EMPLOYEES

As at the December 31, 2010, we had 1,157 employees. Since our inception, we have not experienced any strikes or other labor disputes which materially affected our business activities. We consider our labor relations to be good.

The remuneration package of our employees mainly includes salaries, discretionary bonuses and contributions to mandatory social security funds. As required by the PRC regulations, we participate in various defined pension schemes for our employees, including those organized by provincial or municipal governments as well as supplemental pension schemes. The employees covered by such scheme include our Directors, Supervisors and senior management personnel. Bonuses are generally discretionary and based on the overall performance of our business. For the years ended December 31, 2008, 2009 and 2010, we incurred staff costs of approximately RMB72.1 million, RMB119.4 million and RMB184.3 million, respectively, representing 3.2%, 2.5% and 5.1%, of our revenue for those periods, respectively. The total amount of contributions we made for welfare plans, including social security funds and housing accumulation funds for the years ended December 31, 2008, 2009 and 2010, were approximately RMB31 million, RMB36 million and RMB45 million, respectively.
