OVERVIEW OF CBBCS

What are CBBCs?

CBBCs are structured products that track the performance of an underlying asset. Subject to any early termination triggered by the mandatory call feature described below, they give you a right to a cash amount called the cash settlement amount at expiry determined by reference to a pre-set level called the strike level.

The trading price of the CBBCs tends to mirror the movement in the level of the index in dollar value. Similar to derivative warrants, CBBCs may provide leveraged return to you (but conversely, they could also magnify your losses).

How do the CBBCs work?

Callable bull contracts are designed for investors who have an optimistic view on the index.

Callable bear contracts are designed for investors who have a pessimistic view on the index.

The CBBCs are “European style” and, subject to no occurrence of a mandatory call event (see “What is the mandatory call feature?” below), the CBBCs are only exercisable on the relevant expiry date.

The cash settlement amount (if any) payable at expiry represents the difference between the closing level and the strike level. If on the valuation date, the cash settlement amount is zero or a negative amount, you will lose all of your investment in the CBBCs.

The CBBCs will be issued as category R CBBCs. See “Category R CBBCs or category N CBBCs?” below for details about your entitlement following the occurrence of a mandatory call event.

The CBBCs may be terminated early for illegality and/or hedging disruption. See “Possible early termination for illegality and/or hedging disruption” under the section headed “Risk Factors” for details.

What is the mandatory call feature?

For callable bull contracts, a mandatory call event occurs when the spot level is at or below the call level at any time during the observation period.

For callable bear contracts, a mandatory call event occurs when the spot level is at or above the call level at any time during the observation period.

The observation period commences from the observation commencement date and ends at the close of trading (Hong Kong time) on the trading day immediately preceding the relevant expiry date (both dates inclusive).

Subject to the limited circumstances set out in the relevant conditions in which a mandatory call event may be reversed and subject to such modification and amendment as may be prescribed by the stock exchange from time to time, we must terminate the CBBCs when a mandatory call event occurs and all post MCE trades (as defined in the section headed “Summary of the Issue” of this document) will be invalid and will be cancelled and will not be recognised by us or the stock exchange.

The time at which a mandatory call event occurs will be determined by reference to the time the relevant spot level is published by the index compiler.

Category R CBBCs or category N CBBCs?

The CBBCs are category R as the call level is different from the strike level. You may receive a cash payment called the residual value upon the occurrence of a mandatory call event. The residual value payable (if any) is calculated by reference to the difference of the minimum index level and the strike level (for callable bull contracts) or the strike level and the maximum index level (for callable bear contracts). If the residual value is zero or a negative number, you will lose all of your investment.

See “Residual value per board lot” in the section headed “Summary of the Issue” of this document for calculation of the residual value.

What are the factors determining the price of the CBBCs?

Throughout the term of the CBBCs, the price of the CBBCs will be influenced by a number of factors, including:

- the strike level and the call level;
- the likelihood of the occurrence of a mandatory call event;
- the volatility of the level of the index (being a measure of the fluctuation in the level of the index);
- the probable range of residual value (if any) upon the occurrence of a mandatory call event;
- the time remaining to expiry;
- any change(s) in interim interest rates;
- expected dividend payments or other distribution on any components comprising the index;
- the supply and demand for the CBBCs;
- the probable range of the cash settlement amount;
- the depth of the market or liquidity of future contracts relating to the index;
- any related transaction cost; and
- our creditworthiness.

What is your maximum loss?

Your maximum potential loss in a CBBC is limited to the purchase price for the CBBC plus any transaction costs.

Can you sell the CBBCs before maturity?

Yes. We have made an application for the listing of, and permission to deal in, the CBBCs on the stock exchange. All necessary arrangements have been made to enable the CBBCs to be admitted into the Central Clearing and Settlement System (CCASS). Issue of the CBBCs is conditional upon listing being granted. From the dealing commencement date, you may sell or buy the CBBCs on the stock exchange.

The liquidity provider will make a market in the CBBCs by providing bid and/or sell prices. See the section headed “Information on the Liquidity Provider” of this document for further information.

How can you get information about the CBBCs and the index after issue?

You may visit the stock exchange website at www.hkex.com.hk/eng/prod/secprod/cbbc/Intro.htm to obtain further information on the CBBCs or any notice given by us or the stock exchange in relation to the CBBCs. You may obtain updated information on the index by visiting the website at www.hsi.com.hk. You may also contact your stockbroker for further information about the CBBCs or the index.

We have included references to websites in this document to indicate how further information may be obtained. Information appearing on those websites does not form part of this document. We accept no responsibility for that information, including whether that information is accurate, complete or up-to-date.

RISK FACTORS

You should consider the following summary of risks and the risk factors set out in our base listing document, together with all other information in this document and our base listing document before making any investment decision. The following summary does not necessarily set out all the risks related to the CBBCs and you should not rely on it without reference to the conditions in this document and our base listing document. If you have any concerns or doubts about the CBBCs, you should obtain independent professional advice.

- You may lose all of your investment in the CBBCs
- Delay in announcement of mandatory call event

The price of the CBBCs may fall in value as rapidly as it may rise and you may sustain a total loss of your investment. In particular, if the cash settlement amount payable at expiry or upon the occurrence of a mandatory call event is less than or equal to zero, you will lose your entire investment.

We will notify the market as soon as practicable after the CBBCs have been called. You should be aware that there may be delay in the announcement of a mandatory call event due to technical errors, system failures and other factors that are beyond our control and the control of the stock exchange.

- Mandatory call event is irrevocable
- Non-recognition of post MCE trades

A mandatory call event is irrevocable unless it is triggered as a result of the occurrence of any of the following events:

You should note that after the occurrence of a mandatory call event, all post MCE trades will be invalid and will be cancelled and will not be recognised by us or the stock exchange.

- (a) report of system malfunction or other technical errors of HKEx (such as the setting up of wrong call level and other parameters) by the stock exchange to us; or
- (b) report of manifest errors caused by the relevant third party price source where applicable by us to the stock exchange,

- Disclaimers relating to mandatory call event

and we agree with the stock exchange that such mandatory call event is to be revoked provided that such mutual agreement must be reached no later than 30 minutes before the commencement of trading (including the pre-opening session) (Hong Kong time) on the trading day immediately following the day on which the mandatory call event occurs or such other time frame as prescribed by the stock exchange from time to time.

The stock exchange and its recognised exchange controller, HKEx, will not incur any liability (whether based on contract, tort, (including, without limitation, negligence), or any other legal or equitable grounds and without regard to the circumstances giving rise to any purported claim except in the case of wilful misconduct on the part of the stock exchange and/or HKEx) for, any direct, consequential, special, indirect, economic, punitive, exemplary or any other loss or damage suffered or incurred by us or any other party arising from or in connection with the mandatory call event or the suspension of trading (trading suspension) or the non-recognition of trades after a mandatory call event (non-recognition of post MCE trades), including without limitation, any delay, failure, mistake or error in the trading suspension or non-recognition of post MCE trades.

In such case, the mandatory call event so triggered will be reversed and all trades cancelled (if any) will be reinstated and the trading of the CBBCs will resume as soon as practicable.

We and our affiliates shall not have any responsibility for any losses suffered as a result of the trading suspension and/or non-recognition of post MCE trades in connection with the occurrence of a mandatory call event, notwithstanding that such trading suspension or non-recognition of post MCE trades may have occurred as a result of an error in the observation of the event.

- Fluctuation in the funding cost

The issue price of the CBBCs is set by reference to the difference between the initial reference spot level of the index and the strike level, plus the applicable funding cost.

The initial funding cost applicable to the CBBCs is specified in the section headed “Summary of the Issue” of this document. It will fluctuate throughout the life of the CBBCs as the funding rate changes from time to time. The funding rate is a rate determined by us based on one or more of the following factors, including, but not limited to, the strike level, the prevailing interest rate, the expected life of the CBBCs, any expected notional dividends in respect of any securities comprising the index and the margin financing provided by us.

- Residual value may not include residual funding cost

The residual value (if any) payable by us following the occurrence of a mandatory call event may or may not include the residual funding cost for the CBBCs. You may not receive any residual funding cost back from us upon early termination of a category R CBBC upon a mandatory call event.

- Our hedging activities

Our or our affiliates’ trading and/or hedging activities and/or other financial instruments issued by us or our affiliates from time to time may have an impact on the index level and may trigger a mandatory call event.

In particular, when the index level is close to the call level, our unwinding activities in relation to the index may cause a fall or rise (as the case may be) in the index level leading to a mandatory call event as a result of such unwinding activities.

Before the occurrence of a mandatory call event, we or our affiliates can unwind our hedging transactions relating to the CBBCs in proportion to the amount of the CBBCs we repurchase from the market from time to time. Upon the occurrence of a mandatory call event, we or our affiliates can unwind any hedging transactions relating to the CBBCs. Such unwinding activities after the occurrence of a mandatory call event may affect the index level and consequently the residual value for the CBBCs.

- Our creditworthiness

If you purchase the CBBCs, you rely on our creditworthiness and have no rights under the CBBCs against the companies comprising the index and the index compiler.

- Time lag between early termination/ exercise and payment

There is a time lag between early termination or exercise of the CBBCs and payment to holders of the CBBCs. We will not compensate you for any loss you suffer as a result of any time lag.

- Adjustment related risk

Events may occur which may affect the level of the index. If such event does not require an adjustment to the CBBCs, the price of the CBBCs may be affected.

- Possible limited secondary market

We or the liquidity provider may be the only market participants for the CBBCs. The secondary market may be limited.

- One or more constituents of the index may not be trading

If one or more shares comprised in the index are not trading, the closing level of the index may be calculated by reference to the remaining shares comprising the index.

- The CBBCs can be volatile

The value of the CBBCs may not correlate with the movements in the level of the index and may be affected by other factors including the time remaining to expiry.

You should note that when the spot level of the index is close to the call level, the trading price of the CBBCs will be more volatile which may not be comparable and may be disproportionate with the change in the index level.

- Change of calculation method or failure to publish the index

If there is a material change in the calculation of the index level or a failure to publish the index level, we may determine the index level on the basis of the method last in effect prior to such change or failure.

- Conflicts of interest

Various potential and actual conflicts of interest may arise from our overall activities or activities of our affiliates.

In the ordinary course of our business, we may effect transactions for our own account or for the account of our customers and may enter into transactions with respect to the index or related derivatives.

- Possible early termination for illegality and/or hedging disruption

If we determine that for reasons beyond our control the performance of our obligations under the CBBCs has become illegal in whole or in part as a result of our compliance in good faith with any applicable law or that a hedging disruption event has occurred, we may at our absolute discretion terminate the CBBCs. In such event, we will, if and to the extent permitted by applicable law, pay an amount calculated by us to be the fair market value of the CBBCs prior to such termination notwithstanding the illegality and/or hedging disruption less our cost of unwinding any related hedging arrangements.

- The CBBCs are issued in global registered form

As the CBBCs are issued in global registered form, HKSCC Nominees Limited will be the only legal owner of the CBBCs. You will have to rely on CCASS and/or your brokers to (a) determine your beneficial interest in the CBBCs, (b) receive announcements and/or information relating to the CBBCs and (c) receive payments from us.

- Ultimate holding company of the group

We are not the ultimate holding company of the group to which we belong. The ultimate holding company of the group to which we belong is Credit Suisse Group AG.

Index exchange	The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.
Exercise at expiry	If no mandatory call event occurs during the observation period, the CBBCs are exercisable only on the relevant expiry date in integral multiples of the board lot. If on the relevant expiry date the cash settlement amount is greater than zero, the CBBCs will be exercised automatically on such expiry date. You will not be required to deliver any exercise notice. If on the relevant expiry date the cash settlement amount is less than or equal to zero, you will lose all the value of your investment in the CBBCs.
Payment of cash settlement amount	If the CBBCs are early terminated upon the occurrence of a mandatory call event or automatically exercised on the relevant expiry date, we will pay you the cash settlement amount (if any). You must pay your own exercise expenses upon the occurrence of a mandatory call event or the automatic exercise of the CBBCs on the relevant expiry date. Payment of the exercise expenses is reflected in the calculation of the cash settlement amount. We will pay the cash settlement amount no later than three CCASS settlement days following the end of the MCE valuation period or the valuation date (as the case may be). Under the general conditions of the CBBCs, HKSCC Nominees Limited is, legally, the only “holder” so far as we are concerned. Any cash settlement amount will be delivered to HKSCC Nominees Limited as the registered holder of the CBBCs and will be delivered to you through CCASS or to your broker/custodian in accordance with the General Rules of CCASS and the CCASS Operational Procedures. You may have to rely on your broker/custodian to ensure the cash settlement amount is credited to your account with them.
Exercise and trading currency	Hong Kong dollars.
Listing	We have made an application to the stock exchange for, and the stock exchange has agreed in principle to, the listing of and dealings in, the CBBCs. The issue of the CBBCs is conditional on such listing being granted. We do not intend to apply for a listing of the CBBCs on any other stock exchange other than the stock exchange.
Admission into CCASS	All necessary arrangements have been made to enable the CBBCs to be admitted to CCASS. All activities in CCASS are subject to the General Rules of CCASS and the CCASS Operational Procedures in effect from time to time. If you are a CCASS investor participant you may hold your CBBCs in your account with CCASS. If you do not have a CCASS account, your broker (as a CCASS participant) will arrange to hold the CBBCs for you in an account at CCASS.

	Series A	Series B	Series C	Series D	Series E
Form	The CBBCs are represented by a global certificate registered in the name of HKSCC Nominees Limited. You are not entitled to definitive certificates. Credit Suisse (Hong Kong) Limited will maintain a register in Hong Kong showing HKSCC Nominees Limited as the registered holder of the CBBCs. Any notices delivered to HKSCC Nominees Limited as the registered holder of the CBBCs will be communicated to you or your broker/custodian as CCASS participants in accordance with the General Rules of CCASS and the CCASS Operational Procedures. You may have to rely on your broker/custodian to ensure the notices reach you. You as a beneficial holder of the CBBCs are not entitled to any certificate representing your interests in the CBBCs. You can refer to the records of CCASS or your broker/custodian and the statements you receive from CCASS or your broker/custodian to determine your beneficial interest in the CBBCs.
Transfers of CBBCs	You can only transfer your CBBCs in board lots or integral multiples thereof in CCASS in accordance with the General Rules of CCASS and the CCASS Operational Procedures. INFORMATION ON THE LIQUIDITY PROVIDER

Will there be a market for the CBBCs?

The stock exchange requires us to provide liquidity in the CBBCs to ensure that there will always be a market price available for the purchase and sale of the CBBCs (subject to the circumstances described below). We have appointed Credit Suisse Securities (Hong Kong) Limited as the liquidity provider for the CBBCs as set out in the section headed “Summary of the issue — Liquidity provider”.

What is a liquidity provider?

The liquidity provider is our affiliate who has entered into an agreement with us. The liquidity provider is a stock exchange participant and is therefore subject to prudential and conduct regulation by the stock exchange and the Securities and Futures Commission. The liquidity provider has agreed to act as our agent in providing liquidity in the CBBCs. If the liquidity provider is unable to perform its functions, we will appoint a substitute liquidity provider for the relevant CBBCs.

How will the liquidity provider provide liquidity?

The liquidity provider will use its reasonable endeavours to make a market in the CBBCs by responding to requests for bid and offer prices. You can request for a price by calling (852) 2101 6619. The liquidity provider will respond to your request within 10 minutes of your request.

All quotes will be displayed on the designated stock page for the CBBCs. The liquidity provider will provide quotes with a maximum of a 25 tick spread (where ‘spread’ is as prescribed under the rules of the stock exchange) between bid and offer prices, for a minimum of ten board lots of the CBBCs. The liquidity provider will provide you with prices for the CBBCs in the secondary market during the life of the CBBCs. Such prices will be available on each business day on which the CBBCs are traded on the stock exchange from five minutes after the market opens until the end of the continuous trading session as defined in the Rules and Regulations of the Exchange.

How does the liquidity provider calculate the prices of the CBBCs?

Any price provided by the liquidity provider will be based on a pricing model which takes into account such factors as the liquidity provider deems appropriate, including, without limitation, the volatility and prevailing level of the index, the time left to the expiry of the CBBCs, the strike level and the call level of the CBBCs, the dividend history of the shares of the companies comprising the index and the prevailing interest rate climate.

Are there circumstances that the liquidity provider cannot provide liquidity?

There will be circumstances under which the liquidity provider may not be able to, and will not be obliged to, provide liquidity. Such circumstances include:

- (a) when the CBBCs are suspended from trading for any reason;
- (b) when there are no CBBCs available for market making activities by the liquidity provider (in which event, only a bid price for the CBBCs will be available), and for the avoidance of doubt, in determining whether CBBCs are available for market making activities, CBBCs held by us or any of our affiliates on our behalf in a fiduciary or agency (as opposed to proprietary) capacity shall not be available for market making activities;
- (c) on the relevant expiry date of the CBBCs or upon the occurrence of a mandatory call event;
- (d) during a pre-opening session or a closing auction session (if applicable), or any other circumstances as may be prescribed by the stock exchange from time to time;
- (e) operational and technical problems beyond the control of the liquidity provider hindering the ability of the liquidity provider to provide liquidity or operational and technical problems affecting the proper functioning of the stock exchange;
- (f) if the stock market experiences exceptional price movement and volatility, i.e. during fast markets;
- (g) the occurrence of market disruption events, including, without limitation, any suspension of or limitation imposed on trading in the shares of the companies constituting the index or any warrants, options contracts or futures contracts relating to the index;

- (h) when the ability of the liquidity provider acting on our behalf to source a hedge or unwind an existing hedge, as determined by the liquidity provider in its discretion acting in good faith, is materially affected by prevailing market conditions (in which case either only a bid price or only an offer price of the CBBCs shall be made but not both); and

- (i) when the fair value of each CBBC (as determined by the liquidity provider based on the pricing model) is less than HK$0.01, then the liquidity provider will not be obliged to provide liquidity for the CBBCs. Nonetheless, if the liquidity provider (in its sole and absolute discretion) chooses to provide liquidity in respect of such CBBC under this circumstance, both bid and offer prices will be made available.

FURTHER INFORMATION

Are we regulated by any bodies under the rules?

We are regulated by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority as a registered institution. We are also, amongst others, regulated by the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority and the Swiss National Bank.

Have we or our CBBCs been rated by any credit rating agency?

As at the date of this document, our senior long term debt was rated Aa1 by Moody's Investors Service, A+ by Standard and Poor's Ratings Services and A by Fitch Ratings. Rating agencies usually receive a fee from the issuers that they rate.

When evaluating our creditworthiness, you should not solely rely on our credit ratings because:

- a credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold our CBBCs;
- ratings of issuers may involve difficult-to-quantify factors such as market competition, the success or failure of new products and markets and managerial competence; and
- a high credit rating is not necessarily indicative of low risk. Our credit ratings as of the launch date are for reference only. Any downgrading of our ratings could result in a reduction in the value of our CBBCs.

Our CBBCs are not rated.

Are we involved in any litigation?

Except as set out in our base listing document and this document, we and our affiliates are not involved in any litigation, claims or arbitration proceedings which are material in the context of the issue of the CBBCs. Also, we are not aware of any proceedings or claims which are threatened or pending against us or our affiliates.

Has there been any material adverse change?

Except as set out in our base listing document and this document, there has been no material adverse change in our financial position since 31 December 2010.

Who makes determinations and calculations?

We will make any necessary determinations or calculations in respect of the CBBCs.

Where can you find out information about us?

You can find out more about us on the website of the group of companies to which we belong, which is www.credit-suisse.com.

Are there any arrangements with brokers?

We do not have any special arrangements in place with any brokers with respect to the distribution of the CBBCs.

Do the stock exchange and the Securities and Futures Commission charge any fees?

The stock exchange charges a trading fee of 0.005 per cent. and the Securities and Futures Commission charges a transaction levy of 0.003 per cent. in respect of each transaction effected on the stock exchange payable by each of the seller and the buyer and calculated on the value of the consideration for the relevant securities. The levy for the investor compensation fund is currently suspended.

Is stamp duty payable?

There is no stamp duty payable in Hong Kong on the transfer of the CBBCs.

Has there been any updated information about us since the date of our base listing document?

There is no supplemental information about us except as set out in the section headed "Supplemental information about us" in this document. The information in our base listing document and this document is up-to-date and is true and accurate as at the date of this document.

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT OUR CBBCS

What happens if a market disruption event occurs on a valuation date?

Generally, if we decide that a market disruption event has occurred on the valuation date, we will make a good faith estimate of the value of the closing level of the index on the valuation date. Please refer to product condition 1 for a list of events constituting a market disruption event and the definition of valuation date for details.

Who should buy the CBBCs? Are they suitable for everyone?

The CBBCs are not suitable for everyone. You should make sure you fully understand the terms of the CBBCs, how the CBBCs work and the associated risks. The risk factor sections in our base listing document and in this document highlight some of the associated risks and you should study them carefully. You should also consider your financial position and investment objectives before deciding to invest in the CBBCs. Most importantly, you should consult your financial advisers, accounting and tax professionals where necessary.

Where can you find more information about us and the CBBCs?

Our CBBCs are issued under our Hong Kong listed structured products programme. The programme is described in our base listing document. Please read our base listing document together with this document carefully before you decide whether to buy our CBBCs. Our base listing document contain important information, including information about:

- our business and financial condition;
- the risks of buying our CBBCs;
- Hong Kong and Switzerland taxation issues in relation to our CBBCs; and

- the legally binding general conditions and product conditions of the CBBCs (each set out in our base listing document).

We have not authorised anyone to give you any information about our CBBCs other than the information in this document and our base listing document. You should not rely on any other information and we will not be responsible for any losses arising from such other information. Our base listing document and this document are also available in a Chinese translation.

Introduction

This report filed on Form 6-K contains certain information about Credit Suisse AG to be incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement on Form F-3 (file no. 333-158199). Credit Suisse Group AG's financial release for the first quarter of 2011 (Credit Suisse Financial Release 1Q11) is attached as an exhibit to this Form 6-K and was filed with the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on April 27, 2011. The Bank is incorporating by reference the Credit Suisse Financial Release 1Q11 (except for the sections entitled "Dear shareholders" and "Investor information"). On or about May 10, 2011, Credit Suisse will publish and file with the SEC the Financial Report 1Q11, which will include additional disclosures on fair value of financial instruments, loans, allowance for loan losses and credit quality, derivatives and hedging activities, investment securities, guarantees and commitments, assets pledged or assigned, and transfers of financial assets and variable interest entities.

Unless the context otherwise requires, reference herein to "Credit Suisse Group", "Credit Suisse", "the Group", "we", "us" and "our" mean Credit Suisse Group AG and its consolidated subsidiaries and the term "the Bank" means Credit Suisse AG, the Swiss bank subsidiary of the Group, and its consolidated subsidiaries.

The Bank, a Swiss bank and joint stock corporation established under Swiss law, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Group. The Bank's registered head office is in Zurich, and it has additional executive offices and principal branches in London, New York, Hong Kong, Singapore and Tokyo.

References herein to "CHF" are to Swiss francs.

The Credit Suisse Financial Release 1Q11 contains information for the three months ended March 31, 2011. The Group's independent registered public accounting firm has not completed its review of the condensed consolidated financial statements (unaudited) for the three months ended March 31, 2011 and the Group has not finalized its Financial Report for the period. Accordingly, such financial information is subject to completion of quarter-end procedures which may result in changes to that information.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 6-K and the information incorporated by reference in this Form 6-K include statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. In addition, in the future the Group, the Bank and others on their behalf may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements.

When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information, the risk factors and other information set forth in the Group's and the Bank's annual report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2010 (the Credit Suisse 2010 20-F), and subsequent annual reports on Form 20-F filed by the Group and the Bank with the SEC and the Group's and the Bank's reports on Form 6-K furnished to or filed with the SEC, and other uncertainties and events.

Operating and financial review and prospects

Except where noted, the business of the Bank is substantially the same as the business of the Group, and substantially all of the Bank's operations are conducted through the Private Banking, Investment Banking and Asset Management segments. These segment results are included in Core Results. Certain other assets, liabilities and results of operations are managed as part of the activities of the three segments, however, since they are legally owned by the Group, they are not included in the Bank's consolidated financial statements. These relate principally to the activities of Clariden Leu, Neue Aargauer Bank and BANK-now, which are managed as part of Private Banking. Core Results also includes certain Group corporate center activities that are not applicable to the Bank.

These operations and activities vary from period to period and give rise to differences between the Bank's consolidated assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, including pensions and taxes, and those of the Group.

Differences between the Group and the Bank businesses

Entity	Principal business activity
Clariden Leu	Banking and securities
Neue Aargauer Bank	Banking (in the Swiss canton of Aargau)
BANK-now	Private credit and car leasing (in Switzerland)
Financing vehicles of the Group	Special purpose vehicles for various funding activities of the Group, including for purposes of raising consolidated capital

Media ReleaseAnnual General Meeting of Credit Suisse Group AG:
All proposals put forward by the Board of Directors approved
Urs Rohner succeeds Hans-Ulrich Doerig as Chairman of the Board

Zurich, April 29, 2011 At today's Annual General Meeting of Credit Suisse Group AG in Zurich, shareholders approved all of the proposals put forward by the Board of Directors. In particular, they approved the creation of additional conditional capital for the purpose of contingent convertible bonds. Shareholders also voted in favor of a renewal of authorized capital at the current level. Furthermore, shareholders approved the distribution of CHF 1.30 per registered share against reserves from capital contributions. They also approved the 2010 Compensation Report. Three members of the Board of Directors were re-elected: Peter Brabeck-Letmathe, Jean Lanier and Anton van Rossum. Hans-Ulrich Doerig stepped down as Chairman and a member of the Board of Directors as of today and is succeeded by Urs Rohner.

At today's Annual General Meeting of Credit Suisse Group AG in Zurich, shareholders approved all of the proposals put forward by the Board of Directors.

Increase of conditional capital for the purpose of contingent convertible bonds

By a majority of 93.46% of represented votes, shareholders approved the creation of additional conditional capital for the purpose of contingent convertible bonds. Contingent convertible bonds will be used exclusively to strengthen the bank's equity capital base in order to comply with regulatory requirements.

The corresponding amendment to the Articles of Association provides for a conditional capital increase from CHF 4 million (equivalent to 100 million shares) up to a maximum of CHF 20 million (equivalent to 500 million shares). Of this amount, 100 million shares have already been allocated to the issuance in February 2011 of USD 2 billion Tier 2 Buffer Capital Notes, under the previous authority for conditional capital. Out of the remaining 400 million shares, the Board of Directors will allocate a further 300 million shares to the Tier 1 Buffer Capital Notes sold in a forward transaction to two strategic investors in February 2011.

Renewal of authorized capital

Shareholders voted in favor of the renewal of the authorized capital of CHF 4 million (equivalent to 100 million shares) and the amendment to the Articles of Association to provide for an extension of the availability of the authorized capital at the current level until April 29, 2013. This was accepted by a majority of 91.81% of represented votes.

Distribution against reserves from capital contributions

Shareholders approved the distribution of CHF 1.30 per registered share against reserves from capital contributions, which will be made on May 6, 2011.

2010 Compensation Report

In a consultative vote, shareholders approved the 2010 Compensation Report by a majority of 74.11% of represented votes.

Re-election of three members of the Board of Directors

Peter Brabeck-Letmathe, Jean Lanier and Anton van Rossum were re-elected to the Board of Directors for a further term of three years.

At the end of today's Annual General Meeting, Hans-Ulrich Doerig stepped down as Chairman and a member of the Board of Directors after 29 years in Credit Suisse's top management. He is succeeded by Urs Rohner, who has been the full-time Vice-Chairman of the Board and a member of the Chairman's and Governance Committee and Risk Committee since the Annual General Meeting in 2009. This follows the announcement in December 2009 to this effect.

Statements by Hans-Ulrich Doerig

Hans-Ulrich Doerig, the outgoing Chairman of the Board of Directors, said: "We have seen massive changes within the banking industry and in our operating environment in recent years. Credit Suisse, which has never required government support since it was founded in 1856, has shown its leadership by implementing a more forward-looking business model than any other bank during this period. We have done so by building on our tradition of entrepreneurship, our long-term focus and our flexibility and determination. It is thanks to this proactive approach that we are today well positioned to meet the stricter capital and risk control requirements for banks and to operate successfully in the new cross-border environment. We now have a stable, client-focused business model that generates sustained value for our shareholders. Credit Suisse is thus contributing to the success of the Swiss financial center and economy while, at the same time, playing a significant role in the growth markets of the globalized world economy. This is something we should be proud of."

He added: "After almost 40 years at Credit Suisse, I am stepping down as Chairman and a member of the Board of Directors following today's Annual General Meeting. I am delighted that I am being succeeded by Urs Rohner, who has been Vice-Chairman of the Board of Directors for the last two years. I am very proud to have been able to contribute to Credit Suisse's success over the years. I would like to take this opportunity to thank our clients and shareholders for the trust they have placed in Credit Suisse. My greatest thanks and appreciation go to the 50,000 Credit Suisse employees in Switzerland and around the world in view of their exceptional efforts and the exemplary sense of responsibility and commitment they have shown."

Statements by Urs Rohner

Urs Rohner, the new Chairman of the Board of Directors, said: "It is a great honor to succeed Hans-Ulrich Doerig as Chairman of the Board of Directors and I am committed to continuing his outstanding work in leading Credit Suisse forward. His experience, foresight, expert ability to assess risk and inspiring approach have been invaluable to Credit Suisse and to me personally. Credit Suisse is today very well positioned with its forward-looking business model, highly motivated and qualified employees, strong Executive Board and clear strategy on how to meet the new regulatory requirements."

He added: "By approving the creation of conditional capital for the purpose of contingent convertible bonds, our shareholders have today confirmed their support for Credit Suisse's responsible and sustainable capital plans. The re-election of Peter Brabeck-Letmathe, Jean Lanier and Anton van Rossum will ensure continuity within the Board of Directors. I look forward to working with my fellow members of the Board, the Executive Board and Credit Suisse's employees around the world."

Cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information

This press release contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to the following:

- our plans, objectives or goals;
- our future economic performance or prospects;
- the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and
- assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as “believes,” “anticipates,” “expects,” “intends” and “plans” and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable securities laws. By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include:

- the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets;
- market and interest rate fluctuations and interest rate levels;
- the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations, in particular the risk of continued slow economic recovery in the US or other developed countries in 2011 and beyond;
- the direct and indirect impacts of continuing deterioration or slow recovery in residential and commercial real estate markets;
- adverse rating actions by credit rating agencies in respect of sovereign issuers, structured credit products or other credit-related exposures;
- the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us;
- the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, trade and tax policies, and currency fluctuations;
- political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity;
- the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which we conduct our operations;
- operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to implement procedures properly;
- actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices in one or more of the countries in which we conduct our operations;
- the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting policies or practices;
- competition in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations;
- the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel;
- the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brand;
- the ability to increase market share and control expenses;
- technological changes;
- the timely development and acceptance of our new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users;
- acquisitions, including the ability to integrate acquired businesses successfully, and divestitures, including the ability to sell non-core assets;
- the adverse resolution of litigation and other contingencies;
- the ability to achieve our cost efficiency goals and cost targets; and
- our success at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

We caution you that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive. When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the foregoing factors and other uncertainties and events, as well as the information set forth in our Annual Report 2010 under IX – Additional information – Risk Factors.

Media ReleaseUpdate on US Department of Justice investigation

Zurich, July 15, 2011 As previously disclosed, Credit Suisse has been responding to requests for information, including subpoenas, in an investigation by the US Department of Justice (DoJ) and other US authorities. The investigation concerns historical Private Banking services provided on a cross-border basis to US persons. As part of this process, on July 14, 2011, Credit Suisse received a letter notifying it that it is a target of the DoJ investigation. It has been reported that the US authorities are conducting a broader industry inquiry. Subject to our Swiss legal obligations, we will continue to cooperate with the US authorities in an effort to resolve these matters.

Cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information

This press release contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to the following:

- our plans, objectives or goals;
- our future economic performance or prospects;
- the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and
- assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as "believes," "anticipates," "expects," "intends" and "plans" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable securities laws. By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include:

- the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets;
- market and interest rate fluctuations and interest rate levels;
- the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations, in particular the risk of continued slow economic recovery in the US or other developed countries in 2011 and beyond;
- the direct and indirect impacts of continuing deterioration or slow recovery in residential and commercial real estate markets;
- adverse rating actions by credit rating agencies in respect of sovereign issuers, structured credit products or other credit-related exposures;
- the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us;
- the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, trade and tax policies, and currency fluctuations;
- political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity;
- the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which we conduct our operations;
- operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to implement procedures properly;

- actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices in one or more of the countries in which we conduct our operations;
- the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting policies or practices;
- competition in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations;
- the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel;
- the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brand;
- the ability to increase market share and control expenses;
- technological changes;
- the timely development and acceptance of our new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users;
- acquisitions, including the ability to integrate acquired businesses successfully, and divestitures, including the ability to sell non-core assets;
- the adverse resolution of litigation and other contingencies;
- the ability to achieve our cost efficiency goals and cost targets; and
- our success at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

We caution you that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive. When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the foregoing factors and other uncertainties and events, as well as the information set forth in our Annual Report 2010 under IX – Additional information – Risk Factors.

Introduction

This report filed on Form 6-K contains certain information about Credit Suisse AG to be incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement on Form F-3 (file no. 333-158199). Credit Suisse Group AG's financial release for the second quarter of 2011 (Credit Suisse Financial Release 2Q11) is attached as an exhibit to this Form 6-K and was filed with the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on July 28, 2011. The Bank is incorporating by reference the Credit Suisse Financial Release 2Q11 (except for the sections entitled "Dear shareholders" and "Investor information"). On or about August 9, 2011, Credit Suisse will publish and file with the SEC the Financial Report 2Q11, which will include additional disclosures on (i) fair value of financial instruments, (ii) loans, allowance for loan losses and credit quality, (iii) derivatives and hedging activities, (iv) investment securities, (v) guarantees and commitments, (vi) assets pledged or assigned, and (vii) transfers of financial assets and variable interest entities.

Unless the context otherwise requires, reference herein to "Credit Suisse Group", "Credit Suisse", "the Group", "we", "us" and "our" mean Credit Suisse Group AG and its consolidated subsidiaries and the term "the Bank" means Credit Suisse AG, the Swiss bank subsidiary of the Group, and its consolidated subsidiaries.

The Bank, a Swiss bank and joint stock corporation established under Swiss law, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Group. The Bank's registered head office is in Zurich, and it has additional executive offices and principal branches in London, New York, Hong Kong, Singapore and Tokyo.

References herein to "CHF" are to Swiss francs.

The Credit Suisse Financial Release 2Q11 contains information for the three and six months ended June 30, 2011. The Group's independent registered public accounting firm has not completed its review of the condensed consolidated financial statements (unaudited) for the three and six months ended June 30, 2011 and the Group has not finalized its Financial Report for the period. Accordingly, such financial information is subject to completion of quarter-end procedures which may result in changes to that information.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 6-K and the information incorporated by reference in this Form 6-K include statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. In addition, in the future the Group, the Bank and others on their behalf may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements.

When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information, the risk factors and other information set forth in the Group's and the Bank's annual report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2010 (the Credit Suisse 2010 20-F), and subsequent annual reports on Form 20-F filed by the Group and the Bank with the SEC and the Group's and the Bank's reports on Form 6-K furnished to or filed with the SEC, and other uncertainties and events.

Operating and financial review and prospects

Except where noted, the business of the Bank is substantially the same as the business of the Group, and substantially all of the Bank's operations are conducted through the Private Banking, Investment Banking and Asset Management segments. These segment results are included in Core Results. Certain other assets, liabilities and results of operations are managed as part of the activities of the three segments, however, since they are legally owned by the Group, they are not included in the Bank's consolidated financial statements. These relate principally to the activities of Clariden Leu, Neue Aargauer Bank and BANK-now, which are managed as part of Private Banking, and hedging activities relating to share-based compensation awards. Core Results also includes certain Group corporate center activities that are not applicable to the Bank.

These operations and activities vary from period to period and give rise to differences between the Bank's consolidated assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, including pensions and taxes, and those of the Group.

Differences between the Group and the Bank businesses

Entity	Principal business activity
Clariden Leu	Banking and securities
Neue Aargauer Bank	Banking (in the Swiss canton of Aargau)
BANK-now	Private credit and car leasing (in Switzerland)
Financing vehicles of the Group	Special purpose vehicles for various funding activities of the Group, including for purposes of raising consolidated capital

Introduction

Credit Suisse Group AG and Credit Suisse AG file an annual report on Form 20-F and furnish or file quarterly reports, including unaudited interim financial information, and other reports on Form 6-K with the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The SEC reports of Credit Suisse Group AG and Credit Suisse AG are available to the public over the internet at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov and from the SEC's Public Reference Room at 100 F Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20549 (telephone 1-800-SEC-0330). The SEC reports of Credit Suisse Group AG and Credit Suisse AG are also available under "Investor Relations" on Credit Suisse Group AG's website at www.credit-suisse.com and at the offices of the New York Stock Exchange, 20 Broad Street, New York, NY 10005.

Unless the context otherwise requires, reference herein to "Credit Suisse Group," "Credit Suisse," "the Group," "we," "us" and "our" mean Credit Suisse Group AG and its consolidated subsidiaries and the term "the Bank" means Credit Suisse AG, the Swiss bank subsidiary of the Group, and its consolidated subsidiaries.

SEC regulations require certain information to be included in registration statements relating to securities offerings. Such additional information for the Bank is included in this report on Form 6-K, which should be read with the Group's and the Bank's annual report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2010 (the Credit Suisse 2010 20-F) and the Group's financial reports for the first and second quarters of 2011 furnished to or filed with the SEC on Form 6-K on May 10, 2011 and August 9, 2011, respectively.

The Bank, a Swiss bank and joint stock corporation established under Swiss law, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Group. The Bank's registered head office is in Zurich, and it has additional executive offices and principal branches in London, New York, Hong Kong, Singapore and Tokyo.

References herein to "CHF" are to Swiss francs.

This report on Form 6-K (including the exhibits hereto) is hereby incorporated by reference into the Registration Statement on Form F-3 (file no. 333-158199).

Forward-looking statements

This Form 6-K and the information incorporated by reference in this Form 6-K include statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. In addition, in the future the Group, the Bank and others on their behalf may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements.

When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information, the risk factors and other information set forth in the Credit Suisse 2010 20-F, and subsequent annual reports on Form 20-F filed by the Group and the Bank with the SEC and the Group's and the Bank's reports on Form 6-K furnished to or filed with the SEC, and other uncertainties and events.

Key information

Condensed consolidated financial statements

The Bank's condensed consolidated financial statements -- unaudited as of and for the six months ended June 30, 2011 and 2010 are attached as an exhibit to this Form 6-K and incorporated herein by reference.

Operating and financial review and prospects

Except where noted, the business of the Bank is substantially the same as the business of the Group, and substantially all of the Bank's operations are conducted through the Private Banking, Investment Banking and Asset Management segments. These segment results are included in Core Results. Certain other assets, liabilities and results of operations are managed as part of the activities of the three segments, however, since they are legally owned by the Group, they are not included in the Bank's consolidated financial statements. These relate principally to the activities of Clariden Leu, Neue Aargauer Bank and BANK-now, which are managed as part of Private Banking, and hedging activities relating to share-based compensation awards. Core Results also includes certain Group corporate center activities that are not applicable to the Bank.

These operations and activities vary from period to period and give rise to differences between the Bank's consolidated assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, including pensions and taxes, and those of the Group.

The discussion of the Group's Core Results for the six months ended June 30, 2011 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2010 is included in the Group's Form 6-K filed with the SEC on August 9, 2011 and incorporated herein by reference. For further information on the differences between the Group and the Bank, refer to Note 28 – Subsidiary guarantee information in V – Condensed consolidated financial statements – unaudited in the Group's financial report for the second quarter of 2011 (Credit Suisse Financial Report 2011).

Media ReleaseCredit Suisse Group and Düsseldorf Public Prosecutor's Office Reach Agreement

Zurich, September 19, 2011 Credit Suisse Group and the Public Prosecutor's Office in Düsseldorf (Germany) have reached an agreement regarding the proceedings against Credit Suisse employees. The entire proceedings are to be resolved. Credit Suisse will make a payment of EUR 150 million (to be taken in 3Q11). The relevant applications will be submitted to the Düsseldorf District Court today by the Düsseldorf Public Prosecutor's Office.

Credit Suisse welcomes this outcome. A complex and prolonged legal dispute has been avoided, with an agreed solution that provides legal certainty

Credit Suisse pursues a strategy of only acquiring and managing assets in compliance with the applicable legislation and regulations. Credit Suisse has been preparing for the changes in cross-border wealth management for a long time and today has a strong presence in Germany, with operations in 12 locations and a team of around 750 employees.

Cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information and non-GAAP information

This press release contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to the following:

- our plans, objectives or goals;
- our future economic performance or prospects;
- the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and
- assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as "believes," "anticipates," "expects," "intends" and "plans" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable securities laws. By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include:

- the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets;
- market and interest rate fluctuations and interest rate levels;
- the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations, in particular the risk of continued slow economic recovery in the US or other developed countries in 2011 and beyond;
- the direct and indirect impacts of continuing deterioration or slow recovery in residential and commercial real estate markets;

- adverse rating actions by credit rating agencies in respect of sovereign issuers, structured credit products or other credit-related exposures;
- the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us;
- the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, trade and tax policies, and currency fluctuations;
- political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity;
- the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which we conduct our operations;
- operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to implement procedures properly;
- actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices in one or more of the countries in which we conduct our operations;
- the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting policies or practices;
- competition in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations;
- the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel;
- the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brand;
- the ability to increase market share and control expenses;
- technological changes;
- the timely development and acceptance of our new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users;
- acquisitions, including the ability to integrate acquired businesses successfully, and divestitures, including the ability to sell non-core assets;
- the adverse resolution of litigation and other contingencies;
- the ability to achieve our cost efficiency goals and cost targets; and
- our success at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

We caution you that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive. When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the foregoing factors and other uncertainties and events, as well as the information set forth in our Annual Report 2010 under IX – Additional information – Risk Factors.

This press release contains non-GAAP financial information. Information needed to reconcile such non-GAAP financial information to the most directly comparable measures under GAAP can be found in the Credit Suisse Financial Release 2Q11.

Introduction

This report filed on Form 6-K contains certain information about Credit Suisse AG to be incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement on Form F-3 (file no. 333-158199). Credit Suisse Group AG's financial release for the third quarter of 2011 (Credit Suisse Financial Release 3Q11) is attached as an exhibit to this Form 6-K and was filed with the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on November 1, 2011. The Bank is incorporating by reference the Credit Suisse Financial Release 3Q11 (except for the sections entitled "Dear shareholders" and "Investor information"). On or about November 10, 2011, Credit Suisse will publish and file with the SEC the Financial Report 3Q11, which will include additional disclosures on (i) fair value of financial instruments, (ii) loans, allowance for loan losses and credit quality, (iii) derivatives and hedging activities, (iv) investment securities, (v) guarantees and commitments, (vi) assets pledged or assigned, and (vii) transfers of financial assets and variable interest entities.

Unless the context otherwise requires, reference herein to "Credit Suisse Group", "Credit Suisse", "the Group", "we", "us" and "our" mean Credit Suisse Group AG and its consolidated subsidiaries and the term "the Bank" means Credit Suisse AG, the Swiss bank subsidiary of the Group, and its consolidated subsidiaries.

The Bank, a Swiss bank and joint stock corporation established under Swiss law, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Group. The Bank's registered head office is in Zurich, and it has additional executive offices and principal branches in London, New York, Hong Kong, Singapore and Tokyo.

References herein to "CHF" are to Swiss francs.

The Credit Suisse Financial Release 3Q11 contains information for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011. The Group's independent registered public accounting firm has not completed its review of the condensed consolidated financial statements (unaudited) for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 and the Group has not finalized its Financial Report for the period. Accordingly, such financial information is subject to completion of quarter-end procedures which may result in changes to that information.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 6-K and the information incorporated by reference in this Form 6-K include statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. In addition, in the future the Group, the Bank and others on their behalf may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements.

When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information, the risk factors and other information set forth in the Group's and the Bank's annual report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2010 (the Credit Suisse 2010 20-F), and subsequent annual reports on Form 20-F filed by the Group and the Bank with the SEC and the Group's and the Bank's reports on Form 6-K furnished to or filed with the SEC, and other uncertainties and events.

Operating and financial review and prospects

Except where noted, the business of the Bank is substantially the same as the business of the Group, and substantially all of the Bank's operations are conducted through the Private Banking, Investment Banking and Asset Management segments. These segment results are included in Core Results. Certain other assets, liabilities and results of operations are managed as part of the activities of the three segments, however, since they are legally owned by the Group, they are not included in the Bank's consolidated financial statements. These relate principally to the activities of Clariden Leu, Neue Aargauer Bank and BANK-now, which are managed as part of Private Banking, and hedging activities relating to share-based compensation awards. Core Results also includes certain Group corporate center activities that are not applicable to the Bank.

These operations and activities vary from period to period and give rise to differences between the Bank's consolidated assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, including pensions and taxes, and those of the Group.

Differences between the Group and the Bank businesses

Entity	Principal business activity
Clariden Leu	Banking and securities
Neue Aargauer Bank	Banking (in the Swiss canton of Aargau)
BANK-now	Private credit and car leasing (in Switzerland)
Financing vehicles of the Group	Special purpose vehicles for various funding activities of the Group, including for purposes of raising consolidated capital

Media Release

Credit Suisse to integrate Clariden Leu

Zurich, November 15, 2011 Credit Suisse announced today that it plans to fully integrate Clariden Leu into its organization. It expects to achieve further growth and annually recurring cost savings of around CHF 200 million as a result of this measure. This is part of the previously announced target to increase Private Banking's contribution to the Group's pre-tax income by CHF 800 million by 2014. Hans-Ulrich Meister, Chief Executive Officer Private Banking of Credit Suisse, has been appointed Chairman of the Board of Directors of Clariden Leu. Hanspeter Kurzmeyer has been named as its new CEO. The legal and operational integration is expected to be completed by the end of 2012. The resulting job cuts are part of the 3% headcount reduction at Credit Suisse Group over two years that was announced on November 1, 2011.

Private Banking is crucial to the success of Credit Suisse

Urs Rohner, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Credit Suisse Group, stated: "Private Banking is crucial to the success of Credit Suisse. In view of the fundamental changes in the industry, we are currently determining which areas to prioritize for growth and investment, and we are focused on further increasing the profitability and efficiency of our Private Banking business. As part of this process, we have analyzed Clariden Leu's contribution and development potential. Based on our analysis, we are convinced that combining Clariden Leu with Credit Suisse represents the best long-term option to create value for clients, shareholders and employees."

Combining of strengths to grow, increase profitability and create new opportunities for clients

Over the last few years, Clariden Leu has positioned itself as a profitable internationally active private bank with proven investment expertise. Credit Suisse expects that the integration of Clariden Leu will enable it to further strengthen its leadership position in global private banking. It will also create new opportunities to better seize growth opportunities, to enhance earnings potential and to expand its business in key international markets. The anticipated annually recurring cost savings of around CHF 200 million are part of the previously announced measures to increase Private Banking's contribution to the Group's pre-tax income by CHF 800 million by 2014. By combining both banks' expertise and business volumes, it will be possible to build on their achievements to date. The service received by Clariden Leu clients will, as far as possible, remain unchanged during and after the integration. In addition, they will be able to benefit from Credit Suisse's extensive expertise as a globally active bank and will gain access to its integrated offering.

Hanspeter Kurzmeyer appointed new CEO of Clariden Leu

Olivier Jaquet has decided to step down as CEO of Clariden Leu Group. Hanspeter Kurzmeyer has been named the new CEO and Head of the integration project, which is expected to be completed by the end of 2012.

A seasoned banker and manager, Hanspeter Kurzmeyer has held various important positions at Credit Suisse for over 30 years and was, until recently, Head of Private Clients Switzerland. Hans-Ulrich Meister, who succeeds Peter Eckert as the Chairman of Clariden Leu, stated: "I wish to thank Peter Eckert and Olivier Jaquet for their commitment and for all they have accomplished at Clariden Leu. I also wish to thank Hanspeter Kurzmeyer for taking on this challenging project. He possesses the wealth of experience needed to lead the integration of Clariden Leu into Credit Suisse and to ensure that the process is conducted in a fair and transparent way, particularly for the employees concerned."

Integration to be completed by end of 2012

It will take several months to complete the legal integration in accordance with the applicable regulatory and legal requirements. The operational integration of all of Clariden Leu's business activities into Credit Suisse should be completed by the end of 2012. A package of measures has been drawn up in consultation with employee representatives for the individuals affected by this measure at both banks.

Cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information and non-GAAP information

This press release contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to the following:

- our plans, objectives or goals;
- our future economic performance or prospects;
- the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and
- assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as "believes," "anticipates," "expects," "intends" and "plans" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable securities laws. By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include:

- the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets;
- market and interest rate fluctuations and interest rate levels;
- the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations, in particular the risk of continued slow economic recovery or downturn in the US or other developed countries in 2011 and beyond;
- the direct and indirect impacts of continuing deterioration or slow recovery in residential and commercial real estate markets;
- adverse rating actions by credit rating agencies in respect of sovereign issuers, structured credit products or other credit-related exposures;
- the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us;
- the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, trade and tax policies, and currency fluctuations;
- political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity;
- the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which we conduct our operations;
- operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to implement procedures properly;
- actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices in one or more of the countries in which we conduct our operations;
- the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting policies or practices;
- competition in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations;
- the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel;
- the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brand;
- the ability to increase market share and control expenses;
- technological changes;
- the timely development and acceptance of our new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users;
- acquisitions, including the ability to integrate acquired businesses successfully, and divestitures, including the ability to sell non-core assets;
- the adverse resolution of litigation and other contingencies;
- the ability to achieve our cost efficiency goals and cost targets; and
- our success at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

We caution you that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive. When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the foregoing factors and other uncertainties and events, as well as the information set forth in our Annual Report 2010 under IX – Additional information – Risk Factors.

This press release contains non-GAAP financial information. Information needed to reconcile such non-GAAP financial information to the most directly comparable measures under GAAP can be found in the Credit Suisse Financial Release 3Q11.
