Management Discussion and Analysis

BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL REVIEW

During the first half of 2011, the global economy was clouded with many uncertainties and faced strong headwinds from Japan's nuclear disaster, the US economic stagnation and looming debt issue as well as the escalating sovereign debt crisis in the European countries. Despite such a bearish market sentiment, China, on the other hand, continued to maintain a steady economic growth. Meanwhile, the Chinese Telecom regulator, the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology reported that the industry capital expenditure ("capex") was RMB143.1 billion in the first half of 2011, representing an increase of 56.5% compared to the corresponding period of last year, and the mobile subscribers reached more than 900 million. Hence, the Group continued to deliver solid financial results for the six months ended 30 June 2011 (the "Current Period") with a desirable growth in revenue and profit, thanks to the solid and continuous demand for wireless network enhancement.

Revenue

The Group's revenue for the Current Period was HK$2,545,114,000 (2010: HK$2,002,261,000), representing an increase of 27.1% over the revenue for the six months ended 30 June 2010 (the "Prior Period"). The increase was mainly driven by the growing demand from the global mobile operators for network optimization. As a result of continuous efforts in overseas expansion, sales from the international markets (including core equipment manufacturers) jumped 47.2% from the Prior Period to HK$349,648,000 (2010: HK$237,490,000) and accounted for 13.7% of the Group's total revenue.

During the first half of 2011, network enhancement for second generation ("2G") mobile communications continued uninterruptedly with the aim to further enhance the penetration rate throughout China and, in particular, within rural areas. On the other hand, sales from third generation ("3G") mobile network projects reported a 91.7% increase year-on-year to HK$666,418,000 and accounted for 26.2% of the Group's total revenue, resulting from stronger demand for 3G network deployment and optimization as a consequence of the escalating number of 3G subscribers and the data usage by the subscribers.

By customers

Revenue generated from the China Mobile Communications Corporation and its subsidiaries ("China Mobile Group") rose significantly by 39.4% to HK$1,450,406,000 (2010: HK$1,040,710,000) and accounted for 57.0% of the Group's revenue in the Current Period compared to 52.0% in the Prior Period. The raise in revenue from China Mobile Group was primarily due to the continuous network enhancement in the 2G mobile network and replacement of base transceiver station antennas to improve the network quality.

During the Current Period, revenue generated from the China United Telecommunications Corporation and its subsidiaries ("China Unicom Group") increased slightly by 3.8% to HK$528,900,000 (2010: HK$509,728,000) and accounted for 20.8% of the Group's revenue in the Current Period compared to 25.5% in the Prior Period.

Revenue generated from the China Telecommunications Corporation and its subsidiaries ("China Telecom Group") decreased by 12.7% to HK$159,101,000 (2010: HK$182,218,000) and accounted for 6.3% of the Group's revenue in the Current Period compared to 9.1% in the Prior Period. The decrease in revenue from China Telecom Group was primarily due to the delay of some network enhancement projects. However, the management expects the projects will be expedited in the second half of the year.

During the Current Period, revenue generated from international customers and core equipment manufacturers increased remarkably by 47.2% to HK$349,648,000 (2010: HK$237,490,000) and accounted for 13.7% of the Group's revenue in the Current Period compared to 11.9% in the Prior Period. The increase in revenue was primarily due to the network deployment in the international market and the strong demand for total solutions for network upgrade in some emerging markets and further successful diversification of Group's international customer portfolios. Notwithstanding the slower-than-expected recovery of the Indian market, the overall growth of the international market has not been affected.

By businesses

Revenue generated from wireless enhancement business in the Current Period increased by 26.9% to HK$879,429,000 (2010: HK$693,173,000) and accounted for 34.6% of the Group's revenue in the Current Period. The increase in revenue was mainly contributed by the continuous 2G mobile network enhancement and also the increasing number of 3G mobile network enhancement projects which substantially drove the sales of remote radio units.

Revenue generated from the antennas and subsystems business in the Current Period increased by 17.7% to HK$816,493,000 (2010: HK$693,519,000) and accounted for 32.1% of the Group's revenue in the Current Period compared to 34.6% in the Prior Period. The growth in revenue was mainly driven by strong demand for the replacement of base transceiver station antennas.

Revenue generated from wireless access business increased significantly by 124.3% to HK$206,775,000 (2010: HK$92,183,000) and accounted for 8.1% of the Group's revenue in the Current Period compared to 4.6% in the Prior Period. The increase was mainly due to the accelerated expenditure by PRC mobile operators for WLAN build-out to offload the heavy traffic of 2G and 3G mobile networks.

Revenue from services, including installation, network optimization, network upgrade, and after-sales maintenance services, increased by 22.7% to HK$642,417,000 (2010: HK$523,386,000) and accounted for 25.2% of the Group's revenue in the Current Period compared to 26.2% in the Prior Period. The management expects services will have greater sales contribution in the second half of 2011 as most of projects in the pipeline will be completed by the end of this year. Furthermore, the Group has been working to strengthen its position as a turnkey solution provider by offering more professional and value-added services to its customers.

During the Current Period, the Group introduced some new solutions and new products, such as the multiple distributed antenna system ("MDAS") and the multi-mode remote radio unit ("MRRU"), to accommodate increasing complexity of the projects and different needs from the customers. The Group believes its capability to offer such professional services will differentiate itself from its peers, and further solidify its leading position in the market.

Gross profit

To alleviate the continued pricing pressure on the traditional product categories, the Group has been striving to optimize the product mix by launching new products and solutions into the markets, as well as to offer more services to the customers leveraging its strong research and development ("R&D") and engineering capability. During the Current Period, the gross profit increased by 20.0% to HK$966,392,000 (2010: HK$805,119,000) as compared with the Prior Period. In addition, the Group's gross profit margin decreased mildly by 2.2% points to 38.0% in the Current Period, compared to 40.2% in the Prior Period. For the year ended 31 December 2010, the gross profit margin was 37.4%.

In addition, the Group continued to adopt stringent cost control initiatives including optimizing the product design through advanced R&D technology, streamlining the manufacturing process, improving the logistics management, and negotiating with suppliers for better pricing and payment terms in order to reduce the impact of raising labor and material costs. Moreover, the Group continued to expand its market coverage and broaden its revenue sources to achieve economies of scale. The Group also provided installation, network optimization, network enhancement and after-sales maintenance services to customers in order to achieve higher product sales. In order to maintain a reasonable gross profit margin, the Group continued to focus on developing advanced and high value-added products for customers.

Negative goodwill

On 20 June 2011, the Group entered into an agreement to acquire 100% interest in the subsidiaries, which are engaged in the research and development, manufacturing and sales of telecommunications products with a view to expanding the Group's market share in the telecommunications equipment. The Group paid a cash consideration of approximately HK$84 million, which resulted in a negative goodwill of approximately HK$48 million, mainly arising from an appreciation of the land and buildings.

Research and development costs

The Group has always attached great importance to R&D, and is strongly committed to product innovation which enables the Group to stay at the forefront of the telecommunications industry riding on its strong R&D capability.

During the Current Period, R&D costs increased by 48.6% to HK$115,951,000, representing 4.6% of the Group's revenue (2010: HK$78,041,000, representing 3.9% of the Group's revenue). The increase in R&D costs was mainly attributable to (1) expansion of the R&D teams; (2) continuous investment in the development and expansion of product portfolio for all 2G, 3G, WLAN and long-term evolution ("LTE") mobile networks in both domestic and overseas markets; and (3) investment in improvement of product quality for higher operational efficiency and greater cost effectiveness.

With its continuous investment in R&D, the Group achieved significant accomplishments in creating solutions with intellectual property rights and has applied for more than 770 patents (As at 31 December 2010: more than 680 patents) as at the end of the Current Period.

Selling and distribution costs

During the Current period, selling and distribution costs increased by 38.8% to HK$168,094,000, representing 6.6% of the Group's revenue (2010: HK$121,140,000, representing 6.1% of the Group's revenue). The increase in selling and distribution costs was mainly due to the increases in sales staff salaries and their related awarded share expenses, and consultancy fees as a result of the increased consolidated revenue and global expansion of the sales and service networks for the Group.

Administrative expenses

During the Current Period, administrative expenses increased by 40.9% to HK$364,334,000 representing 14.3% of the Group's revenue (2010: HK$258,634,000, representing 12.9% of the Group's revenue). The increase in administrative expenses was mainly due to the increases in administration staff salaries and their related awarded share expenses, and office expenses as a result of the enlarged support teams for the global operations.

Awarded shares expenses

On 12 April 2011, the Board resolved to award 26,000,000 awarded shares to 365 selected persons under the share award scheme adopted on 25 March 2011, by way of issue and allotment of new shares pursuant to the general mandate granted by the shareholders of the Company at the annual general meeting of the Company held on 24 May 2010. These awarded shares will be held in trust for the selected persons by the trustee appointed by the Company until the end of each vesting period. For these awarded shares, there were 4 vesting dates, which are 12 July 2011, 12 April 2012, 12 April 2013, and 12 April 2014. Upon each vesting date, those awarded shares will be transferred at no cost to the selected persons.

The fair value of the 26,000,000 awarded shares was approximately HK$226 million, measured at the closing market price of HK$9.32 per share at the date of grant and amortized over each of the vesting period up to 12 April 2014. During the Current Period, the awarded shares expenses amounted to approximately HK$87 million. For the second half of 2011, the full years of 2012, 2013 and 2014, the awarded shares expenses are estimated at approximately HK$58 million, HK$54 million, HK$23 million and HK$4 million, respectively.

Finance costs

During the Current Period, finance costs rose 50.3% to HK$12,222,000, representing 0.5% (2010: HK$8,134,000, representing 0.4% of the Group's revenue) of the Group's revenue. The raise in finance costs was mainly due to the increase in bank borrowing as a consequence of more business activities.

The management has always been prudent on managing the credit risk and improving the cash flow in order to lower the bank borrowing level. To cope with the growth of the business, the management has closely monitored the latest developments of the financing market and arranged the most appropriate financing for the Group. The management also utilized the advantages of interest and foreign exchange rates differentiation among different countries in order to minimize the finance costs. As of 30 June 2011, the gearing ratio of the Group stood at a healthy level of 16.5% compared to 10.2% as of 30 June 2010. The gearing ratio of the Group was 8.2% as of 31 December 2010.

Operating profit

During the Current Period, the operating profit increased by 12.5% to HK$399,227,000 (2010: HK$354,900,000) as compared with the Prior Period. During the Current Period, as a consequence of different product mix and the expense incurred due to the share award scheme, the operating profit margin decreased by 2.0% points to 15.7% in the Current Period, as compared with 17.7% in the Prior Period.

Tax

During the Current Period, excluding those major non-taxable items of negative goodwill and awarded share expenses, the effective tax rate was slightly increased to 16.8% (2010: 16.6%). The overall taxation charge of HK$71,609,000 (2010: HK$57,592,000) was composed of profits tax charge of HK$47,750,000 (2010: HK$51,418,000) and deferred tax charge of HK$23,859,000 (2010: HK$6,174,000). The increase in overall taxation charge was mainly due to the reversal of deferred tax credit arising from a reduced unrealized profit on intra-group transactions during the Current Period as compared with the Prior Period.

Net profit

During the Current Period, profit attributable to shareholders ("Net Profit") increased by 13.7% to HK$317,224,000 (2010: HK$278,989,000). The raise in Net Profit was mainly due to the increase of revenue which was partially offset by the decrease in gross profit margin and additional expenses incurred due to the share award scheme, amounting to HK$87 million. Hence, the Group's net margin was lowered by 1.4% points to 12.5% (2010: 13.9%). However, excluding the extraordinary items of awarded shares and negative goodwill arising from acquisition, the Group's net margin would be 14.0% (2010: 13.9%).

Dividend

The Group has put much emphasis on the returns to and interests of shareholders, in particular the interests of minority shareholders. To balance the shareholders' returns and the Group's future long-term development, the Board proposed an interim dividend of HK5 cents (2010: HK6 cents) per share. The payout ratio, on the basis of basic EPS, is 23.1% (2010: 25.4% based on the number of shares issued as at 30 June 2010).

Record date for interim dividend

The record date for determination of entitlements under the interim dividend will be on Thursday, 8 September 2011. Shareholders whose names appear on the register of members of the Company as at the close of business on Thursday, 8 September 2011 will be entitled to receive the interim dividend. In order to qualify for the interim dividend, all transfers accompanied by the relevant share certificates must be lodged with the Company's Hong Kong branch share registrar and transfer office, Computershare Hong Kong Investor Services Limited at Shops 1712–1716, 17th Floor, Hopewell Centre, 183 Queen's Road East, Wanchai, Hong Kong no later than 4:30 pm on Thursday, 8 September 2011. Dividend warrants will be despatched on Monday, 19 September 2011.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION

The Group is committed to maintaining proactive, consistent and timely communications with the investment community. To enhance our communications between shareholders and investors, the Group organized regular meetings to maintain on-going dialogue with them.

In April 2011, the Group has been honored for its excellence in FinanceAsia's 11th annual Asia's Top Companies poll. It was the second consecutive year for the Group to receive this honor, and for the first time the Group was rated as the No. 1 "Best Mid-Cap" company along with top ten rankings in four other categories including "Most Committed to a Strong Dividend Policy", "Best in Corporate Social Responsibility", "Best Corporate Governance", and "Best Managed Company" in FinanceAsia's poll.

Furthermore, the Group has been dedicated to developing innovative products in line with the ever-changing market and customer needs, and has offered unparalleled quality services to the customers over the years. During the Current Period, the Group was selected for inclusion in the "2011 Info Tech 100 China" ranking 33rd by Business Next in Taiwan and Ceocio China in Mainland China. These top 100 IT companies were selected according to five statistical indicators: turnover, turnover growth rate, return on shareholders' equity, yield rate and rate of return.

PROSPECT

The economies of the US and Europe continue to be sluggish and are undeniably affecting the global economy, nonetheless, China's economy, increasingly supported by strong domestic demand, is less vulnerable to this turmoil and continues to play a vital role in global economic growth.

The fundamental strength of the China's economy is conducive to the sustainable growth for China telecommunications industry. China's telecommunications sector revenue grew 10.1% in the first half of 2011. Meanwhile, the number of mobile phone users increased by over 6 million with the penetration rate rising from 64% at the end of 2010 to 69% at the end of June 2011, which is still relatively low compared to the rate of mobile cellular penetration in the developed countries at over 100%. In other words, there are still enormous rooms for increased penetration within the telecommunications market in the PRC.

The PRC market remains as the Group's major focus in the years to come, and the management is confident that the Group's revenue will continue to grow against the backdrop of the current difficult economic climate in the US and Europe. At present, the number of mobile users in the PRC surpassed 900 million in the first half of 2011 with 91% being 2G users. On the other hand, 3G users jumped rapidly by 71.1% to more than 80 million in the first six months of 2011, and about 55% of the new mobile users are 3G users. Although 2G will remain dominant, 3G and wireless broadband users are growing rapidly as a result of the popularity and the enhancement of smartphones.

The Group has increased its penetration into the international markets and has deepened its business with the international operators and core equipment vendors which have driven sales in the first half of 2011. The Group's strategy of securing major long-term projects, diversification of customer base, and expansion of existing customer relationships will continue to drive solution sales and expansion into the international markets. Notwithstanding the international market is affected by the uncertainties surrounding the global economy, the management is still optimistic towards the expansion of the international market and the business growth.

It is expected that the subscriber number growth will continue unabatedly with robust 3G growth leading the way. Globally, the telecommunications industry is healthy and the number of mobile users will continue to grow considerably. With the proliferation of cheaper and better smartphones, the rapidly growing popularity of social media, and the development of mobile data services boosted by the smartphone phenomenon, mobile operators need to handle the data traffic surge as well as provide an optimum quality of experience for high-value mobile applications. It is, therefore, inevitable for the mobile operators to continue the optimization of 2G networks, and at the same time to expedite 3G network upgrade.

While maintaining a leadership position in the PRC market, the Group is proactively expanding its presence in developing countries where its major international markets are located. The Group is also looking for added opportunities in the new markets such as Mexico where a new office has recently been established.

Wireless Enhancement

Wireless network upgrade is a long-term and ongoing business, and the management expects this business will continue to be the largest revenue contributor to the Group, and demand for wireless network upgrade in both the PRC and emerging markets will remain strong in coming years.

It is noted that the capex of PRC mobile operators peaked a few years ago, but the management has observed the trend that spending from the mobile operators has been gradually transferred to network optimization from network build-out. As such, the Group will benefit from persistent expansion of capacity and optimization of wireless networks.

With strong expertise in wireless enhancement implementation and a proven track record in providing quality large-scale turnkey solutions, Comba has become a preferred partner of the mobile operators for wireless network enhancement solutions. Recently, the Group has completed the 2G/3G wireless enhancement projects for the world's longest cross-sea "Qingdao Bay Bridge" and the Universiades Shenzhen 2011 for the PRC mobile operators. These projects have achieved a high customer satisfaction which blended innovative technology with practical know-how that enables operators to improve network performance without increased costs.

Globally, operators are facing spectrum allocation issues and time to market for new 3G network rollouts. Previously, the Group launched a portfolio of spectrum refarming solutions that is now gaining deeper market penetration in the international markets.

On the other hand, mobile data traffic is skyrocketing as more people gain access to mobile data networks. The anticipated strong data uptake may lead to network congestion and deteriorate network quality, thus driving greater demand for wireless enhancement solutions.

The network trial of China's homegrown TD-LTE ("Time Division-Long Term Evolution") 4G telecommunications technology is underway in major cities. The TD-LTE is expected to go global and many overseas mobile operators have already expressed interests in deploying TD-LTE network. Comba is proud to be one of the major equipment providers for indoor network coverage and distribution system for the network trial in China.

Comba is LTE ready for not only TD-LTE, but also FDD-LTE ("Frequency Division Duplexing-Long Term Evolution") technologies in the way that the Group has taken proactive measures in promoting their applications in various regions. The Group has been successful in deploying these solutions in network trials and rollouts throughout the world. The management is confident that Comba will participate in the larger scale of LTE network testing in the later stages, and is well-poised to seize the huge opportunities when LTE is commercialized in China.

Antennas and Subsystems

The Group recorded a satisfactory revenue growth for antennas and subsystems business during the period under review. As a market leader in the PRC and worldwide major supplier in both base station antennas and tower-mounted solutions to many of the major multinational operators, the Group, by leveraging on the its persistent efforts in innovation and quality enhancement, is determined to provide strong support to clients' network optimization and product upgrade, and the demand attributable to 3G network build-out and network upgrade will also contribute partly to growth this year.

For future growth, the Group has developed a portfolio of LTE antennas and subsystems which has been deployed successfully in a number of LTE trials and actual LTE network rollout around the globe. The management is optimistic that such solutions will be a driver for future growth.

Wireless Access

Demand for WLAN equipment surged vigorously following the aggressive WLAN deployment plans by the three PRC mobile operators launched early this year in the hope that WLAN will provide support for their insufficient 3G coverage and offload busy 3G traffic at hot spot areas. The initial stage of network deployment comprising millions of hotspots are planned to be built in different PRC cities during the coming years. Mobile data traffic is expected to grow rapidly with more people using laptops, tablet computers and smartphones to access the internet through WLAN services, and WLAN coverage will be further expanded. As the leading WLAN equipment supplier in the PRC, the management anticipates the current strong demand for WLAN equipment to be sustained and the contribution from WLAN business will further increase in the near future.

After the impact of the telecommunications policy in the Indian market in 2010, the Group actively explored business opportunities in other countries in order to decentralize the geographical customers and maximize the returns. Based on this strategy, the management is pleased to see a very positive return in this business and is optimistic that the foundations have been set for continuing growth of the Group's business.

Services

The Group expects the contribution from the services business segment will continue to grow given tremendous demand from both the PRC and international markets.

Capitalizing on the professional and reliable service team of over 5,600 technical sales and service engineers globally, and its experience with self-developed, top-notch and comprehensive product lines, the Group is capable of offering value-added and customized turnkey solutions to customers. Over the years, the Group has undertaken numerous projects to provide a broad range of services. These services include network design, consulting, assessment, network optimization, network modification and upgrade, system installation and after-sales service to customers. Moreover, most of the customers commissioned Comba to provide on-going maintenance services upon completion of the projects. Thus, the more projects the Group has undertaken, the more recurring income will be generated. More importantly, this business model will help create more cross selling opportunities for products and achieve multiple beneficial effects to the Group.

With the relentless efforts made over the years, the Group has become a global leading wireless enhancement solutions provider, and has successfully established a long-term partnership with customers. Furthermore, the Group believes that services will continue to be an important business segment globally and is actively expanding its service capabilities with local resources in its various international offices to drive solutions sales and to create additional revenue streams for the future.

Conclusion

Despite the challenging global economic environment, the management is optimistic about the future of the global telecommunications industry.

The Group believes that China will continue to accelerate the rapid development of its telecommunications industry and construct key network infrastructure, while the telecommunications industry in emerging markets is also to some extent following the pattern of China's development and their potential cannot be underestimated.

Over the years, the Group has built up a solid foundation and achieved a sound financial position that enables consistent growth, effectively capturing expansion opportunities, and addressing various challenges and uncertain situations. The Group intends to remain focused on sustaining our leading position in the PRC market and plans to continue its relentless efforts to propel the growth in overseas market via product and project innovation as well as professional end-to-end services coupled with an extensive business network, and effective marketing strategies.

The Group will continue to adhere to the strategy to sharpen our competitive edge via innovative technology and solutions. Towards this end, the Group will continue to devote resources to R&D, and launch new products and solutions to address the growing needs of customers. The new products and solutions will not only meet the needs of the customers, but also optimize the product portfolio of the Group which enables the maintenance of desirable margins and profitability.

On the other hand, the management continues to be on the lookout for lucrative opportunities that befit the Group's growth strategy, with a view to generating maximum returns for shareholders.

The Board of Directors would like to thank all of our staff for their dedicated commitment and contribution, and our customers, suppliers, shareholders, and business associates for their support. The Group will strive unremittingly to achieve better performance.

LIQUIDITY, FINANCIAL RESOURCES & CAPITAL STRUCTURE

The Group generally finances for its operations from cashflow generated internally and bank borrowings. As at 30 June 2011, the Group had net current assets of HK$3,410,827,000. Current assets comprised inventories of HK$2,226,630,000, trade receivables of HK$4,326,049,000, notes receivable of HK$59,344,000, prepayments, deposits and other receivables of HK$585,511,000, restricted bank deposits of HK$28,240,000 and cash and cash equivalents of HK$725,259,000. The average receivable turnover for the Current Period was 259 days compared to 222 days for the Prior Period. The Group's trading terms with its customers are mainly on credit. The credit period is generally for a period of three months and is extendable up to two years depending on the customer's credit worthiness, except for those retention money generally receivable after final certification of products by customers, which would be performed six to twelve months after sale, or upon completion of the one to two years warranty periods granted to customers. The average payable turnover for the Current Period was 266 days compared to 262 days for the Prior Period. The average inventory turnover for the Current Period was 229 days compared to 251 days for the Prior Period.

As at 30 June 2011, the Group's cash and bank balances were mainly denominated in Renminbi ("RMB"), Hong Kong dollars ("HK$") and United States dollars ("US$") while the Group's bank borrowings were mainly denominated in US$ and HK$. The interest rates on the Group's bank borrowings are principally on a floating basis at prevailing market rates.

During the Current Period, in addition to those short-term interest-bearing facilities, the Group had a three-year term loan facility agreement (the "Facility Agreement"), amounted to US$130,000,000, with a group of financial institutions. The facility was granted for the purpose of financing the Group's capital expenditure, research and development initiatives, additional working capital as well as for the purpose of refinancing the outstanding loan drawn under the old three-year term loan facility agreement dated 3

July 2009. Under the Facility Agreement, there is a specific performance obligation that Mr. Fok Tung Ling who is a controlling shareholder and Mr. Zhang Yue Jun who is a substantial shareholder of the Company, shall maintain beneficial ownership in aggregate, directly or indirectly, of at least 35% of the entire issued shares (of each class) of and equity interests in the Company free from any security. As at 30 June 2011, the Group utilized the facility of US$130,000,000.

As at 30 June 2011, the Group held an interest rate swap contract designated as hedges in respect of expected interest payments for the above-mentioned US$ floating rate loan under the Facility Agreement.

The Group's revenue and expenses, assets and liabilities are mainly denominated in RMB, HK$ and US$. As the Group's revenue is substantially denominated in RMB, the Board currently considers that the appreciation of RMB should have a mildly favorable impact on the Group's business.

Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

For the six months ended 30 June 2011

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The condensed consolidated interim financial statements are prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Accounting Standard ("HKAS") 34 "Interim Financial Reporting". The accounting policies and basis of preparation adopted in the preparation of the interim financial statements are the same as those used in the annual financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2010. Except for the changes in relation to the following new and revised Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRSs", which also include HKASs and Interpretations) that affect the Group and are adopted for the first time for the current period's financial statements. They have been prepared under the historical cost convention, except for the Group's certain buildings and derivative financial instruments, which have been measured at fair value. These financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars and all values are rounded to the nearest thousand except when otherwise indicated.

Impact of new and revised HKFRSs and HKASs

HKAS 24 (Revised) Related Party Disclosures

HK (IFRIC) — Int 19 Extinguishing Financial Liabilities with Equity instruments

HKAS 24 (Revised) clarifies and simplifies the definition of related parties. It also provides for a partial exemption of related party disclosure to government-related entities for transactions with the same government or entities that are controlled, jointly controlled or significantly influenced by the same government. While the adoption of the revised standard resulted in changes in the accounting policy, the revised standard does not have any impact on the related party disclosures as the Group currently does not have any significant transactions with government-related entities.

For the six months ended 30 June 2011

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Cont'd)

Impact of new and revised HKFRSs and HKASs (Cont'd)

HK (IFRIC) — Int 19 addresses the accounting by an entity when the terms of a financial liability are renegotiated and result in the entity issuing equity instruments to a creditor of the entity to extinguish all or part of the financial liability. The interpretation clarifies that equity instruments issued to a creditor to extinguish a financial liability are a consideration paid in accordance with HKAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement and the difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability extinguished, and the consideration paid, shall be recognized in profit or loss. The consideration paid should be measured based on the fair value of the equity instrument issued or, if the fair value of the equity instrument cannot be reliably measured, the fair value of the financial liability extinguished. While the adoption of the revised standard resulted in changes in the accounting policy, the revised standard did not have any financial impact on the Group.

Improvement to HKFRSs

Improvements to HKFRSs 2010 issued in May 2010 sets out amendments to a number of HKFRSs. The Group has adopted the amendments from 1 January 2011. There are separate transitional provisions for each standard. While the adoption of some of the amendments may result in changes in accounting policies, none of these amendments has a significant financial impact on the Group. Those amendments that have a significant impact on the Group's policies are as follows:

(a) HKFRS 3 Business Combinations: Clarifies that the amendments to HKFRS 7, HKAS 32 and HKAS 39 that eliminate the exemption for contingent consideration do not apply to contingent consideration that arose from business combinations which acquisition dates precede the application of HKFRS 3 (as revised in 2008).

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Cont'd)

Improvement to HKFRSs (Cont'd)

In addition, the amendments limit the measurement choice of non-controlling interests at fair value or at the proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets to components of non-controlling interests that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of the entity's net assets in the event of liquidation. Other components of non-controlling interests are measured at their fair value on acquisition date, unless another measurement basis is required by another HKFRS.

The amendments also added explicit guidance to clarify the accounting treatment for non-replaced and voluntarily replaced share-based payment awards.

- (b) HKAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements: Clarifies that an analysis of other comprehensive income for each component of equity can be presented either in the statement of changes in equity or in the notes to the financial statements.
- (c) HKAS 27 Consolidated and Separate Financial Statements: Clarifies that the consequential amendments from HKAS 27 (as revised in 2008) made to HKAS 21, HKAS 28 and HKAS 31 shall be applied prospectively for annual periods beginning on or after 1 July 2009 or earlier if HKAS 27 is applied earlier.

OPERATING SEGMENT INFORMATION 2.

The management considers the performance of the business in the PRC and non-PRC segments. The reportable operating segments derive their revenue from manufacturing and sale of wireless telecommunications network enhancement system equipment and the provision of related engineering services. All of the Group's products are of the similar nature.

No operating segments have been aggregated to form the above reportable operating segments.

The Group's trading terms with its customers are mainly on credit. The credit period is generally for a period of three months and is extendable up to two years depending on the customer's credit worthiness. The balances also include retention money of approximately 10% to 20% of the total contract sum of each project, and are generally receivable after final certification of products by customers, which would be performed six to twelve months after sale, or upon completion of the one to two years warranty periods granted to customers. The credit terms for major customers are reviewed regularly by senior management. The Group seeks to maintain strict control over its outstanding receivables and has a credit control department to minimise the credit risk. Overdue balances are reviewed regularly by senior management.

An aged analysis of the trade receivables as at the end of reporting period, based on the invoice date, is as follows:

(b) Share Award Scheme

The Company adopted a share award scheme (the "Share Award Scheme") on 25 March 2011 (the "Adoption Date"). The purposes and objectives of the Share Award Scheme are to recognize the contributions by certain employees and persons to the Group (the "Selected Persons") and to provide them with incentives in order to retain them for the continual operation and development of the Group and to attract suitable personnel for further development of the Group.

Unless it is early terminated by the Board, the Share Award Scheme shall be valid and effective for a term of 10 years commencing on the Adoption Date.

Pursuant to the Share Award Scheme, (i) the awarded shares (the "Awarded Shares") will be acquired by the trustee of the Company (the "Trustee") at the cost of the Company at the prevailing market price and be held in trust for the Selected Persons until the end of each vesting period; or (ii) new Awarded Shares may be allotted and issued to the Trustee under general mandates granted or to be granted by the Shareholders at general meetings from time to time and be held in trust for Selected Persons until the end of each vesting period.

Awards or options previously granted under the Share Award Scheme or the Scheme (including those vested, outstanding, cancelled and lapsed) will not be counted for the purpose of calculating the limit as refreshed. The Company will not issue any Awarded Shares under the Share Award Scheme which would result in the total number of the Awarded Shares together with shares which may be issued upon exercise of all outstanding share options granted but yet to be exercised under the Scheme or any other incentive or options schemes of the Company representing in aggregate over 30% of the shares in issue as at the date of such grant.
