclosures in other HKFRSs are not required unless:
  - (i) those HKFRSs specifically require disclosures in respect of non-current assets classified as held for sale or discontinued operations; or
  - (ii) the disclosures relate to the measurement of assets or liabilities within a disposal group that are outside the scope of measurement requirements of HKFRS 5 and disclosures are not disclosed elsewhere in the financial statements.
- (c) HKFRS 8 Operating Segments: Clarifies that segment assets and liabilities need only to be reported when those assets and liabilities are included in measures that are used by the chief operating decision maker.
- (d) HKAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements: States that the terms of a liability that could result, at anytime, in its settlement by the issuance of equity instruments at the option of the counterparty do not affect its classification.
- (e) HKAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows: Requires that only expenditures that result in a recognised asset in the statement of financial position can be classified as a cash flow from investing activities.
- (f) HKAS 17 Leases: Removes the specific guidance on classifying land as a lease. As a result, leases of land should be classified as either operating or finance leases in accordance with the general guidance in HKAS 17.

HK Interpretation 4 Leases – Determination of the Length of Lease Term in respect of Hong Kong Land Leases is revised as a consequence of the amendment to HKAS 17 Leases included in Improvements to HKFRSs 2009. Following this amendment, the scope of HK Interpretation 4 has been expanded to cover all land leases, including those classified as finance leases. As a result, this Interpretation is applicable to all leases of property accounted for in accordance with HKAS 16, HKAS 17 and HKAS 40.

- (g) HKAS 36 Impairment of Assets: Clarifies that the largest unit permitted for allocating goodwill acquired in a business combination is the operating segment as defined in HKFRS 8 Operating Segments before aggregation for financial reporting purposes.
- (h) HKAS 38 Intangible Assets: Clarifies that (i) if an intangible asset acquired in a business combination is identifiable only with another intangible asset, the acquirer may recognise the group of assets as a single asset provided that the individual assets have similar useful lives; and (ii) the valuation techniques presented for determining the fair value of intangible assets acquired in a business combination that are not traded in active markets are only examples and are not restrictive on the methods that can be used.
- (i) HKAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement: Clarifies that (i) a prepayment option is considered closely related to the host contract when the exercise price of a prepayment option reimburses the lender up to the approximate present value of lost interest for the remaining term of the host contract; (ii) the scope exemption for contracts between an acquirer and a vendor in a business combination to buy or sell an acquiree at a future date, applies only to binding forward contracts, and not derivative contracts where further actions by either party are still to be taken; and (iii) gains or losses on cash flow hedges of a forecast transaction that subsequently results in the recognition of a financial instrument or on cash flow hedges of recognised financial instruments should be reclassified in the period that the hedged forecast cash flows affect profit or loss.
- (j) HK(IFRIC) – Int 9 Reassessment of Embedded Derivatives: Clarifies that it does not apply to possible reassessment, at the date of acquisition, to embedded derivatives in contracts acquired in a combination between entities or businesses under common control or the formation of a joint venture.
- (k) HK(IFRIC) – Int 16 Hedges of a Net Investment in a Foreign Operation: Removes the restriction of where the hedging instrument may be held in a hedge of a net investment in a foreign operation, qualifying hedging instruments may be held by any entity or entities within the Group, including the foreign operation itself, as long as the designation, documentation and effectiveness requirements of HKAS 39 that relate to a net investment hedge are satisfied.

2.4 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an entity whose financial and operating policies the Company controls, directly or indirectly, so as to obtain benefits from its activities.

The results of subsidiaries are included in the Company's profit or loss to the extent of dividends received and receivable. The Company's interests in subsidiaries are stated at cost less any impairment losses.

Joint ventures

A joint venture is an entity set up by contractual arrangement, whereby the Group and other parties undertake an economic activity. The joint venture company operates as a separate entity in which the Group and the other parties have an interest.

The joint venture agreement between the venturers stipulates the capital contributions of the joint venture parties, the duration of the joint venture and the basis on which the assets are to be realised upon its dissolution. The profits and losses from the joint venture's operations and any distributions of surplus assets are shared by the venturers, either in proportion to their respective capital contributions, or in accordance with the terms of the joint venture agreement.

A joint venture is treated as:

- (a) a subsidiary, if the Group/Company has unilateral control, directly or indirectly, over the joint venture;
- (b) a jointly-controlled entity, if the Group/Company does not have unilateral control, but has joint control, directly or indirectly, over the joint venture;
- (c) an associate, if the Group/Company does not have unilateral or joint control, but holds, directly or indirectly, generally not less than 20% of the joint venture's registered capital and is in a position to exercise significant influence over the joint venture; or
- (d) an equity investment accounted for in accordance with HKAS 39, if the Group/Company holds, directly or indirectly, less than 20% of the joint venture's registered capital and has neither joint control of, nor is in a position to exercise significant influence over, the joint venture.

Jointly-controlled entities

A jointly-controlled entity is a joint venture that is subject to joint control, resulting in none of the participating parties having unilateral control over the economic activity of the jointly-controlled entity.

The Group's interests in jointly-controlled entities are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at the Group's share of net assets under the equity method of accounting, less any impairment losses. The Group's share of the post-acquisition results and reserves of jointly-controlled entities is included in the consolidated profit or loss and consolidated reserves, respectively. Unrealised gains and losses resulting from transaction between the Group and its jointly-controlled entities are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interests in the jointly-controlled entities, except where unrealised losses provide evidence of impairment of the asset transferred.

The results of jointly-controlled entities are included in the Company's profit or loss to the extent of dividends received and receivable. The Company's investments in jointly-controlled entities are treated as non-current assets and are stated at cost less any impairment losses.

Associates

An associate is an entity, not being a subsidiary or a jointly-controlled entity, in which the Group has a long-term interest of generally not less than 20% of the equity voting rights and over which it is in a position to exercise significant influence.

The Group's interests in associates are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at the Group's share of net assets under the equity method of accounting, less any impairment losses. The Group's share of the post-acquisition results and reserves of associates is included in the consolidated profit or loss and consolidated reserves, respectively. Unrealised gains and losses resulting from transaction between the Group and its associates are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interests in the associates, except where unrealised losses provide evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred.

The results of associates are included in the Company's statement of comprehensive income to the extent of dividends received and receivable. The Company's investments in associates are treated as non-current assets and are stated at cost less any impairment losses.

Impairment of non-financial assets other than goodwill

Where an indication of impairment exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required (other than inventories, construction contract assets, deferred tax assets and financial assets), the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of the asset's or cash-generating unit's value in use and its fair value less costs to sell, and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets, in which case the recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

An impairment loss is recognised only if the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. An impairment loss is charged to profit or loss in the period in which it arises in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset.

An assessment is made at the end of each reporting period as to whether there is any indication that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such an indication exists, the recoverable amount is estimated. A previously recognised impairment loss of an asset other than goodwill is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount of that asset, but not to an amount higher than the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any depreciation/amortisation) had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. A reversal of such an impairment loss is credited to profit or loss in the period in which it arises.

Related parties

A party is considered to be related to the Group if:

- (a) the party, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, (i) controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the Group; (ii) has an interest in the Group that gives it significant influence over the Group; or (iii) has joint control over the Group;
- (b) the party is an associate;
- (c) the party is a jointly-controlled entity;
- (d) the party is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or its parent;
- (e) the party is a close member of the family of any individual referred to in (a) or (d);
- (f) the party is an entity that is controlled, jointly controlled or significantly influenced by or for which significant voting power in such entity resides with, directly or indirectly, any individual referred to in (d) or (e); or
- (g) the party is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of the employees of the Group, or of any entity that is a related party of the Group.

Property, plant and equipment and depreciation

Property, plant and equipment, other than construction in progress, are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses. When an item of property, plant and equipment is classified as held for sale or when it is part of a disposal group classified as held for sale, it is not depreciated and is accounted for in accordance with HKFRS 5. The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use. Expenditure incurred after items of property, plant and equipment have been put into operation, such as repairs and maintenance, is normally charged to profit or loss in the period in which it is incurred. In situations where the recognition criteria are satisfied, the expenditure for a major inspection is capitalised in the carrying amount of the asset as a replacement. Where significant parts of property, plant and equipment are required to be replaced at intervals, the Group recognises such parts as individual assets with specific useful lives and depreciation.

Depreciation is calculated on the straight-line basis to write off the cost of each item of property, plant and equipment to its residual value over its estimated useful life. The principal annual rates used for this purpose are as follows:

Buildings	30 years
Leasehold improvements	Over the shorter of the lease terms and 10 years
Machinery, computers and office equipment	5 to 10 years
Motor vehicles	5 to 10 years

Where parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, the cost of that item is allocated on a reasonable basis among the parts and each part is depreciated separately.

Residual values, useful lives and the depreciation method are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at least at each financial year end.

An item of property, plant and equipment and any significant part initially recognised is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss on disposal or retirement recognised in profit or loss in the year the asset is derecognised is the difference between the net sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the relevant asset.

Construction in progress represents buildings, plant and machinery and other fixed assets under construction or installation, which is stated at cost less any impairment losses, and is not depreciated. Cost comprises the direct costs of construction and installation during the period of construction. Construction in progress is reclassified to the appropriate category of property, plant and equipment when completed and ready for use.

Intangible assets (other than goodwill)

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. The cost of intangible assets acquired in a business combination is the fair value as at the date of acquisition. The useful lives of intangible assets are assessed to be either finite or indefinite. Intangible assets with finite lives are subsequently amortised over the useful economic life and assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired. The amortisation period and the amortisation method for an intangible asset with a finite useful life are reviewed at least at each financial year end.

Technology know-how

Purchased technology know-how is stated at cost, less any impairment losses, and is amortised on the straight-line basis over its estimated useful life of not more than 10 years.

Computer software

Purchased computer software is stated at cost less any impairment losses and is amortised on the straight-line basis over its estimated useful life of 5 years.

Operating concession

Operating concession represents the right to operate a telecommunications operator, and is stated at cost less accumulated amortisation and any impairment losses. Amortisation is provided on the straight-line basis over 20 years, being the period that the operating concession granted to the Group.

Research and development costs

All research costs are charged to profit or loss as incurred.

Expenditure incurred on projects to develop new products is capitalised and deferred only when the Group can demonstrate the technical feasibility of completing the intangible asset so that it will be available for use or sale, its intention to complete and its ability to use or sell the asset, how the asset will generate future economic benefits, the availability of resources to complete the project and the ability to measure reliably the expenditure during the development. Product development expenditure which does not meet these criteria is expensed when incurred.

Deferred development costs are stated at cost less any impairment losses and are amortised using the straight-line basis over the commercial lives of the underlying products not exceeding five years, commencing from the date when the products are put into commercial production.

Leases

Leases that transfer substantially all the rewards and risks of ownership of assets to the Group, other than legal title, are accounted for as finance leases. At the inception of a finance lease, the cost of the leased asset is capitalised at the present value of the minimum lease payments and recorded together with the obligation, excluding the interest element, to reflect the purchase and financing. Assets held under capitalised finance leases are included in property, plant and equipment, and depreciated over the shorter of the lease terms and the estimated useful lives of the assets. The finance costs of such leases are charged to profit or loss so as to provide a constant periodic rate of charge over the lease terms.

Leases (continued)

Leases where substantially all the rewards and risks of ownership of assets remain with the lessor are accounted for as operating leases. Where the Group is the lessor, assets leased by the Group under operating leases are included in non-current assets, and rentals receivable under the operating leases are credited to profit or loss on the straight-line basis over the lease terms. Where the Group is the lessee, rentals payable under operating leases are charged to profit or loss on the straight-line basis over the lease terms.

Prepaid land lease payments under operating leases are initially stated at cost and subsequently recognised on the straight-line basis over the lease terms.

Investments and other financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets within the scope of HKAS 39 are classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, loans and receivables, and available-for-sale financial assets, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate. The Group determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition. When financial assets are recognised initially, they are measured at fair value, plus, in the case of investments not at fair value through profit or loss, directly attributable transaction costs.

All regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on the trade date, that is, the date that the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the period generally established by regulation or convention in the marketplace.

The Group's financial assets include available-for-sale investments, trade and bills receivables, long-term trade receivables, factored trade receivables, pledged deposits, cash and cash equivalents, deposits and other receivables, due from related companies.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification as follows:

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss include financial assets held for trading and financial assets designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss. Financial assets are classified as held for trading if they are acquired for the purpose of sale in the near term. This category includes derivative financial instruments entered into by the Group that are not designated as hedging instruments in hedge relationships as defined by HKAS 39. Derivatives, including separated embedded derivatives, are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments. Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are carried in the statement of financial position at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss. These net fair value changes do not include any dividends on these financial assets, which are recognised in accordance with the policies set out for "Revenue recognition" below.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (continued)

The Group evaluates its financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (held for trading) to assess whether the intent to sell them in the near term is still appropriate. When the Group is unable to trade these financial assets due to inactive markets and management's intent to sell them in the foreseeable future significantly changes, the Group may elect to reclassify these financial assets in rare circumstances. The reclassification from financial assets at fair value through profit or loss to loans and receivables, available-for-sale financial assets or held-to-maturity investments depends on the nature of the assets.

Derivatives embedded in host contracts are accounted for as separate derivatives and recorded at fair value if their economic characteristics and risks are not closely related to those of the host contracts and the host contracts are not held for trading or designated at fair value through profit or loss. These embedded derivatives are measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss. Reassessment only occurs if there is a change in the terms of the contract that significantly modifies the cash flows that would otherwise be required.

Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. After initial measurement, such assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method less any allowance for impairment. Amortised cost is calculated taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and includes fees or costs that are an integral part of the effective interest rate. The effective interest rate amortisation is included in finance income in the statement of comprehensive income. The loss arising from impairment is recognised in the statement of comprehensive income in other expenses.

Available-for-sale financial investments

Available-for-sale financial investments are non-derivative financial assets in unlisted equity securities. Equity investments classified as available for sale are those which are neither classified as held for trading nor designated at fair value through profit or loss.

When the fair value of unlisted equity securities cannot be reliably measured because (a) the variability in the range of reasonable fair value estimates is significant for that investment or (b) the probabilities of the various estimates within the range cannot be reasonably assessed and used in estimating fair value, such securities are stated at cost less any impairment losses.

The Group evaluates its available-for-sale financial assets whether the ability and intention to sell them in the near term are still appropriate. When the Group is unable to trade these financial assets due to inactive markets and management's intent to do so significantly changes in the foreseeable future, the Group may elect to reclassify these financial assets in rare circumstances. Reclassification to loans and receivables is permitted when the financial assets meet the definition of loans and receivables and the Group has the intent and ability to hold these assets for the foreseeable future or to maturity. The reclassification to the held-to-maturity category is permitted only when the entity has the ability and intent to hold until the maturity date of the financial asset.

For a financial asset reclassified out of the available-for-sale category, any previous gain or loss on that asset that has been recognised in equity is amortised to profit or loss over the remaining life of the investment using the effective interest rate. Any difference between the new amortised cost and the expected cash flows is also amortised over the remaining life of the asset using the effective interest rate. If the asset is subsequently determined to be impaired, then the amount recorded in equity is reclassified to profit or loss.

Derecognition of financial assets

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is derecognised when:

- the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired;
- the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a “pass-through” arrangement; and either (a) the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, and has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset nor transferred control of the asset, the asset is recognised to the extent of the Group’s continuing involvement in the asset. In that case, the Group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Group could be required to repay.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is any objective evidence that a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired. A financial asset or a group of financial assets is deemed to be impaired if, and only if, there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more events that has occurred after the initial recognition of the asset (an incurred “loss event”) and that loss event has an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset or the group of financial assets that can be reliably estimated. Evidence of impairment may include indications that a debtor or a group of debtors is experiencing significant financial difficulty, default or delinquency in interest or principal payments, the probability that they will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation and observable data indicating that there is a measurable decrease in the estimated future cash flows, such as changes in arrears or economic conditions that correlate with defaults.

Financial assets carried at amortised cost

For financial assets carried at amortised cost, the Group first assesses individually whether objective evidence of impairment exists for financial assets that are individually significant, or collectively for financial assets that are not individually significant. If the Group determines that no objective evidence of impairment exists for an individually assessed financial asset, whether significant or not, it includes the asset in a group of financial assets with similar credit risk characteristics and collectively assesses them for impairment. Assets that are individually assessed for impairment and for which an impairment loss is, or continues to be, recognised are not included in a collective assessment of impairment.

Notes to Financial Statements

(Prepared under Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards)

If there is objective evidence that an impairment loss has been incurred, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows (excluding future credit losses that have not yet been incurred). The present value of the estimated future cash flows is discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate (i.e., the effective interest rate computed at initial recognition). If a loan has a variable interest rate, the discount rate for measuring any impairment loss is the current effective interest rate.

The carrying amount of the asset is reduced through the use of an allowance account and the amount of the loss is recognised in profit or loss. Interest income continues to be accrued on the reduced carrying amount and is accrued using the rate of interest used to discount the future cash flows for the purpose of measuring the impairment loss. Loans and receivables together with any associated allowance are written off when there is no realistic prospect of future recovery.

If, in a subsequent period, the amount of the estimated impairment loss increases or decreases because of an event occurring after the impairment was recognised, the previously recognised impairment loss is increased or reduced by adjusting the allowance account. If a future write-off is later recovered, the recovery is credited to profit or loss.

Assets carried at cost

If there is objective evidence that an impairment loss has been incurred on an unquoted equity instrument that is not carried at fair value because its fair value cannot be reliably measured, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the current market rate of return for a similar financial asset. Impairment losses on these assets are not reversed.

Available-for-sale financial investments

For available-for-sale financial investments, the Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is objective evidence that an investment or a group of investments is impaired.

If an available-for-sale asset is impaired, an amount comprising the difference between its cost (net of any principal payment and amortisation) and its current fair value, less any impairment loss previously recognised in profit or loss, is removed from other comprehensive income and recognised in profit or loss.

In the case of equity investments classified as available for sale, objective evidence would include a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of an investment below its cost. The determination of what is "significant" or "prolonged" requires judgement. "Significant" is evaluated against the original cost of the investment and "prolonged" against the period in which the fair value has been below its original cost. Where there is evidence of impairment, the cumulative loss — measured as the difference between the acquisition cost and the current fair value, less any impairment loss on that investment previously recognised in profit or loss — is removed from other comprehensive income and recognised in profit or loss. Impairment losses on equity instruments classified as available for sale are not reversed through profit or loss. Increases in their fair value after impairment are recognised directly in other comprehensive income.

Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities within the scope of HKAS 39 are classified as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, loans, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate. The Group determines the classification of its financial liabilities at initial recognition.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and in the case of loans and borrowings, plus directly attributable transaction costs.

The Group's financial liabilities include trade and other payables, trade and bills payable, bank advances on factored trade receivables, interest-bearing bank borrowings, financial guarantee contract, bond cum warrants, receipt in advance, other payables, factoring costs payable, due to the controlling shareholder and due to related companies.

Subsequent measurement

The measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification as follows:

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss includes financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss.

Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if they are acquired for the purpose of selling in the near term. This category includes derivative financial instruments entered into by the Group that are not designated as hedging instruments in hedge relationships as defined by HKAS 39. Separated embedded derivatives, are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments. Gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognised in profit or loss. The net fair value gain or loss recognised in profit or loss does not include any interest charged on these financial liabilities.

Loans and borrowings

After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at cost. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the effective interest rate method amortisation process.

Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the effective interest rate. The effective interest rate amortisation is included in finance costs in the statement of comprehensive income.

Financial guarantee contracts

Financial guarantee contracts issued by the Group are those contracts that require a payment to be made to reimburse the holder for a loss it incurs because the specified debtor fails to make a payment when due in accordance with the terms of a debt instrument. A financial guarantee contract is recognised initially as a liability at its fair value, adjusted for transaction costs that are directly attributable to the issuance of the guarantee. Subsequent to initial recognition, the Group measures the financial guarantee contract at the higher of: (i) the amount of the best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period; and (ii) the amount initially recognised less, when appropriate, cumulative amortisation.

(Prepared under Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards)

Bonds cum warrants

The component of bonds cum warrants that exhibits characteristics of a liability is recognised as a liability in the statement of financial position, net of transaction costs. On issuance of bonds cum warrants, the fair value of the liability component is determined using a market rate for an equivalent bond without the detachable share purchase warrants; and this amount is carried as a long term liability on the amortised cost basis until extinguished on conversion or redemption. The remainder of the proceeds is allocated to the detachable share purchase warrants that is recognised and included in shareholders' equity, net of transaction costs. The carrying amount of the detachable share purchase warrants is not remeasured in subsequent years. Transaction costs are apportioned between the liability and equity components of the bonds cum warrants based on the allocation of proceeds to the liability and equity components when the instruments are first recognised.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled, or expires.

When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and a recognition of a new liability, and the difference between the respective carrying amounts is recognised in profit or loss.

Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the statement of financial position if, and only if, there is currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Fair value of financial instruments

The fair value of financial instruments that are traded in active markets is determined by reference to quoted market prices or dealer price quotations (bid price for long positions and ask price for short positions), without any deduction for transaction costs. For financial instruments where there is no active market, the fair value is determined using appropriate valuation techniques. Such techniques include using recent arm's length market transactions; reference to the current market value of another instrument which is substantially the same; a discounted cash flow analysis; and option pricing models or other pricing models.

Derivative financial instruments

The Group uses derivative financial instruments such as forward currency contracts to hedge its foreign currency risk. Such derivative financial instruments are initially recognised at fair value on the date on which a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured at fair value. Derivatives are carried as assets when the fair value is positive and as liabilities when the fair value is negative.

Any gains or losses arising from changes in fair value of derivatives are taken directly to profit or loss, except for the effective portion of cash flow hedges, which is recognised in other comprehensive income.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined on the weighted average basis and, in the case of work in progress and finished goods, comprises direct materials, direct labour, an appropriate proportion of overheads and/or subcontracting fees. Net realisable value is based on estimated selling prices less any estimated costs to be incurred to completion and disposal.

Construction contracts

Contract revenue comprises the agreed contract amount and appropriate amounts from variation orders, claims and incentive payments in respect of telecommunications systems contracts. Contract costs incurred comprise direct materials, the costs of subcontracting, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of variable and fixed construction overheads.

Revenue from fixed price telecommunications system contracts is recognised using the percentage of completion method when the contract activities have progressed to a stage where an economic benefit can be reasonably foreseen and is measured by reference to the proportion of costs incurred to date to the estimated total cost of the relevant contract.

Provision is made for foreseeable losses as soon as they are anticipated by management.

Where contract costs incurred to date plus recognised profits less recognised losses exceed progress billings, the surplus is treated as an amount due from customers for contract works.

Where progress billings exceed contract costs incurred to date plus recognised profits less recognised losses, the surplus is treated as an amount due to customers for contract works.

Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and demand deposits, and short-term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash, are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, and have a short maturity of generally within three months when acquired.

For the purpose of the statement of financial position, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and at banks, including term deposits, which are not restricted as to use.

Provisions

A provision is recognised when a present obligation (legal or constructive) has arisen as a result of a past event and it is probable that a future outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, provided that a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

When the effect of discounting is material, the amount recognised for a provision is the present value at the end of the reporting period of the future expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation. The increase in the discounted present value amount arising from the passage of time is included in finance costs in the statement of comprehensive income.

Provisions for warranties granted by the Group on handsets are recognised based on sales volume and past experience of the level of repairs and returns.

Income tax

Income tax comprises current and deferred tax. Income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period, taking into consideration interpretations and practices prevailing in the countries in which the Group operates.

Deferred tax is provided, using the liability method, on all temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- where the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and interests in joint ventures, where the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, carryforward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses, to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carryforward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised, except:

- where the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary differences arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and interests in joint ventures, deferred tax assets are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at the end of each reporting period and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the deferred taxes relate to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

Government grants

The Group received government grants primarily for the Group's contribution and commitment on research and development activities.

Government grants are recognised at their fair value where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attaching conditions will be complied with. When the grant relates to an expense item, it is recognised as income over the periods necessary to match the grant on a systematic basis to the costs that it is intended to compensate. Where the grant relates to an asset, the fair value is credited to other payables or other long-term payable accounts and is released to profit or loss over the expected useful life of the relevant asset by equal annual installments.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognised when it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and when the revenue can be measured reliably, on the following bases:

- (a) income from the sale of goods, when the significant risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to the buyer, provided that the Group maintains neither managerial involvement to the degree usually associated with ownership, nor effective control over the goods sold;
- (b) income from the telecommunications system contracts, on the percentage of completion basis, as further explained in the accounting policy for "Construction contracts" above;
- (c) income from the rendering of services, when services are rendered;
- (d) interest income, on an accrual basis using the effective interest method by applying the rate that discounts the estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial instrument to the net carrying amount of the financial asset;
- (e) dividend income, when the shareholders' right to receive payment has been established; and
- (f) for contracts involving multiple deliverables, where the deliverables are governed by more than one authoritative accounting standard, the Group generally evaluates each deliverable to determine whether it represents a separate unit of accounting based on the following criteria: (i) whether the delivered item has value to the customer on a stand-alone basis, (ii) whether there is objective and reliable evidence of the fair value of the undelivered item(s), and (iii) whether the contract that includes a general right of return relative to the delivered item, delivery or performance of the undelivered item(s) is considered probable and substantially in the control of the Group. If objective and reliable evidence of fair value exists for all units of accounting in the arrangement, revenue is allocated to each unit of accounting or element based on relative fair values. In situations where there is objective and reliable evidence of fair value for all undelivered elements, but not for delivered elements, the residual method is used to allocate the contract consideration. Under the residual method, the amount of revenue allocated to delivered elements equals the total arrangement consideration less the aggregate fair value of any undelivered elements. Each unit of accounting is then accounted for under the applicable revenue recognition guidance. So long as elements otherwise governed by separate authoritative accounting standards cannot be treated as separate units of accounting, the elements are combined into a single unit of accounting for revenue recognition purposes. In this case, revenue allocated to the unit of accounting is deferred until all combined elements have been delivered or, once there is only one remaining element to be delivered, based on the revenue recognition guidance applicable to the last delivered element within the unit of accounting.

Defined contribution pension schemes

The Company and certain of its subsidiaries established in the PRC have joined a number of defined contribution pension schemes organised by the relevant provincial and municipal social insurance management bodies of the PRC government for those employees who are eligible to participate in the schemes. The Company, these subsidiaries and the employees are required to make monthly contributions to these plans calculated as a percentage of the employees' salaries during the year. The contributions payable are charged as an expense to the statement of comprehensive income as incurred. The assets of the schemes are held separately from those of the Group in independently administered funds.

Defined benefit pension scheme

In addition, the Group provides certain employees, who joined the Group before 1 January 2002, with post-retirement monthly pension payments. The cost of providing these benefits under the Group's defined benefit pension scheme is actuarially determined and recognised over the employees' service period by using the projected unit credit method. The Group makes monthly pension payments to eligible retirees and no contribution has been made to fund future obligations since the commencement of the defined benefit pension scheme. Therefore, there are no assets in respect of this scheme held separately from those of the Group in independently administered funds and no actuarial valuation for the plan assets has been conducted.

Actuarial gains and losses are recognised as income or expense when the net cumulative unrecognised actuarial gains and losses for the plan at the end of the previous period exceeded 10% of the defined benefit obligation at that date. These gains or losses are recognised over the expected average remaining service periods of the employees participating in the plan.

Past service costs are recognised as an expense on the straight-line basis over the average period until the benefits become vested. If the benefits are already vested immediately following the introduction of, or changes to, the pension scheme, past service costs are recognised immediately.

The defined benefit liability comprises the present value of the defined benefit obligation less past service costs not yet recognised. The value of any defined benefit asset recognised is restricted to the sum of any past service costs not yet recognised and the present value of any economic benefits available in the form of refunds from the scheme or reductions in the future contributions to the plan.

Share-based payment transactions

The Company operates a Share Incentive Scheme for the purpose of providing incentives and rewards to eligible participants who contribute to the success of the operations of the Group. Employees (including directors) of the Group receive remuneration in the form of share-based payment transactions, whereby employees render services as consideration for equity instruments ("equity-settled transactions").

The cost of equity-settled transactions with employees for grants after 7 November 2002 is measured by reference to the fair value at the date at which they are granted. The fair value is determined by an external valuer using an appropriate pricing model, further details of which are given in note 38.

The cost of equity-settled transactions is recognised, together with a corresponding increase in equity, over the period in which the performance and/or service conditions are fulfilled. The cumulative expense recognised for equity-settled transactions at the end of each reporting period until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Group's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest. The charge or credit to profit or loss for a period represents the movement in cumulative expense recognised as at the beginning and end of that period.

(Prepared under Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards)

No expense is recognised for awards that do not ultimately vest, except for equity-settled transactions where vesting is conditional upon a market or non-vesting condition, which are treated as vesting irrespective of whether or not the market or non-vesting condition is satisfied, provided that all other performance and/or service conditions are satisfied.

Where the terms of an equity-settled award are modified, as a minimum an expense is recognised as if the terms had not been modified, if the original terms of the award are met. In addition, an expense is recognised for any modification, that increases the total fair value of the share-based payment transaction, or is otherwise beneficial to the employee as measured at the date of modification.

Where an equity-settled award is cancelled, it is treated as if it had vested on the date of cancellation, and any expense not yet recognised for the award is recognised immediately. This includes any award where non-vesting conditions within the control of either the Group or the employee are not met. However, if a new award is substituted for the cancelled award, and designated as a replacement award on the date that it is granted, the cancelled and new awards are treated as if they were a modification of the original award, as described in the previous paragraph. All cancellations of equity-settled transaction awards are treated equally.

The dilutive effect of outstanding Subject Shares is reflected as additional share dilution in the computation of earnings per share.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction of qualifying assets, i.e., assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are capitalised as part of the cost of those assets. The capitalisation of such borrowing costs ceases when the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing cost capitalised. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that the Group incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

Dividends

Final dividends proposed by the directors are classified as a separate allocation of retained profits within the equity section of the statement of financial position, until they have been approved by the shareholders in a general meeting. When these dividends have been approved by the shareholders and declared, they are recognised as a liability.

Foreign currencies

These financial statements are presented in Renminbi, which is the Company's functional and presentation currency. Each entity in the Group determines its own functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency. Foreign currency transactions recorded by the entities in the Group are initially recorded using their respective functional currency rates ruling at the dates of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the functional currency rates of exchange ruling at the end of the reporting period. All differences are taken to profit or loss. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was determined.

The functional currencies of certain overseas subsidiaries are currencies other than the Renminbi. As at the end of the reporting period, the assets and liabilities of these entities are translated into the presentation currency of the Company at the exchange rates ruling at the end of the reporting period and their income and expenses are translated into Renminbi at the weighted average exchange rates for the year. The resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the exchange fluctuation reserve. On disposal of a foreign operation, the component of other comprehensive income relating to that particular foreign operation is recognised in profit or loss.

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of cash flows, the cash flows of overseas subsidiaries are translated into Renminbi at the exchange rates ruling at the dates of the cash flows. Frequently recurring cash flows of overseas subsidiaries which arise throughout the year are translated into Renminbi at the weighted average exchange rates for the year.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES

The preparation of the Group's financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities, at the end of the reporting period. However, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that could require a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of the assets or liabilities affected in the future.

Judgements

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgements, apart from those involving estimations, which have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements:

Revenue recognition

The Group's material revenue streams are the result of a wide range of activities, from custom design and installation over a period of time to a single delivery of equipment to a customer. The Group's networking solutions also cover a broad range of technologies and are offered on a global basis. As a result, the Group's revenue recognition policies can differ depending on the level of customisation within the solution and the contractual terms with the customer. Newer technologies within one of the Group's reporting segments may also have different revenue recognition policies, depending on, among other factors, the specific performance and acceptance criteria within the applicable contracts. Therefore, management must use significant judgement in determining how to apply the current accounting standards and interpretations, not only based on the networking solutions, but also within networking solutions based on reviewing the level of customisation and contractual terms with the customer. As a result, the Group's revenues may fluctuate from period to period based on the mix of solutions sold and the geographic regions in which they are sold.

When a customer arrangement involves multiple deliverables which are governed by more than one authoritative standard, the Group evaluates all deliverables to determine whether they represent separate units of accounting based on the following criteria:

- whether the delivered item has value to the customer on a stand-alone basis;
- whether there is objective and reliable evidence of the fair value of the undelivered item(s); and

Notes to Financial Statements

(Prepared under Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards)

- whether the contract that includes a general right of return relative to the delivered item, delivery or performance of the undelivered item(s) is considered probable and is substantially in the Group's control.

The Group's determination of whether deliverables within a multiple element arrangement can be treated separately for revenue recognition purposes involves significant estimates and judgements, such as whether fair value can be established on undelivered obligations and/or whether delivered elements have stand-alone value to the customer. Changes to the Group's assessment of the accounting units in an arrangement and/or its ability to establish fair values could significantly change the timing of revenue recognition.

If objective and reliable evidence of fair value exists for all units of accounting in the contract, revenue is allocated to each unit of accounting or element based on relative fair values. In situations where there is objective and reliable evidence of fair value for all undelivered elements, but not for delivered elements, the residual method is used to allocate the contract consideration. Under the residual method, the amount of revenue allocated to delivered elements equals the total arrangement consideration less the aggregate fair value of any undelivered elements. Each unit of accounting is then accounted for under the applicable revenue recognition guidance. If sufficient evidence of fair value cannot be established for an undelivered element, revenue related to delivered elements is deferred until the earlier of the time when sufficient fair value is established and when all remaining elements have been delivered. Once there is only one remaining element to be delivered within the unit of accounting, the deferred revenue is recognised based on the revenue recognition guidance applicable to the last delivered element. For instance, where post-contract support is the last delivered element within the unit of accounting, the deferred revenue is recognised ratably over the term of the remaining post-contract support term once post-contract support is the only undelivered element.

The Group's assessment of which revenue recognition guidance is appropriate for accounting for a deliverable also involves significant judgement. For instance, the determination of whether software is more than incidental to hardware can impact on whether the hardware is accounted for based on software revenue recognition guidance or based on general revenue recognition guidance. This assessment could significantly impact the amount and timing of revenue recognition.

For elements related to customised network solutions and certain network build-outs, revenues are recognised under the HKAS 11 Construction Contracts, generally using the percentage of completion method. In using the percentage of completion method, revenues are generally recorded based on a measure of the percentage of costs incurred to date on a contract relative to the estimated total expected contract costs. Profit estimates on long-term contracts are revised periodically based on changes in circumstances and any losses on contracts are recognised in the period that such losses become known. Generally, the terms of long-term contracts that provide for progress billing are based on completion of certain phases of work. Contract revenues recognised, based on costs incurred towards the completion of the project that are unbilled, are accumulated in the contracts in progress account included in the amount due from customers for contract works. Billings in excess of revenues recognised to date on long-term contracts are recorded as advance billings in excess of revenues recognised to date on contracts within the amount due to customers for contract works. Significant judgement is often required when estimating total contract costs and progress to completion on these arrangements, as well as whether a loss is expected to be incurred on the contracts. Management uses historical experience, project plans and an assessment of the risks and uncertainties inherent in the arrangements to establish these judgements. Uncertainties include implementation delays or performance issues that may or may not be within the control of the Group. Changes in these estimates could result in a material impact on revenues and net earnings.

Notes to Financial Statements

(Prepared under Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards)

Revenue for hardware that does not require significant customisation, and where any software is considered incidental, is recognised under HKAS 18 Revenue, where revenue is recognised provided that persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, delivery has occurred or services have been rendered, the fee is fixed or determinable and collectability is reasonably assured.

For hardware, delivery is considered to have occurred upon shipment provided that the risk of loss, and the title in certain jurisdictions have been transferred to the customer. For arrangements where the criteria for revenue recognition have not been met because the legal title or risk of loss on products has not been transferred to the buyer until final payment had been received or where delivery had not occurred, revenue is deferred to a later period when the title or risk of loss passes either on delivery or on receipt of payment from the customer.

For further information on the Group's revenue recognition policies relating to the Group's material revenue streams, please refer to note 2.4 to these consolidated financial statements.

Derecognition of financial assets

When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, and has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset nor transferred control of the asset, the asset is recognised to the extent of the Group's continuing involvement in the asset. Significant judgement is often required when the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset nor transferred control of the asset, and estimates the extent of the Group's continuing involvement in the asset.

Estimation uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are discussed below.

Impairment of intangible assets and property, plant and equipment

The Group determines whether intangible assets and property, plant and equipment are impaired when there is an indication of impairment. This requires an estimation of the value in use of the cash-generating units to which the intangible assets and property, plant and equipment were allocated. Estimating the value in use requires the Group to make an estimate of the expected future cash flows from the cash-generating unit and also to choose a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value of those cash flows. The carrying amount of property, plant and equipment as at 31 December 2009 was approximately RMB6,057,574,000 (2008: RMB4,892,515,000). The carrying amount of intangible assets as at 31 December 2009 was RMB877,397,000 (2008: RMB592,974,000). More details are set out in notes 15 and 17.

Management carries out impairment review on intangible assets and property, plant and equipment by comparing the lower of their carrying amounts and their recoverable amounts respectively.

An impairment loss is recognised when the carrying amount of an item of intangible assets or property, plant and equipment exceeds the recoverable amount. An impairment loss is charged to profit or loss in the period in which it arises. Management assesses the recoverable amount by the higher of the fair value less costs to sell and the value in use of the item of intangible assets or property, plant and equipment.

Notes to Financial Statements

(Prepared under Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards)

Impairment of trade receivables

The carrying amount of trade receivables as at 31 December 2009 was approximately RMB16,482,076,000 (2008: RMB12,162,976,000).

In determining whether there is objective evidence of an impairment loss, the Group takes into consideration the estimation of future cash flows. The amount of the impairment loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows (excluding future credit losses that have not been incurred) discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate (i.e., the effective interest rate computed at initial recognition). Where the actual future cash flows are less than expected, a material impairment loss may arise.

Depreciation of property, plant and equipment

The Group's carrying amount of property, plant and equipment as at 31 December 2009 was approximately RMB6,057,574,000 (2008: RMB4,892,515,000). The Group depreciates items of property, plant and equipment on the straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives, and after taking into account their estimated residual values, commencing from the date the items of property, plant and equipment are placed into productive use. The estimated useful lives and dates that the Group places the items of property, plant and equipment into productive use reflect the directors' estimate of the periods that the Group intends to derive future economic benefits from the use of these items of property, plant and equipment.

Deferred tax assets

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all unused tax losses to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the losses can be utilised. Significant management judgement is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that can be recognised, based upon the likely timing and level of future taxable profits together with future tax planning strategies. The carrying value of deferred tax assets relating to recognised tax losses at 31 December 2009 was RMB42,450,000 (2008: RMB84,957,000). The amount of unrecognised tax losses at 31 December 2009 was RMB423,141,000 (2008: RMB362,606,000). Further details are contained in note 36 to the financial statements.

4. OPERATING SEGMENT INFORMATION

For management purposes, the Group is organised into business units based on their products and services and has three reportable operating segments as follows:

- (a) The networks (communication system) segment includes wireless communications, wireline switch and access and optical and data communications.
- (b) The terminals segment engages in the manufacture and sale of mobile phone handsets and data card products.
- (c) The telecommunications software systems, services and other products segment represent the provision of telecommunications software systems such as operation support systems and the provision of fee-based services.

Management monitors the results of the Group's operating segments separately for the purpose of making decisions about resources allocation and performance assessment. Segment performance is evaluated based on reportable segment profit, which is a measure of adjusted profit before tax. The adjusted profit before tax is measured consistently with the Group's profit before tax except that interest income, finance costs, research and development costs, impairment losses, dividend income, share of profits and losses of associates, fair value gains/(losses) from the Group's financial instruments as well as head office and corporate expenses are excluded from such measurement.

Segment assets exclude deferred tax assets, pledged deposits, cash and cash equivalents, investments in a jointly-controlled entity and associates, other receivables, other unallocated head office and corporate assets as these assets are managed on a group basis.

Segment liabilities exclude derivative financial instruments, interest-bearing bank borrowings, other payables, bonds cum warrants, tax payable, deferred tax liabilities, provision for retirement benefits and other unallocated head office and corporate liabilities as these liabilities are managed on a group basis.

11. PROFIT ATTRIBUTABLE TO OWNERS OF THE PARENT

The consolidated profit attributable to owners of the parent for the year ended 31 December 2009 includes a profit of approximately RMB721,736,000 (2008: RMB975,994,000) which has been dealt with in the financial statements of the Company (note 39(b)).

12. DIVIDENDS

	2009 RMB'000	2008 RMB'000
Proposed final — RMB0.3 (2008: RMB0.3) per ordinary share	552,425	402,999

Details of proposed final dividend for the year are set out in Note 50(d). The said profit distribution proposal is subject to the approval of the annual general meeting of the Company.

13. EARNINGS PER SHARE

Basic earnings per share amount is computed by dividing the profit for the year attributable to ordinary equity holders of the parent by the weighted average number of ordinary shares of 1,752,691,606 (2008: 1,746,329,402) in issue during the year, as adjusted to reflect the capitalisation issue during the year.

The calculation of diluted earnings per share amounts is based on the profit for the year attributable to ordinary equity holders of the parent. The weighted average number of ordinary shares used in the calculation is the number of ordinary shares in issue during the year, as used in the basic earnings per share calculation, and the weighted average number of ordinary shares assumed to have been issued at no consideration on the deemed exercise of all dilutive potential ordinary shares into ordinary shares.

13. EARNINGS PER SHARE (continued)

- # In July 2009, all of the 85,006,813 Subject Shares under the Share Incentive Scheme of the Company were registered as share capital on a one-off basis, whereby the total share capital was increased from 1,746,329,402 shares to 1,831,336,215 shares. Among the total subject shares, 69,737,523 shares are subject to lock-up under the share incentive scheme (Note 40) and they are excluded from the calculation of basic earnings per shares.
- ## The average market price of the ordinary shares during the year is less than the exercise price of the warrants, therefore, they are not considered in the calculation of diluted earnings per share for the years ended 31 December 2009 and 2008.
- * The number of ordinary shares in issue during 2008 had been adjusted to take into account the bonus issue during the year ended 31 December 2009 (note 37).

14. DISTRIBUTION OF PROFIT

In accordance with the Company Law of the PRC and the articles of associations, the Company and certain of its subsidiaries are required to allocate 10% of their profit after tax, as determined in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations applicable to these companies, to their respective statutory surplus reserves (the "SSR") until such reserves reach 50% of the registered capital of these companies. Part of the SSR may be capitalised as these companies' share capitals, provided that the remaining balances after the capitalisation are not less than 25% of the registered capital of these companies.

<sup>**</sup> These associates are held through a non-wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company which has significant influence over the boards of directors of these associates.

The above table lists the associates of the Group which, in the opinion of the directors, principally affected the results for the year or formed a substantial portion of the net assets of the Group. To give details of other associates would, in the opinion of the directors, result in particulars of excessive length.

The year end date of the financial statements of the above associates is coterminous with that of the Group.

The following table illustrates the summarised financial information of the Group's associates extracted from their management accounts:

Unlisted equity investments, at cost	253,760	251,148	244,448	243,198

The above investments consist of investments in equity securities which have been designated as available-for-sale financial assets and have no fixed maturity date or coupon rate.

As at 31 December 2009, the above unlisted equity investments with a carrying amount of RMB253,760,000 (2008: RMB251,148,000) were stated at cost less impairment because the range of reasonable fair value estimates is so significant that the directors are of the opinion that their fair value cannot be measured reliably. The Group does not intend to dispose of them in the near future.

Progress payment for telecommunications system contracts is normally made in accordance with the agreed payment schedule. The Group's trading terms with its major customers are mainly on credit, except for new customers, where payment in advance is normally required. The credit period is generally 90 days and is extendable up to one year depending on customers' credit worthiness except for certain oversea customers. The credit terms for major customers are reviewed regularly by senior management. The Group seeks to maintain strict control over its outstanding receivables and has a credit control department to minimise credit risk. Overdue balances are reviewed regularly by senior management. In view of the aforementioned, there is no significant concentration of credit risk.

An aged analysis of the trade and bills receivables as at the end of the reporting period, based on the invoice date and net of provision, is as follows:

24. TRADE AND BILLS RECEIVABLES/LONG-TERM TRADE RECEIVABLES (continued)

Included in the above provision for impairment of trade and bills receivables is a provision for individually impaired trade receivables of RMB582,272,000 (2008: RMB808,889,000) with a carrying amount before provision of RMB582,272,000 (2008: RMB879,925,000). The individually impaired trade receivables relate to customers that were in financial difficulties and are not expected to be recovered. The Group does not hold any collateral or other credit enhancements over these balances.

An aged analysis of the trade and bills receivables that are not considered to be impaired is as follows:

	Group		Company
	2009 RMB'000	2008 RMB'000	2009 RMB'000	2008 RMB'000
Neither past due nor impaired	4,583,346	4,816,412	3,938,943	5,114,829
Less than one year past due	10,823,345	5,866,359	11,541,159	6,864,336

Receivables that were neither past due nor impaired relate to a large number of diversified customers for whom there was no recent history of default.

Receivables that were past due but not impaired relate to a number of independent customers that have a good track record with the Group. Based on past experience, the directors of the Company are of the opinion that no provision for impairment is necessary in respect of these balances as there has not been a significant change in credit quality and the balances are still considered fully recoverable. The Group does not hold any collateral or other credit enhancements over these balances.

The balances due from subsidiaries, the controlling shareholder, associates and related companies included in the above are as follows:

	Group		Company
	2009 RMB'000	2008 RMB'000	2009 RMB'000	2008 RMB'000
Subsidiaries	—	—	8,515,630	6,183,968

Related companies	—	54	889	5,488
	12,459	20,411	8,528,128	6,208,810

The balances are unsecured, interest-free, and on credit terms similar to those offered to the major customers of the Group.

25. FACTORED TRADE RECEIVABLES/FACTORED LONG-TERM TRADE RECEIVABLES

As at 31 December 2009, the Group factored trade receivables of RMB5,838,850,000 (2008: RMB2,412,509,000) to various banks for cash. The financial asset derecognition conditions as stipulated in HKAS 39 have not been fulfilled. Accordingly, bank advances from the factoring of the Group's trade receivables have been accounted for as liabilities in the consolidated statement of financial position.

In prior year, the Company entered into a telecommunications system project (the "project") with an African telecommunications operator with a total contract amount of US$1,500,000,000. The related accounts receivable is to be settled by promissory notes issued by the telecommunications operator with maturity dates ranging from 3 to 13 years. In 2009, two (2008: one) government strategic banks in the PRC have agreed to factor these promissory notes pursuant to the receivables purchase agreements (the "Agreements"), which stipulates the factoring conditions based on the future performance of the African telecommunications operator. During the financing period, the banks will charge interest to the Company and the telecommunications operator. If there is any delay in the payment by the telecommunications operator, the Company is not responsible for the related penalties. If there is default in the payment, the Company would bear the first 20% of default losses on the factored amount unless the Company breaches the Agreements or the factoring conditions are not satisfied. As at 31 December 2009, under the above arrangements, accounts receivable due from the customer amounted to RMB6,082,427,000 (2008: RMB3,542,011,000) among which RMB4,865,942,000 (2008: RMB2,833,609,000) has been derecognised from the consolidated statement of financial position as these receivables have fulfilled the derecognition conditions as stipulated in HKAS 39. An associated liability of RMB1,216,485,000 (2008: RMB708,402,000) has been recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position to the extent of the Company's continuing involvement.

26. PREPAYMENTS, DEPOSITS AND OTHER RECEIVABLES

	Group		Company

Forward currency contracts Liabilities	—	12,560	—	12,560

The derivative financial instruments for the Group and the Company at 31 December 2008 represented forward currency contracts, and the carrying amounts of forward currency contracts were the same as their fair values. The above transactions involving derivative financial instruments were with various well known banks in Mainland China and Hong Kong with A- or above credit ratings.

The Group has entered into these contracts to manage its exchange rate exposure which did not meet the criteria for hedge accounting. Changes in the fair value amounting to RMB12,560,000 (2008: RMB128,328,000) were recognised in profit or loss during the year.

28. CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS AND PLEDGED DEPOSITS

Cash and cash equivalents	14,075,822	11,344,160	9,808,228	8,323,750

At the end of the reporting period, the cash and bank balances of the Group denominated in Renminbi amounted to approximately RMB6,104,435,000 (2008: RMB6,467,149,000). The Renminbi is not freely convertible into other currencies, however, under Mainland China's Foreign Exchange Control Regulations and Administration of Settlement, Sale and Payment of Foreign Exchange Regulations, the Group is permitted to exchange Renminbi for other currencies through banks authorised to conduct foreign exchange business.

Cash at banks earns interest at floating rates based on daily bank deposit rates. Short-term time deposits are made for varying periods of between seven days and three months depending on the immediate cash requirements of the Group, and earn interest at the respective short-term time deposit rates. The bank balances and pledged deposits are deposited with creditworthy banks with no recent history of default.

32. BONDS CUM WARRANTS (continued)

On 30 January 2008, the Company issued 40,000,000 bonds cum warrants with a nominal value of RMB100 each, amounting to RMB4 billion in total. The bonds and warrants are listed on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange. The bonds are guaranteed by China Development Bank, and have a maturity of five years from the date of issuance. Each bond entitles its subscriber to an unconditional issue of 1.63 warrants, and 65,200,000 warrants are issuable in aggregate. The detachable warrants are valid for 24 months from the date of listing, conferring rights to subscribe for one A share at an exercise price of RMB78.13 for every two warrants held. Since the dividend payment and the completion of the capitalisation issue during the year 2008 and year 2009, the exercise price of the warrants has been adjusted to RMB42.394 and the holders of the warrants are entitled to subscribe for 0.922 A share for every warrant held.

The bonds bear interest at a rate of 0.8% per annum payable in arrears on 30 January each year.

The fair value of the liability component was estimated at the issue date using a market interest rate for an equivalent bond without the detachable warrants. The residual amount is allocated to the detachable warrants that is assigned as the equity component and is included in shareholders' equity.

The carrying amount of the liability component approximates to its fair value. The fair value of the liability component is estimated using an equivalent market interest rate for a similar bond.

33. PROVISION FOR RETIREMENT BENEFITS

The Group and the Company provide certain of the eligible staff with post-retirement benefits pursuant to a retirement benefit plan. The plan is funded solely by the Group on an actual payment basis.

The latest actuarial valuation of the plan was conducted at 31 December 2009 in accordance with HKAS 19 Employee Benefit by qualified actuaries of Towers Watson. The present values of defined benefit obligations and current service costs are determined actuarially based on the projected unit credit method.

The benefit obligations recognised in the statement of financial position are as follows:

	Group and Company
	2009 RMB'000	2008 RMB'000
Present value of the obligations	91,214	57,034

At 31 December 2009, tax losses of approximately RMB423,141,000 (2008: RMB362,606,000) have not been recognised as deferred tax assets since the possibilities of utilising such amount is considered remote.

In accordance with the Enterprise Income Tax Law of the People's Republic of China and its Implementation Regulations, effective from 1 January 2008, a 10% (or 5% for companies incorporated in Hong Kong) withholding income tax is payable by a foreign investor in respect of dividend income derived from profit generated by its PRC subsidiary after 1 January 2008. Accordingly, ZTE (H.K.) Limited, a subsidiary of the Group deemed a foreign investor, may recognise a deferred income tax liability in respect of net profit generated by its Mainland subsidiaries after 1 January 2008 and attributable to the foreign investor, regardless of whether such Mainland subsidiaries had declared any distribution of such profit as at the end of the reporting period.

As at 31 December 2009, the Group had not recognised any deferred income tax liability in respect of tax obligations arising from the future distribution of undistributed profit of such subsidiaries, as the Group was exercising control over the dividend policy of such subsidiaries and was in the opinion that distribution in the foreseeable future of profit generated during the relevant period was not probable. As at 31 December 2009, the total amount of temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries in Mainland China for which deferred tax liabilities have not been recognised totaled approximately RMB822,525,000 (2008: RMB232,278,000).

38. SHARE INCENTIVE SCHEME

The implementation of the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme (Revised Version dated 5 February 2007) (hereinafter referred to as the "Share Incentive Scheme") commenced upon consideration and approval by shareholders at the first extraordinary general meeting of the Company for 2007 convened on 13 March 2007, after the receipt of a no-comment letter from the China Securities Regulatory Commission. The Company granted 47,980,000 Subject Shares to the Scheme Participants by way of the issue of new shares (A shares), including the grant to 3,435 Scheme Participants of Subject Share quotas with 43,182,000 shares (accounting for 90% of the Subject Share quotas under the Share Incentive Scheme, hereinafter referred to as the "First Award") and the reservation of 4,798,000 Subject Shares accounting for 10% of the Subject Share quotas under the Share Incentive Scheme. At the Twentieth Meeting of the Fourth Session of the Board of Directors held on 25 November 2008, the grant of the full amount of the reserved Subject Share quotas to 794 Scheme Participants (hereinafter referred to as the "Second Award") was considered and approved. The Scheme Participants of the Share Incentive Scheme were the directors and senior management of the Company and key staffs of the Company and its subsidiaries.

The grant price of the Share Incentive Scheme shall be the closing price of the Company's A shares as quoted on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange on the trading day immediately preceding the date of the Board Meeting at which the Share Incentive Scheme is reviewed. The price of the First Award was RMB30.05 per share. Scheme Participants shall pay the subscription amounts for the Subject Shares on the basis of the purchase of 5.2 Subject Shares for every 10 Subject Shares granted, out of which the subscription amounts for 3.8 Subject Shares shall be funded by Scheme Participants at their own cost and the subscription amounts for 1.4 Subject Shares shall be funded by the conversion of the deferred bonus that Scheme Participants would have received had they participated in the distribution of 2006 deferred bonus, calculated as a percentage of the grant price. The price of the Second Award was RMB21.28 per share. Scheme Participants shall pay the subscription amounts for the Subject Shares on the basis of the purchase of 5.2 Subject Shares for every 10 Subject Shares granted.

The Share Incentive Scheme shall be valid for five years, comprising a lock-up period of two years and an unlocking period of three years:

- (1) The Lock-up Period shall last for a period of two years commencing on the date of approval of the Share Incentive Scheme by shareholders in a general meeting of the Company, during which the Subject Shares granted to Scheme Participants under the Share Incentive Scheme shall be subject to lock-up and shall not be transferable;
- (2) The Unlocking Period shall last for three years following expiry of the Lock-up Period, during which Scheme Participants may, subject to unlocking conditions stipulated by the Share Incentive Scheme being satisfied, apply for unlocking in three tranches: the first unlocking period shall be the first year following the expiry of the Lock-up Period and the number of shares to be unlocked shall not exceed 20% of the aggregate number of Subject Shares granted; the second unlocking period shall be the second year following the expiry of the Lock-up Period and the number of shares to be unlocked shall not exceed 35% of the aggregate number of Subject Shares granted; the third unlocking period shall be the third year following the expiry of the Lock-up Period and the number of shares to be unlocked shall represent all outstanding Subject Shares.

The unlocking of Subject Shares shall be conditional upon the simultaneous fulfilment of certain conditions, including but not limited to the following:

- (1) The Company's financial and accounting report for the most recent accounting year does not contain an audit report in which the certified public accountants indicate an opinion of disapproval or inability to express any opinion;
- (2) The Scheme Participant has not been subject to administrative penalties by the CSRC due to material non-compliance by the Company during the past three years;
- (3) The weighted average rates of return on net assets of ZTE for the years 2007, 2008 and 2009 shall be adopted as the results appraisal conditions to Scheme Participants' application for unlocking the Subject Shares in the first, second and third tranches, respectively. Such rates of return on net assets shall not be less than 10% (before or after extraordinary income/loss items, whichever is lower).

In accordance with the relevant terms of the Share Incentive Scheme, Subject Shares granted but which have lapsed in the absence of unlocking shall be repurchased and cancelled by the Company at the corresponding subscription amounts plus interest calculated at the prevailing call deposit interest rate published by the People's Bank of China.

The fair value of the Subject Shares was arrived at based on the market price of the Company's shares on the date of grant using the BlackScholes model, which ranged from RMB21.28 to RMB36.81 per share. The aggregate fair value of the Subject Shares amounting to RMB1,106,794,000 is charged to profit or loss and the capital reserve as costs and expenses from the date of grant to the date on which the unlocking conditions are being fulfilled and the shares may be circulated according to the law. The Group has recognised an amount of RMB299,594,000 (2008: RMB299,551,000) at Share Incentive Scheme expenses for the year and an aggregate amount of RMB899,293,000 (2008: RMB599,699,000) has been recognised in expenses as at the end of the year on an accumulative basis.

The proposals of profit distribution and capitalisation from capital reserve for 2007 were implemented on 10 July 2008, whereby 4 shares were issued for every 10 shares held. The proposals of profit distribution and capitalisation from capital reserve for 2008 were implemented on 4 June 2009, whereby 3 shares were issued for every 10 shares held. As a result, the Subject Share quotas of the Phase I Share Incentive Scheme was adjusted to 87,323,600 shares accordingly, representing the adjustments of the Subject Share quotas under the First Award and the Second Award to 78,591,240 shares and 8,732,360 shares, respectively. Taking into consideration the departure of or waiver of participation in the Share Incentive Scheme by certain Scheme Participants, it was ratified at the Twenty-sixth Meeting of the Fourth Session of the Board of Directors of the Company held on 6 July 2009 that a total Subject Share quota of 85,050,238 shares had been granted to 4,022 Scheme Participants under the Share Incentive Scheme, and the registration of such shares with China Securities Depository and Clearing Company Limited, Shenzhen Branch was completed in July 2009. The total number of issued share capital of the Company has increased by 85,006,813 shares, after deducting 43,425 Subject Shares which have lapsed.

In accordance with the Share Incentive Scheme, Subject Shares under the First Award shall be subject to a lock-up period of two years commencing on 13 March 2007 (the date on which the Share Incentive Scheme was approved by the shareholders in a general meeting of the Company). As at 12 March 2009, the lock-up period for Subject Shares under the First Award had expired and the unlocking conditions had been fulfilled. The unlocking of 15,269,290 shares, being 20% of the Subject Shares under the First Unlocking, was completed on 22 July 2009. After the deduction of 709,582 Subject Shares granted to 19 incumbent directors and senior management staff members of the Company and 1 former senior management staff member who had resigned effective 19 March 2009, which shall remain under lock-up and subject to sale restriction under the relevant regulations of the Company Law and the Guidelines for the Administration of Company Shareholdings by Directors, Supervisors and Senior Management Officers of Companies Listed on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange and Changes in Shareholdings, a total of 14,559,708 Subject Shares under the current unlocking were listed on 23 July 2009.

(a) Group

The amounts of the Group's reserves and the movements therein for the current and prior years are presented in the consolidated statement of changes in equity on pages 6 and 7 of the financial statements.

The capital reserve of the Group includes the non-distributable reserves of the Company and its subsidiaries created in accordance with accounting and financial regulations in the PRC.

In accordance with the PRC Company Law and the Company's articles of association, the Company and its subsidiaries registered in the PRC are required to appropriate a certain percentage of the statutory profit after tax to the statutory reserve fund. Subject to certain restrictions set out in the relevant PRC regulations and in the subsidiaries' articles of association, the statutory reserve fund may be used either to offset losses, or for capitalisation issue by way of paid-up capital. The fund cannot be used for purposes other than those for which they are created and are not distributable as cash dividends.

The Share Incentive Scheme reserve was created for the Share Incentive Scheme launched by the Company that provides incentives and rewards to certain employees of the Company and its subsidiaries.

40. SHARES SUBJECT TO LOCK-UP UNDER THE SHARE INCENTIVE SCHEME

In July 2009, all of the 85,006,813 Subject Shares under the Share Incentive Scheme of the Company (note 38) were registered as share capital on a one-off basis, whereby the total number of shares was increased from 1,746,329,402 shares to 1,831,336,215 shares. Unlocking conditions in respect of 15,269,290 shares, being 20% of the Subject Shares under the First Unlocking, had been fulfilled and 14,559,708 shares were listed on 23 July 2009. After the deduction of 15,269,290 Subject Shares under the First Unlocking, there were 69,737,523 registered Subject Shares for which unlocking conditions had not been fulfilled as at 31 December 2009. In accordance with the Share Incentive Scheme and relevant legal undertakings executed by the Company and the Scheme Participants, such shares are being held under the name of the Scheme Participants, who are not entitled to any cash dividend distribution and voting rights until the unlocking conditions have been fulfilled in respect of such shares. Therefore, subscription amounts of RMB447,235,000 for such restricted shares remaining in lock-up were charged to shareholders' equity as "Shares subject to lock-up under the Share Incentive Scheme" in the statement of financial position. For details of the Share Incentive Scheme, please refer to note 38.

41. CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

- (a) At the end of the reporting period, contingent liabilities not provided for in the financial statements were as follows:

	2009 RMB'000	2008 RMB'000
Guarantees given to banks in connection with borrowing to customers	66,796	77,177
Guarantees given to banks in respect of performance bonds	7,721,644	8,245,934
	7,788,440	8,323,111

- (b) In August 2006, a customer instituted arbitration against the Company to demand indemnity from the Company in the amount of Rs. 762,982,000 (approximately RMB61,874,000). Meanwhile, the Company instituted a counter-claim against the customer's breach of contract to demand for damages. In February 2008, the arbitration authority issued its award ruling that an indemnity of Rs. 328,040,000 (approximately RMB26,602,000) is to be paid by the Company. The Company has set aside a provision for such amount at the end of the reporting period. In accordance with local laws, the Company had filed with the local court an objection against the arbitration award and a counter-claim against the customer's breach of contract. Based on the legal opinion furnished by lawyers engaged by the Company, the case will likely stand a prolonged period of litigation. As at the date of approval of the financial statements, the Group had not made any payments of compensation pursuant to the aforesaid judgement. Based on the legal opinion furnished by lawyers engaged by the Company, the directors are of the opinion that the aforesaid arbitration will not have any material adverse impact on the financial conditions and operating results of the Group.

- (c) In April 2008, China Construction Fifth Engineering Division Corp., Ltd. ("China Construction Fifth"), an engineering contractor of the Company, demanded the Company to increase the contract amount on the grounds that raw material prices had increased in connection with first a slowdown in work, followed later by total suspension. In September 2008, the Company instituted litigation with the Nanshan District People's Court, pleading for the revocation of the contract and court order of the evacuation of the work sites by the defendant, as well as a penalty payment for work delay in the amount of RMB24,912,000 and damages of RMB11,319,000 payable to the Company. The court handed the first trial judgement in July 2009, ruling that the contract between the Company and China Construction Fifth be revoked and a penalty payment for work delay in the amount of RMB12,817,000 be payable by China Construction Fifth. China Construction Fifth had appealed against the said judgement and the second trial is currently in progress. In October and November 2009, the Group further instituted two complaints with the Nanshan District People's Court, demanding China Construction Fifth to undertake a penalty payment for work delay in the amount of RMB30,615,000 and the payment of RMB39,537,000, representing the amount of work payments in excess of the total contract amount. In July 2009, China Construction Fifth instituted a separate litigation with the Shenzhen Intermediate People's Court, demanding the Company to make a payment of RMB75,563,000 for raw materials and staff deployment. The said cases are currently in trial. Based on the legal opinion furnished by lawyers engaged by the Company and the existing judgements and current progress of the case, the directors are of the opinion that the aforesaid arbitration will not have any material adverse impact on the financial conditions and operating results of the Group and no provision was made in respect of such claims in the financial statements.

42. FINANCIAL GUARANTEE CONTRACT

The Group has provided a financial guarantee which will expire in September 2018 for an independent customer with a maximum amount of RMB50,000,000 including corresponding interest.

In accordance with HKAS 39, such financial guarantee contract is accounted for as a financial liability and subsequently measured at the higher of: (i) the amount of the best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period; and (ii) the amount initially recognised less, when appropriate, cumulative amortisation.

43. PLEDGE OF ASSETS

44. OPERATING LEASE ARRANGEMENTS

(a) As lessor

The Group is entitled to share a portion of the profit generated from the telecommunications network up to year 2010 as disclosed in note 6 to the financial statements. During the year, approximately RMB43,587,000 (2008: RMB27,569,000) of operating lease rental income has been recognised under this arrangement.

(b) As lessee

The Group leases certain of its offices under operating lease arrangements, with leases negotiated for terms ranging from 1 to 12 years.

At 31 December 2009, the Group had total future minimum lease payments under non-cancellable operating leases falling due as follows:

	2009 RMB'000	2008 RMB'000
Within one year	196,676	264,396

In the opinion of the directors, the above transactions were conducted in the ordinary course of business.

Notes:

- (a) The purchases of raw materials were made in accordance with published prices and conditions similar to those offered by the suppliers to their major customers.
- (b) The sales of finished goods were made in accordance with published prices and conditions offered to major customers of the Group.
- (c) The rental expense was charged at a rate ranging from RMB40 to RMB42.5 per square metre.
- (d) The rental expense was charged at a rate of ranging from RMB30 to RMB115 per square metre.
- (e) The guarantee in respect of bank borrowing was provided by a related party at nil consideration, and it will be terminated in 2010.

* In April 2009, after disposal of part of the equity interest, Shenzhen Hongde Battery Company Limited ("Hongde"), the Company's subsidiary before disposal, became the Company's associate. In December 2009, after acquisition of the equity interest, Nanchang Xingfei Technology Company Limited ("Nanchang Xingfei"), an associate of the Company before acquisition, became the Company's indirect subsidiary. In the opinion of the management, no further disclosure is needed as these disposal and acquisition of equity interest have no material impact on the Group. The above transactions with both related parties only included the transactions between Hongde, Nanchang Xingfei and the Group occurring in the periods in which Hongde and Nanchang Xingfei were the associates of the Company.

48. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES

The main risks arising from the Group's financial instruments are interest rate risk, foreign currency risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. Generally, the Group introduces conservative strategies on its risk management. As the Group's exposure to these risks is kept to a minimum, the Group has not used any derivatives and other instruments for hedging purposes. The board of directors reviews and agrees policies for managing each of these risks and they are summarised as follows:

Interest rate risk

At 31 December 2009, the bank loans of the Group and the Company included fixed and variable rate debts. The Group and the Company have no significant concentration of interest rate risk.

The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group's long-term debt obligations with floating interest rates.

The Group's policy is to manage its interest cost using a mix of fixed and variable rate debts. At 31 December 2009, approximately 55% (2008: 46%) of the Group's interest-bearing borrowings bore interest at fixed rates.

All of the interest-bearing borrowings with floating interest rates are in United State dollars ("USD"). If there would be a general increase/decrease in the interest rate of the bank borrowings with floating interest rates by 25 basis points, with all other variable held constant, the profit before tax for the Group would have been decreased/increased by approximately RMB9.9 million and RMB3.7 million for the years ended 31 December 2009 and 2008, respectively, and other components of equity would not change.

48. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (continued)

Foreign currency risk

The Group has transactional currency exposures. Such exposures arise from sales or purchases by operating units in currencies other than the units' functional currency, where the revenue is predominately in USD, EUR and certain portion of the bank loans is denominated in USD. The Group entered into forward currency contracts and tends to accept foreign currency exchange risk avoidance or allocation terms when arriving at purchase and sale contracts to minimise its transactional currency exposures. The Group takes rolling forecast on foreign currency revenue and expenses and matches the currency and amount incurred, so as to alleviate the impact on business due to exchange rate fluctuation.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity at the end of the reporting period to a reasonably possible change in the USD and Euro exchange rate, with all other variables held constant, of the Group's profit before tax (due to changes in the fair value of monetary assets and liabilities) and other components of equity would not change.

	Increase/ (decrease) in exchange rate %	Increase/ (decrease) in profit before tax RMB'000
2009
If RMB weakens against USD	+3%	(60,243)
If RMB strengthens against USD	-3%	60,243
If RMB weakens against EUR	+5%	106,988
If RMB strengthens against EUR	-5%	(106,988)
2008
If RMB weakens against USD	+3%	26,855
If RMB strengthens against USD	-3%	(26,855)
If RMB weakens against EUR	+5%	61,722
If RMB strengthens against EUR	-5%	(61,722)

Credit risk

The Group trades only with recognised and creditworthy third parties. It is the Group's policy that all customers who wish to trade on credit terms are subject to credit verification procedures. In addition, receivable balances are monitored on an ongoing basis and the Group's exposure to bad debts is not significant.

The credit risk of the Group's other financial assets, which comprise cash and cash equivalents, available-for-sale financial assets and other receivables, arises from default of the counterparty, with a maximum exposure equal to the carrying amounts of these instruments. The Group is also exposed to credit risk through the granting of financial guarantees.

Since the Group trades only with recognised and creditworthy third parties, there is no requirement for collateral. Concentrations of credit risk are managed by analyses, by counterparties, by geographical region and by industry sector. There are no significant concentrations of credit risk within the Group as the customer bases of the Group's trade receivables are widely dispersed in different sectors and industries.

Further quantitative data in respect of the Group's exposure to credit risk arising from trade receivables are disclosed in note 24 to the financial statements.

Liquidity risk

The Group monitors its risk to a shortage of funds using a recurring liquidity planning tool. This tool considers the maturity of both its financial instruments and financial assets (e.g., trade receivables) and projected cash flows from operations.

The Group's objective is to maintain a balance between continuity of funding and flexibility through the use of bank loans and other interest-bearing loans. In addition, banking facilities have been put in place for contingency purpose. Except for the non-current portion of interest-bearing bank borrowings, all borrowings of the Group mature in less than one year.

The maturity profile of the Group's financial liabilities as at the end of the reporting period, based on the contractual undiscounted payments, is as follows:

2009	Group
	On demand RMB'000	Within 1 year RMB'000	1-2 years RMB'000	2-3 years RMB'000	Over 3 years RMB'000	Total RMB'000

Capital management

The primary objective of the Group's capital management is to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern and to maintain healthy capital ratios in order to support its business and maximise shareholders' value.

The Group manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it in the light of changes in economic conditions. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the dividend payment to shareholders, return capital to shareholders or issue new shares. The Group is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements. No changes were made in the objectives, policies or processes for managing capital during the years ended 31 December 2009 and 31 December 2008.

The Group monitors capital using a gearing ratio, which is interest-bearing bank borrowings divided by the sum of total equity and interest-bearing bank borrowings. The gearing ratios as at the ends of the reporting periods were as follows:

	Group
	2009 RMB'000	2008 RMB'000
Interest-bearing bank borrowings	9,242,861	6,957,032
Total equity	17,948,866	15,183,547
Total equity and interest-bearing bank borrowings	27,191,727	22,140,579

50. EVENTS AFTER THE REPORTING PERIOD (continued)

- (d) Pursuant to the profit distribution proposal recommended by the Board, the Company will pay a cash dividend of RMB3 (before tax) for every 10 shares held on the basis of the total share capital of the Company as at 8 April 2010 less the number of restricted shares remaining in lock-up under the Share Incentive Scheme and the number of restricted shares that may be repurchased and cancelled in accordance with the implementation of the Share Incentive Scheme as at the A share record date for the purpose of the 2009 profit distribution (the "Record Date"), and will also issue 5 bonus shares for every 10 shares held to shareholders whose name appear in the register as at the Record Date through an increase in registered capital by way of capitalisation of capital reserves. In accordance with relevant provisions of the Share Incentive Scheme, application will be made in 2010 for the second unlocking of 35% of the Subject Shares granted, and restricted shares remaining in lock-up shall not be entitled to the cash dividend. As at 8 April 2010, 69,737,523 restricted shares remained in lock-up. The number of shares entitled to the cash dividend under the 2009 profit distribution proposal will be 1,841,416,933 shares in case the second unlocking is not completed by the Record Date, or a maximum of 1,868,214,185 shares in case the second unlocking is completed by the Record Date. The said profit distribution proposal is subject to approval by the annual general meeting of the Company.
